HUGE CROWDS ATTEND SECOND ANNUAL HILL COUNTRY TRACK AND LITERARY MEET

More Than 400 Contestants From Nearly 20 Schools in Six Counties Compete in Athletic Events Held Here Last Friday and Saturday.

FREDERICKSBURG AND KLEIN BRANCH TAKE CUPS SECOND TIME

Tivy High Nosed Out by 11 Points for Championship by Last Year's Winner—Officers Re-elected at Luncheon at Schreiner Institute Saturday.

The second annual Hill Country Track and Literary Meet, held here last Friday and Saturday, was brought to a close Saturday night with the formal presentation of loving cups to high point schools and medals and ribbons to individual winners.

The meet was a big success in every way. At a luncheon of teachers and officials last Saturday noon at Schreiner Institute Raymond A. Franklin was re-elected director-general and instructed to appoint a committee of three for the purpose of drawing up a constitution for a permanent Hill Country League.

The meet will be held in Kerrville again next year, it was decided at the Saturday meeting. Bandera, Kimble, Kendall, Kerr, Gillespie, Edwards and Real Counties were named to membership for the ensuing year.

The meet was formally opened Friday morning when more than 400 contestants gathered in the auditorium of Tivy High School where Supt. R. A. Franklin welcomed them with a short talk after which he gave final details and assignments of officials and events.

Competition began at 10 o'clock with essay writing, spelling, music memory contest, girls' tennis and field events for boys. The literary events were held in class rooms at the High School with tennis on the Schreiner Institute courts and field events on the High School campus.

Track events got under way at Schreiner Field about 1:30 and continued through the greater part of the afternoon. Declaration and debating took place in the High School auditorium Friday night. Practically the same program was followed Saturday with the exception that some of the events began about 9 o'clock.

Rain Makes Track Slippery Friday morning was clear and crisp, but clouds gathered after dinner and rain fell during the night, making the grounds rather wet and slippery Saturday. Drizzles and showers prevailed during the early part of the morning, but practically all of the events went off on schedule time. Saturday afternoon was clear and warm and the track dried off somewhat.

Debating finals were held Saturday morning instead of in the evening as first planned. This was made necessary because of the large number of entries and it was feared the event could not be completed in the time allotted that night.

Fredricksburg was awarded the loving cup for high point school in Class A and Klein Branch carried off the honors in Class B. Both schools were winners of the cups for their respective divisions last year and another win will entitle them to keep the trophies permanently.

Fredricksburg nosed out Tivy High School of this city by a margin of only 11 points, while Klein Branch had a 63-point lead over her nearest rival.

Point Winners Named The official score in points were: Class A, Fredricksburg 198; Kerrville 187; Boerne 132; Schreiner Institute 89; Junction 41; Center Point 26. Class B, Klein Branch 156; Medina 80; Sunset 40; Upper Cibolo 25; Hunt 6 and Tuff 1.

Individual high point winners in each division were awarded bronze medals. They were: Class A, Senior boy, Motte, Schreiner, 20; junior boy, Irving, Center Point, 21; senior girl, Turley, Tivy, 19 1/2; junior girl, Covert, Tivy, 16 1/2. Class B, senior boy, Nichols, Klein Branch, 25; junior boy, Key, Ingram, 17 1/2; senior girl, Nichols, Klein Branch, 25; junior girl, Duderstadt, Klein Branch, 20.

Schreiner Institute showed up well in track and field events, her athletes winning the majority of points in those divisions. Tivy juniors were the main point winners for the local high school. Literary entries also won a number of points for the Purple and Gold.

Tivy Girls Play Good Tennis Girls' tennis took place Friday morning with boys' singles and doubles Saturday morning. Kott of Fredricksburg copped the girls' singles title from Boerne after the latter had eliminated Tivy in the first round.

MAY HOLD TEACHERS' INSTITUTE IN KERRVILLE NEXT SEPTEMBER

Teachers of Hill Country Start Move to Meet Here Every Year Instead of in San Antonio.

An institute for schools of the Hill Country will be held in Kerrville next September if present plans go through, according to Supt. R. A. Franklin of the local schools.

Such a proposition was discussed last Saturday at a luncheon given by Schreiner Institute for teachers visiting the Hill Country Track Meet.

A number of school people were in favor of forming such an institute and steps will probably be taken to do so.

Judge Mansfield of Bandera came over Saturday for the special purpose of being present at the discussion and to assist in putting such an idea across.

Other superintendents who were in attendance expressed favor of the proposition and urged that the institute be started next year.

The plan of holding a teachers' institute here has been discussed among local teachers and a number of those in the schools of Kerr County for some time past, it is said. Starting of a move for its formation was gladly welcomed.

Superintendent Franklin was instructed to make inquiries to learn what could be done in the way of special talent for lectures and other program features, the result of which will be submitted to the teachers of Bandera, Kimble, Kendall, Kerr and Gillespie Counties as soon as possible.

President J. J. Delaney of Schreiner Institute told the meeting that the institute could accommodate all of the teachers who would attend the meeting planned for the first week in September.

A teachers' institute has not been held here for some years past, that for this district taking place in San Antonio, and efforts are being made to reinstate the school here beginning next fall.

THREE-DAY RODEO TO START AT BASEBALL PARK THIS AFTERNOON

Business Houses to Close for First Day's Program—A Number of Crack Riders to Take Part.

The round-up and rodeo under the auspices of Garrett-Baker Post No. 13, American Legion, will open at the baseball stadium at 2:30 this afternoon with a number of crack riders, ropers and other cowboy stunts in attendance.

Practically all arrangements are complete for the three-day meet. Eighteen Brahma steers and 20 bronchos have been secured to furnish a big part of the entertainment. Arrangements have been completed for seating 1,200 people in addition to the present capacity of the three grandstands. Electric lighting fixtures had been installed Wednesday noon to permit night crowds.

Broncho busting, trick and fancy riding and roping, steer bulldozing and other rodeo stunts will take place. Bull-dogging a la auto will also be one of the features each day. This will be performed by Leonard Ward and Shorty Gideon from a Chevrolet car.

Lee Robinson of Kingman, Ariz., world's champion calf roper, will be one of the headliners during the three-day show. Robinson recently broke his own world record at Houston when he roped and tied a calf in 15 1-5 seconds.

Other crack riders who will be here for the rodeo include Bobby Askins, Mr. and Mrs. Jonas de Arman, Roy Mays, "Powder River" Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Dan McNally, Shorty Bicker, trick and fancy roper, Midge Roberts, Grampa John Henry, the oldest and ugliest bronc rider in captivity, E. Pardee, Jimmy Kushman, Paddy Ryan, Roy Quick and others.

More than 75 entries have already been received and prospects are very bright for a good show.

LOT SALE AND BARBECUE AT M. E. ENCAMPMENT TUESDAY

Big Attendance Expected at Opening of Grounds—Program Committee to Make Report.

Next Tuesday will witness the formal opening of the grounds of the new Kerrville Methodist Encampment three miles west of the city. A big barbecue and lot sale is slated to take place that day.

Several important conferences of officials are also to be held here Monday night and Tuesday. Hundreds of people are expected to rally here Tuesday to spend a day in this wonderful Hill Country, inspecting the new assembly site and seeing the progress that has already been made in the way of improvements.

Arrangements are complete, it is understood, for an all-day barbecue and picnic for the entertainment of the visitors.

About 150 choice lots, ranging in price from $100 to $1,000 each, are to be offered for sale the opening day. No difficulty is expected in disposing of the major portion of them.

A joint meeting of the executive committees of the board of trustees and the board of managers will be held here Monday night, March 31, and the entire board will meet Tuesday for the consideration of important matters pertaining to the encampment.

The special committee on program is to make its report to the board of managers and plans for the coming summer encampment will be consummated.

It is expected that a big Epworth League program will be one of the features of the summer program, and that a Standard Training School will be put on by the Sunday School Board.

Another feature that looms large in the program for the first encampment is an old-fashioned camp meeting. Rev. Arthur J. Moore of San Antonio has been invited to take charge of this service on the mountain top and is to give a final answer to the meeting here Tuesday.

Many improvements are being made on the grounds. Among them are two roads from the Old Spanish Trail to the top of the mountain, a water system, electric lights, telephone, cafeteria and a number of tents.

Work is being rushed in order to have everything in readiness for the program to begin July 8 and last until August 3.

THE WEEK IN SOCIETY

Mrs. Harwood Entertains
 Mrs. Miller Harwood entertained the Justamere Bridge Club at her home, 608 Earl Garrett Street, Tuesday afternoon. High score was won by Miss Helena Brown.

At the end of six games delightful refreshments were served to the members and the following guests: Misses Catherine Parr, Kate Conger and Helena Brown.

Mrs. W. C. Fawcett will be hostess to the club next week at the home of Mrs. Gerald Walther.

Sub-Debs Entertained
 Last Saturday Misses Lucille and Ruth McCoy entertained the Sub-Debs at their home, 621 Washington Street. High score was won by Ada Nance and Lucille Taylor. Genevieve Hagens captured low score.

After the scores were counted a delicious salad course was served to the members and the following guests of the club: Anna Belle Council and Mary E. Clapp.

The next meeting will be held with Ada Nance at her home, 1121 North Street, Saturday, March 29.

Bridge Party at Legion
 Tuesday evening a very enjoyable bridge party was given in the recreation hall at Legion under the direction of the local Red Cross and the Red Cross at the hospital.

Ten tables of players enjoyed the occasion. About 25 young ladies from Kerrville and the young ladies of the personnel at the hospital were invited.

Ladies' high score was won by Miss Cleone Deaver and that for men went to Mr. Moore.

Ice cream and cake were served to the guests. The Legion orchestra furnished delightful music throughout the evening.

Mrs. J. S. Wheelless Entertains A. L. A.
 The Auxiliary to the American Legion met last Friday afternoon with Mrs. J. S. Wheelless.

Plans for the entertainment of the State President, Mrs. S. E. Hudson, of Austin, and also the National President, Mrs. Franklin Bishop, of Massachusetts, who will be in Kerrville April 5, were made.

On account of her work with the Red Cross, the president, Mrs. G. M. Doyle, tendered her resignation to the Auxiliary. This was accepted with a great deal of regret as Mrs. Doyle has made a very efficient officer. Mrs. E. E. Palmer was elected president and Mrs. C. C. Mason and Maude Short Vicry, vice-presidents.

During the social hour the hostess served a delicious salad course to about 25 members.

Farewell Party for the Garretts
 Tuesday evening in the church parlors the members of the Baptist Church tendered a farewell reception to Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Garrett, who are leaving in the near future to make their home in Junction.

The guests were greeted at the entrance by Mrs. A. B. Williamson, Mrs. Florence Butt and Mrs. L. B. Clapp, and ushered into the parlors. These rooms were tastefully arranged with ferns, hyacinth blossoms in pastel shades and gorgeous red geraniums.

The following program was given during the evening: Piano solo, Margaret Morris; vocal solo, Mrs. Latham; piano solo, Lucille McCoy; reading, Ruth Morris; piano solo, Elizabeth Clapp; reading, Helen McCreary; piano solo, Mrs. McCreary. Eugene Butt, as master of ceremonies, made a brief address of farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Garrett, wishing them happiness, prosperity and congenial relations with fellow workers in their new home, realizing, however, that the chairs made vacant by their departure would be indeed hard to fill.

In behalf of the membership Mr. Butt presented the honorees with a set of silver dessert spoons as a token of their appreciation of Mr. Garrett's services as Sunday School superintendent and Mrs. Garrett's endeavors in the woman's society, as well as their devotion to other branches of service.

Mr. Garrett responded to the address and it was with heavy hearts that the members realized that the time had come to say goodbye.

The women of the church served a delicious plate luncheon to about 125 members and guests.

AMERICAN LEGION MEETING
LAST THURSDAY NIGHT
 An interesting meeting of the Garrett-Baker Post No. 13, American Legion, was held at the Chamber of Commerce Building Thursday evening, March 20, 1924.

Many items of business were discussed and disposed of, chief among which was the perfecting of plans for the rodeo to be held March 27-29. The Post has been fortunate in securing contracts with some of the world's champions in fancy riding, bull-dogging and other events. There will be two performances daily with a change of program each performance.

And last, but by no means least, will be a big jubilee dance at Lake Side Park Saturday evening, beginning after the last act at the rodeo. This dance is also being staged by the American Legion.

How about it, buddies? Isn't it about time for you to join the American Legion and go marching along with the band? REPORTER.

Some community in Texas is going to receive about $600 for their efforts and work in winning these prizes, and R. L. Mangum, local distributor for the Delco-Light plants, says that he only hopes he can have the honor of installing this prize plant in some one of Kerr County's progressive communities.

The District and State prizes for organized club work this year are ample rewards for time and work spent by the boys and girls in club activities besides the great educational benefit they will receive.

TIVY HIGH NOTES

By Lucille Taylor

Carlette Tarver and Ruth McCoy spent Saturday and Sunday in San Antonio.

The Seniors have decided on their play which is to be given about May 18. "Out of Court" is the name of the play and it seems to be a dandy one. It is written by the same author that the Senior play last year was written by.

There is some talk of the boys organizing a physical culture club here at school. Harold Osbourne was elected chairman and he appointed a committee to see Mr. Franklin as to what activities they could include in the club.

The track meet last week end was a great success. Old Tivy pulled the top this year. Rising from 17 points last year to 187 this year is a good record. By only 11 points Fredericksburg won the cup again, getting 197 points. Already the Tivy bunch have started planning as to what they will do next year. Of the four individual medals won in Class A schools two were won by Tivy students. Mattie Turley won the medal for Senior girls' high points, winning four first places. Mattie is only a Freshman and will be here next year to help win the cup for Tivy. Ruth Covert won the medal for the Junior girls' high points, winning also four first places. Everyone who participated in the events of the meet won either first, second or third place. They are all due our heartiest appreciation.

Ira Wheat, well known ranchman of Edwards County, was a business visitor in Kerrville Monday.

Morrow Cummings was up from San Antonio the latter part of last week visiting friends here.

Miss Mary Todd of Houston arrived Friday for a few weeks' visit with her cousins, Dr. and Mrs. L. Sandel.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Brasher returned home Sunday from Cuero, where they had been visiting relatives.

Doctors recommend goat milk in cases of stomach trouble and tuberculosis. Phone 102. (Advertisement, 15-16c.)

J. E. Swafford of Colfax, La., arrived in Kerrville Tuesday evening for a stay of several days on a prospecting tour.

Cleveland B. Wheelus and little son and Dr. L. C. Gatz left Sunday by auto for San Benito for a business trip of about two weeks.

Center Point News, March 20th: Rev. W. L. Downing, the Presbyterian minister of Kerrville, conducted the service here at the Baptist church last Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Adams and children spent Sunday in Kerrville. Mr. Adams is one of the architects who designed the buildings at Schreiner Institute.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollinrake of Dallas visited their son, Lynn, at Schreiner Institute from Friday until Monday. Mr. Hollinrake is the director of the campaign for Christian Education now being conducted by the Presbyterian churches.

The Sun is glad to report that Mrs. E. H. Prescott is reported by the doctors in attendance to be now out of danger and rapidly recovering from the effects of the operation performed Sunday morning at Secor's Hospital. Mrs. Prescott became seriously ill last Thursday and was taken to the hospital that evening. After a thorough examination and consultation by physicians it was decided that an operation was necessary to save her life.

Center Point News, March 20th: The B. Y. P. U. of the First Baptist Church of Kerrville came over Sunday afternoon and rendered a very good program at 3:30, a number of the members of their party took part on the program. There was a great deal of friendly rivalry caused between the two Unions by questions being asked on several different Bible characters and by alternate singing.

The Center Point Union was asked to go to Kerrville and render a program at the earliest possible time, which they expect to do in the very near future.

TWO NEW ADDITIONS OPENED TO THE PUBLIC THIS WEEK

Hillcrest Addition No. 2 and B. C. Richards' First Addition are two new residential districts opened to the public this week. The first lies between Hillcrest Addition proper and the Golf Course, while the Richards' Addition lies across Quinlan Creek near the Presbyterian Encampment and Schreiner Institute.

Hillcrest No. 2 is an ideal location for those desiring quiet, peaceful surroundings for a home, situated as it is fronting on the new Golf Course, away from the noise and dust of the city, and yet close enough to be convenient to the business section for shopping purposes. Boss Peterson, who has charge of the lot sale in Hillcrest, predicts that the new addition will be as popular as the original addition, which with the exception of a few lots has been entirely sold out. See their ad on page 7 of this issue.

The Richards' Addition is covered throughout with Live Oak trees and when completed will have cement sidewalks and curbs and graveled streets throughout, these improvements being put in by the owners of the tract. This addition is immediately adjoining the Presbyterian Encampment grounds and will without doubt be attractive for homesites. They are advertising same on page 2 of this paper and offering attractive propositions to purchasers.

These two new additions are not in the nature of a boom or money-making scheme of the owners, but are simply the outcome of the demand for desirable building sites in Kerrville. All available vacant lots in the city that are priced within reason have been purchased for home sites and it is almost impossible to count the homes that are now in the process of construction. Rent houses are in demand daily and furnished apartments and rooms are at a premium. With the advent of the summer tourist season near at hand and the arrival of the host of regular summer visitors, the housing situation here is serious. One man who is constructing eight rent houses in the city, announces that six of the eight are already rented before they are completed.

No, it's not a boom, for it is based on something that will not play out—an unexcelled climate and the prettiest bunch of natural scenery that can be seen anywhere. Truly Kerrville and the Hill Country are coming into their own.

CATHOLIC CHURCH NOTES
By Father Kemper

GUADALUPE SOCIETY

Most of the resident members of the Guadalupe Society of the Guadalupe Catholic church on St. Joseph's day to solidify their parochial union. After the conclusion of night devotion the men remained to receive the sacrament of penance, and the next morning all approached the Eucharistic Table in a body at an hour early enough to grant every laboring man ample time to be at his employment.

Sunday, after Mass, the officers and associates entered the sanctuary to make a public profession of their allegiance to the Constitution of the United States, and to the by-laws of the parochial organization. Vin- cent Perez gave an eloquent explanation of the civic and religious requirements expected of every candidate.

In union with the Ladies' Auxiliary, the men of the Guadalupe congregation are arranging the details of their annual Easter community picnic.

Moreover, on the vigil of Easter they will assist St. Mary's parish by holding a Mexican supper at the Guadalupe school added to their library of Spanish novels to their library so that the grown folks might share in some of their privileges.

Annunciation Day
Tuesday of this week the feast of the Annunciation of the Bl. Virgin was observed with a High Mass in the Convent Chapel. The early and somewhat inconvenient hour could not well be avoided, save by dispensing with our best singers. The experienced choristers are no longer so accessible for practice and for week-day functions now that they have graduated from the Sisters' careful tutelage and are unfortunately this year engaged in their own matrimonially handicapped, seriously supporting the willing young ladies in the choir of which the entire parish was justly proud.

This year, despite less fervent children, there were nearly twice as many letters deposited in St. Joseph's mail box as in 1923. One client, in particular, on the concluding day of his novena, received a most startling and profitable answer to a daring question.

The semi-monthly Lenten devotions are attended more faithfully and in larger numbers than in former years. In fact, the attendance has outgrown the capacity of the chapel. Students of Notre Dame remembered their deceased founder in an anniversary Requiem Mass.

On the same day, Rt. Rev. Monsignor W. W. Hume, formerly chancellor of this diocese, and a visitor to Kerrville, died in the city of New Orleans.

Yesterday (Wednesday) the customary engagement was filled in the Comfort Mission.

Wednesday night of last week, at least 20 members of our parish availed themselves of the invitation at the Presbyterian Church to hear the San Antonio Oratorio Society singing the "Seven Last Words" of our Redeemer. For this rare treat we feel most grateful to all who sponsored the program.

Irish Celebrate
"St. Patrick's Day in the morning" came near bringing us a deluge of rain and hail. Perhaps it was with the assistance of the elements of Nature that the Catholic priest in Kerrville, Christianized Ireland, the snakes out of that land. All those proud of their Celtic lineage, celebrated the day not only by the "wearing of the green," but by a half holiday of relaxation from Lenten discipline.

That night, friends of John Kolodzey, who was born on St. Patrick's Day, but not in Erin, surprised him with a birthday party at his beautiful residence. Kerrville schools, always in readiness to co-operate with the public

Change of Life
"When change of life began on me," says Mrs. Lewis Lister, of Lamar, Mo., "I suffered so with womanly weakness, I suffered a great deal of pain in my back and I didn't feel like doing my work, and there are so many steps for a woman to take on a farm. I was very anxious to get better. A friend recommended to me and I began using it. I certainly improved. I went through change of life without any trouble. I can highly recommend Cardui." At the age of about 40 to 50 every woman has to pass through this change of life. At this time, great changes take place in her system, causing various painful and disagreeable symptoms. If you are approaching this period, or are already suffering from any of its troubles or symptoms, take Cardui. It will help you, as it has helped others, you, as it has helped others.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH NOTES

Last Sunday we were happy in having with us again a number of our members who had been kept away by sickness and inclement weather.

Mrs. P. Tomlinson is still with her elder daughter, Mrs. J. W. Tomlinson, at her home in Orange. Mrs. Tomlinson had been in our successful primary teacher for several years. We were fortunate in securing Mrs. Evelyn Reed ranked first last Sunday in the drill on Bible recitations.

Our superintendent, James Duke, expects to return to his home in Tennessee next week. Let us show our appreciation of the faithful servitude he has given by every member being present if possible next Sunday.

Sunday School every Sunday morning, at 10 o'clock in the Union Church. Visitors always welcome.

Announcing the Opening of HILLCREST ADDITION No. 2

Owing to the great demand for suitable building sites in Kerrville and the fact that Hillcrest Addition proper is now sold out with the exception of a few lots, we have put on the market HILLCREST ADDITION No. 2. This new addition lies between the original addition and the Golf Course and comprises 74 choice building sites. They lack some of the natural advantages of the lots in the original addition, but possess other natural advantages that in some respects make them even more desirable as building sites. Look at the location on the map below, and then go out and see the lots yourself---picture in your mind your ideal home amid such quiet, peaceful surroundings, on lots overlooking the beautiful Golf Course which, of course, will be kept in the best possible condition the year round and will excel any well kept lawn in the city.

We are offering lots in HILLCREST ADDITION No. 2 at $350.00 per lot until July 1st; $10.00 down and $10.00 per month; no interest, no taxes for one year if bought prior to July 1st. Select your lot now before graveled streets are put in and make the profit.

We are prepared to build a few homes on the easy payment plan---first come, first served. Have a few choice lots in Hillcrest proper left. Also have some acreage adjoining the Kerrville Country Club, which we will sell on easy payment plan at a price that will make you a nice profit.

Ten Candidates for Governor of Texas in Agreement on Many Vital Issues --- Tax Reduction Main One

(By B. C. Utech, in Dallas News)

There is one striking feature in the platform of the 10 candidates for the Texas Governorship --- Similarity of planks.

All ten bear down heavily upon taxation; all ten agree that taxes should be reduced; nearly all of them agree that they can be decreased. All ten emphatically say that the expenses of running the State Government are far in excess of necessity and they mostly agree as to the method of obtaining a big cut in expenditures. All ten agree that the penitentiary system is handled wrong and make suggestions for improvements; all but one want to sell the prison farms and use the convicts to build highways.

And all ten are for prohibition, for woman suffrage, for law enforcement, for energetic support of education, agriculture, conservation, labor, capital, and vigorously oppose "mobocracy," whippings, secret or super-government.

Practically all of the candidates say they would reduce State expenses by consolidating some departments and bureaus and by eliminating others, and that they would cut down traveling expenses of State employees.

Never were ten men more firmly agreed on a score of issues.

The ten candidates for Democratic gubernatorial nomination follow:

Lynch Davidson of Houston, Felix Robertson of Dallas, T. W. Davidson of Marshall, Joe Burkett of Eastland, V. A. Collins of Dallas, Thomas D. Barton of Amarillo, James E. Ferguson of Temple, H. L. Darwin of Paris, W. E. Pope of Corpus Christi, Sam S. Frazier of Lone Oak.

That's all so far.

But no one will be surprised should one more throw his chapeau into the ring --- Alvin Ousley of Dallas, formerly of Denton.

While the ten candidates are agreed on most issues --- and the word "issue" is nearly a misnomer, for where there can be no difference of opinions there can be no issue --- there are also wide differences here and there.

It is in this divergence of principles in which the public is mostly interested. Ever since history began people have fought against taxes and increase in public expenditures, and at the same time forced governing bodies to make large appropriations for this, that and the other thing. One group of individuals insist that their pet hobby obtain: a healthy appropriation but care nothing about any other group; the other group is just as insistent that their scheme get funds without regard to any one else --- so Governors and Legislators have merely complied with demands --- and raised taxes.

But as to these differences in candidates' policies.

Ferguson, as do all the other nine, says that he will cut the taxes. He goes further and declares that he will lop off $15,000,000 from the biennial appropriations. Burkett insists that it is impossible to make such a big reduction, but says that he can reduce it by $4,000,000 or $5,000,000. Lynch Davidson is confident that he can save $10,000,000.

"I promise to reduce the tax rate or bust," Davidson said in his Fort Worth address. "I solemnly think it can be done or I would not be a candidate." Then he goes on to describe plans by which he expects to accomplish this result.

Texas appropriates $40,000,000 every two years to operate the State Government. Very logically most of the candidates are pointing out that in the last 11 or 12 years tax property renditions have increased 34 per cent, the population 25 per cent, and the cost of State Government 300 per cent, while traveling expenses of the State employes has gone soaring to 500 per cent!

The candidates say they will cause a vast change in all this by consolidating many of the State Bureaus and by eliminating several commissions. Robertson promises that he will not have one new office created if elected. Pope declares he favors sweeping from office the Board of Control that has the management of all State institutions and he would also repeal the law placing the control of highways with the State Highway Commission.

The prison system takes a large bulk of the appropriations. Very naturally all candidates are anxious to make the system self-supporting. In the past few years the penitentiary has been a thorn in the side of Texas financially. The prison farms have overflowed occasionally and all of the crops have been lost. A year ago Governor Neff borrowed $750,000 to maintain the prisons. A number of the candidates, including Lynch Davidson, Burkett, Robertson, Darwin and T. W. Davidson favor putting all able-bodied convicts at work building highways and maintaining them with such labor. Pope opposes this plan and says the convicts should be kept in prison; Lynch Davidson approves selling the prison farms and acquiring a tract near Austin, but opposes sale of the buildings. He wants them turned over for the insane.

Pope urges a repeal of the law increasing the automobile license. The fee was more than trebled this year. Burkett doesn't ask that the statute be repealed, but he does ask that the license fee be made 35 for small cars and no more than 510 for large cars, and that a gasoline tax of 3 cents a gallon be established. While Pope wants to abolish the Highway Commission, T. W. Davidson declares that the system is new and that the commission should be given a chance to make good, and deplores the litigation instituted by several counties to restrain the commission obtaining auto license funds.

Not much is said about prohibition by any of the candidates. Ferguson long regarded as "wet," wants the liquor laws enforced. He said as much in his Senatorial campaign two years ago. This time he says that if elected Governor he will veto all liquor legislation, pro or con. Ferguson includes in his platform planks which call for laws to compel secret societies to file with county clerks their membership lists. He also favors an "anti-mask" law. The two propositions make the Ku Klux Klan an issue though it is not the big issue that it was formerly. All of them favor religious freedom, oppose super-government, and favor trials by organized courts of law only.

Burkett probably goes farther than other candidates in proposed changes. He wants a Central State Bank with a capital of $100,000,000; he wants an interest rate established at 8 per cent; he suggests that the State establish warehouses, elevators and cement plants. No other candidate meets him on these policies.

Both Robertson and Collins want the open port law repealed, saying it gives too much power to the Attorney General and works an injustice. Robertson also proposes that the State shall underwrite all accident and death insurance under the compensation act. Pope is strongly opposed to ever substitute martial law for civil.

Burkett wants the Pardon Board re-established, but he is not alone in this. Barton touches on one subject that the others omit. The Adjutant General wants all ex-service men admitted to State educational institutions free of all tuition charges and fees. Both Barton and Robertson are overseas veterans, both having been in the 36th Division.

Those candidates declaring opposition to the Ku Klux Klan are Burkett, Lynch Davidson, T. W. Davidson, H. L. Darwin and Ferguson.

If any one of these aspirants who urge consolidation of State Bureaus and elimination of others, is elected, and if he is able to carry out his program, many officials and State employees at Austin will have to look for new jobs.

Elaborate Merger Plans

In this merging program it is proposed to put with the Agricultural Department the Weights and Measures Department, Live Stock Sanitary Commission and the Game, Fish & Oyster Commission. Pope offers the most extensive job merging plan, for he not only wants to consolidate the Mining Board with the Labor Department, the Board of Water Engineers and the Department of Insurance with the Fire Insurance Commission.

But the Governor's powers are limited, and the Legislature does the limiting. The next State Legislature may block ambitious plans to put over consolidation-elimination plans; and yet it may go still further, merging and lopping off commissions and jobs with a wicked hand. Useless Bureaus and Commissions annually lay up $1,000,000 of the people's money, according to Lynch Davidson.

Too Many Laws

Ten candidates agree that there are too many laws on the statute books. No one will dispute this point to minimize enactment of new laws, with them. All say they will try but Lynch Davidson says on this subject: "We have so many laws that a man cannot even run a peanut stand on a street corner without having a lawyer nearby to tell him how to do it. If I am elected, whenever a Legislator brings to my office a bill to sign, I will ask him to bring me two more that are repealed."

While all in their platforms are for unstinted support of rural schools and the State colleges, Robertson proposes a change in the appointment of the State University regents. This power now rests with the Governor. He declares this puts the University in politics and wants the University faculty to have the right to name three and the alumni to name three regents.

Taking up the different departments of State Government, you find 19 of them, classified as follows:

Secretary of State, with 14 employes; Comptroller, with 51 employes; State Treasurer, with 15 employes; Attorney General, with 24 assistants and employes; State Ranger Force, with 50 men; Superintendent of Education, 60 employes; Highway Department, with three commissioners and 126 employes; General Land Office, with 36 employes; Warehouse and Market Department, with 32 employes; Secretary of Agriculture, with 25 employes; Insurance Department, with 16 employes; Bank Commission, with 38 employes; Board of Control, with 1,621 employes, including all employes of eleemosynary institutions and keepers of State Parks; Department of Labor with 10 employes; Health Department, with 45 employes; State Tax Commissioner, with two employes; State Reclamation Engineer, with nine employes; Railroad Commission, with 18 employes; State Library, with 10 employes.

That list furnishes abundant data and a good field for ambitious consolidation advocates. There is no question that better team work among the departments and merging of duties can accomplish, but it is no small job and calls not only for ability, but for hard work.

But that is not all. If only these officials and employes required appropriations the problem would be simple.

There are 18 eleemosynary institutions that must be well cared for, with nearly 10,000 inmates on the rolls who must be fed, clothed and properly maintained. Here they are:

Confederate Home, Confederate Woman's Home, School for the Blind, School for the Deaf, School for Deaf, Dumb and Blind Negroes; Orphans' Home, Home for Dependent and Neglected Children, Girl's Training School, Boys' Training School, Colony for Feeble Minded, East Texas Hospital for Insane, North Texas Hospital for Insane, State Lunatic Asylum, North West Texas Hospital for Insane, State Epileptic Colony, Tuberculosis Sanitarium, American Legion Sanitarium.

A Big Business House

The casual reader, even many of those who are close observers, do not realize what a large institution, or business house, the Texas Government really is. Take a glance at it and you may have some idea where that $40,000,000 goes every two years.

To begin with, there is the Governor and his staff, 31 Senators and 150 members of the Lower House. This in itself does not take up much of a lump from the $40,000,000 and the Governor of Texas is the poorest paid executive in the country, receiving but $4,000 yearly.

The courts come next. There are the Supreme Court of three judges, Commission of Appeals, three judges; Criminal Appeals, three judges; 10 Courts of Civil Appeals having three judges each; and 106 District Judges. The courts require about $450,000 annually. Yet Texas can not boast of abundant courts. The higher courts are overworked, and one District Judge in West Texas has 11 counties in his jurisdiction. It is hardly possible to reduce that figure.

State schools that must have support are these:

University of Texas, A. & M. College, College of Industrial Arts for Women, Texas Technological College, Grubbs' Vocational, John Tarleton and State Teachers' Colleges at Huntsville, San Marcos, Denton, Canyon City, Alpine, Nacogdoches, Kingsville and Prairie View. That makes a total of 13 educational institutions that must be cared for by State funds. But throughout the State there are also 33,833 school teachers and superintendents.

All of the candidates emphatically favor strong support for the eleemosynary and educational institutions and do not plan to cut them down in appropriation, if possible to avoid. There is some difference whether the major support should go to the higher colleges or to the rural schools.

But the story does not end there. The Prison System must have support. Employees must be paid and convicts cared for. If the prison farms fail to provide the necessary food, then the State must buy food, and lately the farms lost their crops from overflows. There are nearly 4,000 inmates at Huntsville and the farms, and the latter number 12, as follows: Goree farm, Wyn, Clemens, Retrieve, Ramsey, Darrington, Imperial, Blue Ridge, Ferguson, Eastham, Shaw and Harlem. The 12 consist of about 84,000 acres.

But the end is not yet. The National Guard must be paid. There are 8,500 officers and enlisted men in the organization. The officers from the captain up receive $500 yearly and the men are paid for services during training periods each summer. But if called out on martial law duty, or for any other purpose, there is additional expense, including transportation and rations.

We've got to have a National Guard and no candidates suggest that it be hampered in any way. It is one way the Union keeps prepared for an emergency.

Fees of sheriffs, other officers and for witnesses take another large amount. It has been the custom to pay them in scrip to be redeemed when the State could afford it.

Now, go to it candidates. Show us how to cut down these costs. The people of Texas are for you in this plan, if you can do it without handicapping the work of the State Government.

Big job! Yep.

We are very glad to see a few days of sunshine, as the cold, rainy weather has made our spring very late. Corn planting is starting right along and if the sun will continue to shine a few days the people will be laying their bad feelings on the shelf, and will be so busy planting, gardening and setting incubators they will forget we ever had any disagreeable and cold weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Heinen and little daughter and Mr. Stieler of Comfort were dinner guests Sunday of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Strohacker of the Bushwhack neighborhood.

B. F. Denton and a force of hands are going to do some patch work on our mudholes between here and the county seat. The roads are getting very bad and must be put in condition or our supply of beans will be cut off.

Miss Nellie Strohacker celebrated her birthday anniversary Sunday. The younger sisters, Misses Anna and Emma, played some pretty musical selections for the entertainment of pass very pleasantly for all.

A great many are talking of taking in the rodeo at Kerrville this week end. This is a sport that most of our Western people enjoy greatly. They certainly can do some clever tricks, but as this scribe has spent quite a bit of early life in the saddle after cattle, sheep and goats, rodeo stunts cease to be a joy to me to look on, and I will leave it for the younger generation to enjoy.

THE PASSING DAY Will H. Mayes, Department of Journalism, Texas University

The investigations being conducted in Washington are revealing conditions that are startling to those of us who like to regard those in high authority as above suspicion. Corruption in high places has become so common that when we meet a man of position we are inclined to look upon him as a suspicious character and wonder whether it will be safe for our reputations to be seen in his company. The Department of Justice seemingly has been misled. Even in our own State we are made to wonder if the Government is being run in the interest of the people or of those whom the people have selected to serve them. "Secret service" has almost become a term of contempt. We have been forced to agree with a statesman who long ago defined "secret service money" as money appropriated by the Government to be used for corrupt purposes. But despite the fact that public confidence in officials is being dreadfully shaken, it is probable that good will come out of all this disturbance. "When things get bad enough they right themselves." The American people are not going to lose heart entirely. They are likely to be more guarded in future to see that honest men are in charge of public affairs. "God is in His Heaven; all's right with the world."

Public corruption is due largely to the false conception of what constitutes success. Any nation whose citizens come to measure success in terms of money is certain to go wrong unless it establishes higher ideals. Especially is this true where officials and lawmakers hold such views. As a rule these are elected from the people of moderate means. Official life makes large demands upon the purse, especially where wives and daughters aspire to be leaders in Washington society. The salary of a Senator or Congressman or even of a Cabinet officer is not large enough to allow wives and daughters to compete socially with the rich, or to allow such officials to put aside any considerable money. The result often is efforts are made to get money by short cuts, get-rich-quick means, and corrupt practices. It is hard to go straight where there is a constant chase after evasive dollars, especially when temptations are constantly thrust before the dollar-chaser.

The people of Texas are more interested just now in passable roads than in the doings at Washington. The rains and snows of the past winter have put all but the best roads out of business as roads. Most public roads in Texas are now a succession of almost bottomless mud holes. This condition has made the people nearly everywhere more determined to build good roads. Many sections have already voted bond issues. Others have elections on or in contemplation. Road building on an extensive scale will be under way as soon as the rainy season is over. The rains have thrown most farmers behind with their work, and they are getting anxious to get into their fields. Surely Texas is going to be a busy State as soon as the ground dries out a bit, and there is every reason to predict that the year is going to be the most prosperous in its history.

It is wonderful what one can accomplish with enough will power to stick to a thing until it is done. Ruth Cross is a Texas girl who worked her way through the University of Texas, teaching awhile and going to school until her money was exhausted, and then teaching again to make more money. While doing this her eyes failed until she had to have her schoolmates do all her reading to her. With these handicaps she made the highest honors. She decided to become a writer, and wrote for fifteen years before she had any prospect of success, the total financial results of that long service being $65. Now she is selling stories to the Saturday Evening Post, and is writing plays and scenarios that are bringing in regular returns. Recently Harper &

Brothers have published a novel, "The Golden Cocoon," written by her, a story of struggle and achievement in Texas and New York, and 10,000 copies were sold in advance of publication. Ruth Cross is a success because she stuck to what she undertook even under adverse circumstances. It pays to know what one wants to do and to stay at it until success comes. The failures are the quitters, the shirkers.
