WETTEST COUNTY IN U.S.

McCULLOCH COUNTY RAIN-SOAKED.

The Finest Rains in Years—Assures A1 Corn Crop—Cotton Was Never Better.

The finest rains ever had in McCulloch county! This statement without qualification, for the memory of the oldest inhabitant runneth not to the contrary.

Commencing at noon Tuesday the rain extended over a period of thirty-six hours, the total precipitation measuring 3.52 inches. The rain Tuesday afternoon was comparatively light falling slowly and intermittently up until night. The finest of the rain was had Wednesday morning commencing about 3:00 o'clock, when the windows of the sky were opened and the clouds poured forth their life-giving liquid in a steady downpour until about 8 o'clock. The official register at the Commercial National bank showed a total of 1.70 inches during this period. With barely a breathing spell, the rain commenced again and continued until Wednesday night, the latter rainfall almost equaling that of the early morning—1.57 inches.

Never were such rains known. One slow-falling precipitation had barely been absorbed by the earth before another followed, and in many places the fields represent a small lake. Every point in McCulloch county that could be reached by wire reported magnificent rains.

In Brady so great was the accumulation of water that Blackburn and various other streets were badly washed, the damage amounting to several hundreds of dollars. Reports from over the county also state that fields in many places were washed, but compared with the inestimable benefits of the rain, the damage will be inconsiderable.

Brady creek, which has been running ever since the water first ran over the dam on May 3rd, was on a six-foot rise, and this assures the creek running for possibly a month longer. Lost creek was on such a rampage that the mail hack was obliged to turn back Wednesday unable to cross. The rain in the south part of the county seems to have been even heavier than at Brady, a 5-inch downpour being reported both at Voca and Mason. Similar reports come from Hext, Pontotoc and other places. Waldrip also reports unusually heavy rains, while good rains were had at Rochelle, Mercury, Lohn, Fife, Stacy, Melvin, Menard. Brownwood had 2.36 inches.

Aside from covering McCulloch county, the rain extended from Fort Worth where nearly an inch fell, all along the line of the Frisco, increasing in volume as it traveled south on down beyond Mason. From Lometa west the rain extended as far as Eden, where it apparently played out, the rain at that place having been comparatively light. San Saba and Richland Springs were favored with good rains, much to the rejoicing of farmers, that section having failed to receive several of the recent rains and being in need of moisture. Ballinger, San Angelo and Coleman also received good rains although not as good as here.

The damage to grain crops will be comparatively small,

most of the grain having been cut. On the other hand the rain assures the best corn crop in years, while a good cotton crop is assured. A remarkable feature of the rain was that it began on the anniversary of the biggest rain of last year—June 17th, 1912—when 3.9 inches of rain was had. The rain last year however, did little good, falling so hard as to pack the earth and being followed by hot, dry winds. With the present cool and cloudy weather crops will advance with amazing rapidity, and the farmers are hoping for a few weeks of clear and sunny weather in order that they may get their crops cleaned.

The total precipitation on record for this year at present totals 14.22 inches.

San Angelo, Texas, June 17.—Because all bids were too low, the Wool Growers Storage association of this city today declined to accept bids on 2,000,000 pounds of wool from the spring clip. Well, we are having some more rain and the weeds are still growing.
We had services Sunday and ordained Mr. Johnny Womble as a deacon of the Baptist church.
The saddest thing ever brought to the writer's notice was the poisoning of the Croman family, close to Pasche Sunday week. The young man, Ernest Croman, was buried in the Melvin cemetery Monday at 6 o'clock. Bro. Dunsworth conducting the funeral services. The rest of the family have recovered nicely. Well, it is raining here again today. It began about 12 o'clock and is still raining at 3 o'clock.
Oats are not all harvested yet. Some of the farmers are still behind and can't get hands.
Mr. Dan Cottrell is baling oats this week.
Mrs. Nannie Cottrell and mother, Mrs. Northcott, visited Mrs. Idell Cottrell Monday.
Miss Eunice Nash came out to Mrs. Nannie Cottrell's Monday to visit friends several days.
Some oats that were shocked have been damaged considerably by the rain.
Miss Larue Wood visited Mrs. Jim Cottrell last week.
Master Vester Wood and little sister, Vada, visited little Jack and Marjorie Cottrell one day last week.
J. J. Walker, who has been visiting his cousin, Mrs. Susie Johnson, the past two weeks, left Tuesday for his home at Cleburne.
Allen McShan of Carroll Colony is helping Dan Cottrell bale oats.
Mr. and Mrs. Jonah Bell entertained quite a number of their friends last Saturday night with an ice cream supper. All report a nice time.
Why, of course, "Jerry." I will gladly accept your vote. It will count one of course. Thank you! As we are about through with our weeds, I don't believe I am in danger of the hoe any longer.
I am sure all enjoyed the letters of last week, nearly all the writers reporting.
Mrs. Pearl McShan called on Mrs. J. M. Johnson Tuesday morning.
My, my, what will McCulloch county farmers do when it rains every week or two? They can't say it don't rain in McCulloch county.
"O. I. D. R. Right." I certainly do enjoy your letters. We may have to drink tank water a majority of the time out here, but we can have nature's own way of settling it. We don't have to drink mud.

WHITELAND NEWS.

Whiteland, Texas, June 18.
Editor Brady Standard:
Wonder how everyone is enjoying these cloudy and rainy-looking days? Bro. Sellers of Salt Gap held his appointment here last Sunday afternoon. A large crowd came out to hear him preach.
Mr. and Mrs. Murray are happy over the arrival from Wichita Falls of their son and three daughters.
Miss Garland Castleman went to Brady Friday night. She returned Sunday afternoon.
Thanks very much, "Blue Bell," for your vote. We are sure coming to see you the 26th.

I guess I had better correct a mistake I made last week. I said a party went to Melvin to a party, but they didn't go.
Mr. A. W. Haley returned from Del Rio last week. He said that country had been dry, but they were getting plenty of rain now. Del Rio is still prospering. A government building three stories high and made of brick was in course of construction. He says it is quiet along the border close to Del Rio. A Mexican general who is fighting against Huerta, with headquarters at C. P. Diaz, is making runs out of railroad rails that will shoot three miles.
The party Friday night was enjoyed by quite a large crowd.
Arch Posey and Robert Morris of the Ford ranch attended Sunday school and church here Sunday afternoon.
We had a very good singing Sunday night.
Mr. Sank Wedgeworth was in Whiteland Tuesday.
Mr. and Mrs. George Harris and children called at Mr. and Mrs. Haley's Sunday afternoon.
Miss Lillie McCartney was at the Murray home Sunday afternoon.
Miss Maude Waterhouse and little sister attended church and Sunday school Sunday afternoon.
Cotton chopping and fighting weeds is all the go, but the trouble is in not being able to get enough hands.
Miss Lona Haley called on Miss Ida Haynes Saturday afternoon.
Mr. Marvin Hall of Dodge was a visitor here Sunday.
Mrs. Crocker, who has been sick for several weeks, was taken to Eden Wednesday. We are sorry she is not doing better, but hope the change will help her.
West Sweden and Whiteland are going to play ball next Sunday on the Sweden diamond.
I guess I had better close before everyone gets tired reading the news.

FIFE FINDINGS.

Fife, Texas, June 17.
Editor Brady Standard:
A fine shower Monday has put everything in prime shape again. Cotton is about all chopped out here now and looks as pretty as we ever saw. Corn is the best we have seen in five or six years. Farmers are busy planting corn and milo maize on stubble land this week and have plenty of moisture to insure a good stand. Cane and maize crops now promise a bumper, and with plenty of this feed farmers will not have to spend so much for Kansas corn next winter.
R. L. Richter of Jourdan, Texas, is visiting F. W. Bader and family this week. Mr. Richter is a former resident of this place and has to come back once in a while like all the rest. He will go from here on an auto trip with his family to the Plains country and New Mexico.
W. W. Butler was here on business Friday.
S. E. McKnight and W. D. Walker and families of Waldrup were the guests of Henry Bradley and wife Sunday.

B. W. Bradley was at Rockwood Sunday on business.

James Finlay and family visited at the home of G. A. Rudolph Sunday.
Pat Richeson of Prairie View was the guest of Willey Robbins Sunday.

Watch Your Baby These Summer Days

Little Stomachs Get Out of Order Easily in Hot Weather.

During the hot months mothers should look very carefully to the condition of the bowels of babies and young children, and, for that matter, it is very important in the lives of people at all ages. Care should be taken that the water is pure, the milk wholesome and the fruit ripe (though not over-ripe), and that not too much of anything is eaten.
When trouble results it is usually in the form of constipation or diarrhea. If the child loses appetite, is fretful or languid, and complains of headache, you may look for constipation. Give it a small dose of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at night on retiring, and by morning this pleasant laxative will have acted and the child will be its normal self again.
At the first sign of a summer cold also give Syrup Pepsin, as the cleaning out of the bowels will usually be sufficient to break the cold. Summer diarrhoea can be stopped in the same way by ridding the bowels of the poisons and germs that cause the trouble. This opinion of the value of Syrup Pepsin is shared by thousands of people like Mrs. Ella Denzel, 124 Nichols Ave., Stratford, Conn., who uses it successfully herself and gives it to her two little boys; and Mrs. C. C. Allen of New Monterey, Cal., who finds it in every particular just what she and her family need.

Avoid giving children cathartics, purgatives, pills or powders, as they are too harsh. Confine yourself to a gentle laxative tonic like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. You can obtain it of any druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, the latter being the family size.

Families wishing to try a free sample bottle can obtain it, postpaid, by addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 418 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

EAST BRADY.

Brady, Texas, June 17.
Editor Brady Standard:
I will try and send a few happenings of East Brady.
The weather is still blustery and trying to rain.
Miss Laura Wilson is here visiting home folks. Her sister accompanied her home.
Mrs. Garland Castleman spent from Friday until Sunday evening with her sisters in East Brady, then she returned to Whiteland, where she will stay a week or two longer.
Mrs. Dollie Miller passed through East Brady Wednesday. She was on her way to Fort Worth, where she will make her home. She is in very ill health.
Miss Myrtle Tippie returned Thursday suffering from appendicitis. She has been very sick, and had an operation performed Thursday. She is doing fine at present.
Mr. Wallace Williams of San Saba was in East Brady this week.
Mr. Marion Miller of Voca was in town Wednesday on business.
Master Vester and Miss Lela Bumgardner spent Sunday at Mountain View, the guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee.
Mr. Roy Dacy was in the city Saturday enjoying the city air.
"Aunt Susan," come often; your letter was just simply fine last week.
Well, I will ring off, as news is scarce in this part of McCulloch this week.
GLADDIE.

"Generally debilitated for years. Had sick headache, lacked ambition, was worn out and all run down. Burdock Blood Bitters made me a well woman."—Mrs. Chas. Freitoy, Moosup, Conn.

PLACID POINTERS.

Placid, Texas, June 9.
Editor Brady Standard:
(Too late for last week.)
Good morning to you all! How is everybody?
Health in this community is very good at present. Crops are looking fine, and if we could get another one of those good rains like we had a week or so ago there would be lots of corn made.

We had a light shower of rain Sunday morning and another shower Sunday evening, but not enough to benefit corn very much.

Mr. Webb's son and wife are visiting him this week.
Miss Grace Dobbs spent Sunday with Miss Gracie Shaw.

Mr. Dobbs was also a guest at the Shaw home Sunday evening.

Mr. John Nichols' two sons and their wives are here from Dublin on a visit.

The Nichols boys have a young badger and wild cat for pets. The badger is quite tame already. The little wild cat don't seem to be so easy to tame.

Everybody has cut their oats now, and several are planting cotton on their oat stubble.

Mrs. Mack Jones passed through Placid Sunday enroute to Rochelle with a load of chickens.

As there are so many letter writers, I will not take up more space in our good paper.

Wishing each and everyone good health and prosperity, I will sign myself, SMARTY.

Phone 132 when you want the best cleaning and pressing. We'll have a man right on the job. P. W. Williams.

BRADY, TEXAS, June 20, 1913

THE LION'S SHARE.

The little old rain was worth $100,000,000 in cold cash to Grand Old Texas and it didn't cost us a cent.—George Bailey
in the Houston Post.

Well, $1,000,000 of the amount represents McCulloch county's share, and we are perfectly willing to let the other counties
share the remainder in proportion to their own ability and deserts.

Of course these numerous aims may take the starch out of our Sunday-go-to-meeting aided bosom, green and pink ripped shirt, but what care we then McCulloch county's water-
on the vine?

ATTENTION NEEDED.

The damage wrought by the recent heavy rains is nowhere
more noticeable than upon Blackburn street. This street,
the prettiest and most popular of Brady's thoroughfares, is now seamed with deep gullies and in numerous places the concrete has been washed almost entirely away, leaving but a thin covering of gravel over the clay of the road bed. It will take several hundreds of dollars to repair the damage and replace the street in its former good condition.

And now that this work must be done, we believe it will be wise
policy upon the part of the city fathers to widen the gutters so that they will be capable of carrying the storm waters that rush down this street after every rain, and then raise the crown of the street sufficiently to assure the water draining to either side instead of coursing
down the middle of the thoroughfare.

While this work means the expenditure of considerable
more than would be necessary
merely to repair the damage, it would be the only means of preventing a repetition of the same,
and by this token would be money well and profitably spent.

Come to McCulloch—the home
of prosperity.

The Frisco railroad went into Menard and then it went into the hands of a receiver.—Del Rio Herald.

In future we shall positively refuse to believe any reports of fine fruit, vegetables or farm or garden products, etc., unless the report is accompanied by a liberal sized sample. Now bring in your fish stories, tell us about your juicy Elbertas, go heavy on the roasting ears, and boost
the biggest rattlesnake watermelons that ever grew. Our ap-petite's as keen as a razor blade.

Systematic Persistency

EXPERT ADVICE FOR BUSINESS BUILDERS

Advertise steadily in the newspapers if you want the worth of your money; go at it in a systematized manner with the determination to let no one else get first place in your particular field. Don't go into the newspaper one week and out enough times to ease up the financial part; advertise so that large sales cover up all leaks;
and there is no leak so pernicious
as spasmodic advertising which,
being forgotten in between times, sends the people to the man who doesn't give 'em
a chance to forget his business.
—Houston Chronicle.

Advertising is a fine art, and how to do it so as to get the best results should be made a study. Keeping persistently at anything is what wins.—Fort Worth Record.

The Brady Standard

Phone 163 and We're on Our Way

Come to rain-kist, sun-kist McCulloch county.

Investigate our opportunities
—you'll find them the best ever.

Folks read Standard ads because they contain some of the best news items in the paper.
Get the habit—it's a profitable
one.

Every time we look into the smiling faces of our farmers,
we're glad we live in McCulloch.

With Brady creek a raging river, we are safe in advising the man who came so near to drowning in a bath tub, not to go to Menard. He might get his feet wet in the San Saba at that place.

PERSISTENT ADVERTISING.

It is a world-old adage that "keeping everlastingly at it is what wins success." The philosopher who invented that phrase
must have been an advertiser,
for no saying could be more appropriate to the art of advertising.

S. J. Striegler of the Popular Dry Goods Co. believes in the adage, and is putting it to a practical test by contracting for a regular space to appear upon this page every week during the remainder of the year. The news that will appear in this space will be strictly store news,
but it will be important news
nevertheless, for in it you will find an expose of the latest styles and newest novelties; attractive bargains that you cannot afford to pass by, and your attention will be called to staple articles that are everyday necessities and conveniences. It will take but a few minutes to read the ad each week, and you will find it both pleasant and profitable reading.

Let The Standard give you its assurance that, combined with the news of the day, the advertisements appearing in its columns make it one of the best investments to be had, and the reader who scans its columns
most closely each issue will be the one to profit in proportion.

The Standard has a few more desirable spaces to sell advertisers, and the policy of first come, first choice will be observed. Do not wait until all the other merchants have made their selections, but talk it over with us today, and secure a space that will attract the attention of everyone of our readers. Let them become accustomed to looking for your ad upon a certain page of the paper each week; keep the ad strictly up-to-date; change
your announcements frequently, and we can assure you gratifying results.

If you want health, happiness and prosperity, you'll find the combination in McCulloch. The latch string is out. Don't knock —come in.

There is a hasty scramble of citizens from all over Texas and the United States to tumble in McCulloch county's prosperity wagon before we get to going
so fast that greased lightning
can't overtake us.

While the munniless folks of Menard are wondering where they will obtain the six bits to pay for their last month's grocery bill of dried apples and stale bread, we Brady folks are about to put the beef trust out of commission by gorging ourselves
upon peaches and rich Jersey
cream.

With the damage done to the streets of Brady by the past heavy rains, the suggestion has been made that the city should establish a rock pile and put its prisoners to work breaking rock.
Good roads and thoroughfares are absolutely essential to the welfare of any community, and The Standard is thoroughly in favor of the employment of convict labor in road improvement. We pass the suggestion with our approval up to the proper authorities.

One of the most elaborate as well as tasty and ornamental works of art received at this office in some time is the premium
list for the Sixth Annual Fair
of the Milam County Fair association to be held at Rockdale July 9, 10 and 11th. The Rock-dale fair is acknowledged the third largest fair in the state of Texas, and is one of the very best in the state. The catalogue is the product of the Rockdale Reporter printing house, over which presides that genius in newspaperdom, John E. Cooke, and this fact alone is sufficient explanation of the superior quality of workmanship.

5500 Horses Needed in McCulloch County.

Commercial Secretaries newspaper gives the following interesting report upon the livestock of McCulloch county:

The Farmers Union has been conducting an exhaustive investigation into agricultural conditions with reference to the cost of producing and value received for farm crops with a view of recommending a substitute for cotton as that industry is already suffering from over-production. In discussing the subject, President Radford of the Farmers Union said: "The Lord
made the greater part of Texas
cotton country and it will always remain the money crop of this section so long as the farmer gets his crop direct from the field, but I believe with the aid of good livestock and a buggy man can successfully plant and he will be planting less cotton
and more livestock."

The census reports
show we have 14,980,936
head of livestock in Texas, and McCulloch county reported domestic animals.

There were 1536 farms in Mc-Culloch county that reported livestock when the thirteenth census was taken, according to a report just issued by the federal department of commerce and labor, and the total number of domestic animals on these farms numbered 68,359, which has a combined value of $1,562,- 000. Cattle is the predominating class of livestock in this county,
as shown by the following table:

Cattle, 34,744	$ 655,610
Horses, 6,978	504,146
Mules, 2,806	299,585
Asses and burros, 87	8,575
Swine, 4,421	26,026
Sheep, 17,786	64,575
Goats, 1,537	3,483
Total, 68,359	$1,562,000

Fine Rain at Lost Creek.

D. H. Henderson phoned us yesterday morning that one of the finest rains ever known had fallen in the Lost Creek and Voca country, the precipitation
being estimated at five inches.
Some of the land was washed,
and also the roads, while many culverts will have to be replaced.
All the creeks were up and booming. While the rain will damage the oat crop to more or less extent it will insure the corn crop, and a yield of 25 to 40 bushels to the acre is anticipated. Corn never looked so well and roasting ears are plentiful. Cotton is in fine shape,
and with a few timely showers
during the next month or so, a bumper crop will be insured.

Most Children Have Worms.

Many mothers think their children are suffering from indigestion, headache, nervousness, weakness, costive-ness, when they are victims of that most common of all children's ailments—worms. Peevish, ill-tempered, fretful children, who toss and grind their teeth, with bad breath
and colicky pains, have all the symptoms of having worms, and should be given Kickapoo Worm Killer, a pleasant candy lozenge, which expels
worms, regulates the bowels, tones
up the system, and makes children
well and happy. Kickapoo Worm Killer is guaranteed. All druggists, or by mail. Price 25c. Kickapoo Indian Medicine Co., Philadelphia and

The Farm Demonstrator.

Rochelle, Texas, June 17.
Editor Brady Standard:

Occasionally you will hear
some say that the government demonstrator is of no use. I have about five acres of milo maize planted and cultivated as near as practicable. Having considerable crop otherwise, it wasn't worked just at the time
the demonstrator, Mr. Griffin, said to work it. Another point
I wish to make is that he said
for me to "lay off my rows deep with a bull tongue plow." All these points, I see now, if fully complied with would have increased fruit. At any rate, if there is a "Doubting Thomas"
of the efficiency of Mr. Griffin as a practical demonstrator, I wish him to call at my farm and see for himself.

Also I have two acres of Industrial Congress crop of milo maize that was planted and cultivated according to Mr. Griffin's instructions which if the other farmer can butt his crop, will be just a little better than the best.

I will say in conclusion that if the farmers over the county
prepare, plant and cultivate their crops according to Demonstrator Griffin's instructions

they will never grumble about the little the county and state pays him for his work.

It was one of the biggest

for many years, and it brought a number of lovers of this sport
from distant towns.

The gray mare is a mighty
good animal, but was outdistanced in this race. She is the property of parties from Lock-

in fine shape for Monday.—Del

Excuse Me!

Four days of fun and frolic on board a trans-continental limited train with sixty laughs to the minute—and then some.

"They'll get the bracelet! They'll get the bracelet!"

And Mallory could have danced with glee. But Kathleen leaned coquetically toward the masked stranger, and threw all her art into her tone as she murmured:

"I'm sure you're too brave to take my things. I've always admired men with the courage of Claude Duval."

The robber was taken a trifle aback, but he growled: "I don't know the party you speak of—but cough up!"

"Listen to her," Marjorie whispered in horror; "she's flirting with the train-robber."

"What won't some women flirt with!" Mallory exclaimed.

The robber studied Kathleen a little more attentively, as he whipped off her necklace and her rings. She looked good to him, and so willing, that he muttered: "Say, lady, if you'll give me a kiss, I'll give you that diamond ring you got on."

"All right!" laughed Kathleen, with triumphant complacency.

"My God!" Mallory groaned, "what won't some women do for a diamond!"

The robber bent close, and was just raising his mask to collect his ransom, when his confederate glanced his way, and knowing his susceptible nature, foresaw his intention, and shouted: "Stop it, Jake. You tend strictly to business, or I'll blow your mush-bow off."

"Oh, all right," grumbled the reluctant gallant, as he drew the ring from her finger. "Sorry, miss, but I can't make the trade," and he added with an unwonted gentleness: "You can turn round now."

Kathleen was glad to hide the blushes of defeat, but Marjorie was still more bitterly disappointed. She whispered to Mallory: "He didn't get the bracelet, after all."

CHAPTER XXXIX.

Wolves in the Fold.

Mallory's heart sank to its usual depth, but Marjorie had another of her inspirations. She startled everybody by suddenly beckoning and calling: "Excuse me, Mr. Robber. Come here, please."

The curious gallant edged her way, keeping a sharp watch along the line: "What d'you want?"

Marjorie leaned nearer, and spoke in a low tone with an amiable smile: "That lady who wanted to kiss you has a bracelet up her sleeve."

The robber stared across his mask, and wondered, but laughed, and grunted: "Much obliged." Then he went back, and tapped Kathleen on the shoulder. When she turned round, in the hope that he had reconsidered his refusal to make the trade, he infuriated her by growling: "Excuse me, miss, I overlooked a bet."

He ran his hand along her arm, and found her bracelet, and accomplished what Mallory had failed in, its removal.

"Don't, don't," cried Kathleen, "it's wished on."

"I wish it off," the villain laughed, and it joined the growing heap in the feed-bag.

Kathleen, doubly enraged, broke out viciously: "You're a common, sneaking—"

"Ah, turn round!" the man roared, and she obeyed in silence.

Then he explored Mrs. Whitcomb, but with such small reward that he said: "Say, you'd oughter have a pocketbook somewhere. Where's it at?"

Mrs. Whitcomb blushed furiously: "None of your business, you low brute."

"Perdoce, madame," the scoundrel snorted, "perdoce the purse, or I'll hunt for it myself."

Mrs. Whitcomb turned away, and after some management of her skirts, slapped her handbag into the eager palm with a wrathful: "You're no gentleman, sir!"

"If I was, I'd be in Wall street," he laughed. "Now you can turn round." And when she turned, he saw a bit of chain depending from her back hair. He tugged, and brought away the locket, and then proceeded to sound Ashton for hidden wealth.

And now Mrs. Temple began to sob, as she parted with an old-fashioned brooch and two old-fashioned rings that had been her little vanities for the quarter of a century and more. The old clergyman could have wept with her at the vandalism. He turned on the wretch with a heartaick appeal:

"Can't you spare those? Didn't you ever have a mother?"

The robber started, his fierce eyes softened, his voice choked, and he gulped hard as he drew the back of his hand across his eyes.

"Aw, hell," he whimpered, "that ain't fair. If you're goin' to remind me of me poor old mo-mo-mother—"

But the one called Jake—the Claude Duval who had been prevented from a display of human sentiment, did not intend to be cheated. He thundered: "Stop it, Bill. You tend strictly to business, or I'll blow your mush-bow off. You know your Maw died before you was born."

This reminder sobered the weeping thief at once, and he went back to work ruthlessly. "Oh, all right, Jake. Sorry, ma'am, but business is business." And he dumped Mrs. Temple's trinkets into the satchel. It was too much for the little old lady's little old husband. He fairly shrieked:

"Young man, you're a damned scoundrel, and the best argument I ever saw for hell-fire!"

Mrs. Temple's grief changed to horror at such a bolt from the blue: "Walter!" she gasped, "such language!"

But her husband answered in self-defense: "Even a minister has a right to swear once in his lifetime."

Mallory almost dropped in his tracks, and Marjorie keeled over on him, as he gasped: "Good Lord, Dr. Temple, you are a—minister?"

"Yes, my boy," the old man confessed, glad that the robbers had relieved him of his guilty secret along with the rest of his private properties. Mallory looked at the collapsing Marjorie and groaned: "And he was in the next berth all this time!"

Manicipation Day.

Quite a large number of the colored population of Brady spent yesterday upon Brady creek having a joyous time in their anniversary observance of Emancipation day—June 19. A barbecue and picnic, with a joyful amount of liquid refreshments helped make the occasion a notable one for the local colored folks and their visitors from surrounding places.

Married at Mason.

Friends in Brady will be interested in the marriage of Miss Gertrude Long to Mr. Alfred Muirhead of Mineral Wells, the ceremony having taken place Tuesday morning at the home of the bride's parents in Mason. The bride is well remembered in Brady as the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Long, the former having been superintendent of the Brady schools two years ago, and as a young lady of many charms and talents. For the past several years she has taught in the Temple schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Muirhead, accompanied by his brother, Ernest Muirhead, of Meridian, passed through Brady Tuesday enroute to Mineral Wells, where Mr. Muirhead is engaged in the ginning business, and where they will make their home.

Two Car Loads Ford Cars.

Wm. Connolly & Co., local representatives for the Ford automobile, last week received two car loads of these popular machines, the shipment comprising fifteen cars. Of this number four were touring cars and the remaining eleven runabouts. During the past week the company has sold and delivered touring cars to Mrs. E. Zerby and J. F. Biggs, and runabouts to Ed Jacoby and Tom Heath of Rochelle. They are anticipating a lively demand for the cars during the next few months, and are prepared to take care of the demand without delay.

BITTEN BY HORSE. NO BOND FOR CROMAINS.

Mayor F. M. Richards Victim of Painful Accident.

Mayor F. M. Richards is suffering considerable pain this week as a result of being bitten by an infuriated horse at his ranch last Friday. Mr. Richards was working with the animal when it became maddened and attacked him, lacerating the flesh of the left thigh and otherwise bruising him.

The wounds are quite painful, though it is anticipated no serious results may follow, but acting on the advice of his physicians he is keeping to his room until danger of complications is past.

Faces Charges Relative to Poisoning of Family.

Ballinger, Texas, June 16.—Will Cromains, who is in jail here charged with poisoning his family at their home near Eden, Concho county, by placing arsenic in baking powder, has waived his examining trial. He is held to await the action of the grand jury at the fall term of court. He has been denied bond.

Six members of Cromains' family were poisoned by eating bread. One son is dead. Two daughters are lingering at death's door and physicians say there is no hope for one of them.

Since being imprisoned Cromains has called for a physician, claiming that he also was poisoned. As Concho county has no jail, Cromains was brought here for safekeeping.

It is possible—being made so by the business men of the town—to resume publication of the Record. So far as making any boasts about the manner in which we are going to run the paper, we prefer to forego any such unnecessary foolishness; and as our people are already familiar with our efforts in journalism, we will just state—whether considered egotistic or otherwise—that we expect to do our part, and if the people appreciate our efforts it is safe to conclude that we are here to stay as a town. A hint to the wise is sufficient; a town that is able to support a newspaper is regarded abroad as a good place to locate.

Since taking Cardui, I have entirely quit spitting up what I eat. Everything seems to digest all right, and I have gained 10 pounds in weight."

For half a century, Cardui has been relieving just such ills, as is proven by the thousands of letters, similar to the above, which pour into our office, year by year.

Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients which act specifically on the womanly constitution, and helps build weakened organs back to health again.

J. E. Odiorne, cashier of the San Saba National bank, returned last Friday from a trip to Austin. He reports the grasshoppers literally riddling many of the fields in Travis and Williamson counties. The farmers are using poison and fighting the pest as best they can, but many crops are being destroyed.

If you don't think the big revival meeting has turned the town upside down just observe the songs the people are humming, whistling and singing as they go about their business. Even the small boy traipsing down the street whistling "Old Time Religion" and "The Promised Land" instead of "Casey Jones" and "Steam Boat Bill."

Jas. Burns, voluntary weather observer for Uncle Sam, reports the total rainfall for the year from January 1 to June 14. The total has been 8.67 inches against 13.99 inches last year. Some people have thought that the fall so far this year has been greater than last year, but the records do not show it. The rains this year have been better distributed than last year, and if a few showers come during the remainder of June the corn crop for San Saba county will be a beauty.

Miss Marsden Entertains.

(Contributed.)

On last Saturday afternoon, from 3:00 to 6:00 o'clock, Miss Clara Marsden entertained with a miscellaneous shower complimentary to Miss Clara Ballou, who is to be married June 29th to Mr. Sam Wood of Fort Worth. The entertainment opened with music, after which the guests took part in a lively musical contest. A set of questions pertaining to weddings were to be answered by the titles of popular songs. As the questions were asked the hostess played a few strains from the song answering the question. A number of those present not being musical, had difficulty in guessing them.

When the contest was over the guests were invited into the dining room, which was a bower of beauty. An old well with a moss-covered bucket on its curb was the center of the scene. A profusion of flowers and pot plants furnished the decorations, making a rustic picture so realistic that it seemed we must be in the presence of the original "Old Oaken Bucket." The bride-elect drew up her presents from the depths of the dark, cool well. Resting the bucket on the curb, she took out the gifts, and after unwrapping them, passed them to Mrs. White, who read the wish attached to each. These were highly entertaining. In prose, blank verse and rhyme, each conveyed the same message—that all things good might come to the recipient.

When the last gift had been drawn up, Little Katherine Ballou arose like a fairy from the depths of the well, and poising on the curb, addressed Miss Ballou with the following appropriate message from the bottom of the wishing well:

Well, Auntie, as I have a wishing well I wish you had one too, For if you had—well, who can tell? What wonders we could do.

We have dipped the magic water out, Found wishes good and kind, And many tokens for you there With Love's own gift entwined.

And now we've drawn the well all dry We will let well alone; You wish me well, I wish you well, And so it is well all done.

When the gifts had been admired and the register inscribed with each name, the guests returned to the reception room, where they were served with sherbet, cake and candy. During this interval Mrs. W. N. White responded to the toast, "The Bride Elect."

BROWN BROTHERS
Austin, Texas

OIL AND GAS CO.

Three Deep Wells to Be Drilled at Thrifty and Bangs.

Brownwood, Texas, June 24.—At a meeting of the stockholders at the Commercial club rooms last night, the Brownwood Oil and Gas Company was organized for the purpose of drilling for oil and gas and other mineral products in this territory. Directors for the new company were selected as follows: J. R. Looney, Brooke Smith, T. C. Yantis, George Kidd, Fred S. Abney, Frank Emison, B. S. Boysen, J. M. Perry, Lee Watson, E. B. Henley, D. F. Johnson, all of Brownwood and W. D. Crothers of Brady. These gentlemen are strongest financiers of Brownwood, and the fact that their names are included in the directorate indicates that the newly organized company intends to go after the oil and gas in earnest.

The new company has taken over the casing and drilling outfit of the Brownwood Oil and Development Co., and will at once move the entire outfit to their acreage in the Thrifty, Bangs and Contention neighborhoods, and a well will be started there as soon as possible. At least three wells will be drilled in this field, all of them going to a depth of at least 1200 feet unless something be found at a less depth.

WORDS FROM HOME.

Statements That May Be Investigated—Testimony of Brady Citizens.

When a Brady citizen comes to the front, telling his friends and neighbors of his experience, you can rely on his sincerity. The statements of people residing in far-away places do not command your confidence. Home endorsement is the kind that backs Doan's Kidney Pills. Such testimony is convincing. Investigation proves it true. Below is a statement of a Brady resident. No stronger proof of merit can be had.

J. D. Blackburn, farmer, Brady, Texas, says: "Six years ago I suffered from pain across my kidneys, so severe that I had to give up and go to bed. My wife rubbed me with liniments and did everything to relieve me, but nothing helped me until I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills. I was in bad shape when I began taking them, but after a few doses I felt relief, and my kidneys began to get back to their normal condition. Since then I have always had a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills in the house and they have given the best results when I have used them."

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work. I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16."

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Peter Schuttler Wagons and Staver Buggies Have Made Chicago Famous

Away back about 1843, when Chicago was a little town on Lake Michigan, a German, Peter Schuttler, had a blacksmith shop and began building wagons. He used only the best of material and with his thorough German workmanship turned out a wagon that was a wagon. Soon his wagons were in great demand. That was the time of the great immigration south and west, and in a little while these wagons were scattered from Texas to Oregon. Everybody that got one was well pleased and told his neighbor. His neighbor wanted one and tried to get one, and old man Schuttler had more than he could do. He put on more men, and his son and his son's son have put on more men and built larger shops until the factory is the present size, where they turn out thousands of wagons every year. Theirs has not been a mushroom growth, but the growth of years, founded on experience, honest workmanship and material.

About that time the Staver Carriage Co. began building buggies. They too, have become renowned. So well known have they become that whenever the average person thinks of Chicago they think of a Staver buggy or a Peter Schuttler wagon. THEY HAVE MADE CHICAGO FAMOUS.

A Schuttler wagon or Staver buggy will give you service or pleasure you cannot get from any other line.

convinced him that nowhere were such excellent crops as in McCulloch county and immediate territory, and thereby was our reputation for truth and veracity completely vindicated. John admits that McCulloch county surely does look good to him, and that its beauties are entirely realistic, while the
