Blaze Tuesday.

An incipient blaze at the Embury gin late Tuesday afternoon caused a "hurry up" call to be sent in to the fire department, and the fire boys were on the scene with the big fire engine almost before the echoes of the "wild cat" fire alarm had died away. The chemical hose was laid and supplemented by hand extinguishers, the blaze was soon extinguished.

The fire originated in some seed cotton in the seed conveyor, but no damage was done, aside from the loss of the cotton by fire and water damage. Mr. Embury estimates the loss at $150, covered by insurance.

The fire in no way obstructed the ginning, which was resumed immediately after the fire was put out.

Shoulder Broken.

Clarence, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Summers, suffered a broken shoulder Wednesday at school. The lad was playing with others and in running, fell with another boy on top of him, the broken bone being the net result. While the injury occasioned him considerable pain and worry, he is nevertheless able to be about very much as usual.

COTTON GINNINGS.

Nearing 3,000 Bale Mark in Brady to Date.

Up to last night the local gins reported ginnings as follows:

Embry Gin	861
Brady Gin	972
Koerth Gin	1028
Total	2861

The pretty weather is conducive to the rapid movement of the fleecy staple, and the past week or two has been busy times with the ginner, the hum of the gin saws sounding until far into the night. With a continuance of the present good weather the greater proportion of the cotton will soon be out.

KIMBLE COUNTY DEAL.

R. E. Knox Buys 1700 Acre Ranch From John Hill.

R. D. Dyer yesterday closed a deal between John Hill and R. E. Knox of Lee county, wherein the latter is purchaser of Mr. Hill's Kimble county ranch. The deal calls for 1720 acres at $7.50 per acre.

Mr. Knox also leased 500 acres of grass land adjoining the town of Junction from T. M. Hodges. Mr. Knox is a brother of F. A. Knox of this city, and expects shortly to move his family here from Lee county and take up his residence on his newly acquired ranch.

COMPRESS FIGURES.

Compare More Than Favorably With Those of 1914.

Supt. R. W. Lee of the Brady Compress Co. reports compress figures up to Wednesday night, October 13th, as follows:

Bales pressed	4368
Bales received	6971
Bales on hand	2341

These figures compare with those of last year as follows:

Bales pressed	3499
Bales received	5183
Bales on hand	1684

The first run of the compress was made on September 4th. As will be noticed, in spite of the retarded season this year, the figures show up much better than those of last year when the continued rainy weather stopped cotton movement for a considerable period.

However, this season is certain to be much shorter than last year's, Mr. Lee estimating the shortage at about 40 per cent.

NEW THEORY AS TO SHOCK

Medical Man Points Out Some Flaws in Beliefs That Have Been Generally Accepted.

In an article on intestinal stasis printed in the Medical Record, Dr. Frank R. Starkey of Philadelphia advanced a new hypothesis as to what "shock" is.

"What is this mysterious condition of depression which we call shock?" he asked. "In view of the radical changes that have taken place in our understanding of physics since the advent of the electronic theory we know that the different physical manifestations of matter are simply differences in the vibration of the component electrons. The difference between the individuality of persons is not merely one of physiognomy or corporeal peculiarities, but their personality depends upon the rate of their electronic vibrations. The human body is naught else but an aggregation of cells, each a world within itself, made up of various components which are finally composed of electrons vibrating in perfect unison and the entire organization attuned to vibrate in one harmonious whole.

"In view of all this, why should it not be reasonable and rational to define shock as a disturbance in the normal vibrations of the electrons of the organism? This would certainly conform to our recent knowledge."

POOR SPORT FOR THE HUNTER

Hippopotamus Hard to "Bag," and Really Worth Little When He Has Been Secured.

There are two ways of bagging a hippopotamus, says a writer in the Wide World, and neither is justified unless the sportsman is sorely in want of food, for its meat is very poor indeed, and wants a good deal of preparation to be palatable to anyone except the starving. It has a taste I can only describe as fishy—something of what beef would taste like after being wrapped up for a couple of days with a Scotch haddock of doubtful freshness. The hippo may be shot in water; when mortally wounded he will sink, and will not reappear on the surface for several hours, consequently a tiring lookout has to be kept for the carcass. If he is only slightly wounded he may charge, but more often he will flee and die in the reeds, or serve as food for scavenger birds or crocodiles. The other and more sporting way is to shoot him on land. This is, as a rule, only possible at night, or late in the evening or early in the morning. It would not be wise to find oneself between the river and the wounded hippo, for he at once makes for the water by the shortest route, and he goes so fast that getting out of his way requires pretty speedy feet and great coolness of nerve.

A Famous Shot.

A good story is told on a trading agent in Nyassaland. He was obsessed with a particularly real horror of lions. One of these brutes began to eat up the natives of the nearby village, doing terrible havoc. The agent barricaded himself in his room and slept with six native watchmen on duty in case the lion should try to break into his house. One night he thought he heard the lion prowling around, and promptly fired out of the window, knocking a hole in the government boat. The following morning he was astonished to see what had happened. That night he again heard sounds which seemed to foretell the presence of the lion. He seized his rifle and fired, and this time succeeded in bagging the district officer's favorite mule at the first shot. A certain well-known sportsman, who shall be nameless, was hunting in the district and heard the story. He wrote to the agent and congratulated him on shooting his first lion. The agent rose to the occasion, and now silences all skeptics by producing the letter. He has since acquired quite a reputation as a lion-hunter on the strength of this testimonial.—Capt. W. Robert Foran, in the American Boy.

Live Dangerously.

I rejoice in all signs that a more manly, more warlike age is beginning, which will before all things, bring bravery once more into repute! For I must prepare the way for a still older age, and store up the force necessary to it—that age which shall carry heroism into the domain of knowledge and wage wars on behalf of deas and their consequences. . . . Believe me, the secret of extracting the greatest profit and enjoyment from existence is this: Live dangerously! Build your cities on Vesuvius! Launch your ships on uncharted seas! Live at war with your equals and with yourselves! Be robbers and conquerors, ye enlightened ones, so long as ye cannot be rulers and possessors.—From "The Joyful Wisdom," by Friedrich Nietzsche.

Sure to Get What He Wanted.

The doctor told him he needed carbohydrates, proteins, and above all, something nitrogenous. The doctor mentioned a long list of foods for him to eat. He staggered out and grabbed into a restaurant. "How about beefsteak?" he asked the waiter. "Is that nitrogenous?" "The waiter didn't know." "Are fried potatoes rich in carbohydrates or not?"

The waiter couldn't say. "Well, I'll fix it," declared the poor man in despair. "Bring me a large plate of hash."

GIRLS! DRAW A MOIST CLOTH THROUGH HAIR, DOUBLE ITS BEAUTY

Try This! Hair Gets Thick, Glossy, Wavy and Beautiful At Once.

Immediate?—Yes! Certain? that's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a Danderine hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it, surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and just try it.

Considerable alarm was felt in Brady Tuesday when a report became current that Mrs. Bert Huribut had been killed or fatally injured in a runaway accident in Brownwood. Later reports dispelled the alarm, however. The Brownwood Bulletin chronicles the accident as follows: "In a runaway on Center avenue at noon, Mrs. Bert E. Huribut, Miss Edith Snyder and Mrs. Galloway were thrown from the buggy and all sustained minor bruises, though none were seriously hurt. The buggy was badly damaged when it collided with a telephone pole. The ponies hitched to the buggy became frightened when the pole dropped from the neckyoke."

Get a 10-cent box now.

Furred tongue, bad colds, indigestion, sallow skin and miserable headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. ### THE JOINT INSTITUTE.

The joint institute for the teachers of McCulloch, Mason, Concho and Menard counties will convene Monday. This is a reminder that every citizen of Brady should lend his aid in the care and entertainment of the teachers. Brady citizens should feel highly complimented that our city has been selected as the gathering place of 200 teachers, and it is our duty to make this gathering so agreeable as to leave no doubt when it comes to again selecting a place to hold the joint institute that Brady is THE place.

Brady citizens should open their homes to the teachers, and see that a good comfortable rooming and boarding place is provided for every visitor—room and board should be maintained at a reasonable figure. There is nothing that will so quickly give a town a "black eye" as exorbitant charges in any line.

We fully believe Brady citizens realize this, and furthermore we believe that Brady citizens are not of the Shylock type that stands ready to exact the last penny a service is worth.

With active co-operation given the Parent-Teachers association, we believe the joint institute in Brady will be one of the most successful, for teachers and for the town, that has ever been held.

Just to show how alive the business establishments in the larger cities are to opportunities for advertising themselves and their business, we mention the fact that The Standard yesterday received a letter from a prominent hotel in Kansas City announcing the registration there of a prominent Brady citizen, the letter stating that such information might be of interest to Bradyites. The letter was not a stereotyped form, but was a personal message written on the lithographed stationery of the hotel. When it is taken into consideration that this hotel very likely sends out scores of such letters each day to the newspapers of the various towns from which its guests register, it will be realized to what lengths and to what trouble and expense these business men are willing to put themselves in order to receive publicity which may result to their ultimate benefit. Then when you begin to think that advertising is an expense, just jot it down in your note book that the man who knows, knows advertising only as an investment, the returns from which are always sure to bring profits.

THE DALLAS FAIR.

Next Monday is "Press Day" at the Dallas fair—an occasion in which a large per cent of the newspaper men of Texas participate. The first Monday of the fair has so long been set aside for the newspaper craft that many of the old-timers would as soon think of failing to observe Christmas as to fail to be in attendance upon Press day at the fair.

The state fair directors never fail to provide abundantly for the welfare, comforts and conveniences of the newspaper folks, and stand ready to acknowledge that the great success of the fair is partly attributable to the interest and boosting qualities of the press. On their part the newspaper men appreciate the courtesies extended them, and there is never a member of the fraternity but what has a kind word to say for the fair and the great work it is doing in exploiting Texas and her resources.

The following bit of pleasantly indulged in by State Press of the Dallas News strikes the key note of the newspaper men's friendly attitude toward the Dallas fair:

"Walter B. Whitman, president of the Texas Press Association, bids every press person in Texas to remember that Oct. 18 is Press day at the Dallas fair. The fair association, Walter promises, will serve a noonday luncheon complimentary to the editors, all the shows, etc., will be free for the newspaper men, and the aviator, Art Smith, will make a special flight for them at night. Jess Willard will be among the special attractions for Press day. The program certainly reads good. But that 'etc.' thing, so glibly mentioned by Mr. Whitman—what is that etc. thing? State Press is not a bit fastidious or hypercritical or superfinicky, but he will have to know more about the etc. before he lends complete indorsement to the program."

INFORMATION WANTED.

Reads an ad in one of the Ft. Worth papers: "My average receipts from sale of mailing lists to a list of 550 mail order houses has been $90 monthly for nearly three years." The information we would like to have is this: If the mailing lists supplied by one man in one town are worth on an average of $90 monthly for a period of three years to 550 mail order houses, what ought newspaper advertising be worth to local merchant?

As a reminder that neighboring towns are alive to the need and benefit of boosting, we call attention to the fact that Mason, our neighbor to the south, recently was one of a number of towns whose advantages were set forth by ads in the Sunday edition of the San Antonio Express. The advertisement called attention to the fact that Mason was on the Puget Sound to the Gulf highway; that the roads in the county were being improved in a marvelous manner; that not only was the county appropriating money, but that every man, woman and child was interested in the nation-wide enterprise. It is such publicity as this that brings results to a community. No man who seeks a new location desires to locate in a dead and gone to the grave yard town. They want a live place; where the citizens are doing things, and where every man, woman and child is a worker. A little publicity like this will inject new blood into a community—and that means renewed life.

FIRST AID—SAFETY FIRST.

It's easy to be an editor. All you have to do is sit in your cushioned office chair, rest your feet in the depths of the plush-covered floor, and let a syndicate of northern "journalists" supply you with "copy" at so much per. Here is the way one of the editors' friends up north describes his "first aid" to indigent editors:

"In our humble opinion No. 14 is the most useful book in the series. It contains obituaries suitable to all classes, from the babe in the cradle to the grandmother in the sunset of life. It contains cards of thanks, resolutions, etc. Deaths are unexpected items that generally reach the printing office a few hours before the forms are 'locked up,' and the average editor gives them a three-line local and adds: 'A more extended notice will appear next week.' We believe by the aid of this little book all such news can be given while it is news. You have only to insert the name and date of death, and you will find an obituary in this book suited to saint or sinner, old or young. There are but few printing offices that have not one of our former obituary books."

Just write it in your note book that The Standard is one of the exceptions. Any publisher who hasn't sense enough to give an account of a local happening without resorting to such "wooden" aids ought to be editing a peanut roaster and not a newspaper.

CURLED TAILS.

The Kilgore Chronicle says that over in Henderson county the cut the tails off their pigs to save corn. They claim to have statistics to prove that it takes a full bushel of corn to maintain the curl in a hog's tail, and the curl is useless at killing time.—Avery News.

If the curl really costs a bushel of corn it ought to be abolished, for it isn't worth the price. Still some regard for the artistry of hog raising should be encouraged. A pig with a curl in its tail is unquestionably more interesting than an art stand-point than a tailless pig or a curlless tail. Every observant man has seen pigs whose curled tails reflected much credit upon their esthetic sense, for only an esthetic pig would go to the trouble of curling its tail. Indeed, the fact that it takes a bushel of corn to mature the curl in a pig's tail is not because that much corn is deflected from the pig's other departments in order to find its way to the caudal appendage, but because of worry on the part of the pig on account of the curl. It is difficult to fatten a worrying animal, man or beast, and as long as a pig has a curl in its tail it worries over the possible loss of same. That worry is translated into lean meat, therefore an additional appropriation of food is required to overcome the worryment. By the same reasoning we arrive at the other end of the problem, wherein we see that after the loss of its tail the pig has nothing to cause it loss of sleep or nervous alarm, hence all its fodder runs into fat. It is the same with a man. When he has something very precious that he is painfully afraid of losing he becomes restless, and restlessness is the foe of embonpoint. On the other hand, when he has nothing to trouble him, when he is kabibbel is to him an unknown expression, he is in about the same relative state of mind as the pig who has lost its tail. He has nothing to do but take on oleaginous tissue.—Dallas News.

Why I Am Going to Buy A Darling Hot Blast Heater.

The "Darling" Hot Blast is a new air-tight stove with IMPROVED IDEAS over the old-style hot blast stoves.

IMPROVEMENT NUMBER ONE—

The "Darling" Hot Blast stands as level after fifteen years' service as the day it was bought. Why? Because it has—not a steel bottom, but a CAST IRON BOTTOM which does not get bent in shipping or warped and buckled from use.

IMPROVEMENT NUMBER TWO—

It doesn't take a long stretch of imagination to think of the troubles a clinker will cause when you have to remove it through the top of the stove. If you have a "Darling" Hot Blast simply punch the clinker through the large opening of the draw center grate.

IMPROVEMENT NUMBER THREE—

The rear draft check is located in the cast iron collar of the stove and not in the collar joint. Therefore, when the first joint wears out you can come to the store and get the regular stock and not have to send to the factory for a special joint.

SOME OF THE SPECIAL FEATURES ARE—

The automatic hot blast register in main top closes when feeding fuel, which prevents smoke and gas boiling out into the room.

Check draft in rear of pipe collar.

The feet always fit in the cast iron bottom and always stand level on the floor.

There are all kinds of hot blasts, but there is only one "Darling."

WORLD EMPTIES AND FILLS.

Twenty-one years ago Coxey's Army marched to Washington.

The newspapers were full of it. Mention Coxey to anybody over thirty-five years old and see the understanding in his face. Know Coxey and his blooming army? Well, I should say so! Now try Coxey on men and women in the twenties. Just try it. It will open your eyes. Coxey? Who the blazes is Coxey? Looks of confusion and ignorance.

Coxey, you see, quit advertising. That is, the Coxey publicity ceased. And the world has filled up with people who never heard of him. Millions and millions of them.

That is the way with some advertisers. They speak up a few times and then go back to their factories. There, by George, we've told 'em! And then old Father Time begins to work. And the undertaker. And the parson armed with a marriage license. And the baby carriage. And rheumatism. And, first you know, the world is peopled with new bosses, new buyers and new housekeepers who never heard of you. Incredible! What!—never heard of me? No, never heard of you! Sorry to disappoint you.

Man is provided with a great ego. If he didn't have it he couldn't stand it to live. Without an ego he would probably take one look at the moon and go jump in the lake. Now the best thing that an ego does is to give you a fine feeling of permanence. Of course you aren't permanent, and your better sense tells you so. But Mr. Ego keeps trying to make you think you are. What he aims to do is to make you feel comfortable. Nice thing to have around—an ego. You need him in your business. But don't believe everything he tells you. He is the most agreeable and ever-present liar on your premises.—John M. Sidall, in American Magazine.

THE DIFFERENCE.

Depreciation is the difference between what you paid for your auto and what it is worth.—Omaha Daily News.

Appreciation is the difference between what your auto doesn't cost to operate, and what it might cost.

Just to show Ackley, Iowa, famous for its annual sauerkraut festival, that it is not the "whole cheese," Monroe, Wis., has decided to hold a "cheese day carnival," that town claiming to be the center of the Wisconsin cheese industry. In deciding between the two towns, we have decided to be perfectly neutral.

The editor is in receipt of a season pass to the Fort Worth race meet in that city October 20-23rd inclusive. If this editor was immensely wealthy he would accept every invitation extended him wherein the invitation was accompanied by a pass, for, paradoxical as it may seem, it costs money to take in these excitements that are "free."

Parent-Teachers Club.

The Parent-Teachers club met Wednesday afternoon at the Central school building, with a large attendance. The afternoon was given over to a discussion of the forthcoming teachers institute, and arrangements were completed for an entertainment of the teachers with a reception on Monday night at the Odd Fellows hall.

While the reception is to be an informal affair, no effort will be lacking toward making it a most pleasant occasion for the visitors, and the co-operation of the citizens toward this end is desired.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the Central school building a week from next Wednesday afternoon.

Says Simple Laxative Better than Castor Oil

Case of Chronic Constipation Yields to Mild Laxative Compound.

Writing from The House of the Good Shepherd, Sunnyside Ave., and 50th St., Seattle, Wash., where she is the guest of her life-long friend, the Reverend Mother, Mrs. Mary Austin, widow of a wealthy San Franciscan, who lost everything in the fire of 1906, says she experienced speedy relief from the use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and that she found this gentle, pleasant-tasting laxative more effective than several doses of castor oil.

The active principles of certain laxative herbs are combined in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin to act on the eliminative organs in an easy, natural way, without griping or other discomfort. Its freedom from opiate or narcotic drug of every description, combined with its gentle action and positive effect, make it the ideal laxative for family use. Druggists everywhere sell it for fifty cents a bottle.

A bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin should be in every home for use when the occasion arises. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 454 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

Merry Maids and Matrons.

The Merry Maids and Matrons were guests of Mrs. George Davis on last Wednesday afternoon, the occasion being spent very enjoyably with "42" at four tables. Invited guests were Mesdames Tom Elliot, W. W. Wilder, J. T. Freeman, J. B. Whiteman, John Martin, P. W. Williams; Misses Ruby Wood, Carrie Berry.

Mrs. Henersdorf received for high score a bottle of perfume, while Mrs. Williams received an after-dinner coffee spoon as consolation, and Mrs. Wilder received a souvenir spoon as guest prize.

The hostess served crab on the shell, cheese and pimento sandwiches, chow chow sandwiches, olives and coffee.

Miss Minnie Elliot has invited the club to be her guest on next Wednesday afternoon.

A WORD FOR MOTHERS

B. H. S. NEWS

REPORTERS-- 7th Grade--Ora Horn Sophomore--Joe Tindel.

REPORTERS-- Junior--Ruth McShan Senior--Bernice Hall.

A. WOOD, Editor.

The B. H. S. D. C. met Friday night, October 8, 1915, at the home of Miss Nautie Mae Day. Since it was the first meeting of the club this year, the program consisted mostly of the installation of new officers and the receiving of new members. However, the evening was enjoyed very much by all present.

The program was as follows: The house was called to order by the president. Roll call was answered by a Mother Goose rhyme. The address of welcome to the faculty and new members was given by Charles Morris. The response in behalf of the faculty was given by Mr. Donnell; and the response in behalf of the new members was given by Miss Willie Martin. The oath of membership was administered to the new members by Mr. Knox.

The new members were initiated, then the president was inaugurated and the oath of office was administered by Albin Wood, after which came the president's inaugural address. Last, a quartette was rendered by Messrs. Morris, Wood, Bell and Marshall.

After the program, the members were served with delicious ice cream and cake. The house was charmingly decorated with cut flowers and ferns.

Mr. Charles Morris started out after a fair damsel last Friday night, and after traveling about an hour he flagged the 8:00 o'clock passenger train and wanted to know the way to Sweden.

Junior Report.
The Junior class regrets to learn of the illness of Miss Nautie Mae Day, who has suffered an attack of appendicitis.

Charles Morris, '17, was the center of attraction at the D. C. last Friday evening, as he was constantly trying to keep his feet under control.

Sophomore Report.
The Sophs held a class meeting last week. Ward Carroll was elected president of the class and Joe Tindel, class reporter.

The northern part of the campus, which has been a weed patch for the past two years, has been cleared off, and made into a basket ball and tennis court for the young ladies. Watch the Soph basket ball team lead off the "grand march."

A certain class is deficient in History. That puts the "Fish" in the fry.

Great things will be heard from the Sophs in the year '18, if they live up to their slogan.

Seventh Grade.
Miss Hattie Lee Alston is again in school, after having been absent for a few weeks.

With the exception of one period, Pinkie Pinder handed in a correct theme this week.

Miss Ryan entertained the seventh grade boys Monday afternoon after 4:00 o'clock.

Mr. Niisle, to a "minnow": "If you are always on time you will never be tardy."

Lost--Somewhere between 15 and 20 minutes in the English room Monday evening. If found, please return to seventh grade boys.

Thoughts by the Superintendent
Work--Nothing in the world can take the place of persistence. Talent will not; nothing is more common than unsuccessful men of talent. Genius will not; unrewarded genius is almost a proverb. Education will not; the world is full of educated derelicts. Persistence and determination alone are omnipotent. The slogan "Press On" has solved and always will solve the problems of the human race.

The Cigarette--"I am not much of a mathematician," said the cigarette, "but I can add to a youth's nervous troubles; I can subtract from his physical energy, I can multiply his aches and pains; I can divide his mental powers; I can take interest from his work, and discount his chances for success."

The above is only too true. The writer has never seen a cigarette smoker graduate from the high school. He has never seen one make any material progress toward getting an education. Desire to succeed and the cigarette are not on speaking terms.

We call especial attention to our space ad of the Hercules buggies. We can save you 15 to 25 per cent, but of course we talk price instead of terms. O. D. Mann & Sons.

Cotton Pickers in Demand.
P. C. Ragsdale writes from Wellview, Texas, that at Melvin, Pasche and Wellview there is a great demand for cotton pickers, with prices of 60c to 75c per hundred pounds offered for pickers. Mr. Ragsdale says that anyone here wanting work should go to these cotton fields, by way of Trickham, Fife and Pear Valley. The cotton yield in those sections is unusually heavy.--Brownwood Bulletin.

MASURY

The name Masury means something. It designates QUALITY. Just as the word Sterling stamped on silver indicates fineness and purity, the word MASURY means the best--none other as good. SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mr. Airy, N. C.--Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell."

I tried most every kind of medicine but none did me any good.

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it.

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlastingly tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.
