MAKE SUCCESSFUL TRIP

TRADE TRIPPERS ROYALLY ENTERTAINED.

Third Lap of Journey Covered Friday—More Than One Hundred Participate.

With thirty-four cars in line, filled with more than one hundred of the live wires of Brady, the third lap of the trade excursion inaugurated by the Brady Young Men's Business League was made Friday, the party making the start about 8:30. In point of numbers the trip Friday was the most successful of the three, and enthusiasm of the boosters was at the highest point.

The first scheduled stop was at Lohn, which was reached at 9:30. Here the party was met by the business men and given the glad hand of welcome. After a stay of about 15 minutes the party left for Fife, being joined for the remainder of the trip by the following Lohn and Doole contingents: Drs. J. D. McCann and J. P. Barton, Messrs. W. F. Roberts, Jr., G. W. Vineyard, D. C. Middleton, W. D. Butler, W. M. McMorries, L. O. Marshall, Arthur Hall, Mr. Graham.

At Fife the excursionists were greeted with the firing of anvils and other noise-making implements in the hands of the enthusiastic citizens of this thriving little town. In addition to the business men of the town, the school children were out in a body to greet the visitors, and one of the most enthusiastic receptions of the entire trip was given the boosters here. Judge Joe A. Adkins made a short talk in which he explained the object of the trip, and at the close of his talk introduced Hon. T. J. Beasley, who spoke briefly in commendation of the objects sought to be accomplished by the trade excursion and plead for a unity among the people of the county in all matters tending to build up the county. Both speakers were roundly applauded.

The next stop was made at Waldrip, where ten minutes were spent in shaking hands and distributing souvenirs to the citizens. Shortly after leaving Waldrip a few minor injuries to several cars were sustained when the motor of one car suddenly stopped and those following piled up before they could be stopped. The roads between Waldrip and Stacy were the worst of any on the entire route and several cases of tire and motor trouble served to delay the arrival of several members of the party at Stacy. On arrival there, however, a sumptuous dinner was in waiting and the excursionists did full justice to the occasion. The dinner was spread under the big tabernacle and was prepared by the ladies of Stacy and the community. Everything that could be desired was there in the greatest profusion, more, in fact, than the hungry crowd could devour.

After the serving of dinner, Judge Joe A. Adkins was called upon for a talk, and responded with one of his characteristic addresses. He was followed in turn by Hon. T. J. Beasley and Judge Harvey Walker.

At 2:30 the excursionists left on the return trip, Doole being the first stop on the schedule. Here a stop of about ten minutes was made, while the members of the party distributed souvenirs and filled up on red soda and anything else calculated to cool them off which they could get hold of.

The next stop was made at Pear Valley, which was reached at 3:45. Here souvenirs were distributed to the school children and a general handshaking indulged in, after which the party started for home via Lohn.

A few minutes was spent at Lohn on the return trip, the party breaking up there, returning to the city by various routes.

The personnel of the party as secured by a representative of The Standard is given below, and while not absolutely correct it is as nearly so as was possible to secure under the circumstances. The list is as follows:

Messrs. and Mesdames S. J. Striegler, J. F. Schaege, Chas. Broad, V. B. Deaton, E. E. Polk, V. R. Jones, Lee King, Will Lyle, D. W. Rowlett, G. M. Bennett, Otis Turney; Mesdames D. D. Sad News.

A telegram was received in Melvin this morning announcing the death of Golda, the 2-year-old baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Scott, at Austin yesterday. This will be sad news to the many friends of the family in Melvin, as the pretty little child was a favorite with everyone. Mrs. Scott went to Austin a few weeks ago on a visit, and last week when the baby was taken suddenly ill Mr. Scott went to be with it. This morning came the message of its death, and the news cast a gloom over the entire town. The grief-stricken parents have our deepest sympathy in this hour of sorrow. At the time of going to press we were unable to learn whether interment will take place in Austin or Melvin.—Melvin Advocate.

A Sled cultivator will get those small weeds. O. D. Mann & Sons.

Editor Herbert Adkins of the Lometa Reporter has announced as a candidate for the office of county attorney of Lampasas county. He is a popular and capable citizen, a successful attorney, and numbers his friends by his acquaintances. If elected, Lampasas county will secure the services of an efficient attorney and at the same time reward one of its most deserving citizens.—San Saba Star.

New Meat Market.

George Schoolcraft and H. A. Hector have leased the new J. D. Estep building on the east side of the square, and opened a new meat market. They will carry everything in the way of fresh and cured meats, and will make a specialty of fresh barbecued meats and hot lunches. It will be known as "The Model Market," and with its handsome, clean and sanitary quarters, attractive furniture and fixtures, will no doubt live up to its name.—San Saba Star.

Some Fisherman.

J. R. Stone is now in the foremost ranks of local nimrods, and has proven himself in a class all to himself as a devotee of the art of ensnaring the wily bass. Mr. Stone and family spent the week end with his brother and family at the Coggin ranch near Brownwood, and while there decided to try his luck in the big lake on the ranch, and as a result of his persistent skill and perseverance succeeded in landing a mammoth bass which tipped the scales at 6½ pounds. Just to arouse the envy of other local artists Mr. Stone brought the head of the big fish home with him, and had it on exhibition yesterday in the Central Drug store's show window.

Closing Out Stock.

The stock of the Baze Grocery is being closed out to local grocers and the retail trade, and the business of the firm will probably be wound up this week.

The stock was opened February 1st by A. C. Baze and he was building up an excellent trade up until the time he was taken ill. After his death two weeks ago, it was decided to close out the stock.

Chester Baze, who has been in charge of the business practically all the time since it was established, will devote his time to winding up the affairs of the estate of his father, but further than this has not decided upon his future activities.

foolish as the Texas primary

Editor R. F. Cates observed Easter with an Easter Special of the Bartlett Tribune, and the fact that the special contained 28 pages of interesting reading matter, news and information of both Bell and Williamson counties, is prima facie evidence that it was a good one and a creditable one as well. Also the fact that the special carried a heavy line of advertising would indicate that it was a success from a financial standpoint. Miss Maid J. Allen was sponsor for the special, and the edition reflected credit to her journalistic ability, as well as to the mechanical ability and capabilities of the Tribune force.

Rev. John Power, better known as "The Parson," has placed us under obligations for a very pretty Easter greeting in the shape of a folder with a bit of original verse by The Parson, the verse breathing the spirit of the resurrection after death.
Not only is The Parson's thoughtfulness appreciated, but it recalls his many other kindly acts. A pretty compliment was recently paid The Parson by his congregation at Comanche when he was presented with a handsome gold fountain pen, the occasion being his seventieth birthday.
For twelve years we had faithfully served the Comanche congregation, and the token spoke more eloquently than words the high esteem in which The Parson is held.

The Standard is in receipt of the initial number of Hunter's Frontier Magazine, issued by Marvin Hunter at Melvin, Texas, and desires to highly compliment Editor Hunter upon his production, which is far above the average, both from the standpoint of typographical excellence and from a literary standpoint. The volume contains many stories and incidents of early Texas history of peculiar interest to the citizens of this part of the state, all of which are written in a highly interesting style.
Every citizen in McCulloch and surrounding counties should subscribe to Hunter's Magazine, and carefully preserve each copy as issued, for the stories contained therein will make interesting reading for future generations as well as those of the present.

The Roysse City News-Times comes to our exchange desk this week with Chas. H. Bentley as editor, he having recently disposed of his interest in the Richland Springs paper and having purchased the paper at Roysse City. The News-Times is a clean, readable seven-column quarto paper, and Mr. Bentley is showing the citizens just how good a newspaper man he is by filling the paper so full of store and town news that a supplement was required. We wish him continued success and prosperity.

TEMPLE HAS A SAY.

There is no earthly argument that sustains the militaristic fanatic in his contentions that we are in danger of war with any foreign country. The very fact of the war now raging in Europe is proof of this. Every European country is jealous of the other. Were one of them to try to conquer us he would have a dozen of them on his back at home.—E. Z. in Brady Standard.

The Germans and the Allies both thought that the United States would join in the war on their side. The United States did not join with either. You are depending upon other nations to fight our battles for us, which shows that you have no more sense than the Germans and the Allies had when they thought that we would fight their battles for them.—Temple Telegram.

A YELLOW SHEET.

The public has heard much the past several months about the high cost of everything in which dyes of all colors are used, which The Herald has found to be the truth. But we are mystified—we don't know what to think. The Brady Standard comes to us in yellow. Brother Schwenker is a most admirable fellow, the matter contained in The Standard is good. Why the yellow, Brother Schwenker?— Killeen Herald.

In spite of the scarcity of dyes, and the high price of colored papers, we did splurge a week or so ago to the extent of issuing part of our edition on paper of the yellowest of yellow hues. You see, some of our subscribers have been complaining that we don't get out the right sort of sheet; that we don't put life enough into it—and color.
For this reason we thought we would get out a genuine "yellow journal." From now on we will be good—if we can persuade the paper manufacturers to keep us supplied with news print.

PUBLISHER'S STATEMENT.

The postal department has a ruling that all papers must publish a statement on the first of April and October each year, in which is given the names and addresses of the editor, manager, proprietor, stockholders and those holding bonds or mortgages against the plant. Every paper last week contained this statement, but our friend, Ralph Shuffler, editor of the Ol-ney Enterprise feels that the public is not specially interested in the statement, and to make it interesting to be read, appended the following supplemental statement: "Besides the many things enumerated above, the said R. Shuffler has one wife and one boy; paid cash for his marriage license; is blue-eyed and partially bald headed, and is a darned poor checker player. He owns three red pigs, two of which are 'boy' pigs and the third a female of the species; has a wornout automobile and a nice fat corn on each one of his feet. He owes for one magazine and a corn-cob pipe which he bought today. The information in this paragraph is not specifically required by Act of Congress, but is just as much of the public's and the Postal Department's business as the part they require, and I guess a damsite more interesting; and, it's true to the best of my knowledge and belief.—Ex.

EDITOR'S JOB EASY.

Getting out a newspaper these days is dead easy. All the editor must do is publish about one per cent of the "dope" that is sent him by the steel companies, the railroad companies, the labor unions, the various organizations for world peace, commercial preparedness, church pensions, foreign war relief, for the reduction of insanity, for the extinction of mollycoddles and some two hundred-odd other organizations, and his pages will all be filled. But not a single one of these organizations ever encloses a check to apply on account, and as a result very, very few of them are able to find their "dope" in the newspapers.
—Brownwood Bulletin.

Sometimes we have thought of making a list of all the "Please Publish" dope that comes to this office in the course of a single week—and then again we cannot spare the time for such purpose. Suffice to say such a list would look like the index to some encyclopedia of every manner of useful, useless, insane and inane matter under the sun. Then add to this the "free plate" and "exchange" advertising offered, and which seeks publication under the guise of being useful, instructive, interesting or entertaining.

But the "nerviest" thing pulled off recently was the offer of a large St. Louis shoe concern to furnish the publisher with a magazine section once a month at a charge of $5.00 per month.
Of course the magazine section would contain the shoe dealer's advertising, but the publisher need not worry over the $5.00 charge, for the company would take $5.00 worth of advertising space in the regular paper. Beautiful idea! The publisher would not only furnish a mailing list for the shoe company, but pay postage on their advertising matter and in addition give them $5.00 worth of space in his regular paper. And the most wonderful part of all is that some few publishers fell for such "rough work."

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell.

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good.

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it."

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlasting tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.
