A BIG DISPLAY

In Cattle, Swine, Sheep and Goats at Texas State Fair.

E. L. Flippen, director of Cattle, Swine, Sheep and Goats at the Texas State Fair which opens in Dallas, Saturday, October 17 and closes November 1, claims that the exhibits this year will break all previous records. Those who have eyes and see not, those who have ears and hear not, should not fail to attend the "big" fair and see for themselves what progress has been made in livestock industry, as well as in all other industries that will be represented in abundance when the big gates swing open for the first day, October 17.

In addition to the grand collection of modern productions from the various industries of the state and from other sections of the country, there will be wonderful exhibits to interest not only the farmer, the manufacturer, the merchant, the banker, but people engaged in all professions and walks of life will find instruction, entertainment and pleasure within the confines and gates of the State Fair of Texas, "The Fair Without an Equal."

Not only has greater interest been taken this year by adding increased spaces for increased exhibits in the various departments, but a larger appropriation has been made by the board of directors for attractions and amusement features. A total of $25,000 being expended for this purpose, which means that much is to be expected and much will be seen.

DISTRESSING ACCIDENT

Miss Ione Odiorne Drowned in San Saba River.

Our entire community was shocked last Sunday evening when the news came to town that Miss Ione Odiorne was drowned in the river below town, at Dr. Osburn's camp. A number of young people were in the river bathing, romping and playing and having a good time generally. They decided to explore the waters down the river from where they were and Harris Walters and Herman Odiorne led the way. They discovered quicksand and the water getting too deep and sounded the warning, but the young ladies were in water so deep they could not stem the current and turn back and they went under. In the party were Misses Ione Odiorne and Lila Kirkpatrick, Harris Walters and Herman Odiorne. The young ladies went under, and Harris and Herman proved themselves true heroes in the way they fought for the lives of the helpless girls. Miss Kirkpatrick sank three times and her head was just in sight and Harris grabbed her by the hair and swam to the shore. Miss Odiorne wore a rubber hood or cap and it was impossible for Herman to get hold of his sister and she sank. The presence of mind of these boys would have done credit to much older heads, and they have the consolation of knowing they put forth every human effort to avert the calamity.

Dr. M. E. Osburn and Will Kirkpatrick were down the river some distance and heard the calls for help and hastened to the scene. Dr. Osburn and John Freeman commenced the hunt for the body and by the use of some throw lines, they succeeded in finding it after about 40 of 50 minutes. Dr. Osburn used every method at resuscitation, but life was extinct. The funeral was held at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Odd-Fellows' Cemetery in the presence of a large circle of sorrowing friends. The services were conducted by Dr. John Power of the Episcopal church and Rev. H. E. Draper of the Methodist church—San Saba Star.

KILLED AT MASON.

"Sly" Smith Victim of Automobile Accident Saturday Night.

Word was received here Sunday morning of an automobile accident which occurred near Mason about 12:00 o'clock Saturday night in which "Sly" Smith, driver of the mail car between Llano and Mason, lost his life. According to information received here, Smith, in company with three other men, were returning to Mason from a dance in the country when the accident occurred. Smith was driving the car, and was running rather recklessly. In making a sharp turn in the road the car was overturned and Smith was caught underneath and crushed to death. The two men in the rear seat, on seeing that Smith was not slowing down for the curve, jumped out before the car was overturned, and escaped with only minor bruises. The other man in the seat with Smith remained in the car, but sustained only slight injuries. Smith's head was crushed and several bones were broken.

The victim of the unfortunate occurrence was between 50 and 60 years of age and has a family living in Llano, where they have resided for many years. A pathetic feature of Saturday night's accident is the fact that Smith's son was killed in a similar accident near San Saba three weeks ago today.

Funeral services and interment took place yesterday at Cherokee.

Fire Alarm Whistle.

The new fire alarm whistle which was ordered several weeks ago by the Board of Managing Trustees of the city water and light department arrived yesterday, and will be installed within the next few days at the city's power plant.

The whistle is one of the largest made, requiring a 2-inch connection, and is designed specially for fire alarm purposes. It is known as a gong whistle, weighs 438 pounds, and can be heard a distance of eight miles.

First Bale of Cotton

The first bale of cotton for San Saba for the year 1914 was picked and brought in Thursday of last week by Elzy Funderbunk of the Fairview settlement. This bale was ginned by the Farmers' Union gin and was sold to J. W. McConnell & Son at ten and a quarter cents. Cotton is reported to be not opening rapidly and the probability is that cotton picking will not be under full way before September 1. A subscription list was carried around town and a purse of $34.50 was made up as a premium for the first bale. —San Saba News.

Members of the Brady Booster band have been rehearsing diligently for the past two weeks in preparation of a program for a free open air concert on the court house lawn next Thursday night.

A good program of popular numbers have been arranged by Director Billie Leeman, and the individual members of the band have been putting in some hard licks in perfecting their parts of the work.

Following is the program to be rendered Thursday night:

- March, "Auto Tourists," Rosenkrans.
- March, "Show Boy," Huff.
- Waltzes, "Loveland," Holzman.
- Rag, "Pretzel Pete," Durand.
- Serenade, "Cupid's Charms," Miller.
- March, "Prince of Victory," Billings.
- Fandango, "La Paloma," Yradier.
- Waltz, "Heart and Home," Rosenkrans.
- Barn Dance, "Mandy Jane," Rolfe.
- March, "First Regiment," Et-kisson.

The band has only been organized a few months, but their performance is worthy of many veteran musicians, and their efforts to give Brady a first-class musical organization should meet with hearty support from the citizens.

The program will start promptly at 8:30, and the general public is cordially invited to attend.

Negro Disappears

Colored citizens living in the eastern part of the city were considerably excited Saturday morning over the unusual actions of one of their number, Bill Pulliam, who for the past several years has been employed as porter in Polk's barber shop. For the past few weeks the negro has been acting queerly, somehow gathering the impression that someone was trying to kill him. A few days ago he disappeared, but was only gone a short time. When questioned about his leaving in this way, he stated that he had come to his senses two or three miles north of the city, walking up the railroad track.

At the usual hour Saturday morning he started to town to work, but when he failed to appear at the shop at his usual time, investigation showed that he had again mysteriously disappeared. Several of his colored friends began a search for him and found that he had again mysteriously disappeared. Several of his colored friends began a search for him, and found that he had again started out up the railroad toward Rochelle. About 10:00 o'clock Saturday night Pulliam called his wife over long distance telephone and told her that he was in Brownwood, and for her to come on over there.

Pulliam is an unusually good citizen, always conducting himself in a most exemplary manner during his residence here, and is well liked by the citizens of Brady, and his unfortunate condition is regretted by all.

Frisky Horse Causes Scare.

Mr. and Mrs. Si Proctor had an exciting experience while returning to their home from Brady Saturday night. When about five miles from town the horse they were driving put on a Wild West exhibition of bucking, pitching and running, pitching Mr. Proctor out of the buggy and skinning him up about the hands and body. Mrs. Proctor stayed with the buggy until Mr. Proctor called to her to jump out, and she managed to escape unhurt. Fortunately some Brady folks were close at hand and assisted in capturing and quieting the animal, and Mr. and Mrs. Proctor were enabled to continue their home-ward journey.

BRADY, TEXAS, Sept. 1, 1914.

In our calls on the business men the past few days, we have been met in many places with long faces and tales of woe, occasioned by the conditions now confronting the country by reason of the European war. On all sides we hear such remarks as, "What in the world will become of us?" and "If things don't loosen up we will all starve to death." We cannot see that conditions warrant such gloomy expressions, especially in the face of the fact that the farmers of this section have raised enough feed to last them two or three years, and an average of at least half a bale of cotton through the county will be realized. True, the price is not what it should be, yet there is plenty of time for the market to develop a price commensurate with that of last year, and there is no good reason why it should not be so. Even if we did not have any cotton or feed crops, we would still be in much better circumstances than the unfortunate Europeans, whose worldly possessions are being confiscated and thousands upon thousands of homes made desolate in the loss of father, brother, husband or son. Hard times are more often brought about by the fear that something will happen than by the actual occurrence. Quit brooding over imaginary troubles, and go to work at something which will keep your mind too busy to conjure up these things which might happen.

You can talk hard times until you create such a condition, when in reality there is no cause for hard times existing. It's just as easy to be optimistic, and it will make you a good deal more popular. Many of the low animals can howl, but it takes a man to face the adversities of life with a smile. Try being a man awhile.

The hum of the cotton gin is now heard in Brady from early dawn to late in the night, and is sweet music to all.

FARMERS OF TEXAS WELL CARED FOR

State Fair Offers Rich Premiums in Agricultural Classes.

A MAMMOTH DISPLAY.

Awards in Individual Farm Exhibit Class Increased to $300—Uncle Sam Will Judge Cotton.

Dallas.—Farmers of Texas are well cared for this year by the management of the 1914 State Fair of Texas, which begins Saturday, October 17. Thousands of dollars have been set aside for awards for exhibits of farms, orchard and garden products.

The mammoth agricultural building has been equipped with new and modern exhibit booths for the farm and milk, cotton, corn and other divisions. As usual cotton comes in for a rich share of the prizes and will be assembled and judged under the supervision of the United States Department of Agriculture. Cash awards around $500 and diplomas cover the prize offerings for exhibits of short and long staple cotton.

In the corn division, open to Texas only, prizes aggregating $500 are offered for all varieties of Dent corn, Laguna or June corn, prolific corn and gourd seed corn.

The big feature and one in which much interest is manifested is the individual farm exhibit class. The management regards this of such importance that the prize offerings have been increased to $200. Every farmer in Texas has a chance at this rich purse and by assembling an exhibit of corn, cotton, small grain and other products grown on his farm this year, his chance of winning a rich share of this purse is as good as the next one.

The Texas Land and Mortgage Company offers rich special premiums in the Agricultural Department this year.

ANGORA GOAT DISPLAY.

Record-Breaking Showing Promised For Coming State Fair.

Dallas.—Texas furnishes half the mohair produced annually in the United States, or more than 3,000,000 pounds. The grade is just as fine in texture as the imported article, and there is about 4,000,000 pounds imported into the United States each year.

The management of the 1914 State Fair of Texas is going to impress upon visitors the fact that Texas can produce twice as much mohair if more attention is given to the Angora goat industry.

Hence the rich prizes offered not only by the fair management but by the American Angora Goat Breeders' Association and the American Mica Goat Record Association.

The Angora exhibit last year was conceded to be the best since the St. Louis World's Fair and the exhibit this year promises to eclipse even that of 1913.

Breeders declare that while the Angora prefers rough pasture, and is particularly happy when clearing thick brush land, yet after a few years on the very roughest land the owner will be able to double and often quadruple the number of head of sheep, cattle or horses on the same land, and not in the least interfere with the Angora.

BABY SHOW AT FAIR.

Five Hundred Youngsters Will Participate in Scientific Test.

Dallas.—Five hundred babies all in a row, going through scientific inspection and a test that is bound to make some of them mad, is a unique exhibit for the coming State Fair of Texas, which begins Saturday, October 17, and continues sixteen days.

It is held for the good of the babies of the state, our most precious asset, and great physicians in the exhibit tell the mothers what is best for their little ones in the way of proper feeding, clothing, exercise and hygiene.

October 28 is Better Babies' Rally Day and all babies should be there. The contest is limited to 500 and it will be held in special quarters on the ground floor of the Coliseum.

Miss Rich of the Home Welfare Division of the University of Texas is in charge of the contest, which is held under the auspices of the university. The State Fair management contributes $250 in prizes.

BUSY BEE AT FAIR.

Exhibit of Great Educational Importance is Now Being Assembled.

Dallas.—Down there in Southwest Texas, where the flowers are ever blooming, beekeepers are getting up an exhibit of bees and bee products that will be one of the most instructive features of the 1914 State Fair of Texas, which begins Saturday, October 17. All the various varieties known in Texas will be shown to State Fair visitors in glass observatory hives, where their habits can be studied with the greatest ease, and while one is doing this, the expert in charge is adding other information that will convince the hearer that Texas is the home of the bee industry.

No department of the Fair is of more interest than this. The various uses that can be made of honey will be exceedingly instructive to the housewife. There will be a miscellaneous display of bees in every conceivable shape, curio-hives and beekeepers' supplies.

The motto of this exhibit will be that "every farmer should have a bee hive."

COUNTIES AFTER CUP.

Silver Trophy Up Again at State Fair For Best Showing.

Dallas.—What county is going to win the much-sought trophy cup awarded at each Fair for the best and most diversified county exhibit? Cooke, Hunt and Hopkins, winners of previous years, are all getting their exhibits ready for the 1914 State Fair of Texas, which begins Saturday, Oct. 17. Each has sent in word that the cup is already won. Meantime thirty or more other counties of the state are making the same preparations, not only to win the cup but to get a look-in on more than $1200 in cash prizes offered in the county exhibit division.

Saddle horse classes at the 1914 State Fair of Texas, Dallas, Oct. 17-19, are exceedingly rich and will comprise the greatest quality exhibit in the annals of the Fair. The American Saddle Horse Breeders' Association $100 trophy will bring out the cream of the bunch.

The Special Session

The calling of the special session of the Legislature of Texas for the purpose of passing a warehouse bill to protect the Texas cotton crop, points a convincing moral. It is prima facie evidence that the dawn of a new era has arrived—an era of co-operation and harmony between the farmers and the business interests. Out of the commercial chaos produced by the declaration of a foreign war there has arisen the powerful voice of the business man, the banker and the merchant, offering to tide the farmer over the danger period and help him hold his cotton crop until a permanent and stable method of financing shall have been obtained. In Texas, the culmination of this desire on the part of the town man to assist his farmer brother, has resulted in a special session whereby such assistance may be rendered. It is true that politics will be played and the opportunity will be seized by aspiring statesmen to further their political ambitions, but the spirit is right and denotes that the farmer is the man of the hour—that his interests are paramount and that he is at last coming into his own.

Texas-Made Goods.

The most convincing argument for patronizing home industries and keeping Texas money in Texas that has appeared in public prints lately is a press dispatch from Indiana. Texas papers last week carried the announcement that the agricultural implement factories of that state had doubled their working force and were employing night and day shifts filling orders placed by Texas farmers.

The farmers of Texas spend more money for agricultural implements than those of any other state and only a small per cent goes to Texas factories. A total of $10,000,000 was spent by Texas farmers last year for plows, and less than half million dollars went to Texas manufacturers. There are four farm implement factories in this state and the price and quality of their product compares favorably with those manufactured anywhere in the nation.

Why not a "Back to the Soil With Home Industry Patronage" movement? Let every farmer demand Texas-made plows and we will increase the number of smoke stacks in Texas instead of filling dinner pails in some far away state.

The Texas Potato Patch.

Washington, D. C. Aug. 15.—The Texas Irish potato patch contains 44,000 acres this year and the total production will be approximately 2,605,000 bushels, according to estimates made by the United States Crop Reporting Board. The condition of the crop is 74 per cent of normal and the price at the present time is averaging around 85 cents per bushel.

In Continental United States there are 3,708,000 acres planted to this product and this year's production is estimated at 360,614,000 bushels by the Federal Department of Agriculture. This year's crop will exceed the average crop of the past five years by approximately 4,000,000 bushels. The nation's production last year was 331,525,000 bushels, was produced on 3,668,000 acres of land and sold for $227,903,000, or an average of 90 cents per bushel.

Farmers.

Washington, D. C. Aug. 15.—There are 1,556,886 persons in Texas that work for a living and 934,140 of them are employed upon the farm, according to a report which has just been issued by the United States Census Bureau. Of ten persons engaged in agricultural pursuits, the bulk of them are farm operators and farm laborers. The farm operators number 400,000 and 382,000 are men and 18,000 are women. There are 485,000 farm laborers in the state and 320,000 are males and 165,000 females.

There are 1,028 dairy farmers in the state and they employ 1,300 laborers and 41 foremen. There are also 10,000 in the state whose principal source of income is from stock raising. The number of cow boys and sheep herders in this state is 8,800.

In the entire United States there are 71,580,270 persons over 10 years of age and 38,167,336, or 53 per cent of this number are engaged in gainful occupations. Of the gainfully occupied, 12,659,203 or 33 per cent are engaged in agriculture. There are 5,865,000 farm operators in the nation and they employ 5,975,000 laborers.

Warehouses Being Built

Ft. Worth, Tex., Aug. 29. —Farmers, merchants, bankers and other business men in approximately fifty Texas communities are organizing for the purpose of constructing warehouses to store cotton thru the present European crisis. At the headquarters of the Farmers' Union in this city, word has been received from the following places that mass meetings have been held and definite action taken toward the building of warehouses: Big Springs Carrollton, Carthage, Cleburne, Crandall, Dallas, Denton, Forney, Irving, Hillsboro, McKinney, Memphis, Milford, Mt. Vernon, Perrin and Salesville.

Never before in the history of Texas has there been more enthusiasm manifested in the marketing problems of the Texas farmer than at the present time. The Legislature is in session for the express purpose of enacting a warehouse bill which will permit cotton to be stored and money borrowed on it as collateral at a low rate of interest.

Auto Statistics.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 29.—American automobile manufacturers shipped a car to foreign countries every 15 minutes during 1913, and foreign autoists spent $40,000,000 in this country during that year for 30,000 automobiles, tires and parts, according to a report of the Department of Commerce and Labor. More than half the cars exported from this country last year were sold to Europe, although every country on the face of the earth bought autos from the United States.

There were approximately 380,000 automobiles built in the United States last year and they were valued at $90,000,000. The number of cars in use in this country at the present time is 1,300,000; the world's total is 1,920,000.

In Texas there are 55,000 automobiles and they are worth $62,000,000. Texas has one automobile to every 73 people.

Rate Increase Hearing.

Austin, Tex., Aug. 29.—November 23rd has been named as the date for the public hearing of the Texas railroads' application to increase their freight rates 15 per cent. This decision was made today by Chairman Mayfield of the Texas Railroad Commission. The notice of hearing is signed by all three members of the commission and contains the following two subjects which are to be considered:

1. Do the present rates of transportation yield to common carriers by railroads operating in the State of Texas adequate revenue?

2. If not, what general course will be pursued to meet the situation?

Many Texas roads are preparing statistics and other evidence showing why an increase should be granted. The consumer will be represented by counsel appointed by the state and shippers will also be present at the hearing.

AUGUST RAINFALL

Records at Commercial National Bank Show 4:40 Inches

The month of August this year has been unusual in several respects. In the matter of rainfall the month has been unlike any August in several years past. Another unusual feature is the fact that the weather during the month has been almost like spring of the year, and the nights are exceptionally cool.

In the matter of rainfall this August exceeds that of last year by 2.55 inches, the precipitation for 1914 being 4.40 inches, while that of last year was 1.85 inches. The rainfall to the first of September this year also exceeds that of 1913 for a like period by 4.47 inches, the totals being 14.43 and 18.90 inches.

The rainfall for the first eight months of 1913 and 1914 by months is as follows:

1913.
January	0.00
February	0.00
March	1.17
April	1.80
May	2.45
June	6.86
July	.30
August	1.85

1914.
January	.10
February	.20
March	1.05
April	2.70
May	6.45
June	4.00
July	4.40
August	4.40

While the rainfall of this year does not very greatly exceed that of last, yet, as will be seen from the above, it was more evenly distributed through the crop-growing period, being unusually good in July and August, months which ordinarily are notably dry.

Just at present, crop conditions throughout the country are excellent, cotton in many sections being the best in history. Very little or no complaint of insect pests has been heard.

A CONFESSION

Hopes Her Statement, Made Public, will Help Other Women.

Hines, Ala.—"I must confess," says Mrs. Eula Mae Reid, of this place, "that Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done me a great deal of good."

Before I commenced using Cardui, I would spit up everything I ate. I had a tired, sleepy feeling all the time, and was irregular. I could hardly drag around, and would have severe headaches continuously.

Since taking Cardui, I have entirely quit spitting up what I eat. Everything seems to digest all right, and I have gained 10 pounds in weight.

If you are a victim of any of the numerous ills so common to your sex, it is wrong to suffer.

For half a century, Cardui has been relieving just such ills, as is proven by the thousands of letters, similar to the above, which pour into our office, year by year.

Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients which act specifically on the womanly constitution, and helps build the weakened organs back to health and strength.

Cardui has helped others, and will help you, too. Get a bottle today. You won't regret it. Your druggist sells it.

FIRE PREVENTION.

By S. W. English, Austin, Texas, State Fire Marshal.

Spasmodic efforts at reform immediately following disasters and conflagrations, such as the Ft. Worth fire in 1909, in which some 300 structures were destroyed, or the disastrous fire of 1912 in Houston, in which $5,000,000 of values were wiped out, are not sufficient to place our house permanently in order for the prevention of such visitations.

Each city and town in Texas should adopt and rigidly enforce a building law prohibiting the erection of combustible structures, particularly in or adjacent to the heavy value districts, and one that will permanently banish from the corporate limits the tin and brick-on-edge flue, and the wooden shingle roof. The promiscuous burning of trash in the open should not be countenanced, and the sale or use of ordinary parlor matches ought to be made a finable offense.

What I want to know is: Can the state give me the number of the orto? Hit was a red one, with a white man in it and going like hell, so to speak."—Waco Morning News.

FACTS ABOUT TEXAS CITIES

(Editor's Note—This is one of a series of articles dealing with Texas cities, their past history, present advantages and future possibilities.)

FACTS ABOUT POST CITY.

By J. T. Pinkston, Secy. Post City Chamber of Commerce.

Post, the county seat of Garza county, was named for C. W. Post of Battle Creek, Michigan, and was personally planned and laid out by him.

Only a few years ago Mr. Post purchased a large amount of land, situated partly upon the lower and more largely upon the upper plains, and upon this land established Post City.

During the past six years a thrifty town has been built, with beautiful graded and parked streets, 66 miles of shade trees, a $140,000 waterworks system, a $16,000, eight-room, stone school building, substantial and commodious churches, a well-built brick and stone business section, a sanitarium with an equipment second to none in the state, a $100,000 power plant equipped to supply electricity and power for commercial purposes, a cotton gin, a cotton mill manufacturing finished sheets and pillow cases, representing an investment of $600,000 and now in operation with a pay roll of $1,500 per week. Several additional enterprises are being favorably considered.

The town is served by what is now the main line of the Santa Fe railroad, running from Galveston to the Pacific coast.

The Texas State Fair, 1914

Getting in readiness for the State Fair at Dallas, which opens Saturday, Oct. 17 and closes Nov. 1, is not only progressing in fine shape, but all heads of departments, including directors and secretaries, are working overtime in rounding up everything in fine shape for the opening of the best of all fairs and exhibitions ever held in Texas.

Mr. R. A. Ferris, as director of the Agricultural exhibit, declares that fine progress is being made as to entries in that department. When considered that space for increased exhibits has been provided for this year, with increased premiums aggregating fully $80,000, as well as an increase in absolutely new attractions and amusements of the highest standard, every one of our readers can rest assured that the State Fair for 1914 is going to be some fair.

In the individual exhibits of farm products, some very attractive displays may be looked for as the premiums are made quite generous for these individual exhibits of corn, cotton, small grains and any other farm products from one farm in Texas, crop of 1914, besides a special premium by the Texas Land and Mortgage Co. Ltd. of Dallas has been added to the premiums as offered by the Texas State Fair.

Inasmuch as the board of directors adopted as their slogan this year, "A Different Fair" every person going to Dallas for the purpose of taking in the "big" show will not be disappointed, and will see so many interesting "sights" that they will wonder and marvel at the signs of progress and prosperity being made throughout this great commonwealth.
