BACCALAUREATE SERMON ELOQUENT DISSERTATION

Last Sunday morning in the Tivy High School Auditorium, an immense throng of Kerrville people gathered to witness and hear the Commencement exercises.

The Auditorium was beautifully and artistically decorated in the class colors—with long streamers of green and white—while the trophy silver cups, filled with flowers, were on the platform, with vases containing similar specimens of our flower yards and green houses properly placed, the combination making a harmonious and pleasing sight.

The choir that sang was composed of leading singers from the various churches, and Miss Martha Holt played the piano as the Graduating Class marched into the Auditorium from the two main entrances. This class made an impressive appearance in their gowns and caps, a total of twenty-five—seventeen boys and eight girls—which is different from most graduating classes in recent years, as the girls usually predominate.

Mrs. J. W. Burney was the accompanist for the choir and also for Miss Jewell Carey, who sang beautifully a very lovely song.

Rev. Dr. Macdougall, rector of the Episcopal Church, this city, was master of ceremonies, and as usual acquitted himself most creditably.

Rev. J. E. James, pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Gonzales, preached the Baccalaureate sermon. He had as his text, Philippians 3:13-14: "Brethren I count not myself to have apprehended; but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are ahead, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

The able and eloquent speaker described in a vivid way the personnel of the great Apostle Paul, the author of these memorable words, that are fraught with so much meaning. He told of Paul, the high born, the scholar, the Pharisee of Pharisees, but that high worldly position he sacrificed that he might follow Jesus Christ. Nor did this noble man resent his crosses when poverty, pain and misery were his portion.

Dr. James depicted an athletic contest in the days of Paul, when the trained contestants toed the mark with every muscle tense awaiting the word to go. They did not look to the right nor to the left, though thousands eagerly watched the grand exhibition, but they looked ahead and as they ran the course, they pressed forward toward the mark of the prizes of victory.

In referring to the position of the student body, just entering upon the more serious problems of life, the eloquent divine stressed the importance of clean, moral and religious conduct. Also, that whatever they undertook, let them make the aim high, and then press toward the mark for the prize.

SENIOR PLAY

Monday night, some of the Seniors, aided by a few of the Juniors, rendered a play, "An Old Fashioned Mother," at the High School Auditorium, in a most able manner. Those participating were:

Mary Claire Williams, Minnie Dietert, Annie Claire Enderle, Enola Klien, Blanche Shumaker, Anna Neblett Thorburn, Marshall Leazar, Wm. Henry Rawson, Clarence Mosel, Raymond Fisk, Bruce Magee and John Sancier.

Senior Entertainments

Wednesday evening of last week, Edwin Pryor entertained the Seniors out at his home, three miles from town. The guests began to arrive at 8 o'clock, were requested to take a seat at the tables, which were fixed outside, where a salad course was served. Brick ice cream and cake in the class colors, green and white, were served at the close of the salad course. Fisk's Orchestra supplied music for those who cared to dance, while others played "Forty-Two" outdoors by the light of a lamp. Ice cream was served after dancing was stopped, and all the guests returned home after spending an enjoyable evening.

The G. R. Girls entertained the Seniors at the home of Mrs. Ola B. Gammon Thursday night of last week. The rooms were artistically decorated and showed a great deal of work had been done to make it look so attractive. Games were played throughout the evening. Punch and cake were served out on the porch. The Seniors all had their fortunes told, after which yells were given for the G. R.'s and Gammon.

The Junior-Senior reception was held in the High School Auditorium last Friday night. The room was decorated in colors of green and white. After a few contests were played partners were selected and all marched into a room which was partitioned off from the main floor, where tables were set and a chicken salad course was served. Brick ice cream and cake in green and white were served. The Juniors deserve a great deal of credit for their work, and an enjoyable evening was spent by everyone.

Last Saturday the class held Senior Day Exercises in the Auditorium at 10 a. m. The program was as follows: Song, "Star Spangled Banner"; prayer, Rev. J. G. Timmons; speech, G. C. Moses; class history, Annie Claire Enderle; class will, John Sancier; class prophecy, Bruce Magee; class poem, Edwin Pryor; talk, W. L. Jordan; yell, Seniors. REPORTER.

PRINCIPLES OF AMERICANISM FORCEFULLY EXPOUNDED

The Commencement program Tuesday evening of the Tivy High School Graduating Class was most interesting and impressive. The decorations had remained from Sunday's exercises, and this time the class had seats upon the stage—the twenty-five young people in their caps and gowns presenting an inspiring appearance.

Dr. E. Galbraith, president of the School Board, was master of ceremonies. The invocation by Rev. J. Grady Timmons was soul-stirring and deeply religious, in supplication for the young men and women just entering on the actualities of life.

Dr. Galbraith, in brief and well chosen words, introduced Mayor O. B. Black of San Antonio, who had been selected to make the address to the Class of 1922. The subject of the speaker was "Americanism," and in dilating upon it he delved into history to show the outstanding epochs that brought about the discovery and development of this Republic, the greatest in all time.

Mayor Black urged the importance of education upon the members of the highly creditable Class of 1922, and said it was greater to be desired than riches or high honors. He quoted from noted authors, in which they stressed the supreme value of education to mankind. The distinguished speaker also cited the wonderful advancement of education in this country, and while Texas had made creditable strides, had not reached the zenith, nor what her resources and citizenship warranted, but that this shortcoming would be overcome.

Mayor Black forcefully presented the importance of zealous and patriotic Americanism, that our country should maintain its high position among the nations of the earth, where it occupied the lead, and exceeded any that had gone before. His address was most excellent and the vast audience showed their appreciation by hearty applause.

A. E. Self, formerly president of the School Board, delivered the diplomas, and made a few appropriate remarks.

Dr. S. E. Thompson presented two scholarships—one to Miss Minnie Dietert and the other to Reuben L. Clapp—which they gained by their efficiency. Dr. Thompson's admonition to the class, to concentrate on what they desired to achieve, was forcefully and ably expressed.

Rev. J. E. Holt pronounced the benediction by feelingly asking God's blessings and care of the membership of the Class of 1922, and thus ended the exercises of the Tivy High School for this year, that have been so interesting and admirably conducted. This credit is due alike to faculty and pupils.

MAYOR BLACK WON HIS WIFE AT THE ST. CHARLES

Supt. R. A. Franklin of the Kerrville Public Schools, had about thirty of our citizens to greet Mayor O. B. Black and City Attorney T. H. Ridgeway at the St. Charles Hotel Tuesday evening, 6:30 o'clock, where an elegant dinner was served.

E. H. Prescott was the toastmaster, and in introducing Mayor Black, referred to their former intimate acquaintance, which extended to both being among the duped stockholders and officers in a proposed railroad out of San Antonio that got no further than a charter.

Mayor Black prefaced his thanks for the cordial welcome and the appreciation of the invitation to come to Kerrville, by telling his hearers that the St. Charles Hotel was a place he would always remember, as it was there he wooed and won his wife. He had enjoyed his sojourn there very much at that time of love-making, and it would afford him pleasure at any time to return to a place around which clustered such fond memories, where he won one of the sweetest of women, while they were guests of the hotel one summer not so long ago.

Mayor Black said that he thought so well of our citizenship, that he and City Attorney Ridgeway were anxious to annex us to San Antonio, so that they could give Kerrville the benefit of their paved streets and other modern improvements. And, further, would agree to let Mayor Adkins preside over the combined cities.

Mayor Black was glad that our traffic ordinance was out of commission, as on his previous visit he had come in contact with it, but being the first offense got off with a cigar to the officer. This caused him to have a fellow-feeling for Judge Lee Wallace, who had been instrumental in defeating the ordinance by having it declared invalid. He said he would like to have Judge Wallace with him in San Antonio to assist in removing some obstructions of city management that he encountered, and especially the jitneys.

City Attorney Ridgeway was introduced by Ally Beitel, who has known him intimately for quite a while, and spoke of him as an able and efficient city official, as well as a progressive and estimable citizen. Also, that now, he sought a higher honor, the Senatorship from this district.

Mr. Ridgeway expressed his great pleasure of being a guest, and joined Mayor Black in the desire to have us a part of their city. He particularly mentioned the many improvements contemplated at San Antonio, including a fine auditorium, increased school facilities, flood prevention, etc., which would make a total of about five million dollars that would soon be available for these advantages and conveniences.

Judge Lee Wallace was called upon by Mr. Prescott, and he responded in his usual felicitous manner, and assured Mayor Black that he might look for him soon to spend the night, and the Mayor assured the Judge he would take care of him.

Delightful Birthday Party

Little Miss Martha Harwood celebrated her fifth birthday anniversary in a most delightful manner last Saturday afternoon, from 4 to 6 o'clock, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miller Harwood.

A May Pole Dance was the chief feature of entertaining. The May Pole was hung with streamers of pink and lavender and baskets of the same colors, filled with candies, were given as favors. Miss Martha, the little hostess, was chosen for the May Queen, with Frances Eastland as her Princess and James Baker her Prince. She was escorted to a throne covered with Dorothy Perkins roses and presented with a crown by Virginia Leisinger, her crown bearer.

The Victrola furnished music for the happy little dancers on the lawn, where the birthday cake, with pink and lavender candles, was served with ice cream.

S. A. A. P. SHOPMEN LOSE TO KERRVILLE ATHLETICS, 13-3

The usual game at the local ball park last Sunday between the Athletics and the S. A. A. P. Shopmen from San Antonio, resulted in a one-sided score of 13 to 3.

Bill Saenger took matters so earnestly in the first three innings that the visitors failed to pay their respects to Wilson at first base.

In the fourth they made a vigorous attack with three hits and two stolen bases, resulting in two of their three runs.

In the fifth it was three up and three down, while in the sixth it was four up and four down, as Captain Holchak engineered a double play with two men already on the retired list.

Barry brought out one of his new inventions in the seventh, which he calls a balloon ball. With this he and McCarty staged a game of "two old cat" for the three innings that remained to play. In the ninth, Oppman and Holiday placed two-base hits to their individual credit and Oppman scored the third run for the visitors.

The Athletics entered the game in a serious frame of mind and Garcia started off with a two-bagger. Henke scored him and Wilson later with a three-base drive. In the second Garcia came up again and repeated, scoring later on Holchak's hit. Prelusive to this Robinson and Remchew scored.

From then on the game proved only a work-out for the home boys and in their final turn at bat in the eighth, they batted around, accumulating six hits and as many runs.

Nineen hits were gained by the locals, Garcia and Henke leading the list with four each. Garcia came up six times and rapped out two doubles and two singles, while Henke hit a triple and three singles in five times up. Kessel got a triple in the eighth, and Barry and McCarty poled doubles.

The game was a highly appreciated interval of relaxation for both players and fans, after the intense strain of the previous Sunday. It afforded the relief experienced by turning one's attention to the spotted mule after having witnessed a dare-devil trapeze stunt in the top of the tent.

But get ready for something good next Sunday. Joske Bros., who beat Fredericksburg last Sunday, are to rampage over our park. Come early if you want a favorable location in the stand. PODGER.

FURTHER COMMENDATION FOR OUR AUTO TOURIST CAMP SITE

Even yet, the tourist travel has hardly begun, but still, there are campers in our Auto Tourist Camp Site every night, and all parts of the country are represented. And, these people spend more money in Kerrville during their brief stay than would be thought, while they will prove excellent boosters for us all along the line.

Among those expressing themselves as pleased are the following: Chas. K. Finkbeiner, San Diego, Cal., says: "Best camp ground between El Paso and Kerrville."

J. Malcolm and J. Devine, New York, say: "One of the best camp grounds we have found on our way, and we thank the people of Kerrville for their hospitality."

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Fisher, Safford, Ariz., say: "Nicest camp between Phoenix and San Antonio."

G. W. Stipp, Austin: "I find this to be one of the best places I have come across."

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Peterman, San Antonio: "A camp to be proud of, and courteous treatment from man in charge. Will advertise same."

A. P. Schnell, Gittner, Neb.: "Had pleasant accommodations, and think you have a fine camping ground."

J. D. Thurston, San Francisco, Cal.: "Best camp between San Francisco and San Antonio."

Mrs. Frank Cook, Pleasanton, gives this complimentary mention: "One of the most pleasant days was spent in the Kerrville auto park by the people from Pleasanton. The Kerrville park is arranged in a most convenient manner. Water convenient, beautiful shade trees and a most pleasant place. There were 21 cars and 126 people from Pleasanton that enjoyed the day."

REDWINE NUT-CRACKING MACHINE IS PERFECTED

The Redwine Manufacturing Company, with home offices at Kerrville, is a new enterprise in the city that promises to become prominent in the business affairs of Southwest Texas. The officers of the company are: Rex Redwine, president; C. W. Rawson, vice president; and Cecil Robinson, secretary-treasurer. These officers, with the addition of R. L. Schmerbeck, J. L. Pampell, Mrs. A. Schofner, M. L. Pampell and H. C. Geddie, form the directors. Incorporation of the concern is in process.

The purpose of this organization is the manufacture of the Redwine Nut-Cracking Machine. This machine was invented and perfected by Mr. Redwine, and is one of the greatest departures from old methods known to modern machinery.

Leaving out the technicalities, the tedious talk of pawls, cams and pulleys, this machine does more to bring nuts, and the pecan especially, into their proper place in the commerce of the country than any other one thing that has been done along this line. There have been many devices for cracking nuts, but like the cotton picking machines of the past, they have not been able to separate the kernels from extraneous matter.

The Redwine Machine is a practical device and does all that is necessary to place nut kernels on the market in sanitary packages. In a word, a bushel of pecans, English walnuts or filberts can be placed in the hopper of this machine, and when the motor is started the nuts are automatically sized, cracked, picked and cleaned of dust and from broken shells. More than that, the whole kernels are separated from the crumbs and broken pieces.

One of these machines, as a model, has already been built and is now in operation. It was constructed by Rex Redwine and W. G. Leazar, who is known throughout this section of Texas as a cunning workman in metals. A contract will be let soon for the manufacture of the machines in commercial quantities. The model is now in operation, and is proving a perfect success.

It is impossible to estimate the pecan industry of Texas. It will be needless for pecans to be shipped out of the country in the shell, with half a dozen middlemen and commission merchants levying tribute. It is not a fairy story nor a pipe dream, that within a very few years the pecan industry of Texas will be thoroughly organized as are other industries. On the Guadalupe and the Llano Rivers, particularly, there is abundant water power to run a whole battery of these machines. That will make possible the shelling of the nuts and packing the kernels in hermetically sealed packages of various quantities. Thus the kernels will reach the consumer, not only pure, but without the necessity of labor and loss from cracking and picking.

MRS. J. B. YOUNG DELIGHTFULLY ENTERTAINS WITH BRIDGE PARTY

Mrs. J. B. Young complimented her guest, Mrs. B. J. Flanagan, with a delightful bridge party last Saturday evening. Before the games, Miss Jack Flanagan, the talented daughter of the honoree, entertained the guests with a number of Spanish songs and dances. The prizes for high score were won as follows: Mrs. Wallace received a Spanish lace Mantilla, Dr. J. B. Young high score for the men, and the consolation prizes, a box of candy and a pongee handkerchief, went to Mrs. McDonald and Mr. Carrigan. The honoree was presented with a sweet grass sewing basket.

A delicious plate of pressed chicken with salad, sandwiches and iced tea was served to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Schreiner, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Prescott, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Schreiner, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Schreiner Jr., Dr. and Mrs. J. E. McDonald, Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Jackson, Judge and Mrs. Lee Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Ally Beitel, Mr. and Mrs. Conway Carrigan, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mason, Mrs. J. S. Wheelless, Miss Louise Emerson and C. C. Harbell of Brownsville.

THREE TEXAS MEN ELEVATED TO BISHOP BY METHODISTS

Fort Worth Star-Telegram: Three Texans have been honored by the General Conference of the Methodist Church, South, with the highest office in its gift, that of bishop. The tenure is for life. The salary is $6,000 per annum.

Texans elevated to the bishopric were Dr. Hoyt M. Dobbs, late of Dallas, Dr. Sam R. Hay of Houston and Dr. H. A. Boaz of Dallas.

Dr. Sam R. Hay is the son of a Methodist preacher who it is said traveled circuits that were so large and comprised so many counties in the early days of Texas that now they are whole presiding elder's districts.

No man in Southern Methodism, probably, has made greater contributions to the work of that denomination than Rev. Dr. Hay, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Houston. He has also served four years at St. Paul's Church, Houston, and a like time in Dallas and Beaumont. He has been presiding elder of the Houston, Fort Worth and Dallas districts. He has been placed in charge of some of the most important charges in Texas. Rev. Dr. Hay is 46, possesses a striking magnetic personality, beloved and popular wherever he goes. He has two sons, Horace, who lives in Fort Worth, and Sam R. Hay Jr., Beaumont. His daughter, Miss Marguerite, is a student of Southwestern University.

Rev. Hoyt M. Dobbs is well remembered in Fort Worth, where he served as pastor of the First Methodist Church. Although a native of Alabama, Rev. Dr. Dobbs is widely known and beloved throughout the State of Texas, having served for six years as dean of theology in Southern Methodist University, Dallas. He is a graduate of Vanderbilt University of the class of 1904, and is not only a man of scholarly attainments but a good organizer and executive. Dobbs is one of the youngest men ever elected to the highest office in the gift of the Methodist Church.

Although born in Kentucky, Dr. H. A. Boaz has spent so much of his life in Texas that he is considered a son of the State. He received his education in this State, graduating from the Fort Worth High School in 1882; from the Sam Houston Normal Institute in 1889; took his B. S. degree from Texas Southwestern University in 1893, and his M. T. degree from the same institution in 1904. In 1894 Rev. Dr. Boaz was married to Miss Carrie O. Brown. He is the father of three daughters. In addition to pastorates in Fort Worth, Abilene, Dublin and other places, Rev. Dr. Boaz has served as secretary of the Board of Church Extension of his church and as president of Polytechnic College. When elected to the bishopric he was serving as head of Southern Methodist University.

KIMBLE COUNTY ROAD OPENS BEAUTIFUL SECTION OF STATE

Junction, Tex., May 20.—A trio of Kimble County judges have witnessed the fruition of their hopes for a good highway, after overcoming many obstacles. In 1912 Judge J. B. Randolph built two large bridges across the Llanoas at Junction, good steel structures. In 1916 Coke R. Stevenson was elected judge and he devoted the last two years of his term to improving the Old Spanish Trail, bonds having been voted for this purpose. In 1921 when Judge Weaver H. Baker took office, he and the Commissioners' Court finished the highway problem in the midst of a financial depression.

On through Kerr County the road is being extended, and within a very few months at the present rate of progress in Kerr there will be a road from Kimble County on to San Antonio and from there to the outside world.

This road not only lets the people of the mountain section have an outlet that puts them within a few hours of the railroad, and the outer world, but it makes it easy for the thousands who have always wanted to see the Texas mountains, but were afraid of the trip. The drive from San Antonio to Kimble County, inside of six months, will be the same as driving on a city street, except that there is wild scenic beauty along the Guadalupe and the Llanoas.

From the Kimble County line to Kerrville is 92 miles. Four contractors are already at work on the stretch. Six miles of the grade is completed, and the outfits are just beginning to get their stride. The concrete work, all of which is being built according to the requirements of the State and Federal Highway Associations, is progressing rapidly, and will be finished by the time the grading is done.

Across the Divide the road is being built of crushed rock, with a top dressing of fine gravel. Along the Guadalupe River the pioneer custom of following the course of the stream and letting the road wash out with each rise, has been abandoned. The road does not cross the stream, but lies along the foot of the mountains, well above high water. Much of this road is blasted in the solid stone, and from eminences along the way wonderful views of the river and the valley are to be had.

Owing to other entertainments we will not have a Dance Saturday Night, May 27th

Thursday Free Commencement

For the tenth time Notre Dame Institute conducts her annual closing exercises this Thursday evening at 7:30 p. m.

The High School pupils celebrated the wind-up of their examinations by a formal dance and card party to which they invited their parents and friends of the school.

A more general jollification, especially for the youngsters, took place at the annual school picnic. At present writing, we know that five goats and sheep were barbecued, and that about seven hundred sandwiches were neatly wrapped in wax paper.

Five More Nuns

Tuesday some of the Sister nurses at Santa Rosa Infirmary, San Antonio, observed the festival of St. Bernice by motoring with her to Kerrville, through the kindness of Porter Loring, the well-known funeral director.

A few days later Sr. Alcantra, also of Santa Rosa, came up here to take back with her Sr. Charles, but that latter grew too much attached to Notre Dame to leave it so abruptly.

On Monday of last week at 3 p. m. our Sisters met with a heavy loss when fire broke out at St. Mary's Sanitarium in Burgos and destroyed the barn completely.

Archbishop Shaw, who dedicated our Notre Dame Institute, laid the corner stone last Sunday of the New Orleans theological seminary, which he has called the Notre Dame Seminary. This school represents an outlay of $1,100,000.00, subscribed within less than a month.

The Brownson Literary Society reports the gift of three dozen bound volumes from one donor, and numerous other donations to its well stocked library.

The Owner of "Silver King"

By MARVIN ST. JOHNS

Danbury saw that the man was lying in the middle of the road, in imminent danger of being run down by the whirling automobiles that followed each other in a never-ending stream. He shook him, but the man did not respond. Then, lifting him in his arms, the young American carried him to the side of the highway and laid him down under a tree.

Automobiles and carriages streamed past them, but no one stopped to notice the recumbent man. For this was at Kempton Park, and one of the classic races of the year was to be run. The man had evidently fainted. He was elderly, thin, gaunt, wild-looking. Leaving him there, Danbury bought some sandwiches.

The man ate the sandwiches greedily, and presently seemed so far recovered as to sit up. He stared at his rescuer.

"Have they run the Victoria stakes yet?" he implored.

"Not, I believe, till three o'clock," Danbury answered.

"Then help me to the course. It's a matter of thousands." He looked at Danbury thoughtfully. "Help me there and I'll show you what an old man's gratitude means."

Half an hour later they were seated by the side as near the track as they could get.

"There!" the old man cried, as a poor-looking animal went by. "That's Silver King. He's being quoted at forty to one—a rank outsider. And he'll win—his mine."

"That horse is yours?" ejaculated Danbury.

"Mine, every inch of him. And now I'm going to make your fortune," replied the other. "Listen!"

"Ten years ago Silver King was a Derby winner. Never mind what his name was then. He was mine, and I won ninety thousand pounds on him. It went in wine, women and song—squandered, sir, as easily as it came. I lost everything; I lost Silver King. He was sold to a millionaire. But his jockey misused him and he wouldn't run. Three months ago, I discovered him breaking his brave heart between the shafts of a hansom cab. I bought him for ten guineas cash. I had just a hundred pounds in the world. I rented a little cottage and barn in a wild part of Essex, and there I trained him. Twelve years old he is today, and at first it was a heart-breaking task. Often I thought the task was impossible, but I persevered. And at last the day came when I knew that I had again one of the swiftest steeds in this country. I hired a jockey and entered him for the Victoria stakes. I had fifty pounds left, and I borrowed two hundred more. I didn't spend anything on food. A loaf of bread is all I've had the last five days. Because, you see, sir, two hundred and fifty pounds placed on a forty-one shot means ten thousand if he wins. A fortune for me and a peaceful old age for Silver King. And he can't lose."

He started toward a tall man in a white hat who, standing on a stool, was shouting the odds. The horses were at the starting gate.

"Do you want to come in?" asked the old fellow, stopping short. "A hundred pounds will net you four thousand."

Danbury had five hundred—the balance of all he had put aside for his European tour.

"You're dead sure," he queried. "I'll wager four hundred."

"And you'll never regret it, son," answered the old man, and dragged him up to the bookmaker.

"Last chance!" the latter yelled. "What's the odds on Silver King?" queried the elder man.

"Fifty to one," answered the bookmaker briskly. "Want to make a bet? It's a sporting chance—there's worse horses has won. Four hundred?" He took the money and scribbled a memorandum in his book, handing Danbury the stub.

Danbury turned, tense with excitement, to see the horses racing down the field.

"He's winning," yelled the old man at Danbury's side.

Blackberry had fallen back and Silver King had passed three of his competitors.

A roar went up. Blackberry was in the lead again. And Silver King had fallen to the rear. The horses quickened their stride. Blackberry was edging away from all. And poor old Silver King fell further and further away. He tailed away, his withers rocked like a boat in a storm, and as the yells of thousands showed that Blackberry had romped home Silver King came tolling along, last of the field.

When Danbury, stunned by his loss, turned round the old fellow was no longer at his side. The bookmaker was also gone. A little mob of winners was hunting for him with yells of rage. But Danbury never saw either of them again.

An Assistant Desired.

"Were you sorry when you learned there wasn't any Santa Claus?" "I'm still sorry about it," answered Senator Sorghum. "Every one of my constituents who wants anything writes and asks me to get it for him."

CHILDREN OF "406" DYING OF NEGLIGENCE, SAYS DR. COPELAND

New York, May 22.—"Children of New York City's 'four hundred' are seriously afflicted with the 'neuritis' which threatens to spread to middle class children unless stopped in its course," Dr. Royal S. Copeland, City Health Commissioner, declared today.

He explained that the disease was caused by society mothers giving their children too much to the care of nursemaids.

"Three times as many youngsters die yearly in the region of Central Park, Riverside Drive and Fifth Avenue as down on the East Side and the less fashionable sections," Dr. Copeland asserted.

"I attribute this fact largely to the disease I have been telling you of, for no nurse in the world can take the place of a mother in caring for a child," he explained.

"Since so many society women have started to mother toy dogs instead of their children, it has been found that the children are the ones who suffer most as a result."

"Many of these mothers will deny my assertion," continued the doctor, "as false, but I know whereof I speak."

"Children who have much personal association with mothers are much brighter of intellect than those turned over to nurses for attention. Many of our middle-class mothers try to ape the society women, to the detriment of their children."

Edwards County Echoes

Hon. B. J. Stewart of Barksdale, who has been attending the law school at Lebanon, Tenn., has arrived back home and is in Rocksprings this week. He is looking unusually well. As the Leader remarked on another occasion, he stands high among his home folks, and if he loses out in his race for the Legislature his home county will probably not be to blame.

J. F. Halpin and son have sold their well improved irrigated farm and ranch to Harry H. Rogers of San Antonio. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Halpin will go to San Antonio temporarily, but will eventually return to their old home in Kansas City, Mo. We sure hate to see the Halpins leave as they have been in this territory for some time now and have made a host of friends in the community.

Mr. Sharp was giving the canyon the once-over in the interest of the borehound plant this week. Mr. Sharp bought all the borehound in this vicinity last year and left quite a bunch of money for the ranchmen, besides giving employment to a number of men gathering the plant. Our ranchmen have long tried to get rid of this obnoxious weed, as it is very detrimental to wool and mohair, but now they gather it and sell it.

Johnson Creek Scratches

Well, I will try to appear again. Crops are looking fine and weeds are looking better. John Stone was down to visit Fred Lawrence last Friday.

Clarence Webb is improving very fast with his eye and fattening like a pig.

R. Smith came up from San Antonio last Saturday to visit relatives and friends.

Clarence Webb and Miss Gladis Smith made a business trip to Kerrville last Saturday.

Gus Sproul of the Mountain Home community passed down last Saturday, en route to Kerrville. Gus says the ranch business looks good to him.

Fred Lawrence has been putting out sweet potato plants for the last two or three days. Fred says he has the potato that makes in 96 hours after it is set out in the ground. Mrs. Lawrence has just returned from Marlin, where she has been to see her mother, who has been sick for some time. Fred says the chicken business is coming right along. There will be from 500 to a 1,000 hatched off in the next few days, and the writer believes he will get a fancy price for friers.

Bandera Budget

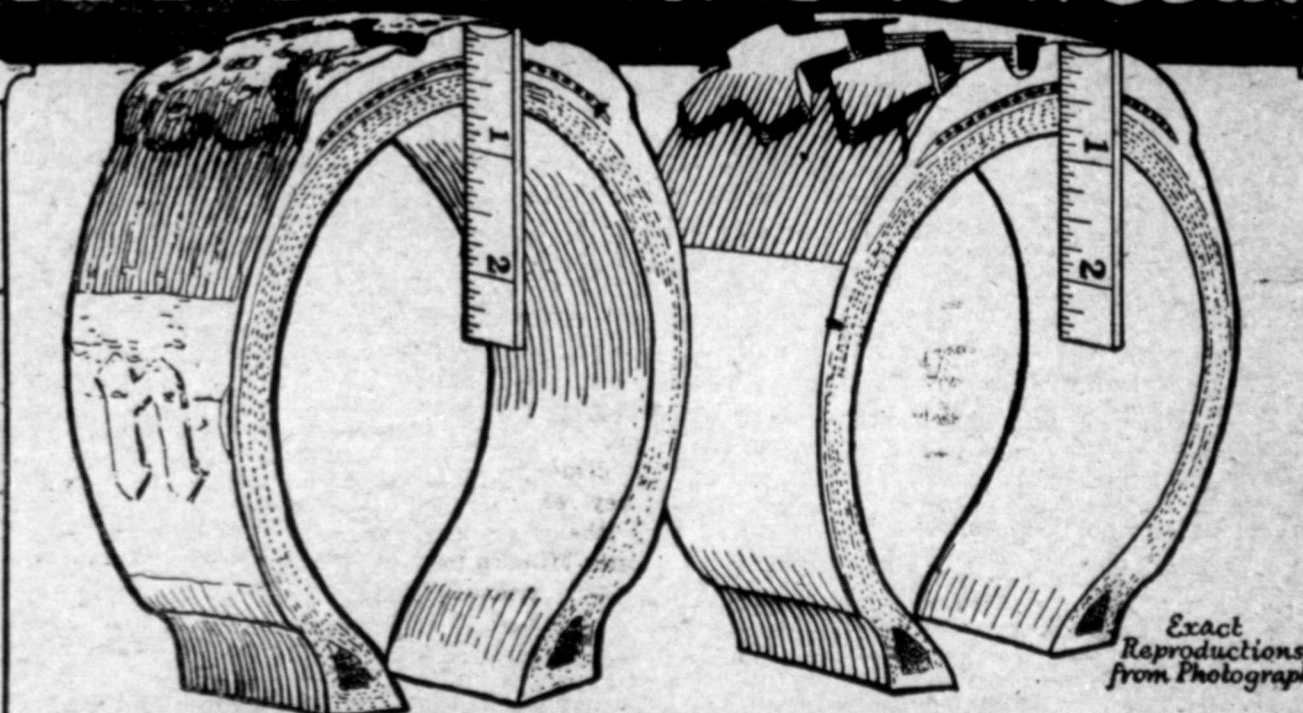

New Era, May 18: I. H. Burney, a promising young attorney of San Antonio, was here this week attending court. He is the son of Judge R. H. Burney, our beloved District Judge.

H. C. Wright and son, Granville, are negotiating for the purchase of 820 acres of good land of the Chipman Ranch on Medina Lake, about seven miles below Bandera. The deal will be closed within a few days. Consideration not stated.

Judge R. H. Burney delivered a highly interesting charge to the Grand Jury Monday morning, in an extemporaneous manner as usual. He directed the chosen twelve to be diligent in their investigations of all violations of the law, particularly touching upon bootlegging and violations of the election laws.

A number of friends celebrated the 83rd birthday of Grandma J. S. Kalka last Sunday at the home of L. L. Kalka above town. A fine barbecue supper was prepared which was enjoyed by all. Grandma Kalka has been unable to leave her bed for over a year, on account of paralysis, but she was delighted with the celebration.

Firestone CORD TIRES

The section at the right was cut from a new Cord of the same size. Careful measurements show that only 1/3 of the tread of the tire on the Yellow Cab has been worn away after this long, grueling test. The carcass is intact after more than 11,000,000 revolutions.

and heavy in the center where the wear comes, tapered at the edges to make steering easy and to protect the carcass against destructive hinging action of high tread edges. The carcass is air bag expanded to insure uniform tension and paralleling of every individual cord. It is double "gum dipped" to make sure that each cord is thoroughly insulated with rubber.

This is the reason why Firestone Cords unfailingly deliver extraordinary mileage. It explains the unanimous demand of thoughtful tire buyers for these values. The local Firestone dealer will continue to provide the personal service that makes Firestone tire comfort and economy complete.

Firestone Cords have averaged over 10,000 miles on Chicago Yellow Cabs (1,200 cabs all Firestone equipped). In thousands of instances, they have given from 15,000 to 30,000 miles.

CATHOLIC CHURCH NOTES

By Father Kemper

DECORATION DAY

Tuesday is Memorial Day, held sacred to all our beloved departed, and especially in memory of our heroic dead. Honoring all the fallen patriots of the World War, a committee of Guadalupe ladies will decorate the grave of Francisco Lemos with red poppies, reminiscent of Flanders field.

Ascension Thursday of this week is a holy day of obligation. It was on this beautiful and fitting feast, eleven years ago, that one of the most unblemished souls in Kerrville, the beloved Rev. E. Galbraith, winged his flight to his Heavenly Home.

Next Sunday the current scholastic year terminates with the last High Mass until October. After the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament the Te Deum will be chanted by the entire Catholic student body as an outpouring of gratitude for the many blessings that the "Giver of all good gifts" has showered upon us.

During June, July and August the daily chapel exercises will commence at the sound of the morning Angelus, which will be rung at 7 o'clock instead of 6:30 a. m.

On last Sunday the month's engagement at Comfort was discharged. Walter Meyer and his elder son, as well as Enrique Castillo, accompanied the pastor. This mission will again be served on Sunday, June 11th, when the Knights of Columbus will go down in several auto-loads and proceed to San Antonio for the initiation of eight local applicants.

Children of Mary

On Mother's Day the Catholic young ladies of Notre Dame organized a Children of Mary Sodality. They have taken steps to affiliate their unit with the international headquarters in Rome. Every first Sunday of the month all members agree to receive Holy Communion in a body, attired in their sodality regalia.

Personals

Mrs. Louise Dryden of Port Arthur is visiting her invalid son, George. She came with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Booz. In the near future she will begin her annual auto trip to Colorado Springs for a summer vacation.

Miss Marie Haberman, head nurse at Dr. Thompson's sanatorium, learnt what it meant to become water-bound on her auto four to San Angelo last week. To reach her destination she had to make one detour of 200 miles.

John J. Walsh, a Frisco prize fighter and personal friend of Jack Dempsey, staid over at Notre Dame, en route to Houston, where he had established a boxing school. He had met with an auto accident up the river and had to leave his brother in charge of the repairs. August Frenzel of Vinton, La., has come back to our health resort. Miss Mary Mosel spent the weekend in the Alamo City with her brother and sister.

Extending a charitable helping hand to a fellow motorist caused Rudolph Stehling to nearly break his nose when he cranked a stubborn Buick.

Another Francisco Lemos Buried On Thursday occurred the funeral of a namesake of our Mexican patriot. Deceased was the infant son of a former Guadalupe student, Josefa Garza, who had married Ramon Lemos. Meningitis brought this heavy cross to the sorrowing family.

On the same Victor Perez entered into the holy sacrament of matrimony with Angela Cordova. Maria Morales and Simon Soto were baptized last Sunday at Comfort.

Mexican Free Commencement The seventh annual closing exercises of Our Lady of Guadalupe School will be free to the general public this Saturday at 7:30 p. m. The Mexican School had an enrollment of 89 pupils this year, compared with 129 at Notre Dame. Although the total of 218 scholars taken care of in our parochial schools compares favorably with previous years, the Mexican attendance used to be better when work was more plentiful and remunerative.

The ladies of the Guadalupe Society elected the following officials for their division: Mrs. Alejandro Arreola, president; Mrs. Guadalupe Juarez, secretary; Miss Trinidad Zamorra, treasurer; Mrs. Jesus Sanchez, collector; Mrs. Marcelino Arreola, reader; Mrs. Felipe Villareal, infirmarian, and Mesdames Ramon Juarez, Nicolas Villaneva and Alcala Lopez, promoters. The administration of the Sacred Heart League was entrusted to Mrs. Juan Moreno and Francisca Perez.

D. F. McNeas, retired farmer, Kerrville, says: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for I know they are a good remedy. My kidneys were weak and out of order and I felt dull and tired and had a soreness and dull ache over my kidneys. My kidneys acted irregularly, too. Others in my family had been benefited by Doan's Kidney Pills so I tried them. They corrected the trouble and put my kidneys in good condition."

The Church of Christ

There is a growing interest in the work of the church. We anticipate a pleasant and a profitable meeting, beginning the first Sunday of June. Evangelist R. C. We are sure you will be pleased to hear this man of God discuss the all-important question of salvation of the souls of men. Everybody is invited to attend this meeting.

We shall continue our Bible reading and preaching every Lord's Day. DAVID O. GRIFFITH, Minister.

FREEDOM COMES BY WAY OF RELIGION, SAYS VICE PRESIDENT

Des Moines, Iowa, May 22.—Religion is the source of freedom, Vice President Calvin S. Coolidge said in an address before the Presbyterian General Assembly here Sunday.

"America lays no claim to the discovery of the freedom of self-government," he said. "Its glory lies in the ability of its people to put those theories into practice, not merely the power to state them, but the capacity to live up to them."

YOUTHFUL CRIMINALS ARE MOST DANGEROUS

Oklahoma City, May 18.—Some turn out to be "cake-eaters," others swing to the other limit and at 18 are desperate criminals.

"The 'old' hardened criminal has been crowded off the pathway of crime by the 'boy bandit,'" he said. "It is the declaration of W. J. Clark, police officer for 27 years, now chief of police of this city."

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH J. B. HOLT, Pastor

Last week was a busy one for all our school children. Most of them passed in their examinations and are feeling kind of swelled up. Now for a vacation of real mental and nervous rest to be good and ready for the next pull.

All the churches united in the Public School Commencement service in the High School Auditorium last Sunday morning. This pastor could not be present, but was told that the service was excellent and helpful and that the people enjoyed it.

The pastor had the great pleasure of preaching the baccalaureate sermon for the Public School at Center Point Sunday morning. The service was held in the Methodist Church, which was beautifully decorated with spring flowers and neatly arranged for the occasion. There were six graduates, five girls and one boy, and they were surely bright and promising young people.

Those present were: Misses Henry, Stapp, Spier, Brashear, Drayton, Wallick, Striegler, Whitworth, Tomb, Mrs. Pass and the hostess and honoree, Misses Kingsbury and Wilson.

Paint, beautify and clean up, so as to make Kerrville one of the prettiest spots in the whole Southwest.

The city is being cleaned up and it is making a new record for beauty. The work is being done by Mayor Adkins and the Civic League. A number of people are also co-operating by having their yards and premises cleaned and beautified.

The Sun is glad to see quite a number of our people bringing in all kinds of raised products to market. These home-raised products ought to be given the preference when you buy, because the more of them consumed the more encouragement to raise them here, and in course of time most of our early and late vegetables could be raised here.

There are some rent profiteers in Kerrville, and these people keep visitors away from here. The Sun desires to see people get but not rent profiteers. These are charged for rooms and houses, it is time that such profiteers be exposed. The Chamber of Commerce ought to get a list of those who overcharge for such services and conveniences and warn visitors away from them.

This country is unfortunate in its Attorney Generals in recent Cabinets. They are too often selected from counsel for big interests or have been engaged by those seeking to evade the laws of the land. Former Attorney General Palmer in the Cabinet of Ex-President Wilson went out of office with the alien property fund and the suspicion of questionable acts has not yet been cleared away. Now, Attorney General Daugherty is found to have been the chief counsel in getting the pardon of the international crook, Morse, who was pardoned from a United States prison by former President Taft, under the pretense that he was about to die. No sooner had he gained this liberty than he appeared in New York, and he is now being charged, and he and his two sons are now under indictment. And, these indictments are to be prosecuted, if at all, by the lawyer who secured his pardon for a fee of $25,000.00, with promise of further riches. It is placing President Harding in an embarrassing situation. As Senator Carraway of Arkansas, who exposed Daugherty, says, the best thing the Attorney General can do is to resign. He is proven unfit for that high office. Where and when are the people going to get honest administration of public affairs?

Attempted Holdup

In returning in a car from Austin Sunday night Messrs. L. E. Funnell, R. H. Funnell, L. Halpin, W. L. Cleary and W. L. Patton, workmen employed at the American Legion Memorial Sanatorium, were stopped by two men armed with rifles as they came down the hill to Joshua Creek, the other side of Comstock.

A car was stopped on the curve and as they came up a man with a rifle in the crook of his left arm stepped out into the road and held up his hand for them to stop, and as they did so, a second man, also armed with a rifle, stepped from the car. Just at that time a second car came down the hill behind them and stopped just in front of the first car. The men in the first car were blocked, shutting off its lights.

When asked what they wanted, the two armed men did not answer at once, but finally one said there was a large snake in the road and they wanted them to stop so as to throw their lights ahead to locate it. The Kerrville party lost no time in hunting snakes or in continuing their journey. They believe, however, that but for the timely arrival of the second car, they would have been held up. The men were not masked, but on the road was blocked, shutting off its lights.

Miss Mary Louise Steele of San Antonio entertained with a house party at the Steele Ranch on North Fork the past week. Her guests numbered thirty of the young people of San Antonio. John Todd, son of Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Todd, who spent the past seven summers here, but are now living in Emporia, Kan., will graduate this year from the High School of that city. John has many warm friends here who will be glad to know of his success. T. T. Campbell and J. P. Black of San Antonio arrived Monday at "Camp Bell," the summer home of Mr. Campbell. Mrs. Campbell and her two nieces, Misses Elizabeth and Estelle McCraney, will arrive the last of the week for a two weeks' stay before the young ladies leave for their home in Mississippi. Rev. Henry Davis of Kerrville will preach at the Christian Church here next Sunday morning and in the afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Rev. Davis is doing missionary work in the interest of the Methodist Church, and has some warm friends here who are glad he has decided to give one Sunday in each month to this place. The members of the Union School met at the Christian Church last Saturday afternoon to put in the window lights and doors that had been broken by the storm a couple of years ago. Next week they will meet again to paint the building, the paint being furnished by the young boys of the Central Christian Church in San Antonio. The stage has been erected outdoors and all arrangements completed for the school concert to be given on two evenings, Friday and Saturday week, under the direction of Misses Susan Moore and Lucile Matthews. The children are deeply interested and have worked hard to prepare this splendid program, and the public is invited to be present. Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Walsh will open their lovely summer home Saturday to a group of High School boys of San Antonio, honoring their son, Ralph, who is a student of Main Avenue High. The young men will arrive Saturday forenoon for a two weeks' visit and Mrs. Walsh has made some wonderful plans for their enjoyment. Misses Frances McCamish and Lily Beal Frost, two High School girls, will join the party for the next week-end. Miss McCamish is the only daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. W. McCamish, who graduated in the June class at Main Avenue High School. Dr. J. S. Steele of San Antonio spent a few days here at his summer home on North Fork last week, and was very fortunate in catching a catfish weighing about eighteen pounds. This community is greatly interested in the graduating exercises of the Kerrville High School this year, for one of our native daughters is to receive her diploma—Miss Frances Lourina Mayhugh. The Mayhugh family have a host of friends here who rejoice with them and sincerely congratulate the young lady on her success, and are expecting to hear great things from her. Miss Lucile Matthews entertained with a children's party last Saturday, honoring Miss Grace Hardin on her 12th birthday. The following little guests were present: Grace Hardin, honoree; Novella Schumacher, Merle Moore, Erwin Hardin, Dennis Crow, Mary Bell West, Jewell Crow, Gladys Crow, Ralph Caddell, Meridith Caddell, Bernis Beaver, Pearl Beaver, Velta Hardin and Mabel Hardin. Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Zumwalt have completed their boarding house, located on top of the beautiful hill just west of an attractive place and adds much to this community. They have named it "Guadalupe View," and this is a very fitting name, as it really is the most beautiful view in this entire country. They gave a house warming last Friday evening, entertaining the young people with a dance.

INGRAM ITEMS

Carl Joy of San Antonio is visiting relatives and friends here this week. Alfred Bode of the Reservation was a business visitor Thursday of last week. Henry Duderstadt, a prominent ranchman of the Divide, accompanied by his wife, were welcome visitors of last week. Newt, Nichols, wife and daughter, Ruby, of the Johnson Creek community, were among last week's business visitors. The Methodist Revival being conducted here by Rev. Henry Davis of Kerrville, closed last Sunday night after a splendid meeting. Rev. Davis has kindly consented to hold services at this church, which has been without a pastor for some time, on the second Sunday of every month. Two new members were taken into the church during the revival. J. E. King of Hunt, accompanied by Miss Lois Taylor and Mr. Harris of San Antonio, his guests, were pleasant Ingram visitors Thursday of last week. Mrs. J. Loree and J. Hume and party passed through last week, having come from Los Angeles, Cal., giving Detroit as their destination. They made a short stop here. Mrs. Jack Locke and son, Roger, and Miss Mary Bridge, who have been visiting Miss Sue Robinson, sister of Mrs. Locke, returned to their homes in San Antonio Friday of last week. The many friends of little G. C. McElroy, who has been quite ill with an attack of appendicitis, will regret to learn that he was taken to the Secor Hospital at Kerrville for an operation Wednesday of this week. The Ingram School will close this week with an entertainment at the school house Friday night, followed by a Box Supper on Saturday night. A very interesting program is being arranged for Friday night and there will be lots of amusement for all. J. F. Key and family of Kelley Creek spent Sunday last with their daughter, Miss Vesta, the ever-cheerful telephone operator. The Keys came over for the revival services, which attracted quite a number of people from the surrounding country. Homer Rudasill stopped here Wednesday night of last week on his return to the ranch near Big Paint, after several weeks' stay in Beeville on account of the serious illness and death of his father, J. A. Rudasill, at that place. The ball game at Sunset last Sunday between the Del Rio and Ingram boys attracted a large crowd from the surrounding community, and a very interesting game was played, resulting in a score of 16 to 5 in favor of the Ingram boys. Mrs. Ed. Smith and party, who went to Talpa to attend the marriage of her son, Roy Smith, returned home Wednesday of last week, after a very pleasant visit with the family of J. H. Smith at Talpa, a brother of Ed. Smith of Ingram. Carlton Eddins, Adelbert Oehler and Ernest Duderstadt of the Sunset community made a short stop here Thursday of last week, en route to Dilley to attend a stock judging contest. They were accompanied by County Agent Oswalt. J. F. Leisnering of Kerrville was over this week buying up hogs, and we are glad to note there will be a few less to roam the streets of Ingram. If he overlooked any, we trust he will return later and get them, as they have become a source of much annoyance. Among the out-of-town people who attended the revival meeting at the Methodist Church last Sunday were the Mayhughs, Bodes and Mrs. Matthews and daughter of Hunt, Mrs. Dick Dowdy of Johnson Creek, and the Youngs and Mangolds of Kelley Creek. They brought their lunches along and all joined in an old fashioned spread on the river banks. Rev. J. W. Orr, John Orr and Miss Mary Orr, on the Ingram-Hunt Road, made a business trip to Kerrville Thursday of last week, stopping here en route. R. C. Edmonds and Miss Elizabeth Nichols motored up from San Antonio last Sunday and were the guests of J. L. Nichols and family at Hillside Farm. Miss Nichols returned to the Alamo City Monday morning, but Mr. Edmonds will remain for an indefinite stay with the Nichols, to recuperate from a recent illness. A. L. Etie and party passed through last week, en route to Houston, their former home, after a lengthy stay in California. These people were very much impressed with the Hill County, and incidentally remarked that they had kept an account of all expenditures along their trip and found this country the "cheapest on the map." Many from here went over to Kerrville for the Senior Class play at the High School Auditorium last Monday night, among them being Mrs. George Lupton and daughters, Miss Pearl Nichols, Miss Bessie Beaver, R. W. Lumpkin, Miss Josie Lumpkin, Mrs. Everett Lumpkin, Mrs. Burt Baylor and Misses Alberta and Eloise Bittle.

Miss Mary Holdsworth, our genial primary teacher, having completed her labors here, returned to her home at Kerrville Tuesday. Mrs. J. M. Bruff, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. W. R. Clifton and Joel Burney went to Medina Lake Wednesday morning for a few days' sport with the finny tribe. Misses Virginia and Willie Meador, who have done very efficient work as teachers in our school the past scholastic year, left Tuesday for their home at Willis, Texas. John New of Wellington, Texas, visited his mother, Mrs. Caroline Weston, for a few days last week. Mr. New lived here many years since, and he found a few of the old timers here yet. Challe Meeks, who has been attending the High School at Jackson, Tenn., is one of this year's graduates from that institution. We notice in the Jackson newspaper quite a complimentary mention of him. He won a medal for best oration of his class. His subject was: "Wilson, the True Patriot." Challe is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Meeks of this place, and was one of the graduates from our school here last year, winning highest honors. We congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Meeks upon the splendid accomplishments of their son. Jack Moore, our popular sheriff, was shaking hands with friends here Tuesday. He says the hail ruined the small grain crop on his farm three miles below town. Miss Verna Burney arrived home last Saturday from Kenedy, where she has completed a successful year's work as teacher in the schools there. She has been re-employed for the same work another year. Mrs. M. K. Hood returned Saturday from San Antonio, where she had been visiting her mother, Mrs. Jack Rees. She was accompanied home by her two sisters, Misses Corene and Eron Rees, who spent the week-end with her. The graduating exercises of the Center Point High School were held Monday night at the School Auditorium. The Commencement address was delivered by Prof. A. C. Burkholder, teacher of sociology at Southwest Texas Normal. His address was along educational lines and was well received by a large and attentive audience. An appropriate musical program was rendered by the pupils. The diplomas were presented by Frank E. White, secretary of the School Board, in a few pleasing and well chosen remarks. The Baccalaureate sermon was delivered last Sunday by Rev. J. B. Holt of Kerrville. The following compose the graduating class: Annie Louise Cox, Velma Hill, Alma Cowden, Ruth Burney, Oberta McBryde and Geo. Meeks. Miss Annie Louise Cox won highest honors, with Miss Velma Hill a close second. Rev. H. T. Hill, an honored pioneer preacher of the West Texas Conference of the Methodist Church, died in Sterling City Thursday of last week, May 18th, and the body was shipped here for burial. Rev. Hill was born in Alabama, December 20th, 1836. He moved to North Texas at a very early day. In his young manhood he joined the Texas Rangers and served for two years. He was also a veteran of the Civil War, having served under the flag of the Southern Confederacy. He served in the 11th Cavalry under Gen. Joe Wheeler, the famous Southern cavalry officer. He moved to Kerr County in 1876 and joined the West Texas Conference. He served his church faithfully for twenty-five years, filling many of the important places with credit to himself. On September 8th, 1859, he married Mrs. Margaret Hodges. To this union one child was born, Mrs. J. A. Anglin, of Sterling City, with whom he has made his home for the past seventeen years. The funeral was held at the Methodist Church here last Saturday, conducted by Rev. J. H. C. Maxwell. After the brief service at the church the remains took charge and conveyed the remains to the Center Point Cemetery, where they conducted the last sad rites in their beautiful and impressive manner. Music and Reading Recital Misses Reta and Grace Bruff presented their respective classes in a recital Tuesday evening at the Bruff House.
