At the Opera House

Manager Levy of the Brady opera house announces No. 10 of the "Adventures of Kathryn" on Saturday night, entitled "The Warrior Maid." This is said to be one of the most thrilling installments of this great series of pictures, and is one which makes you gasp for breath many times during the action of the play.

Tomorrow (Wednesday) night the motion pictures which were taken here at the time Col. A. L. Westgard was here logging the Colorado-to-the-Gulf highway, a few months ago, will be shown at the opera house. The entire picture consists of three reels, and will be of unusual interest locally. D. E. Colp, a prominent leader in the move for the establishing of this highway, will accompany the picture and give an interesting lecture in connection.

We will pay 3c per pound for clean cotton rags delivered at the plant. Brady Water & Light Works.

New Improvements

The construction crew of the West Texas Telephone Co., was here last week making some repairs on the local plant. On their way down from Brownwood new poles on the toll line were set, and on the return trip a new copper wire will be strung.

Completion of this work will give the West Texas three copper lines between here and Brownwood, and enable them to give much better and quicker service to their patrons.

DISTRICT COURT MEETS

SEPTEMBER TERM CONVENED YESTERDAY

Grand Jury Empaneled; Court Settles Down to Steady Grind; Blackburn Case on Trial

The September term of district court was convened yesterday afternoon at 1:30, Judge John W. Goodwin of Brownwood presiding.

The following grand jurors were sworn in: W. W. Henderson, Voca; W. L. Cain, Melvin; J. Henry Smith, Pear Valley; J. T. Smith, Lohn, W. D. Walker, Waldrip, P. D. Jordan, Lohn, D. A. Roper, Rochelle, George Darley, Voca, F. W. Otte, Camp San Saba, J. A. Harkrider, Nine, A. C. Baze, foreman, Brady; I. G. Abney, Brady.

In charging the grand jury Judge Goodwin stressed no particular subject, but called on the body to diligently investigate all rumored violations of law, but not to disturb the people at this busy season any more than could be possibly helped. He stated that, although he had heard of no violations in this county, he had always made it his practice to call attention of grand juries throughout his district of five counties to the local option law of the state, and asked that this jury look carefully into any reported violations. He also called attention to the fact that a prisoner was confined in the county jail to await action of the grand jury, and suggested that his case be taken up first, in order that he might be released if no bill is found against him.

The following bailiffs were chosen by the grand jury and sworn in by Judge Goodwin.

John M. Duke, door bailiff.
Jeff Meers, walking bailiff.
A. J. Beasley of Mercury, Marion Deans of Voca and J. B. Morgeson of Camp San Saba, riding bailiffs.

The criminal docket was taken up and the case of the state vs. Jim Smith (col.) charged with murder, was called. District Attorney Early announced to the court that he would later enter a motion for dismissal of this case, and asked that it be passed. An order was entered on the docket accordingly.

The case of Deliah Crumbley, charged with theft of cattle was also passed to the next term.

The State of Texas vs. E. E. Blackburn, theft of cattle, was next called, and both the state and defendant announced ready for trial, and the selection of a jury began. The following were chosen to try the case: Wes A. Townsend, Lewis Birk, W. R. Cox, V. B. Deaton, L. J. Abernathy, J. H. Marshall, Lee Jones, C. B. Whitehead, H. R. Hodges, H. N. Davis, H. D. Martin, J. R. Harrell. The evidence was completed this morning, and the case will go to the jury this afternoon.

The defendant is represented by Judge Joe A. Adkins of this city and Judge J. O. Woodward of Coleman. District Attorney Walter Early is assisted by County Attorney C. C. House in the prosecution.

The next case on the docket is that of Newton Worrell, charged with cattle theft and this case will likely be taken up this afternoon.

One new face is to be seen among court attaches at this term—that of Tom Leach of Brownwood, who has recently been appointed stenographer for this district. Mr. Leach is a former district clerk of Brown county, and expert stenographer. He succeeds Charlie Miller, who has removed to Houston to engage in the practice of law.

Fifty-two New Gins

Georgetown, Tex., Sept. 19.—To gin the 1913 cotton crop of Texas required 4,352 gins, according to data just compiled by the United States department of commerce and labor. This is an increase over 1912 of 52 gins.

Each Texas gin last year turned out an average of 872 bales, while the year previous the average was 1,083 bales per gin. Last year there were 343 cotton gins in this state reported idle during the entire season, but it is reported that this number will be greatly increased during 1914, as many of the establishments are making repairs preparatory to opening for operation for the 1914 crop.

How Editors Get Rich

After a great deal of worry and study we have at last figured out how many country editors make so much money. There happens to be a child born in the neighborhood, as is sometimes the case. The good old family doctor gets $10. The editor gives the youngster a send off in the paper and gets $0. It is christened and the minister gets $5, and the editor gets $00 and a chunk of cussin' for getting the preacher's name wrong in the paper. It grows and naturally gets married. The editor publishes another long-winded flowery article about "the beautiful and accomplished bride." The minister gets $10, and a piece of cake. The editor gets $000, and the bride's father cuts out his subscription because the war is on in Europe. In the course of time she dies. The doctor gets from $50 to $300, the minister gets $25, the undertaker gets from $50 to $300, the editor publishes a notice of death and an obituary two columns long, large resolutions, a lot of poetry and a card of thanks and gets $0,000. No wonder so many editors get rich.—Exchange.

Special Announcement

To all patrons, parents or guardians who desire to send their boys and girls to college, and who are unable to secure the cash at this time, please note the following proposition, made by the Trustees of Howard Payne College:

We will accept your cotton, grading middling and above, at ten cents per pound in payment for either tuition or board, but, of course, the boarding must be done at our Dormitory. The boys can get their meals at the Dormitory, and the girls meals and rooms. We could not, of course, pay any money at this price, but we will take cotton as stated above. If the cotton is not yet picked, we will take your note until you turn the cotton over to us.

Howard Payne College now has a College faculty second to nothing in the state. Our fine arts faculty cannot be surpassed this side of the great conservatories of the north and east.

Note, particularly, this one fact: For this year, free tuition will be given to every girl in Domestic Science and Domestic Arts, provided that girl takes any one full course in literary, music, art or commercial.

Write us promptly, freely and frankly, and whatever we can do to help you, we will gladly do.

Remember that Howard Payne College is now a full Senior College granting all college degrees.

Our recent opening, considering the hard existing conditions, was absolutely great.

J. M. CARROLL,
President Howard Payne College, Brownwood, Texas.

Accidentally Shot.

Word was received here last week of the accidental shooting of Pryor, the small son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Simmons, at Eagle Lake, last Wednesday.

The accident occurred when the child climbed onto a chair and attempted to get some picture books from a shelf on which a revolver was lying. In getting the books, the pistol was raked off, fell to the floor and was discharged, the bullet striking the little fellow in the fleshy part of the leg.

While the wound is not considered serious yet it caused much pain, and no little anxiety upon the part of his parents.

Mrs. Simmons is a guest of Mrs. C. T. White of this city, and in company with her son, was a guest of Mrs. White a few weeks ago.

Deepest Well in Texas

Austin, Tex., Sept. 19. — The deepest hole ever bored in Texas soil is at Spur, in Dickens county, and extends into the ground for a distance of 4,489 feet, nearly one mile.

The hole was bored by S. M. Swenson & Sons in search of a water supply for the city of Spur and as a general exploration of the formations for the vicinity. It required five years and seven months to drill the hole and the experiment cost $50,000.

After encountering practically every formation known to geology, the project was abandoned last November, after losing a part of the drill in the hole.

The project has attracted attention all over the nation and many experts of the United States government have investigated it. The University of Texas has prepared a bulletin dealing with the exploration in detail and it makes an excellent reference book as it contains first-hand information on the stratigraphy of a section covering one-fifth the area of Texas.

Order your Suit from Kirk, and be sure you are right. You have no chance to run, you know that you are right. Nuf-Sed, the old reliable.

We will pay 3c per pound for clean cotton rags delivered at the plant. Brady Water & Light Works.

BRADY, TEXAS, Sept. 22, 1914

The rest cure for men at the summer hotels usually consists in swapping ideas on making money.

The college students haven't pitched much hay the past summer. It might lame their pitching arm.

Don't be sad about school beginning, kiddlets! Think of the fun you'll have playing tricks on teacher.

Owing to the fact that they have just had a vacation, many people are now forced to take a week off for rest.

At the cattle shows, the cattle can usually be found over in some little pen back of the horse jockey's quarters.

The young men home from college have been helping dad by swinging the pretty summer boarders in the hammock.

The sufferings of some of the tourists in Europe, with all their baggage lost but six or eight trunks, excite much compassion.

Some of the women's pages continue to publish instructions about putting up jams and jellies, when what the housekeepers want is points on auction bridge.

Emergency Aid to Farmers Austin, Tex., Sept. 19.—When Gov. Colquitt signed the emergency warehouse bill, which provides for a system of state-owned cotton warehouses, he gave to Texas the distinction of being the first and only state in the union to aid farmers by legislative enactment during the present European crisis.
The legislature was called together in extraordinary session to consider this one measure and the bill was passed by both houses by more than the two-thirds majority necessary in this state to enact an emergency law. The emergency bill became a law when signed by the governor, but it will probably be substituted by a permanent statute when the legislature meets in regular session next January.

CHANCE OF A LIFETIME

Doesn't it strike you that while Texas is raising a wonderful crop of cotton, Europe is providing a crop of widows, orphans, wooden-legged men, want and destitution? Is it not also true that things, expected and unexpected, will result from the war? One of the unexpected things therefrom is that the mistakes of the past in solving the cotton problem are laid aside for the practical working of a "buy-a-bale" and warehouse cooperation between business men, citizens and farmers that if carried out, not only this year, but others, will deliver the cotton planter from the woes of unloading on a falling market, and with him the city merchant from sharing in this misfortune; for their interests are mutual. In this time of a helping hand in trouble it will be noticed that Rears-Soebuck & Co., of Chicago, are nowhere quoted as "buying-a-bale" or caring what becomes of the farmer. Other unexpected things will result of tremendous import and as little dreamed of.
There are, however, inevitable results that may be foreseen now. One of these is that the farmers of the United States will pretty nearly have to feed the world next year and that those who produce horses, cattle, hogs or other farm products will share in the millions of dollars which the world-wide shortage will ultimately cause.

Not since the civil war has the farmer faced such a possible drain on his productive capacity or a time when the United States must become the storehouse of the world, with Europe clamoring for beef, bacon, grain and bread. Many hogs will mean much profit next year. And now—not later—is the time to prepare.

Now, this month, is the time to get ready to reach out for this bank account. Deep plowing in the fall, disc harrowed to retain moisture and fine the seed bed. The best selected seed will pay better than ever before, for oats, wheat and corn are in the throes of war, and the visible supply of the world will be short if not wiped out.
The strife for grain is becoming sharper already and high prices seem assured next year.

The armies of Europe are said to have been consuming 12,000 tons of food for the past 30 days. In time of peace England's wheat crop is but one-fifth her needs. Germany and Austria do not supply their own needs when at peace.
France and her colonies produce an adequate supply under like circumstances. Russia's wheat crop last year was 2,000,000-000 bushels—over twice that of the United States this year—with other large crops of rye, oats and potatoes. But evidently Russia will not be able to harvest this nor plant next year any such crop.

The undisturbed food producers are Canada, Argentine and the United States.

Horses, like men are being swept off the face of the earth.
Who is to replace them? It is said the American hog is the great mortgage lifter—it will be a wise farmer who has a small string of colts to help the hogs next spring. Again, now is the time to prepare. If we begin at once it will take some years to replenish the ranks of the horses killed in war.

If ever there was a time when farmers could reduce cotton acreage with profit and if there was a time when everybody had money, it should be next year.

But, now—not later—is the time to prepare. There is a time to make hay and holy writ declares there is a time of salvation. There is a time to plow and a time to seed, but it's many, many years since there was such a time to prepare as now. We have at stake our agricultural and manufacturing profits and supremacy; our leadership and our hopes. There is folly in grieving over this year's misfortunes. In our willingness and ability to meet conditions inevitably coming, lies the star of hope. Let us go forth, each man to get his share.

NEAR DEATH BY SMOTHERING

But Husband, With Aid of Cardui, Effects Her Deliverance.

Draper, N. C.—Mrs. Helen Dalton, of this place, says: "I suffered for years, with pains in my left side, and would often almost smother to death."

Medicines patched me up for awhile but then I would get worse again. Finally, my husband decided he wanted me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, so he bought me a bottle and I began using it.
It did me more good than all the medicines I had taken.

I have induced many of my friends to try Cardui, and they all say they have been benefited by its use. "There never has been, and never will be, a medicine to compare with Cardui. I believe it is a good medicine for all womanly troubles."

For over 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings and building weak women up to health and strength.

If you are a woman, give it a fair trial.
It should surely help you, as it has a million others.

Splendid Medicine Stomach Trouble

I Suffered for Several Years Peruna Restored My Health

Mrs. Elizabeth Reuther, No. 538 Twelfth St., N. W., Washington, D. C., writes: "I am pleased to endorse Peruna as a splendid medicine for catarrh and stomach trouble, from which I suffered for several years. I took it for several months and at the end of that time found my health was restored and have felt splendidly ever since. I now take it when I contract a cold and it soon rids the system of any catarrhal tendencies."

Over Ten Years Ago.

"I would not be without Peruna. Although it was over ten years ago that I first gave you my testimonial, I am of the same opinion as when I wrote it, and give you the privilege to use it as you see fit. I still use Peruna when I think it necessary. I am recommending it to my neighbors whenever a chance occurs."

WAR TAX $120,000,000

Freight Shipments and Beer to Bear the Burden.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 19.—An effort is being made by congress to levy a war tax of $100,000,000 to make up the deficit in imports due to the European war. It is proposed that the freight shipments bear -65,000,000 and beer $35,000,000. The transportation collection agency of the shrillp panies are used merely as a collection agency of the fund and are to be compensated for their services. Beer is to bear an additional tax of 50 cents per barrel and the manufacturers of domestic wines also come in for a share of the tax burden. As an additional relief for war conditions senate leaders announce that the rivers and harbors appropriation bill will probably be reduced $25,000,000.

We take this method of thanking our many friends and patrons for the large number of letters we have received telling us of the truly wonderful results gained by the use of Hunt's Lightning Oil in the treatment of Rheumatism, Neuralgia and other character of pain. A Fable.

Saladin in Eden Echo:

There once lived in a far land a strong young man who was noble, good and kind. Although poor, he was not tempted when one day a neighbor said to him: "Come with me and we will seize a treasure of which I know and you can then ride a fine horse and fare well." "No," he replied, "such would not be mine," and he turned back to his cottage. Some weeks later, a man called him aside at dusk and said: "You are very strong, and tomorrow a band of rich pilgrims pass through the valley with gold and rich offerings; let us waylay, kill and rob them."

He answered, "Nay, I want neither blood nor the gold of others; it is not mine."

Next came a man with a blanket, a pair of great boots, a sword, a gun with a long bayonet on it, and said:

"Leave your wife and children to die or starve as they may; come with me to another land and we will war upon the people there and kill the men, the women and children; we will burn and destroy, pillage and plunder, and great will be the glory."

The simple young man said, "Nay, we have a treaty in writing and those people have harmed me not. I am at peace with them," and turned to go.

The messenger clutched his arm:

"Have you religion," "Yes," he answered. "Have you patriotism?" "Yes."

"Then in the name of religion and patriotism, our king calls on you to do the things I have said."

And then he went.
