Suffers Broken Arm.

While engaged in shoeing a horse yesterday afternoon, Bob Henley, an employe of Baker & Alexander's blacksmith shop, suffered a broken arm when the animal kicked him. One of the bones of the left forearm was broken by the force of the blow, and the arm dislocated at the elbow. The injured member was promptly set by attending physicians.

HOME TALENT TONIGHT.

B. H. S. Dramatic Club Will Present Drama at Airdome.

Members of the Brady High School Dramatic club, under the able direction of Mrs. W. B. Anderson of the high school faculty, will present a beautiful 4-act drama at the Airdome tonight.

The young people composing the cast have been rehearsing their parts diligently during the past two or three weeks, and those who attend the performance this evening are assured a high-class production of the beautiful play.

"Valley Farm" is a beautiful story, with a heart interest that grips you from the start, and one which you will long remember.

Following is the cast of characters:

Harold Rutledge, a young lawyer, W. A. Shropshire.

Perry Dean, a son of the soil, C. E. Baze.

David Hildreth, a New York lawyer, O. T. Jackson.

Silas Holcomb, Owner of Valley Farm, Chas. Morris.

Azariah Keep, clock tinker, L. T. Fahrenthold.

Jennings, servant of the Rutledge mansion, Ernest McMurray.

Hetty Holcomb, "a country flower" transplanted to the city soil, Sarah Johanson.

Isabel Carney, niece of David Hildreth, Harriet Pence.

Mrs. Rutledge, Harold's mother, Mary Snider.

Alvira Holcomb, sister of Silas, Virginia Miller.

Lizzie Ann Tucker, who borrows but never gossips, Ruth Schaeg.

Verbena, hired girl at the farm, Leslie Bradley.

The synopsis is as follows:

ACT I—Valley Farm. An afternoon in August. The engagement.

ACT II—The Rutledge mansion, New York City, the following December. The serpent has crept into Eden.

ACT III—Same as before, three weeks later. Parted.

ACT IV—At the farm again. An evening in the next March. The triumph of love.

Good Vaudeville.

Manager Levy of the opera house, at a considerable additional expense, has succeeded in booking one of the best vaudeville acts ever brought to Texas, that of The Oldfields, who will appear at the opera house on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights of this week. This team is heralded as the best ever, and never fails to please everywhere they appear. Their act is novelty comedy banjo playing, singing and talking, and the many comical stunts they pull off keep their audience in an uproar of laughter.

On Saturday evening another installment of "The Adventures of Kathlyn" will be shown. This is one of the most thrilling series of pictures ever shown in Brady, and a number of local theatre-goers who have seen the preceding numbers of the series will be interested in the installment to be seen at the opera house Saturday night.

Sells More Buicks.

Manager B. A. Hallum of the Brady Auto Co. reports that his company has made a clean sweep in the sale of Buick cars, having, during the past few days, sold the last one on hand, including demonstrating cars of both 1913 and 1914 models.

The popularity of these cars is attested by the fact that not a single one of the 1914 models allotted to Texas agents is left. During the two years which the local company has been handling the Buick, they have sold sixty of them—31 of the 1913 models, and 29 of the 1914.

Orders are now being booked for the 1915 models, and a car load will be received here in the early part of the coming month. One of these cars has already been disposed of, and several other sales have been tentatively agreed upon.

Could Reach It.

A temperance lecturer was enthusiastically denouncing the use of all intoxicants.

"I wish all the beer, all the wine, all the whiskey in the world was at the bottom of the ocean," he said.

Hastily Pat arose to his feet. "Sure and so do I, sor," he shouted. "I wish every bit of it was at the bottom of the sea."

As they were leaving the hall the lecturer encountered Pat.

"I certainly am proud of you," he said. "It was a brave thing for you to rise and say what you did. Are you a teetotaler?"

"No, indade, sor," answered Pat. "I'm a diver."

BALL TEAM TO JUNCTION.

Will Play Three Games With Kimble Co. Aggregation.

The Brady ball team left this morning in T. A. Bartlett's big service car for Junction, where they will play three games with the team at that place Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Wood of Richland Springs and Morrow of Melvin accompanied the team. Local players making the trip were: H. K. Adkins, Newt Chapman, Luther Leddy, Burette Tipton, A. R. Holman, Henry Tipton, Chas. Morris and Charlie Fuller.

Our buggy display room is on the second floor of our new building and is the completest thing of its kind in this section. Would be pleased to have you inspect it. O. D. Mann & Sons.

Mass Meeting Friday.

At a meeting of the directors of the Commercial club yesterday it was decided to call a mass meeting of the citizens and business men at the court house Friday morning for the purpose of taking some steps with reference to the matter of street sprinkling.

S. J. Durnett, who has been operating the sprinkler for the past two years, reported to the club that he has been operating the business for several months at a considerable loss, and that unless he could get subscribers enough to give him a fair return for his investment and labor that he would be forced to discontinue the service.

The meeting called for Friday is for the purpose of relieving the situation, and it is hoped that some plan may be devised whereby this service may be continued, more especially during the summer months.

Receives Car of Studebakers.

Manager B. Simpson of Simpson & Co., last week received a car load of Studebaker autos, and reports the sale of two of these cars.

The shipment consisted of two six cylinder, seven passenger models and one four cylinder, six passenger. Both the sixes have been sold, but only one has been delivered, Henry Carlson being the purchaser. Delivery of the other car will be made within the next few days.

Lucky Family.

"I made a mistake," said Plodding Pete. "I told that man up the road I needed a little help 'cause I was lookin' for me family from whom I had been separated for years."

"Didn't that make him come across?"

"He couldn't see it. He said dat he didn't know my family, but he wasn't goin' to help me in bringing any such trouble on 'em."

The Cigar's Last End.

Swell—Why, sonny, do you always smoke cigars? What's your favorite brand?

Urchin—(puffing at a cigar end)—I always smoke Robinson Crusoes!

Swell—I don't think I ever heard of that brand.

Urchin—Haven't you gov-nor? Don't you know that old Crusoe was a castaway?—Comic Cuts.

Great War Picture To Be Seen At Airdome Thursday Night.

Manager Pat McCorkle of The Airdome announces as an attraction at this popular amusement place on Thursday night of this week, one of the greatest war pictures ever produced in "The Battle of Gettysburg," a five-part production, which is historically correct in every detail. This is one of the costliest pictures yet attempted by the motion picture world, requiring the services of thousands of men, horses, cannon, etc., and was made right on the ground where this historic engagement occurred.

Everyone, and especially the ex-Confederate veterans, should see this great picture, which will be shown here only on Thursday night. The price of admission for this great feature will be 10c to any part of the airdome. The performance will begin promptly at 8:30.

On Friday night a list of merchants' gifts will be awarded at The Airdome. This has been a feature for several weeks, and is proving quite popular with Airdome patrons.

On Saturday night another installment of "Our Mutual Girl" will be shown. This is one of the most popular serial pictures ever put out, and is one of the best features The Airdome has ever had.

BRADY, TEXAS, July 7, 1914
 NEWSPAPER COURTESY.

Many people of average intelligence and understanding of proper courtesy and demeanor upon other subjects appear to misjudge the attitude of the newspaper toward public functions and items of interest to themselves directly. They appear to entirely lose sight of the matter from the standpoint of the newspaper and its management.

As a glaring illustration of what we mean we will take the matter of matrimony and the attendant public functions that are usually connected with such events. The newspaper is expected to make mention of every detail of the impending event and deal very effusively with the big show when it is staged.
 Yet, the chances are, the printing or engraving for the affair has been passed over the head of the local printery and the profit which is rightfully the newspaper's portion is given to an outside concern that has no personal interest whatever in the wedding or anyone connected therewith. Then again! After the event has been carried to a successful termination and the newspaper has printed a lot of extra copies with the expectation of a ready call for them at so much per, maybe half dozen papers are called for and must be sold at six for a quarter, or no sale.

The above is no pipe dream.
 It is only a true story that any newspaper in the land can reiterate if its editor has the nerve to speak out in meeting. Such things are not only the lot of the newspaper regarding weddings, but it happens all down the line. Some people absorb the idea that they are getting something just a little better when they patronize the outside printing concern. The fact of the business is they are usually hood-winked and made to pay more for an inferior grade of material. To our certain knowledge local graduates this year paid four dollars a hundred more for their commencement announcements than The Mirror could have furnished the same designs. And so on down the line.

There is always a limit to the patience and forbearance of the newspaper. Hereafter The Mirror expects to show courtesies to those who have some regard for its interests. We do not expect to open our columns without discrimination or limit to social events where the principals have shown a total disregard for our business, when they could just as well have treated us with due consideration and probably saved money in the transaction. We believe all fair-minded people will see the justice of our position. We know our own conscience will be clear and we will have more self-respect. We want more friends, that is, we want true friends. We do not want to be used as a good old horse for everybody to ride.

Kindly consider the foregoing and let the truth enter into your judgement of the matter. We have long felt that it should be said. We feel better for having relieved our mind of it.—Mc-Gregor Mirror.

The Busiest Man In Texas.

Fort Worth, Texas, July 4—The busiest man in Texas is located in Fort Worth. The man is Mr. E. M. Riley, head of the Texas Livestock Sanitary Commission. Mr. Riley's duty is to rid Texas of the cattle fever tick, and according to his own confession he has his hands full.

The Texas Legislature at its last sitting, created the State Livestock Sanitary Commission, which provides for the protection of cattle and districts from infection through quarantine of sections in which there is contagion.

Briefly, the Commission is empowered to establish quarantine of cattle, deportation or importation, in a district where stock is attacked by ticks that breed disease.

Counties, by appealing to their commissioners through petition, may take up tick eradication work within their limits by means of a local option election. Up to date, a total of nine have held elections, and the following five of the number voted compactly for tick eradication: Irion, Foard, Sterling, Wilbarger and Schleicher.

Crockett County, one of the four which refused the work a year ago, will hold another election July 8, when, it is expected, a large vote will be cast to have the work taken up.

Reports show that since the work of eradication has been taken up in Texas, the average increase has been $9.76 per head and 11 per cent in weight.

Philadelphia, Pa., July 4th—A fund provided here today will give a Texas girl a scholarship worth $2,000 in the Castle school at Tarrytown, N. Y., one of the most exclusive schools in America.

In the selection of the girl, Miss Mason said she would be largely influenced by the selections made by a committee of the Texas alumnae, which is composed of Mrs. W. I. Ysle Anderson and Mrs. James D. Lyons of Dallas, Texas, who will be consulted before a decision is reached.

How To Give Quinine To Children.

FERRILINE is the trade-mark name given to an improved Quinine. It is a Tasteless Syrup, pleasant to take and does not disturb the stomach. Children take it and never know it is Quinine. Also especially adapted to adults who cannot take ordinary Quinine. Does not nauseate nor cause nervousness nor ringing in the head. Try it the next time you need Quinine for any purpose. HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emery, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctors lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work."

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

Overdoing It.

"What an interesting child!"
"Dear me, you haven't seen our most interesting child. He's a perfect wonder."

"Yes. He's the worst boy in the neighborhood. He won't go to school, he's stupid and ill-tempered and impolite—and he makes more noise than all the other children put together. Nobody dares to correct him. He does just as he pleases, and lives on the very best of everything."

"And why should such a cub enjoy all these privileges?"
"Because somebody once called him a defective."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Blunt Candor.

A visitor who had an exalted opinion of his golf ability was extended the courtesy of the club, and the first day he went over the beautiful course in the highlands, accompanied by a bright caddy. He had succeeded in burying his ball in every bunker, gully and burn on or near the links, when he turned to the caddy and said: "Really, this is the most difficult course I have ever played on."

"Hoo dae ye ken?" asked the caddy gravely. "Ye havna played on it yet."—San Francisco Argonaut.
