MAN AND HIS RELIGION

Behold man, the eternal wind-jammer, and his religion! He can't take it into politics for fear of getting it dirty; he hesitates about making use of it in his business relationships because some one might cheat him out of it; he is tremulous about being seen in public with it—some one might make fun of it; he won't emphasize it in his home life because the kids might point him out to some of their friends as a hypocrite; but he will wrap the mantle of his righteousness about himself on Sunday, and pray sonorously in church, holler amen from the front row and do other things to make the church members think that he is a pattern of Jesus Christ.

No, friend reader, we are not attempting to be cynical. We are just trying to harmonize the various excuses which church members make every day of the world, with their routward manifestation of holiness on Sunday, and their general attitude about life and the problems its duties afford.

COST OF LIVING DECLINES

NEW YORK—Real weekly earnings in manufacturing industries have declined 27.3 per cent between June, 1929, and June 1932. The cost of living has declined 22.3 per cent in the same period. Employment this June was 42.8 per cent below that of June, 1929, in twenty-five representative industries. These facts on the depression's effect on employment were made available Saturday by the national industrial conference board. "The purchasing power of the contents of the average weekly pay envelope in manufacturing industry has declined 27.3 per cent in the three years between June, 1929 and June 1932," the board's report said. "That the decline was not much larger is due to the decrease in the cost of living of wage-earners, which, while it has not kept pace with drop in earnings, has in the three years amounted to 22.3 per cent. "Three factors enter into the computation of the purchasing power of weekly earnings, namely, the number of hours worked per week, the rate of pay, and the cost of living. "In June 1929, the average number of hours per week worked by those employed was 48.6. "In June 1932, this figure had fallen to 32.7. "In June 1929, the weekly earnings in actual dollars were $28.69, and in June 1932, they dropped to $16.24.

ROOSEVELT PROPOSES NINE REMEDIES IN COLUMBUS SPEECH

COLUMBUS, O.—Nine "fundamental" economic remedies, which he said were to protect of the "great mass of American men and women," were proposed Saturday by Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt as he fired his opening gun in his road campaign for the presidency.

Charging that the president's acceptance speech and the republican platform are "empty of hope," the democratic standard bearer also aimed a four-barreled attack at the Hoover administration. "I propose an orderly, explicit and practical group of fundamental remedies," Governor Roosevelt declared.

"These will protect not the few, but the great mass of average American men and women, who, I am not ashamed to repeat, have been forgotten by those in power."

- 1. Prevention of the issuance of "manufactured and unnecessary securities of all kinds, which are brought out merely for the purpose of enriching those who handle their sale." And a requirement that sellers of legitimate securities disclose their bonuses and commissions.
2. Full federal regulation of "holding companies which sell securities in interstate commerce."
3. Federal authority in the regulation of "exchanges in the business of buying and selling securities and commodities."
4. More rigid supervision of national banks "for the protection of depositors."
5. Discouragement and prevention of the "unrestrained use of bank deposits in speculation, to the detriment of local credit."
6. Separation of investment banking and commercial banking.
7. Restriction of federal reserve banks, whose funds, prior to 1929, were used practically without check for many speculative purposes."
Of the other two, the governor said: "Finally I propose two new policies for which legislation is not required."
"In the first place I promise you that it will no longer be possible for international bankers or others to sell to the investing public of America, foreign securities on the simple understanding that these securities have been passed on or approved by the state department or any other agency of the federal government."
"In the second place, I assure you that high public officials in the next administration will neither by word nor by deed seek to influence the prices of stocks and bonds."
The governor pointed his attack on the Hoover administration in this manner: "I sum up the history of the last administration in four sentences. "It encouraged speculation and over-production through its false economic policies. "It attempted to minimize the crisis and misled the people as to its gravity. "It erroneously charged the cause to other nations of the world. "It refused to recognize and correct the evils at home which brought it forth, delayed relief, and forgot to reform."

WARD THINKS THAT TAX RELIEF SESSION LIKELY TO BE CALLED

C. W. G. Ward, of Las Vegas, secretary of the New Mexico Federation of Taxpayers' associations, said Saturday that replies to questionnaires sent out to New Mexico legislators on measures proposed by the federation for revision of the tax code at a special session of the legislature show such a strong sentiment in favor of the reduction program there seems to be no doubt as to passage of the relief legislation.

Ward said replies have been received from 41 members of the house of representatives and 16 members of the senate. If two more senators will agree to vote for the curtailment program, Ward said, Governor Arthur Seligman under his agreement with the federation must call a special session.

Results Ward announced were: For bill No. 1, reducing interest and penalty on delinquent taxes, 34 representatives and 10 senators. Against 3 representatives, no senators. Undecided, 4 representatives and 1 senator.

For bill No. 2, abolishing county boards of appraisers, 36 representatives and 7 senators. Against, no representatives and 1 senator. Undecided, 5 representatives and 3 senators.

A MERCHANT CONFESSES

An unusual statement was published some time ago in the News-Gazette, Champaign, Illinois, signed by E. L. Murdock, head of a former leading ladies' ready-to-wear store which had closed its doors to avoid being thrown into bankruptcy.

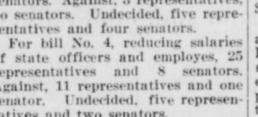

In this statement the merchant set forth the principal reasons for the store's failure to maintain the prestige and prosperity it had enjoyed in times past. He said: "Perhaps the greatest contributing cause is the fact that four years ago our firm, because we thought the rate was too high, discontinued all advertising in the News-Gazette. We tried other plans of advertising to supplant the News-Gazette but found none effective. Our business continued on the down grade. Seemingly our friends had forgotten us. The fault was ours."

In every city and town there are stores which have made the serious mistake to which Mr. Murdock confesses in such a manly fashion.

People look to their newspaper for their store news. No amount of handbills, circulars, sign-boards or other devices can take the place of the newspaper that goes into the home and is read by every member of the family.—Exchange.

NEW FEDERAL AID HIGHWAY TO NORTH

A new highway from Vaughn to Bernal, a project of importance to the Pecos valley, has been added to the seven per cent federal aid system, it was reported Tuesday.

W. R. Eccles, state highway engineer, wired the Roswell Chamber of Commerce he has received official notice from the secretary of agriculture of the federal aid system. When the road may be built is not known.

The stretch would be approximately 65 miles in length, running almost straight north from Vaughn to Bernal, 17 miles south of Las Vegas on U. S. 85. It would give the valley a new and faster road to Santa Fe going by Bernal instead of Encino; and to Denver, going by way of Bernal instead of Santa Rosa.

The highway proposal was put on the federal aid system, it was understood to give a direct, high type road connecting the Mesa Verde and Carlsbad Cavern national parks. Mesa Verde national park is located in the southwest corner of Colorado, just across the line from New Mexico.

Mr. Eccles also received official notice Tuesday that the Santa Rosa cut off which has been controverted before the governor and the state highway commission for two years, had been approved for designation as part of the federal aid system.

NO DEVIATIONS FROM GIN RATE

Ruling that no deviations from the rates fixed by it shall be permitted for public utility cotton gins was made by the state corporation commission in a bulletin issued Monday.

Only stockholders in such gins will be permitted to receive a rebate, refund or concession and then only in proportion to the amount of stock owned and not in proportion to the revenue earned by such a plant.

Following is the official order: No public utility as defined above will hereafter or in the future deviate from any charge or rate as fixed by the State Corporation Commission by way of making rebates, refunds or concessions to any of its patrons, except those who were stockholders when the gin, plant or public utility was constructed, or were stockholders prior to the initial operation of such utility; and it is further provided that no manager or officer of any gin, plant or public utility, unless same is co-operative, shall rebate or refund to any person except actual stockholders, and then only in proportion to the amount of stock owned by each individual stockholder and not in proportion to the revenues earned by such gin, plant or public utility.

This rule shall take effect and be in force on and after the 20th day of August 1932, or until modified, changed or canceled, by this Commission.

RECONSTRUCTION CROP GETS SUPPORT

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The extensive support the reconstruction corporation is rendering banks, other financial institutions and railroads—all of which must give security for any loan—was illustrated Monday when the first monthly report to be made public showed $45,057,556 was disbursed in the last ten days of July.

In the 437 advances covered, $32,990,180 went to banks and trust companies, including receivers.

The report was laid open by South Trimble, clerk of the democratic house of representatives, who said "the law gives me no discretion in the matter." The administration contested the publicity provision when the bill was before congress.

Atlee Pomerene, chairman of the reconstruction corporation, told newspapermen he opposed publication of the report.

Governmental and banking quarters pointed out that the reconstruction directors require security considered adequate before authorizing any loan.

One aim has been to help the banks and business situation by the thawing of frozen assets.

TO PAY GAS REFUND

SANTA FE—Farmers on the eastern side of the state may at last look forward to payment of the gasoline tax refunds authorized by the 1931 legislature, Charles Fahy, Santa Fe attorney for state auditor said Tuesday.

Fahy advised Arsenio Velarde state auditor, that he may proceed to approve the vouchers for refunds under the ruling of the state supreme court in the mandamus action brought by C. E. Gamble of Clovis to compel the auditor to approve the refund applications for payment. He said he had waived service on the writ of mandamus and had informed the supreme court he would not ask a rehearing of the case.

Under the attorney's action, Velarde may now approve applications for the refunds sent to him by the gasoline tax collection department.

The refund law has been the subject of a two-year legal battle which has run the gamut of state courts and has been before the United States supreme court. It permits purchasers of gasoline for purposes other than to propel vehicles on the state highway to obtain a refund from the five-cent gas tax law.

My dear, said his wife, I wish you wouldn't indulge in such extravagant language.

Let me alone, he retorted. It's the only extravagance I can afford.

WOMEN LAND AFTER 196 HOURS IN THE AIR

VALLEY STREAM, N. Y.—Appearing trim and fresh as when they took the air, even to manicured finger nails, two 24-year old housewives brought down their "Flying Boudoir" late Monday with a new women's refueling flight endurance record of 196 hours, five minutes and four-fifths seconds.

Appearances were deceiving, however, for Mrs. Louise Thaden, ominously silent while her companion, Mrs. Frances Marsalis, laughed and joked with the crowd, suddenly collapsed. She was removed to a nearby home and her condition later was reported as not dangerous.

After more than eight days of monotonous wheeling over the Curtiss airport, they made a perfect landing a few minutes after 5:00 p. m. (Eastern Standard Time). Their flying time was checked by four watches and was expected to be accepted as an official record.

Robert C. Dow Candidate for District Attorney

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF CHAVES COUNTY:—

Recently both Roswell daily papers urged Democrats of the Fifth Judicial District to nominate the best available attorney for the office of District Attorney, as it amounts to election in this district. These editorials have called attention to recent crimes of a desperate character that indicate that organized city thugs are invading Eastern New Mexico. Since those editorials were written, a deputy sheriff has been kidnaped in Eddy county and one killed and another wounded in Roosevelt county. There has never been a time when the state needed able and fearless prosecutors and peace officers more than now; nor is it time to experiment with the office.

ROBERT C. DOW is the outstanding candidate for this office because:

1—He has four years experience as prosecutor for the Fifth Judicial District, in which he made an enviable record; and is not an experiment. His efficiency is established by his prior record.

2—He has had two years experience in the office of Attorney General for the State, as prosecutor in the Supreme Court.

3—He is the only candidate who has had any experience in prosecuting criminals; and pledges to the people that his time and talent will be devoted to ridding the Fifth Judicial District of Criminals.

4—He defeated all candidates in the Lea county primary, the only county in which a primary has been held, whereby the people have had a voice. Eddy County nominated by a convention. It is well known that in conventions the manipulations of politicians and not the people rule.

In a circular issued by J. G. Roberts, another candidate, it is stated that Robert C. Dow's brother, H. M. Dow, would defend criminals that Bob would have to prosecute. In an interview with Hiram Dow, he stated "When Bob was District Attorney before I refused to, and did not, take a criminal case in the Fifth Judicial District, and only defended one man charged with crime, and that was by compulsion under appointment by the Court, and without fee, I will follow the same course again if Bob is elected."

A VOTE FOR BOB DOW IS A VOTE TO SUPPRESS CRIME IN EASTERN NEW MEXICO

When canning use a pressure cooker

When canning non-acid vegetables, the use of the pressure cooker is urged in order that the products will keep, says Grace E. Long of the New Mexico State College.

Some bacteria are not killed at temperatures that can be secured with boiling water, even though long-time processing is used. Some of the bacteria may develop after the jars are sealed and produce toxins which are poisonous.

Because of the high altitude in New Mexico, and because the heat penetration is slow in some of the vegetables, people are urged to process in a pressure cooker all non-acid vegetables for the length of time and at the pressure which is recommended by authorities. Non-acid vegetables include all vegetables except tomatoes.

It has been found that it is more satisfactory not to use more than 15 pounds pressure and 10 pounds pressure is satisfactory for most vegetables. If too high pressure is used, even though the time is reduced, an unsatisfactory product is secured.

After the jars are opened, vegetables should be thoroughly boiled before they are used. If this precaution is taken, there is little danger of poisoning from canned products, as odors often develop when products are heated which are not noticeable when they are cold. All canned products unfit for food should be burned rather than buried or fed to livestock as the soil may be contaminated or the livestock killed.

The following directions have been found satisfactory for the canning of corn in New Mexico. Be sure to select corn in the milk stage. Cut off the cob, add boiling water to cover, and boil ten minutes. Pack medium tight and add salt. (Sugar may be added if desired.) Process pint jars or No. 2 cans for 80 minutes at 10 pounds pressure. Quart jars are not recommended.

For further information you may secure a bulletin "Home Canning", from your County Extension Agent, or write to the Extension Service, State College, New Mexico.

2 CARLSBAD YOUTHS DROWN IN CANAL

Manuel Mendoza, 12, and Miguel Fernandez, 13, were drowned in the canal about a quarter of a mile above the siphon late Friday afternoon. Efforts to resuscitate the pair failed, the Carlsbad Current Argus reports.

The boys had been in wading along the edge of the canal and began scuffling, according to other boys, who were in the water at the same time. During the scuffle, both lost their balance and fell into the canal. Neither could swim and disappeared from sight immediately.

The boys ran to a nearby farm house and reported the drowning and a large crowd from Carlsbad soon gathered.

Mendoza's body was found first and the city's inhalator was put into use but the youth was too far gone to be saved although his pulse fluttered momentarily when the inhalator was first used.

It was nearly an hour later before Fernandez' body was found. Both bodies were found only a few feet below where the pair fell in the water.

Big gates in the canal a short distance above where the boys fell in the water were opened considerably lowering the level of the water in the canal below and aiding in the finding of the second body.

Mendoza's body was taken to Roswell for burial Saturday while Fernandez was buried at Carlsbad Saturday.

E. A. CAHOON AND SON ARE ROBBED AT HOME

Officers last night had no trace of a man who held up E. A. Cahoon, president of the First National bank, and his son, Dan, at their home here Monday night and obtained $2.75. The robbery was not revealed by officers until yesterday morning. A man came to the door of the Cahoon home shortly after 10 o'clock. When Mr. Cahoon opened it, he found a gun pressed against him. His son followed him to the door, and both were relieved of the change in their pockets. The man was reported to have made a remark about "something to eat." He turned and got in a waiting car with a companion.—Wednesday Roswell Dispatch.

SOCIAL ITEMS

MARRIED FRIDAY

On Friday afternoon, August the twenty-sixth at six o'clock, Miss Dorothea Cowan and Mr. Matthias B. Neid of Albuquerque were married. The ceremony was read by Rev. Bryan Hall at the bride's home, with relatives and a few friends present. The rooms were decorated with a wealth of summer blossoms. After the ceremony supper was served to the wedding party. Miss Cowan is the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cowan, pioneer and prominent resident of Hagerman. She was born and reared here. A graduate of Hagerman schools and a graduate of the College of Industrial Arts, Denton, Texas. A sweet, winsome girl, a conscientious student and a cheerful worker in all church and social functions. She had a position at Cisco, Texas and since has taught in the Hagerman school. Mr. Neid is a popular young business man of Albuquerque, where he is connected with the Chevrolet agency. The young couple left on Saturday afternoon for their home at 1420 Gold St., Albuquerque.

METHODIST PICNIC SAT.

The annual picnic of the Methodist Sunday school will be held Saturday afternoon in the Paddock grove, five miles northwest of town. Beginning at 2:30, a schedule of games is being planned that will provide plenty of fun for all ages. A baseball game between the Baptist and Methodist young people has been arranged and a horseshoe tournament will be conducted for the older men. This year the event will be for singles championship. The Paddock-Tressler team combination won last summer and this pair of flingers may be hard to beat in the individual play.

Pillow races and other interesting contests will keep the ladies off of mischief, while the usual tug-of-war, three-legged races and caterpillar races will be arranged for the youngsters. B. F. Gehman is chairman of the refreshments committee and can assure the crowd of a fine watermelon feast with plenty of ice cold lemonade following the afternoon's games. In past years, this annual affair has been exceedingly well attended and with the present array of plans, Saturday's festivities should prove no exception.

EPWORTH LEAGUE CHICKEN FRY

The Epworth League had a chicken fry at the siphon on Friday evening. About thirty were present. The chickens were roasted over bon fires and as accessories, pickles, sandwiches and cake were served. Plenty of games rounded out the evening's program.

A STRAY PUP

What does a stray pup amount to anyway? What does it matter if such a helpless animal is abused and tortured to make sport for a gang of thoughtless boys? Who cares? One small boy cared—and because he cared he made a friend—a friend who didn't forget. Some years ago a kindly man named Jacob Siler walked along the banks of the Mississippi river near St. Louis and came upon a group of boys who were amusing themselves by throwing a stray pup into the river time after time, in spite of the protests of one small companion. Finally the pup's defender engaged the others in fistful combat to save the wretched animal from drowning. He battled so courageously that he won the day and saved the pup. Mr. Siler commended the boy, whose name was Otto Schmidt, and between the two a lifelong friendship sprang up. Recently Siler died and left $7,500 to the boy, now a man, whose humane instincts and courage had rescued the poor dog and won the admiration of the casual passerby. Those who befriend unfortunate animals do not always obtain material rewards such as came to Otto Schmidt but they inevitably have the reward of an improving conscience, which is greater still. DECISION HITS AUTO DEALERS

SANTA FE—County assessors all over the state will be instructed to place new and used cars in dealers' stock rooms, or used-car yards, on the tax rolls in conformity with the supreme court's decision, stated Chief Tax Commissioner Byron O. Beall Monday.

These cars had been listed in only one county, Bernalillo, as a test case. Cars held in stock by automobile dealers, unless separate registration fees have been paid for each of them, are subject to the personal property tax laid down upon other forms of merchandise, says the supreme court in an opinion handed down Monday in the case of Oden Bulck, Inc., and other Albuquerque automobile agencies against County Assessor S. B. Roehl and other taxing authorities. Chief Justice Bickley, Justices Watson and Hudspeth concurred.
