AT THE OPERA HOUSE

Gilson-Bradfield Co. Playing Return Engagement.

The same capable cast and the same high-class dramatic performance greeted a full house at the Brady Opera house last night, when the Gilson-Bradfield Co. opened a return engagement of three nights.

The opening bill was "The Woman of Mystery", an exceptionally strong emotional drama in four acts, with Miss Alice DeLane in the title role. This play afforded ample opportunity for the display of Miss DeLane's talent as an emotional actress of more than ordinary ability, and she more than made good in the part. The story told in the play is a beautiful one, depicting love of a mother for her only son, the lengths to which she will go for the happiness of that son, and is replete in intensely dramatic situations, but entirely free from "blood and thunder" features so common in many dramas.

A refined vein of comedy runs through the entire bill in the character of Victor Dubois, and Mr. Cash Blundell's interpretation of the part was most acceptable. Other members of the cast were in excellent form, and last night's presentation of "The Woman of Mystery" was one of the very best dramatic offerings of the season.

The company will close their engagement tomorrow night, at which time they present "Tempest and Sunshine," one of the strongest bills in their repertoire. For tonight the 4-act comedy drama, "Because She Loved Him So," will be presented.

For Friday night Manager Levy announces the 17th installment of "The Million Dollar Mystery," and on Saturday night a special three-part Kalem production entitled "The Arkansas Traveler," in addition to the regular installment of "The Trey of Hearts."

On Monday and Tuesday nights of next week Oscar Graham and his capable company will be the attraction, presenting "The Stumbling Block" and "A Prince of His Race."

Mr. Graham and company appeared here earlier in the season at which time it was demonstrated to local theatre-goers that the company was one of more than ordinary ability, and the announcement of their return engagement will be received with hearty approbation.

Goes to San Antonio

Brady citizens will be interested in the following clipping from the Brownwood Bulletin concerning the transferring of Rev. Fassbender to San Antonio:

"Rev. F. Fassbender, M. T., former pastor of St. Mary's Catholic church, has been transferred to San Antonio to replace Rev. C. Haas, who has been appointed to Brownwood. Rev. C. Haas, O. M. T., is not a stranger to our city. He was temporarily stationed here some ten years ago, when he was sent to Dallas to build up a new parish located in that city. After completing the erection of the parochial building in Dallas, he left for San Antonio, after having spent over $50,000 for the parish work in Dallas. While in San Antonio he taught as professor in the Theological Seminary and of Latin and Greek in St. Mary's high school."

"Because She Loved Him So."

The Abilene Daily Reporter of Feb. 4th has the following to say regarding "Because She Loved Him So" which will be presented by the Gilson-Bradfield Stock Co. at the Brady opera house tonight.

"Because She Loved Him So," a pleasing comedy, was presented by the Gilson-Bradfield Stock Company at the Jewel last night. This bill proved to be a comedy of much merit, and the audience enjoyed each act, judging from the applause. A young wife who was unreasonably jealous, quarrels constantly with her husband. The father and mother of the wife simulate a quarrel, hoping that it may show the young couple the foolishness of their constant wrangling, and eventually get into a quarrel themselves. The complications and lines were very laughable, and the play was well received. Those who had seen Miss De Lane as "Miss Ainslie" in "Lavender and Old Lace", could hardly realize that she was the jealous young wife in last night's play. This young actress is fast winning a reputation of much ability with those who have seen her in the last two bills at the Jewel.

BALANCE OF TRADE.

Brady Standard: The balance of trade is already $110,000,000 in our favor. This is a hypodermic injection of gold sure to cure pessimism.

The balance of trade is in America's favor, or rather in favor of the United States. Whatever portion is in "our" favor—the Brady editor and State Press—depends upon how much larger are our assets than our liabilities. The balance of trade might, indeed, be a billion dollars in this country's favor without being in the Brady brother's or S. P.'s favor at all. The only way to make the balance of trade favor us is for us to spend less than we get, to owe less than we can pay, to sell more than we buy. There is a sort of crazy school of finance in this country which teaches that a vague thing called credit is wealth, and that a man who has credit has property. But it is a fallacious and fatal theory. Credit is a lure. It is a jack-o'-lantern which leads men from well-beaten paths into hopeless bogs—where sooner or later the mosquitoes eat them up. Any man who has a hundred thousand dollars' worth of property and owes a hundred thousand dollars has credit. That is plainly evidenced by his debts. All the same, he is a poor man. A slight depreciation in the value of his holding wipes him off the board, for debts do not depreciate—they appreciate. On the other hand, it takes a very considerable rise in the value of his property to show him a net profit, for the interest on his liabilities usually outgrows the increment on his assets. The only hope for such a man is to scale down his living expenses and by careful husbandry create a balance of trade in his own favor. And there's the rub—that scaling-down thing is fierce! Some of us lecture the all-cotton farmer upon his foolish dependence on a single crop, a crop which seldom cashes in for enough to pay the cost of producing it. Yet each of us is in effect an all-cotton farmer—we each follow a single calling, and when we cast up accounts at the end of the year many of us discover that our labor or our business cashed-in for less than our year's living cost us. The result to us is the same as the result to the all-cotton farmer—debts, doubts, worries, suspicions, resentments. In some cases these crystallize into anarchy or despair or moral

COMMISSIONERS COURT

Big Volume of Business Disposed of at Session.

The February term of commissioners court convened here Monday afternoon, with all members present. A large amount of business has been disposed of by the court, this being one of the busiest sessions of the year.

Bids for county depository were received by the court, and after due consideration the Commercial National bank was named as depository of both county and school funds for a period of two years. The annual interest rate to be paid is 5 1/4 per cent on daily balances of county funds and 3 1/4 per cent on the school funds.

An order defining the boundaries of a public road district beginning at the corner of the Mercury State bank building was passed by the court.

The board of trustees of Mercury Common School District No. 11 were authorized to transfer the lots upon which the old school building was located to J. A. Austin in exchange for the lots on which the new building is being erected. The trustees were also empowered to dispose of the old school building at either public or private sale, as they deemed best, and to apply the proceeds to the erection of the new building.

The sum of $3.50 per month was allowed to G. C. Parker for rent on a building at Mercury now being used by the county as a paupers' home, and the clerk was authorized to draw warrant on the general fund each month for this amount.

Dr. J. S. Anderson of this city was selected by the court as County Health Officer, and he qualified for the position Tuesday.

An order was duly passed allowing W. F. Roberts, Sr., the sum of $75.00 for a strip of land near Lohn which will be used for public road purposes.

The quarterly report of Justice of the Peace T. J. King of Precinct No. 1 was examined and approved by the court, as were also the reports of Justice of the Peace J. M. Robinson and County Attorney C. C. House.

The butcher bond of J. T. T. Jones, in the sum of $500, with J. F. Tindel and J. T. Freeman as sureties was examined and approved.

The bond of the Commercial National bank as county depository, in the sum of $76,000, with W. D. Crothers, G. R. White D. F. Savage Lewis Brook, C. T. White and J. H. White as sureties, was approved by the court, as was also their bond in the sum of $35,000 as a depository of the school funds of the county, with the same sureties.

The contract for county printing for the year was awarded the Brady Sentinel on a bid of $20.

In addition to the disposition of regular routine business, the court also appointed overseers for the different road districts of the county and the presiding officers for the election of school trustees in the different school districts.

The business of the term will be finished at today's session and court will adjourn this afternoon.

STOLEN JEWELCASE FOUND

Little Box From Curry Store Recovered—Empty

The small, leather bound jewel case which was stolen from the window of the Curry jewelry store ten days ago, and in which were diamonds valued at $2,165, has been recovered—empty. The case was found by George Nevills and Sam Anderson, in a haystack on the Hal Hardeman farm north of town. There were no marks on the case, and nothing else pertaining to the robbery was found.

The two men who found the box were working with the hay on the Hardeman farm, and accidentally uncovered the box. It was taken to the jewelry store and identified by Jack Ragsdale as the case in which the stolen goods were contained when the window smasher made his haul. The discovery of the case has no particular value, further than to indicate that the robber went direct to the slough and then to the Frisco bridge on the Bayou after smashing the jewelry store window. Officers who are working on the case find it a very baffling one, but they still hope to uncover a clue that will become worth while.

So far no headway has been made in the effort of the officers though they had discovered a valuable clue following the robbery, but so far they have been unable to pick up the trail of the robber.—Brownwood Bulletin.

A CONFESSIO

Hopes Her Statement, Made Public, will Help Other Women.

Hines, Ala.—"I must confess," says Mrs. Eula Mae Reid, of this place, "that Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done me a great deal of good."

Before I commenced using Cardui, I would spit up everything I ate. I had a tired, sleepy feeling all the time, and was irregular. I could hardly drag around, and would have severe headaches continuously.

Since taking Cardui, I have entirely quit spitting up what I eat. Everything seems to digest all right, and I have gained 10 pounds in weight."

If you are a victim of any of the numerous ills so common to your sex, it is wrong to suffer.

For half a century, Cardui has been relieving just such ills, as is proven by the thousands of letters, similar to the above, which pour into our office, year by year.

Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients which act specifically on the womanly constitution, and helps build the weakened organs back to health and strength.

Returns to Brady.

Her many Brady and McCulloch county friends will be pleased to learn of the return of Miss Delwyr Douglas to again assume management of the millinery department of the Popular Dry Goods Co. store.

Miss Douglas was in charge of this department of the Popular during the spring season of 1914, and made a host of friends during her residence here, and Manager Striegler is congratulating himself upon the good fortune of again securing her services this year.

City Attorney Resigns.

Sam McCollum filed his resignation as City Attorney with City Secretary J. C. McShan, last Friday afternoon, the resignation being effective at once.

In his communication to the city council no reason for his action was offered by Mr. McCollum, but assurance was given that the relations between himself and the council had been most pleasant during his incumbency, and for which he was thankful.

To friends, Mr. McCollum stated that his only reason for resigning was that he had recently accepted the attorneyship for the Santa Fe Railway Co., and as the state anti-pass law prohibited the use of his pass over the road while serving in a public office, he deemed it to his best interests to resign as city attorney.

Mr. McCollum has served the city in this capacity a little less than a year, having been elected last April, and has discharged the duties of the office in a manner entirely acceptable to all. The announcement of his decision to retire from office is a matter of considerable regret on the part of the members of the city council and citizens of the city generally.

Formal action on the resignation will be taken by the council at the regular meeting to be held next Tuesday night, at which time his successor will also likely be named.

The following item from Tuesday's Brownwood Bulletin will be of interest locally. Rev. Ashmore having visited here last summer, at which time he delivered a sermon at the Christian church, and during his stay made a most favorable impression upon those with whom he came in contact:

"The new pastor of the First Christian Church arrived in Brownwood Saturday morning to take up his regular work. Mr. Ashmore is a graduate of Texas Christian University and is a schoolmate of our townsman R. H. Foster.

"Mr. Ashmore, like many of our best preachers, had to work his way through school, taking his degree in 1906, and after teaching and preaching for a time, re-entered school, taking a two years' special course.

"He comes to Brownwood from Rogers, Texas. While serving the Rogers church, he built up a strong congregation, over two hundred and forty having been added to the congregation during his ministry.

"He is especially fitted for the work at Brownwood, is an attractive speaker, and it is anticipated that he will do a great work here."

Outside Evidence

A newspaper photographer was busy at the Boston Navy Yard securing photos of the battleships getting ready for Mexican service, and the picture above is one he secured for his paper.

It would have been impossible for us to get such evidence of Texaco quality and service, so we secured one of the pictures from the photographer.

Naturally, active service means hard usage, difficulties and dangers. So there is keener inspection of stores and more microscopic examination of goods.

It is quite natural, therefore, for the photographer to have snapped his camera just as Texaco Products were being hoisted aboard the U. S. S. "Nebraska."

Texaco Quality and Service are known where the demand is for high quality and careful, prompt service.

Look for the Texaco Products in your own town. You can recognize them by the Red-Star-Green-T emblem of "made in Texas" fame.

They are just as valuable for you as they are for the navy. See our agent.

DISTRICT COURT.

February Term Convened—The Grand Jury Empaneled.

The February term of district court was convened at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, District Judge John W. Goodwin presiding.

The following grand jury was empaneled by Judge Goodwin: H. F. Winslow, J. A. F. Carroll, D. A. Hurd, Ernest Pool, S. W. Moffatt, J. L. Bratton, H. E. Anderson, E. U. Wade, H. L. Bratton, W. E. Simpson, D. Harkrider, Joseph Hanson. D. Harkrider was named as foreman of the grand jury.

The following bailiffs were selected by the grand jury: Door bailiff, J. M. Duke; walking bailiff, C. H. Bradley; riding bailiffs J. L. Lemons, C. W. Cole.

The criminal docket for the term was taken up and the case of the State vs Bill Mason called. A continuance by agreement was announced by District Attorney Walter Early.

The next case, that of State vs. Bob Hughes and Bob Sawyer, charged by indictment with theft of hog, was called. Judge Joe A. Adkins, attorney for the defendant, filed a motion for the trial of Sawyer first, and the motion was sustained. District attorney then filed a motion for the dismissal of the case against Sawyer, on the ground of insufficient evidence and the case was dismissed. The trial of Hughes was then taken up.

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and evacuate sour undigested food or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache, you can get blessed relief in five minutes.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula, plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases of Pape's Diapepsin, then you will understand why dyspeptic troubles of all kinds must go, and why they relieve sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. "Pape's Diapepsin" is harmless; tastes like candy, though each dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a hearty appetite; but what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stoach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many "Pape's Diapepsin" cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be enthusiastic about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever take it for indigestion, gases, heartburn, sourness, dyspepsia, or any stomach misery.

Get some now, this minute, and rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion in five minutes.

UGH! CALOMEL MAKES YOU DEATHLY SICK

Stop Using Dangerous Drug Before it Salivates You! It's Horrible!

You're bilious, sluggish, constipated and believe you need vile, dangerous calomel to start your liver and clean your bowels.

Here's my guarantee! Ask your druggist for a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go back to the store and get your money.

Take calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of harmless, vegetable Dodson's Liver Tone tonight and wake up feeling great. It's perfectly harmless, so give it to your children any time. It can't salivate, so let them eat anything afterwards.

Good Proposition.
