KELLEY GETS LIFE SENTENCE

Jury in Mason County District Court Renders Verdict Yesterday Afternoon---Prisoner Reaffirmed Public Statement---Evidence of Witness Condemns.

After deliberating several hours, the jury in the Kelley murder case at Mason yesterday afternoon returned a verdict as follows: "We, the jury, find the defendant guilty as charged, and assess him punishment at imprisonment for life."

The trial and conviction of Kelley disposes of one of the most sensational and brutal murder cases in this section of the state and also established a record for despatch in the trial of criminal offenses.

Kelley was arrested in Brady Friday afternoon, February 19th by Sheriff J. C. Wall, following the discovery of the horribly mutilated body of Hugh Chamberlain wrapped in a wagon sheet and secreted in a clump of underbrush at the roadside in the Mason mountains shortly before noon that day. The body was discovered by Jim Milligan, a freighter between Brady and Mason, who immediately notified Sheriff Baird of Mason.

The dead man, in company with Kelley, had passed through the town of Mason the previous day traveling in the direction of Brady, and the authorities had little difficulty in locating the murderer. Before reaching Brady Kelley disposed of a wagon and hack in which he and Chamberlain had been traveling, as well as trading one of the horses for a mule in an effort to elude the officers. Shortly after arriving here and before he was arrested by Sheriff Wall Kelley made another horse trade and the outfit in his possession when he was taken into custody was entirely different from that which passed through Mason the preceding day.

Kelley unhesitatingly admitted that he was the man wanted, and talked of the case freely. He admitted that he had killed Chamberlain while in camp on Katemcy creek on Thursday night, but refused to assign any reason for committing the crime or to give the details in connection therewith.

The following day he was taken to Mason by Sheriff Baird, where he has since been confined in the county jail awaiting trial.

A few days later the following statement was issued by Kelley:

"I am 24 years old. My father died when I was 12 years old. My mother is a widow and lives on Route 3, Box 31, Clarksville, Texas. I never had much show in life to get up in the world. We were all poor people and a big family, three boys and five girls. I was thrown on the world at about 15 without a guide, and have struggled hard to aid my mother and live myself. She is a good Christian woman and lives honestly and upright. I love her. About all in this world that I have done is this unfortunate affair for which I am now in jail. I regret it. It is awful to have to take the life of any man. God gave it. I cannot restore it. I was warned of Hugh Chamberlain. He was a traveling horse trader. At times I had been warned that he would do me up. I did not watch out, but I went on breaking horses, and riding bronchos was not a job easy found. I never had had trouble and was always able to get along with all classes of masters, so I stayed with him. I commenced work for him in December, 1914, and continued until his death.

"We were camped for the night near Katemcy late Thursday evening, the 18th of February; had a lantern. He put me to currying and blanketing the horses, four head. Before I got through he wanted me to make down his bed. I did not get at it fast enough and he began cursing me and calling me names, such hard names as not fit for print. I told him I would quit him. He said if I did not like it to hit the road. I said, all right, I would not stand such abuse, and asked him to pay me what he owed me.

"At this he grabbed a butcher knife, called me a very indecent name and applied to me such names that no decent man would take. He made at me as he spoke, with the butcher knife, to strike me. I grabbed the ax and struck him over the head twice before he fell. I had already got out my pocket knife and when he fell I jumped on him and cut him across the neck. I then thought I best bring him to Mason, and hitted up teams and put him in the hack and started. This was about 10 o'clock. As I went along I got afraid to come on in with him and unloaded on the road, and decided I would try to get away. The feeling I had in hauling a dead body along after night overcame me and I quit it. I have $130 currency, and $3.75 silver. All this is claimed for Mr. Chamberlain. I can't use it now. I am without money, clothing or friends and in jail, and I want a fair, just hearing. I am not a villain as some suppose. Do not judge me too severely."

In the trial of the case Kelley took the stand in his own defense and was subjected to a grilling cross-examination by the prosecution, but adhered to the facts as set out in his statement above. In explanation of Returns to Taylor.

A. Rosenberg, who for the past three months has been conducting a dry goods business in the Syndicate building, next door to Anderson & Moffatt's grocery, returned Tuesday night to his home in Taylor, having closed out his stock here.

Mr. Rosenberg has been engaged in the dry goods business in Taylor for many years and has one of the largest and most popular establishments in that city. On account of crop failures in Williamson county last year he decided to seek a new location for the establishment of a branch store, and after visiting a number of towns in this section of the state located here with a large stock of dry goods.

His selection proved most satisfactory from a business standpoint; so much so, in fact, that Mr. Rosenberg announced Tuesday afternoon that he expected to return here about August 1st and open up a large stock of goods. He is an enthusiastic booster for Brady and says that he wants to be numbered among her wide-awake and progressive citizenship.

TO INSTALL PLAYER.

Wurlitzer Flute-Piano Purchased by Opera House Manager.

Manager Julius Levy of the Brady Opera House returned yesterday morning from Dallas, to which place he went Sunday night to look after business matters in connection with the theatre.

While in Dallas Mr. Levy closed a deal for the purchase of a Wurlitzer Flute-Piano to be installed in the local playhouse, the shipment leaving Dallas on Wednesday morning. It is expected to arrive here tomorrow and will be installed immediately upon arrival.

The instrument is one of the latest model mechanical players made by the Wurlitzer factory and one which nearest approaches a real orchestra in the production of standard and popular music. In addition to the piano itself there are five other orchestral instruments, including mandolin, flute, triangle, bass and snare drum, and the full instrumentation may be used in unison or singly at the will of the operator.

The player was purchased at an outlay of several hundred dollars and is only one of the many improvements contemplated by Mr. Levy in giving patrons of the opera house the very best entertainment obtainable.

An attraction recently booked for the local playhouse and one which should prove of more than ordinary interest to the citizens is "The Belgian War" pictures in four reels of 4500 feet.

These films were actually made on the field of battle in this war-stricken country of Europe about six months ago, at a time when the fighting was fiercest, and is said to be one of the most thrilling pictures ever filmed. The actual photographing of the big battle scene was done by Edwin F. Weigle, staff photographer of the Chicago Tribune, under a special agreement with the Belgian government. By the terms of this agreement the Red Cross organization of Belgium is to receive one-half of the proceeds from the exploitation of these films, to be used as a relief fund for the unfortunate citizens of that country.

In addition to the battle scenes the picture shows the havoc wrought by the shells from the big German siege guns in the cities, towns and villages through which the Teutonic armies desperately fought their way in their effort to invade England.

In putting on this special feature, Mr. Levy has incurred an extra heavy expense—the price of the film alone being $50. In Chicago, New York and all the large cities of the north and east the uniform price of admission to theatres where the pictures were shown has been 25c, while here the prices of general admission have been placed at 10c and 25c, with reserved seats at 35c.

The pictures will be seen here only one day—Saturday, March 20th. Reserved seat sale at Jones Drug Co.

CLEANSSES YOUR HAIR; MAKES IT BEAUTIFUL

It Becomes Thick, Wavy, Lustrous and All Dandruff Disappears.

Surely try a "Danderine Hair Cleanse" if you wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; this will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil—in a few minutes you will be amazed. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and abundant and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance.

Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; invigorates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

You can surely have pretty, soft, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.

TAX INEQUALITIES.

Let the State Taxes be Equalized as Between the Counties.

State Tax Commissioner Love, as others before him, has called attention to the lack of uniformity in State taxation.

It is not inaccurate for him to use the phrase "lack of uniformity," but the real situation would have been more aptly stated if he had stressed the downright injustice of the present system. He has, however, given figures which adequately illustrate the point.

He mentions a group of twelve counties which have drawn from the school fund in six years the sum of $2,751,000, and in the same time have paid a total of State ad valorem and school taxes of $2,923,000.

In another group of twelve counties, the amount of taxes paid for all purposes during the six years was $12,622,000, against school fund benefits of $6,447,000.

The rank injustice of this lack of uniformity has been called to the attention of the people and of the legislature for a number of years, but nothing has been done to equalize the taxes.

The commissioner shows that the full rendition law which Gov. Campbell had enacted is a farce and that it can not be enforced which we have known all along. The assessments are not fair and never will be so long as it is left to each county to say what it shall pay to support the State government. Property is appraised according to local needs and influence. A rich county that needs little will assess its property at a fraction of the value, whereas other counties which need much, or are in debt, will assess at full value.

There are in many counties of Texas unimproved lands that may be bought for $15 to $20 an acre assessed for as much as the highly improved black lands of Ellis county, which boasts of being the richest county in Texas.

The outrageous injustice of such inequality has so far made little impression on the legislature.

The tax commissioner suggests two remedies: First, the separation of the sources of State and local tax revenues, which was long ago advocated by Gov. Colquitt; and, second, the creation of a State board of equalization.

The present situation is injurious both to the overburdened counties and to the counties which apparently prosper through the existing inequality. The advantages enjoyed by the latter counties deaden civic pride and enterprise, for they are uniformly behind the overburdened counties. For instance, Ellis county with all its shirking of its tax obligations to the State, has no such system of county education as Harris county has. It is burdened by a tenant system that chokes prosperity and strangles individualism and initiative. There are many counties in the same category.

Let the State taxes once be equalized as between the counties and there would no longer be a problem of supporting the State institutions and carrying forward the work of public education.

And we believe the growing menace of tenantry itself would find something approximating a remedy. There is nothing that encourages the landlord system so much as escaping taxation, and the tenants themselves ought to see this.—Houston Post.

COLDS

An up-to-date remedy for colds. That is what Peruna is. In successful use over 50 years.

Colds are caught in many ways: Ill ventilated rooms; rooms that have direct draughts; crowded rooms; damp houses; stuffy school rooms; offices ill heated.

A dose of Peruna at the right time, at the first symptom of cold, before the bones begin to ache, before the sore throat manifests itself, or the cough, or the discharge from the nose, just a dose or two of Peruna before these symptoms begin is generally sufficient. But after the cold is once established with the above symptoms prominent, a bottle of Peruna, or maybe two, will be necessary.

"For several years I have been troubled with colds at each change of season. I took Peruna and have not been troubled with the slightest cold this entire season." Mr. Harry Fisher, 1925 Mosher St., Baltimore, Md.

"I give the children Peruna if they have a cold, and it always relieves them." Mrs. J. D. Hayes, 1927 Druid Hill Ave., Baltimore, Md.

"When I feel a cold coming on I take a little Peruna, and it does me good." Mr. Charles S. Many, 12 Water St., Ossining, N. Y.

"No family should ever be without Peruna, for it is an unfailing cure for colds." Mrs. M. F. Jones, Burning Springs, Ky.

PROHIBITION ELECTION.

Tom Green County Votes on the Question March 31st.

The county commissioners in session on Monday afternoon ordered a prohibition election to be held on March 31 in Tom Green county. This was in pursuance of a petition duly signed by several hundred voters, and asking for such an election. Louis L. Farr, chairman of the Tom Green Prohibition Club, and R. A. Hall, representing the anti-prohibitionists, called on the county commissioners and stated that it was agreeable to both sides to order the election for March 31. This was ordered by the court.

There were only three present to open the session of the commissioners court, just a quorum. Commissioner Nasworthy being ill and Commissioner Allen not having reported as yet.—San Angelo Standard.

CLEAN-UP DAY.

Brady is due another "Clean-Up Day." And every town and every neighborhood and every community as well. No better work can be done, and at no period could there be greater opportunity for effective clean-up than right at the very beginning of Spring. As soon as the weather clears "Clean-Up Day" should be generally observed.

March 10th was proclaimed a general clean-up day throughout Texas by his excellency Gov. Jas. E. Ferguson, but inclement weather prevented the occasion being observed. Another day should be designated in each community, and with the hearty co-operation of every citizen, young or old, wonders will be accomplished.

Do not overlook the fact that the sooner you swat the refuse heaps and the stagnant pools after the advent of Springtime, the fewer will be the flies and the mosquitoes from that source—so swat them early and swat them hard.

AN APT ANSWER.

The Questions and Answers column editor of the Temple Telegram frequently gives some excellent replies to the questions propounded, and the following is worth more than passing notice.

STARVE PETER TO PAY PAUL.

We have no objection to the people of San Angelo paying $6,000 to be told of their wickedness for six weeks by Dr. Ham. It is none of our business. But we have often wondered if it would not be better to give the hard working, earnest home preacher, who lives among us visits us when we are sick and buries our dead when they are called away, just a little better salary and not spend so much on those "big guns" who travel through the country, get up a lot of excitement and then ride out in a Pullman car with their jeans full of the long green.

We are for anything that will make a community better, that will arouse in the population a greater respect for the pure, sweet, good things of life. Every thoughtful man must feel the need of a larger church attendance among the young people—boys and girls evolving into manhood and womanhood; it is discouraging to notice the lack of those who need the refining influences of Christianity most, at practically all the religious gatherings one attends. But we had rather have as a guide to follow, the every-day, year in and year-out example of some humble home preacher, whose sympathetic heart we had felt in trouble, whose tears of regret and love we had seen fall, than to be run into line for a season by a traveling revivalist, cracking a whip of scorching words unfit for utterance in a house of God. —Temple Mirror.

Loses Valuable Horse.

A. W. Keller sustained the loss of a valuable horse yesterday morning in an accident which occurred at his livery stable shortly before noon.

The horse was one of a team being used to a transfer carriage and the accident occurred when the horses were being unhitched after meeting the southbound Prisco passenger train. The carriage was stopped near the front of the building and in unhitching, the driver neglected to drop one of the tugs. When the horse started to his stall in the rear of the building, the carriage was pulled up against him and he started to run. In his frantic efforts to release himself he collided with a large post and was almost instantly killed.

The horse was one of the best owned by Mr. Keller and the loss of the animal is a severe one to him.

Delicious Fruit.

The Standard acknowledges the receipt Monday of a box of pears from our good friend, J. T. Roberson of Wonder, Oregon. Accompanying the box was a note which follows: "I am sending you by parcel post a few pears, just for the oddity of it. They are the most inferior variety we have as to eating quality, but the only variety that will keep all winter. Hence the oddity."

J. T. may be correct about them keeping all winter in Oregon, but we can assure him that they did not last long in Texas, and if the quality was the most inferior, then we say that Oregon is "some punkins" on pears.

Parent-Teachers Association.

On account of unfavorable weather conditions the program arranged for the meeting of the Parent-Teachers association at the Central school building last week was not carried out, but was postponed to the next regular meeting.
 The association will meet next Wednesday afternoon at the school building, and all members are urged to be present, as steps will be taken to secure the necessary funds for placing seats in the auditorium of the Central building.

Five Hundred Club.

Miss Gillie Macy was hostess to the members of the Five Hundred club and a few invited guests at the meeting last Friday afternoon.
 Three tables of players enjoyed an exciting series of Five Hundred in which club prize—a dainty crocheted work bag—was won by Mrs. C. T. White and guest prize—a deck of cards—by Miss Alice Ballou of Hamilton.
 A delicious refreshment course consisting of chicken salad, sandwiches, ripe olives, salted pecans and steaming hot tea was served by the hostess during the afternoon.
 Club members present included the following: Mesdames S. W. Moffatt, J. R. Stone, J. G. McCall, J. S. Wall, C. T. White, R. G. Prater; Miss Elizabeth

Souther. Guests of the club for the afternoon were: Mesdames G. C. Kirk, C. D. Allen; Misses Rose Stallings, Lillian Roberts, Alice Ballou and Ida Mae Souther.
 The club will meet this afternoon with Mrs. J. G. McCall.

Messrs. and Mesdames J. A. Bevans and J. T. Mann left Monday morning in the Bevans car for San Antonio to attend the cattlemen's convention. A telephone message to friends here Monday night stated that the party had been delayed at Fredericksburg by the breaking of a spring and they did not reach San Antonio until Tuesday night.

One way to relieve habitual constipation is to take regularly a mild laxative. Doan's Regulets are recommended for this purpose; 25c a box at all drug stores.
 Brady Standard for typewriter oil.

Big Shipment Received.

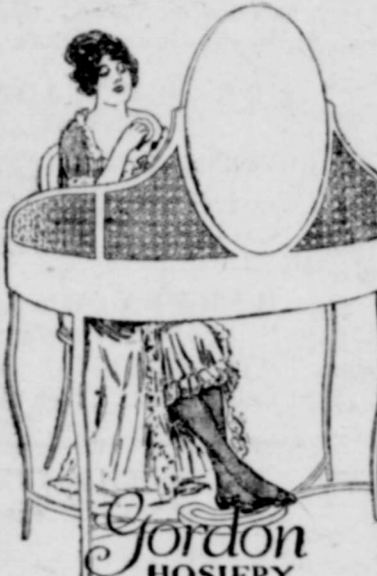

The Brady Auto Co yesterday unloaded a car load of Buick automobiles, the shipment consisting of five cars, coming direct from the factory at Detroit, Mich.
 In the lot was one 6-cylinder 7-passenger Model 55, one model 37, 4-cylinder, 5-passenger, one Model 36 roadster and two 5-passenger model 25's. Four of these cars have been sold to local parties, but the names of purchasers are withheld until delivery is made.
 A car load of Fords was also received and unloaded yesterday by Wm. Connolly & Co., local agents. The shipment consisted of seven touring cars and one roadster and the entire lot has already been sold.
 Manager Hallum of the Brady Auto Co. reports prospects as the brightest in the history of his firm, and states that his only difficulty now is to secure the cars to fill his orders.

Ed. Bryson returned yesterday afternoon from San Antonio, where he attended the meeting of the Texas Cattle Raisers' association. Mr. Bryson reports one of the best meetings in the history of the association, with an unusually large number of delegates in attendance from all parts of the state, as well as visitors from other states. The next place of meeting had not been named at the time Mr. Bryson left, but Houston seemed to have the best chances of securing the 1916 meeting, although Fort Worth, it is understood, will make a determined fight for the honor.

how he came into possession of the large sum of money which he had at the time of his arrest here Kelley swore that he had won all the money Chamberlain had with the exception of $70, playing "coon can." After the killing had occurred and the body had been disposed of he found this $70 secreted in the bedding and took possession of it. A former traveling companion of the dead man testified that Chamberlain never played cards at all and that Kelley had boastfully told him in Fredericksburg a week before the killing that he would some day "get everything old Chamberlain had" and would then write to him to come and join him. Kelley stoutly denied having made this statement, however.
 A number of witnesses from Dallas county, the former home of Chamberlain, were in attendance at the trial, but none of them were placed on the stand. Kelley was the only witness put on by the defense.
 Judge Clarence Martin of Fredericksburg was employed by relatives of Chamberlain to assist District Attorney Dayton Moses in the prosecution. Judge Joe A. Adkins of this city and S. C. Rowe of Ft. Worth represented the defendant by appointment of District Judge Stubbs.

Woman's Missionary Society.

The Mission Study Class will meet at the Methodist church Monday, March 15, at 3 p. m.
 The third chapter in the Mission Study book will be the lesson for that day. Below are the questions:
 Why do the Indians regard white as the color of majesty?
 What titles are applied to the President of the U. S. and others?
 How do the red men account for the superiority of the whites?
 Describe the dwelling built by the different tribes.
 Name ways in which the Indian has proven himself adaptable to his surroundings.
 Did the early Indians know anything about woven fabrics?
 How did the Indian procure and prepare his food?
 Contrast the habits of the Indians with those of the white man.
 Do you think it strange that the red man was unable to understand his white neighbor?
 What ideas of the white man has the Indian accepted?
 Name some of the white man's ideas that the Indian has rejected.
 Does the traveler today often come into contact with the old-style Indian?
 What effect has brushing elbows with civilization had upon the Indian?
 Describe the latter day Indian.
 Whom does the old Indian blame for degeneracy among his people?
 What positions do Indians hold in some white settlements?
 What opinions are expressed by different individuals concerning the Indian?
 What is termed an educated Indian by his critics?
 What question has given rise to many controversies?

 In what year did the nation take steps toward the support of Indian schools?
 How much is now spent on their educational system?
 What are the author's reasons for favoring day schools?
 Name ways in which boarding school life unfits the children for life in the Indian camps.
 What was the object in allowing the mingling of the races at school?
 What changes are taking place in the army and other places?
 Who established an employment agency for the Indian?
 What plan was tried on reservations where rations have been abolished?
 Was the plan a success?
 Are You Rheumatic?—Try Sloan's.

Men's Furnishings Fine Tailoring

Take Notice of Your ---Collars---

We have recently installed one of the New Prosperity Collar Moulders—the same machine that is used in all the large Laundries in the cities.

This machine moulds your turn-over collars to the proper shape. There is no rub or friction on the edge.

The top edge of the collar, where it is turned over is not sharp but slightly rounded. More space is given all along between the inside and the outside of the collar. Thus you will find there is ample tie space, and it is easy to adjust the tie to the proper position.

Notice the smooth edge—every collar just the same. A collar with a rough edge is an impossibility.

Rub old, honest "St. Jacob's Oil" whenever you have sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism or sprains, as it is absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

Manager Levy Captures the Missing "Trey O' Hearts."

Manager Levy, returned from Dallas, had a world of difficulty in securing the episode missing last Saturday in the "Trey O' Hearts." The trouble lies in this that if an episode fails to arrive there are no open dates ahead by which it can be returned, and in order that Brady patrons of the opera house might not be disappointed it was necessary the date elsewhere be cancelled, at considerable expense to Levy. This was done and Saturday night the "runaway 5th" and the 6th episodes and one other reel, making five, will be shown. This sample of the trouble and expense Mr. Levy is going to to please patrons should be appreciated. Saturday night, for the two features, will be 10c and 25c.

Tonight (Friday) the 20th episode of "The Million Dollar Mystery" will be the feature.

On Tuesday, March 23, "Lucile Love," an exciting feature detective story will start and continue each Tuesday thereafter.

10 CENT "CASCARETS" STRAIGHTEN YOU UP

Tonight! Clean Your Bowels and End Headaches, Colds, Sour Stomach.

Get a 10-cent box now.

Turn the rascals out—the headache, biliousness, indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and bad colds—turn them out tonight and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels, or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse your stomach; remove the sour, fermenting food; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret tonight straightens you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from any drug store means a clear head, sweet stomach and clean, healthy liver and bowel action for months. Children love Cascarets because they never gripe or sicken.

Painfully Injured.

C. A. Trigg, manager of Jones Drug Co., was the victim of a painful, though not serious accident Wednesday afternoon, as a result of which he was deprived of a small quantity of cuticle on the upper lip, and is forced to carry his nose in a sling.

While returning to the store from dinner, and in descending the hill near his home, Mr. Trigg's feet became entangled in a mass of baling wire and he was thrown to the ground with considerable force. So unexpectedly was he thrown that he had no time to put out his hands, and his head struck the ground with such force as to cut a deep gash in his lip and nose.

The wounds bled profusely, but prompt medical attention was given and aside from a little soreness and the inconvenience of having to look over a nose of double normal size, Mr. Trigg is none the worse for his experience.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSION SOCIETY.

Schools for Mountain People.

The women of the Southern Methodist Church operate two schools for mountain boys and girls—the Sue Bennett Memorial at London, Ky., and the Brevard Institute at Brevard, N. C. The origin, growth and present status of these institutions make an interesting story.

Miss Sue Bennett, one of the first active members of the Women's Parsonage and Home Mission Society and one of the ten members of the Central Committee which governed the work of the society, first agitated the need of a church school for the mountain boys and girls of Southeastern Kentucky. She had done no more than talk to friends about this need when money began to come to her as an earnest of what would come to pass. Her death cut short these plans; but the women of Kentucky had caught the vision, and at the next session of the central committee they were granted the privilege of opening a mountain school which should be a memorial to her whose vision had incited action.

Laurel county seemed the most propitious location; and so some of the citizens of London, Ky., the county seat, furnished sufficient inducement to determine the committee to build there. Twenty-five acres on a beautiful hill crest overlooking the valley around was given for the campus, and in the fall of 1897 the school was opened. Seventy-five students responded to the first roll call. The succeeding eighteen years have seen more than twenty-three hundred students enrolled. Five large buildings and eight cottages have been erected, and the property is now valued at $80,000. The school has graded, high school, normal, music, and commercial departments, and the total enrollment is well over six hundred.

Not only has it touched the lives of the students, but through the Normal department it furnishes 80 per cent of the teachers of the country schools. The Sue Bennett school takes a positive stand on all moral and religious questions, and the Word of God is a textbook in the hands of every student. The work done through the teaching of agriculture and domestic science has been a factor in building up the economic and industrial life of the people.

Prof. J. C. Lewis and his good wife have been at the head of the school since its establishment.—Missionary Voice.

STOMACH TROUBLES

Mr. Ragland Writes Interesting Letter on This Subject.

Madison Heights, Va.—Mr. Chas. A. Ragland, of this place, writes: "I have been taking Theford's Black-Draught for indigestion, and other stomach troubles, also colds, and find it to be the very best medicine I have ever used."

After taking Black-Draught for a few days, I always feel like a new man." Nervousness, nausea, heartburn, pain in pit of stomach, and a feeling of fullness after eating, are sure symptoms of stomach trouble, and should be given the proper treatment, as your strength and health depend very largely upon your food and its digestion.

To get quick and permanent relief from these ailments, you should take a medicine of known curative merit.

Its 75 years of splendid success, in the treatment of just such troubles, proves the real merit of Theford's Black-Draught. Safe, pleasant, gentle in action, and without bad after-effects, it is sure to benefit both young and old. For sale everywhere. Price 25c.

Constipation a Penalty of Age

Nothing is so essential to health in advancing age as keeping the bowels open. It makes one feel younger and fersher and forestalls colds, fevers, and other dependent ills.

Cathartics and purgatives are violent and drastic in action and should be avoided. A mild, effective laxative- tonic, recommended by physicians and thousands who have used it, is the combination of simple herbs with pepsin sold by druggists everywhere under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. The price is fifty cents and one dollar a bottle. For a free trial bottle write to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 451 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

Wm. Connolly Accompanied by Citizens to Make Tour.

Accompanied by a number of business and professional men of the city, Wm. Connolly, representing the state department of Agriculture, will visit several communities in McCulloch county during the week of March 15, for the purpose of organizing Co-operative Marketing Bureaus among the farmers, Baby Beef and Hog Clubs for the boys and girls, and Egg Clubs among the smaller boys and girls.

Mr. Connolly was in Brady about two weeks ago, enroute to Llano county, where he organized similar clubs and made arrangements with the board of directors of the Commercial Club to return at any time they should name for a systematic campaign of every community in the county.

The directors appointed County Superintendent E. L. White as a committee to arrange the itinerary for the party, and to properly advertise the meetings at the places to be visited. At each of the places to be visited Mr. Connolly, who, by-the-way, is a successful farmer himself, will address the farmers on the work being done by the Co-operative Marketing Bureau of the Texas State Bonded Warehouse Commission, and show to them wherein they may reap the benefits which the perfected system of marketing their surplus products will give. Mr. Connolly is a most forceful and entertaining speaker, is thoroughly in love with the work in which he is engaged and never fails to impress his audiences with the fact that he is one of them and willing and anxious to assist them in every possible manner.

A number of illustrated lectures on rural schools will be given during the week by County Superintendent White, these addresses being features of the night meetings. Mr. White has made an exhaustive study of rural school conditions throughout the United States during the past few years, and is well qualified to talk on this subject. A large picture machine has been secured by Mr. White and scenes from different parts of the country in which matters pertaining to improved school conditions are depicted will add interest to his lectures.

The party will travel in automobiles, and will visit an average of two communities each day during the week. Those who are expected to make the trip, in addition to Mr. Connolly and Supt. White, are as follows:

H. P. Roddie, Secretary T. P. Grant of the Commercial club, G. V. Ganzel, F. M. Newman, D. F. Savage, H. F. Schwenker and Sam Moffatt.
