FIND PETRIFIED BODY.

INDIGESTION OR GAS Found Near Brownwood By a Farmer.

> Brownwood was greatly ... cited Thursday morning by the news that a petrified body had been found near town. It was said that the body was that of a boy apparently about 17 years old, and that every feature of the body was perfect. A party of county and local physicians went to the scene and examined the find, and were inclined to pronounce it the first genuine specimen of petrified human being that had ever been discov-

The find was made by Rice Stewart, on his farm near the Frisco stock pens, three miles west of Brownwood.

When the body was first examined hastily there was little ever, a more careful examination by several physicians disclosed evidences which cause a doubt as to the genuineness of the theory of petrification.

District Attorney W. U. Early returned Thursday night from Brady, where he has been attending district court, for me purpose of conducting an inquest following the finding yesterday of what purports to be

"I am being criticized for attempting to hold an inquest over this dead and petrified body," today, "but I feel that it is my form is petrified met death by being murdered, the arrow head in his ear showing this beyond doubt. It is the duty of the officers, therefore, to make a due investigation, regardless of criticism.
