TOM BALL CLUB.

Organized Saturday Afternoon at the Courthouse.

An enthusiastic meeting of the supporters of Hon. Tom Ball for governor met in the district court room at the courthouse at 2:30 Saturday afternoon for the purpose of organizing a McCulloch County Tom Ball club.

The meeting was called to order by J. F. Montgomery, who was named as temporary chairman at a meeting held on Saturday afternoon of the preceding week, who briefly stated the object of the meeting. S. M. Richardson acted as secretary.

A motion to go into permanent organization was carried and Rev. J. T. Hamilton of Rochelle was elected as county chairman, with J. F. Montgomery of this city as county secretary and treasurer. These two gentlemen were named as a committee to select precinct chairmen.

Judge F. M. Newman was appointed as a committee of one for the purpose of raising funds for the campaign, the county secretary being authorized to send $50 of the $100 to be raised to state headquarters at Dallas.

The county chairman and secretary, together with such advisory board as the chairman might select, were named as the executive committee of the club for the management of the campaign in this county. The meeting then adjourned subject to call of the chairman.

The voters of Brady precinct then called a meeting for the purpose of organizing a precinct club. Rev. T. P. Grant being named as chairman and S. M. Richardson secretary. Cards were passed out for the signatures of those desiring to become members of the club, and each one present was supplied with a liberal amount to be used in securing signatures. Up to noon yesterday ninety-five of these cards had been turned in to the precinct secretary, and with the number out it is thought that the club can boast a membership of at least 150.

BURGLARY AT FREDONIA

Cracksmen Make Haul Sunday Night in Mason County Town.

At 3:00 o'clock Monday morning burglars blew the safe in the store of the Hoffman Mercantile Co. at Fredonia, securing about $100 in cash and $10,000 in notes belonging to the firm.

The job is evidently the work of experienced cracksmen, the safe being completely wrecked with but little damage to office furniture located near the safe. The noise of the explosion awakened a number of the citizens, but no investigation was made, and the burglary was not discovered until the store was opened at the usual hour yesterday morning. Entrance to the building was effected through a rear door.

The postoffice is located in the building, and a portion of the money secured by the yeggs belonged to Postmaster T. P. Wood, who is also manager for the Hoffman Mercantile Co. Sheriff J. C. Wall was notified of the burglary early yesterday morning, and although not in this county, he left immediately for the scene to investigate the matter and assist Sheriff Baird of Mason county.

Two suspicious characters are reported to have been seen loitering about the town Sunday, but it is not known here whether they have been accounted for since the burglary or not. The trail of the yeggs was picked up and followed to a point on the San Saba river near Voeta, where it was lost in crossing the stream, the trail leading in the direction of Rochelle, where very likely a train was boarded.

Officers throughout this section have been notified to be on the lookout for the men, and arrests are expected to follow in a few days.

Accepts Position as Matron.

The many Brady friends of the family will be pleased to learn that Mrs. Callie Wolf has accepted a position as matron in the I. O. O. F. orphan home at Corsicana, entering upon her new duties about the 10th of the present month.

Mrs. Wolf and family made Brady their home for many years, but moved to Denton about three years ago for the advantage of the schools at that place. The position at Corsicana was tendered her several years ago, but she was unable to accept at that time, and the announcement of her acceptance of the place is evidence of the high regard in which she is held by those in charge of the home.

Bakery Burglarized.

The City Bakery, located on Blackburn street was burglarized some time during Saturday night. The burglar evidently was not after money, but broke into the place merely to satisfy his hunger, as nothing was missed except half a dozen small pies, valued at about 30 cents.

Entrance was effected in the rear of the building, the miscreant crawling up under the floor underneath the oven. No clue to the perpetrator of the crime has been discovered.

BRADY, TEXAS, Mar. 31, 1914.

Never did we make a success attending anything. If there is any possible way to make a mistake we can be depended on to make it. Hearing of the Democratic meeting in Dallas, we went along, not that we are greatly interested in politics, but we hoped to be fortunate enough to see some of those old Democrats of the Sheb Williams type, and tell them that we were ready to accept a postoffice if the administration should appeal to them in an effort to get someone to fill a vacancy. The crowd we were with went to lunch, but we had a sandwich and some cookies in our pocket, so we sat down in front of a large hotel and ate them. While we were sitting there eating our lunch a number of ladies stopped and looked at us, and nudged each other, which we took to mean that they recognized us. We were too embarrassed to offer them any of the lunch, but feel sure they will not think it was due to stinginess. We saved money by carrying our lunch along, but were lost from the crowd and never found them until we returned home. In the hotel we saw two strangers talking together—we mean two strangers to us—and in view of the fact that they appeared to be hard-working farmers we concluded that they were delegates to the Democratic meeting. Being of a forward disposition we very naturally walked up and engaged them in conversation. To be perfectly frank, we had hopes that one or both of them might offer to treat—a proposition that in all probability would have met with our approval. People who know us probably would denounce as malicious a statement to the effect that we had taken or would take a drink, but away from home, where we are to be gone long enough for the aroma thereof to leave our breath before we return to our "clinging vine" we sometimes take just enough to drown the sorrow caused by being away from her who rocks the cradle. It seemed hours that we stood there. We were tired out, and the new shoes we bought for the trip were pinching our feet dreadfully. On no occasion before did we ever see two men who could go so long without "saying something." If we had carried our change with us we would have gone and made the purchase instead of waiting there so long. Once, after what seemed to be about two hours, we came near making some reference to the buffet that was convenient, but on second thought we feared that they might think we were making a hint. Finally Jim Lowry of the Honey Grove Signal came up and spoke to the two men and introduced them to us. It was Dr. George Rankin and Cullen Thomas. We caught the next car home.—Claude Callan in Ft. CITY ELECTION.

Considerable Interest is Being Taken in Contest.

With the city election just a week off, the citizens of Brady are waking up and considerable interest is being taken in the contest, indications pointing to a warm finish.

The only offices in which there is a contest are those of recorder of the corporation court, aldermen and secretary, and the friends of each of the entrants are actively engaged the past few days in advancing the interests of their favorite.

Following the refusal of Mayor F. M. Richards to allow his name to go before the voters as a candidate for re-election, Alderman A. C. Baze was prevailed upon to become a candidate for the place. Mr. Baze is serving his second term as alderman, and during his tenure of office has proven one of the most capable members of the board.

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE

The State of Texas, County of McCulloch.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of a certain order of sale issued out of the Honorable District Court of McCulloch County, Texas, on the 13th day of March, A. D., 1914, by the Clerk of said court for the sum of Two Hundred Six and 50-100 Dollars, together with interest and costs of suit, under a judgment in favor of C. A. Anderson and S. W. Moffatt, in a certain cause in said court, No. 1434, and styled C. A. Anderson et al vs. M. J. Campbell et al placed in my hands for service, I, J. C. Wall as Sheriff of McCulloch County, Texas, did on the 16th day of March, A. D., 1914, levy upon certain real estate situate in McCulloch County, Texas, described as follows, to-wit: All that certain land situate in McCulloch County, Texas, and being the Northeast quarter of Block No. 144 in Luhr Addition to the City of Brady, Texas, and being a part of H. Luhr Survey No. 406, Abstract No. 927, Certificate No. 122, patented to H. Voleker by Patent No. 440, Vol. 13. Said land being situate near the center of McCulloch County, Texas, and is known as the M. J. Campbell lot of land, and contains 1-4 of an acre of land, and levied upon as the property of M. J. Campbell, P. P. Phillips, Owen Duke Mann, James T. Mann, S. A. Conley and B. F. Allen, Jr. And that on the first Tuesday in April, 1914, the same being the 7th day of April, A. D., 1914, at the Court House door of McCulloch County, in the City of Brady, Texas, between the hours of 10 A. M. and 4 P. M., by virtue of said levy and said order of sale, I will sell the above described real estate at public vendue, for cash, to the highest bidder, as the property of said M. J. Campbell, P. P. Phillips, Owen Duke Mann, James T. Mann, S. A. Conley and B. F. Allen, Jr.

And in compliance with law, I give this notice by publication in the English language, once a week for three consecutive weeks immediately preceding said day of sale, in the Brady Standard, a newspaper published in McCulloch County, Texas.

Witness my hand this 16th day of March, A. D., 1914.
J. C. WALL, Sheriff,
McCulloch County, Texas.

The Price She Paid.

The attraction at the Lyric opera house on Saturday night, April 4th, will be nothing less than the dramatized story, "The Price She Paid," which comes direct from its triumphant appearance in all the larger cities. The play, which has been a veritable sensation on the road, as its star that charming optional actress, Miss Rachel Clark, and the management, knowing the importance of presenting a competent company has surrounded Miss Clark with the best players available.

David Graham Phillips' book has been widely read and commented upon, but for genuine thrills and gripping characteristics, it does not begin to equal this wonderful play. The story of the play shows definitely what a girl can do unassisted, if she only sets her mind on it and is built of the proper stuff. The drama deals with an employee of a millionaire jeweler, who steals some diamonds to make good his speculating losses, and is detected in his thievery. The thief's sister, who has long been admired by the wealthy jeweler, is approached by him with a proposition of love, her reward being the freedom of the brother and ease and luxurious surroundings for the rest of her life. She has a scene with the jeweler, in which he tells her that he is separated, but not divorced from his wife in the west; hence, cannot marry the girl, providing she gives her consent.

He proposes that they unite without the formality of a marriage ceremony, defining his proposition as that of a gentleman defending his proposition by saying that a few mumbled words of a clergyman made no difference in the sight of heaven. He contends that if there is true love and respect, two people can live together just as respectably as if there had been a wedding. Naturally she spurns the proposition and is shocked and horrified by the brazenness of the man who makes it.

The play has been very carefully written, and the characters that one would expect to find revolting in the ordinary stage offering have been considerably softened. For instance, the wealthy jeweler is not the cold calculating villain that he might have been made. Instead, he is rather an agreeable business man, filled with false notions of marriage. He is an honest man with distorted ideas and the consequence is that nothing is repelling about him. Even the dishonest brother of the girl has admirable qualities, and when the final curtain falls on the play there is his sweet face left that is in striking contrast to the effect produced by many of the former dramatic offerings.

The principal character in the play is taken by Miss Rachel May Clark, one of the most capable emotional actresses on the American stage. Miss Clark's wonderful experience has given her a delicacy in handling a difficult role like the one she has at present, and her work is truly an artistic triumph. In point of scenic mounting the management has left nothing to be desired.

A CHILD'S LAXATIVE IS "SYRUP OF FIGS."

Made From Fruit—Can't Harm Tender Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

If your little one's tongue is coated, it is a sure sign the stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When your child is cross, peevish, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally; if breath is bad, stomach sour, system full of cold, throat sore, or if feverish, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and undigested food will gently move out of the bowels and you have a well, playful child again.

Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless "fruit laxative." Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure. They also know a little given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Don't be fooled.

Plenty of good pasturage close to town. See Thos. Donnell, or phone 365.

Don't be deceived by agents on the prices of convex frames and glass. Call on your home photographer, he does enlarging and sells frames. St. Clair Co.

STOMACH TROUBLES

Mr. Ragland Writes Interesting Letter on This Subject.

Madison Heights, Va.—Mr. Chas. A. Ragland, of this place, writes: "I have been taking Theford's Black-Draught for indigestion, and other stomach troubles, also colds, and find it to be the very best medicine I have ever used."

After taking Black-Draught for a few days, I always feel like a new man. Nervousness, nausea, heartburn, pain in pit of stomach, and a feeling of fullness after eating, are sure symptoms of stomach trouble, and should be given the proper treatment, as your strength and health depend very largely upon your food and its digestion.

To get quick and permanent relief from these ailments, you should take a medicine of known curative merit.

Its 75 years of splendid success, in the treatment of just such troubles, proves the real merit of Theford's Black-Draught. Safe, pleasant, gentle in action, and without bad after-effects, it is sure to benefit both young and old. For sale everywhere. Price 25c. N. C. M.
