AUTO HEARSE PURCHASED BY MANN & SONS

O. D. Mann & Sons are daily anticipating arrival of their new auto hearse, purchased some time since, and which has been enroute since December 18th. The specifications of the new hearse calls for a Meteor, 6-cylinder, with red seal Continental motor. The hearse is finished in grey, and is said to be one of the best on the market. In fact, it will be the finest hearse south of Fort Worth and west of Temple, and the only thing that can compare with it in this section is the auto hearse now in use at San Angelo.

O. D. Mann & Sons have contemplated purchase of an auto hearse for some time, and in line with their usual progressive policy, they have decided that the finest was none too good for Brady. Undertaker Roy Wilkerson is most anxiously awaiting the arrival of the handsome car—but the editor is in hopes it will be a long, long time before we are invited to take a ride with him.

Oscar T. Doell gives you his Cost Mark. Come and figure out the cost of any article in stock, and buy it at wholesale and the only thing that can compare with it in this section is the auto hearse now in use at San Angelo.

EXAMINATION OF CLASS 1 REGISTRANTS ON WED.

The local exemption board has this week mailed out notice to each of the citizens subject to draft, and who has been placed in Class 1, to appear next week for examination. There are something like 130 in Class 1 in the county.

The examinations will be held in the offices of Judge Joe A. Adkins, and will begin on Wednesday of next week, continuing over Thursday and Friday.

Incidentally the board has received instruction from the Provost Marshal General's department that in all cases where local boards have granted deferred classification in either Class II or Class IV on account of marriages since May 18, 1917 such classification must be appealed to the district board. In McCulloch county some thirty or more of the registrants come under this head, and following appeal of their classification the burden of proof that such marriage did not take place in order to avoid draft, will be upon the registrant.

Registrants placed in Class I, and to whom notice to appear for examination next week, are the following:

Mrs. W. E. Simpson Dead.
Mrs. Mariah Elizabeth Simpson, wife of W. E. Simpson, passed away this morning at 4:00 o'clock, and was laid to rest this evening in Brady cemetery, the funeral services being held at her late residence, Rev. S. H. Jones of the Presbyterian church conducting. A large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends accompanied the body to its last resting place, and paid tribute to the memory of this good woman.

Mrs. Simpson was born April 24, 1861, and was, therefore 57 years old. For the past three and a half years she suffered with a chronic ailment, and several years ago underwent treatment at Temple, but without securing permanent relief. Of late her ailment became aggravated, and since last Monday she had been confined to her bed.

Mrs. Simpson was a high-minded Christian woman, and a faithful and consistent member of the Presbyterian church.

Mr. and Mrs. Simpson were married about 35 years ago, and of this union one son, A. R. Simpson, is left with the husband, and two grandchildren, Mildred and Ethel Irvine, to mourn her loss.

JANUARY 30TH TAG DAY FOR COAL SHOVELS

There is every indication that January 30th is to be a day of great enthusiasm among the school children of every state, more than 20,000,000 having enlisted to carry out the "Tag Your Shovel Day" program.

With a coal shortage amounting to over fifty million tons, the need and importance of fuel economy must be realized by all, and every shovel full of coal saved will mean that much towards making up the shortage. Hence every coal shovel is to be tagged as a reminder to "save that shovel full of coal!"

16,000 TURKEYS TROT FROM BRADY TO EASTERN MKT.

H. P. Roddie & Co. have just closed their books on one of the biggest "turkey trots" in their history, some 15,779 turkeys have been dressed and shipped to northern and eastern markets within a period of three weeks. All the turkeys shipped from this point were handled through H. P. Roddie & Co., and the fact that no turkeys were shipped in November, greatly swelled the volume of the December business. The turkeys shipped as stated above represent a total weight of 168,351 pounds, and represent approximately $38,500 paid to the turkey raisers. Most of the birds were shipped to Chicago or New York market.

The law and its interpretations are complicated and many citizens are likely to fail to take advantage of the various exemptions and deductions which Congress intended for their benefit.

On the other hand delays, errors, concealments—even unintentional—will cause heavy penalties; to forestall such occurrences we have had prepared for free distribution to those affected by the law, a complete analysis and explanation of it, including sixteen pages of properly ruled record forms for keeping account of your income and deductions.

WE SELL UNITED STATES WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

South Side C. H. Vincent
DRY GOODS

HAVE YOU BOUGHT YOUR

WAR SAVINGS OR THRIFT STAMPS?

This is not a question of investment, but a question of how you can best help the government conserve great financial resources.

The American people don't seem to realize that it is a bad policy to wait until the last minute to put through a big thing. Strong responses and quick ones, action today, is what is required for our War Savings and Thrift Stamp Sale to be the success the government wants and needs—for it to bring results that will really count.

E. A. Baze has charge of the War-Saving Department at the Commercial National Bank and will be pleased to explain them in detail.

WAR SAVING STAMPS are "little baby bonds." They have behind them the entire resources of the United States. These stamps are issued in two denominations—25 cent stamp and $5.00 stamp.

THRIFT CARDS are furnished all purchasers of 25-cent stamps. When 16 stamps have been placed on this card, it may be exchanged for a $5.00 stamp at post offices, banks, or other authorized agencies by adding 12 cents in cash prior to February 1, 1918, and 1 cent additional each month thereafter. This card then, prior to February 1, 1918, costs $4.12—but its value on January 1, 1923, will be $5.00.

WAR-SAVING CERTIFICATE. Each $ 5.00 stamp must be attached to a War-Saving certificate, which bears the name of the purchaser and can be cashed only by the person whose name appears upon the certificate, except in case of death or disability. Stamps may be added to this certificate up to January 31, 1918, until the 20 spaces are filled. The cost to the purchaser will be $82.40, and on January 1, 1923, the Government will pay the owner of the certificate $100—a net profit to the holder of $17.60. This is based on an interest rate of 4 per cent compounded quarterly from January 2, 1918. There are many features to this Government War-Saving plan of interest to everyone.

Now is the time to act. Begin at once buying stamps and buy every stamp you can up to your full quota.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

A postcard from Rev. J. W. Shirley, who is now located at Quay, N. M., reports some mighty cold weather there on the 11th of the month—15 degrees below zero.

A. J. Beasley was a pleasant caller at the Standard office Monday. Uncle Jack has been engaged in killing prairie dogs on the Joe Ranney place, but expects to finish the job before long. He says he has been here 53 years and the blizzard of the 10th was the worst he ever saw and never before did anything comparable to a train stalling in snow happen in McCulloch county.

E. B. Kennedy was in from Waldrip Monday, and despite the continued cold snap, he refused to be jarred out of his customary jovial frame of mind. E. B. says he has been here a long time, but never saw the equal of the recent cold snap. He says he has not been to Fife yet, but he feels sure our Fife correspondent has awakened to the fact that winter is upon us with all four feet.

J. B. Cottrell was in town on Wednesday, and no doubt his chief purpose in coming was to renew his subscription to The Standard. Mr. Cottrell says the second snow of Monday covering up snow still remaining from the first snow ten days previous. In a secluded spot on his place Mr. Cottrell said there was a drift about 6 ft. wide, 10 ft. long and every bit of 2 ft. deep. The snow takes the record for staying on the ground a long time.

The Standard's good friend, J. W. Ince, was up from the Rochelle community the first of last week, and reported the cold weather having caused much suffering, especially among cattle on open ranges without protection. Mr. Ince says there is quite a bit of acreage in winter feed, and much more would be put in if prospects for rain appeared good.

W. P. Burleson and J. F. Dabbs of Mercury, were in the city Monday, the former being enroute back home from Katemey, where he conducted services Sunday, and the latter having come here on business. Both were greatly interested in the six-day school plan adopted by the Brady schools, and Mr. Dabbs said he was going to recommend that the school board at his home adopt the same plan, inasmuch as the popular sport of rabbit chasing on Saturday could, in his opinion, be more profitably changed into attending school at present and the time saved devoted later to helping with the crops.

When a woman uses Cottolene in her cake in place of butter, she adds economy, without leaving out richness and wholesomeness.

Use your own recipes for cakes, pastry, biscuits, etc. But remember: Use one-third less of Cottolene than of butter because Cottolene is richer: it contains no water or salt.

RECIPE

Chocolate Nut Cake

- 1/2 cup Cottolene
- 2 cups sugar
- 4 eggs
- 1 cup milk
- 2 1/2 cups flour
- 3 level teaspoons baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
- 2 squares chocolate melted
- 1/4 cup English walnuts broken in pieces

Cream Cottolene, add gradually cup sugar, stirring constantly. Beat yolks thick and light, add gradually, remaining cup sugar. Combine melted chocolate, sifted flour, baking powder and first mixture alternately with nut meats and vanilla, stiffly beaten whites. Grease tube pan for 4 or 6 inch. Bake in greased oven. Finish.

THRIFT—NOT NIGGARDNESS.

Great is the man who knows how to tread the path of safety and sanity at these times. Because we are warned and urged to save, does not mean to be niggardly or miserly. Avoid waste—that is the keynote to the thrift campaign. Don't stop the wheels of industry by unreasoning and unreasonable deprivations—but help the government and yourself by keeping the wheels of business moving. If, by saving a shovelful of coal a day, you enable a manufacturing enterprise to continue—then you have entered into the right spirit of the thrift campaign. If by saving your waste fats and making them into soap you conserve the country's supply of oils and fats, then you are truly serving your country. But don't strangle the neck of your pocket-book, unless you would at the same time put to death community enterprise upon which depend your own welfare, progress and happiness.

After all's said and done, aren't you thankful you weren't in the trenches during the past cold spell? Donate to the Red Cross!

Otto H. Kahn is a war hero. He says he will give his entire income for war work, except what is necessary to run his household and provide for personal expenses. And any number of Texas editors would be willing to make the same kind of a bargain.

LOST CREEK ECHOES.

Nine Years a Correspondent of The Brady Standard.

Voca, Texas, Jan. 23.

Editor Brady Standard:

Hello, Mr. Editor, correspondents and all the big family of Standard readers!

I have been a regular correspondent to The Brady Standard for more than nine years or, in short, since the first issue of the paper. I sometimes think that my letters are dry reading and maybe they are not worthy of space in the correspondent's column—but always about the time I come to the above conclusions here comes a personal letter from the editor thanking me for what he calls interesting communications. A few words of encouragement always causes one to put forth renewed efforts. So I thank you, Mr. Editor, for your kind words of encouragement, and also for the big roll of stationery and package of pencils. So I am on the job for 1918 to keep The Standard readers posted on the happenings of this community.

Twelve days from the day we had the big blizzard and snow storm, we are again visited by another snow—the first about a four inch snow here with drifts from two to four feet, and this one found lots of snow still here in the drifts. The present snow is only about one inch of white coating.

While I have seen reports from other parts of Texas reporting heavy losses in stock caused from the big blizzard, there were none reported in this part. Considering the scarcity of grass and feed stuff, I consider stock doing excellent here.

Plowing had started up right along after the big snow and when this one melts and soaks in, we will have a pretty good plow season.

It appears from the present talk that we hear going, that there will be a considerable acreage of peanuts planted here this spring. This part of the country is especially adapted to peanut culture, and with the present prices no doubt it will be a paying crop.

There are several cases of measles in the community. Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Goode of San Saba, were visiting here for several days last week with

Retired Merchant Gained Fifteen Pounds On Tanlac—Health Restored

William Ludwig, a retired merchant and prominent citizen of Port Anthon, Texas, made the following statement recently.

"For six years I suffered from indigestion and painful disordered kidneys and fell off until I was a little more than a skeleton. I had no appetite and what little I did eat felt like a lump of lead in my stomach. I was so bloated up that I could hardly get my breath and I couldn't button my clothes. My kidneys disturbed me so I had to get up most every hour of the night and I could scarcely sleep at all. Maybe I would doze a little just before day and in the morning I felt awful. I was so weak I had to walk with a stick and I couldn't go up the steps at all. I had a nervous cough, my limbs ached and hurt all over.

"I bought Tanlac because I was a sick man and it was so highly recommended, and now I'm praising it because it has restored my health. I have gained fifteen pounds in weight, can eat anything I want and sleep as well as I ever could. My cough has disappeared, the gas has stopped forming on my stomach and my kidneys are in good shape. Nothing bothers me now and I have no more use for walking stick. I have taken many different kinds of medicine and have been coming to San Antonio every year for my health but nothing seemed to do me much good until I took Tanlac and I can recommend it because it has done the work."

Tanlac is sold in Brady by Jones Drug Co.; in Melvin by Oscar Sellers, in Rochelle by C. W. Carr, in Pear Valley by Ludwig & White; in Mercury by J. T. Matlock and in Fife by R. K. Finlay & Sons.

WONDER WORDS.

A General Description of Crater Lake.

Wonder, Oregon, Jan. 17.
Editor Brady Standard:

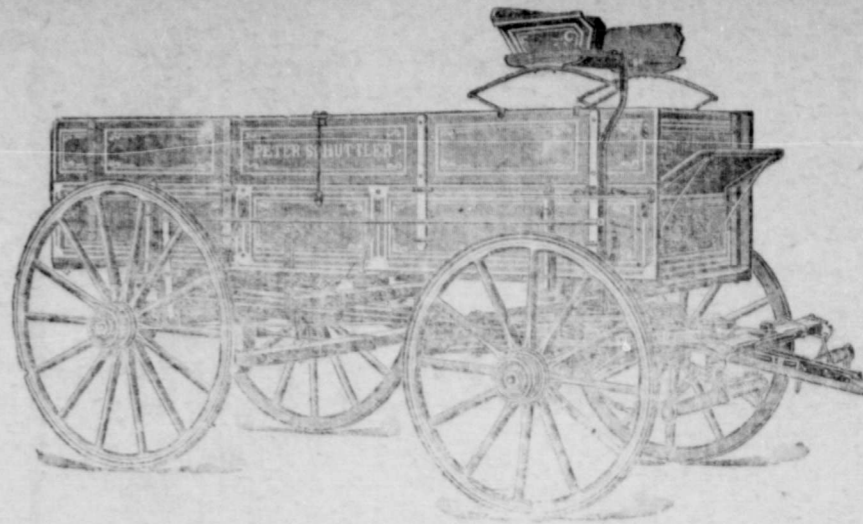

Crater Lake is a body of water of unbelievable blue, occupying the crater of an extinct volcano, in the very heart of the Cascade Range in Southern Oregon. In this neighborhood the Cascades merge into a broad, irregular platform surmounted by volcanic cones. The cones vary greatly in size and are distributed without regularity. Each has been an active volcano. The fragments blown out by violent eruption, have fallen upon the volcanic orifice, from which they issued and built up cinder cones.

From their bases have spread streams of lava (coulees), raising the general level of the country between the cones.

From some vents by many eruptions, both explosive and effusive, large cones, like McLoughlin, Sharta, and Hood, have been built up.

Were we to examine their internal structure, exposed in the walls of the canyons carved in their slopes, we should find them composed of overlapping layers of lava and volcanic conglomerate.

But to this general form of

TRUE ECONOMY IN BUYING Farming Implements

Is only doing without things that are not essential.

To do without necessary things is penny-wise and pound foolish.

This is one year that farmers cannot afford to have anything but the best farming tools and equipment.

If you have not enough tools to prepare the land, or enough planters to plant it at the right time, or sufficient and the right kind of cultivators to work your crops and clean them in time, you may not raise half you would have raised.

The difference between a half crop and a good crop at present prices would make you independent—you cannot afford to have anything but the best this year.

volcanic architecture there was an exception. One of the very largest of these ancient volcanoes was Mount Mazama, which lifted its majestic cone nearly to the height of Mount Rainier, 3900 miles to the north.

But this was ages ago. No human eyes ever saw Mount Mazama. Long before man came, the entire upper part of it in some titanic cataclysm fell in upon itself as if swallowed by a subterranean cavern leaving its craterlike lava sides cut sharply downward into the central abyss.

What a spectacle that must have been!

The first awful depth of this vast hole no man can guess.

But the volcano was not quenched. It burst up through the collapsed lavas in three acés, making lesser cones within the crater, but none quite so high as the surrounding rim. Then the fires ceased and gradually, as the years passed, springs percolated into the vast basin and precipitation, in the form of snow, filled it with water within a thousand feet of its rim.

This is Crater Lake.

POSTSCRIPT: Dear Reader, please bear in mind the main feature of the foregoing topography of the country, until my next article. I will give a more minute description of the awe-inspiring, inconceivable, unbelievable, magnificent grandeur of the most wonderful underground lake that has ever yet been discovered on this terrestrial globe.

ready to assist anyone in getting the information desired, and his acquaintance with the office and the people makes his services invaluable. The citizens could do no better than to return Mr. Yantis to the office he now holds.

For Commissioner Pre. No. 1.
W. M. Bryson has announced his candidacy for the office of Commissioner of Precinct No. 1, subject to the action of the Democratic primary. Mr. Bryson has resided in McCulloch county for 26 years, and is one of the best-known, as well as substantial citizens in the county. Having served before as commissioner, Mr. Bryson is well qualified for the office and, should he be elected, will be in position to render the citizens of the county and his precinct as well, most valuable service. Mr. Bryson makes his announcement upon the solicitation of many of his friends who believe him the right man for the place, and who wish to see the responsibilities of the office continued by a man capable in every respect of giving the office the proper attention. In his candidacy, Mr. Bryson requests the support of every citizen in Precinct 1.

For Public Weigher, Pre. 1.
The Standard is authorized to announce J. U. Silvers as a candidate for re-election to the office of Public Weigher of Precinct No. 1. Mr. Silvers has made a splendid record during the two terms he has held the office by his fair and impartial attention to his duties, and there is not to be found in the county a man better qualified for this position. In addition to the time he has held the office, Mr. Silvers served previously as assistant weigher, so that with the years of practical experience behind him, he may be considered better qualified than ever to handle the duties of the office in a manner giving general satisfaction to patrons of the yard. Mr. Silvers asks consideration of his candidacy by the voters of this precinct, and assures one and all that he will continue, if re-elected, to give the same careful and conscientious attention to duties as heretofore.

For County Attorney.
The Standard is this week authorized to announce E. P. Lea as a candidate for the office of County Attorney, subject to the action of the Democratic primary. Mr. Lea has been a resident of Brady for the past twelve years and is quite well known over the county. He is one of our most highly respected and esteemed citizens, and has heretofore been favored by the voters with the office of Justice of the Peace, in which capacity he gave faithful and efficient service. Prior to coming to McCulloch county, he had nearly eight years experience in the county attorney's office, and the benefit of this previous experience places him in position to administer the duties of attorney capably and effectively. Mr. Lea is a man mature in years and judgment, and fearless and impartial in the enforcing of duties, and no one could be found who could render the citizens better service in this office than he. He respectfully asks consideration of his claims, and will appreciate the vote and support of every citizen.

Friends of the family will regret to hear that J. M. Connally has been very ill with pneumonia at his home in North Fort Worth. The little boy has also been very ill, but both are now improving.

BY REQUEST OF THE TEXAS STATE COUNCIL OF DEFENSE, AND AS A MATTER OF INFORMATION TO THE PUBLIC, THE FOLLOWING IS PUBLISHED BY THE COMMERCIAL NATIONAL BANK OF BRADY:

The Navy was ready when war began. Like Von Moltke's army in the Franco-Prussian war, it had only to go ahead with plans arranged in advance. It has not had to change its organization. It has simply increased in size at every point and gone over the top.

The number of ships in the war construction program of the Navy is 787, including some ships recently completed. This is considerably more than twice the total number of ships in commission on the day war was declared on Germany.

In the past year the Navy has expanded from 68,000 enlisted men to more than 260,000, including marines, reserves and others in service. In January, 1917, there were 4,500 officers. Now there are more than 15,000.

At the beginning of the year there were 300 naval vessels of all types in commission; now there are "many more than a thousand." Ships that were on the stocks then have been hurried to completion. Ships that were laid up in the navy yards because there were not men enough to man them, have been refitted and manned and sent to sea. Scores of power boats and yachts have been taken over from private owners to be set at work searching for submarines.

In the past eighteen months Congress has appropriated for naval purposes $1,905,410,930. This is more money than was spent on the navy in the entire period from 1883 to 1911—the first 28 years of the existence of the "New Navy." And that period includes the years of rapid naval expansion that followed upon our war with Spain.

But the Navy has done more in the past year than merely to expand. It has been engaged day after day for months in the actual business of naval warfare. It has sunk submarines—how many? The Department is not telling.

The first American forces to land in France for service against the Germans were units of the naval aeronautic corps. They were landed at a French port early in June.

The Navy has fourteen times as many flying boats as it had at the beginning of the year, and thirty times as many men in its aircraft forces. It has built its own aircraft factory in Philadelphia. Ninety days after ground was broken for the plant, the keel of a flying boat was being laid. Five private plants are devoting their entire resources to Navy aircraft work.

There never was a war in which it was so important as it is in the present conflict to invent new ways of fighting—and to keep them secret. One invention may be worth twenty dreadnoughts. What our Navy has done in this way must be left for time and results to show. But Thomas A. Edison is in Washington, giving his entire time to his country as head of the Naval Consulting Board. That fact, to most Americans, will be the best possible guarantee that the money voted for the Navy is being expended not only wisely, but with the utmost ingenuity of which human nature is capable.

Internal Revenue Collector.

Richardson, deputy collector of internal revenue, will be at the Brady National bank all next week, January 28th to February 2nd, inclusive, to assist the citizens of the county in making out their income tax statements. ### ***** WITH THE CANDIDATES *****

For District Clerk.

The name of T. J. King appeared last week in our announcement column as a candidate for the office of District Clerk, announcement being subject to the action of the Democratic primary. Because of having been received so late in the week, no mention was given Mr. King's announcement at that time.

Mr. King is one of Brady's well-known and most highly esteemed citizens, and has made his home here for the past 13 years. For the past four years he has served as Justice of the Peace, and in this capacity has given universal satisfaction. Mr. King thanks his friends and the voters of Precinct No. 1 for their trust in the past, and feels that, if elected district clerk, with his knowledge of the workings of the courts, he can and will discharge the duties of that office in a manner that will be appreciated by all concerned.

While generally known all over the county, Mr. King will endeavor to extend his acquaintance to every voter between now and the time of holding the primary, and he asks all to carefully consider his candidacy on the basis of merit and his ability to capably fill the office.

For County Clerk.

In announcing for re-election to the office of County Clerk, it is only necessary for W. J. Yantis to direct attention to his faithful and efficient services during the time he has served the citizens in this capacity. Without question there is no county clerk's office in the state that can boast of records better kept, more accessible and more systematic, than can Mr. Yantis' office. Since assuming the clerk's duties, Mr. Yantis has added to the efficiency of his office by introducing loose-leaf record systems, and by arranging the filing in such a manner as to make it a comparatively easy matter to secure any information that the office may contain. In addition to this Mr. Yantis is ever courteous and

Attend Funeral of Jess Lindsay.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Coalson and children, Mrs. M. A. Bumgardner, Mrs. J. C. Bumgardner and Ella Mae Bumgardner returned last week from Miles where they had attended the funeral of Jess Lindsay, who died on the 12th inst. at a sanitarium in Carlsbad, N. M. Mrs. Lindsay and daughter, Gladys accompanied them to Brady for a brief stay, but left again on Saturday night of last week for her home at Carlsbad, N. M., where she has an irrigated farm. Mrs. M. A. Bumgardner and daughter, Ella Mae, went to Carlsbad with Mrs. Lindsay and expect to spend the next six months there.

Mr. Lindsay had suffered excruciating agony the past six months, ascribing his ailment to rheumatism. However examination disclosed the fact that a large abscess had formed in his side, no doubt having resulted from the kick of a mule sustained about seven months ago. Mr. Lindsay was in the sanitarium at Carlsbad for six weeks prior to his death, but the trouble had progressed too far to permit of remedying.

ROAD PRE. NO. 3 VOTES ON $25,000 BONDS FEB. 23RD

Commissioners court on last Friday created Road District No. 3 in McCulloch county, and defined its boundaries so as to include the greater parts of the Rochelle, Placid, Mercury and Milburn precincts, and also a small portion of the Cowboy precinct. On Saturday they acted on the petition of O. E. Rice and 67 other citizens by ordering an election held in Road Precinct No. 3 on Saturday, February 23rd to determine whether or not bonds in the sum of $25,000 should be issued for the purpose of constructing, maintaining and operating graveled and paved roads and turnpikes, and in aid thereof. The bonds are to bear 5% per cent interest, and are to mature in 30 years.

Election officers were appointed as follows: Rochelle, J. P. Waddill, presiding judge, S. M. Gainer, asst., Tom Sellman and J. W. Burk, clerks. Placid—W. O. Long, pres. judge, Joe Cottle, asst., J. F. Kyzar and Nat Gault, clerks. Mercury—J. N. Holland, pres. judge, J. R. Beasley, asst., Luther Stevens and E. Pool, clerks. Milburn—J. E. Long, pres. judge, W. B. Beakley, asst., Ira Pointer and John Cummins, clerks. Those few voters in the road precinct, who live at Cow Boy are instructed to vote at Mercury.

Commissioners court also appointed W. F. Roberts, Jr., J. of P. in Precinct No. 4, to fill a vacancy.

F. M. Bone and wife were allowed $15.00 per month as paupers.

Death of S. T. Killingsworth

Editor Brady Standard:
It is with sadness I write of the "passing on" of one of the best men of our little community. The death of Mr. S. T. Killingsworth, occurred at the family home on the 5th day of Jan. 1918, after a week's illness with pneumonia. It was a great shock as Mr. Killingsworth had hardly been sick a day in his life and everyone thought he was going to be up again; but Friday morning he was taken suddenly worse and all that the doctors and loving friends could do was of no avail. Saturday morning at eleven o'clock, death came and carried the spirit to the Great Beyond. His last words were for the wife he loved so well. The body was laid to rest in the Lohn cemetery, funeral services being conducted by Harvey Anderson, Apostolic faith minister. Mr. Killingsworth leaves a heart-broken wife and two daughters, Misses Lora and Delta, and one son, Ira; one sister, Mrs. George Dudley, of Dalhart, and one aunt, Mrs. Tom Mitchell, of Fife, and numerous friends to mourn his loss. To these we extend sincere sympathy. May the All Wise whisper comfort and peace to your weary hearts. I will copy one verse of one of the songs Mr. Killingsworth loved best; may it help the ones left behind:
Won't you meet me in Heaven some beautiful day—
That fair home of the sinless and true?
When my troubles and trials have all flown away,
I'll be living in heaven with you.

Hates the Kaiser.

Washington.— High government officials halted important work to smile with some one who passed on to them thru the mail a little poem, which, they said carried much weight. It was as follows:

My Tuesdays are meatless, my Wednesdays are wheatless, I am getting more eatless each day.

My home, it is heatless, my bed, it is sheetless; they're all sent to the Y. M. C. A.

The barrooms are treatless, my coffee is sweetless; each day I am getting poorer and wiser.

My stockings are feetless, my trousers are seatless. My, how I do hate the Kaiser!
