

BY BILL ELLIS

ONE THING THAT we have attempted to do this fall in our football contest, by having extra games for the fans to pick, is to expand on the number of pro games on the contest slate.

In the past, we usually had one or two NFL games. This fall, as a general rule, we have attempted to pick out the top three NFL games each week for our contest.

For the most part, the games we have chosen have truly turned out to be among the best games of the week, and this past weekend was no exception.

Those of you who follow the contest will recall that of the three pro games on the slate last weekend, Houston came from behind in the fading minutes to edge Miami, 20-19; the Philadelphia Eagles edged the New York Giants, 13-10 on a last-minute field goal, and the St. Louis Cardinals pulled the rug out from under the Washington Redskins, 20-17 in the hectic "sudden death" finish seen on television.

It's always gratifying when our contest games turn out to be the cliff-hanging variety such as these three we mention, although we realize that it may at the same time be giving the contest leaders a case of ulcers, especially when they see a game they thought they had wrapped up be "snatched away" such as the St. Louis-Washington game might have been for some.

In addition to the three pro games last week, three of the six college games on the contest were decided by a touchdown or less, and two of the five high school games were by three points or less. One of the college games that wasn't so close was still a big upset--Pittsburgh's 34-20 win over Notre Dame.

We just wanted you to know that we work at making the games hard, so if they seem that way when you fill out your form each week, we at the Blade office can utter a fiendish laugh.

SPEAKING OF THE contest, we note that next week's issue of the Blade will come out on the Thanksgiving week. Since some contestants may be leaving town early due to the long holiday weekend, we want you to know that we will have the contest games picked out by Monday noon, if you want to call or come by for the list. That way, those of you who plan to leave early may get a list of the games and have a chance to study it a little before picking the games. We plan to possibly have the Blade out earlier than usual, but we'll be happy to have you come by to get a list of the games if you wish.

Also, on that last week of the contest, we're planning to have an earlier than usual deadline for the contest--Friday noon. It's all because of the Texas-Texas A&M battle, which will be for all the marbles in the Southwest Conference. The Longhorn-Aggie game will be at 1:30 that Friday afternoon, and will be on national television.

We think it's a natural to lead our final week's contest off with that game, so be prepared to get your entries in earlier than usual. And if you mail your entries, you'll have to make sure they bear a November 28 "A.M." postmark.

THE PRETTY WEATHER has held on until it has just about run itself into the ground with local folks, particularly the agricultural people.

Things are pretty much on the dry side at the present time, and with the cloud cover blowing in Tuesday morning, everyone is hoping it will bring some moisture to our area.

The winter wheat crop can sure use some moisture, or the wheat is going to suffer. Also, those getting their land prepared for next year's planting season can also use some help in the way of moisture.

If we could just get a good general rain and then a rise in corn prices, the folks in this area would just about be assured of a good Christmas.

CONTEST WINNERS....Mrs. Maria Telles won first place and $7.50 in last week's Bovina Businesses Cotton Bowl Football Contest. Mrs. Telles, with 12 correct predictions, edged A.M. Wilson on her tiebreaker prediction. Wilson took second place and Nick Telles, who had 11 correct predictions, took third place prize money.

DICUFFA DROPS BEHIND

A.M. Wilson Holds 2-Point Lead In Cotton Bowl Race

A.M. Wilson has emerged as the man to beat in the 1975 Bovina Businesses Cotton Bowl Football Contest. Wilson survived a weekend of several upsets in the high school, college and pro football ranks to take over a solid two point lead in the total point standings with only this week and next remaining in this year's contest.

Wilson, with 12 correct predictions last week, has 120 points in the contest, followed by Mary Jane Wilson (his wife) with 118 points, Wilson DiCuffa with 115 points and Tommy DeLeon with 114 points. DiCuffa had been tied with Wilson for the previous two weeks, but only came up with seven correct predictions last week to fall five points behind.

Maria Telles won first place prize money last week. Mrs. Telles also had 12 correct predictions, but beat Wilson out on her tiebreaker prediction. Mrs. Telles missed the Colorado win over Kansas and the Pittsburgh upset over Notre Dame. She picked Hart to win over Bovina, 37-6, 14 points off the actual 51-6 score.

Wilson missed the Sudan upset over Sundown and the Pittsburgh win over Notre Dame and picked Hart, 28-7, 24 points off. Nick Telles took third place money on his tiebreaker prediction over five other contestants with 11 correct predictions. Telles missed the Colorado win over Kansas, the Pittsburgh-Notre Dame game and the McNeese win over West Texas State University. He predicted a 38-6 Hart win, 13 points off the game score.

Of the 117 entries last week, 16 had 10 right, 27 had nine, 27 had eight, 25 had seven, six had six, seven had five and one contestant had four correct predictions.

Other contestants with 11 correct predictions were Johnny Curtis, Mrs. Wilson and Dorothy Harris, each of whom missed the Sudan-Sundown, Pitt-Notre Dame and Houston-Miami games. Curtis picked Hart, 38-12, 19 points off; Mrs. Wilson picked Hart, 30-7, 22 points off; and Mrs. Harris picked Hart, 29-16, 32 points off. Also with 11 correct predictions were Furne Harris, who missed the Friona win over Morton, the Pitt win over Notre Dame and the St. Louis win over Washington; and Sandy Ware, who missed the Levelland win over Canyon, the Pitt-Notre Dame and St. Louis-Washington games. Mrs. Harris picked Bovina, 20-19, 46 points off the score, and Mrs. Ware picked Bovina, 14-13, 46 points off the score.

Only two weeks remain in the 1975 contest with the leader in total points at the end of the event winning two tickets to the Cotton Bowl in Dallas on New Years Day along with $30 expense money. The runner-up will receive two tickets to the Sun Bowl game in El Paso along with $20 cash. In the event of a tie for first or second place at the end of the contest, the contestants' tiebreaker scores will be used to determine the winner.

Standings at the end of the 11th week of the contest are as follows:
120
A.M. Wilson--784.
118
Mary Jane Wilson.
115
Wilson DiCuffa.

FOR CHRISTMAS

Lions Slate Annual Decorations Contest

The Annual Christmas Home Decorations Contest in the Bovina community will be sponsored this year by the Bovina Lions Club, announces Johnie Horn, spokesman for the organization. The Lions Club has sponsored the decorations each year since the contest began, however, a temporary halt was called to the annual event two years ago because of the energy crisis.

Cash prizes will be $25 for first place, $15 for second and $10 for third--a total of $50 in the Christmas event.

An entry blank appears in this week's issue of The Blade for those wishing to enter their decorations in the contest. All one must do is fill in the blanks and mail to Bovina Lions Club.

Deadline for entering is Monday, Dec. 15. Judging will be concluded by Thursday, Dec. 18. Those entering the contest should leave their lights on until at least 10 p.m. on the nights of Dec. 16, 17 and 18.

The contest is designed to encourage decoration of homes in Bovina and the surrounding rural area, Horn says.

The prize winning homes will be announced in the Christmas edition of The Blade.

Lions Club members state they feel the decorations contest is definitely an asset to Bovina during the holiday season. Not only does it inspire interest, but provides additional "color" and spirit for the season, they say.

Winners in the 1972 contest, the last one held here, were Wendy and Patti Sherrill, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J.E. Sherrill. Second place went to Pat Ware, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ware, with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Read taking third place.

Past winners also include Mr. and

Mrs. L.M. Grissom, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Estes, Mr. and Mrs. H.H. Kelso, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Whitten, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hromas, Mr.

and Mrs. Tom Bonds, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bradshaw and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hawkins as well as several others.

PAUL CRUME

Cancer Claims 'Big D' Writer

Paul Crume, front page columnist for the Dallas Morning News and former resident of the Oklahoma Lane-Lariat community, died Sunday at Dallas. Services were held Monday afternoon at the Cochran Chapel United Methodist Church with burial in Hillcrest Memorial Park.

Mr. Crume, 63, joined the staff of the Dallas newspaper in 1936. He had known of his terminal cancer for almost a year, but continued writing his "Big D" column until four days before his death.

His final column appeared Thursday and he wrote of death with his typical Crume humor.

"The courts continue their gradual enslavement of the people. The judge who has been trying the Karen Quinlan case up in New Jersey has now declared that nobody has a constitutional right to die.

"The question of the constitutionality of dying raises some interesting questions about basic law. We have searched the Constitution diligently and can find in it no constitutional right to be born. We are talking about the United States Constitution. Nobody can find anything in the Texas Constitution.

Mr. Crume was born in Alpena Pass, Ark. He moved with his family to Parmer County when he was 11. At the age of 12, he went to work part-time as a printer's devil, sweeper-outer and staff reporter for the State Line Tribune at Farwell.

He was graduated from the University of Texas at Austin in 1936 and joined the News staff in June of that same year. Except for four years as a U.S. Navy officer in World War II, Mr. Crume has worked for the News since that time.

Many of his columns concerned his boyhood in Parmer County and had the flavor of the Panhandle. In the early 1960s, he wrote of Lariat: "...it is about to progress me out of anything to write about. Lariat has matured. It has a population of two hundred. It has a tree, which gives it

GenTel, Bank Plan To Stop Bill Service

Beginning Friday, Nov. 28, General Telephone customers in Bovina may no longer make their phone bill payments at First State Bank of Bovina, according to Rad Richardson, general manager of the office located in Littlefield.

"Because of the small number of customers taking advantage of this service it is no longer economically feasible for our company or the bank to continue this service," Richardson said. "We want to express our appreciation to the bank and its staff for providing this service throughout the past number of years," he concluded.

BAND HONORS....Fran Jacobs and Alan Rhodes, both seniors at Bovina High School, were crowned Mustang Band Sweetheart and Beau in halftime ceremonies at the Bovina-Hart game Friday night at Mustang Field. Miss Jacobs is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L.F. Jacobs. Rhodes is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rhodes Jr. Other candidates were Tammy Christian, Trudy Falkenberg, George Villarreal and Clint Cox. Miss Christian is a junior and the other three candidates are seniors.

Sales Tax Check Sent To Bovina

Comptroller Bob Bullock mailed checks totaling $14.5 million to 670 cities and towns Friday, rebating their October city sales tax. Bullock said his office has rebated a total of $223.7 million to cities collecting the sales tax so far in calendar 1975. During all of calendar 1974, he said, a total of $233.7 million was rebated. With a normal November and December, Bullock predicted city budgets will enjoy $25 million to $30 million more revenue from the sales tax this year over 1974. The Comptroller said 154 of the total 824 cities collecting the sales tax will not receive their rebate until the end of the December quarter, because they fell below the $500 cutoff for monthly rebates. The City of Bovina received a check for $2,605.02 while the City of Friona received a check for $6,259.03.

SATURDAY

Shotgun Safety Program Slated

A shotgun safety program, sponsored by the Bovina Young Homemakers, will be held Saturday morning and afternoon in the Bovina Schools cafeteria, according to a spokesman for that organization. The Young Homemakers are sponsoring the program in conjunction with the city marshal's office and the Bovina Jaycees. There is no charge for the program which is being held to instruct youngsters from the age of 10 and up in basic safety rules prior to the upcoming pheasant hunting season in Parmer County. City Marshal Mike Reilly and Joe Blatchford of the Bovina Jaycees, assisted by other Jaycee members, will instruct the course. The morning session will be from 10 to 11:30 and will consist of basic safety rules and procedures. Those attending are requested to bring notebooks and pencils. After a lunch break, the program will resume at 1 and continue until 2 that afternoon with a practice session somewhere in the country. Those taking the course are requested to bring a shotgun and no more than five rounds of ammunition. Reilly will have some ammunition for sale for those who do not bring their own. The practice session will be well supervised, according to the sponsors.

Upon completion of the course, those who pass satisfactorily will be awarded certificates. Youngsters wishing to participate must sign up with Blatchford by noon Friday. Blatchford may be contacted at Bovina Schools or at his home.

Trap Shoot Set Sunday

The Knights of Columbus of St. Ann's Catholic Church will sponsor a trap shoot Sunday from 2 p.m. until dark, according to a spokesman for that organization. The shooting range is located north of Bovina on U.S. Highway 60. Directional signs are posted along the route. Ammunition will be available at the site and prizes will be awarded in several categories.

agri-facts

By John Ricci

One good reason for the upturn in the economy and the strengthening of the dollar is the efficiency of the American farmer. While a lot of segments of the economy remained stagnant during the past year the farmer was working... working to produce a new all time high in productivity for agriculture... working to produce a record harvest... working to bring more dollars into this country than went out. Records keepers in Washington now tell us that for this year the farmer's output was seven percent above 1974. American farmers provided this kind of efficiency in one of the worst possible atmospheres... prices were low... prospects dim. But the farmer didn't quit. Work went on. Records were broken and a chain of business started which boosted employment and sales throughout the agri-business sector. This in turn has had a positive economic effect for the entire nation. Well done farmers.

50 Women Attend Church Luncheon

About 50 women attended a salad luncheon Tuesday of last week in Fellowship Hall of First United Methodist Church. United Methodist Women hosted the luncheon for women of the other churches in Bovina.

Serving tables were decorated with autumn leaves, bouquets of fall flowers and turkeys made of apples, raisins and marshmallows.

Following lunch, the group met in the sanctuary for a program which had as its theme, "A Day of Thanks Giving." Mrs. Jimmie Clements, organist, presented a prelude of Thanksgiving music, followed by Mrs. I.W. Quickel, who gave the invocation. Mrs. Bedford Caldwell led the group in a hymn, "For All the Blessings of the Year."

Mrs. Billy Lynn Marshall and Mrs. Jerry McClaran, members of the Church of Christ, presented a devotional. Mrs. Don Murphy of the First Baptist Church gave a talk on thankfulness. Mrs. Gene Schacker, accompanied by Mrs. Joe Schilling at the organ, presented special music. Mrs. Schilling also accompanied members of the Catholic Church as they sang, "Let There Be Peace." Mrs. John Dixon, president of UMW, led the group as they quoted a verse of scripture for the closing prayer.

+ + +

In a business meeting of UMW, Mrs. Henry Ivy was elected president, Mrs. Joe Fowler vice president, Mrs. Bedford Caldwell, secretary, Mrs. Dean Hastings, treasurer, Mrs. Jerry Ware chairman of nominations, Mrs. Rouel Barron secretary of program resources and Mrs. Vernon Estes and Mrs. Billie Sudderth, Christian personhood and Christian global concerns mission coordinators.

The Memory Of A Righteous Life

A certain man died. He was thought to have considerable wealth. One curious friend asked, "How much did he leave?" His friend replied simply, "He left it all." Four brief words, yet, such an apt description of our relationship with worldly goods when life is over.

A few people pass from this life and leave large estates for their loved ones, while most leave very little. But, there is one thing that rich and poor alike can leave behind them. What is it? Not the blessing of worldly goods, but the memory of a righteous life.

Jesus said of the woman who broke the alabaster jar of very expensive ointment and poured it on his head, that wherever the gospel was preached, this woman's deed would be told for a memorial of her (Matt. 26:6ff). And so can it be with our lives. The worthy woman in Proverbs 31 was praised by her husband and children during her lifetime. And, surely there was rejoicing in her memory after her death.

In some way your life can have power for good, even after your death. A good and righteous life lives on in the hearts of others. This can be your lasting treasure, a treasure that every person can leave his family. "THE MEMORY OF THE RIGHTEOUS IS A BLESSING, BUT THE NAME OF THE WICKED WILL ROT." (Proverbs 10:7).

Does the same kind of policy cost the same with different companies?
 No. Many policies may have special features... at extra cost. Because of the importance of all types of insurance, and in some cases, the long-term nature, insurance should be purchased with care. The most important single factor is choose a good insurance agent. He or she will be advising you on matters which will affect your security and pocketbook. Every agent must pass a state test to qualify for an insurance license. Check the company. Has it met State Insurance Commission regulations? Compare companies' premium-rate schedules. However, as with anything you purchase, cost is not the only important factor. Service from your agent and the company he represents are of equal value and importance to you.

'Horns Bomb Mustangs In Final Game Of Year

The George Brothers, accompanied by Terry Hill and the remainder of the Hart Longhorns, invaded Mustang Field Friday night and when the dust had settled, the 'Horns had bombed the Mustangs, 51-6.

Barry George accounted for 20 points and Kerry George tallied 23 points and passed for one touchdown in the one-sided rout. Terry Hill rushed 18 times for 100 yards while Barry George rushed for 136 yards in 17 carries.

The 'Horns scored on their first possession of the evening, taking the opening kickoff on the 15 with Kerry George running the ball back to the 45 where Hart began play. Nine plays later, Barry George went over the goal line from the six and then tacked on the extra points for an 8-0 lead with 8:49 remaining in the first quarter.

The Longhorns, who ended the season with a 9-1 mark and a perfect 5-0 mark in district play, began their second scoring drive late in the first quarter with Kerry George scoring from 14 yards out with 9:38 on the clock in the second quarter. Hill ran the extra points to put Hart in a 16-0 lead.

Following an exchange of fumbles, the Mustangs began their first serious scoring drive of the evening, driving to the Hart 38 before losing the ball on downs. It was in this series that the Ponies picked up their initial first down of the night.

However, the Pony defense just couldn't stop the Georges and Hill and Kerry George scored from four yards out with only eight seconds remaining in the half. Kerry George also tacked on the extra points and Hart went to the dressing room at halftime with a 24-0 lead.

In the opening series of the second half, the Mustangs were forced to punt after picking up only four yards with Hart taking over on their own 35. The Longhorns drove to the 44 before Tommy Serna recovered a Hart fumble.

The Mustangs scored two minutes and 44 seconds later on a pass from Quarterback Dennis Willard to End Ken Sorley. Willard had hit End John Caldwell on an 11-yard pass to the Hart 34, followed by a 14 yard run by Fullback Gerald Shelby, a seven yard effort by Willard, a four yard run by Halfback Clint Cox and then the eight yard pass to Sorley in the left flat for the touchdown. The extra points pass from Willard to Cox was incomplete and the scoring had ended for Bovina.

Following the touchdown, the Mustangs tried an on-side kick which went off to the side and Hart took possession at the Bovina 41. Four plays later, Barry George went over from the two with 5:02 remaining in the third quarter. The attempt for two points failed.

The Longhorns weren't through, however, and Barry George scored once more before the third quarter ended. This time it was a 47 yard run by the fleet halfback with Kerry George kicking the extra point to make the score 37-6, Hart, with 1:46 left in the quarter.

With 8:30 remaining in the game, Quarterback Kerry George unloaded a 54-yard scoring strike to Fullback Glen Black. Kerry George kicked the extra point for a 44-6 Hart lead.

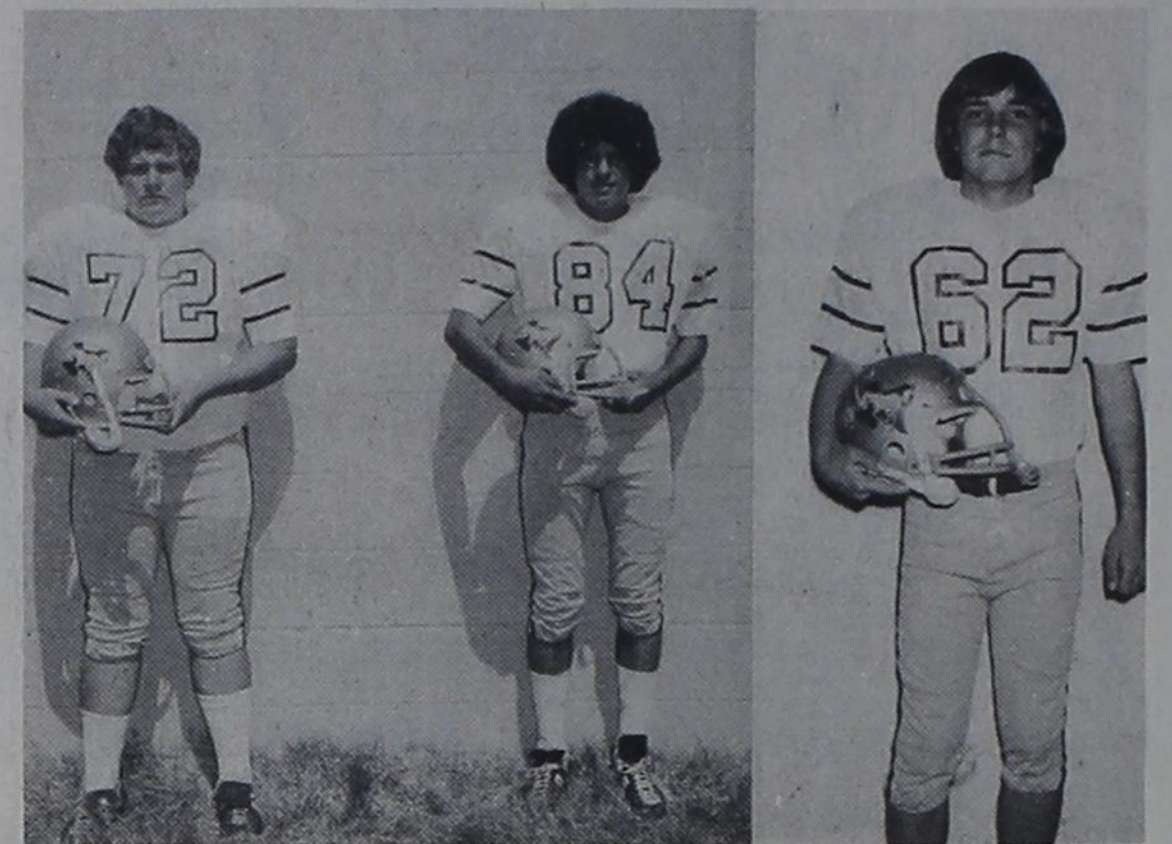

Kerry George finally ended the scoring party for the 'Horns on a 16-yard jaunt and then kicked the extra point with only 57 seconds remaining in the game to end the rout at 51-6 in favor of the Longhorns.

The loss evened the Mustangs record at 5-5 for the season and two wins against three losses in District 3-A competition.

Defensively for the Mustangs, Joe Olvera, Dana Harris, Duane Mitchell and Ray Martinez turned in good performances. Olvera, Shelby and Serna each recovered Hart fumbles. Offensively, Shelby paced the Ponies with 69 yards in 10 carries, followed by Halfback Tommy DeLeon with 56 yards in 12 carries, Cox 50 yards in five carries, and Willard with 19 yards in four carries. Included in Shelby's yardage was one pass reception for 29 yards. Cox also had one pass reception for 19 yards. Caldwell had one reception for 11 yards and Sorley two for 13 yards.

Tape this over your dial phone and see if it rings a bell with you.

This test will help tell you whether our Touch-Calling phone* is the thing for you. First, cut out the push-button panel in this ad. Then cover up your dial. Now what are you missing? Just an old-fashioned dial that's probably had you going round in circles for years.

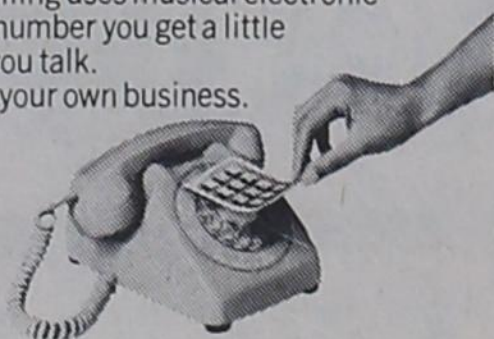

On the other hand, consider what you're gaining. Time is the most important thing. You can punch out your numbers in half the time it takes to dial them. Accuracy is another thing. The simplicity of buttons practically eliminates getting wrong numbers due to mistakes.

And, since Touch-Calling uses musical electronic tones to transmit your number you get a little entertainment before you talk.

What you get later is your own business.
