

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE

Miss Nettie Hufstuttler Swallows Carbolic Acid

Miss Nettie Hufstuttler, a young girl about 17 years of age, attempted suicide Monday night at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Will Nabers, by swallowing a small quantity of carbolic acid.

Sheriff J. C. Wall had a subpoena for the young woman as a material witness in a case being investigated by County Attorney C. C. House, and went to the Nabers home to take her to the court house for examination. When told that she was wanted she asked Mr. Wall that she be allowed to go to her room and change her clothing and take a dose of medicine. Her request was granted; however, Mr. Wall was suspicious of the young woman's actions, and crept up to the door of her room just in time to hear her raise the window and throw something into the yard. He then threw open the door and found the woman almost ready to collapse.

When accused of taking poison she protested that she had not done so, but the fumes of the acid were unmistakable, and Sheriff Wall telephoned at once for a physician, who promptly administered the usual antidote, and within a short time the patient was pronounced out of danger.

The woman's parents reside about sixteen miles east of San Saba, and they were notified of the attempt made upon her life. An uncle came to Brady after her Tuesday and left Wednesday morning with her for home.

An inspiring old-time revival has just been closed at Salt Gap by Rev. E. R. Gentry of Brooksmith and Bro. B. C. Dillon of Oklahoma, for the people of the Nazarine church. The meetings were conducted for three weeks during Christmas time, ten professions were had, and an inspiration left behind that will long remain. Bros. Dillon and Gentry left many warm friends behind who had learned to love them during their ministrations.

Opera House Reopens Tonight.

After being closed since last Monday for improvements, the Brady opera house will reopen Friday night with "The Million Dollar Mystery" as attraction. The work of making the opera house something Brady may well be proud of has not been undertaken because Manager Levy has been making money rapidly, but as the result of a struggle on his part to give Brady an opera house a little better than anything this side of Ft. Worth, population considered, and to add to the comfort of patrons. This work has furnished employment for five citizens, required over 1,000 yards of canvas, 385 rolls of wallpaper exclusive of trimmings, and 5,000 feet of lumber. Another matter deserving of appreciation is that in future an officer will be maintained by Mr. Levy to preserve the best of decorum.

"White Dove's Sacrifice" an Indian feature in three reels will be Saturday night's bill.

A NEAR SUICIDE

Miss Ethel Dempsey Attempts to End Live with Carbolic Acid

"Please send for my people. I am tired of living." These were the words written on a scrap of paper by Miss Ethel Dempsey yesterday morning about 11:45, shortly before she swallowed a quantity of carbolic acid in the mercantile establishment of S. A. Benham on the east side of the public square, in an attempt to end her life.

Less than five minutes before the commission of her rash act, the young woman walked into the Jones Drug Co. store, next door to the Benham store, and called for a bottle of carbolic acid. After making the purchase, she went into the Benham store and asked for pen, ink and paper, saying that she wanted to write a note. She was directed to the desk in the back of the store, where she sat plating suicide, and she was told that there was none of the drug in the house. She made similar requests in at least two other homes before reaching the business section.

The young woman was taken to the home of her grandfather, Wm. Dempsey, in the eastern part of the city, as soon as she was pronounced out of danger, and is said to be making speedy recovery.

To Parents and Teachers for Our Boys and Girls

To the Parents and Teachers of Brady Public Schools:

This is a day of organizations. Societies have multiplied till there is seemingly no end to them. But I wish to call your attention to the "Parent-Teachers' club of Brady." I think the greatest question before the citizens of Brady at this, as at all times, is: What shall we do with our boys and girls? It is not the meat and bread question, though that looms up before us all; it is not whether we shall be able to give them a 40-acre lot and a mule when they are grown, or leave them a goodly sum when we die, but what shall we make of them in character and ability for future usefulness in the world? To make real men and women of our boys and girls is our highest and most sacred employment. I fear that many parents and teachers have not fully appreciated this great work; 75 per cent of the chances of success and usefulness of our boys and girls depend upon the way they are trained in their early lives.

The future of the children of Brady is in the hands of the parents and teachers. Do we realize this as we should? Are the parents and teachers in hearty sympathy and co-operation in this work? Is it not a fact that we are too far apart and too critical? The Parent-Teachers' club has for its object the mutual understanding and sympathy necessary to the successful training of our children. Every parent and teacher of Brady should belong to this club, which meets on Friday afternoon following the first Sunday in each month. Come help us in this work.

Home Destroyed by Fire

The home of C. S. Pence, located about six miles north of Brady, was totally destroyed by fire about 8 o'clock Wednesday morning of last week.

The fire was discovered by Mr. Pence, who was out at the barn feeding his stock, and when first seen the flames were just breaking through the roof of the building. All of the contents were saved, with the assistance of neighbors, even to the floor coverings.

The loss is estimated at $800 or $1000, with no insurance on either the building or contents.

Mr. Pence has let the contract for a handsome new seven room residence to be erected on the site of the old building.

Mrs. Benham was alone in the store when the young woman came in, and was engaged in work near the front, and paid no attention to her after directing her to the desk.

A few minutes later Mrs. Benham heard a bottle strike the floor and the young woman called to her to send for her father, and saw her sink to the floor. A physician was quickly summoned from the drug store and after about thirty minutes hard work, pronounced the victim out of danger.

That the determination to kill herself was well-founded in her mind was learned later when it was found that the woman had called at a number of residences in the south part of town earlier in the morning, asking for carbolic acid at each place. Her actions at one home, at least, caused the lady of the house to suspicion that she was contem-

ABOUT SUDAN GRASS

Looks Like Slender Cane, Stools, and Stands Much Drought

Technically Sudan grass is a sorghum, and is supposed to be the parent type of all the cultivated sorghums. It is about a second cousin to Johnson grass, but is a much more respectable member of the community and has absolutely none of the bad habits which have made Johnson grass an outlaw and a vagabond.

In appearance it looks a little like Amber cane, but is much more slender and graceful in appearance, about as tall, leaves more slender and lots more of them, stalks very fine, never larger than a lead pencil, and more often the size of a slate pencil. Not sweet like sorghum, but just sweet enough to make a splendid feed. Cures out readily, and makes the best of hay or fodder. All kinds of stock eat it greedily and thrive on it.

The characteristic thing about it is its habit of stooling. It acts like wheat, only more so. It makes anywhere from 12 to even 100 stalks from a single seed. They just keep on coming all summer until you have a bunch of them 6 inches through at the base. For this reason it should be seeded very thinly, in rows 2 feet apart, but 3 1-2 feet would be better. Three or four plants to each foot of row is enough.

It should be drilled rather shallow, after the ground is well warmed, say two weeks after corn-planting. Use 2 to 3 pounds of seed per acre. It grows slowly at first, but when hot weather comes it simply humps itself and is ready for hay in eight weeks from sowing, and ready to cut for seed in about thirteen weeks. It seeds heavily, and can be harvested and thrashed like any grain, but its greatest value is for hay. It should be cut as soon as it heads out, and can be cut two or three times more at intervals of about four weeks.

Frost kills it. It does not live over in the ground, and the seed will not come up volunteer.

It is strictly an annual. It will yield all the way from 4 to 10 tons per acre, the average being 7 tons where a crop of seed is had.

It was discovered in the Sudan country of Africa and has been tested out mostly in the Southwest, as its remarkable drought-resisting ability makes it very valuable in this region.

It is better than cane because it cures easier and will make more cuttings and is not so coarse. It will also stand drought better on thin land. Except for grain, it is better than Kaffir or milo.

Its greatest value is in the dry land of the west. As for drawbacks, it is said to have none, and failures, if any, are likely to be from planting too early, too deep and too thick. It is a little tall to handle with a grain binder, but a corn binder is all right, and so is a mower.

The seed is rather high priced as yet but it takes so little seed to the acre that the price does not make much difference.

There is one thing to be careful about. Be sure that you get seed that is guaranteed free from Johnson grass and from

A MAGNIFICENT WISH

Rev. John Power, in his New Year's greeting, published in Tuesday's Standard, preaches a whole sermon in one word, as follows: "That they may grow in grace and the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ, which is the only way I know of for a Christian man to have any happiness at all." One might, perhaps, question so broad an assertion, since the word "growth" signifies development, and the last clause of the quotation eliminates the possibility of happiness outside. A factor in the assertion is the word "Christian," which implies a knowledge already existing; thus reducing Rev. Power's sermon to the one word, "growth" or development, applicable to the Christian alone. It is short, yet pregnant, since nothing in all life stands still. Progression there must be, or retrogression—which is stagnation, assuring pollution and growth of evil, to the final rejection of the knowledge itself. In this one word sermon Rev. Power implies that religion is the incense of life, the sweet-smelling perfume of existence. That humanity lay, a crushed rosebud by the wayside, shedding its fragrance, e'en though ruined, to the Giver of its life. This, then, is the essence of his New Year wish: That, though crushed, utterly without hope elsewhere, ruined and undone, we may as the rosebud by the wayside render still greater fragrance to the Giver of life. That we may lay down at night with a clear conscience without a fear, or a gun under the pillow and unhaunted by faces to which we have brought trouble or pain. Blind to the faults of others except to kindly admonish, but keenly aware of our own. Deaf to the jingle of tainted money or the rustle of soiled skirts; young enough to laugh with our children and to lose one's self in their play. Happy in a Father's love! It's a magnificent wish couched in a word; the desire of all his colleagues; but difficult. Yet, realized, worth while, since one could look his neighbor, his wife and Maker in the eye with nothing to regret.

in politics, although not of that pugna variety usually expected (and found, too often) in publications of that political faith.

Mr. Savage is a capable newspaper man, and will doubtless meet with deserved success in his new venture.

Brownwood Chamber of Commerce, through the banks, has perfected arrangements by which it is hoped to stock Brown county with good brood sows. The fact that the people of that county last year spent more than three hundred thousand dollars for pork and pork products does not look good to them and this effort will be made to keep Brownwood cash at home. For farmers who are unable to finance the purchase of sows the banks will take a secured note due in one year, the interest on the note to be added to the face, thereby enabling the farmer to purchase the sow without any ready cash at all, and pay for it out of the profits.

F. J. Merriam, in the Southern Ruralist, suggests that in looking to other than cotton as a cash crop next year, farmers make pretty sure of themselves before entering upon an enterprise of this kind; that they grow only such crops as they feel will succeed, such as grain; oats, wheat, corn, peas, with beans, peanuts, feed-stuffs, hogs, horses, and cattle and every chicken possible. Cows would be encouraged to give more milk and the butter put up in square packages and wrapped in waxed paper to make it more attractive. He would grow truck, but in a limited way, keeping ever in mind the idea of where are you going to end up, before you start.

It isn't so much what Gov. Colquitt has said of Woodrow Wilson that need be remembered. But what farmers need to tuck away back in their heads is that nowadays they elect their senators as well as congressmen. When their support at the primaries is asked, they should brush the political dust out of their eyes and pledge such candidates to unreserved support of a merchant marine. Politics is a mirage; one is apt to grasp at shadows and miss the substance.

Church Attendance

Editor Brady Standard: The moral conditions of the world are judged by the actions and teachings of the moral or religious people. Moral sentiment is not religion and morality has never won heaven for anyone; but all Christianity is moral.

conscience ill at ease and are the emanations of a mind that knows better.

There are many people who are constantly neglecting their duty morally and religiously each week of the year who know better. If we judge the present by the past, and philosophers say that is the only way to judge, we find where the nations were faithful to God they prospered, and where unfaithful they suffered loss. Israel, I presume, would be admitted as unquestioned testimony in a discussion of this kind. You ask, "What is the matter with the nation today?" I would say its disobedience to God's government. Oppression financially in our own country, and war across the seas. The world is commercialized and wealth has its devotees regardless of how obtained. The old philosopher who went up and down the streets of his city at midday with a lighted lantern in search of an honest man needs to repeat his efforts, or have reinforcements to continue the search. This does not mean there are no honest men, but the world needs to know them. You find in all the walks of life a regretful dereliction. Suppose the business men of the nation were to lay aside their business for one day in the week, and coupled with this the people over whom they wield an influence, and attended church. The church buildings in the cities and country would not afford accommodations at the hours for religious services. Suppose the hours were indeed real hours of praise to God from every heart, what would be the results?

As it is, men prepare and maintain homes for their wives and children, but they themselves are boarders. Suppose the wife had a real husband, and he spent the evenings and Sundays with his family and in service to his Maker and forsook the daily callings of life and poured the tithes into the treasurehouse of the Lord, then in turn the Lord will pour out blessings upon the family, the city, the state and nation. What can we expect but hard times when sin reigns supreme? O, man; lost and without God in the world, look up; there is hope and a promise in this life and age for better things. For-sake sin, surrender to the Prince of Peace and bring salvation to yourself and prosperity to your country.

SHARP, STABBING PAINS

Often Tell of Weak Kidneys. The Following Statement Shows You What to Do.

The sharp twinge of pain in the small of the back that strikes you after any sudden twist or awkward motion, may tell of weak kidneys. And there are often disturbances of the urine—too frequent urination, scalding or burning pain during passage, discolored urine and sediment.

Doan's Kidney Pills are prepared especially for weakened kidneys, kidney backache and urinary disorders—have proven their merit in thousands of cases. Can Brady readers demand more convincing proof than the following:

W. L. McAllister, 722 E. Baker St., Brownwood, Texas, says: "I was seized with a sharp pain across my loins when I stooped. Nothing gave me relief and seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I got a supply. After taking one box, I felt great relief. I used a further supply and since then I have had no trouble."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. McAllister had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

HOT FIGHT ON TENANT LAW

Friends Say It Would be Crime to Fail to Pass Law.

The "tenant plank" in the Ferguson platform will be one of the important propositions to be discussed during the coming session of the 34th legislature.

Mr. E. A. Calvin, assistant manager of the board of supervisors under the permanent warehouse law, says it will be hotly contested. He asserts: "There will be 35,040 more farms operated in Texas by tenants than owners on April 15 next. As to the causes of the increase much has been said, and much more can be said, but in my judgment the primary cause is the inability of the tenant to buy land and pay for it. I know that there are many who scoff at this idea. I have come in contact with many thousands of tenant farmers in Texas, and I have yet my first one to meet who did not desire and was not willing to work for a home of his own. No one can deny that it is much more difficult to buy and pay for a home now than it was a quarter of a century ago, and it is becoming more difficult all the time. Many land holders are now charging the third and fourth and a bonus of from one to five dollars per acre besides. This, with the increased value of land, makes it necessary for a tenant to obtain his money from some other source than the soil if he expects to pay for a home.

"Many who object to fixing an arbitrary rental by law are preparing for a desperate fight on the rent plank of Governor Ferguson, contending that it is unjust. That a tenant can work twice as much smooth land as rough, and if the land is fertile, the smooth ought to be worth much more to the tenant than the rough, and therefore the landlord ought to be allowed to charge more for it. Why use the rough land as a basis for fixing rentals; why not use the smooth land? When a law is passed it will provide for a maximum rent of one-third and one-fourth and the minimum will naturally take care of itself. Tenants will rent smooth, fertile land at one-third and one-fourth as long as it lasts, and then if they can't do any better they will pay the same for rough. Governor Ferguson is the author and exponent of the tenant plank. He fought for it during the campaign, receiving the indorsement of the democrats of Texas. It would be a crime against democracy to fail to enact this piece of legislation."

STOP BUYING EXPENSIVE COUGH REMEDIES

Make the Best at Home

Money spent for the old style, ready-made, cough syrups in bottles holding only 2 to 2 1/2 ounces is very largely wasted, because most of them are composed principally of sugar and water. Yet you have to pay the same price as if it was all medicine. Stop wasting this money. You can make a better cough medicine at home at one-fifth the cost. Merely go to the Central Drug Store and ask for 2 ounces (50c worth) of Schiffmann's Concentrated Expecto-rant. Mix this with one pint of granulated sugar and one-half pint of boiling water, which makes a full pint (16 ounces). This new, simple, pleasant remedy is guaranteed to relieve the worst cough or cold. Also excellent for Bronchial Asthma, Whooping cough. One bottle will make enough home-made cough medicine to probably last the whole family the entire winter. Children like it, it is so pleasant to take and it positively contains no chloroform, opium, morphine or other narcotics, as do most cough mixtures. Keep it on hand in case of emergency and stop each cough before it gets a firm hold. The above druggist has been authorized to return the money in every single case where it does not give perfect satisfaction or is not found the best remedy ever used. Absolutely no risk is run in buying this remedy under this positive guarantee.

EXCEEDS AVERAGE

1914 Rainfall in McCulloch County More Than 29 Inches.

McCulloch county enjoyed one of the most seasonable years in her history during 1914, according to the records kept by Assistant Cashier S. S. Graham of the Commercial National bank. These records show that during the year just closed a total of 29.65 inches of rain fell here.

The fall and early winter months of 1913 brought an unusual amount of rain, the precipitation for October, November and December totaling 16.67 inches, thus putting an excellent season in the ground to start off the new year on. January and February of the past year proved the driest months while May was the wettest, with a total of 7.05 inches. August usually an exceedingly dry period in this country, proved the opposite during 1914, when the rainfall amounted to 5.10 inches.

July is the only month of the year in which no rain fell.

Following is the recorded rainfall for the year by months:

January	.10
February	.20
March	3.55
April	3.55
May	7.05
June	4.00
July	0.00
August	5.10
September	.25
October	4.70
November	2.60
December	1.05

Total 29.65
As will be seen from the above figures, the precipitation during the crop growing period was unusually heavy and accounts for the excellent yields in agricultural products.

The average yearly rainfall in this section of the state is 22 inches.

WISHED SHE COULD DIE

And Be Free From Her Troubles, but Finds Better Way.

Columbia, Tenn.—"Many a time," says Mrs. Jessie Sharp, of this place, "I wish I would die and be relieved of my suffering, from womanly troubles. I could not get up, without pulling at something to help me, and stayed in bed most of the time. I could not do my housework."

The least amount of work tired me out. My head would swim, and I would tremble for an hour or more. Finally, I took Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I am not bothered with pains any more, and I don't have to go to bed. In fact, I am sound and well of all my troubles."

Cardui goes to all the weak spots and helps to make them strong. It acts with nature—not against her. It is for the tired, nervous, irritable women, who feel as if everything were wrong, and need something to quiet their nerves and strengthen the worn-out system.

If you are a woman, suffering from any of the numerous symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. It will help you. At all druggists.

Big International Exposition's Amusements Novel and Wonderful

President Wilson Will Visit Panama-Pacific Display of Nations via Panama Canal—Vanderbilt Cup Race and Grand Prix Will Be Held In San Francisco.

By HAMILTON WRIGHT.
WONDERFUL and novel amusements, parades and pageants of the oriental countries, auto and yacht races and athletic contests will be observed upon a scale of unexampled magnitude and grandeur at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. The extensive participation of China, Japan, Siam and Indo and Cochina China, when taken in connection with the plans already made and with the interesting oriental population of San Francisco, assures such spectacles as have never before been seen in the occident. Pageants of miles in length set off by wonderful floats and marvelous pyrotechnics will wind through the streets of San Francisco. There will be held throughout the entire period of the Exposition, which opens Feb. 20, 1915, a series of great events, including sports and athletic contests of many kinds conducted upon a scale of great magnitude. The Vanderbilt Automobile Cup Race and the Grand Prix, the two supreme events of the automobile year, will be held upon a four mile course, embracing a circuit of the Exposition palace, a spectacular background far exceeding in beauty and grandeur any which ancient Rome beheld during its historic chariot races. The Vanderbilt Cup Race will take place on Feb. 22 and the Grand Prix on Feb. 27, 1915. Great motorboats of the deep sea cruiser type will race for a $10,000 prize from New York through the Panama canal to the Golden Gate. A series of international yacht races in the twenty-one meter class will be held in San Francisco bay. President Woodrow Wilson, Emperor William of Germany and King George of England have each offered trophies in these events. Swimming, water polo, fly casting, canoeing, football, baseball and long distance foot racing are included in a series of more than 200 different kinds of contests. President Wilson himself will attend the Exposition, and it is probable the members of congress will attend in an especially chartered steamer.

Imagine, for the purposes of illustration, the interest, action and novelty of ten great circuses like Barnum & Bailey's combined into a single "greatest show on earth" and presented at ten times the cost of the single production and an idea is gained of the originality of this section. A total of more than eleven millions of dollars has been expended in its establishment. The concessions, as these less serious features of the Exposition are known, include a great open air panoramic reproduction of the Yellowstone National park and a similar representation of the Grand Canyon of Arizona, presented by two of the transcon-

THE FARMER'S INCOME

How Much Does the Average Farmer Make?

The answer to this puzzling question, says the Agricultural department of the U. S., has long been sought by experts, since it is the ultimate test of all systems of farm management. It is simple enough to calculate the cash profits received in the course of the year, but these do not measure the farmer's success.

The farm supplies him with much besides money—with food, shelter and fuel. For these things the city worker has to pay out a large part of his earnings. They must, therefore be included in any just estimate of the farmer's income.

In other words, the city worker is paid entirely in cash, the farmer partly in cash, partly directly in the necessities of life and partly in increase around the farm.

To obtain fuller knowledge of the value of this direct contribution from the farm, the department has recently concluded an investigation which included 438 farm families divided among ten states in different sections of the country. The investigators found that on these farms the cost of maintaining each grown person was on the average $176 a year. This sum was composed of the following items:

Dairy products, $21; pork $12; poultry and eggs, $12; garden, $10; beef, $6; fruit, $6; wood and coal, $13; groceries, $22; house rent, $28; labor, $46. Total $176.

Of this sum only about 22 per cent was paid out in cash. The remainder was furnished by the farm. The extent to which a farm can thus be made self-sustaining, made to supply the wants of the family without resorting to buying and selling, is indicated by conditions in an area of North Carolina.

In this area the average annual value of the food, fuel, oil, and shelter enjoyed by the farm family was $505. Of this sum the farm furnished directly $429, leaving only $76 to be purchased.

Food was, of course, the principal item. This amounted to $401.93, of which $330.65, or 82.3 per cent, was raised on the farm.

If it had not been, indeed, for such articles as tea, coffee, sugar, salt and other groceries which it was impossible to produce at home these farms might be called actually self-supporting.

Of the animal products, meat, poultry, milk, eggs, cheese, etc., 97.3 per cent were home made; of the fruits 98 per cent and of the vegetables 96.1 per cent. Of the other articles, however, and classed together as groceries, only 24 per cent was raised on the farm. The grocery bill was therefore the largest item in the cash expenditure.

This was even more apparent in other sections where the farms were less nearly self-sustaining than in this particular area. The bulk of the groceries was always bought but the total quantity depended to a great extent upon the quantity of animal products and vegetables raised on the farm.

Where these abounded the groceries diminished. From this it would seem that an obvious way to effect an important saving in expenses is to raise more vegetables and animal products on the farm.

Whether it is better to cut down expenses in this way or to increase receipts by concentrating attention on cash crops is one of the great problems in farm management the answer to which in each individual case depends upon local conditions. In the past, however, many farmers have not realized the existence of the alternative.

The two other important items in the cost of maintenance are house rent and labor. Both of these it is a common error to overlook in estimating the farmer's income. Since the house usually goes with the farm and the labor is performed by members of the family, both are taken for granted. This however, is obviously unfair. In the recent investigations, for example, the investigators found that $125 was a fair rental charge for the average farm house. The fact that the farmer does not have to pay out this sum is equivalent to adding $125 to his income.

With labor it is much the same. The members of the family secure by their labor comfort which they would otherwise have to buy; or to put it another way, if they did the work for somebody else they would be paid. As it is they pay themselves.

It is obvious, therefore, that what the farm furnishes directly in food, in fuel, in shelter, and in rent is an important part of the farm family's income.

On the other hand it must be remembered that the farmer has capital invested in his business, the interest on which must be earned before he can truly be said to be making money.

In the proper relation of the three factors, interest on the investment, cash receipts, and direct income from the farm, lies the secret of successful farming.

A Member of The Rebeccas A Bad Case of Nasal Catarrh Cured By Pe-ru-na.

That any case of nasal catarrh can be cured by an internal medicine is denied by some. Only a glance at our files would be necessary to convince any sane person that catarrh can be cured by the internal use of Peruna.

Mrs. Victoria Pickel, of Columbus, is a case of this sort. She had nasal catarrh very badly, and was cured by Peruna. We will let her tell her own story. Mrs. Victoria M. Pickel, 130 E. Mound Street, Columbus, Ohio, writes:

"I have been using Peruna for catarrh, having had a very aggravated case, so bad that it clogged the nasal organs. When I did get the nasal organs opened, the mucus would drop into my throat and make me very sick.

"A friend advised me to take Peruna, and after using four bottles I was cured. I have no trouble now, and am happy to say that I am enjoying the best of health and attending to my lodge duties, being a member of the Rebecca Lodge of Odd Fellows.

"I would recommend Peruna to those suffering with the same chronic trouble."

Better Cattle Market

The cattle market at Fort Worth had a slightly better movement Tuesday, more buyers were in action and stocker and feeder men cut down the available supply for packers. Country buyers made practically a clean sweep in the steer division and made good purchases of cows, heifers and calves. Shippers are not sending in many calves and buyers are being called upon to offer prices that look good. With an active market for stockers and feeders prices ranged from $6.50 to $7.20. In horses and mules trade was fairly brisk, a reasonable percentage being taken by foreign buyers. Choice draft horses sold at $210 to $300; fair to good, $100 to $190; good chunks $175 to $200; drivers, 100 up. Mules 14 1-2 hands, $100 to $120; 15 1-2 and 16 hands, $165 to $190; heavy 16 hands, $170 to $200.

Constipation a Penalty of Age

Nothing is so essential to health in advancing age as keeping the bowels open. It makes one feel younger and fresher and forestalls colds, piles, fevers, and other dependent ills.

Cathartics and purgatives are violent and drastic in action and should be avoided. A mild, effective laxative- tonic, recommended by physicians and thousands who have used it, is the combination of simple herbs with pepsin sold by druggists everywhere under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Pepsin Syrup. The price is fifty cents and one dollar a bottle. For a free trial bottle write to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 451 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

Bundick, one of the prominent farmers of the Lohn country, was a business visitor to the city today, and while here took advantage of the opportunity to advance his subscription to The Standard another year. Mr. Bundick is one of our good friends who appreciates The Standard and doesn't mind saying so. He says it comes in mighty handy in starting fires these cold morning and is worth the price for this use.

LOAN PLAN CONDEMNED

Says Real Cost to Borrower is 10 Per Cent.

The following statement, signed by W. D. Lewis and Peter Radford, President and Lecturer respectively of the Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union of America, will interest cotton growers:

"The complete failure of the $135,000,000 loan, which has been widely heralded to the public as a relief for the difficulties of the cotton farmers; the small relief granted through the 'buy-a-bale' movement; the incapacity of our legislative machinery to cope with the situation and the complete collapse of every effort put forth by government and the business interests to help the farmer, bring the sound thinking people of Texas face to face with the urgent necessity for concerted action in solving our marketing problems."

The Southern Ruralist says: "The Cotton Loan Fund plan was conceived in a sincere effort to relieve the cotton producer by private means after all hope of government aid was abandoned. It was twisted and perverted to its present shape by northern capitalists whose financial aid was deemed necessary."

"As originally proposed, the plan provided for the loan of 6 cents per pound on cotton directly to farmers upon insured cotton evidenced by certificates of approved warehouses. These certificates were to be given as collateral for notes payable February 1, 1916, at 6 per cent per annum. Had this plan been put into actual operation we believe it would have materially relieved the serious situation aggravated by our betrayal in Washington."

"Comparison of this original proposition with the perfected scheme now presented to Southern cotton growers is interesting. Here are its most salient features. 1. Loans may not be secured directly by producers, but will be accepted only through the agency of banks. 2. No loan will be made on less than 100-bale lots of cotton. It is impossible for the average farmer to receive these loans except through some middleman who can accumulate and hypothecate 100 or more bales of cotton. 3. Instead of 6 cents, or $30.00 per bale, the maximum loan is reduced to 5 cents, or $25.00 per bale. 4. The ostensible rate of interest remains at 6 per cent, as a lure, but from every loan 3 per cent is retained as an expense guarantee. True, it is promised that most of this reserve will be returned when the note is finally paid. Whatever may be the result of that contingency, the plain fact remains that the loan actually costs the borrower 6 per cent interest and 3 per cent reserve, beside storage charges, including insurance. This means that the real cost of the loan to the borrower is at least 10 cents on every dollar borrowed.

"The laws of most Southern states declare that interest above 8 per cent is usury and a crime. This loan scheme may have avoided the technical liability, but its perpetrators are certainly morally guilty of usury and deserve greater opprobrium because of the deceit exercised in perpetrating this bunco game.

"We believe the Southern farmer has too much sense and independence to be duped by this specious proposition offered by Wall street sharks. Of the eight members of the loan committee administering the fund, only two are from the South. Both of these have too repeatedly given proof of their disinterested devotion to the welfare of our section to be doubted in the present instance. They were simply outvoted by the Boston, New York, Philadelphia and Chicago representatives anxious to loan money on gilt edged security at 9 per cent.

"Here it is well to bear in mind that some of these philanthropists are the very same patriots who were conspicuous advisers of the secretary of the treasury when he reversed his original approval of government aid, insisting that all such efforts were 'unsound' and announced his approval of this 'Loan Fund Plan.'

"It was 'unsound' for the government to loan money—issue emergency currency in the greatest emergency of half a century—with bank endorsement. It was sound for private capitalists to do this same thing with money advanced to them by this same cautious administration.

"The last straw breaks the camel's back. Perhaps this one may break a few political necks."
