J. O. Beck arrived Saturday from Goldthwaite, where he has been for the past few weeks attending the bedside of his mother, to again take charge of the Lyric airdome.

Mr. Beck purchased the airdome about two years ago and conducted the business up to last fall, when he decided to again resume his profession of teaching school, being employed as principal of the Pear Valley school during the past term, and leased the property to a company of young business men. The lease having expired Monday, Mr. Beck again assumes the active management of the business.

Mr. Beck will be assisted in the business by Pat McCorkle, who has been employed by the Lyric opera house during the winter season as machine operator.

BONDS RECEIVED.

Issue of Montgomery No. 44 Now Ready for Sale.

The bonds voted for the erection of the modern school building for Montgomery Common School District No. 44 were received yesterday by County Superintendent E. L. White, and were signed up by the county officials today and returned to the state controller at Austin for registration.

A record was established in this issue of bonds in the matter of time. The election was held on May 16th, resulting in a vote of 43 for and 13 against the issue. The returns were canvassed and the result declared by the commissioners court on May 23rd. The transcript was completed by County Clerk Yantis and Mr. White on May 25th and was taken to Austin on the 26th by Mr. White, who personally submitted the record to the attorney general's department for approval. The attorney general approved the issue last Thursday, the copy was immediately turned over to the printer and the lithographed bonds were received yesterday, just thirteen business days after the date of the election.

The issue totals $6,500, bears five per cent interest and runs forty years.

As soon as the bonds have been registered in the controller's office they will be tendered the state board of education, and it is thought that the issue will be purchased for the permanent state school fund.

Supt. White is receiving much favorable mention for the way in which he handled this matter, and the despatch with which the issue was gotten through is a source of considerable satisfaction to himself, as well as his many friends.

Mr. Slayden Visits Brady.

Hon. Jas. L. Slayden, congressman from the 14th district, arrived in the city Sunday afternoon from San Saba, where he spoke on Saturday afternoon, and spent yesterday in consultation with friends.

Mr. Slayden expressed his satisfaction over the political situation in the district, and feels confident that he will be re-nominated in the July primary.

He left last night for Brownwood, but expects to return here within the next few weeks to address the voters in the interest of his candidacy.

In the announcement column of this issue of The Standard will be found the name of B. W. Bradley of Fife, as a candidate for the office of Justice of the Peace of Precinct No. 4, his candidacy being subject to the action of the Democratic primary July 25th.

Mr. Bradley is a McCulloch county product, having been a resident of the Fife community practically all of his life. He is a young man of pronounced progressiveness in everything for the advancement and development of the best interests of McCulloch county and her citizenship, and is thoroughly qualified for the position to which he aspires.

He asks the careful consideration of his claims.

Resigns Position.

Elmer McAfee, who has been connected with the joint U. S. and Wells Fargo express office for the past eight months, has resigned his position as driver and will leave next week for his old home at Lincoln, Ill.

Mr. McAfee has made many friends in Brady during his residence here, all of whom regret his departure.

He is succeeded by Willie Taylor.

For Congress.

The name of Judge M. D. Slaton of Llano county will be found in the announcement column of this issue of The Standard as a candidate for Congress from the 14th district, his candidacy being subject to the action of the Democratic primary in July.

He has served the Llano district both as district judge and district attorney, voluntarily retiring from office each time, after several years of successful service in both capacities. He is rated one of the most capable jurists of the state, and his many friends throughout the district feel that he is eminently qualified to fill the high position to which he aspires.

He asks a careful investigation of his qualifications for this high office by the voters of the 14th district.

Suffers Broken Arm.

While playing a box in the yard of their home last Thursday afternoon, Norma, the little 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Krueger suffered a broken arm when she fell to the ground, the bone of the right arm being fractured just below the elbow.

The injured member was set and at last reports the child is doing nicely.

More Rain.

A heavy rain fell in the city Friday afternoon, starting about 1:15 and lasting a little more than thirty minutes, a total of .45 of an inch being recorded by the gauge at the Commercial National bank.

East of the city in the East Sweden community the rain was much heavier than here.

With the immense oat crop of the county ready for harvest farmers are wishing for a little dry weather just at this time.

Accidental Death.

One of the saddest accidents that ever took place in Eden occurred last Friday evening at the residence of G. A. F. Jones. It was the accidental shooting of Leslie Cox with a small target. He, in company with other boys, had been practicing with the target and a cartridge became fastened in the gun. Leslie attempted to extract it when it was discharged, the shot hitting him just above the right eye. He died almost instantly. He was a son of George Cox, living about ten miles west of town. Three of the boys had been attending school here and an older sister had been keeping house for them. Leslie was a favorite with everyone who knew him. He was in Mrs. Bragg's room at school and just a short time before his death he had talked with Mrs. Jones about his plans for the future and what he intended doing next year in school. The funeral occurred on Saturday evening and was attended by the largest concourse of people attending a funeral at this place. The floral offerings surpassed anything before seen on such an occasion in Eden. His schoolmates contributed wreaths, as well as other persons. The services were conducted by Rev. Wilsford at the residence of G. A. F. Jones. At the cemetery the choir sang several very pretty and appropriate songs. This was the first death occurring in the family and the suddenness of it and the unusual sunny disposition of the son almost prostrated the father and mother, who have the sympathy of the entire community. Mr. Cox has been a resident of this section for a number of years, and enjoys the respect and confidence of all his acquaintances. —Eden Echo.

ATTEMPTED WIT.

The Brady ball team came up on Monday to show the Eden team how to play ball. Two games were played on Tuesday, resulting in favor of Eden. The visitors were not satisfied with the results and remained until Wednesday for another game.
This also was favorable to Eden.
The Echo extends sympathy to the visitors, as they were a nice lot of boys, but suggests that they take lessons in playing before they undertake to teach our boys the principles of the game.
On Tuesday they said that they would remain until they could beat the local team. Landlord Evans said while they were nice boys, he didn't like to make any long bonding contracts, and thought his duty was done at the end of the week's contract.
They returned home on Wednesday evening.—Eden Echo.

The puny attempt of the Echo editor to be funny is sickening. The young men composing the Brady team are of the best families of the city, and play ball merely for the love of the sport. They had never played a game together until the day previous to that played at Eden on Tuesday, and could hardly be expected to put up an errorless exhibition. The members of the team conduct themselves in a gentlemanly manner while at home, and we feel sure they did the same while at Eden and should not be subjected to such efforts at wit as is put forth by the Eden editor. True wits are scarce articles in these United States, and that the Echo man is not one of them is very evident.

AUTOMATON IDEA NOT NEW

In 1264 Friar Bacon Constructed a Bronze Head Which Spoke—Other Early Inventions.

Automaton figures, made to imitate the actions of living beings, are of early invention, remarks an exchange. Archista's flying dove was formed about 400 B. C. Friar Bacon is said to have made a bronze head which spoke, 1264 A. D. Albertus Magnus spent thirty years in making another. A coach and two horses, with a footman, a page and a woman inside, were made by Camus for Louis XIV. when a child in 1649; the horses and figures moved naturally, variously and perfectly.
Vaucanson, in 1738, made an artificial duck, which performed many functions of a real one—eating, drinking and quacking; and he also made a flute player. The writing automaton, exhibited in 1769, was a pentagraph worked by a hidden confederate. An automaton chess player, invented by Baron Kempelen of Presburg, Hungary, 1769, and known as "Machiel's chess player," excited intense curiosity wherever exhibited for many years. This was also worked by a concealed person; so was the "invisible girl." Early in the nineteenth century an automaton was exhibited in London which pronounced several sentences with tolerable distinctness. The "anthropoclossus," an alleged talking machine, exhibited at St. James' hall, London, July, 1864, was proved to be a gross imposition. The exhibition of the talking machine of Professor Faber of Vienna in London began August 27, 1870, at the Palais Royal, Argyll street. The automatic chess player at the Crystal palace in 1873. Psycho, an automatic card player, was exhibited in London in 1875. An automatic hare was hunted at Hendon, near London, in 1873.

FEELING HARDSHIPS OF WAR

All Over Europe, Privation Caused by Balkan Conflict Is Already Lifting Its Head.

There will be bitter suffering in millions of families of Europe this winter. Course food will give place to coarser, belts will be tightened in place of meals, rations will be shortened, and every public and private agency of relief will be taxed to capacity to keep hardship from becoming disaster. For more than a thousand million dollars of Europe's liquid capital has been burned up in the Balkan war, or has gone into unproductive increases of armies already too great for taxpayers to support. The coming hardships will press most heavily on lands which felt the devastation of war; Turkey and Bulgaria and the fought-over regions of Thrace and Macedonia. In the first-named countries defeat has added bitterness to privation, and in Turkey the increase character of society will increase the ills of poverty.
But, while these lands suffer worst, no part of Europe is wholly exempt.
Fifty thousand men are already out of work in Berlin, and the authorities of that city are expecting a repetition of the bread riots of last year.
Martial law prevails over large districts in Austria and Russia. Workers in Italy are striking for a living wage, and even in prosperous France and Holland the pinch is felt.

MOST PERSONS WOULD.

"I'm afraid I'm catching cold," said Kloseman, trying to get some medical advice free. "Every once in a while I feel an itching in my nose, and then I sneeze. What would you do in a case like that, doctor?"

"Well," replied Dr. Sharpe, "I guess I'd sneeze, too."

OLD MAID'S CREED.

He—Do you believe in love at first sight?
She (thirty-eight)—I believe in any kind of love.

IN A HURRY.

"Why are you in such a hurry for the new currency?"
"The little snappy that I had of the old is almost exhausted."

ITS KIND.

"Why do you select this portrait of your wife? It is anything but a speaking likeness."
"That's why I prefer it."

ANSWERED.

"They talk about the fruits of love. What are they?"
"Why, the wedding date and the bridal pair."

ADVICE TO FARMERS

Your Corn and Cotton Should be Harrowed.

Washington, D. C., May 30—The beneficial effects of a well prepared seed bed and the use of good seed may be wholly or partially offset by improper or insufficient cultivation, is the advice of crop specialists of the Department of Agriculture.

Proper cultivation is an important factor in crop production. Cultivation should begin immediately after planting by running once or twice across the rows with a weeder or section harrow. After the plants come up at least two additional cultivations should be given with either the weeder or harrow in the case of either corn or cotton before the regular cultivators are used. Run diagonally across the rows with either of these implements; using the section harrow with the teeth slanted backward with an angle of 45 degrees and repeat a week later at right angles with the first cultivation.

The use of the weeder or section harrow is strongly advised for the early cultivation

Largest Wheat Crop in Ten Years Predicted.

Wichita Falls, Texas, May 27.—Agents of the United States Department of Agriculture have completed their estimates of the 1914 wheat crop of Texas, after a careful survey of the wheat belt of the state. The 1914 yield is estimated at 15-600,000 bushels, which is approximately 2,000,000 bushels more than last year. If the final figures come up to this estimate it will be the largest production in Texas since 1903, when the yield was 19,880,000 bushels.

Only five per cent of the Texas acreage has been abandoned on account of crop failure and 1-082,000 acres remain to be harvested.

The Texas crop on May 1st was 90 per cent of normal, or 12 per cent above the average condition on the same date last year.

The average price per bushel paid to farmers on May 1st was 93 cents, or three cents above the May 1st, 1913, quotation.

Texas Bulls Win First Prize at Havana Show.

Hillsboro, Texas, May 27.— Texas bred livestock continues to show its superiority over stock of other countries, and a number of Shorthorn bulls owned by Frank Scofield of this city, who lately returned from Havana, Cuba, were awarded first prize at the International Exposition in that city recently.
These animals were entered in competition with the prize bull of the Paris Exposition and some of the finest blooded stock in North and South America, and were declared by the judges to be the finest lot ever shown in that country. A total of eight prizes were captured by this herd and a diploma was given Mr. Scofield, signed by the president and senate of Cuba in recognition of these prize animals. This is declared to be the greatest victory ever won by an American exhibitor in that Republic. Mr. Scofield disposed of the bulls before returning home.

It Was Easy.

Before the passage of the present strict banking laws of Wisconsin, starting a bank was a comparatively simple proposition. The surprisingly small amount of capital needed is well illustrated by the story of a prosperous country town bank er told on himself, when asked how he happened to enter the banking business:

"Well," he said, "I didn't have much else to do, so I rented an empty store building and painted 'Bank' on the window. The first day I was open for business a man came in and deposited $100 with me; the second day another man dropped in and deposited $250; and so, by George, along about the third day I got confidence enough in the bank to put in a hundred myself!"—

Blessing English Crops.
The quaint ceremony of blessing the crops was observed the other evening on the Earl of Craven's es-Meeting at the parish church, the vicar and a number of parishioners formed into procession and various well-known farms were visited.

DE LAVAL CREAM
SEPARATORS ARE EASIEST TO WASH

The construction of the De Laval bowl is such that it can be completely taken apart for washing. The discs, bowl parts and tinware have no tubes, crevices, holes or corrugated surfaces such as are found in other machines and which are very hard to clean.

The De Laval discs are washed as a single piece and the whole machine can be thoroughly

Cleaned In Five Minutes

There is no part of the De Laval bowl which cannot be easily reached and seen, so that the operator can always tell whether or not every part has been properly cleaned.

The ease with which the De Laval can be thoroughly washed and kept in a sanitary condition is one reason why creamerymen prefer De Laval to other separator cream, and is likewise one of the reasons why butter made from De Laval cream has scored highest at the National Dairy Show for over 20 years.

of corn, cotton and many other crops. It is best to use the weeder on very loose or sandy soils while the section harrow is preferable on clay or bucksho soils. This early cultivation with the weeder or harrow destroys all young grass and weeds and leaves the soil in fine condition and the cotton ready for chopping or thinning.
The use of the section harrow for the early cultivation of corn and cotton in the South is comparatively recent but is rapidly becoming general.
One of the great advantages in its use, in addition to the excellent work done, is the extra amount of land that can be cultivated in a given time.

Horse's Long Fast.

A horse recently passed fourteen days in a cave in Oklahoma without food or water and, although it lost 300 pounds in weight, through the kindness of its owner, it quickly recovered after it was rescued. The cave was concealed by planks and these broke as the horse walked across. The owner supposed that the horse had been stolen, and its presence in the cave was discovered by chance.

Never!

"Poets," bubbled the dreamy eyed young versemonger, "are born, sir, and not made." "Great Jehosaphat!" exclaimed the long suffering editor in amazement, "and did you suppose any one would want the credit of making 'em?"

Two men were talking of the hard times.

"Does your wife ever grieve because she threw over a wealthy man in order to marry you?" queried Hall.

"Well, she started to once," was the reply, "but I cured her of it without delay."

"I wish you would tell me how," said Hall.

"I started right in grieving with her," replied the other, "and I grieved harder and longer than she did!"—Lippincott's.

Conflicting Opinions.

Senator J. Hamilton Lewis of Illinois smiled the other evening when reference was made at a social affair to the large amount of money railroads are frequently required to pay out in damage suits. He said he was reminded of the case of Jim Smith.

Jim Smith was riding in a railroad train one day when he got tangled up in a wreck. For a month he was confined to the house, and then he slowly emerged on crutches. Two weeks later, still on crutches, he was met by his friend, John Jones.

"Hello, Jim," happily exclaimed John, stopping to shake hands. "How is the bum leg getting on?"

"Pretty fair, John," answered Jim, not too enthusiastically. "I suppose I shouldn't complain."

"Let's see," mused the other. "It has been more than six weeks since you were hurt. Do you mean to tell me that you still have to use crutches?"

"Well, it's this way, John," responded Jim. "My doctor says I don't, but my lawyers say I do."—Philadelphia Telegraph.
