Striking Paragraphs in Message.

The following paragraphs are taken from the president's message to congress.

"Perhaps the most important question presented to this administration is that of economy in expenditure and sufficiency of revenue."

The president says the cost of living has increased, but does not blame the tariff for it

BOND ISSUE RECOMMENDED.

"The report of the secretary shows that the ordinary expenditures for the current fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, will exceed the receipts by $34,075,620. If to this deficit is added the sum to be disbursed for the Panama canal, amounting to $38,000,000, and $1,000,000 to be paid on the public debt, the deficit of ordinary receipts and expenditures will be increased to a total deficit of $73,075,620. This deficit the secretary proposes to meet by the proceeds of bonds issued to pay the cost of constructing the Panama canal. I approve this proposal."

The president says the cost of engineering and constructing the canal, which will be completed January 1, 1915, will be $297,766,000, as originally estimated. Other expenses increase the cost by $75,435,000 to a total of $375,201,000.

URGES POSTAL SAVINGS BANKS.

"They will furnish a satisfactory substitute for the system of a government guaranty of deposits which, with deference to those who advocate it, seems to me to have in it the seeds of demoralization to conservative banking and certain financial disaster."

The president earnestly recommended the passage of a ship subsidy bill.

Campaign Expense Publicity.

"I urgently recommend to congress that a law be passed requiring that candidates for members of the house of representatives and committees in charge of their candidacy and campaign, file in a proper office of the U. S. government, a statement of the contributions received and of the expenditures incurred in the campaign for such elections and that similar legislation be enacted in regard to all other elections which are constitutionally within the control of congress.

The Statehood Paragraph.

In his annual message to congress, President Taft makes the following recommendation with reference to statehood:

"The successful party in the last election in its national platform declared in favor of the admission as separate states of New Mexico and Arizona and I recommend that legislation appropriate to this end be adopted. I urge, however, that care be exercised in the preparation of the legislation affecting each territory to secure deliberation in the selection of persons as members of the convention to draft a constitution for the incoming states, and I earnestly advise that such constitution after adoption by the convention shall be submitted to the people of the territories for their approval at an election in which the sole issue shall be the merits of the proposed constitution and if the constitution is defeated by popular vote, means shall be provided in the enabling act for a new convention and the drafting of a new constitution. I think it vital that the issue as to the merits of the constitution should not be mixed up with the selection of state officers and that no election of state officers should be had until after the constitution has been fully approved and finally settled upon."

Teachers' Examination.

The regular mid-winter examination of teachers will be held in the public school building at Carrizozo, N. M., on Friday and Saturday, January 14th and 15th, 1910. All permits expire on the date of this examination, and all teachers holding permits and desiring to continue teaching are required to secure a certificate at this examination. The issuance of two permits in succession is forbidden; hence the necessity for holders of permits to secure a certificate in order to draw salary from the public school fund. The Territorial Board expects to furnish questions for first, second and third grade certificates. The examination will begin at eight o'clock, Friday morning, and a specifically allotted time will be given to each subject until the examination is completed.

BIBLE NOT ETHICAL

Thirteen Chicago University Professors O. K. the Statement.

Holy Book Is Neither the Compendium of Truth Nor Theology, Declares an Official Editorial in the Biblical World.

Chicago.—The divinity school of the University of Chicago gave the world another startling bit of advanced theology when the 13 editors of the Biblical World put their O. K. on the statement that the Bible is not a compendium of ethics and never was intended to be.

The argument appeared in the form of an editorial in the magazine, of which Prof. Ernest DeWitt Burton, D. D., head of the department of New Testament literature and interpretation, is the editor-in-chief. The associate editors are members of the faculty, and their unanimous approval is necessary before an editorial goes to the printer. Often two or three collaborate on an article.

The editorial makes the argument that the ethical methods of Jesus were ideal in that they were elastic and adjusted to fit conditions as they were found.

In an interview Dr. Burton elaborated on the presentments made in the editorial in a manner to emphasize what many persons had read between the lines, viz., that Sunday baseball and other personal enjoyment of the Sabbath were not necessarily sinful, in the minds of the 13 professors. Dr. Burton did not mention baseball in his discourse nor did he mention saloons, but he left room for some very plain inferences. As did the editorial, he held that the Bible was not an iron-clad depository of truth and arbitrary rules of conduct, but a historical record. And no less an authority than Jesus himself was cited in support of his position.

"The Bible is not a compendium of truth, nor even of theology," said Dr. Burton. "It is a record of religious and ethical experiences rather than the last authority and a composition of all theological truth, such as it is held to be by most churches.

"Taking the Bible at the beginning and following it through, we find it ever-changing, according to the conception of the times. We cannot take it as a compendium and opening it say: 'There is the law; there is the truth.'"

Parts of the editorial read as follows:

"What shall we say concerning the commands of Jehovah in the Old Testament to exterminate the women and children of a vanquished foe? How shall we account for the fact that the Old Testament heroes indulged in polygamy, forbidden by our modern laws? How can we teach total abstinence from a Bible which represents Jesus as partaking of wine at feasts, and which even tells how he miraculously produced wine from water on one occasion when the supply fell short?"

"How, for example, can a Christian gain in intelligent understanding of the issues at stake in the modern conflict between capital and labor if he simply confine himself to a reading of the Bible? How shall he gain defensible moral convictions concerning the ethics of child labor if he confine his attention to a literature which never dreamed of the possibility of modern factories and machinery?"

"When one turns to the Gospels one cannot fail to be impressed with the way in which Jesus taught morality directly from life rather than by the methods of the scribes. He determined what was right in any instance by examining the situation itself. When sickness needed to be healed the interests of suffering humanity were of more importance to him than the Jewish legislation concerning the Sabbath.

"Is it not time that we should cease to apologize for this method of Biblical study which has been universally adopted in our seminaries?"

IS PLANNING QUEER FARM

Mrs. George Cornwallis West, Former British Society Leader, Will Raise Frogs.

London.—Mrs. George Cornwallis-West, formerly Lady Randolph Churchill and mother of Winston Spencer Churchill, is reported to be planning a new shock for British aristocracy. This beautiful, talented American woman, whose ambition and ability made her first husband one of England's foremost statesmen, and who, as a widow, married a man about the age of her son, according to the latest report is preparing to raise bullfrogs on a large scale for the London market.

Mrs. Cornwallis-West, it is said, has leased 40 acres of marshy land near one of the London suburbs and will inclose it with a fine-meshed wire fence. A large number of bullfrogs have been ordered from France with which this place will be stocked.

There is no more interesting character in England than Mrs. Cornwallis-West, formerly Miss Jennie Jerome of New York and afterward Lady Randolph Churchill. While Lord Randolph was alive she was his most devoted and helpful aid, and contributed largely to what of success there was in that brilliant, though impulsive statesman's career. Then she was a public personage and a great social figure.

Now Mrs. West is leading the life of a recluse at Salisbury hall, St. Albans, where she is writing her reminiscences, which will doubtless form one of the most delightful books of the time. The house is both historic and beautiful, and it is splendidly furnished.

Mrs. West's four sons frequently visit her, and they and her young husband and herself make the jolliest company imaginable.

Enticing the Collection.

It is told of a newly appointed Scotch minister that on his first Sunday in office he had reason to complain of the poorness of the collection. "Mon," replied one of the elders, "they are close—vera close. But," confidentially, "the auld meenister he put three or four saxpence into the plate hissef, just to gie them a start. Of course, he took the saxpence awa' with him afterward."

The new minister tried the same plan, but the next Sunday he again had to report a dismal failure. The total collection was not only small, but he was grieved to find that his own sixpences were missing.

"Ye may be a better preacher than the auld meenister," exclaimed the elder, "but if ye had half the knowledge o' the world ye'd ha' done what he did an' glued the saxpences to the plate."

Preparing For It.

Stranger (in Drearyhurst)—Your streets and alleys look shocking. They seem to be iterally covered with all kinds of dirt and rubbish.

Uncle Welby Gosh—Yes, sir; a week fr'm next Sat'day is our cleanin' up day. We got to have somethin' to clean up, hain't we, mister?—Chicago Tribune.

So far as risking one's hard-earned and enviable reputation is concerned, pole-dashing appears to be almost as dangerous as running for office.

All talk about there being no commercial benefit to come from the discovery of the pole has stopped since it was announced that Dr. Cook has already made $100,000 out of his lecturing.—Denver Republican.

The New Way.

"The bride and groom played a mean trick on their friends."

"How so?"

"While the gang waited on the sidewalk, they went away by airship from the third story."

Now, to Get Even!

Jones—That young man who plays the cornet is ill.

Green—Do you think he will recover?

Jones I fear not. The doctor who is attending him lives next door.

SCIENCE AND INVENTION

HALLEY'S COMET IN SIGHT

How Astronomers Have Predicted Coming of Astral Derelict Accurately—Some Strange Facts.

Halley's comet again is approaching the earth after an absence of 75 years. While swinging around in space it visited a region that is perhaps 50,000,000 miles more distant than the outermost planet of the solar system. Although it is not scheduled to arrive at its perihelion—the point least distant from the sun—until July 19, 1912, or possibly the latter part of 1911, depending on the amount of planetary disturbance, it probably will be visible to the naked eye in a short time.

After an exposure of an hour recently in Heidelberg, Germany, a photographic plate showed the comet as a nebula of the sixteenth magnitude. Another photograph has just been secured of the comet at the Yerkes observatory, near Williams Bay, Wis.

Course of Comet.

Solar bodies above the seventh magnitude cannot be seen without the aid of a telescope.

Extraordinary attention is being paid to the return of this celebrated comet. It is of particular interest to scientists because it was the first known to travel in a closed orbit. Its brilliancy, sensational size, records of its returns—the consternation once spread through the world by the belief that it would destroy the earth—make it the most famous comet in history.

In 1682, in the reign of Charles II. of England, a comet of extraordinary size appeared, which was observed by Newton, Halley and other astronomers of the time. Halley followed its course among the stars and, comparing his observations with the records of previous comets, came to the conclusion that the comets of 1456, 1531 and 1607 were only different appearances of the same object. He staked his reputation on a prediction that the comet would return in about 75 years. True to this prediction, it did appear in 1758, when Edmund Halley had been sleeping in his grave for 16 years. The reason the name of Palitsch, a Saxon peasant, has been preserved to posterity is that his eye was the first to catch sight of the returning comet. It was on Christmas night, 1758, he saw the comet and cheated the professional astronomers of the honor.

The first recorded appearance of Halley's comet was B. C. 130, when it was believed to herald the birth of Mithridates. In 1066 it was seen equal to the full moon in size. In its appearance in 1456 its tail reached from the horizon to the zenith.

Halley's comet, perhaps, has received more scientific attention than any of the others. In its last revolution, in 1835, it was influenced appreciably by the attraction of the four outer planets, Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus and the earth, and, of course, the sun. Damoiseau and Pontecoulard, French astronomers, undertook the task of calculating the amount of such influences. It was found that the action of Jupiter, as compared with the last revolution of the comet, would accelerate it 135.34 days; that of Saturn retard it 51.53 days; that of Uranus retard it 6.07 days, and that of the earth retard it 11.7 days, the latter dating back as far as 1759, or the very beginning of its revolution, at which time it passed very near the earth.

The following facts connected with the appearance of the comet in 1835 are taken from Herschel's "Outlines of Astronomy:"

It developed no tail until October 2 and on that day the nucleus was observed to become suddenly brighter and to throw out a jet of light from its interior part.

Its tail attained the greatest length of 20 degrees October 15, and had entirely disappeared before its perihelion passage of November 16.

At the anterior luminous jet, meanwhile, singular and capricious changes succeeded one another with such rapidity that on no two successive nights were the appearances alike. At one time it was single, at another time fan-shaped or swallow-tailed, while at other times two, three or even more jets were darted from the comet in different directions.

In receding from the sun it passed through a series of changes scarcely less remarkable and finally disappeared May 5, 1836.

Power of Increase.

The remarkable power of increase of plants and animals, insuring their continuance through long ages with the production of new forms by adaptation, was noted by Dr. A. R. Wallace in his late Royal institution address on Darwin's work. A single common weed, the Sisymbrium Sophia, yields three-fourth of a million seeds, and if all grew and multiplied, the land of the globe would be covered in three years. One pair of elephants, the slowest breeding animals, would produce 19,000,000 individuals in 750 years. The prolific rabbits, the national pest of Australia, would have a progeny of 1,000,000 from a single pair in four or five years.

High-Explosive Shells.

The French battleship Iena, which a few years ago was wrecked by an explosion of the smokeless powder in her magazines, is being used as a target, and several important problems are to be determined relating to the effect of shell fire. Recently, after caged animals had been placed on board the ship, she was attacked by the cruiser Latouche Trouville with high-explosive shells. The deadly effect of the gases of the explosion was shown by the asphyxiation of several of the animals.

Peruna Secrets You Should Know

Golden Seal, the root of the above plant, is a very useful medicine. Many people gather it in our rich woodlands during the summer. Few people know how valuable it is in dyspepsia, catarrh, and as a general tonic.

Many thousand pounds of this root are used each year in the famous catarrh remedy, Peruna. This fact explains why everybody uses Peruna for catarrh.

This liniment takes the place of massage and is better than sticky plasters. It penetrates—without rubbing—through the skin and muscular tissue right to the bone, quickens the blood, relieves congestion, and gives permanent as well as temporary relief.

Here's the Proof.

Mr. JAMES C. LEE, of 1100 9th St., S.E., Washington, D.C., writes: "Thirty years ago I fell from a scaffold and seriously injured my back. I suffered terribly at times; from the small of my back all around my stomach was just as if I had been beaten with a club. I used every plaster I could get with no relief. Sloan's Liniment took the pain right out, and I can now do as much ladder work as any man in the shop, thanks to

Mr. J. P. EVANS, of Mt. The bi-ennial statehood bill has been introduced in the house and contains about the usual provisions. If it passes the house it will either be amended or killed in the senate.

The insurgents are going after the reactionists, but as the reactionists in both houses of congress are in full control, and have the slicing of the pie, the insurgents have an up-hill fight.

Congress assembled in the National capital, Monday, for the long term. Many important measures will be introduced, but for the passage Uncle Joe and Boss Aldrich will have to be consulted. Men may propose but these bosses will dispose.

The lower house of parliament in England goes to the people for vindication; in this country Aldrich and Cannon say the people be damned. Ours is the much easier form of government—the people don't have to bother themselves—they only pay the taxes.

The Territorial Educational Association meets at Roswell on 28th, 29th and 30th of December. A large number of teachers from all parts of the territory will be present at this gathering. The teachers of Lincoln county are urged to attend and take part in the discussions that will come before the association.

The unpleasantness existing between the United States and Nicaragua seems to be in a fair way for an amicable settlement. Charles E. Magoon, former governor of Cuba, and Enrique Creel, former Mexican ambassador at Washington, are said to have been agreed upon as commissioners to adjust matters. If this is done, Uncle Sam will call off his war dogs and Zelaya will probably escape with his life. There is little question that Zelaya needed a drubbing, but the manner in which Secretary Knox was going after him had the appearance of of a big bully bluffing a dwarf.

Cattle Condemned and Killed.

The last legislature enacted a law for the stamping out of diseases among stock, and particularly diseases of dairy cattle, and empowered the Cattle Sanitary Board, in conjunction with the Bureau of Animal Industry, to adopt drastic measures wherever disease is found to exist. Tuberculosis in dairy cattle is, of course the most dangerous, as more people are affected, and a rigid inspection of this class of stock is now being made.

This week Inspector Tucker, of Alamogordo, has visited places in this vicinity where cattle are kept, and is testing them by the tuberculin process. Veterinarian Pine, of this place, is assisting him. The inspectors yesterday visited the dairy of Sam Potts and found four of his dairy cows infected with tuberculosis, which they condemned and ordered killed. They also found a cow of Charles Spence's infected and the same measures were followed.

The inspectors will test any dairy cows where the owners have cause to suspect they are suffering from disease, and they solicit the co-operation of the public in their work. Owners of condemned cattle will receive from the territory two-thirds of their appraised value, not, however, to exceed $60.

Women Suffer Agonies from Diseased Kidneys

And Most Women Do This Not Knowing the Real Cause of their Condition

These poor, suffering women have been led to believe that their misery of mind and body is entirely due to "ills of their sex." Usually the kidneys and bladder are responsible—or largely so. And in such cases, the kidneys and bladder are the organs, that need and must have attention.

Those torturing, enervating sick headaches, dragging pains in back, groin and limbs, bloating and swelling of the extremities, extreme nervousness or hysteria, listlessness and constant tired, worn-out feeling—are almost certain symptoms of disordered and diseased kidneys, bladder and liver.

DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills have, in thousands of cases, been demonstrated as remarkably beneficial in all such conditions of female organism—affording the most prompt relief and permanent benefit.

As an illustration of what these Pills will do, Mrs. P. M. Bray of Columbus, Ga., writes that she was very ill with kidney trouble, and that she is now well—and that these Pills are what cured her.

They are very pleasant to take, and can in no case, produce any deleterious effects upon the system—as syrupy, alcoholic, liquid preparations are apt to do.

E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill., want every man and woman who have the least suspicion that they are afflicted with kidney and bladder diseases to at once write them, and a trial box of these Pills will be sent free by return mail post-paid. Do it to-day.

New Mexico.

Oh! would you lead a strenuous life—
A life that is worth while?
Then come ye to New Mexico
Where hardships are in style.

Oh! Oh! New Mexico—
A great and wondrous land!
Where we count the drops of water
And eat the grains of sand.

Bring a stock of patience,
Of common sense and coin;
For you'll have need of both of them
If in this life you join.

Bring a grain of sympathy
For your womenkind,
For she to come and join you
Leaves her beauty all behind.

The ceaseless, tireless wind
With its eternal blow,
Seldom softened by the moisture
Of either rain or snow

Whips the curl from their tresses,
The roses from their cheeks;
Browns and wrinkles up the skin
In a few short weary weeks.

Work is hard, and they must do it
Or let it go undone;
There is little to attract them
Of pleasure or of fun.

But if you'll only love them,
And sometimes tell them so,
They'll follow you to Africa
If there you choose to go.

So, if you've got the heart in you
To be a pioneer,
Just gather up your family
And come along out here.

There is something subtle
In this breezy Western life
That gets a hold upon you
In spite of toil and strife.

Bring your cows and horses,
Bring your plows and hoes,
And you can make this wilderness
To "blossom as the rose."

And those of us who are here
Let's not growl and whine,
But conquer all the hardships
And, like the sun, let's shine.

A Carrizozo Booster.

Frank Gray left Sunday night on a six weeks visit in the biggest, and, some say the best, state in the Union—Texas. During his absence he will visit his old stamping grounds in Coryell, Mason and Edwards counties, renew old acquaintances, and incidentally indulge in the pastime of his boyhood, hunting the possum by moonlight. Frank left Texas about four years ago on the advise of a physician. His weight at that time was 136 pounds—light for a man of 73 inches. He now turns the beam at 180 pounds. In the meantime he has built a nice home on his 160 acres, and is jointly interested with a brother in a well-paying business. During his visit in Texas he will boost for the best town in one of the best counties in New Mexico—Carrizozo—and will advise any of his friends who feel like making a change and increasing their worldly possessions to pack their grips and come to the land of sunshine.

CAPITAN.

James W. Robinson and Ross Bentley were over Saturday from Bonito.

Wm. D. Martin and daughter, Miss Alma, were in Carrizozo Monday from Oscuro.

Mrs. Hattie Pons' cottage is nearing completion, and will be occupied by J. S. Lassiter and family.

Will J. Doering, the hustling light man, returned Sunday from a ten days' trip to Las Cruces and the Mesilla valley.

Dr. J. W. Laws, of the Lincoln sanatorium, passed through here Monday on a visit to El Paso and returned yesterday.

Geo. L. Ulrick is up in the hills, looking after the interests of some mining property which is owned by eastern capital.

Dr. L. D. Fricks, of Fort Stanton, returned yesterday from an extended visit in Philadelphia and other eastern points.

Attorney Hudspeth, of White Oaks, returned from Santa Fe this morning, where he went the first of the week on legal business.

The three-room adobe building, being erected by the Townsite company near the postoffice, is rapidly assuming proportions. The roof is on and the brick front is about finished.

An old time patient of the Fort Stanton sanatorium, named Strauchn, passed through Carrizozo yesterday en route to Los Angeles.

Mrs. Paris, the cashier at the railroad hotel, is in Capitan this week attending on her husband, who had a leg broken last week in a runaway.

S. W. Hale, of Capitan, who is the boss snipe on the Capitan branch, has a thirty day leave of absence, and with his family, is visiting friends at Aleda, Texas.

The family of W. S. Kirby left this week for Douglas, Arizona. Mr. Kirby, in his capacity as watchman for the railroad company, had been transferred to that point.

W. F. McIntyre was down this week from Ft. Sumner. He makes this point regularly, as he has interests here, but makes his home at the historic old fort, near where Billie the Kid met his doom.

John M. Bell came over from Ft. Stanton Monday, and left that evening for Chicago. Mr. Bell has been at Ft. Stanton for almost five years, in pharmacy department, and has been transferred to Marine hospital at Chicago. He is quite well known throughout this county, having been one of the leading players in the Fort's baseball aggregation, which has been so successful the past four or five seasons.

The cold weather has retarded the plastering on Dr. Paden's hospital and drug store building. Most of the inside work, however, is almost completed, and the building will soon be ready for occupancy.

W. T. Crabtree, a prominent citizen and stockman of Corona, was down yesterday. Mr. Crabtree says range conditions in his section are first class, the only draw-back being the scarcity of water in some localities.

Lee Singleton left Wednesday for Alpine, Texas, where he will remain until after the holidays. He is still unable to use his leg, which was broken two months ago, and is taking advantage of his enforced lay-off to visit his old home.

Grandma Parker died at Nogal Wednesday night, and was buried yesterday afternoon in the Nogal cemetery. Mr. John H. Skinner, of this place, an old friend of the family conducted the funeral ceremonies. The deceased was quite aged and had been in feeble health a number of years. She leaves several children, two of whom live in this county, Mrs. T. J. Moore and Mrs. O. C. Davis, besides another daughter who was at the bedside when the summons came.

Justice court has been grinding steadily the past week. Some family feuds, altercations between sparring champions and a few plain drunks furnished the grain for the mill. Our readers, however, should not gather from this that such things are the rule here—they are simply epidemical.

H. R. Wiseman and A. Davis, who have spent the past week here and in the Oscuros, left yesterday for their home in Chicago. They are interested in the New Mexico Reduction Co., which has a number of claims in the Oscuro mountains. The development of the claims has disclosed a substantial lead of galena and copper ore, from which some handsome specimens have been taken.

Capt. Paris, who was driving from here to Capitan Saturday, received a broken leg by being thrown from the vehicle in which he was riding. The team became frightened and unmanageable, with the result as stated. Mr. Paris was conveyed to Capitan, his limb set, and all things considered, he is doing very well. Mrs. Paris left for Capitan upon receipt of intelligence of the accident.

CAUSES OF TYPHOID.

Autumnal typhoid still has a way of appearing at customary seasons in well nigh every region of the country. The health authorities in New York find it this year rather worse than usual, it appears in the dwellings of the well-to-do as freely as in the shacks of the poor. Sanitation does not prevent it, that is, not what we generally call sanitation. It is an intestinal disease, conveyed by drink or food. The old theories of bad air, sewer gas and damp houses have not now much standing. It is feared that some of the later theories do not explain all the points about autumn typhoid. The housefly does not. The condition of the water supply, as being different in summer and winter, does not. A plausible explanation is that the profuse perspiration with which in summer the body eliminates a large amount of disease breeding matter, is reduced to a minimum almost instantly when the cool days begin. The kidneys and bowels, unaccustomed to the task, are burdened with dangerous materials and unable to perform the task of elimination. It is at least common knowledge that typhoid is most prevalent when the cool weather sets in.

Premier Katsura of Japan in an address before a club of bankers at Tokyo outlined the policy of the government in a manner which should allay the apprehensions of timorous souls who see in every move in that direction a threat of war with the United States. The premier set forth plans for developing the resources of the empire and avoiding unnecessary expenditure. This peaceful program contained nothing to which objection can be taken anywhere. On the contrary, the plans deserve the warmest approval. Japan has had enough of war for the present, and sees that her highest interests will be served by promoting prosperity at home and strengthening friendly relations abroad.

And what a year it is: Flying a certainty; north pole discovered; Turkey reformed; Persia reformed; England's ideas of the ethics of taxation upset; India restive; China subjected to a mass of new impressions; the distance across the Atlantic further shortened; the distance across the continent about to be shortened; wireless improved; the everlasting power of sentiment dramatically illustrated in the fall of Clemenceau. If the cave man lived to-day he could hardly repeat his now famous declaration: "Romance is dead," says Collier's Weekly. By science, contrary to many fears, wonder and mystery have been increased.

The death of Capt. Ferber of the French army in an aeroplane accident at Boulogne Sur Mer adds another army official to a list of those who have died as a result of aerial service. The first American name on this list is that of Lieut. Thomas Selfridge, who was killed when the Wright aeroplane fell at Washington last year.

The Atlantic battleship fleet has just completed its target and battle practice on the southern drill ground. It has been one of the most successful of all the gatherings, and has again proven that as gunners American sea men have no equals the world over.

DARING RESCUE
MADE BY A BOY

CARRIES AN INVALID WOMAN FROM HER HOUSE THROUGH FLAMES.

HIS FRIEND SAVES CHILDREN

John Kold, a 19-Year-Old Philadelphia Youth, Braves Fire to Save Woman Who Seemed Doomed.

Philadelphia. — Bedridden through long illness, Mrs. Nathan Tiekoff was a helpless prisoner in her room in the third story of the fire-swept house at No. 2531 Lombard street, until John Kold, a 19-year-old boy, fought his way through the smoke and flames to her side and carried her to safety.

Mrs. Tiekoff, who is 60 years old, was awakened about three o'clock in the morning by smoke. She tried to sit up in her bed and called to her sons and daughters sleeping in the room behind her. The children were sleeping too soundly to be roused and the aged woman was compelled to watch in agony the slow curl of smoke under the doorway and hear the roar of the flames eat the lower stairways.

The smoke attracted the attention of a passerby and Kold and Harry Beckman broke down the front door. Kold knew of Mrs. Tiekoff's condition and hastily tying a handkerchief over his nose and mouth he climbed the stairs. The door of Mrs. Tiekoff's room was locked, but the panels gave way under his shoulder. Mrs. Tiekoff was almost overcome, but Kold picked her up and started down stairs. The lower flight was almost burned but he jumped several of the gaps and gained the street.

Mrs. Tiekoff was sent to the Polyclinic hospital, where she was revived.

Meantime her sons, Jacob, aged 15, and Harry, seven years old, and her little 11-year-old daughter, were asleep in the third story back. The noise made when Kold ran upstairs awakened the children and Jacob decided not to try the stairs. Instead he "boosted" the two children to the roof of the house through a trap door. A small alley separates the Tiekoff house from the others and over the perilous gap the children jumped. The roof leaned toward the alley and the width is perhaps only three feet.

Harry jumped first and then Jacob stood on the brink and swung the girl over. Then he jumped. They made their way to the street through a neighbor's trap door.

When Beckman ran into the house his attention was centered upon Rose and Jane, aged 19 and 16, respectively. Both girls were in their nightgowns and tried to jump from the second-story window to escape the fire.

Beckman persuaded them to try the stairs and, although their nightdresses caught once from sparks, the descent was accomplished. But Lombard street was dreary and cold in such light costumes and the girls were taken into the home of Mrs. Margaret Clifford and clothed. The loss was about $1,500. Rats gnawing matches is given as the origin.

NUN MASTERS A MAD BULL

Brave Woman Rescues an Aged Herdsman and Puts Two Men to Shame.

Berlin.—The Cologne Volkszeitung vouches for the accuracy of a remarkable story of a nun's encounter with a bull.

The nun is one of the three sisters of St. Vincent who have charge of a large dairy near Rottenmunster, Wurtemberg. The bull attacked a 65-year-old herdsman, who was pinned against a wall. Two men were too frightened to interfere, but the nun ran from the dairy, flung herself on the animal and seized its horns.

She actually succeeded in throwing the bull off its feet and before it could rise again the nun and the three laborers were in safe shelter.

Don't Be a Frog.

A frog jumps readily enough when put in warm water, yet a frog can be boiled without a movement if the water is heated slowly enough.

In a physiological experiment at Yale university the water was heated at the rate of .0036 of a degree a second Fahrenheit. The frog never moved, and at the end of 2½ hours was found dead. He had evidently been boiled without noticing it. Commenting on this the Toledo Grocer says:

"There are hundreds of business frogs. They are not sensitive to changing business conditions. The evolution from old-time methods of store-keeping to present-day, bright advertising has not startled them and they die a slow business death without realizing it.—National Food Magazine.

Woman's Rattler Trap.

Millbrook, N. J.—Mrs. Lydia Kimble has a big rattlesnake corralled in her home which she captured while picking huckleberries in the woods. The snake was coiled to strike when Mrs. Kimble saw it. She emptied her tin pail of berries and dropped the vessel upside down on the snake, its head protruding from under the rim. With her apron strings she then made a slip noose with which she lassoed the rattler. Jerking the snake from under the bucket Mrs. Kimble carried it home.

Lucky Eskimos.

The Eskimos have no physicians; indeed, have no name for drugs or doctors. Nature here acts the good sanitarian and shuts the door against all disease germs and blends in their food iodine, the most powerful and least harmful of all antiseptics. The use of remedies either inside or out is unknown. Wounds heal up at once without mattering. All tumors, warts and cancers are unknown.

Men Smoke as Rector Preaches.

Dayton, O.—Smoking was permitted at a service conducted for men by Rev. Mr. Cooke, Episcopalian rector. The services were held in the parish hall and were largely attended.

AFTER
ONE YEAR

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Milwaukee, Wis. — "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman, and I would like to tell the whole world of it. I suffered from female trouble and fearful pains in my back. I had the best doctors and they all decided that I had a tumor in addition to my female trouble, and advised an operation. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman and I have no more backache. I hope I can help others by telling them what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me." — MRS. EMMA IMSE, 833 First St., Milwaukee, Wis.

The above is only one of the thousands of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which prove beyond a doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, actually does cure these obstinate diseases of women after all other means have failed, and that every such suffering woman owes it to herself to at least give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial before submitting to an operation, or giving up hope of recovery.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health and her advice is free.

THE "SIMPLE LIFE"

MUCH IS IN ITS APPLICATION TO THE KITCHEN.

"New Thought" Cooking Really Is Nothing More Than the Application of Brains to the Work of Every Day.

The advent of the "simple life" has proved to be more than a passing fad. The cluster of useless bric-a-brac is now seldom seen, and our new homes are waiting for a thorough change of heart of those who demand the old-time cooking. The influence of the simple life has reached the kitchen last, but it is there, and it has come to stay, so that in a few years we shall find dyspepsia classed as an old-fashioned disease.

Those who are pleased to interpret the rules of right living under the name of New Thought are especially interested in a simplified way of cooking and eating. Not necessarily vegetarians, but willing to make their appetites subservient to their good judgment. A very practical idea of such living was lately given by Adelaide Keen in the Nautilus. She says: "The French take few medicines and need few. They have gotten food and meals down to a science, which we benighted Americans with our horrid fried pork, hash stews and other messy, greasy, indigestible dishes are only getting a glimpse of. Why, even in rich families, unless the father came of cultured stock, they often live exactly on the foods of poor men who live miserably in crowded tenements.

In colonial times corn mush, salt fish and pork were the principal fares of our new countrymen; now, we know better.

For breakfast have baked eggs in tiny earthen dishes, costing but ten cents each, and which, with a cream sauce, make the individual egg taste delicious; then coffee, with buttered toast, a raw or a prepared cereal, already cooked, and a bowl of stewed fruit complete the breakfast.

Try having a well polished table covered with clean doilies at breakfast and lunch, and try eating meat but once a day, when you have the large clean table cover on and a perfect, but not elaborate meal. It will repay you to wash, iron and embroider that old linen or duck skirt into round mats, one for each plate, one for each large dish and for every cup or tumbler.

Linseed oil and wax will polish your table and two pretty candles, with sticks and shades, used instead of gas, give just the quaint, dainty touch to the dinner for a change. The old silver castor you have in the attic can be cleaned with a mixture of whiting and ammonia and filled with tiny thumb pots, green with ferns. It gives an air of elegance and makes the dinner taste better.

An Oiled Dust Brush.

Carved furniture, which is the bane of the housekeeper's life, may be kept somewhat free from dust by weekly or bi-weekly treatment with an oiled brush kept for the purpose.

The cotton or woolen duster will make no impression on its ornate surface, but will have much to do with the disposition of the housewife.

The brush used in the decorators' shops for the very purposes of keeping their finest furniture in order look very different from the feather duster. It is a large soft paint brush in appearance, and having been oiled, it absorbs on its soft bristles a certain amount of dust instead of sending it flying about the room.

Celery Catsup.

Take 15 large tomatoes, five bunches of celery and six small onions. Chop fine and add a cupful of vinegar, seven tablespoonfuls of sugar, two of salt and a saltspoonful of cayenne pepper. Cook slowly together for an hour and a half. Bottle and seal tightly.—Housekeeper.

FORCE OF HABIT.

Hodge—Hefty had a strenuous time on his vacation. When he started he tipped the scales at 200 pounds and when he returned he only weighed 149.

Dodge—That was a drop. I suppose his best girl gave him up on the spot.

Hodge—Not at all. She accepted him right off.

Dodge—That's queer.

Hodge—No; you see she is a great bargain hunter and couldn't pass anything that was reduced.

CURED ITCHING HUMOR.

Big, Painful Swellings Broke and Did Not Heal—Suffered 3 Years.

Tortures Yield to Cuticura.

"Little black swellings were scattered over my face and neck and they would leave little black scars that would itch so I couldn't keep from scratching them. Larger swellings would appear and my clothes would stick to the sores. I went to a doctor, but the trouble only got worse. By this time it was all over my arms and the upper part of my body in swellings as large as a dollar. It was so painful that I could not bear to lie on my back. The second doctor stopped the swellings, but when they broke the places would not heal. I bought a set of the Cuticura Remedies and in less than a week some of the places were nearly well. I continued until I had used three sets, and now I am sound and well. The disease lasted three years. O. L. Wilson, Puryear, Tenn., Feb. 8, 1908."

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Is the best of all medicines for the cure of diseases, disorders and weaknesses peculiar to women. It is the only preparation of its kind devised by a regularly graduated physician—an experienced and skilled specialist in the diseases of women.

It is a safe medicine in any condition of the system. THE ONE REMEDY which contains no alcohol and no injurious habit-forming drugs and which creates no craving for such stimulants.

THE ONE REMEDY so good that its makers are not afraid to print its every ingredient on each outside bottle-wrapper and attest to the truthfulness of the same under oath.

It is sold by medicine dealers everywhere, and any dealer who hasn't it can get it. Don't take a substitute of unknown composition for this medicine of known composition. No counterfeit is as good as the genuine and the druggist who says something else is "just as good as Dr. Pierce's" is either mistaken or is trying to deceive you for his own selfish benefit. Such a man is not to be trusted. He is trifling with your most priceless possession—your health—may be your life itself. See that you get what you ask for.

The Cattle Sanitary Board furnishes the following:

The last legislature passed a law known as Council Bill No. 34, which provides for the repression of contagious and infectious diseases among cattle and horses and provides for the extirpation of such diseases and to protect the public health. The Cattle Sanitary Board is charged with the responsibility of enforcing the provisions of this law.

The Cattle Sanitary Board has secured the co-operation of the U. S. Bureau of Animal Industry in conducting a tuberculin test of the dairy cattle of the Territory. The work has been organized and the testing is now being done by competent veterinarians. During the winter all dairy cattle in towns having a population of 500 or more inhabitants, and all dairy cattle from which products are sold in said towns, will be tested for tuberculosis.

The symptoms of tuberculosis are not sufficiently prominent, except in advanced stages, to enable one to diagnose the disease by physical examination. The cattle may be in apparently good health and yet have tuberculosis in such form that they are capable of spreading the disease.

The tuberculin used in making the tests is the sterilized and filtered glycerin extract of pure cultures of tuberculosis germs. It is the cooked product of the germs but does not contain any of the germs. It cannot, therefore produce the disease and is as harmless as so much distilled water. When injected into a healthy animal no results whatever follow, but if the animal has any tuberculosis, a decided reaction takes place and the temperature of the animal rises.

All animals which are found to be tuberculous will be condemned and destroyed and the owner paid for such animals on a basis provided for in the law.

This is a matter in which every inhabitant is interested and the public should fully support and co-operate with the authorities in the work.

He Has Gone.

The simplicity of men who place confidence in strangers, is an old story often read but seldom profited by. It seems that any nimcompoop, with a graft to work—whether it be peddling dry goods or raffling merchandise—that comes along, finds it easy picking among the unsophisticated in this town. All he has to do is to introduce his proposition with a smooth talk, and the people jump at the bait. Not long since a certain well-dressed, pleasant-mannered young man, whose stock in trade consisted of a small sample case, a smooth tongue and a maximum of nerve, came along, and quickly got in touch with a large number of the young fellows and some of the old fellows, quite a number of whom he "touched" for an X, a V or whatever he thought they would stand, besides accepting money for goods which he agreed to deliver but failed to do so. He has gone! His smiling face is no longer seen on our streets. In exchange for the lucre he is supposed to have taken with him, he left nothing but his name as a remembrance to those whom he plucked. [Moral: Deal with a reliable merchant for your merchandise, and steer wide of the smooth-tongued stranger who, as a rule, lives by his wits.]

Baptist Services.

Rev. Geo. C. Berryman will fill his regular appointment next Sunday at 11 o'clock and also at night. The services will be held in the Humphrey building, upstairs. Everybody cordially invited.
