BRADY BANK DEPOSITS NOV. 17TH MILLION AND HALF DOLLARS

MATTHEW BROS. SELL DRAY LINE TO REED & AWALT

After over 12 years' continuous service in the dray line, Matthews Bros. this week announce their retirement, having disposed of the business to Messrs. Ben Reed and Andy Awalt, the new proprietors taking charge on Wednesday morning. The deal included the taking over of the big transfer truck, as well as the business and good will.

The Matthews Bros. dray line was established in 1907, succeeding the line operated prior to that time by W. T. Bumgardner. Starting in a modest way, the business has been built up to where about two years ago the volume was so great as to necessitate replacing the big team of horses and dray wagon with a specially built auto truck, which not only facilitated the handling of the business, but enabled improved service in every way. The retirement of the firm from this line of endeavor was occasioned by Frank Matthews engaging in the cotton business, and the work becoming too heavy for John Matthews, especially following an operation he underwent a year ago and from the effects of which he has never fully recovered.

The latter expects to engage in farming on the place bought several months ago from C. C. Ledbetter, and which comprises 333 acres 15 miles north of Brady on the Santa Anna road. The place is a splendid piece of land, with 200 acres in cultivation. John will move out to the farm the first of the year. Frank Matthews will continue in the cotton business as before.

The new firm is composed of two hustling and enterprising young men, Ben Reed being the son of Chas. Reed and Andy Awalt the son of Bass Awalt of this city. The boys see an opportunity to establish themselves in a remunerative business, and will spare no efforts towards giving prompt and efficient service, as well as to enlarge and extend the business so as to take care of any emergency or exceptional increase in volume. Aided and advised by their fathers, they are certain of the success which their efforts merit.

You can't beat our price or quality on Stoves and Ranges. We are well equipped to take care of your wants in this line, offering you from the well-known brands of Charter Oak, Cole's Hot Blast and Wesco. These lines we have handled for years, and we know they will satisfy. In fact, we are not satisfied unless you are. See us for stoves and ranges. BROAD MERCANTILE CO.

REPRESENTATIVE OF REST COTTAGE ASSOCIATION AT PILOT POINT VISITS HERE

N. B. DeArman, representing the Rest Cottage association at Pilot Point, Texas, has been in Brady this week soliciting contributions for the work carried on by the home. Like many other institutions, this association is doing a most praiseworthy work among fallen women, whom they seek to re-establish and prepare for a useful life. The association has been carrying on this work for the past 17 years, and Mr. and Mrs. DeArman have been connected with them for the past 12 years.

NAOMI COMPANY GETS GOOD WELL NEAR TRICKHAM

Great interest has been manifested in Brady by news of the bringing in of a 150-barrel well on the ranch belonging to Lee Vaughn of this city, and which is located in Brown county, near Trickham, about ten or twelve miles from the north line of McCulloch county. The Brownwood Bulletin gives the following report on the well:

"The Naomi Oil & Gas Company's Vaughn No. 1, a mile south of Trickham, was drilled two feet into the sand at 988 feet Monday, and showed oil that is expected to make between one and two hundred barrels after the sand is drilled a few feet deeper. Most of the population of Trickham was at the well to see it drilled in, and many brought buckets in which to get samples of the oil.

"This well is on the Vaughn ranch, and is the first of a series of wells which the Naomi Company will drill in that field. Further drilling will be done within a day or two, and the well will then be equipped for steady production as soon as storage facilities can be arranged.

"The well was drilled by John Featherstone."

WANTED.

To contract for drilling in the territory of the O'Day well, 11 miles north of Brady. Good outfit on ground, at Brady. M. K. JENSON, - W. Milton Ave., Brady, Texas.

BRADY BANKS' SWELLING DEPOSITS INDICATE WONDERFUL PROSPERITY

BANK STATEMENTS ISSUED NOVEMBER 17TH SHOW DEPOSITS TOTALING OVER MILLION AND A HALF DOLLARS IN BRADY ALONE.

Four weeks of fair weather have brought unbounded prosperity to McCulloch county, and money is plentiful and jingles merrily in the pockets of the near-millionaire ranch owners, and in the jeans of the negro and Mexican cotton pickers as well. Bank statements issued for November 17th by the two local banks, show bank deposits totaling nearly one and one-half million dollars, which is a close approach to highest deposits recorded. At that, the deposits have been materially swelled in the past week, and now are nearer the two million dollar mark.

These are busy days for the bankers, and both local banks have nearly doubled their office forces in order to care for the rush of business. At that, there is a waiting line before the tellers' and receivers' windows from the opening hour of the banks until the closing.

The prosperity shown in the bank statements of the Brady banks is merely indicative of the general prosperity abounding in McCulloch county. While cotton has been off considerable the past week, and sales have slumped as a consequence, yet the good price paid not only for cotton, but for every manner of farm product, as well as the high wages commanded by every class of laborer has made prosperity real in grand old McCulloch.

DAY WELL STANDING SEVERAL HUNDRED FEET IN OIL--SWABBED WED.

While the Day well is the source of considerable speculation among oil men, there is nothing of definite nature yet to be given out. The 900 ft. hole has been standing several hundred feet in oil, and storage tanks have been provided at the location to take care of the anticipated production. An effort at swabbing the well Wednesday only gave a partial test because of trouble with the bull wheel and also because of shortage of tanks. As it was, the 50-barrel tank on hand was filled and further operations were suspended awaiting the securing of additional tanks.

JEFF MEERS BUYS TEXAS EASTERN RIG AND TOOLS -- WILL SHIP TO CONCHO COUNTY AND DRILL FOR EXPECTED GAS AND OIL.

Further developments at the well now await advice from the Prairie Oil & Gas Co., J. S. Cosden & Co., Empire Gas & Fuel Co. and other big companies holding off-set acreage and with whom Mr. Day has contracted for a 2500 ft. hole, "unless oil or gas in paying quantities be found at a lesser depth." If these companies are satisfied with the oil production now had in the well, then development of the oil sands will be undertaken; otherwise drilling will proceed to the contract depth.

Of interest to oil men is the announcement this week by Jeff Meers of the purchase of the rig and tools of the Texas Eastern Oil Co. and which have been used on the R. A. Sellman ranch. Mr. Meers will ship the outfit to Concho county where he expects to drill a 1400 ft. well. The Shultz Oil Co. struck gas in their well at 800 ft., and oil at 1400 ft. Mr. Meers is expecting to secure gas at 800 ft. for the drilling of his deep test, and hopes for good production at 1400 ft. If the shallow depths fail in the anticipated gas and oil, Mr. Meers will use the tools, all of which are standard on his deep test, or else ship the rig back to McCulloch county for drilling on acreage held by him in the H. D. Ditten block.

DR. J. E. POWELL AND FAMILY AGAIN TO MAKE THEIR HOME AT WALDRIP, TEXAS

Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Powell arrived here from Winchell, enroute with their household effects to their former home at Waldrip. For about 15 years Dr. Powell served the people of Waldrip as physician, ever ready to answer every call, and his practice extended far and wide over that section. The past year, however, so devastated the country that Dr. Powell, in common with many other good citizens, was forced to seek a location elsewhere, and after trying another place, he located this spring at Winchell. Although enjoying a nice practice there, the doctor could not resist the call to return to Grand Old McCulloch, and the citizens of the Waldrip community are no less glad to welcome him and his good wife back home.

RAISING OF BELGIAN HARES A PROFITABLE INDUSTRY SAYS BENHAM

Raising of Belgian hares is a profitable industry, says S. A. Benham, who early in the year took up this work as an after-business diversion. The hares are most prolific, as witness the fact that the first of the week one of Mr. Benham's pens numbered five does, and now the same pen numbers a total of 52 rabbits. One of the does was a New Zealand hare, which now is the proud mother of 12 little bunnies, and the remaining does were Belgian hares, one of which has eleven bunnies under her care, and the remaining does have lesser numbers, although none the less interesting families.

As a pastime, the raising of Belgian hares surpasses anything Mr. Benham has yet undertaken. They are easier to keep than chickens, require no more food and their meat is equal to that of the bird's. The rabbits are ready for eating at 8 months. Starting with less than half a dozen hares in the Spring, Mr. Benham's rabbit colony now numbers around 100 members.

FOUR BRADY NOVICES WALK THE BURNING SANDS AT MOSLAH TEMPLE LAST WEEK

Four Brady novices were numbered among the 450 who last week walked the burning sands at Moslah Temple in Fort Worth. The number included Messrs. Bill White, V. L. Sessions, M. S. Sellers and Edd Bryson. Ben Hendricks of Eden was another novice who accompanied the party, and Nobles W. F. Roberts, Jr., and Dr. Wm. C. Jones, escorted the party and saw to it that they missed none of the long and weary path between oases. The party left for Fort Worth Thursday night of last week, and returned Sunday night. The ceremonial took place on Friday. The parade was a notable affair, and included the two camels presented by Moslah temple to the Fort Worth zoo. One of the candidates, who was running for the ring, also had his airship in the parade.

CALLAN CASE TO BE LEFT TO GRAND JURY IN MARCH

Brownwood, Nov. 24. — The next grand jury in this judicial district will not be convened until the last week in March of 1920.

It is not likely that a special session will be convened to consider the evidence in connection with the killing of Victor R. Billings here Nov. 12.

James Callan, cattleman and former president of the Cattle Raisers' Association of Texas, is under $20,000.00 bond. He is charged with murder in connection with Billings' death. His bond was fixed here Saturday night.

Attorney Dayton Moses of Callan's counsel left last night for Fort Worth. Frank Hartgraves of Menard is Callan's resident counsel.

It became known last night that relatives of Billings may employ the firm of Davidson & Bailey of Cuero to assist Blackburn in the further prosecution of the case. The firm is composed of Senator John H. Bailey and former Lieutenant Governor A. B. Davidson.

NORTH AND EAST FEAST ON McCULLOCH CO. BIRDS

McCulloch county turkeys yesterday graced many a Thanksgiving feast table, and for the next thirty days will continue the prime favorites as the "piece de resistance" at holiday dinners in the North and the East, as well as in Texas and the South.

Present estimates are that something like eight cars of dressed birds will be shipped out of Brady before the close of the turkey season, a short while before Christmas. This will mean the distribution of something like $75,000.00 among the growers of the National birds. This sum is virtually pure "velvet" to the farmers marketing turkeys. The birds this year are the finest, fattest and largest ever marketed, and, at that, they grow without care or attention, the exceptionally large crops of all kinds in the county this year having provided them with an abundance of grain, mast and forage.

Mayhew Produce Company yesterday loaded out their fourth car of dressed birds, there being something like 1500 birds to the car. The first carload was shipped ten days ago by express to Boston, and the remainder of the shipments have gone to New York, Chicago and other northern and eastern points.

Not only is the turkey season proving highly profitable to the farmers, but a big sum of money is being put in circulation here through the turkey pickers. Inexperienced pickers are making above $6.00 per day, and a Mexican has drawn down $9.45 for nine hours' picking. School boys, working after school hours are netting from $2.00 to $3.00 for their work. The Mayhew Produce Co. is getting the birds picked at the rate of between 500 and 600 per day.

CONTINUED FAVORABLE DAYS CAUSE COTTON TO ROLL IN FAST--BUSY TIMES THESE

The continued pretty weather of the past three or four weeks has resulted in cotton rolling in mighty fast, and all three of the local gins having been running the past week or more on 24-hour shifts. In spite of all this, there is a waiting line at the gins early and late. One farmer got up bright and early Monday morning hoping to be the first at the gin, only to find that there were 49 wagons ahead of him.

There are thousands of negro and Mexican cotton pickers at work in this section and one prominent farmer, with a 75-bale crop, is reported to have a crew of pickers that can gather about three and a half bales a day.

Receipts at the Brady Compress Tuesday totaled 2,687 bales. At the cotton yard, the receipts Wednesday noon had reached 6,880, with the number stored in the Farmers Union warehouse swelling the total to about 7,000 bales. Brady ginnings yesterday noon totaled 4077 bales. The ginnings were reported as follows:

Koerth Gin	1423
Planters Gin	1233
Embry Gin	1416
Total	4077

While cotton was still off this week, it sold for 38c basis price. Cotton seed brought $20 per ton.

WONDER WORDS.

"O. I. C." Found Industrial Articles Highly Instructive.

Wonder, Ore., Nov. 15. Editor Brady Standard:

It is real cloudy and very still. Hark! what is that I felt on the back of my hand? Listen! what is that wee, they noise I hear upon the brim of my hat? can it be rain? yes, it is! Thicker and thicker they come; but no one pays much attention to them. Of course, there is no two-legged chicken or biped animal that is the least bit alarmed about getting wet. So they just keep right on at their work; and as the rain drops continue to increase in number and size, in the course of an hour or two one's clothing becomes heavy and the moisture begins to get very near to the natural man. This is an Oregon rain.

It has rained here twice this fall. Two or three drizzly days at a time. It is real funny to hear some old foggy talk about a dry moon or a wet moon. They never stop to consider that the same moon that caused this to be the driest summer in a score of years in Oregon, also caused it to be the wettest one in Texas. Nonsense! Such ignorant superstition should be relegated to the dark ages.

I am sorry to miss "Buddie's" Mt. Tabor Tattles, tho' I trust he will not fail to continue taking the good old Standard so as to get the Doole Doings, the Fife Findings, etc. etc., and also the Wonder Words. We must have the news from my old stamping ground. So come on "Brown Eyes," "Blue Eyes," "Black Eyes," or "Grey Eyes,"—let's have the doings of that corner of the county.

Mr. Editor: I liked the series of fifteen articles on McCulloch county. They were highly instructive and I can vouch for the accuracy of the statements made. There is an item of great importance to be considered by those who contemplate making a change.

I know the farms in Texas that have been in continuous cultivation for more than half a century that continue to produce good crops without being fertilized. By a systematic crop rotation the fertility of the soil is maintained. Cotton is a great soil renewer and is almost invariably planted following a crop of grain. Whereas in other states where cotton is grown they have to use a great deal of commercial fertilizer which is expensive and takes away a great part of the profit.

ROCHELLE RUMBLINGS.

School Suspends and Pupils Assist in Picking Cotton.

Rochelle, Texas, Nov. 24. Editor Brady Standard:

We are at present having some lovely weather and the farmers are making good use of same to gather this bumper crop of cotton. Wish we had about half dozen more gins, then there wouldn't be 150 bales standing on the yard awaiting for their time to come, and the men having to lose so much time. The gin had a little blow-out Saturday and lost most of the day, but we think by Monday they will fix up the other gin and we will be so glad for that will relieve the situation. Not much cotton is selling since it went off something like $20.00 a bale and the yard is filling up fast.

I think it was so nice that our school suspended last week for the purpose of assisting the farmers to get their cotton gathered. Both the teachers and pupils donned their overalls and straw hats, and with a red bandanna around their necks hiked off to where the fleecy staple was the best, and there did their bit, and what an amount of money was jingling in those overall pockets—at $3.00 per cwt., saying nothing about the help it was to the farmers to get their cotton picked.

Miss Ruth Selman made a trip to Belton a short time back, on a visit to her sister, Amy, who is there in school, and found her well and doing nicely in her school work.

Willie Williams who has been down with typhoid fever now for two weeks seems to be slowly improving, and is attended by a nurse from Brownwood, a Miss Perkins, and we hope soon to see him out of danger and up and around the place; then it won't be long till he can be out and once more take his place in this busy world of ours.

Mrs. Ed Floyd spent a few days with Mrs. J. P. Waddell last week.

Mr. Jeffries of the Deep Creek community came over today after the fine cow and calf purchased from C. H. Bratton. Quite a good many of our neighbors around are buying these cows from Mr. Bratton and we hope they prove up to the standard and everybody pleased with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Bratton are entertaining a son in the home since the 10th, and am glad to report mother and son, Richard, both doing nicely.

The Baptist people of this place have called Bro. W. H. Gage for half time to the pastoral care of this church. His home is in Fort Worth.

We are rejoicing this a. m. over the two gins running in Rochelle. Now the farmers won't have to lose so much time getting their cotton off the wagons, for every moment of good weather lost now, means loss of cotton in bad weather.

Our school was to resume its work in the school room this a. m., but decided there was more money to be made picking cotton, besides the benefit they are to the farmer. So all hiked out to the cotton patch.

Rochelle is slowly improving. I see Dr. Matlock has put a porch or awning, in front of his drug store, which adds to appearance as well as comfort.

There is not much news, so I'll ring off for this time.

"AMOS KEETER."

Stacy, Texas, Nov. 23.
Editor Brady Standard:
The mail service is somewhat better now, so will send in the few happenings of the week.
Everyone is so busy taking advantage of the dry weather that there is little news to write about.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Clark and children of Millersview were visiting friends here Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Miller Hammons spent Sunday on Home Creek, meeting a party there from Brownwood on a days' outing.

Mr. Cooper of Brady was in our community this week selling a bunch of fruit trees.
Mr. Mat L. Smith and son, Frank, returned the past week from a several weeks' stay in Missouri, where Mr. Smith went for treatment for cancer.
Mrs. W. D. Trott visited in Coleman a few days the past week.

LOCAL BOYS TAKE PROMINENT PART IN U. OF T. ATHLETICS—FRESHMEN WINNERS

(By STEWART HARKRIDER)

The intramural football championship at the University of Texas was settled Wednesday when the freshmen eleven gained a hard fought victory over the heavy law squad. The only score of the game was made during the second quarter when the freshmen worked the ball down the field by a series of spectacular forward passes, and then carried the pigskin thru the law line for a touchdown.

To determine the championship, five games were played between the different classes and departments of the University. The first game was between the law and engineering department, resulting in a defeat for the engineers, score 2-0. Marshall played a steady game in the backfield and made most of the gains for the engineers. In the second game scheduled, the laws defeated the seniors, score 18-0. The third game staged was the freshmen-sophomore contest, in which the first-year men beat the sophomores in the first game and beat them in the second, 6-0. The freshmen made their only count by a long forward pass to their goal line during the last few minutes of play. This game narrowed down the contest to the law-freshmen battle which was played as a certain-raiser to the Texas-Haskell Indian game, and resulted in another tie for the freshmen. The final and championship game was played Wednesday.

The final meeting of the teams on the gridiron was a battle from the start and both sides fought hard throughout the four quarters. Each member of the opposing teams played a hard and consistent game. The freshmen deserving special mention are: Tabor, of Brady, in the back field, and Wilson, of San Saba, in the line. Tabor was put in at the beginning of the fourth quarter and aided materially in holding the law line. Wilson played a good defensive game at tackle, few gains being made around his end.

The victory for the first-year men came as a natural result of their hard practice all season. They had worked hard to perfect their plays and particularly the forward pass. It was admitted by all who witnessed Wednesday's game that the freshmen outplayed and out-generated the law team.

The members of the freshmen eleven will be awarded intramural sweaters by the athletic council at the University.

AN INTERESTING COLUMN OF FACTS ON NEXT CENSUS

The Fourteenth Decennial Census is to be taken during the month of January, 1920.

The first census of the United States was taken in 1790, during the administration of George Washington. It related solely to population.

The Constitution of the United States requires that a census of the United States be taken every ten years. It is by this means that the apportionment of members of the House of Representatives is made as to states.

The Bureau of the Census is a part of the Department of Commerce. It was established as a permanent Bureau in 1902. Prior to that time the census work was done by a temporary organization known as the Census Office.

A census of the country's manufacturers was made for the first time in 1910. Under the present law a manufacturer's census is to be taken in connection with the Fourteenth Decennial Census and every two years thereafter.

An enumeration of the mines and quarries of the United States was made for the first time 1840.

The Sixth Decennial Census, taken in 1840, was the first one to cover agriculture statistics, now one of the most important parts of the entire census.

The Department of Agriculture assisted the Census Bureau in preparing the list of questions to be asked of every farmer at the coming census.

United States marshals acted as enumerators at the first nine decennial censuses. Each marshal had as many assistants as were necessary to properly cover his allotted territory.

About 650 people were engaged in taking the first census of the United States. The 1920 census will require the services of 90,000.

The statistics of the first census of the United States were published in one small volume consisting of 55 pages. The statistics of the 1910 census required 12 volumes having an aggregate of more than 40,000 pages.

There were 5,351,692 farms reported at the last decennial census, valued at more than 40 billions of dollars. The 1920 census is expected to show more than 7,000,000 farms.

The Census Bureau prints a special supplement for each State in the Union containing all the census figures relating to the State in question.

Congress extended the scope of the approaching 1920 census by providing that a census of forestry and forest products should be taken. These subjects were never specifically covered by any past census act.

It required 18 months to complete the enumeration work for the first decennial census in 1790. In 1920 the Census Bureau plans to complete the enumeration work for the entire country in from two to four weeks and announce the population figures in less than three months from the date the enumeration work is completed.

A heavy concentration on ages ending in five and zero are always reported at a census. The Census Bureau has made many efforts to overcome this inaccurate tendency on the part of the people when stating ages. Every census has disclosed the fact there are more men in the United States than women.

In 1914, the year the last manufacturing census was taken, there were 275,000 manufacturing establishments and 600,700 establishments to be listed in 1920.

The statistics gathered by the Census Bureau in regard to farms are used quite extensively by the Department of Agriculture in its work of aiding farmers.

The ingenious machines used by the Census Bureau to count, sort and tabulate the information gathered by the census enumerators are the product of the Bureau's own laboratory. The sorting machines will take care of 300 cards per minute, the counting machine and do 500 cards a minute and the tabulating machine is capable of handling 400 cards each minute.

COUNTY-WIDE ROAD BOND ISSUE.

E. B. Elliott is one of Voca's substantial farmers, as well as one of the county's most highly esteemed and progressive citizens. In conversation with The Standard editor last Saturday, Mr. Elliott expressed the opinion that the time is now ripe for a county-wide road bond issue, the purpose of which shall be, not to improve one or two roads, or one or two bad stretches of road, but to build hard-surfaced roads from the county line to the courthouse door, the roads to be improved to include all main-traveled highways, post roads and thoroughfares connecting the various communities of the county with the county seat.

Mr. Elliott did not speak in the mood of a sudden burst of enthusiasm—rather after mature reflection he has come to the conclusion that the only way to build roads is to build the main arteries of travel everywhere, and to build them complete, and with a view to permanence.

Mr. Elliott's views are logical, and are deserving of close consideration. To build a first-class road in one community, only to have it taper out into an impassable stretch of road in another, is getting nowhere. To improve the highways of the county, and to leave the Brady square a series of ruts and bumps, would be a disgrace. The building of a hard-surfaced highway from the county line to the courthouse door will benefit the man living at the edge of the county in the fullest degree—and, in turn, it will benefit the citizen of Brady who travels that road in the same degree.

McCulloch county roads were, without question, never in worse shape than at the present time. The need of first-class highways was never so apparent as now when McCulloch county farmers are anxious to market their bumper crops, and Brady citizens are just as anxious to see them bring their products here to market. At no time will public sentiment be more universally in favor of a county-wide road bond issue than right now. By voting the bonds at the present time, there will be ample opportunity to have them approved, sold and the work of road building well under way before another marketing season is upon us.

The best is none too good for McCulloch county citizens—and the taxes invested in good roads—rightly placed—will prove an investment paying greater returns than a 1,000-barrel oil well. Further, every citizen of the county will share in the benefits, in the increased property valuation and the general improved welfare of the county and its citizens.

A farm on a bad road in the winter, is a jail.

A good road is a gilt-edge investment for any community.

ABOUT PRINT PAPER.

The question of securing white paper is a serious one now with the country weekly papers. The last shipment of white paper received by The Reporter cost us eight cents a pound—which is higher than at any time during the war. Not only that, but orders placed are taken "subject to acceptance by the house," and a letter usually follows stating that the stock has been exhausted. Speaking along this line, and announcing a raise in subscription price to $2.00 per year, the LaGrange Journal says:

Warnings repeatedly issued have failed to awaken the country newspaper editors to the fact that print paper shortage was inevitable, and that it was opportune for them to buy some weeks ahead. In consequence the howl is made by some of the editors now that they will hardly be able to issue regularly unless a change occurs—which means that the wholesaler must get the stock from some source. The paper mills are up against the same labor problem that has beset many other mills, and the production has been such that the supply has, necessarily, been shorted. Orders placed now cannot be filled, but orders which could have been placed months ago could have been filled, and our Texas friends would not now be in a quandary. Last June this office purchased a ton of newspaper for five cents the pound; a few months later another ton was ordered and the difference was something shocking. This bit of editorial news strengthens our intention, as made public in these columns last week, to go to two dollars per year on January 1, 1920. There will be no shortage of stock with the Journal; what there is on hand is insured, and the best friend I have will have to do some mighty tall pleading to get me to part with some of the supply. I have, since war conditions have arisen, learned to be real stingy, and self-preservation is very timely just now.—Rockdale Reporter.

The Gunter Star reached our desk the past week with the name of L. D. Barbee flying at the masthead. Many Brady friends will remember Luther Barbee when he worked with The Standard editor on the old Brady Enterprise. Faithful, industrious, courteous, Luther was every inch a gentleman, and held a warm spot in the hearts of all who knew him. For the past six months he has assisted in the management of the Gunter Star, and following the enforced retirement of Editor J. G. Nash by reason of illness, the work of editing and publishing the paper naturally devolved upon Barbee. Here's wishing our old friend and fellow-worker every success in his undertaking—we know he will deserve it, every bit.

THE WASTRELS.

Just to illustrate the recklessness of much of the propaganda that is filling the mails and using the scant supply of print paper, here's an instance: Last week a long news story (?) went to all the country press. The burden of the story was that Mayor Wozencraft of Dallas had declined the nomination for Governor of Texas. And so far as Sun-of-a-Gun was concerned he was already eliminated. We didn't give a darn whether he was 23 or 93 years old. So far as we were concerned it didn't make a rap whether the constitution did or didn't allow of his holding that office. The constitution didn't bother us one little bit. Sun-of-a-Gun doesn't dislike the Mayor of Dallas. What we do most heartily abhor, however, is this punk stuff that is being sent out. Why, bless your soul, a good friend flattered Sun-of-a-Gun once by declaring that he would vote for him for "Governor or for any other office that he wanted." But Sun-of-a-Gun wasn't that damn fool to go and send a printed declination to all the newspapers in the state. (We didn't have the money for the stamps). Mayor Wozencraft gave a swell luncheon to a bunch of Texas mayors a few weeks ago and when the eats were fine, one mayor, to show his appreciation of the courtesy, proposed a toast and nominated the Dallas mayor for governor. Sun-of-a-Gun recalls hearing former Mayor Lindsay of Dallas nominated for Governor of Texas at a banquet table a few years ago. It tickled the mayor's fancy but never got any further. It is unlucky to be nominated for governor at a swell banquet. In the first place there are usually just a few there and in the second place not many of that few can recall afterwards what happened there.—San Saba News.

With the price of paper mounting higher and higher every day, some means should be devised to put a stop to this waste. Newspaper offices are daily flooded with useless literature, none of which is asked for or desired. Some of the propagandists even have the unmitigated gall to announce that they are making no charge for their "service" and request the newspaper man to put them on his "exchange list." If this editor had his way, a vote of the Texas press would be taken on which of these propagandists were sending out useless and burdensome literature, and then have the increase in blank paper costs saddled on their shoulders. That would be one effective means of squelching a lot of these parasites.

Engineering a Hold Up.

The transcontinental limited was speeding through the wilds of Utah. Two scholarly looking gents near the front door of the chair car were engaged in a discussion on the subject of psychology, philosophy and kindred vices. The conversation grew so animated that the attention of other passengers was attracted. And suddenly one of the quarrelsome scientists arose and said:

"Fellow passengers, I must appeal to you to settle a dispute. My friend insists that not more than three persons out of five believe in personal mortality. Will all those who believe that they have immortal souls please raise both hands up."

Every hand in the car went up. "It is unanimous" cried the speaker in a voice of triumph. "Now please keep your hands right where they are while my friend goes down the aisle and collects watches and purses. I have you covered."

And it was even so.

SANTA CLAUS WRITES LETTER TO LITTLE FRIENDS —WILL VISIT THEM SOON

The Standard is in receipt of the following letter from Santa Claus, asking The Standard to help him get a list of all the good boys and girls in McCulloch county, so that he will know just what to bring them for Christmas, and so he will be sure not to overlook a single one.

Here is what Santa writes:

North Pole, November 25, 1919.

To All My Dear Little Friends:

Already nearly a year has passed since I last came to visit all my good friends; but in all that time I have not forgotten a single one of you. I have been very busy in my workshop here at the North Pole, and now have nearly all my toys, books and gifts ready. This has been a busy time for me, because I have been working hard to have just the kind of toys and gifts that each one of my little friends want. So now I am ready to begin packing up my big loads, and just one month from today, I will come and see all the good little boys and girls once more.

Now don't forget to write to me and tell me what you want Old Santa to bring you for Christmas. Send your letters to The Standard editor, who is my good friend, and who will see that I get your letter and do not overlook a single one of you.

Be good little boys and girls and look for me on Christmas eve.

Your friend,
SANTA CLAUS.

Where the Trouble Lay.

"James," said his mother, "you eat and eat, and never seem satisfied. Here is one more helping of pudding, but it must be the last."

James started on the pudding with delight. "Once upon a time, James," went on his mother, "there was a little boy who ate and ate until one day he ate too much pudding, and he burst."

"There ain't such a thing as too much pudding!" granted Jimmy, as he finished his helping.

"There must be," said the mother, "or why did the little boy burst?" "Not enough boy!" replied James, and handed his plate for a fifth helping.

Parent-Teachers Club.
The Parent-Teachers club held a very interesting meeting at the Central school building last Wednesday afternoon, with the following officers present: Mrs. L. A. Williams, president; Mrs. J. A. Hughes, program committee.

Since the beginning of the school the club has placed an Edison in the Central school. In order to keep up our affiliation with the State University, we have to furnish $250.00 worth of books for the library. So, a committee has been appointed to raise this fund, and they have been very successful in raising most of it. Everyone seemed very liberal in donating towards this fund, and the club takes this means of thanking those who so liberally responded. The club adjourned to meet Jan. 21, 1920. The meeting is to be a social meeting and all members and those interested in the welfare of the school are urged to be present.

LOCAL BRIEFS

Leo Moore has accepted a position with the Rohde meat market as meat cutter.

Congratulations are being extended Mr. and Mrs. Dee Bell upon the arrival of a dainty little Miss at their home on Friday of last week.

Henry Goldberg, who underwent an operation for appendicitis Monday, is reported getting along as nicely as could be expected under the circumstances.

Announcement is made of the arrival of a fine son on Thursday, November 13th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Patterson at Brownwood. Mrs. Patterson is well remembered in Brady as Miss Kate Alexander.

Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Lindley are the first to secure one of the New Overland Fours through the Mann-Ricks Auto Co., delivery of the car having been made the early part of the week. The doctor has already qualified as an expert chauffeur, and says there is nothing like driving one of your own.

Ben Meers returned yesterday to his home at Cedar Creek after a visit of a couple days with his brothers, Hub and Jeff Meers, here. Incidentally he renewed old acquaintance with numbers of citizens whom he knew when he resided here something over a decade ago.

August Bramberg came in Monday from Del Valley to look after business matters. Mr. Bramberg says he hasn't made up his mind yet to return to McCulloch county, and that he will try his luck another year at Del Valley, in the hopes that the seasons may be more favorable and better luck attend his efforts.

One of the most attractively decorated windows in Brady is that of the B. L. Malone & Co., with Thanksgiving furnishing the motif. In addition to appropriate crepe decorations, the display includes carving sets, and articles of silver and cut glass, all of which harmonize with the idea of Thanksgiving and the Thanksgiving dinner. The window is the handiwork of Dr. Jack Ragsdale.

E. B. Ramsay has purchased from Mrs. Laura White the former Marshall Rankin residence, which has been located on South Blackburn street. The house was partially destroyed by fire some three years ago, and since has been unoccupied. Mr. Ramsay is moving the building to one of his lots near the school house hill and will convert it into a "parsonage" for the use of himself and family.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Abernathy are now located at Pear Valley, having Monday opened the Pear Valley school for the 1919-20 school year. Mr. and Mrs. Abernathy are both splendid teachers, and the Pear Valley school trustees feel they have been most fortunate in securing the services of these two splendid people, and are looking forward to one of the most successful school years in their history.

Dair Baldrige, of Brady, a cousin of the local Baldrige boys and an old West Texas acquaintance of the editor, was here Saturday in an attempt to induce about a carload of Milam county negroes to go to McCulloch county to pick cotton. Baldrige is a baseball pitcher of note, having seen service in the American League prior to the war. He says he is "batting over .500 in the cotton patch" just now.—Rockdale Reporter.

The Richland Springs Eye-Witness last week gave an account of the marriage of Mr. Jack Bentley, son of Editor C. H. Bentley, to Miss Essie Hamrick, a popular young lady of San Saba, the wedding having taken place on Tuesday night of last week at San Saba. Both young folks are well known to numbers of McCulloch county citizens, all of whom will join with us in extending wishes for a long life and a happy one to the newly-weds.

Marion Brown, erstwhile Brady citizen, but who for the past two years or more has been in the employ of the Western Union at Fort Worth, makes us feel good by writing us as follows: "Enclosed please find check for $2.00, for which send me your paper. My wife won't let me rest till she gets it. Wish you and its many readers the best of luck. I see Dr. Wm. C. Jones and several of the Brady people here this week enjoying life."

McCulloch county folks may leave here and locate in other places, but McCulloch county still holds a warm spot in their hearts. Here's a brief note from Mrs. Edd Miller, who writes from Bullerick, Texas, where they are now located: "Please change my address from Voca, Texas, and send the paper right along, for I sure do miss it. We are having lovely weather; all the family are well, and enjoying the new country. Hope Brady is still improving. Best regards to you and our dear paper."

McCulloch county friends will be interested in the following news item concerning the Rev. H. Sandstrom, who two years ago was pastor of the Swedish church at East Sweden, going from here to Fort Worth to accept the pastorate of one of the leading churches of that city. The item is reprinted from the Fort Worth Star-Telegram: "Rev. Hjalmar Sandstrom, pastor of the Swedish M. E. church, returned to Fort Worth Monday night from the annual conference in Elgin, Texas. He was assigned to the Fort Worth congregation for another conference year."

The Standard's good friend, R. D. Draper of Lohn, this summer proved that he could raise fine corn on his place by leaving a sample at this office that was universally conceded to be as large and perfect an ear as was ever grown here. Mr. Draper says his corn crop was fine—but just to prove that he raises something else besides corn, he yesterday left at this office a pair of as fine turnips as ever graced a Thanksgiving table. While the editor expressed his appreciation to Mr. Draper, our thanks were really due his good wife, who asked Mr. Draper to bring them in to us.

McCulloch county friends of Miss Jeanette Miller will be interested to learn that she is now located at Liberty Hill, Texas, having accepted a position as principal of the White House school, 11 miles from that place. Miss Miller has taught in the McCulloch county schools for a number of years, and was accounted one of the most popular, as well as successful, instructors. Last Spring having decided upon a change of occupation, she took a business course at Dallas. She returned to Dallas again last September after a month's vacation at her home in Voca, and since then has been employed as assistant cashier and book-keeper in the book-keeping department of the Mackay Telephone Co. Although finding the work very congenial, Miss Miller could not resist the temptation to return to her first love—the teaching profession, and after refusing a number of offers, she finally gave up her work for the place near Liberty Hill. In securing her services, the trustees and patrons of the White House school are to be congratulated, for they are assured of a most successful school year under the direction of Miss Miller.

TRAINING LITTLE CHILDREN.
By MRS. JOHN HENRY HAMMOND.

The other day I was reciting to my little five-year-old son the old nursery rhyme:

"Here am I, little Jumping Joan,
When nobody's with me, I'm always alone."

"What does that mean?" asked the child.

"Why, when nobody's with you, aren't you always alone?" I questioned.

"No," he replied, "because God is always with me."

How shall we measure the significance of this early realization of our Father's presence everywhere? For with the knowledge that God is present to help at all times, our children lose the sense of fear—and there is no greater lesson that we can impart to them. From earliest infancy we can begin to awaken in our children the sense of the all-presence of God. Froebel, in his "Mother Play," a series of songs and games which he devised as illustrative of how a mother should play with her children, always seeks to make her look from the things which are seen and temporal to the things which are unseen and eternal; the father is to manifest so much patience and love towards his little ones as to make the transition of ideas from the earthly to the heavenly Father simple and natural. The child is to be trained to look upon himself as a necessary and responsible part of a great whole, and to be taught that the whole can only be as strong as the weakest link. This is the basic thought of all true commu-

Only a Cold. Are you ill? Is often answered—"Oh! it's only a cold," as if a cold was a matter of little consequence, but people are beginning to learn that a common cold is a matter not to be trifled with, for some of the most serious diseases start with a cold. As soon as the first indications of a cold appear, take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. # Perfection's Price In Tire Building

A tire-maker's first problem is to decide how much he can give for the money. This, and every other question in tire building, depends upon policies.

A super-tire, such as The Brunswick, can be made only by a concern which knows well and appreciates that there is nothing exclusive in the tire industry except high standards.

Since 1845 the House of Brunswick has held first place in every line it entered. Brunswick Tires, as more and more motorists come to know them, will certainly be awarded that coveted place held only by the superfine.

Motorists who buy one Brunswick usually adopt it for complete equipment. Yet this is not strange, since the first one so completely proves its superiority.

If the name of Brunswick certifies to you, as to most men, an extraordinary tire, at no higher price, would it not be good business to test one or two Brunswick Tires?

E. V. CARROLL ARRIVED PAST WEEK AND ASSUMES MANAGEMENT BRADY W. & L.

E. V. Carroll arrived last Friday from Weatherford and immediately assumed his duties as superintendent of the Brady Water & Light works. In a statement to a representative of The Standard, Mr. Carroll stated that he found the condition of the plant far worse than he had anticipated, and that it would strain every effort to keep the plant in running shape until the arrival and installment of the new plant.

In addition to the worn-out condition of the machinery, belts and everything connected with the plant, Mr. Carroll is constantly faced with a fuel shortage that best efforts so far have failed to overcome. Shipments of fuel have been promised out of Fort Worth and hopes are now entertained that when these are received, and regular shipments follow, this trouble may be overcome. In the meantime, Mr. Carroll has found it expedient to purchase a team and wagon for use in hauling fuel to the plant, as well as to assist in the work of relaying water pipes, and also in hauling the new machinery when it arrives.

Mr. Carroll is also having to move the old machinery to make room for the placing of the new, and as soon as possible will begin the rebuilding of the lines.

A special request is made of all patrons of the water and light works to be as economical in the use of both water and lights as possible, so as to not overtax the already weakened facilities. Should the plant be faced with another breakdown or shut down because of lack of fuel, power and light will be the first to be shut off, and all efforts turned towards maintaining the water supply.

Remember that insurance rates have not increased but everything else has. Increase your policy and be safe. ANDERSON & CARRITHERS are glad to talk it over with you.

BAPTIST 75 MILLION CAMPAIGN WILL RAISE BIG SUM FOR RETIRED MINISTERS.

CARE FOR THE WIDOWS, TOO

Total of $5,000,000 Included On Program For This Purpose—Insurance Feature Also Included.

REV. J. M. RUSSELL
Typical Retired Minister.

While the salaries paid the ministers of Baptist, as well as other churches in the South, has been far too small in the past to enable them to lay aside a competency for old age, a long step in remedying this situation is promised in the Baptist 75 Million Campaign, which proposes to raise $2,500,000 for the relief of aged ministers during the next five years, and then bring this sum up to $5,000,000 during the two years immediately following the campaign.

Looking to the adequate care of hundreds of aged Baptist ministers and ministers' widows in the ranks of the Southern Baptist Convention who are now in need of financial assistance, this body, at a recent session, authorized the creation of the Relief and Annuity Board at Dallas, Texas, with Dr. William Lunsford as corresponding secretary.

Heretofore the average annual salary of Baptist ministers in the South has been less than $500, meaning that a large number of preachers received considerably less than that sum, making it necessary that they engage in other occupations during the week in order to support themselves and their families, and rendering it practically impossible for them to lay aside any money as a support for their old age.

The establishment of the Relief and Annuity Board and the decision to raise $5,000,000 during the next seven years for the relief of the aged ministers already in need of assistance and the more adequate care of the men who hereafter give their lives to the Christian ministry without an opportunity to save up a competency to tide them through sickness or care for them in their declining days, has met with a cordial reception at the hands of Southern Baptists, and it is believed the provision of better treatment will not only tend to cause young men to look with greater favor upon the ministry as a life work, but will bring the members of local congregations generally to see the need of paying pastors more adequate salaries before these pastors become old and helpless.

By the addition of an annuity feature it is possible for retired ministers to receive an annuity of $500 after they have reached the age of 68, and provided they have been in the ministry for thirty years. If they have served less than 30 years the annuity is reduced by a certain proportion. To participate in this annuity a minister must make monthly, quarterly or annual payments sufficient to bring in an income of $10 per year when invested, on the principle of regular life insurance, while this is supplemented by $400 provided by the denomination. A minister's participation in the annuity fund is in addition to his claims upon the relief fund.

If the minister is disabled at any time after joining the annuity fund, he will receive a certain annuity throughout the period of disability. If he dies his widow will receive an annuity of 60 per cent of what would have gone to her husband as long as she lives, and should the widow die her annuity will be divided among minor children until they become self-supporting, marry or reach the age of 21.

The board has received an endorsement of $100,000 from the Baptist Sunday School Board at Nashville not included in the 75 Million Campaign, and this sum will be divided equally between the relief and annuity departments. This enables the board to begin work immediately and assistance is already being given to aged ministers and ministers' widows.

MISS ELZORA CUNNINGHAM IN CHARGE OF RED CROSS CHRISTMAS SEAL CAMPAIGN

The spirit of Christmas comes first to Texas with the coming of Santa Claus on the Red Cross Christmas Seal, which will be on sale in this city and county next Monday, December 1. The gift which the jolly old Saint Nick brings to the people is that of good health.

Organization of counties all over the State has been practically completed, announces Campaign Director O. M. Lowry, and a tremendous and successful Seal Sale is expected. McCulloch county has completed its organization, and workers in the cause of good health are now being enrolled by Miss Elzora Cunningham, County Chairman, who expects to raise the quota assigned to the county. The money which is raised in this city and county will be used wholly and exclusively for health work, especially in the fight against tuberculosis, from which disease there were 4,651 deaths reported in Texas last year.

Ninety percent of the money raised in Texas will remain in the State for anti-tuberculosis and health work by the Texas Public Health association and its many affiliated organizations, much of it being spent for local work. The other ten percent will go to the American Red Cross and the National Tuberculosis association for their health programs, and part of this money will, therefore, revert to Texas.

Local workers throughout the county will give the people of McCulloch county an opportunity to buy the little seals of good health, with their Christmas and New Year greetings. They are very attractive little stamps and will fittingly decorate letters, packages and parcels. They radiate Christmas cheer, and each represents a penny's worth of good health for Texas.

Put a porous plaster on the chest and take a good cough syrup internally if you would treat a severe case of sore lungs properly. Get the dollar size BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP. With each bottle there is a free HERRICK'S RED PEPPER POROUS PLASTER for the chest. Sold by Central Drug Store and Trigg Drug Store.

MARKETING COTTON CO-OP. ERATIVELY—SALE OF 100 BALES TO BE MADE SOON

A few weeks ago in the Brady papers I announced a plan of marketing cotton co-operatively, by farmers. I expect to make a sale of a hundred bales within the next ten days. If you want to put any of your cotton in this sale, send me two samples of each bale taken from both sides in which there is a coupon corresponding to the one left on the bale. Attend to this at once. If you are interested in this plan. The charge for classing and marketing is 50c per bale.

SCARCITY OF COTTON SEEDS—SOUTH AND EAST TEXAS DEPENDING UPON WEST TEX.

I am taking opportunity to call your attention to the great importance of your saving good cotton seed for planting another year. There is almost a cotton seed famine on now. I am getting inquiries every day from seed men and planters in the south and eastern parts of the state, stating that they are depending upon us in West Texas for their plant seed another year. I have been informed upon good authority that seed firms are buying our cotton seed and shipping it to points in the eastern part of the state, expecting to ship same back to us in the spring. It is easy to see that this would be very expensive for us to pay the freight both ways and two or three profits and get no better seed than we have from our own field. Cotton seed will be worth more next spring than it sold for last.

If you have pure Mebane or Lone Star cotton be very careful to save all your seed. A little later on when the farmers catch up with their work a little better I expect to help them pick out several car loads for planting purposes and make same very profitable to the farmers. List your seed with me now and let me know when it will suit you better to load same

BOYS' AND GIRLS' CONTEST AND RALLY DAY AT BRADY, TEXAS, DECEMBER 23RD, 1919

Every boy and girl who joined the Agricultural clubs at the different schools over the county are to have a big day in Brady December 23rd. Everything is being done that can be done to make this occasion one of double profit to the club members in this county. The Brady Chamber of Commerce is offering a large number of good cash prizes to the boys and girls who win out in the contests. This should be a stimulus to every boy and girl to do his or her best between now and the 23rd, and also to keep them in the work for better results another year. A letter has been sent to every boy and girl who joined the clubs explaining the contest and listing the prizes. If any club member has not received his letter let me know and I will send one to you. I am making a big effort to get a moving picture reel for the night of December 22nd, that will set the boys a-fire on the pig club work. This reel will give a complete history of the pig club work at Bartlett, Texas, the most famous organization of its kind in the United States. Watch the papers, club members, and if that reel is shown you cannot afford to miss it. I am most sure that I will be able to get it, too. I will keep you posted through the press. I hope every boy and girl in the county can be able to see this production before the winter is over. Mr. Farmer, if you like hogs and want good ones, you cannot afford to miss this show, either.

All the members who are to exhibit animals should, by all means come the day before the contest with his animal and locate it in the pen and get same ready for the exhibit. Stay over night and see the show. It will be free to club members only. I should know before December 8th, just who are going to want space for the exhibit. So I will ask that you write me before that time and arrange this matter. The space is free to you. Everybody is invited to bring their animals that they want to exhibit. Let's make this day a stimulus for better stock on the farms in McCulloch county. The prizes will be for club members only, but it will be good advertising for you to be there with your animals or fowls. Several of the best poultry fanciers are expecting to be there with birds and pet stock to show and to sell. This will afford you an opportunity to buy good foundation stock if you wish to do so. Seeing is believing. Be on hand to see what the boys and girls are doing in the club work.
