Faculty of Crack Coaches, Leaders and Instructors in Readiness—200 Expected to Enter.

Preparations are being rushed for the opening of Doc Stewart's Texas Coaching School and Boys' Camp at the old Fair Grounds next Tuesday morning.

A force of men under the direction of C. Y. "Shorty" Alderson of Austin is engaged this week in getting the grounds into shape and erecting tents, kitchens, etc., for the camp.

Tents will be used to house the men and boys. The boys' quarters are being erected in the grove of trees south of the buildings, and those for the coaches will be on the north side of the grandstand.

Tennis courts, running tracks, baseball diamond, football field, etc., are being put into shape and everything will be in readiness for work to get under way in earnest within the shortest time possible after the opening.

A large staff of trained experts has been secured to conduct the athletic and academic schools. Alex Waite will direct the boys' camp, Coach Doc Stewart will be in charge of the coaching school and Dr. D. A. Penick will head the educational department.

MANY KERRVILLE MASONS TAKING HIGHER DEGREES IN SAN ANTONIO

Class of 21 Taking Scottish Rite Work—Many Local Masons in Attendance.

When the Scottish Rite Ceremonials began in San Antonio Monday morning 21 Masons from Kerrville, Legion and Center Point were there to receive the degrees.

Those attending from Kerrville were: W. A. Fawcett, J. L. Pampell, A. C. Schreiner Jr., W. E. Dietert, Roy Kemp, Cecil Robinson, Payne L. Williamson, Guy C. Moses, R. A. Franklin, Dick Eastland and S. K. Mason.

In addition many Scottish Rite Masons are in attendance from all over the Hill Country and many more plan on going down the latter part of the week. Quite a few of the candidates and some of previous classes are to take the Shrine work at the end of the reunion. Also a large number of Blue Lodge Masons are going down Friday to witness the installation of newly elected officers of Blue Lodges from all over Southwest Texas.

The festivities incident on the completion and dedication of the Scottish Rite Cathedral in San Antonio are on a magnificent scale and speak well for the interest and enthusiasm of Masonry throughout this section of the country.

Over 1,600 candidates will take the Scottish Rite work during the week, and a large majority of them will finish up the week's work by being initiated into the Shrine.

Masonry has always been a power for good in the world, by example more than by aggressiveness. It has refrained from entering politics of other factional controversies in the past, and will continue to do so in the future. However the Supreme Council of the 33rd and last degree of Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite Freemasonry for the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States has announced that that body is behind a movement for the following legislative reforms and urges its members to actively support same:

A Federal Department of education, with a secretary in the President's Cabinet; Federal aid for public school purposes, under the exclusive control of the States.

The establishment of a great National University at Washington, supported by the Government.

The compulsory use of English as the language of instruction in the grammar grades of our public schools. The absolute and permanent separation of Church and State; a perpetual ban against the appropriation of public money, either directly or indirectly, for the support of sectarian institutions.

The inculcation of patriotism; veneration for the flag; respect for law and order.

America's most unique, most precious institution—the free public school—the non-partisan, the non-sectarian, the democratic, the efficient, Mental Mother of Democracy, cherished, protected, extended and generously supported; equal educational opportunities to every child born under the rippling folds of the Stars and Stripes.

Undying loyalty and devotion to the principles of Constitutional Government.

FIRST SECTION OF WESTMINSTER PROGRAM TO REACH END TONIGHT

Better Features Offered at Young People's Conference—No More Program Until July 6.

The first division of the summer program at Westminster Presbyterian Encampment will end with the close of the Young People's Conference tonight. The next section will open July 6.

More than 200 delegates from all over the State registered during the week's meeting and the program is characterized as the best ever offered. Many new and unique features were offered and the young people showed greatly increased interest and work over previous years.

A brief devotional period occupied a half hour beginning at 8:30 each morning. Rev. E. B. Paisley, pastor of the University Presbyterian Church at Austin, had charge of that work and has been giving some highly inspirational and practical talks.

The Bible study period follows the devotional service with Dr. Walter W. Moore, president of Union Theological Seminary of Virginia, in charge. Dr. Moore is a master at painting word pictures and based his six lectures on "Bible Stories in Their Physical Setting."

Classes in six different subjects were conducted simultaneously from 11 to 11:50 a. m. Foreign Mission studies were in charge of Rev. H. Kerr Taylor of China; Home Missions were taught by Dr. J. W. Skinner of Kingsville; Christian Endeavor by Jack Huppertz, State Field Secretary of the organization; Sunday School work by Miss Berta Murray; and Presbyterianism by Rev. C. H. Storey.

The conference period followed the class work and general discussions and lectures or addresses afforded wider information to the young people participating.

Rest and recreation periods occupy the greater part of the afternoon and musical concerts are given just after supper by the camp orchestra under the direction of Prof. Anton Ernst of Allen Academy, Bryan. Fifteen pieces comprise the orchestra and excellent concerts are given.

Inspirational services at which addresses were given by the leading speakers concluded the program for each day.

A total of more than 600 people had registered up until a late hour Wednesday, with about 500 still on the grounds and more coming. Eleven persons in the kitchen and 15 waiters are required to serve one meal to the crowds.

About 320 people are fed at one time and the organization is so perfect that within 25 minutes the meal is completed, tables cleared away and reset for the following contingent. Wholesome, plain fare is served in quantities more than sufficient to satisfy all appetites.

One of the features of the week was the "mystery raffle" staged Monday evening. The young people were marched in absolute silence from the

CITY COMMISSION TO LOOK INTO FIRE EQUIPMENT NEEDS

To Make Trip With Fire Chief to San Antonio Today for Investigation and Consultation.

The entire City Commission, accompanied by Fire Chief Eugene Butt, will go to San Antonio this morning to consult with the Alamo City fire authorities relative to the equipment needed here for proper protection of the city against fire.

The action comes as a result of a petition of taxpayers for the purchase of better and more up-to-date fire fighting equipment for Kerrville.

Mayor Adkins stated in an interview that no action toward the purchase of new equipment will be taken in San Antonio, but the Commission would look into the matter with San Antonio officers and would inspect some of the modern apparatus in use there.

A move has been on foot for some time to get better fire protection here and the following petition was recently circulated:

"We, citizens and taxpayers of the City of Kerrville, Texas, realizing the need of, and desiring better fire protection for our homes and property, do hereby petition the Mayor and City Council of said city to purchase a triple combination fire engine, embodying a chemical tank, pump, and hose body, for said city."

The petition was signed by 163 citizens of the city, including all of the business men and principal taxpayers.

The last several fires have forcefully demonstrated that better and more adequate equipment is needed to protect local property. Fortunately, fires in the past have largely been confined to but a single building, although substantial losses have occurred.

Deep-thinking and far-sighted citizens have come to realize more than ever that should a big fire break out in Kerrville, the present old type apparatus would be of little use in preventing heavy damage and the possible destruction of a large section of the city.

The demonstration of a new type of pumper, given on a downtown corner a few weeks ago, brought home more than ever the inadequacy of the present equipment and the petition for purchase of new apparatus promptly followed.

It is to be hoped that the visit of the Commission to San Antonio today will result in the purchase of better and more efficient apparatus for the city within a short time.

AMARILLO ENTERTAINED STATE PRESS ASSOCIATION LAST WEEK

The Hill Country Well Advertised at Convention—Next Meeting to Be Held at Tyler.

A. H. Luker, editor of the Grape-land Messenger, was elected president of the Texas State Press Association at the 45th annual session of the order in convention in Amarillo last week. Sam P. Herben was re-elected secretary of the Association, which position he has held for the past 18 years, and Tyler was elected as the meeting place for 1925.

Between 500 and 600 editors and their wives from all over the State were in attendance at the meeting, according to W. A. Salter, who represented The Mountain Sun at the convention. A large delegation went up on the Katy from San Antonio and met the main delegation in Fort Worth, where breakfast at the Hotel Texas, the entire party boarded a special train for the 12 hour ride to Amarillo.

Throughout the entire day the train traveled through one of North Texas' famous dust storms, with the thermometer hovering around 106 and a wind blowing that almost seared the flesh. The discomforts of the weather were more than offset by the hospitality of the cities and towns through which the special passed, however, and the royal welcome the party received at the frequent stops made the editors glad indeed that they had taken the trip.

The special stopped at Wichita Falls for dinner, the party being guests of the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce. Refreshments were distributed over the train throughout the afternoon, the gifts of the citizens of Quanah and Clarendon. A fine plate lunch was served to the visitors about 5 o'clock in the evening at the Y. M. C. A. building at Childress, the special reaching Amarillo at 9:30 that night.

The entire three days' session of the convention were interesting in the extreme to the editors and the ladies of the party were also entertained royally by the women's organizations of Amarillo, who had prepared several special entertainment features for their behalf.

A sumptuous banquet was served to the editors at the Hotel Amarillo Wednesday night by the Southwest Telephone Company. Thursday noon the party enjoyed a barbecue in the Palo Duro canyon and held the afternoon session of the convention in a natural cave in the canyon, called the Devil's Kitchen. From there the party went on to Canyon City, where they were served supper on the lawn of the West Texas State Teacher's College and enjoyed a musical program especially arranged for the occasion. The trip back to Amarillo was made by moonlight.

Friday morning's session wound up the convention with the election of officers, the selection of the next convention city and the awarding of prizes in the various contests participated in by the different papers represented.

The Sun man talked with editors from over the entire State and the consensus of opinion was that bumper crops in all lines will be harvested all over Texas this year.

Kerrville and the Hill Country came in for their share of advertising at the convention, as Mr. Salter took along a large number of the May issue of Grinstead's Graphic, which were distributed to editors from all sections of the State. H. G. Perry of the Junction Eagle was also on hand with a bunch of the October issue of the same magazine. That these magazines were welcomed by the visitors was attested by the fact that not a single one was found thrown in the waste baskets or left in the convention hall, so it is presumed that a majority of them were taken home by the parties receiving them.

In conversation with editors from all over the State, The Sun man was indeed gratified to find not a person who had not heard of this city and the wonderful scenery and climate of the Hill Country, and many of them were planning vacation trips to be spent in this section.

50-GALLON STILL CAPTURED BY OFFICERS NEAR CITY LAST WEEK

Enforcement Officers and Sheriff Make Raid Near City; No Arrests Made.

J. H. Dewees, customs inspector, and Joe Adams, prohibition enforcement officer, of San Antonio, assisted by Sheriff Jack Moore, swooped down on a still located on Quinan Creek about four miles north of the city Wednesday afternoon of last week.

When the raid was made the still was not in operation. A large cypress water trough about 15 feet long and containing approximately 150 gallons of mash, a complete still of about 50-gallon capacity and two half barrels of liquor were captured. The liquor, mash and water trough were destroyed by the officers and the still taken to San Antonio.

The apparatus had every indication of having been recently erected on the site where found, but another site farther up the creek looked like it had been used for the same purpose. No arrests have been made in connection with the raid as yet and the matter will probably be referred to the next Grand Jury.

Monday night Sheriff Moore and Deputy John Massey raided an African golf game near Legion and captured five negroes and a pair of dice that apparently had seen considerable service. The negroes were given beds in the County hotel for the night and three were let out on bond Tuesday morning pending trial in the Justice Court.

CAMP RIO VISTA GETTING WELL ORGANIZED FOR SUMMER'S WORK

Excellent Staff of Instructors Assisting in Management of Camp—60 Boys in Attendance.

The period of blistered shoulders and tired muscles is about over at Camp Rio Vista—the Boy's Camp over at the Guadalupe above Ingram—and now begins the period of real fun, when a day of exposure will not bring a night of grief, but rather a night of sound and refreshing rest. BASEBALL PARK TO BE MOVED TO CORNER McFARLAND AND PASCHAL

L. A. Schreiner Gives Use of Block of Land on North Side—To Be In Use Before August 1.

Building of a new baseball park on the North Side will begin early next week. The new stadium will be located at the corner of McFarland and Paschal Streets, two blocks west of the ice factory.

Due to the program at the Westminster Encampment, no games are played at the old park a short distance from the grounds. Out of town games are as a rule expensive, both to the club and to fans who attend them, and a new location became necessary.

L. A. Schreiner, for years a staunch supporter of the club, came to the rescue and gave the use of a block of land on the North Side.

Work on the tearing down of fences and grandstands at the old park will get under way early next week, Manager Davis announces, and the lumber will be moved to the new location as soon as possible.

Erection of the fences and stands will be rushed at the new park and it is expected to have the grounds in use within the next 30 days.

The new park will be 420 feet square, considerably larger than the old one, and better arrangements for automobile parking can be made, in addition to giving more playing ground. It is understood that the park will be in first class shape for the opening about August 1.

INFANT DAUGHTER OF MR. AND MRS. YEARY CLAIMED BY DEATH

Last Thursday at Dallas occurred the death of Mary Alice, the 14-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Yearly of this city. Auto intoxication was given as the cause of her demise.

Mrs. Yearly and children had been visiting her mother in Dallas for the past month, and when the baby became ill, Mr. Yearly was summoned, arriving at the bedside Tuesday evening of last week. All that loving care and the best of medical skill could do was done in her behalf, but without avail and the little life passed out three days later.

Funeral services were held at Farmersville Friday and the little one laid to rest that afternoon.

Mr. Yearly has been County Farm Demonstration Agent in Kerr County the past year and both he and Mrs. Yearly have a host of friends in the Hill Country who join with The Sun in expressions of sympathy.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY MEETS

The Auxiliary to the American Legion met last Friday afternoon with Mrs. A. B. Williamson.

The resignation of Mrs. E. E. Palmer was accepted with a great deal of regret as she has been a most efficient officer. Mrs. C. C. Mason was elected to fill the vacancy.

The members voted to have a benefit bridge party in August to raise funds to carry on the work here.

TEXAS WOOLS TOP MARKET

"Texas Wools Top Price Market" was the heading of a column and a half copyrighted wool story published in Tuesday morning's San Antonio Express under a Boston date line. Owing to the fact that Texas wools grade better and cleaner with less handling the Lone Star State has held the center of the wool stage this season to an unusual degree, and better prices have been obtained than in any other section. Ohio and the choicest sections of the Middle West now take a back seat when it comes to wools.

A big dance was given at W. L. Stone's ranch on Goat Creek Tuesday night of last week, between 150 and 200 people being present. Cake and coffee were served at midnight and the dance broke up about 4 o'clock in the morning. A most enjoyable time was reported by those in attendance.

L. K. Henderson and family of Rocksprings were Kerrville visitors Monday. They were on their way to San Antonio to visit their son, Tom, who is undergoing treatment in a hospital there for an injury to his eye inflicted by a gar, which hit him while he was in swimming on the South Llano.

R. H. BURNEY OUT FOR JUDGE OF 38TH DISTRICT

Elsewhere in this issue of the Sun will be found the announcement of Judge R. H. Burney for the office of District Judge of the 38th Judicial District.

Judge Burney can well claim to be a native product of Kerr County, for his parents moved to what was then a mere settlement, now Kerrville, when he was but two years old and he has lived in Kerr County ever since. He is too well known to all in this section of the State to need any extended notice to acquaint the voters with his qualifications, but The Sun is glad to avail itself of this opportunity to give a brief outline of the life of one of the most picturesque and prominent characters of the Hill Country.

When but a young man he was what is commonly called one of the "Old Trail Drivers," and went to Wichita, Kansas, from Kerrville as a cow hand in 1873. He was in the State Ranger service beginning with 1874, serving in Company F, under Capt. Neal Caldwell. About a year was spent with the Rangers in the hazardous occupation of hunting down Indians and outlaws.

Mr. Burney was elected to the State Senate in 1886 from the old 28th Senatorial District, which took in San Antonio, El Paso and all intervening counties. He was re-elected to represent the same district in 1890.

He was appointed District Judge of the 38th Judicial District by Governor Latham, March 4, 1904, and stood for election that fall without opposition, and has been re-elected every four years since that time. During the 20 years that he has served as District Judge, with seven counties to hold court in twice each year, he has failed to hold his regular court only one time, on account of personal disability.

Judge Burney has an enviable record as Judge in the dispatch of the business of the Court. He believes in the speedy trial and disposition of cases in the court. His judgment as to the law of cases tried by him have had a very high standing with the Appellate Courts. During the entire period of his service he has had only two murder cases to retry because of reversals by the upper court, and one of these was because that court believed the evidence insufficient, but upheld Judge Burney on the second appeal of the case with the same evidence.

He believes that the courts exist and are maintained in order to administer justice in a peaceable manner and under and by due process of the law of the land. He stands for equality before the law of every individual or class of individuals in so far as is humanly possible, and in the strict and speedy enforcement of the laws by the lawfully constituted authorities.

As a man and citizen Judge Burney ranks among the highest in the community. One of the best indications of the public spiritedness of this man is attested by the fact that no subscription for any public improvement has been raised in Kerrville and vicinity in the past 40 years that he has not contributed to.

Judge Burney seeks re-election at the hands of the citizens of the district on his fitness and qualifications for the office, and submits his record of the past as an earnest and pledge as to his course in the future, should the people again trust him with the high position sought.

Comfort News: The result of the recent examination held at Kerrville for the office of Postmaster at Comfort has been announced. Of the four candidates who presented themselves for examination, Miss Elizabeth Inghenhuett passed with the highest grade and was accordingly appointed by the President. Miss Inghenhuett will take charge of the Comfort Post Office on August 1st.

THAT $10,000,000 SAVING

Fort Worth Star-Telegram: While Lynch Davidson is telling the audience he is addressing in his tour of the State that he can save the taxpayers $10,000,000 biennially through reduction of State expense, the other candidates for Governor are ridiculing his claim and declaring it impossible to reduce taxes. They base their assertions on the fact that the growth of the State will require larger appropriations and that there is little hope of tax reduction.

Of course, the rapid growth of the State will require larger appropriations of every character and unless expenses can be reduced or the increased values are sufficient to offset taxes are most apt to go up than go down. Lynch Davidson does not propose to save the State money by reducing needed appropriations. He has never proposed that a single dollar be cut from the school appropriations, for instance, but he does propose to eliminate waste wherever he finds it; to reduce expenses wherever it is possible to reduce them without crippling services rendered the people; and above all, he promises a common sense application of first class business principles to the management of State affairs.

Brigadier General Dawes whom the Republicans nominated for Vice President at Cleveland Thursday, saved the United States from $250,000,000 to $350,000,000 in one year's time as director of the budget. He did it by the application of business principles to government expenses, eliminating waste, co-ordinating purchases, and other methods employed in all successful businesses.

We do not say that Lynch Davidson is another Dawes. Neither do we say that the opportunity for saving in the management of Texas' affairs offers the wide field that General Dawes encountered when he assumed office of budget director, for there was a time following the war, which brought expansion of an enormous character in every governmental agency. But business principles applied to Texas' affairs certainly should bring results satisfactory to every taxpayer.

THE LURE OF FISHING

San Antonio Light: From the day when as a barefoot boy he used an improvised rod and line in the nearest creek the lure of fishing never leaves man until he is old—very old. The thrill that comes with "hooking" the denizens of the deep remains the same through all the passing years and through every stage of development from cane pole to bamboo fly casting rod.

But there is much more to fishing than this passing thrill. Your true fisherman is just as happy returning from a day of "no luck" as he is on the day when the fish are "striking" right merrily.

It is the close communion with nature that gives fishing its greatest lure. Sitting in a boat on the surface of a placid lake or resting on the green bank of a running stream the true fisherman gets a perspective of God's handiwork that is not given to others. He has time and inclination to think and surrounded by the beauties and wonders of nature his thoughts are of the purest and best. His mind is cleansed by closer spiritual contact with the Creator of all the wonders about him. Small matter whether fish are biting or not.

When cares and worries beset you, when the world seems dark and dreary and when nothing seems worth while—
Go fishing.

Dog Tax Due

Now is the time to pay your dog tax. No one will be excused. If you fail to pay by June 15th, the dog catcher will get your dog. After holding him three days, if you fail to call and get a tag, the dog will be killed.

The dog catcher is held responsible to the City Commission for all dogs seen on the streets without tags, so he will be very particular to get them all. Phone Frank Michon or call at his residence for license.

NEARLY HALF OF HIGHWAY MILEAGE IN STATE IMPROVED

Out of the 10,827 miles in the Texas system of Highways, 4,825 miles are either completed, being built or scheduled for construction at an early date.

Appropriations for Federal aid totaling $450,000,000 have been made since 1916 and considerable progress has already been accomplished on the system. Of this amount Texas has been apportioned $27,314,043. The system of highways has been designated by the State and approved by the Secretary of Agriculture.

The whole Federal-aid highway system embraces approximately 170,000 miles of road, and a careful study is being made of its present condition of improvement. An approximate esimate based upon incomplete studies is that at the end of the year there were about 60,000 miles of surfaced roads and 8,700 miles graded, which leaves nearly 119,000 miles yet to be surfaced.

To bring this system up to serviceable standards, therefore, within the full decade ahead, will mean a surfacing progress of about 11,000 miles for each of the 10 years. This is in addition to additions to the system, the separation of grade crossings, reconstruction, and such other work necessary.

Since I came to Texas I have these bilious attacks every now and then—a man will get bilious anywhere, you know—and I find that a little Black-Draught soon straightens me out. After a few doses, in little or no time I'm all right again." Thedford's Black-Draught is a purely vegetable liver medicine, used in America for over eighty years. It acts on the stomach, liver and bowels in a gentle, natural way, assisting digestion and relieving constipation. Sold everywhere.

THE PASSING DAY

Will H. Mayes, Department of Journalism, Texas University

It is surprising how few people pay enough attention to affairs of government to be able to vote intelligently. Even the greater number of those who attend political conventions and howl themselves hoarse do not know what it is all about or just why they get so excited, and not one in twenty of them have any real part in the shaping of platforms or in the nomination of candidates, though they may think they do.

This ignorance of government is not confined to the masses, it permeates bodies. The average maker knows little or nothing of law. He merely does the bidding of those better informed. Often he thinks he knows enough to act, but he does not know enough to realize that he is just a tool of wiser heads.

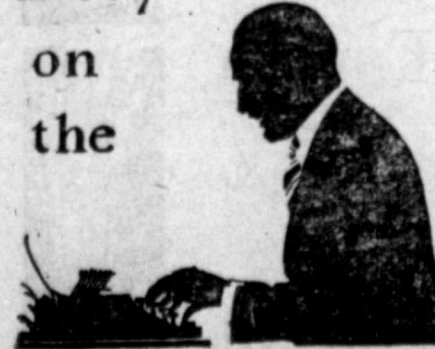

After all, it may be a good thing for Texas that there are so many candidates for Governor going up and down the State offering to relieve the people of most of their burdens for $4,000 a year and the use of the Governor's mansion at Austin. Along with all the charges of extravagance and graft and inefficiency in State government there is a modicum of truth that may not be brought to light except through exaggeration.

It is a pity that the public gets so excited about who is to be Governor and gives so little study to all the other offices. A Governor without the support of other efficient officers is utterly helpless. He has somewhat more influence than any other officer in the State, but is powerless to do anything worth while without the help of others.

In a sermon recently I heard the statement that it is of no avail to be a good fellow unless one is good for something. There is a lot of truth in that little statement. Just to be good without a definite, active kind of goodness is about equivalent to being good for nothing.

It follows from the foregoing statement that the best person is the one who is best for something, the one who uses his good traits to the best purpose and in a way to render the

SYMPTOMS OF FOOT AND MOUTH DISEASE

Coleman Democrat-Voice: Owing to the recent finding of cattle with sore mouths in this county, friends here wrote to H. R. Starkweather for the symptoms and characteristics of the foot and mouth disease.

Mr. Starkweather furnishes the following article in which it is cited that the foot and mouth disease is a highly communicable disease, primarily of cattle, but also usually starts with a fever and is followed in one or two days by a sore mouth and sore feet. The lining, or mucous membrane, of the mouth becomes red and blisters soon form on the tongue and lips from the size of a dime to a dollar. After a short time these blisters rupture, leaving a raw, red surface. At this stage of the disease the mouth is very sore; saliva will be seen hanging from the mouth sometimes in a small amount. In others the saliva hangs in a large, long,ropy mass well down to the ground, but these large quantities are not so common as those of smaller amounts. An examination of the mouth at this time will show the raw surfaces and the shreds of membrane hanging to the edges of the previously broken blisters. The animals will be making a smacking sound as they open and close the mouth.

Shortly after the blisters appear in the mouth, or in some cases at the same time, sores appear between the hoofs. These sores also start as blisters which break and form raw surfaces. The whole foot will be somewhat swollen and very sore. All four feet may be affected or only a part of them. In severe cases the mouth is so sore the animal cannot eat at all. The feet may be so sore and painful that the animal will not stand up unless compelled to do so. There will be many cases which show only slight soreness of mouth and feet. These mildly affected animals will continue to eat and walk around.

The casual organism is present in the contents of the blisters of the mouth, feet, udder, teats, in saliva and milk. When these blisters break the contents escape and are distributed on the feed, in watering places, and over the premises generally. There other animals come in contact with the excretions and become infected. The disease, therefore, can be carried from one animal to another or from place to place by animals or objects such as dogs, cats, rats, chickens, men's boots, clothing, wagons, horses, automobiles, etc., which become soiled with these excretions from the infected animals. One attack of this disease does not confer immunity. The animal may recover and again become infected in a short time.

From the time the animal is exposed to the disease until infection is evident is usually three to six days, but in some cases it may be much longer—possibly twelve to eighteen days. The disease may last ten to twenty days, depending upon the severity of the attack, after which the animal commences to eat and finally recovers. The animals lose flesh very rapidly and often will have changed from fat, sleek animals to extremely poor, emaciated and weak ones. Dairy cows not only get poor but the flow of milk is practically stopped, and often is not resumed in paying quantities until the animal again becomes fresh. Many animals are left with crippled feet or spoiled udders, thus creating an enormous loss even though they do not die.

It can readily be seen that if our range cattle or sheep become thus affected, a large percentage would actually die when subjected to the winter storms and cold. They could not eat or drink or stand up and walk about; also they would be weakened by the fever accompanying the disease and the general debility following it.

Another disease of cattle which is quite similar to foot and mouth disease is known as vesicular stomatitis. This also produces blisters in the mouth but they are not quite so large. These blisters rupture the same as in the foot and mouth disease and cause the mouth to become sore. They are accompanied with strings of saliva from the mouth which give a striking resemblance to foot and mouth disease. This disease, however, does not usually affect the feet of cattle. This disease is communicable to other cattle, also, to horses, but does not cause the financial loss that foot and mouth disease does. One of the means of distinguishing the two diseases is that cattle, hogs and sheep are affected by foot and mouth disease, while horses are not affected. Cattle and horses are affected by vesicular stomatitis while pigs and sheep do not take the disease. In cattle the two diseases in some cases are so much alike that the only positive means of distinguishing them is by inoculating horses and hogs.

Vesicular stomatitis has occasionally been found in this country while foot and mouth disease can only be present by being brought here from some foreign country. Foot and mouth disease will in a short time infect practically 100 per cent of all cattle on the farm while vesicular stomatitis will usually affect a small number and gradually become less severe as it passes from animal to animal. Foot and mouth disease continues just as severe or increases in severity as it affects successive animals.

Should foot and mouth disease be allowed to spread over the whole United States it would cost the people an enormous amount of money each year. It is therefore, much more economical to spend a few million dollars in buying and killing all infected and exposed animals and disinfecting premises than to suffer an enormous loss annually for all time to come.

You should find evidence of a disease resembling either of these conditions mentioned, the first thing to do is notify your nearest veterinarian. At the same time notify the State Veterinarian.

MAN ARRESTED FOR STEALING TOOL KIT

Junction Eagle, June 20th: Thursday night a young man came into the Fritz Hotel and registered under the name of J. A. Thurston of Houston. He paid for his accommodations in advance and stated that he was leaving early the next morning for Sonora.
G. M. Doyle, the piano man from Kerrville, was also at the hotel that night and had left his piano tools in a traveling bag in the lobby of the hotel. When he came down the next morning, his tool kit was missing and the sheriff's department was notified and the young man, who had left early, was suspected of the theft. Deputy L. M. Stewart made a search for the man, who was driving a new Ford touring car, without a top. Shortly after the search began, the man was seen driving through town and was arrested and held here until Sheriff Gibbs came from London. After being questioned, Mr. Gibbs said the man admitted he had taken the tools and had hid them on the road near the Sug Nance place. They drove to the spot, but did not find the traveling bag, but later found that the Menard mail driver had picked up the bag in the road and had carried it on to Menard. The man first gave the name of F. H. Thurston, but later claimed that his name was F. H. Neil and that he lived in Houston.

The sheriff telegraphed the Davis Motor Co., who sold the car and found that the car had been stolen in Houston last Saturday a week ago, and when stolen had a top and a spare casing, and belonged to a man by the name of Charles Powell, of Houston, who came up last Sunday to get his car.

The traveling bag contained tools worth about $75, according to Mr. Doyle.

The man is still in jail here, but Houston authorities will likely come here to return him to Houston for trial. It is stated that the man expressed a desire to plead guilty to the theft of the car and tools.

After trial at Houston it will be possible to bring him here for trial also.

BUILD A REPUTATION FOR QUALITY OF EGGS

By Myrtle Murray
Poultry Specialist, Extension Service,
A. & M. College of Texas.

Does your community have a reputation for producing a good quality of eggs? If not, why not? Do you rush your eggs to market before they spoil? Or do you market your eggs knowing that if the dealer keeps them several days that they will not spoil on his hands or the customer to whom he sells? Do you market eggs of all sizes, shapes and color, then wonder why you do not get a good price?

Are you doing your part in building and maintaining a reputation in your community for the production of choice eggs. If you are, you are not keeping scrub chickens. They do not lay a great quantity of eggs, neither do they produce that choice egg that is demanded by the best markets.

Successful marketing of eggs begins and ends with the hen. Successful poultrymen have found that "it takes the best to produce the best," and only the best commands peak prices. Naturally inferior stock, poorly fed and housed, is not expected to produce a superior quality of eggs. It is a well known fact that standard bred poultry, properly housed and fed, produces a greater profit for the amount of capital invested than most any other agricultural crop. Therefore, isn't it a good investment for every farmer to keep a sufficient number of well chosen standard-bred-to-lay hens, and to feed and care for them in such a manner that he will be enabled to realize a healthy profit?

Every normal hen lays a few eggs. The well bred, well cared for hen lays many. Generally speaking, it requires about 100 eggs to pay for the upkeep of a hen for one year. The production above 100 can reasonably be considered a profit. Therefore, the greater the production the greater the profit. Maximum production and maximum profit are the results of good breeding, correct feeding, proper care and comfortable housing. Read your A. & M. College bulletins and U. S. Department of Agriculture bulletins. These together with other valuable information may be secured from the County Farm and Home Demonstration Agents.

In May, every male bird should be taken off the poultry yard and only infertile eggs produced. By getting rid of all surplus male birds, you are not only preventing loss by fertile egg production, but you are saving the extra amount of feed they consume. Infertile eggs will not produce baby chicks; neither do they decay. If they are not kept in a cool place they will dry up and deteriorate. They are much better for table use than fertile eggs. The rooster makes the egg fertile; the fertile egg makes the blood ring.

Do you know that about 5 per cent of the eggs produced during the warm summer months are a total loss? That amounts to about $15,000,000 over the United States.

You can save the $15,000,000 now lost from blood rings by separating the male bird from your flock when the hatching season is over.

According to the 1920 census report of the United States Department of Agriculture there were about 64,970,000 dozen eggs produced in Texas. Five per cent loss that year amounted to about 3,248,900 dozen. Estimating the average value of these eggs at 25 cents per dozen, that loss was about $814,240. This would more than pay the salaries for one year of every public school teacher, both rural and city, in the county having the largest number of school children in Texas. Don't you think it would pay to produce infertile eggs?

Eggs should be absolutely clean. To produce clean eggs the nests and premises must be kept clean. Do not wash eggs. Fresh eggs are provided with a coating that closes the pores of the shells, thus preventing evaporation and absorption of odors. When they are washed this coating is removed and the new laid egg loses its fresh, sweet flavor that distinguishes it from an old egg. Never wash eggs!

The shell should be firm and smooth and should not be mottled or contain ridges or cracked places.

The best egg markets demand graded eggs. The main factors in grading eggs are freshness, cleanliness, weight, uniformity of size, shape and color. There are two colors of eggs: white and brown. If eggs are white they should be chalky white, and if brown they should all be the same shade of brown. Chas. E. House, manager of branches, Poultry Producers of Central California, in a recent address to a poultry meeting made the following statement regarding grading of eggs:

"I think I have spoken to our Santa Cruz members before upon the subject of grading eggs. This question of cream colored eggs presents a real problem since we are now marketing a great many of our eggs in the East. California is recognized as a producer of fancy white eggs, and by careful selection it has been possible for us to build up an enviable reputation on the New York market for eggs with chalk white shells. As a rule the white egg trade of the East is very critical, consequently uniform quality, size and style are very important factors, and if any one of these points is defective it is used against the product as a talking point to lower the price.

"If cream colored eggs are packed with our fancy white Nulaid Premiums they reduce the value of that trade from three to six cents per dozen, therefore you can readily figure what the loss amounts to on a carload of 525 cases."

It is by persistent effort that the California egg commands a market and demands good prices for her eggs.

Why not purchase egg scales and begin grading your eggs this year and help raise the standard for quality in your community? "Swat the rooster." Produce infertile eggs only. Keep eggs in a cool place. Market often, and gradually improve your flock until you can market eggs in sufficient quantity that are clean and fresh and graded.

The Danger of Sunburn

A burn from the sun is just as painful and equally as serious as a burn from fire. Such being true, sunburns should be watched and cared for the same as other burns.

We carry on hand a complete stock of lotions and salves, which will give immediate relief and also effect a cure.

FIRST SECTION WESTMINSTER PROGRAM TO END TONIGHT

dining hall across the railroad tracks and into the adjoining Schreiner field where a huge bonfire was burning. The seven clans, into which the young people are organized by districts, formed a circle about the fire and a very impressive ceremony was conducted, followed by a social period and hike that ended at the depot where the crowd dispersed.

Numerous athletic contests occupied the day Monday and a great deal of rivalry between the clans was manifested. Bruce Clan, composed of young people from San Antonio churches, won first place with the Cambells leading a close second.

An indoor baseball game in the afternoon between the ministers and young men of the camp resulted in a 13-to-12 victory for the preachers.

Numerous other features, including a stunt night and musical programs, have had their part in the social life of the encampment.

With the closing of the Young People's Conference tonight, no programs will be given until the opening of the Sunday School Conference July 8. Large numbers of delegates are expected for that division of the program.
