WEST TEXAS FAIR STARTS OFF WITH BIG FIRST DAY

The Twenty-Second Annual Meet of the West Texas Fair opened Tuesday with one of the largest and finest stock exhibits that possibly has ever been shown there. The attendance also was highly creditable for the first day. The fifty-piece Banda Juvenile of San Antonio was on hand to furnish excellent music, which was greatly enjoyed by the crowd. The members of this band are young Mexicans and their organization is sustained by the Chamber of Commerce of the Alamo City.

Some of those having live stock on exhibit, we noticed the following in a hurried inspection:
Henry & McCloskey of Dilley, owners of Frio Hereford Farm, have as fine a bunch of Herefords as we ever saw.

W. T. Montgomery of the Medina Hereford Farm also has a very fine exhibit of Herefords.

D. R. Lewis has his usual fine Guerneys and Holsteins there, and they are hard to beat.

John H. Ward also has his fine Red Poll cattle that always show up fine.

C. A. Pepper of San Antonio and Edwards County has a fine bunch of Angora goats, as does James Prentice of Kimble County.

Hal Peterson, our home live stock breeder, has some of his fine Delaine-Merino sheep and Angora goats.

M. Holekamp of the Fall Creek Ranch has some excellent specimens of his Delaine-Merino sheep.

J. L. Gully of Uvalde has Delaine-Merino sheep and Angora goats, both of which show up well.

Casper Real of the Arthur Real Ranch has a fine bunch of the Delaine-Merino sheep. There has been care taken in the selection of these sheep and they are very fine specimens.

A. B. Boren of Leakey has a creditable exhibit of Angora goats.

There are a number of horses and colts on the ground, among them being some of the fine stock from the Morris Ranch. There are also some fine hogs of different breeds.

There were four races Tuesday—two for the half mile, one a quarter and one three-eighths. In the first half mile, Rainy Day was first; Sad Sam, second; Blue Eyes, third; Mary D. being left at the post. In the second half mile race, Mary D. won; Bobby, second; Princess, third. In the quarter race, which was the second on the card, Grace was first; Spike Webster, second, and Arlene, third. In the fourth race, which was the three-eighths of a mile, Firecracker was first; Granny, second, and Sleepy Girl, third. This was a very close and pretty race. In fact, the racing program was exceptionally interesting, and showed animals with speed.

The Kelly Field baseball nine played our home boys and the game resulted in a score of 8 to 4 in favor of the visitors. It was a snappy game.

Wednesday

As usual the second day of the Fair is the record breaker for attendance and this year it excelled the crowds that had heretofore gathered at the West Texas Fair on the second day.

There were some close and fine races. In the first half mile, three running, Lucy B. was first; Uncle Bob, second, and True Blue, third.

In the second race, 2 1/2 furlongs, four running, Arlene was first; Grace S., second; Aisie May, third.

The third race was half mile with four running, in which Spike Webster was first; Little Nita, second, and Free Ballot, third.

The fourth race was a hummer and five-eighths of a mile, with three running, Firecracker, first; Spot, second, and Pine Knot, third.

Baseball

Comfort and the home team played one of the fastest and closest games of the season. They were evenly matched and both exerted themselves. They scored two runs each and later two more, which gave a tie, and this remained until the ninth inning, when the Kerrville boys scored a fifth run, winning the game.

It was a very orderly crowd during the two days, and the people appeared to enjoy themselves immensely.

The music Wednesday by the Banda Juvenile of San Antonio was better than the day before and more of it.

A full report of the awards of premiums, etc., will be given in next week's issue.

took part in the entertainment were: Misses Kate Remschel, Yolande Robinson, Ruth Garrett, Etheldra Fraley, Maybelle Roberts, Helena Brown, Elsie Johnston, Mabel Thorburn, Margaret Thorburn, Marguerite Henke, Jewel Carey, Ida Dell Hamilton, Anna Neblett, Thorburn, May Brashear and Edna Henke, in charge of sheet music; Ethel Williams, pianist; Alice Domingues, in charge of the dances; Mesdames W. C. Fawcett and Leroy Garrett; Messrs. Alois Remschel, the King, and Frank Moore. The little dancers were Misses Ruth Prescott, Elizabeth Eastland, Aimee Louise Schmerbeck, Annie Laurie Garrett, Elizabeth Sommers, Dorothy Fawcett, Margaret Harwood, Ruth Leavell, Louise Staudt, Mary Louise Gardner, Mildred Williams and Gertrude Beitel.

BLACK CONCEDES RIDGEWAY'S NOMINATION FOR STATE SENATOR

San Antonio Express, Aug. 28th: An indicated majority of 1,000 for City Attorney T. H. Ridgeway in the race for State Senator from the 24th District was shown by totals compiled by the San Antonio Express last night from votes in Saturday's run off. On the face of these totals Representative W. A. Black, Mr. Ridgeway's opponent, conceded the latter's nomination.

Mr. Ridgeway's opponent in the regular election will be Bodo Holekamp of Boerne, if Mr. Holekamp consents to accept the Republican nomination unanimously tendered him by the Republican Senatorial Convention at Kerrville Saturday.

Votes in the Black-Ridgeway race, reported by the San Antonio Express correspondents, were as follows:

County	Black	Ridgeway
Kendall	91	107
Bandera	115	187
Gillespie	1,104	160
Bexar	8,469	10,367
Totals	9,779	10,721

G. O. P. SENATORIAL CONVENTION NOMINATED BODO HOLEKAMP

On account of the absence of Capt. J. E. Elgin the Republican Senatorial Convention which met in Kerrville last Saturday, was called to order by County Chairman W. H. Bonnell at Pampell's Hall at 2 p. m.

On motion of Julius Real, seconded by P. J. Lucas, W. H. Bonnell was elected chairman and E. P. Butler of San Antonio secretary.

The committee on credentials reported ten delegates from Bexar County, two from Kendall, four from Kerr, Real held proxy for Bandera, Col. F. A. Chapa of San Antonio held proxy for Gillespie and not reported. The voting strength of the counties was as follows: Bandera, 1; Bexar, 24; Gillespie, 3; Kendall, 3; Kerr, 2, and Real, 1.

While the committee was at work Judge Real made a speech. He claimed that the passage of the Farmers' Emergency Tariff Bill was all that saved the mountain counties from bankruptcy, paid an eloquent tribute to Claude Hudspeth and predicted the election of Congressman Wurzback by an increased majority.

Then, on motion of P. J. Lucas, W. H. Bonnell was elected chairman of the Executive Committee of the 24th Senatorial District. The committee then resolved itself into two committees—nominations and resolutions. Judge Real was chairman of the former and Mrs. R. T. Millburn, the leader of the Republican Women's Clubs of San Antonio, the latter.

The Committee on Resolutions reported, eulogizing President Harding, Congressman Wurzback, State Chairman Creager and Col. H. F. McGregor, National Committeeman.

Judge Real in an eloquent speech placed the name of Bodo Holekamp of Kendall County before the convention for State Senator and he was nominated by acclamation.

The Bexar County delegation, on motion of P. J. Lucas, gave a vote of thanks to Judge Real, who was their host at the St. Charles Hotel.

Colonel Chapa made a short speech, predicting success for both the Congressional and Senatorial candidates. The convention then adjourned.

THE FINEST HOME IN THE HILL COUNTRY IS AT KERRVILLE

The following article appeared in the San Antonio Express last Sunday and was accompanied by two views of the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Schreiner:

"The motorist in the Kerrville hills sees for miles upon miles the magnificent home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Schreiner, built of glistening white stone and brick. It follows the most exacting Colonial design with wide terraces, perhaps borrowed from the Italian, as are some of the other attractive features of the mansion.

"The home, built on one of the many charming hill sites owned by the Schreiner estate, is in reality just in the suburbs of the city, as the Indian name 'Tulahteka' (and pronounced 'Tula-da-ga') indicates.

"The home planned and built under the supervision of Atlee B. Ayres and his son, Robert M. Ayres, of this city, is pronounced a masterpiece of several different schools of architecture, they having borrowed freely from the Dutch Colonial, the Corinthian and the English Colonial.

"In fact, nothing is left to be desired in the way of luxurious appointments, the interior is spacious to a marked degree, admitting of drawing rooms, living rooms, halls, dining room and breakfast room, dens and nooks. There, too, is a ballroom of splendid proportions, finished in the softest of buff tones, with festoons of floral patterns in bas relief, heavy plate mirrors of costly import. This room is Georgian in its style, while the home proper is in the Adam period.

"While much has been brought to the home from the exclusive markets in the way of furnishings and draperies there is much to be selected still, and the markets of the world will be looked over until the most suitable articles are found.

"Among the treasures housed there now are many pieces of exquisite Italian marble, from the black, bearing the highest of polishes, to the snowy whiteness of the Carrara quarries.

"It is here that much entertaining will be done for the charming young debutante daughter of the house, Miss Mae Louise Schreiner, who with her parents will spend a part of the time here during the winter and the remainder at one of the city hotels."

EARLE B. MAYFIELD WINS FOR UNITED STATES SENATOR

In the run-off primary last Saturday in Texas, there was a total of about 505,000 votes cast, of which Earle B. Mayfield received some 282,000 for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator, and James E. Ferguson about 222,000, leaving the former a safe majority of over 60,000.

T. W. Davidson defeated "Billie" Mayfield for Lieutenant Governor by a majority of over 86,000.

S. M. N. Marrs was nominated for State Superintendent of Public Instruction by a safe majority over Ed. R. Bentley.

State Treasurer Terrell got the nomination again over Garrett.

Hertzberg defeated Cunningham in the San Antonio district for congressional nomination on the Democratic ticket.

SENATOR'S NOMINATION SCHEDULED FOR SEPT. 5

San Antonio Express, Aug. 29th: Over the long distance telephone from Kerrville last night Jack Hamilton told the San Antonio Express the convention of Democrats of the 24th Senatorial District will be held in Beethoven Hall during an intermission of the State Democratic Convention next Tuesday, September 5th. Mr. Hamilton is chairman of the district.

"All the delegates will want to attend the State Convention anyway," said Mr. Hamilton, "and I have decided that the best course to pursue is to have it at Beethoven Hall while the main show is taking a recess. The exact hour will be determined by the program followed by the State forces. It ought not to take more than thirty minutes to dispose of the nomination and do the rest of the work before the Senatorial Convention.

"I take it for granted Mr. Ridgeway will be the nominee, and I am sure he will acquiesce in this arrangement, though I have been too busy to get in touch with him."

Hamilton asked that City Attorney Ridgeway, leader in the run-off, and County Chairman Robert G. Harris of San Antonio make the necessary arrangements for the meeting he has called.

"We'll see you in hell first!" "No surrender," declares the vigorous message.

"I there be any among us who regrets the steps they have taken," continues the message, "let them turn back now because this has ceased to be a pink tea or a vacation, but a real he-man fight from now on, and if you cannot measure up to that standard, this is no place for you."

"However, keep in mind our policy that the laws of the land must be obeyed, but there is so much that can be done that has not been done without violating the laws that you are now asked to get on the job and do your damndest and then a little bit more."

AJAX TIRE COMPANY TEAM OF SAN ANTONIO DOWN ATHLETICS

Walgraf, pitching for the Ajax Tire Company, pitched a one-hit game against the Athletics last Sunday on the local diamond, and the Ajax nine won, 4 to 1. Edwin McCarty's single with two out in the ninth was the only hit off Walgraf. He fanned eleven and walked nobody. Barry allowed nine hits and fanned nine, ordinarily a winning performance, but a loser in the face of Walgraf's great twirling.

Pfannkuche hit a homer and a single for the winners and Satcher made two hits and several pretty catches in center. Henke, Kerrville left fielder, robbed Walgraf of a triple with a great catch.

MISS CAMPBELL OF A. & M. GIVES DRESS DEMONSTRATION

At 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon more than one hundred women gathered in the Auditorium of the Tivy High School to witness the demonstration, as given by Miss Campbell of the Extension Department of the A. & M. College of Texas, in the art of making a dress form that is within the reach of every woman to possess, so far as cost is concerned. The number of questions asked denoted the interest that was being taken in the demonstration. Miss Mary Louise Barnes was the model for the dress form that was made as a lesson.

Miss Campbell gave the history of A. & M. College and the origin of the Extension Department of the same, showing that we as a people ask for a County Demonstration Agent in Home Economics in our county as well as a County Demonstration Agent along agricultural lines.

Rev. H. T. Davis, a Baptist preacher, who lectured last Sunday night in the Baptist Church here, was a member of the Legislature that initiated the charges against James E. Ferguson that finally resulted in his impeachment.

In a conversation with a San reporter, Rev. Davis stated that when he began the investigation which showed that Ferguson as Governor was using the fund for fuel, lights and incidentals to buy food and diamonds for his wife and tires for his auto, the large majority of the Legislature would not believe it and threatened to impeach him instead of the Governor. However, he stayed with the investigation and the further it went the worse it got.

Rev. Davis stated also, that when he came out of the Legislature the first day after the investigation was under headway, the first man in Austin to commend him for exposing Ferguson then was Earle B. Mayfield, who defeated Ferguson in the recent primary.

NO SURRENDER, ULTIMATUM OF SHOP STRIKERS TO RAIL HEADS

Chicago, Aug. 29.—The striking shopmen will see the railway executives in hell first before they surrender their seniority rights, is the message sent out today by B. M. Jewell, head of the strikers, to the rank and file of his organization.

"During all of these eight weeks," declared the message, "our people have responded to the offers of everyone who has tried to compose the differences and now they say to us in substance, if you are willing to make an unconditional surrender and crawl back like a whipped dog, we will take back a few of you, and we reply to that with all the vigor and earnestness of our make-up."

"We'll see you in hell first!" "No surrender," declares the vigorous message.

"I there be any among us who regrets the steps they have taken," continues the message, "let them turn back now because this has ceased to be a pink tea or a vacation, but a real he-man fight from now on, and if you cannot measure up to that standard, this is no place for you."

"However, keep in mind our policy that the laws of the land must be obeyed, but there is so much that can be done that has not been done without violating the laws that you are now asked to get on the job and do your damndest and then a little bit more."

Henry Ford has issued notice that on September 16th he will close his many plants, throwing out of employment over 2,000,000 men, rather than pay profiteering prices for coal and steel.

Mr. Ford correctly concludes that this policy is the most effective way to meet the chaotic condition brought about by the strikes and the inefficiency of the National Administration to meet the emergency, as well as to put a stop to profiteering.

Mr. Ford's position will be endorsed by a large majority of the American people, and his action stands as a merited rebuke to the vacillating and incompetent management of the public affairs of the Nation by President Harding and his Republican Cabinet and Congress, and to the greed of the corporations, especially Wall Street financial interests, in bringing about the present condition. It is another master stroke by Henry Ford—the people's friend.

Robert Real, manager of the Live Oak Ranch, was in attendance at the West Texas Fair, looking after his exhibit and greeting his many friends.

Miss Lorena Mayhugh of the Hunt community favored the Sun office Monday with some fine specimens of pears as we have seen in this country and would be hard to excel anywhere. At their home they have canned over 200 quarts of pears.

SON OF KERRVILLE CITIZEN KILLED RECENTLY AT EL PASO

H. L. Dillon, son of W. Dillon, citizen of Kerrville, was shot in the back and killed at El Paso the night of August 18th, while on duty as a guard at the railway property there. He was shot with buckshot and the empty shell was found within fifty feet of where Dillon fell.

A man by name of Petty, who was also a guard, has been arrested for the crime and is in jail, having been refused bond.

The deceased was the oldest son of Mr. Dillon of this city, and the latter went to El Paso and had the remains of his son carried to Keppel for burial.

The many friends here of Mr. Dillon and his family extend their sympathy over this deplorable tragedy that has come into their home.

AN OLD BRUTAL RICH BANKER SEVERELY BEATS LITTLE GIRL

At Quitman, in Wood County, Texas, G. W. Lipscomb, a banker and one of the wealthiest men of that county, was stopped by neighbors from unmercifully and brutally beating a 10-year-old girl he had adopted from an orphanage institution at Fort Worth. He is without children and had adopted this little girl a few years ago and also two or three other orphans, which was considered highly commendable.

It seems that he recently gave the little girl a watch, and she either lost it or gave it away—at all events it was gone and she refused to tell where it was, or could not do so. This brute of a Lipscomb started in whipping her with switches and then resorted to a whip. Her cries brought neighbors to the scene and they made him desist. The girl was found unconscious and her body covered with bruises and the skin broken in several places.

Officers took her in charge and returned her and the other orphans to the institution from where they were taken. Charges were filed against Lipscomb and he is to be tried for it, and the maximum penalty is a $1,000 fine and two years in jail.

The Ku Klux Klan of Quitman issued a public statement to the effect that they would give the courts a chance to mete out justice to Lipscomb before they took any action.

It is such cases as this, and others, wherein the courts either fail to act or do not inflict punishment, that has done much to bring about the spread of Ku Klux Klanism.

TELEPHONE MAN FALLS FROM PLATFORM; WRIST FRACTURED

Tuesday afternoon about 4 o'clock, while A. C. Hart of San Antonio was engaged in splicing telephone cables at the corner of Earl Garrett and Barnett Streets, on a platform, he fell a distance of about fifteen feet and fractured a wrist.

He is quite heavy and the fall also shook him up considerably. Physicians have examined his injuries and do not believe that he is seriously hurt, though the fractured wrist is quite painful.

'FEAST OF THE RED CORN' ENJOYABLE AND INTERESTING

The Kerrville Choral Club, directed by Mrs. J. W. Burney, with the assistance of Miss Jewel Carey, gave an Operetta last Friday evening at Pampell's Hall that was most enjoyable. They are the recipients of the public's thanks, for the proceeds of the evening's entertainment were given to the Associated Charities for our needy people. Mrs. Burney is a member of the Board of Directors of said organization, and because she knew the existing need for funds to carry on this work in Kerrville, very generously gave her time and talent in perfecting this Operetta for the enjoyment of those attending.

The Operetta was the story of the celebration of the Feast of the Red Corn by the maidens of the Wanta tribe of Indians. The girl finding the first red ear is promised her dearest wish. The queen, Weda Wanta, joins the maidens, hoping to satisfy her wish to hear from her absent king.

The seriousness of the queen, in conflict with the irresponsible mischievousness of her young sister, Impee Light.

Miss Jewel Carey sang the part of Queen Weda Wanta and those who heard her will long remember the pleasure her sweet notes gave them.

The old squaw's part was ably sung by Miss Marguerite Henke, while much of the success of the evening was due to the impish perfection of the part sung by Miss Ruth Garrett.

Miss Alice Domingues, assisted by a class of twelve little girls, very realistically gave the Ghost Dance of the Dead Trees, and the Dance of the Flaming Arrow. Miss Domingues deserves credit for having trained the little ones who assisted in the dance, and whose names appear below. Everyone taking part deserves credit for the ability shown. Those who

THE LIFE HISTORY OF DAVID E. FARR

The following is reproduced by request from a Walsenburg, Colo., paper as a matter of great interest to the old timers in this section:

David Ezekiel Farr was born December 19th, 1854, in Kerr County, Texas. He was the child of a family of twelve children born to David Hurston Farr and his wife, Martha Hurston Farr. His father was a pioneer cattleman in the days when life on the border was full of experiences typical of those romantic days.

After taking advantage of the meager school facilities afforded, David, with his brothers, James, Ed, and the late Jefferson B. Farr, was engaged in the cattle business with his father, whose interests extended from the northern states of Mexico to the Kansas trails. Their headquarters were Austin, Texas, where David Farr Sr. built with his own hands the first brick house in the little settlement which has since become the Capital of that great State.

Mr. Farr was first married in 1880, and to this union two children, Jessie and James D., were born. The mother died shortly after the birth of the second child, James D.

In January, 1885, at Mason, Texas, David Farr married Minnie Taylor, the daughter of a prominent pioneer Texas planter, and one year later moved to Colorado, locating on a ranch on the lower Cucharas River in Huerfano County. In 1886, the family moved to Walsenburg, where they have since resided. Mr. Farr went into the mercantile business in a small way, and in 1887 opened the first confectionery store in Walsenburg. During the succeeding years he engaged successfully in various lines of mercantile pursuit until 1902, when he was appointed Water Commissioner by Governor McDonald, which position he ably filled until 1906. In 1907 he was appointed State Game and Fish Commissioner by Governor Buchtel. During his two-year term in this office Mr. Farr instituted the fish hatcheries near Meeker, and the largest one in the Mountain States at Del Norte. He stocked many streams in Colorado with high grade game and food fish. His best known work along this line is the development of the Gunnison River section. He was also instrumental in introducing the Chinese pheasants into the northern section of the State, where these beautiful birds still abound in great numbers.

In 1909 Mr. Farr was appointed undersheriff of Huerfano County, in which capacity he served as aid to the late Jefferson B. Farr until 1916. In 1921, he was appointed by Governor Shoup Water Commissioner for District No. 15, comprising Huerfano County and the southern part of Pueblo County, which position he held until the day of his demise, March 17th, 1922.

He is survived by his widow, one daughter, Jessie Farr Craddock, and two sons, James D. Farr and Thos. S. Farr, all of Walsenburg. Another daughter, Carolyn, died in 1912. There are also six grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Mr. Farr was a charter member of Walsenburg Lodge No. 1065, B. P. O. Elks, in which organization he was deeply interested.

The entire community marks with grief the passing of another pioneer, who has played no small part in the growth, development and upbuilding of his town, his county and his State. He was a good husband and father and a good citizen whom everyone loved, admired and respected. His loss will be keenly felt.

The funeral of Mr. Farr was held Tuesday afternoon at the Presbyterian Church, funeral discourses being given by Rev. J. Y. Bowman of the Methodist Church and Rev. G. S. Derley of the Presbyterian Church. Services at the grave were conducted by charter members of the Elks' Lodge.

The many floral tributes testified to the esteem in which he was universally held.

Poor But Presumptive

San Antonio Light: "Ask and you shall receive" seems to be the philosophy of life for many of the people who go to the charities for help. Their needs in many cases do not limit their desires.

A man, if he is really hungry and looks it to such an extent that some charitably inclined man whom he accosts on the street stakes him to a feed, can hardly expect when the meal is over for another to come along with an after dinner cigar and a box seat at the opera. Yet cases similar to this are not unheard of among the more ambitious of the needy.

A young lady walked into the office of one of the charity institutions Thursday afternoon and told her pitiful tale of no home, no clothes, no eats, no nothing. Her case was investigated and found worthy. She was down and out; poor as a church mouse in everything but desire. When she was given a meal ticket and an order for a night's lodging in one of the small hotels of the city, she heaved a sigh of contentment as if to size up the lady across the desk, then, in response to a friendly smile, she settled back in her chair and with a little sigh of contentment said, "Would you mind calling me a cab to take me to the hotel."

Two minutes later as she walked away the tilt of her head spoke eloquently of her belief as to what a stinky little old world this is.

MUSCLE SHOALS NOT LOST TO FORD, SAYS SENATOR CAPPER

The following article is from Senator Arthur Capper of Kansas, who is one of the outspoken and independent Republican Senators in that body. He is also owner of two daily papers—one at Topeka and the other at Kansas City, Kan., while he has several agricultural papers. It would be well for the people of the country if there were more such men as Senator Capper in the Senate:

"Although the Senate Committee on Agriculture declined by a vote of 7 to 9 to report favorably the Ford proposal to develop the Government's great power and fertilizer plant at Muscle Shoals, I believe Congress, eventually, will accept the Ford offer, in a modified form that fully protects the Government's interests. The committee also decided against the Norris bill for Government development of the project.

"I am for the Ford proposition unreservedly, because Henry Ford is the best man in the United States to handle the Muscle Shoals job. When I make a personal business deal for any man's services, I select the best man I can find regardless of his political views. Furthermore, Ford's offer is the only private proposal having enough merit in it to entitle it to any consideration whatever. On this point even the committee was unanimous.

"It is plainly a case of developing this great project by Henry Ford, or by the Government under direction of Secretary Weeks of the War Department. I think the farmers prefer Ford to Weeks for this big job. They believe Henry Ford, an intensely practical industrial genius, will come nearer to smashing the Fertilizer Trust than will Secretary Weeks, whose close affiliations with big business are common knowledge. Nor have the farmers forgotten that Secretary Weeks has on numerous occasions publicly expressed his opposition to the Farm Bloc, and has shown no sympathy for agriculture or interest in the problems of the farmer. Ford wants to see the farmers have a fair chance.

"After being here on the ground in Washington and seeing Government mismanagement of railroads and Shipping Board at close hand, I have no hesitancy in supporting the Ford proposition strongly.

"Ford is in fact the man who breathed the breath of life into Muscle Shoals. Until he interested himself in the project it was dead. The War Department had about decided to abandon it and charge off the enormous amount invested there as one of the regrettable but inevitable losses of the war. Then Ford and Thomas A. Edison looked the project over and Ford decided he could complete it and produce at a minimum cost an enormous amount of electric power, and great quantities of commercial fertilizer at a cost so low it would free the farmers of the United States from the grip of the Fertilizer Trust. There is no question, I think, about the latter proposition. I believe thoroughly in the sincerity of Ford and his ability to smash the Fertilizer Trust. That is one of the reasons I am for his proposal.

"However, a great cry arose at once that an effort was being made to give Ford something for nothing. Forgotten entirely was the fact that the Government was annually sinking great sums of money in keeping up the abandoned project; that to complete its development and operation by the Government would mean an unbroken stream of the taxpayers' money for years, and that at best Ford could not make to exceed 8 per cent.

"Men who had inveighed against Government mismanagement of railroads and shipping suddenly became champions of Government development and operation of water powers and nitrate plants.

"It appears that hatred of Henry Ford, or dislike for his political views, is so great that many men who detest Government ownership and Government operation of industry are willing to swallow even that bad mouthful rather than see Ford get Muscle Shoals.

"The situation makes apparent what a hard fight is ahead of those Senators who wish to see Ford develop Muscle Shoals, but I believe in the end it will result in victory. Victory may not come at this session of Congress. The men who don't like Ford, and the influences that wish to see no development of Muscle Shoals, may combine with those that wish to see the Government, and no private agency, develop the property, and so defeat the Ford proposition, but we shall fight hard to prevent that.

"Losing a skirmish doesn't matter if you finally win the battle. The Senators who are backing the Ford proposition as the only really practical proposal for the development of Muscle Shoals for service in time of war and to furnish farmers with cheap fertilizers in time of peace, have a big fight on their hands and are in that fight to a finish. As I see it, it is Ford and the people on one side, and the Fertilizer Trust and the private waterpower interests on the other. In the end Ford and the people will win."

A Triumph for Value

IN the past two months Firestone has built and marketed more tires than in any similar period in its history.

This steadily increasing public preference is proof of the recognition by car owners of the greater values offered by Firestone. It is a tribute to Firestone men—all stockholders in the company—all actuated by the operating principle of Most Miles per Dollar.

The high average performance of Firestone Cords is without equal in the annals of tire making and is reflected by the general tendency to specify Firestone for hard service. Taxicab and bus lines, buying tires by the mile, are universally equipping with Firestone Cords.

There are many reasons for the high quality of Firestone tires but chief among the special manufacturing processes are double gum-dipping, thus eliminating internal friction by insulating each cord strand, and air-bag cure, insuring a well-balanced and perfectly shaped product.

Don't speculate in tires—you will find the right combination of price and quality in Firestone. Come in and let us tell you about the service these Cords are giving other car-owners whom you know.

CATHOLIC CHURCH NOTES
By Father Kemper

NEW SUPERIORESS INSTALLED

This year the Rev. Mother General and her staff at the provincial house in San Antonio let us off with only one change on the faculties of Notre Dame Institute and Our Lady of Guadalupe School. We retain all our teachers except the directress, Mother Lasarian, who has been sent to New Orleans to take charge of St. Francis de Sales School with 400 pupils. On her faculty there she has the following nuns who used to belong to Notre Dame: Sisters Lidwina, Liboria and Xaverius. Mother Lasarian is replacing Mother Peter Nolasco (formerly of Notre Dame) who was on the Loyola University faculty during the summer, and has since been assigned to the new Incarnate Word College at Alamo Heights.

Our new superioress in Kerrville is Mother Anacletus, who comes from Hobson, Tex., where she was in charge of St. Boniface School. She arrived at Notre Dame on Thursday of last week, accompanied by Sr. Bridget Mary. On the same day Sr. Mary Blanche left for San Antonio. Her place in the musical conservatory is still to be filled, but the instructor will be the same as last year, namely Sr. Eugenia.

On Monday of last week, Sr. Felix, assistant novice-mistress, came here for a prolonged visit to Sr. Constance, who is her sister.

Labor Day Registration

Although the two parochial schools will not begin active work until Tuesday, September 5th, it is important that all pupils file their application on Monday at 9 a. m., so that the faculty gets a comprehensive prospectus. Many new scholars have spoken for reservation but no definite assurance can be given them until we learn how the enrollment in each class stands. As soon as a specified number is reached, no more pupils will be accepted, because we want to safeguard against the handicaps resulting from an overcrowded condition.

Since Labor Day is a legal holy day in every State (except Wyoming) neither school will be open on Monday afternoon.

Many of our Notre Dame boarders have already left Kerrville. Mary Louise and Helen Ahnert were taken to Fort Worth by their father, who came here for them last Friday. John Ahnert expects to continue in the bakery business in or near Fort Worth, and will place his daughters in Our Lady of Victoria Academy. Miss Eva Christ, an aunt of Mary Louise and Helen, received her veil as a Sister of Charity on the feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin and was given the name of Sr. M. Cornelia.

Misses Alberta Woodman and Mary Taylor returned on Sunday to Holy Angels Academy in Boerne. Mr. Juarez motored here on Sunday to take his daughters, Bridget and Jane, with him. Mr. Mapes had come here on Thursday of last week to take home his daughter, Louise. At the same time Miss Lillian Beck returned to San Antonio.

Mathias C. Treiber with his family of nine children moved to Kerrville in order to place his eligible boys and girls at Notre Dame.

Mrs. Thos. L. Lacour, who had been here two years ago, decided to come this time with all her family from Kenner, La.

From San Antonio we have the family of Clarence Earl Pearce.

A registration for 1927 was made last Saturday evening when Rudolph Stehling got a nine-pound daughter, named Grace Estelle. Had the youngster come a day sooner, it would have been on Rudolph's seventh wedding anniversary. Clarence Mosel, an old Notre Dame athlete, motored here with Nobel Means on Saturday. Both players belong to the Ajax team that defeated our boys Sunday.

Friday Auxiliary Meeting

In place of the customary Friday social, St. Mary's Auxiliary will hold a business session this Friday at 8:30 p. m. in Washington Hall at Notre Dame.

The dance last Friday was not so well attended as previous ones, because there were three local shows and the Fredericksburg Fair to draw many of our young folks.

Mrs. Ida Kirkpatrick, who accepted the responsibility in our parish for the Near East Relief Work, reports with gratitude the receipt of numerous and large packages of serviceable clothing.

First Friday services will be held in the Convent Chapel at 7 a. m. All who belong to the Children of Mary Sodality are reminded to assemble in the chapel at 7 o'clock next Sunday.

Beginning with Labor Day the old program will be resumed, i. e., Angelus bell at 6:30 instead of 7 a. m., and daily mass at 7:35 a. m.

Last Sunday the semi-monthly engagement at Comfort was filled. This mission will be visited again on the 12th and on the 24th of September. On the latter day the Knights of Columbus will hold an initiation. This patriotic fraternity has just announced that their $3,000 cash prize for the best essay on an American historical subject was awarded to a Presbyterian professor in Whitman College, Walla, Walla, Wash.

Summer Guests

Rev. Jerome Rapp returned to LaPorte Seminary in the early part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spencer, guests of Mr. Farrish at "Portiuncula" went back to San Antonio.

Miss Clara Wissel is visiting her friend, Dorothy Baker, and will remain until she has to resume her teaching in one of the public schools of Cincinnati.

Miss Maria Bridgewater, a Houston public school teacher, is recuperating at Hillcrest.

Mesdames Beamer and Lenox were delighted to receive a visit from a former patient, Miss Nora Kelly, who has held down her position in the Lockhart post office.

Florence Taylor, who is a patient at Hillcrest, received a visit last Sunday from her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Taylor, of Liberty. Dr. Lawrence Gatz and wife, relatives of the Taylor family, left for New Orleans.

Those having the misfortune to suffer from backache, urinary disorders, gravel, dropsical swellings, rheumatic pains, or other kidney and bladder disorders, will read with gratification this encouraging statement by a Kerrville man.

Frank Michon, City Marshal, Broadway, Kerrville, says: "My kidneys were out of order and every time I got wet or took cold, it settled on my kidneys. I had a soreness and a dull ache in the small of my back that worried me, and my kidneys didn't act right. I used Doan's Kidney Pills, bought at the Rock Pharmacy, and they soon fixed me up in good shape, the backaches left and my kidneys were regulated. I am always glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for I know they are just as represented."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Michon had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. (Advertisement).

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
J. B. HOLT, Pastor

The Worker's Council of the First Baptist Church Bible School held its regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening, August 22nd, and the following new officers and teachers were elected: Miss Ermine Welborn, general secretary; L. W. McCoy, teacher for the Berean Class; Harvey Mosty, for the First Grade Junior Boys; Miss Bessie Biehler, for Miss Turley's Class and Miss Edith Tullis to succeed Miss Mabel Deering. Mrs. O. E. Watson was elected superintendent of the Cradle Roll Department. Other officers elected were as follows: Miss Theora McWilliams, superintendent-secretary of Intermediate Department; Miss Flora Welborn, superintendent-secretary of Senior Department, and Miss Opal McWilliams, secretary of Primary Department.

Chas. J. Wesch, An Appreciation

The resignation of C. J. Wesch Jr. as general secretary of the Sunday School was read and reluctantly accepted. A change in his plans made it impossible for him to serve any longer than the 1st of September. The Council gave Charlie a rising vote of thanks and appreciation for the splendid work which he has done. No Sunday School ever had a better or more efficient general secretary than Chas. Wesch. He has gotten all the records in correct shape and has about brought the Sunday School up to the A-1 Standard of Excellence. Always faithful to his job he was a joy and a blessing to us all. Every member of the Bible School appreciates the work he has done. He was the man who originated and pushed the Kerrville Sunday School League, which gave us so much pleasure and profit last winter in our athletic and spelling contests. He believes in doing well whatever he undertakes.

Honor Roll for August

The following is the Sunday School Honor Roll for August:

Officers and teachers: F. E. Garrett, Rev. J. B. Holt, Mrs. Holt, Mrs. Butt, Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Anglin, C. H. Richardson and Mrs. Garrett; Beginners Department, James Holt and Elizabeth Richards; Primary Department, Theodora Buvens, Annie Laurie Canfield, Honey B. Griffin, David Clark, Eileen Garrett, Malcolm Richardson, Dorothy Turley, Zella B. Buvens, Suzanne Clark and Callie Patton; Junior Department, Bonnie Gray, Emma Mackey, Mildred Richardson, Hugh Clark, Brooks Holt, Allen Hunt and Guy Zachry; Intermediate Department, Thomas Clark and Arthur Inscore.

The women had their regular missionary and social meeting at the beautiful home of Mrs. L. W. McCoy Tuesday afternoon. The program was helpful and the attendance very good. Mrs. McCoy and Miss Lucile proved themselves very gracious entertainers. Delightful refreshments were served before the company dispersed.

The Prayer Meeting Wednesday night of last week was a big improvement over the week before. Bro. A. L. Aulick of Austin was present and made a stimulating talk on the "Power of Prayer."

The pastor preached Sunday morning to a good congregation. Bro. H. P.

Davis of Austin preached at night on "Who Is to Blame." It was a fine lecture and the people enjoyed it. A number of our people will attend the Association this week at Medina.

Dr. A. L. Aulick will preach for us next Sunday morning. Do not fail to hear him. He is a man with a message. The pastor will also be present. Let us make next Sunday a day worth while.

Baptist Missionary Union

Miss Faye Turley was hostess Tuesday afternoon to the members of the Woman's Missionary Union of the Baptist Church in their daily and missionary program.

Matters of business, relative to the Association at Medina, were disposed of, with the president, Mrs. Jack Moore, presiding.

Mrs. C. H. Richardson led the devotional service, after which Miss Edith Tullis gave a talk on the Association's work.

During the social hour two unique contests were very much enjoyed—the first being an "Art Contest" and the other, shaping an animal out of chewing gum. This caused much merriment, as some of the animals had to be labeled to be identified.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. On each plate was a small booklet bearing the name of the hostess and the date, and on the inside there was written, "Try and see if you don't find me at Seminary Hill," which was a gentle reminder to everyone present to visit Miss Turley while at the Missionary Training School this winter.

Miss Turley was assisted in entertaining by her mother, Mrs. G. O. Turley, and sister, Mattie Turley.

Episcopal Church

Monday of this week the Vestry of St. Peter's met at the Rectory. The meeting was held on the lawn and a good amount of business was transacted. Two new members were added to the Vestry, E. W. Schmidt and Dr. Robinson. These, along with Cecil Robinson and Ed. Mosel, were appointed as a Finance Committee. Otho Morris is to assist Cecil Robinson as a Welcoming Committee.

The Mission of Christian Healing, to be conducted by the Rev. Dr. Gagner Banks, will commence this Thursday night and will continue for ten days. Meetings at 10 a. m. and 8 p. m. Dr. Banks has had considerable success in this branch of his work and great interest is being manifested by many. All are welcome.

The weekly Silver Tea was given by Mrs. Gus F. Schreiner at her beautiful home on the hill. There was a splendid attendance in spite of the hot weather. The refreshments were elaborate.

The New York Public Library is experimenting with a method to preserve newspaper files for future use in centuries to come. Japanese paper, which is transparent, is pasted on every page, rendering the page impervious to the agencies that destroy newspaper. Thus protected they will last indefinitely and constant handling gives no evidence of wear.

The personnel included Misses Bess Booth, Celeste Jones and Frances Hale; Mesdames Leslie Jones of Houston, Mrs. T. A. Williams of Rock-springs, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Prescott, Judge and Mrs. W. C. Baker and Dr. and Mrs. S. E. Thompson; Messrs. Philip Rush, Everett Henderson, Bruce Magee and Francis Melcar.

Indigestion

Many persons, otherwise vigorous and healthy, are bothered occasionally with indigestion. The effects of a disordered stomach on the system are dangerous, and prompt treatment of indigestion is important. "The only medicine I have needed has been something to aid digestion and clean the liver," writes Mr. Fred Ashby, a McKinney, Texas, farmer. "My medicine is

How to Help

One of the most difficult things in the world is to help men. How to do it, in the most effective sense has been the burden of human philosophy since ancient days and is the purpose of all modern philanthropy.

The business world believes that men are really helped only when they are aided and encouraged to help themselves.

J. F. NORFLEET DOES ANOTHER BIT OF WORK

Fort Worth Star-Telegram: "They picked the wrong bird for plucking when they picked Norfleet. They tried to work a $5,000 swindle on the man who caught Joe Furey."

This was the comment made by Philip Vance, District Attorney of Denver, after the arrest of 33 men on charges of conducting confidence operations in Colorado, Florida, Cuba and other tourist centers. The information leading to the arrests was supplied by J. F. Norfleet of Hale Center, Texas, who thus added another chapter to a story that would make many a movie thriller seem tame by comparison.

"When I came to Denver," said Norfleet, "I recognized one of the old gang standing on the corner. He didn't recognize me so I knew I had a bit of work cut out for me. For two days and nights I played their game. I can play any game except that of a good looking, attractive wise man."

Norfleet let them believe they had a new victim. But as the District Attorney said, they "picked the wrong bird."

The persistence with which this modest-looking Texan has tracked confidence men since the time Joe Furey and his gang swindled him in Fort Worth should command the admiration of all. He has been performing a genuine public service and has been given an example to the duly constituted authorities in this matter of tracking criminals.

"Somebody's got to clear the earth of these vermin," he said yesterday. "They prey on the innocent. I know 24 men in Texas and elsewhere who have been robbed, broken-hearted, and some have died because of the villany of these confidence men. Somebody's got to fight them to a finish and I'm the man that's willing to do it."

The work of this man, whose appearance is that of a simple farmer and who was indeed only a simple farmer until the confidence men crossed his path, should command the admiration of all. And yet his only reward so far has been the financial losses he has incurred. He has paid his own expenses throughout. And without the resources of the constituted authorities he has rounded up some of the slickest confidence men of this generation. He has set a standard in public service for the authorities. And yet he goes unrewarded. Ought that record be permitted to stand?

When Governor Neff favored the piking of Ferguson's name on the ticket for United States Senator, many thought the Governor had committed a grievous political mistake, but it has proven a wise one. Had Ferguson's name not been put on his wife's would, and she might have polled a larger vote than he did. And again, by the vote cast for Ferguson in each primary, it shows that he has a large following, and had he not been accorded a place on the regular Democratic ticket, he might have joined the opposition forces and carried many good and misguided Democrats with him. As it is, we believe, that Ferguson is a dead duck, politically.

Kerrville hasn't anything to make it a manufacturing or railroad center, so it must depend upon its unsurpassed climate and the character of its citizenship to build a little city that will appeal to the man with means who desires a nice place to secure health and pleasant surroundings. You cannot make an educational and moral city by catering to the lawless, immoral and profligate elements. And the health seeker will begin to shy away from such a place, and especially if there is not orderly government, quietude and good sanitary conditions. To let cars race up and down the streets at all hours of the night with cut outs wide open, raising dust as well as hell, will not assist in restoring the invalids to health, nor be any antidote for their nervousness.

Many personal friends, regardless of their politics, of Ex-Senator Julius Reast will regret that he declined to accept the nomination for State Senator on the Republican ticket. In his speech, declining the nomination, he stated that were he younger he might accede to their request. He also stated that he had voted for a number of Democrats all his life, and that the right kind of a man was of more importance than his party brand—and in this he is right. Today, in Congress and throughout the various States, party lines are not much adhered to, and the victory is beginning to be more frequent with the party that selects capable, honest and moral men as standard bearers. Judge Reast has already given eighteen years to the public in office and none of the positions had sufficient salary attached to pay expenses. He considers that this is as much sacrifice as he ought to be expected to make.

EVER TRY "CHEER-O" ON YOURSELF?

Houston Chronicle: Every try to install a little "pep" into yourself in the morning?

Ever look at the sun as it comes up and make yourself joyous for another day—a new born day?

Not "another day of grind," that is not the right spirit in which to greet the day.

Another day to be thankful for, another day, your privilege.

Open up your heart and your mind and let nature have a chance.

Nature is joyous. Nature does not grumble with the cold and snarl at the sign of daylight.

Nature goes to sleep with the birds and gets up with the sun, and comes out brighter and happier with every storm that breaks.

Get some ginger into your step and some happiness into your voice.

Don't board a car at the corner—walk a while—all the way, if you have time in going to your employment.

Get the scowl off your face, think pleasant thoughts and allow them to take possession of you.

Fill your lungs with the pure air, and mentally sing—it is good to be alive.

Take some interest in the birds, they are your friends.

Get a rhythmic swing into your step, and music will fill your heart.

The Gillespie County Fair passed of last week and is reported to have been quite well attended. The management of that Fair as well as Kendall County will please accept the thanks of The Sun for complimentary tickets.

The bonus bill for ex-soldiers is to pass the United States Senate and contains provision to use interest on debts due this country by the European nations. That is rather a slim source of supply to judge by what has so far been received on the debts—nix.

John H. Ward, president; Ally Beitel, secretary-treasurer, and his assistants, Cecil Robinson and Junior Schreiner, who looked after the racing, have done some hard work to make the West Texas Fair a success. They are to be commended for their energy and labor, which is only a thank you, and some times not much of that.

Ranger, Texas, one of the toughest towns in the United States during the oil boom days, and for which it went through travail of bank failures, business depression and almost ruin, had a meeting of 1,000 citizens last Sunday that demanded the dismissal of the entire police force of the city because it failed to enforce the laws regarding gambling, bootlegging and immoral women. The city commission was routed out of bed at midnight and required to fire the police force, and citizens volunteered for duty until the proper officers can be secured. A school teacher was selected as chief of police. That shows what results from non-enforcement of laws and catering to the baser things of life. It ought to prove an object lesson to many towns and cities.

Bandera New Era, Aug. 24th: Mrs. J. A. Miller has a crocheted counterpane made by Aunt Mary Hudspeth six years ago, when Mrs. Hudspeth was 82 years old. This counterpane is a beauty in design and required much patient effort on the part of its maker. It was crocheted and the lace fringe was made by hand. Now, if our ladies of today who do crocheted work, fancy embroidery, tatting, drawn work, and the like, want to see a specimen of the kind of work our pioneer mothers could do, they will see Aunt Mary's counterpane at the Fair, for Mrs. Miller will place it on display in the Ladies' Department.

Mr. and Mrs. Hy. Kuhlmann and family, together with Mrs. Oswald Herzog and family, have returned from a ten days' fishing trip on the Guadalupe River above Hunt. They report a delightful time and good fishing. The camping trip was complimentary to Lawrence Kuhlmann, who has come to Kerrville to make a specialty of growing and selling ferns.

Editor J. E. Cooke of the Rockdale Reporter and his son, Bill, were pleasant callers at The Sun office Monday morning. Mr. Cooke had been in this section a week or so camping and recuperating. He is much pleased with the scenery and healthful climate here and may send his daughter to Kerrville to spend the winter, as she is recovering from the flu.

The editor of The Sun and wife had the pleasure Thursday of last week to accompany Judge H. C. Geddie and wife to "Kamp King" at Hunt, where we found as guests Mrs. Pattie W. Neff, sister-in-law of Gov. Pat M. Neff, and Mrs. Espa Stanford, private secretary to the Governor. Mr. and Mrs. King are charming and hospitable and take great pleasure in entertaining friends. In addition to the delightful social time had during the day we were treated to a fine dinner of three courses, which taxed the healthy appetite of the writer. In the afternoon Mrs. King and her guests returned to Kerrville with us and visited the American Legion Memorial Sanatorium, where Superintendent Carey conducted them through one of the wards and a slight-seeing trip was made around the campus. The visitors expressed surprise at the magnitude of the Sanatorium and were delighted with the progress being made.

Happy Birthday Celebration

Miss Marie Speckels was hostess to a big birthday party last Friday Morning at Lake Side Park.

By 9:30 o'clock the guests began to arrive and there were about sixty of them, both boys and girls. They were received at the door of the pavilion by Florence Speckels and Charles Wilburn Rosenberg of Hallettsville, a cousin of the little hostess, and having exchanged greetings they were invited to the punch bowl, where this cooling beverage was dispensed by Misses Elizabeth Eastland and Velma Brown in a charming manner. Each guest were here given a colored cap and a pair of deformed goggles, which caused great hilarity.

A number of contests were entered into by the little folks, and the one that furnished the most fun was pinning an eye on an old man's face. The girl winning a prize for placing the eye nearest where it should be was Jerry Beitel, who received a Dutch doll; the boy was Brooks Holt, who received a curiosity elephant; the booby was given to Elizabeth Eastland, which was a barking toy dog.

Favors of tin horns and harps were given each guest and they formed a line of march and assisted Mrs. E. C. Fisk in furnishing music for their steps. Mrs. Speckels was assisted in serving ice cream and cake to those in attendance by Mesdames Chas. Morris, E. C. Fisk, G. Martin and Miss Elsie Johnston.

Yeleta, Texas, is the oldest town in the United States, according to tradition. It is believed the town was founded in 1540 by Don Francisco Vasquez Coronado, a Spanish explorer. This would make it 25 years older than St. Augustine, Fla., the oldest town of authentic record.

In 1877, Thomas A. Edison spoke into the first model phonograph mouthpiece: "Mary had a little lamb—". Upon examination he found indentations on the tin foil record. He replaced the record, turned the crank and back from the cylinder came a thin voice but without a word of the recitation missing. Thus was born the phonograph.

Ham Prices Are Down

Ham—Boiled, Baked (Hot or Cold), Broiled, or Fried—is one of the most appetizing and savory foods that the market offers.

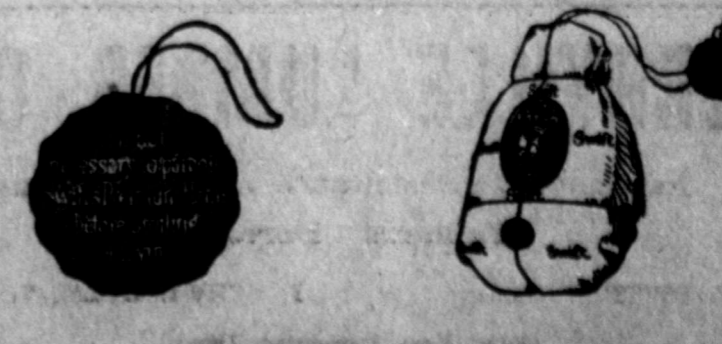

The wholesale price of ham is fifteen to twenty per cent lower than it was six weeks ago.

The U. S. Dept. of Agriculture in an announcement dated June 19, 1922, in referring to vitamins found in meat said, "Various cuts of meat were tried, and in every instance pork was found to be relatively rich in vitamins. Pork tenderloin, fresh ham, smoked ham, and pressed boiled ham were tested and the results were much the same with all of them.

Swift's Premium Hams are always of a uniform high standard of quality, regardless of price. A special cure of sugar and salt, and smoking over hardwood fires impart a flavor that has made "Premium" Ham the world's standard.

Summer time is ham time. Insist on having "Swift's Premium"—see the blue identification tag.

JEALOUS OF EVA

By MILDRED WHITE

Copyright, 1922, Western Newspaper Union.

I could see that Billy Newman was taken with Dora, as all Prescott boys were. She had come among us, with Miss Theodora Danvers, properly engraved on her visiting cards, and stopped with Mrs. Evans which alone, was a recommendation. Yet, no woman in our crowd seemed to take to Dora Danvers. Some went so far as to warn their sons against her, as a blighter. But our Prescott mothers are not to be relied on where their wonderful sons are concerned. Which sounds bitter, coming from a young woman—and is.

Ted Lorimer and I would have been married long ago, if his mother did not regularly take an attack of dependent invalidism, the moment the suggestion is made, of leaving her despotism. But this is not my story; the illustration prepares you for the rest.

Billy Newman's mother has determined that if the worst must come—in the possibility of his marriage, it shall be to Eva Vaughn, whose father made a fortune in oil.

So when Billy longs for feminine society, Mrs. Newman gives him Eva. The two did appear to be getting along chummily together, when Dora flashed on the scene.

When Billy began to neglect Eva and spend his evenings where Dora was, his mother reminded him of Dick and his disappointment.

"A girl like that is neither dependable or honest," she said, "when she deceives in one way, she will in another. A man wants a trustworthy wife, if he is to have peace or comfort in married life."

I repeated the sentiment to Dora, not betraying Mrs. Newman, of course, but putting it as my own. Dora turned to me with a pretty puzzled air.

"But, Sallie dear," she said, "how is one to know a man loves until he tells one so? Shall I, for instance go around fearfully expecting every pleasant male to be overcome with my charms? Now, wouldn't," laughed Dora, "that be silly."

Eva is awfully sweet and clever. Her cleverness takes Mrs. Newman, combined with her manner of deferential humility.

Of late, Eva has constantly been exhibiting new skill. Billy, through his mother, appeared to value these accomplishments. And, really, I began to grow anxious—fearing that for the first time in her life, my favorite Dora was seriously and hopelessly interested in a man.

Eva exhibited a new hat which added greatly to her attraction. It was just the sort of hat she should always have worn, but did not. Mrs. Newman explained that Eva had made the hat herself, out of a mere scrap of straw and silk, just to show individuality.

Dora, standing near at the time, looked coldly at the hat, I thought, and spoke no word of praise. It was the first thing about Dora that I did not like. Petty jealousy in woman is my abhorrence.

When I am jealous its the downright kind—with reason. And so I thought—which made me hate myself that perhaps Billie's mother was a better judge of character than I—perhaps Dora Danvers was all for conquest—brooking no praise of another.

About this time our reading club offered a prize for the cleverest review of the year's work. We had most of us been college students together, which made it interesting, and brought back the old exciting debates. Dora had not been with us a year, so of course she could not enter the contest.

Here I expected Eva's cleverness to be dimmed—at school she had been anything but a bright and shining light—I was wrong. Again, Eva shone triumphantly. Beside her witty brilliance my labored effort was like a child's crude essay.

The audience invited to Mrs. Evans' home for the reading, applauded. And Mrs. Newman basked in Eva's triumph as though the engagement she desired were already a settled thing. When we crowded up to congratulate Eva, Dora came with strange reluctance. In her eyes I fancied a disdainful expression—I regarded her in pained disapproval.

"Why can't you be big?" my disappointed self was saying. "Oh, Dora, why can't you be fair?" But of course, I didn't speak. Billie's eyes on her wonderingly, seemed to say the same thing.

"Wasn't that a clever review?" Mrs. Newman asked.

Dora turned aside. "You think so?" she answered doubtfully.

Mrs. Evans, Juliet, who was placing a luncheon cloth on a table near us, looked up, with a grin, as Dora moved away.

"Missie Dora can't praise 'bout what she done herself," said Juliet. "And Missie Dora writ that there piece for dat Eva. I was fixin' Missie Dora's room, when Miss Eva she called, an' ask her to do it. 'An' don't you say nothin' 'bout you doin' it,'" laughs Eva. "Course I won't," says Missie Dora careless—like when she giv' Miss Eva the hat she was trimmin' to wear herself. 'Ef you like it so much,' says Missie Dora, 'take the hat. I kin' make another.' I watched the colored maid out of sight.

"Juliet always speaks the truth," I told Billie. He smiled. "So does my heart," he said.
