Dated, Lincoln County N. M.
August 18. 1905.
Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 29 The following official bulletin was given to the Associated Press by Baron Komura's secretary in the presence of the Russian and Japanese peace plenipotentiaries, shortly after the adjournment of the morning session today:
"At the session of August 29, the peace conference arrived at complete accord on all questions, and it has been decided to proceed with the elaboration of the treaty of peace.'
As soon as the momentous message had been put on the wires and flashed to every corner of the world, it was read aloud to the assembled correspondents and secretaries. Im mediately a great cheer arose, and before the plenipotentiaries could get to their motorcars they were besieged by the crowd which, half wild with enthusiasm, insisted on shaking hands and embracing the envoys of the ate belligerents.
Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 29 -The Associated Press corres pondent accompanied M. Witte to his room. He threw himself into his chair and after a few minutes to "pull himself togeth er," he began to speak, slowly and deliberately, almost as if he were talking to himself.
"It seems incredible," he said, "I don't believe any other man in my place would dare hope for the possibility of peace on the conditions to which we have just agreed. From all sides, from President Roosevelt down to my friends in Russia, I received upon the last moment, even this morning, urgent representations that something should be paid to Japan," At this point M. Witte almost lost control of himself. He paused and then went on:
"The Japanese wanted to take our interned ships, and I have not consented. The Japanese wanted to limit our naval power in the far east, and I have not cousented. The Japanese wanted a war indemnity or reimbursement of the cost of the war (aye, they demanded it) and I have not consented. The Japanese wanted the Chinese Eastern railway south of Harbin, but I gave them only the railroad in possession of their troops south of Chautafu. The Japanese wanted the island of Sakhalin, and I refused it, agreeing, however, at the last moment, to cede the southern half, and then only because I was commanded by my sovereign to yield, and obeyed. Not only do we not pay so much as one kopec, but we obtain half of Sakhalin, in their possession.

"At this morning's session I presented my written proposition, which was the Russian ultimatum. It was accepted by the Japanese. I was amazed. Until I was in the conference room, I did not think it would happen. I could not anticipate such a great and such a happy issue. It was a complete victory for us."

Married at Roswell.

Ed J, Coe, formerly superintendant of schools for Lincoln county, stole a march on hi friends, and quietly slipped away to Roswell, where he was mar ried Sunday, the 20th ult. to Miss Maud Evans, daughter of Judge Evans. Rev. C. E. Lukens of that city performed the ceremony.

The young couple immediate ly took the train, swung around the circle from Roswell to Pecos, on to El Paso and landing in Capitan Saturday, the 26th. The happy pair drove out to the Coe ranch that afternoon.
Congratulations were extended to Mr. Coe when he reached Capitan, notwithstanding the manner of treatment he had accorded his friends.

The Dawson Road Again.
The Las Vegas Daily Optic is authority for the following statement concerning the Dawson road, and the point where it will connect with the Phelps, Dodge main line:
"The surveyors of the new line from Dawson to Torrance have now run their line to the northern limits of the city. The road will pass close to the front door of Mayor Olney and by the back door of I. G. Hazzard. Several lines will be run through the city to determine the most feasible route.
'Looks as though the country had been greased for us,' said Chief Engineer Charles Henning, in speaking of the admirable grade which has been found. 'Our grade doesn't go above sixtenths of a per cent and the curves will be surprisingly light. Every assurance may be felt that the road will speedily be built, as the only condition was an easy grade and that has been found all the way to the southern terminus.
"' 'The company is asking nothing of the people and is willing to pay reasonably for all it requires. The survey is being very thoroughly made and platted. The company is already spending a good deal of money and it means business. The Phelps, Dodge company wants the road and is going to build a good one.'"

A few days ago the French Chambe of Deputies passed a bill which prac and state. The situation is thus ex plained by the Brooklyn Eagle:
"The bill abolishes the concorda agreement with Rome, into which Napoleon and Pius VII. entered in 1801 and withdraws from the Catholic Church, and from other religious de nominations, the annual contribution made to their support by the state treasury. In 1904 these contribution included $40,681,903$ francs for Catholic

Give Russia the Credit

It is a singular fact that Russia is the country which first gave the greatest encouragement to the woman doctor. The Woman's Medical Institute in St. Petersburg, on its foundation, was hailed as the only place in the world where a woman could take out medical degrees. But, in 1886 Minister Warrowsky closed it. Now it has suddenly come to life again, the czar has given it an endowment, and its students have all the privileges hitherto accorded men. Why and wherefore? Because the war is taking all the men doctors, and if their places are not filled the unhappy empire is at the mercy of any epidemic that may come along.

FINDS IT IS NOT POISON. Darky Explains His Ineffectual Efforts There was a man in Atlanta who once suspected a colored man in his employ of tampering with the contents of his wine cellar, especially with a certain brand of fine whisky. The employer decided to adorify his suspicions. $\mathrm{He}^{\prime}$ allowed the demijohn holding his "privat stock" to become empty; then, in stead of refilling it, he placed his pet brand in bottles, labeling each one "poison.
one evening, on returning home unexpectedly, he caught his servant in "flagrante delicto." Seizing the bottle from the darky's hand the Atlanta man exclaimed, in a tone of horror what you have been doing? This bot tle is marked 'poison.'
The negro took the bottle and surveyed it closely. Then he sniffed at it. A melancholy smile flitted over his dusky countenance. "'Tain't pizen, sah," he said, dejectedly. "Ise been fooled ag'in.
"Fooled again?" repeated the master, indignantly. "What do you mean?",

Well, sah," continued the darky, in the same tone of depression, "it am dis way. THE SOUTHERN STATESMAN.
Some of our northern confreres have of late criticized Senator Bailey of Texas, somewhat severely because he does not class, they say, with Edward Livingston or John C. Calhoun
First remember that times have changed since the great New Yorker was senator from Louisiana, or when the great senator from South Carolina was the champion of state rights.

The issues of those days are dead and buried, one of them in the graves of five hundred thousand men. We deal today with new issues and new men.
In intellectual ability Senator Bailey may not compare with Webster, Calhoun, Livingston, Clay and the giants of the past, though this is doubtful.
But if the fact be admitted it is conceded that he is able, eloquent, earnest and honest. That he is in sympathy with the progressive issues of the American peasant.

That among southern statesman and southern people he is a leader upon the vital living questions of the present hour.

What more do we require? and in this connection it is pertinent to say that whether southern statesmen are or are not inferior to their predecessors of the past, no one of them have been even accused of violation of a public trust; there are among them no Mitcheels or Burtons. No one of them have been accused of subordinating postal reform to the interests of his corporation, as may be said of the senior senator from New York.

None of them is accused of drawing a salary for his inHuence with the lobby, as is said of the junior senator from the same great empire state.

The leaders of the south have at least been true to their people, and to their own honor, and no greater praise can be given pub lic men in these latter days.

STATEHOOD OF SOME KIND.

The Arizona Star, a daily and weekly publication of Tucson Arizona, has considerable to say about statehood; and, as a mat ter of course, it favors statehood, for Arizona, yet it urges Árizonans to accept joint statehood with New Mexico, if that is the kind offered by congress.

The Star deals with the sub ject in the following manner:

There are but two classes of people in Arizona who are engaged in the statehood fight. Those who want statehood, and want it with earnestness enough to take the very best that congress will give us. The other class who want statehood for their own special use, and will not accept self government in any other form than that which suits them-perscnally. These latter people will be disappointed. Those who want self govermment, because it is an in-arienable right, because it is in accord with American principles; because self government is the ambition of every patriotic American citizen, will receive what they want and what they are hoping for

The people who want statehood farout number those who are opposed to statehood. Hence, Congress will pass an enabling act giving the people of Arizona and New Mexico the power to erect a sovereign state.
"If the consensus of opinion of the masses of the citizens of Arizona was known on the statehood question, it would be found to be for statehood under the most favorable conditions possible. But self government at any hazard, even if this end can only we realized through the merger of the two territories. The citizens of Arizona are composed of citizens from nearly every state in the union. They know what self government means. They want self government, singly, if possible, but they want statehood, and will accept joint sovereiguity in prefence to no statehood at all. Self government is one of the fundamental principles of the American citizenship. Arizonaus are American citizens, and they feel they are intelligent enough and loyal enough for self government.
'Better, far better, to take half the representation in congress and the senate than no representation at all. Better enjoy half the electoral vote in choosing the president than no votes at all.
"Our people believe in representative government, They believe in enjoying a voice in electing the president. In having a voice in making our federal laws, rather than to be totally ignored.
"This is the right spirit. Let us fight for the very best terms we cau secure. Having done this, we have done our whole duty. We can do no more. The Farmers and the Trists future will take care of itself.

Single statehood, if possible, but if this is impossible, then take statehood jointly with our sister territory. Arizona and New Mexico were one in the past. What harm can come to either to be joined in one destiny in the future, especially so until Arizona enjoys half million population, when we may become a single sovereign state, but until that time let us accept the very best congress will give us."

DRINA MADE NULL AND VOID.
How Johnson Sides Was Vindicated by Nevada Legislature.
"With Indiana and Arkansas pass ing freak legislation, what can we expect next?" asks the chap that is al ways trying to dig up matters which New Orleans Times- a New Orleans Times-Democrat. But did you ever hear of the act of the Nevada legislature? I do not think there ever was anything like it. It seems that one Johnson Sides, an returned to his tribe to preach about returned to his tribe to preach abou the crime of drinking spirits of any kind. He proved to be a splendid temperance advocate of grand power Well, one day Johnson Sides was Caught taking a drink. He said aiterwards that it was because he had the wards that it was because he had tie stomach ache. Some people were so stomach ache. Some people were so impolite as to doubt this and intimated that perhaps Mr. Johnson Sides had been in the habit of having at tacks of stomach ache all the time that he was lecturing against intemper ance. This made Mr. Sides feel bad It not only took away his drawing power as a temperance advocate, but almost broke his heart. He thousht about it deeply and he thought about it long. Suddenly he reccived an inspiration. He went to a friend, members of the Nevada legislature, and had a long talk with him. As a esult the following appears on the minutes of that body

Senate joint concurrent resoluion No. 11-Resolved by the senate the people of the state of Nevada con curring, that the drink of whisky taken by Johnson Sides on the 17th day of September in the city of Virginia, county of Story, be and is hereby de clared null and void.
"And thus was Johnson Sides vindicated."

Dr. Weir Mitchell relates the sad case of a young woman from Balti more affecting literary fads who at tended a reception given by a Phila delphia woman in honor of a well known writer.
The young woman from Baltimore was introduced to the whole roomitu of more or less celebrated individuals, and it seemed to be a circumstance on which she prided herself that she could remember an amazing propor tion of the names of those present When, however, she came to say fare well to a certain rather distinguished young man, who, by the way, wa probably the only person there who was not

Don't Poison Baby.

FORTY YEARS AGO almost every mother thought her child must have PAREGORIC or laudanum to make it sleep. These drugs will produce sleep, and A FEW DROPS TOO MANY will produce the SLEEP FROM WHICH THERE IS NO WAKING. Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labelling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is: ". A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which in poisonous doses produces stupor, coma, convulsions and death." The taste and smell of medicines containing opium are disguised, and sold under the names of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrups," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children without you or your physician know of what it is composed. CASTORIA DOES NOT CONTAIN NARCOTICS, if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

Wheelbarrows are used to a great extent in China for the transportation for long distances of passengers and freight. Lieut. Col. C. C. Manifold of the British army writes as follows of the wheelbarrow men in the upper Yangtse provinces: "The plain of Suicho is as densely populated as any part of China and a great trade in locally manufactured cloth is carried on from its neighborhood and sent all over the country. The only transport used, until the railway or a navigable affluent of the Han river is reached, is the wheelbarrow. There is no doubt that a good cart road could be doubt that a good cart road could be easily made, but whether it is due easily made, but whether it is due > Astor's Idea of Farmircy.

John Jacob Astor thus forecasts in the automobile: "The farmer whose horses have plowed all day, and who, with his family, naturally needs recre ation when the work is done, will in voke his automobile that, as a stationary engine may have been cutting feed, sawing wood, or what nok, switch the motive power to the driving wheels and with a joyful 'All aboard!' be off to the nearest town, though it may be miles away." Evidently what John Jacob doesn't know about farming Isn't worth telling.-Boston Transcript.

Hanna and the Poor House.
An Ohio manufacturer tells this story of Mark Hanna. The Senator often walked through his mill, explaining this and that. One day while wish I had Hanna's money and he was in the poor house." The senator smiled grimly, and on returning to his office sent for the boy. "So you wish you had my money and I was in the poor house, eh?" he said. "Now, supposing you had your wish, what would you do?" The youngster, one of the
