Pensions for Texas Rangers.

For the benefit of the Texas Rangers, who have applied for a pension under the Federal Act of March 4, 1917, we quote from a letter to J. M. Hamilton by Hon. James L. Shaday, the following:

Washington, D. C., June 3, 1918.—Mr. J. M. Hamilton, Kerrville, Texas.

—Dear Jack: Your favor of May 28th is at hand. The situation with regard to the Indian Wars Pension Act is very unfortunate. Twice the Act has been amended with the view solely to making it apply to the Texas Rangers. The last time the amendment was written by Senator Culberson, who is a lawyer and who thought he had worded it so that it would include all those engaged in the Ranger or Frontier Service in Texas. But it did not and we will have to amend the law again. Enclosed please find a document issued by the Committee on Pensions which will explain the situation to you fully. Sincerely yours,

JAMES L. SLAYDEN

Women's Hobby Club.

The Women's Hobby Club of Kerr County is now a thriving organization of some 130 members, the number rapidly increasing. The meetings are held every Saturday afternoon from 5 to 6 o'clock at Pampell's Hall. Some instruction in voting is given at every meeting, and addresses are heard in favor of Hobby for Governor.

Now, it is believed that the great body of Texas women is in favor of Hobby for Governor of our State. The surest way to get results is to vote for him, and voting women can accomplish most by doing team-work with some organization in each county. All the women in Kerr County, who wish to vote for Hobby, are invited and urgently requested to attend the meetings and join the Hobby Club.

The Campaign Committee is now at work to organize throughout the county, and they expect to reach every point.

The Executive Committee of the local club is as follows:

Mrs. Geo. Morris, Mrs. A. C. Schreiner, Mrs. R. S. Newman; Mrs. K. G. Baker, secretary; Mrs. H. C. Geddie, chairman ex-officio.

Next Saturday, at the regular meeting, Judge Geddie will address the members, and the men are cordially invited. Other speakers of prominence will be had here at future meetings.

COUNTY CANDIDATES SUB-

MIT TO ACTION OF PRIMARY

The Mountain Sun commends the action of the Kerr County candidates in submitting their announcements to the Democratic primary election on July 27th.

By this action on their part it assures the Democratic organization of a full vote in said primary and also a means of paying the necessary election expenses.

The women of the community who desire to exercise the franchise recently placed in their hands, will have the opportunity of passing upon the claims of each of the county candidates at the same time they pass upon the merits of the State and district candidates.

All of our officials are Democrats and this action shows that they are willing that the organization of which they are a part shall have their cooperation and assistance in getting out the vote in the primary.

We believe that the public will command their action and will give them hearty support at the coming primary. This is no time for division on any question. We should all stand together as a unit, not only on the various war measures, but on political questions also.

Elsewhere in this issue of The Sun will be found the names of the following candidates who have authorized us to announce their candidacy for the different county offices, subject to the action of the Democratic primary to be held July 27, 1918:

For County Judge, Lee Wallace; County Attorney, W. G. Garrett; District and County Clerk, John R. Leavell; Sheriff and Tax Collector, J. T. Moore; Tax Assessor, W. G. Peterson; County Treasurer, A. B. Williamson; Justice of the Peace, Precinct No. 1, E. H. Turner; Constable, Precinct No. 1, Henry Staudt.

Notice to the Public.

The people must save and invest their savings in War Savings Stamps during the remainder of 1918.

Prior to June 28th, telephone or otherwise urge everybody in your school district to be present promptly at the opening of the War Stamp Meeting. This meeting will be held promptly at 2 o'clock. Some person familiar with the Thrift Stamp plan will be present to address the meeting.

SERVICE FLAG ENTERTAINMENT HELD AT INGRAM

MENT HELD AT INGRAM

Saturday afternoon, June 15, from 1:30 to 5:00 p. m., the local patrol of Boy Scouts will recruit boys for their organization. All applicants must be between the ages of 12 and 18 years.

All boys who sign up Saturday may pass the "Tenderfoot" examination and will then be put on the waiting list until September, when they will pay the regular dues of twenty-five cents for one year.

There will be three officers and several privates on duty Saturday afternoon, at the Post Office, to receive applications for enlistment. The officers are: Senior Patrol Leader Chas. J. Wesch Jr., in command; Patrol Leader Bruce V. Magee, and Assistant Patrol Leader Roist. R. Hagens.

All boys who are too young to enlist in the Army or Navy, and who really want to help Uncle Sam, can do so now by enlisting in the Boy Scouts of America. He can sell Thrift and War Savings Stamps and Liberty Bonds, raise war gardens and assist in the work of the Government to fight the lies and propaganda, spread in this country by the German agents, with the truth. What better could a patriotic boy want?

All you have to do is to walk up to one of the officers and express your wish to enlist. You sign your name to the application blank, pass the examination, pay your dues in September and you are registered as a full-fledged Scout.

Notice to the Public.

The people must save and invest their savings in War Savings Stamps during the remainder of 1918.

Prior to June 28th, telephone or otherwise urge everybody in your school district to be present promptly at the opening of the War Stamp Meeting. This meeting will be held promptly at 2 o'clock. Some person familiar with the Thrift Stamp plan will be present to address the meeting.

Dr. Vinson Lauds Hudspeth.

November 4th, 1917, friends of Senator Claude B. Hudspeth gave him a luncheon at El Paso. Dr. R. E. Vinson, president of the University of Texas, traveled 700 miles in order to attend this luncheon and voice his sentiments in favor of his friend, Senator Hudspeth, and during his address declared that the friendship that existed between him and Senator Hudspeth had been welded in fire. "I have always found him," he said, "a man who was open minded, a man whose own success did not blind him. I have always found him to be a man seeking for knowledge, a man who wanted to know about things; a man who was ever in the search of the things that would be best. That kind of a man is the hope of this Nation today. That kind of a man is a growing man. It seems to me that is the kind of a man American people can trust. If this Democracy is to be a success it is the kind of man we must trust."

"The law department of the university asked me for a definition of a politician. Here was my definition: 'I think a politician is nothing in the world but a citizen in action.' Think that over. The time is coming, if it is not already here, when every able-bodied man is going to have a uniform or a reason. Our civilization is face to face with destruction; the hoods of the Hunns are stamping down and trying to crush out those things and principles for which men have died. These are in the crucible. It is the time when every man must express himself."

In concluding his address, Dr. Vinson declared Senator Hudspeth measured up to his definition of a politician—"a citizen in action." "I have heard men," he said, "who have been his political enemies say there were three things he would do: First, he would always fight in the open; second, he would always fight hard; and third, he knew how to accept defeat. They tell me he is the kind of a man who fights with his heart in his hand. He did that at Austin and they say he would do that in the Capitol at Washington." The latter was greeted with vociferous cheers.

MENT HELD AT INGRAM

The Service Flag entertainment in Ingram last Friday night was one of the best ever given in that part of the country. Every number on the program was an outburst of loyalty and patriotism. The instrumental music was good. The songs, accompanied by the violin and guitar, were appropriate selections.

While the Male Quartette rendered "Help the Allies Today" each stanza was illustrated by a number of children, who filed out as their parts were being sung—Allies, Gardeners, Sailors and Soldiers, Red Cross, and banners for each authorized organization aiding in this war. The Tableaus were beautiful and fit in nicely with the other numbers on the program.

Miss Elizabeth Nichols' recitation, "The Service Flag gin the Window," was especially good and made a beautifull introduction to Dr. Fowler's address, presenting the Ingram Service Flag.

The patriotic play, "Mrs. Tubbs Does Her Bit," would be a rousing hit at this time, but it does stirring times it was especially appealing to the large audience.

Following is the address made by Dr. J. L. Fowler, who presented the Ingram Service Flag:

Every country has its flag, its colors that are supposed to symbolize the principles for which that nation stands for. When our forefathers, with Washington at their head, were selecting colors that should typify the principles for which we have ever stood—Freedom, Justice and Equality—they selected red for courage, which signifies bravery that keeps us from every stain of selfishness or wrong. You remember it was the red pillar of fire that in the darkness of night guided the chosen people of God out of bondage toward a land of peace. White stands for purity—purity of purpose, purity of action and purity in thought. As the seven colors of life's rainbow are focused through the prism of our lives into the white light of perfect purity we will radiate the fullness of joy and gladness to the needy we touch. We, the people of the United States should be pure as white is pure—not through a blind ignorance of the blackness and sorrows of others, but with a fortifying knowledge of all their needs and a purity of heart and soul that leads us to their aid; for freely we have received, freely let us give. The significance of blue is true. Will we be able to live up to it? Blue being within itself a perfect blend of the pure rich red of love and comradeship and the clear bright blue of truth, equally balancing the elements that constitute justice and brotherhood. It gives us the absolute authority of kingship, the sovereignty of the people. Surely within this beautiful and significant blend of colors we shall assert our divine heritage of Freedom, Justice and Equality.

When we turn to the Golden Star we are forcibly reminded of the noble bandmaster on the Titanic, singing that sacred song, "Nearer, My God, to Thee." It typifies for us the deep purity of view of thought and purpose of those who so recently followed our blessed Master, who died that we might live. No color could more appropriately represent the sacrifice of a true soldier than gold. With its purchasing power, in its enduring qualities, for no rust destroys its purity... The principles gained by the blood of patriots stand as a monument through all ages, living in song and story of the mighty influence upon the hearts of men.

The Service Flag combines these colors, using as a border the red. Pure white is the center, while the stars are made of blue and will be replaced with gold for every boy who dies while in service. We are here tonight to present this flag, with its red, white and blue, to the people of Ingram—to the fathers and mothers of the boys who have answered our country's call, and a gold star will be placed in this field of white for every one of those who will go. God bless

BRITISH OFFICERS AID IN STRUGGLE IN GAS DEFENSE

Because of the instruction of gas officers who have been at the various camps for the last six months, the troops which are going forward to France are well posted on methods of combating gas attacks, says a statement authorized by the War Department. A group of British gas officers has been in this country since last summer. One of these men has been at each of the training camps, advising and assisting the division gas officer.

All the men going overseas are supplied with gas helmets. Under the division gas officers and their assistants, the men are drilled in the use of masks, taught how to detect the presence of gas, and given actual experience with different sorts of gases. Mimic gas shells and cloud attacks, used often at night in connection with high explosives, help to make the training realistic.

The United States has been able to build on the experience of the British and French, to whom gas attacks were unknown when they entered the war. No American troops have been sent to the front without practical experience in defending themselves against gas.

The training of instructors in gas defense includes a course of about one month. Most of the gas officers are commissioned first lieutenants.

In March and April the Secretary of Agriculture, on recommendation of the Office of Public Roads and Rural Engineering, approved 212 State road-building projects involving more than 2,500 miles of highways under the Federal aid road act. The estimated cost of these improvements to the States is about $15,000,000. The Federal aid allowed is more than $5,000,000.

The main duty of noncombatant Americans briefly may be stated as follows:

Increase production, economize in consumption, lend your savings to the Government, and hold your Liberty Bonds.

Don't wait to be urged to join the W. S. S. army. What if our men in the trenches waited to be urged?

It is a colorless, odorless and tasteless preparation. It is slow but sure in action and leaves no bad after effects. WONDERFUL STUFF!

LIFT OUT YOUR CORNS

Apply a Few Drops Then Lift Corns or Calluses Off With Fingers—No Pain.

No humbug! Any corn, whether hard, soft or between the toes, will loosen right up and lift out, without a particle of pain or soreness.

This drug is called freezone and is a compound of ether discovered by a Cincinnati man.

Ask at any drug store for a small bottle of freezone, which will cost but a trifle, but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every corn or callus.

Put a few drops directly upon any tender, aching corn or callus. Instantly the soreness disappears and shortly the corn or callus will loosen and can be lifted off with the fingers.

This drug freezone doesn't eat out the corn or callus but shrivels them without even irritating the surrounding skin.

Just think! No pain at all; no soreness or smarting when applying it or afterwards. If your druggist don't have freezone have him order it for you.

CALOMEL SALIVATES AND MAKES YOU SICK

Acts Like Dynamite on a Sluggish Liver and You Lose a Day's Work.

There's no reason why a person should take salivation salivation calomel when a few cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone—a perfect substitute for calomel.

It is a pleasant, vegetable syrup which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and can not salivate.

Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tone because it is perfectly harmless.

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone instead and you will wake up feeling great. No more mildness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach. Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tone acts better than horrible calomel, your money is waiting for you.

To Prevent Belching.

Make a regular habit of eating slowly, masticate your food thoroughly, and you may have no further trouble. If you should, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper.

MANY OPPORTUNITIES ARE OPEN FOR SPECIALISTS

There is a list of 137 occupations where the demand for men in the War Department constantly exceeds the supply.

A pressing need exists in the Army for men experienced in handling mules and before all future needs are met a recruiting campaign may become necessary. No difficulty has been experienced in getting men who can buy and handle horses, but blacksmiths are scarce.

There is a constant demand for butchers, and cooks are greatly needed. In several technical branches, particularly the engineers, men for the higher positions are plentiful but the workers for the ranks are scarce. Experienced mechanics, especially those familiar with automobiles are always in demand.

More interpreters than can be used have applied for positions with the War Department, and applications for commissions as Army chaplains are also in excess of the need. Clerks for general work are plentiful, but there is demand for specialists. At present there is a surplus of dentists and pharmacists.

BANDS ENLARGER—BUGLE AND DRUM CORPS ORGANIZED

Acting on a suggestion of General Pershing an order has been issued increasing each regiment's band from 28 to 50 members. Band leaders having had more than five years' military experience as band leaders will be made first lieutenants; those with less than five years' experience will be made second lieutenants.

Beside enlarging the bands a bugle and drum corps will be added to each regiment. Each corps will include the company buglers of its regiment, and not more than 13 drummers.

GAS MASKS FOR HORSES ARE SENT TO FRANCE

The Gas Defense Service is now manufacturing about 5,000 horse gas masks per day. These are being sent to France, and it is expected that within a short time every horse connected with the American Expeditionary Forces will be equipped with the new masks.

The Gas Defense Service has a completely equipped factory for the manufacture of the masks. In less than three weeks a building was selected and the factory was producing masks. The introduction of riveting machinery has done away with the heavy hand sewing of the frame which supports the masks on the faces of the horses. The masks are so constructed that no metal or chemically impregnated parts can chafe the horse.

The Doctor Away From Home When Most Needed.

People are often very much disappointed to find that their family physician is away from home when they most need his services. Diseases like pain in the stomach and bowels, colic and diarrhoea require prompt treatment, and have in many instances proven fatal before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. The right way is to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. No physician can prescribe a better medicine for these diseases. By having it in the house you escape much pain and suffering and all risk. Buy it now; it may save life.

Arrangements have been made for a reduced fare of approximately 1 cent a mile for soldiers and sailors who desire to visit their homes before going overseas.

TWO POPULAR ERRORS.

Texas Monthly Review: The test of the ten-mile zone law in the Court of Criminal Appeals has resulted in considerable discussion of two questions which do not exist. On of these is whether the State-wide prohibition law will repeal the zone law. The other is whether, in upholding the zone law, the Court of Criminal Appeals did not uphold the State wide law also.

Regarding the first of these questions, it may be pointed out that the State-wide law contains a provision specifically stating that the law is to be considered cumulative and that its passage does not suspend the operation of existing prohibitory laws. It follows that, if the State-wide law be upheld as sound throughout, the zones created by the ten-mile law will continue to exist, although existing within a dry State. What attitude the courts may take toward a condition of this kind is problematical, but it was the expressed intent of the Legislature that the ten-mile dry zones should not be abolished by the operation of the law making the entire State dry.

There is nothing in the majority opinion of the Court of Criminal Appeals in the zone law test case to warrant a belief that the State-wide law's fate was decided in that case. On the contrary, Judge Morrow clearly indicated that the court was not judging the State-wide act and this law must be considered on its merits later, in case a test is made of it. The majority opinion held the zone law constitutional as a regulatory measure within the police power of the State and not as an outright act of prohibition. "The Legislature's power to prohibit having never been asserted, has not been decided by the courts," according to the majority opinion. "The Constitution affords no guaranty of the privilege of selling intoxicating liquors in any specified locality in Tarrant County," says the opinion elsewhere. The decision cannot be considered a bar to a test case of the State-wide act and, whether or not any such test is made after that act goes into effect, its constitutionality still is an open question.

All the cruelty we see or otherwise experience in this world is due to our inability to feel another's pain. Mankind has made ninety-nine per cent advance in theory to one percent in practice. Fiske, in his "Destiny of Mankind," tells us (taking the theory of evolution to be true) that we have made more progress in intelligence than in kindness. To this fact he attributes war; believing that as kindness overtakes intelligence war will gradually decrease and finally cease. This is a consummation devoutly to be wished. This leads us to the conclusion that all injustice, and all injustice is crime, is due to ignorance—that form of ignorance that renders it impossible for erring humanity to determine between right and wrong. The greatest sages and scholars of all history have sought to teach this difference to very little avail if any; humanity has not yet reached that stage of psychic development that brings a full understanding. There have been individua-cases of this full development perhaps, in the ages past, but history fails to record but one—Jesus Christ. The manner of His death proves that man was then unfit to receive the message that would have made them as kind as intelligent, and the present condition of world-wide warfare proves that man is still unfit. Faith and hope, both God-given qualities, must keep mankind alive till the Day of Perfection.

Fischer of the Riesel Rustler tells us "the dirt roads are good in dry weather, sandy roads are good in wet weather, but gravel roads are good in all kinds of weather." Correct you are, Fischer, and may you live to see a weather-proof road from Riesel to every other point in the State—which would necessarily include the town.

A peculiar trait of nearly every man you meet is that he would rather give away five dollars than be beat out of five cents. And this is easy of explanation. To give the five cents satisfies his sense of generosity (a form of vanity no one objects to) while to be beat out of five cents convinces him that he is still just that much of a chump.

In Luling recently a man named Kellar was tarred and feathered and made to leave town for refusing to contribute to the Red Cross. Drastic? Certainly, and it showed the mob spirit, too; but when it is considered that Kellar came to Luling years ago flat broke, was given employment and eventually amassed quite a competence, his refusal to aid the country that made him what he was financially showed him to be more hog than man. We are sorry the gang tarred and feathered him, but we don't blame 'em for running him out of town. We wouldn't want to live in the same town with one of his kind either.

Condemn neither man nor measure unless you feel sure you understand both. Your individual conception even then is not positive evidence of full comprehension, especially if you are conscious of the slightest prejudice. Seek the views of others, and pick those others carefully, for they may know no more than you, before arriving at definite conclusion. See also that they are unbiased, for you do not go to them seeking a mere preference—doubtless you have already formed that—you go to them for information that will approve or disapprove your preference, and thereby confirm you in doing your conscientious duty.

Senator Vincent of Louisiana recently made a statement in which he said he favored fifteen hundred dollars for members of the Legislature of that State, and that they were moral cowards for not voting themselves that increase. "I have given twenty of the best years of my life to public service," he said, "and it has cost me more than four thousand dollars more than I have gotten out of it. If I am worth anything at all to my people, I am worth a sufficient sum to defray the expenses of my living while serving them." Senator Vincent simply voices the idea, now very strongly prevalent in Texas, that if public officials were adequately paid we would get much more efficient service—and save the State a lot of money it is now paying out for incompetency. Texas should have the best officials possible, but good men are hard to get unless the pay is sufficient to live on.

A news dispatch from Washington of the 5th says: "Further prohibition legislation at this time appears unlikely. After an announcement by Senator Morris Sheppard that President Wilson opposes action unless it should be recommended by Mr. Hoover, Mr. Sheppard says Mr. Hoover also opposes any further prohibition action." The prohibition question right now should worry nobody. The Federal Government has it under absolute control; it is like a bulldog muzzled; no one need fear it. There are many more issues to settle now; live issues of greater moment. The liveliest, the main issue, is to win the war. All other issues should be forgotten. The man who shuns his eyes to this fact should have them opened by force; he is helping the Kaiser as much as any other slacker by diverting public attention to other ends than winning the war. When the war is over we can again take up our own family affairs. We can't go ahead closing up saloons (if there are any left to close), chasing scarlet women out of town (if there are any left to chase) and otherwise cleaning each other's plow. But right now let's give our entire attention to cleaning the Kaiser's plow. It needs cleaning worse than ours. Let our National slogan be: "Win the War!"

TAXING PROFITEERS.

Temple Telegram: President Wilson, in his address to Congress, paid his respects to the profiteers and suggested, that if they can not be reached by conscience, that the taxing power might be employed to good effect.

Surely such a profound thinker and statesman as the President has proved himself to be, can not seriously think that increasing taxes is going to decrease the swollen fortunes of the profiteers.

There is nothing to prevent the latter from passing the increase on to the already heavily burdened consumer with a slight addition to make up for any miscalculation.

Profiteering is capable of being controlled in several very effective ways, but taxation is not one of them.

The country has already been plundered to an unheard-of-extent by this class of commercial pirates and it is only because we are as a Nation tremendously rich in our resources that the people can stand the gaff without flinching.

It occurs to us, that taxing profiteers will result in super-profitting and give opportunities for further exploiting the people.

The war hogs have flourished in all times and in all climes, but we are hopeful, that in time this great country will find a way to relegate them to the oblivion which they will so richly adorn.

War Passions Hurt Cause.

St. Louis Times: President Wilson has asked the American people to avoid and guard against acts which will create race hatred or class prejudice. More timely words of wisdom could not be uttered. There are millions of citizens in the United States who are of foreign ancestry—English, French, German, Austrian, Irish, Greek, Italian and other nationalities. All are thrown together in the great American melting pot. They are Americans now and nothing less. Their sons have enlisted and are fighting our battles and they will win in the end. They are not responsible for their ancestry. The fact that our boys have left behind a father and mother, who, unfortunately, can read no language other than their mother tongue does not warrant unjust discrimination against them.

Such discrimination is un-American and not in keeping with the Constitution of the United States. It is a direct interference in the personal liberty and rights of the people. The unthinking who are endeavoring to breed class hatred in our own ranks are as un-American, undemocratic and brutal as the Kaiser himself. Assuming that the tendencies of the agitators were to be followed, what would become of those patriotic loyal Americans of German and Austrian ancestry who have given their boys to fight for our cause? By reason of such unjust, unfair and un-American discrimination against them, they would be unable to live in the United States, and if they were forced to return to Germany or Austria they would immediately be subjected to imprisonment and even more outrageous punishment by the Kaiser and the Hohenzollerns because of their having sworn allegiance to the United States of America. They would become a people without a country and a people without a place of refuge. No patriotic American will subscribe or lend himself to any movement which interferes or affects the rights of his fellow-Americans, be their ancestry what it may, for that is a matter in which they had no voice and over which they had no control.

Says the Bartlett Tribune: "It seems to us that after June 26, when the beer is no more, ice should be cheaper." What use will Bartlett have for ice, Cates, "when the beer is no more?"

The public's conception of human rights and freedom has its crowning climax in the right to vote, and yet there are so many that do not value that greatest of all liberties at one dollar and seventy-five cents. After an election is over these same fellows register seventeen dollars and a quarter worth of kicks over the results.

About the only way we can account for so many of our exchanges dropping their editorial pages since the war began is that the editors have joined the army and left incompetent devils to publish their papers. Usually when left to the devil the paper shows a marked improvement editorially—at least the devil thinks so. We are thinking of taking our vacation soon; watch this page.

If any State has not regulated the subject to its satisfaction there is nothing to prevent its doing so. The objection to Federal regulation is partly that such regulation is unnecessary and confusing, but chiefly that it is contrary to our political institutions, which after all are worth preserving. The critics of the Supreme Court who politely remark that the decision "increases their contempt for the court" are more zealous than judicious.

For some reason the Kaiser forgot to announce that the British sea raid on Zeebrugge was a great German victory.—Del Rio News.

Watt, a small inland town in the northwestern part of Limestone County, is probably the banner community of the country; so far as Red Cross work is concerned. Its quota in the recent drive was $100, but they have raised something over $700 for this worthy cause and are still getting more. Watt you think of that? —Mexia Herald.

The Justice of the Peace of Denison, whose name is Wilson, says he will fine every vagrant who comes within his knowledge and give him the limit of the law. This is wisdom on the part of the Denison justice, and he is setting an example that could well be followed by every justice throughout the country. In fact some of them are already doing that very thing; they started out in advance of the Denison justice, and are doing good work along that line.—Honey Grove Citizen.

Because of its decisions in regard to interstate shipments of goods made in whole or in part by child labor, Senator Owen of Oklahoma would muzzle the Supreme Court. Is the Senator prepared to say that Congress can determine for the people of Oklahoma who shall work and when and where? If an Oklahoma boy sees fit to pick cotton, is that a decision of the Congress at Washington? If it's a matter of grave import, can't the people of Oklahoma determine the question for themselves? Must Rhode Islanders have their domestic concerns controlled by Oklahomans? Would Oklahomans relish Rhode Islanders telling them when and where to drill for oil and who should do the work?—Waco Times-Herald.

The Child Labor Decision.

New York Times: The child labor law decision recites that there is a law on the subject in every State. Therefore it is to be presumed that every State has regulated the subject in advance of unity of legislation in the manner it prefers. Certainly if any State has not regulated the subject to its satisfaction there is nothing to prevent its doing so. The objection to Federal regulation is partly that such regulation is unnecessary and confusing, but chiefly that it is contrary to our political institutions, which after all are worth preserving. The critics of the Supreme Court who politely remark that the decision "increases their contempt for the court" are more zealous than judicious.

Hold Your Liberty Bonds.

"I earnestly hope that every one who has bought Liberty Bonds will try to keep them for the period of the war at least." * * * If each and every purchaser keeps his Liberty Bond he helps to protect the credit of the Government by maintaining the market for the bonds at par, which is a very helpful thing in war time, and he also renders a more essential service to our soldiers and sailors in the field by practicing those economies and savings which release materials and labor necessary to the support, if not the very life, of our Army and Navy." —Secretary McAdoo.

Is a Goat a Fish?

Philadelphia Telegram: The entire scientific and argumentative force of the Government, as well as the Bureau of Fisheries and the keeper of the zoo, may be called upon to decide a momentous question.

In the classification of things, Washington is occasionally called upon to perform the phenomenal. Only a short time ago the Government was asked to declare that a frog was a chicken; and later that a lobster was an animal. In Arizona they are claiming that goat meat is not meat, notwithstanding the fact that it has frequently been sold as veal, mutton and also venison, and they are demanding that the Food Commission agree with them.

What decision the Government may make has not been indicated, but there is some reason to believe that the Arizona people who want to eat goat on meatless days will end up down to the fish market and buy a mackerel.

Not Enough Scenery.

Christian Science Monitor: The Negro stevedores of the Southern States of the American Union have been conscripted and shipped in great numbers to ports in France for unloading the incoming American steamers. Their cheerfulness has quite captivated the gayety-loving French, who never tire of listening to their laughter and their ragtime songs.

When the "bosses" want to get a dockyard job done in doublequick time they usually order a brass band to play lively Negro tunes alongside the ship. Every stevedore therewith "steps lively" and apparently his heavy labor becomes to him a light and joyous task. One stevedore, to whom the Atlantic voyage had been a test, exclaimed:

"Mah goodness! Ah never knew de was so much water between dem two countries. Dere ain't enuf scenery for me; no sah, an' if de United States don't build a bridge across dat darn Atlantic, Ab's agwine to be a French man, for life!"

NEW U. S. RULES ON COMMERCIAL FISHING GIVEN

Local Restrictions Generally Removed; Seining Authorized Without Regard to State's Closed Season.

With the new rules and regulations governing the Fish Industry of America, guaranteeing freedom of movement and production to the fisherman and the distributor, and lifting many restrictions and hardships which served to paralyze the industry, Texas should from now on have an abundance of good sea-food at a reasonable price.

All distributors have been notified by Administrator Peden to submit at once a schedule of costs and quantities of fish handled. Every effort is to be put forth to secure a stabilization of prices and to free the market of the speculative influences which too frequently made Texas fish cheaper in St. Louis and Kansas City than in San Antonio or Dallas.

All dealers and all fishermen are required under the rules and regulations to have license, which may be secured from the License Division at Washington free of cost. Failure to comply with the rules and regulations, or proof of speculation, eliminates automatically the fish dealer or fisherman from the field of fish production.

Dealers are required to submit address and change of address; to make reports under oath when requested; to be prepared at all times for inspection; to eliminate all waste, or suffer penalization if they fail to do so; they are forbidden to enter into fishing arrangements with persons or firms not holding license; only wholesome seafood will be shipped; containers not full must be so labeled; willful violation of contracts are forbidden; every effort must be put forth to market all seafood taken; damage to gear and equipment is forbidden.

The Federal law replaces the State law with the one exception: fishing is not to be followed by the use of seines at channels connecting one body of water with another. All persons fishing and selling fish must be licensed.

INCREASE IN ARMY MORE

THAN 1,500 PER CENT

One of the interesting developments of the war, according to a statement authorized by the War Department, is the rapid expansion of the various bureaus of the War Department.

At the outbreak of the war there were less than 3,000 employees on duty. The number now is approximately 25,000, an increase of 800 per cent.

While this represents a tremendous expansion, the increase in the Army itself has been more than 1,500 per cent.

The increase in personnel at the administrative end of the war thus has not kept pace with the growth of the Military Establishment.

Chronic Constipation

Perhaps you have never thought of it, but this disorder is due to a lack of moisture in the residual matter of the food. If you will drink an abundance of water, eat raw fruits and take lots of outdoor exercise, you may be able eventually to overcome it entirely. In the meantime use the most mild and gentle laxatives. Strong and harsh cathartics take too much water out of the system and make a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Tablets are easy and pleasant to take, and most agreeable in effect. Give them a trial.

WHAT CATARRH IS

Science has shown that nasal catarrh often indicates a general weakness of the body and local treatments in the form of snuffs and vapors only irritate and do little if any good.

To correct catarrh you should treat its cause by enriching your blood with the oil-food in Scott's Emulsion which is a medicinal food and a building tonic, free from any harmful drugs. It is helping thousands. Try it.

MOTHER! DON'T TAKE CHANCES IF CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED

If Cross, Feverish, Sick, Bilious, Clean Little Liver and Bowels.

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, Mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold, or has sore throat or any other child's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Miss Angeline Kemper is remembering Notre Dame Institute with valuable Indian souvenirs, which she sent from the Cliff Dwellings of Frijoles Canyon and Pajarito Park, New Mexico, and from the Reservations of Laguna and Acoma in Arizona. Most of last week she spent in and around Santa Fe, and the major part of this week will be enjoyed in the Petrified Forests and Grand Canyon.

Last Tuesday, Mr. Louis Jung and family of Harper visited some of their local kinfolk.

Jim Whelan was called to Corpus Christi on account of the serious illness of his father.

Mr. Randolph Staudt returned from the Government cantonments around Del Rio and is again working in Kerrville.

BROWNING MACHINE GUN

PASSES AIRPLANE TESTS

The Browning machine gun has successfully undergone a test to determine its value for use with aircraft. This is one of the three types of machine guns with which the rate of fire can be so synchronized with the revolutions of the propeller of a tractor airplane that the gun can be fired by the pilot of a combat plane through the revolving blades.

Airplane propellers revolve at from 800 to 2,000 revolutions per minute.

The machine gun is connected with the airplane engine by a mechanical or hydraulic device, and impulses from the crank shaft are transmitted to the machine gun. The rate of fire of the machine gun is constant and its fire is synchronized with the revolving propeller blades by "wasting" a certain percentage of the impulses it receives from the airplane engine and by having the remaining impulses trip or pull the trigger so that the gun fires just at the fraction of the second when the propeller blades are clear of the line of fire.

The pilot operates the gun by means of a lever which controls the circuit and allows the impulses to trip the trigger.

Increased demands for common labor are shown by a recent employment survey by the United States Employment Service. Fifty-three centers have calls exceeding the present supply, while but three cities, all in the West, report a surplus. Normal conditions are reported by 25 cities.

Bottlers of soft drinks in the United States may save approximately 50,000 tons of sugar annually by using other sweetening materials, according to investigations by specialists of the Bureau of Agriculture. The Bureau of Chemistry is preparing to furnish bottlers with sweetening formulas that will allow the actual sugar content in soft drinks to be cut to 50 per cent or less and at the same time will preserve the customary taste of the beverages. Starch sugar, starch syrup, maltose syrup, and honey are the substitutes used.
