

"CHICKEN DINNER IN BRADY" SAY TEMPLE LIVE WIRE BOOSTERS

TEMPLE BOOSTERS PLAN TWO DAYS' TRADE EXCURSION TRIP "OUT WEST"

BOOSTERS RECALL CHICKEN DINNER OF YEARS AGO, AND WANT TO STOP IN BRADY FOR ANOTHER SUCH A GRAND FEAST, SO THEY SAY.

Temple live wires are planning a two days' trade excursion trip "out west" and they want to stop at Brady for another one of those famous chicken dinners—so they say. The trip is planned for the middle of this month, and will follow the Santa Fe main line out as far as Coleman, then double back to Brownwood, and out to Brady and return to Temple via the Lometa-Eden branch. The schedule calls for dinner in San Saba, but those Templeites have good memories and they want a repeater dose of the chicken dinner served them at Brady upon their last booster trip out this way.

This is what Editor Bob Gresham has to say concerning the trip, in last week's issue of the Temple Mirror:

"The committee appointed to feel of the pulse of the business men regarding a special train for a two days trip on the branch reports that they have met with flattering reports, of the many citizens who have signified a willingness to go; there were just four who said that it was impossible for them to get away, so they say.

"Some in this number are people who never taken an interest in building up a town, doing anything that is helpful, always taking the people's money and putting out nothing, whatsoever, this refers to those who were seen Friday and turned the trip down all for 'God Almighty Dollar.'

"The special will be run on or about the fifteenth of June, about one hundred and fifty strong, band and plenty of time spent in each town not a game of tag, someone to make a speech, welcoming the visitors, leaning against a fence post and then the response, and toot, toot, let's go.

"It will be a visit for business, and while many will be on this trip that will reap no direct good from it, there will be many who will get a great benefit from it, as a whole the town will reap a direct good from it, there prove some good. The committee in charge of the feeling of the pulse of the people are elated over the encouragements they received from the people and they in turn will appoint another committee to work out the arrangements and the full details.

It is thought that the trip will extend as far as Coleman, arrange for dinner at Lampasas going, supper and breakfast at Brownwood, down to Brady, San Saba for dinner the next day. Brady seems to be the favorite for dinner as the boys have never forgotten that chicken dinner the last trip there,—heavy on the chicken.

"Full particulars will be given later. But in case you wish some information in the meantime on this trip or do some of the boosting, phone C. V. James at Cooper Grocery Company, who is chairman, or O. A. Engelbrecht or A. H. Saffold, they will be glad to book you for twenty-five dollars for the two days, all expenses.

"Better go, those who stay home will be sorry, and, yes—some—the farmers will have all the cotton choppers from the burg, better take a couple of days off, if you just stay in your seat till we get to the Santa Anna oil well. All aboard."

COMMISSIONERS RETURN FROM GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The Rev. S. H. Jones, pastor of the Brady Presbyterian church, and Clarence Snider returned from Philadelphia, Pa., where they went as commissioners to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church, U. S. A. Mr. Jones returned last Thursday, while Mr. Snider arrived here Sunday, having taken advantage of the opportunity to visit New York City on a sight-seeing tour, and also to stop in Nashville, Tenn., for a visit with relatives.

They report a most enjoyable and profitable trip and stay in the "City of Brotherly Love." Something like 1,000 commissioners were in attendance, and enjoyed hearing such notable as Wm. Jennings Bryan, Vice-President Marshall, and other prominent Presbyterians address the assembly. Gov. Sprout of Pennsylvania, and a presidential possibility, also favored the assembly with an address.

Among other incidents of more than passing interest was the trip to and visit in Atlantic City accorded the commissioners as a courtesy from the leading financiers and business men of Philadelphia. Atlantic City is one of the most famous seaside resorts in the world, and there are a thousand and one hotels there to accommodate the tourists. Some of the hotels resemble castles in Spain more than anything else.

Mr. Snider reports his visit to Washington, D. C., and New York City as a most memorable one, the many sights to be seen there being both beautiful and interesting. Enroute home he stopped in Nashville, Tenn., for a visit with his uncle. Passing through the Blue Grass region of Kentucky, he describes it as one of the most beautiful pieces of scenery he has ever observed.

LOCAL STOCKHOLDERS IN STROUD MOTOR MANUFACTURING ASS'N VISIT PLANT

Messrs. G. A. Rudolph of Lohn, and G. J. Burger, living north of Brady, returned the past week from San Antonio where they had spent several days in company with Messrs. Chas. Ray and Morris Gougher, stock salesmen for the Stroud Motor Manufacturing association, in getting first-hand information upon the progress being made by the company. They returned quite enthusiastic over the trip, Mr. Rudolph bringing with him a number of interesting kodak views of the Stroud building now under construction at San Jose, a suburb of San Antonio. The pictures show the walls of the tractor building going up and nearing completion. A force of 60 men is at work on the erection of this building, and it is hoped soon to double the crew in order to rush completion of this first unit. By September the officers of the company hope to be turning out "All-In-One" tractors. Other units for the building of automobiles and trucks will be under construction as soon as the tractor unit is completed, material now being received daily.

Messrs. Rudolph and Burger have invested heavily in Stroud Motor stock, and are naturally very much interested in the progress and ultimate success of the company. They were more than satisfied with their investment as a result of their personal investigation, and are enthusiastic boosters for the Stroud association.

S. L. HURD, EARLY McCULLOCH CO. SETTLER, PASSED AWAY ON SUNDAY BOASTS FIRST NATIVE ELK CALVES

S. L. Hurd, pioneer of McCulloch county, and one of its most prominent and widely known citizens, passed to his reward on last Sunday morning at his home in Rochelle, Texas, following an illness of the past three or four weeks. Heart trouble is given as the cause of his demise. Last winter Mr. Hurd suffered a severe attack of the "flu" from which he never fully recovered. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon, a great concourse of mourning relatives and friends assembling, and interment was made at East Sweden cemetery, the Rev. Thos. P. Grant performing the last sad rites.

Mr. Hurd was over 70 years of age. He had resided in McCulloch county since 1889, coming here from Williamson. In fact, he, together with his brother, Dan Hurd, and Aledo Johnson and C. C. Johanson, were probably the first Swedish settlers here, and formed the nucleus of the now prosperous and flourishing East Sweden settlement. Back in the '80's it was the custom of the cattlemen in the lower country to drive their cattle to market in Kansas, and while on a round-up and cattle drive, Mr. Hurd and his associates became fascinated with the country in this section, and decided to locate here in '89.

About a year ago Mr. Hurd removed with his family to Rochelle, where he made his residence up to the time of his death.

Mr. Hurd was a man of liberal ideas, and was held in highest regard by all. He had been a member of the Presbyterian church at East Sweden for many years. Surviving are his widow and nine children, all of whom are grown.

Two elk calves—the first born in McCulloch county, probably, in the history of the world—arrived at the Jordan deer park, one mile northwest of the city during the past week. The new arrivals give the park a total of five elk—three grown elk having been domiciled there the past year or two. In addition the park contains five deer, and two Arabian goats. The goats are a recent addition, having been purchased in Fort Worth a week ago by H. S. Sneathly, who has charge of the park for Mr. Jordan. They are a novelty, and quite a curiosity.

The deer park is owned by H. P. Jordan of this city, and was established several years ago, a pair of deer furnishing the nucleus of the present inhabitants. Mr. Jordan now has a 140-acre tract fenced deer proof, the fence being eight foot in height, where the deer, elk and goats are at liberty to roam about at their own good will. A systematic search of the entire pasture was made before the elk calves were found, the mother elk having carefully concealed them in some of the densest brush.

1920 CHAUTAUQUA GREAT SUCCESS—PROGRAM MEETS APPROVAL OF ALL

SALE OF SEASON TICKETS BEFORE OPENING PROGRAM TOTALS $302.50 ABOVE CHAUTAUQUA GUARANTEE—MISS RUBY EVANS POPULAR WITH AUDIENCE.

The Brady 1920 Chautauqua will go down in history as the most successful, from every standpoint, that has ever been held here. To begin with, the sale of season tickets exceeded the amount guaranteed the chautauqua bureau by $302.50. Advertising, carpenter and other expenses totaling over $100 are to be deducted from this. At that the net receipts are certain to be very gratifying, as the door receipts will swell the total to a very nice figure. Not only has success attended the chautauqua this year from a financial standpoint, but it is universally conceded that the first three days' program has been the best, most interesting and most generally appreciated since the chautauqua first came to Brady.

The chautauqua opened with a large attendance Saturday afternoon, the Metropolitan Symphony club entertaining with a musical program which included jazz, popular airs, masterpieces and opera airs—in fact, a most unusual program. Miss Irene Bewley at the afternoon program proved a most delightful entertainer, her readings bringing favorable comment upon all hands from the audience.

Sunday the Maryland Singers entertained with a program of good singing, their repertoire including opera quartets, Spanish, Italian and other foreign popular airs and songs, as well as many of America's own beautiful lyrics and ballads and popular airs. Hon. Leslie Willis Sprague spoke both in the afternoon and at night. The afternoon address was an extemporaneous sketch from two of Tolstoi's great works, the one from the "Resurrection" being of especial interest. At night, Mr. Sprague spoke on the "Prophecy of the Present Unrest," in which he viewed the question from the standpoint of the producer, the laborer, the capitalist and the manufacturer. Mr. Sprague dealt very fairly with all these classes and presented new angles of the question which gave food for reflection to his audience.

Wednesday's program was decidedly the best of the first three days, and was enthusiastically received by the audience. Dr. Alva Morton Reitzel, speaking on "The Measurement of a Man," held the closest attention of his audience, and won favor with his clear-cut exposition of the subject.

Dr. Reitzel measured man, not by his stature, but by his achievements; not by his intentions, but by his accomplishments. He compared the achievements of Washington, a builder of the greatest nation on earth, with those of Napoleon—a great man, but a destroyer, rather than a builder, of nations.

The grand concert by Miss Ruby Evans and her trio of instrumental artists, was quite the greatest musical treat ever given a Brady audience. Miss Evans has a wonderful voice, and with it a charming personality, and graciousness of manner which at once endeared her to all.

W. L. HUGHES COMPILES BUDGET FOR BRADY INDEPENDENT SCHOOLS '20-'21

REVIEWS PROGRESS OF BRADY SCHOOLS DURING THE EIGHT YEARS OF HIS ADMINISTRATION—FROM PROBATION TO FULL AFFILIATION.

W. L. Hughes, retiring superintendent of the Brady independent schools, has compiled a statement of receipts and expenditures of the Brady schools during the past year, which shows conclusively the firm financial footing upon which the schools have been placed during his eight years' administration. Mr. Hughes has also compiled a budget covering the estimated expenses of the 1920-21 school year, which follows and which will be found interesting reading.

1920-21 BUDGET COMPILED FOR BRADY INDEPENDENT SCHOOLS.

Brady, Texas, June 2, 1920.

Table with 2 columns: Item and Amount. Includes Teachers and Janitors Salaries ($19,065.00), Repairs (300.00), Apparatus, etc. (150.00), Water and Sanitation (200.00), etc. Total: $21,635.00.

Table with 2 columns: Item and Amount. Includes 618 scholastics at $8.50 ($5,253.00), County Fund (1,700.00), Tuition (450.00), Transfers (200.00), Vocational Board (714.00). Total: $8,317.00.

Thus you will see that approximately $14,000 must be raised by local taxation in order to show any balance at the end of the year. The balance in the treasury at the end of this year will be approximately $3,500.

Table with 2 columns: Item and Amount. Includes Balance on hand Sept. 1, 1919 ($3,707.67), Received from State (3,487.50), Local Tax (10,715.74), etc. Total: $21,634.66.

Table with 2 columns: Item and Amount. Includes Teachers Salaries ($14,224.04), Grounds and Repairs (292.00), Furniture and Apparatus (131.44), Insurance and Printing (767.05), etc. Total: $17,706.70.

Thus you see we will have a balance on hand of about $3,500. It will be noted that I have made a very conservative estimate of all expenses.

Total expenses for this year... $17,706.70. Total estimated expenses for next year... $21,635.00.

Respectfully submitted, W. L. HUGHES, Sect'y Board. Resume of School Work. Brady, Tex., June 4, 1920.

To the Honorable Board of Trustees, Brady Independent School District: and a few statements and recommendations. Gentlemen:—After having served dations would not be out of place.

I took charge of your schools in August, 1912, at which time I found a depleted treasury while grade teachers were receiving $55 per month, and high school teachers $75 a month.

As to affiliation, the high school had been placed on the probation list, which means that it would have been dropped altogether if some improvements were not made. The high school faculty then consisted of three teachers.

My first endeavor was to strengthen the high school and standardize the work. During my second year another teacher was added to the high school faculty and the history work was put on a satisfactory basis with four units of affiliation.

During my second year, our school was taken from the probation list and we were granted additional affiliation. During the third year we were accepted on the Southern List of Affiliated Schools and have maintained that standard for the past five years.

During the entire time I have been here, teachers' salaries have been gradually raised until now your minimum salary for grade teachers is $90 a month, and for high school teachers is $125 a month.

In point of equipment we are far ahead of most schools of our size. Our laboratories are fully equipped for the teaching of chemistry, physics, biology, general science, agriculture and domestic economy.

The addition to our course of study of a course in household economics was a great step in the right direction, and promises to become one of the most practical and useful parts of your school.

Financially, we have kept our heads above water all the time. We have no debt hanging over us, but, on the other hand, have a handsome balance in the treasury. During my eight years I have succeeded in bringing into the treasury some four or five thousand dollars from various sources all of which has helped to secure much needed equipment.

It has been my aim to recommend teachers on strictly an efficiency basis, and this I have done without fear or favor. We have not always had efficient teachers, but our teaching force has always averaged up pretty well.

While leaving for another field of work, I hope to see the Brady schools make progress from year to year. Brady needs a modern high school building near the center of the town, equipped in an up-to-date manner.

To you as a school board, I wish to acknowledge my indebtedness, and give expression to my sincerest appreciation. No set of men could have made a superintendent's work more pleasant and agreeable.

Very respectfully, W. L. HUGHES. If you cannot eat heartily without an attack of indigestion, your stomach is weak.

PERSONAL MENTION

Miss Knola King has accepted a position as assistant at the Davis Music store.

Mrs. A. Ross of Sweetwater is here for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Batey.

E. J. S. Lee of Placid and son, W. S. Lee, of Mercury, were business visitors here Monday.

Walter Willbanks, who has been attending State university, is vacationing here with home folks.

Miss Johnny Thompson returned Saturday from State university at Austin for the summer vacation.

Mrs. O. S. Macy left Monday night for Brownwood, where she is under treatment of an eye specialist.

Miss Kathryn Smith of Rochelle is a guest of Miss Pinkie Jones this week, while attending the chautauqua.

Duke McCulley of Dallas is spending the week here, a guest of C. H. Vincent and Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Abrey.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Gay left Sunday for Brownwood, where Mr. Gay will be under treatment of an eye specialist.

Mrs. T. J. King is enjoying a visit this week from her sister, Mrs. Sue Dickey of Houston and Mrs. John Riley of Hallettsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Brook and family left Monday for Eldorado, where they are guests of their daughter, Mrs. Edward Willoughby.

D. C. Middleton was in from the Stacy community this morning to meet his sister, Mrs. A. E. Collins, and husband, of Pangburn, Ark., who are here on a visit.

Joe White drove to Austin the past week, returning Saturday accompanied by his sister, Miss Maggie, who is home from State university for the vacation months.

Mrs. Alice Smith, who has been spending the winter in Chicago with her daughter, Mrs. Parker, has returned and is again making her home here with her daughter, Mrs. James T. Mann.

Abner Mayhew and family arrived Saturday from Fort Worth for a visit here with his brother, Ira Mayhew, and father, J. C. Mayhew, and in company with the latter are enjoying a fishing and camping outing on the Llano river near Junction.

C. H. Arnsperger has been enjoying a visit the past week from J. A. Stinnett, Sam Paddy, Row Douglas and Jim Walker, old-time friends of Van Alstyne, Texas. The gentlemen have oil interests here, and while on a trip of inspection of their holdings, enjoyed an outing and fishing trip on the river.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Pate were in from the Doole community this morning shopping. Mr. Pate reports having recently sold his mercantile establishment at Doole to J. L. Barnes, and says he is going to enjoy a well-earned rest. He still owns several farms in the Doole section, and in order to get away from all worries, he and his good wife are planning a trip the latter part of this month to their old home at Pangburn, Ark., where they will be guests of his brother-in-law, J. W. Sutherland, and family. Incidentally they intend to visit at Fayetteville, where the state university is located, and which is one of the beauty spots of Arkansas. They expect to spend some three or four weeks on their trip and visit.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The Standard reporter got his wings badly crossed the past week, in reporting the new assistant at Malone & Ragdale's jewelry store. Edwin Sayles is now assistant at the store, and is adding to the popularity of the firm by his uniform courtesy and accommodating manner.

J. C. McCormack returned to Fort Worth Monday night after spending several days here greeting friends and looking after business matters. "Mac" is in the oil game at Fort Worth, and is prospering. He still maintains a lively interest in McCulloch county developments, and is hoping soon to hear of a big oil strike in this county. McCulloch is one of the most widely advertised counties in the south, he says, and should a big strike be made here, the eyes of the world would be turned on this county.

J. S. Adkins of the battleship Idaho, now at San Francisco, was in Brownwood a short time Friday on his way to Brady where he will spend the time which he is allowed as a furlough. The Idaho is one of the finest ships of the United States navy.—Brownwood Bulletin.

MONEY OF WORLD COULDN'T BUY IT

This Is What Allen Says Of Good Tanlac Did Him—Is Picture of Health Now.

"I wouldn't take all the money in the world for the good Tanlac has done me," said J. B. Allen, a well-known employee of the C. B. & Q. Railroad, residing at 567 East Fourth St., Galesburg, Ill.

"I had suffered for six years," he continued, "and had gotten so weak I couldn't do my work regularly and was ready to give up when I began taking Tanlac. Nearly everything I ate disagreed with me and felt like a coal of fire in my stomach and gave me such terrible crampings that I could hardly stand them. I was so badly constipated I had to take a laxative nearly every night and awful, feverish headaches would come on that would lay me up in bed for a day or more at a time. I lost so much weight and got so weak that I could hardly walk, and really I looked so bad that one day at the roundhouse I overheard one of the boys say: 'He's not long for this world.' Right then I decided to give up my work and try to find something that would help me.

"I read in the papers about Tanlac and decided to try it and now I don't see how in the world a medicine can do what it has done for me. I can eat three big meals every day without any trouble afterwards, the constipation and headaches are gone and my lost weight and strength have all come back. I am the picture of health and the boys all say they never saw anything as wonderful as the way Tanlac has brought back my health."

Tanlac is sold in Brady by Trigg Drug Co., in Mercury by J. T. Matlock and in Rochelle by C. W. Carr.

A NERVOUS WRECK

From Three Years' Suffering. Says Cardui Made Her Well.

Texas City, Tex.—in an interesting statement, Mrs. G. H. Schill, of this town, says: "For three years I suffered untold agony with my head. I was unable to do any of my work."

I just wanted to sleep all the time, for that was the only ease I could get, when I was asleep. I became a nervous wreck out from the awful suffering with my head."

I was so nervous that the least noise would make me jump out of my bed. I had no energy, and was unable to do anything. My son, a young boy, had to do all my household duties.

I was not able to do anything until I took Cardui. I took three bottles in all, and it surely cured me of those awful headaches. That has been three years ago, and I know the cure is permanent, or I have never had any headache since taking Cardui.

Nothing relieved me until I took Cardui. It did wonders for me."

Try Cardui for your troubles—made from medicinal ingredients recommended in medical books as being of benefit in female troubles, and 40 years of use has proven that the books are right. Begin taking Cardui today. NC-134

Kindergarten Helps for Parents

This is No. 40 of a series of articles issued by the National Kindergarten Association. They will appear weekly in these columns.

By MRS. JEAN N. BARRETT.

A few instances of what has been done in some homes through the power of music will, I know, tell you more than the mere advancement of theories.

A little girl who was very miserable and managed to make mother or nurse most unhappy all through the process of hairdressing and getting into bothersome clothes, would submit most graciously if mother sang.

My mother bids me bind my hair
With knot of fairest hue;
Tie up my sleeves with ribbon rare,
And lace my bodice blue;
For why, she says, sit still and weep
While others are at play?
an adaption of Haydn's beautiful air.

Another mother learned to help her little boy work off some of his stormy fits of temper by going to the piano and playing some stormy, impetuous bit like Schumann's "Wild Rider." The boy did not know why this was done, but he felt the mood of the music because it exactly fitted his own, and he would career around the room like a veritable wild pony, until his emotion, which might have worked harm to himself and others, had spent itself in this harmless way.

My sister remembers that even as a child she recognized this power of music to bring sweetness out of temper. She was very angry one day with a sense of some injustice done her and in this mood started to play her beloved piano. As she did this she realized that if she played she would soon cease to be angry, and not being ready to give up her resentful mood, she rejected the gentle ministry of music and went to her room to nurse her unhappiness.

As an incitement to bravery music has often been used in the home. A little boy much afraid of the dark would go upstairs to a dark room for mother when she played a strong march for him as he went.

If mothers could realize how many times a bit of music would be of greater service than even the kindest remonstrance, they would have crashing chords ready for the angry boy, nonsense song to drive scowls from the face of little daughter, and jolly jig to set lagging feet and drooping spirits dancing; while a gay little tune improvised or adapted for the occasion would often bring cheerful obedience in response to the request to pick up playthings or perform some other unwelcome task, where a stern command would start an unhappy time for all concerned.

One of my childhood memories is of visiting in a country home where the mother would often get up from the breakfast table and say, "Come, let us sing a little before we do the work." Bad housekeeping, perhaps, but good homemaking, for I have since learned that this method was always resorted to when the morning atmosphere of the home threatened to be gloomy or quarrelsome; and the singing never failed to drive away the clouds. Of course, this use of music is most effective with a child who is either endowed by nature with the ability to respond to musical influence or has been trained in ear and heart to feel its effects.

A child who has always heard good music and has early learned to love and produce it, has great advantage over one to whom it comes as a later and more foreign achievement. Responsiveness to the atmosphere of music is not, however, dependent upon the ability to create it, although of course, made stronger by it. A little 4-year old child who had no natural ability for either singing or playing, being deficient in both rhythmic sense and sense of pitch, nevertheless, was so sensitive to musical impressions that she described the tunes which were played to her as pink and red and blue like the sky, and one which had strong chords with a staccato melody above them as the green tune with red berries. These interpretations of music in terms of color were later explained by the development of an unusual degree of talent with pencil and brush.

Another memory of my childhood is of a visit to a dear auntie, who, on Sunday afternoons, took her little visitor from Brady... and amid lending itself freely to the various moods of the fine nature it serves. It is truly one of the duties of the mother and the kindergartner to be a model for her children in this respect as in many others, for children are very sensitive to voice quality.

While the kindergartner's opportunity comes later than that of the mother, she has the same responsibility to see that the children under her care are given the opportunity for "full and all-sided development," to use the words of Froebel, "to enable him to see man in the universality of his nature and particularly to enable him to understand and appreciate the products of true art." Many children will come to her without having experienced in the home any of the life of music which might have been theirs, and to her will fall the duty of arousing the first idea, of awakening the first emotion for sound.

Who that has ever witnessed the delight of a little kindergartner child in this new way of expressing his joy in life can doubt that music should be regarded as a beneficial influence in life, and not as an accomplishment to be cultivated only by those of more than ordinary endowment? When the kindergartner says, "Who will sing our new song for us alone?" how often is it the little fellow who cannot yet carry a tune that eagerly responds especially if mother is there to hear. If teacher and mother are wise, there will be no expression of surprise or dissent; for the right trueness or untrueness of the tune just now is nothing to the inner urge which makes the child want to express himself in this new and delightful way.

To sing the lifting measure when the heart is gay, to give thanks for cherished blessings in the glad hymn of praise, to send upon wings of song a prayer for strength to bear the burden and grief too heavy to be borne alone, this is what God's great gift of music should mean to us. Let us help the little children enter into their heritage of song.

When In Trouble Just Grin.
If you're looking rather thin,
With your health checks most cashed in,
Nearly wish you'd never been,
This advice will help you win—
You just GRIN.

If many things your temper rile,
And your blood begins to "bile,"
This advice is worth your while,
Better keep it in your file—
You just SMILE.

But if neither fits by half,
And your dose is hard to quaff,
This advice is no mere chaff,
Instead of bellowing like a calf—
You just LAUGH.

METHOD OF KILLING GRASSHOPPERS GIVEN BY DEPT. OF AGRICULTURE

Austin, June 3.—For combating the grasshoppers which the State Department of Agriculture has been advised are serious, damaging crops in Northwest Texas, State Entomologist R. E. McDonald gives out the following remedy:

"Mix dry twenty-five pounds of wheat bran with one pound of Paris green. Add three quarts of sorghum molasses to three and one-half gallons of water, to which squeeze out half dozen lemons. Wet up the poisoned bran with this solution, adding more water if necessary. Scatter the mixture in the path of the grasshoppers as soon as they begin the attack."

A Sensitive Taste.
"Which is the most delicate of the senses?" asked the teacher.
"The touch," said young Jones.
"How's that?" asked the teacher, and Jones explained, "Well, when you sit on a pin, you can't see it, you can't hear it, you can't taste it, but it's there."

The Least Alternative.
Mother was trying to give her small son a dose of castor oil, and after much coaxing he would not swallow it. She said to her husband: "Billy will not take the oil; we will just have to use main force." Billy's face brightened and he said: "Daddy, bring the main force and I will try to take that."—Chicago Tribune.

MISTAKE TEN YEARS AGO CAUSE OF POOR BALLINGER SHOWING

Ballinger, Tex., June 2.—The big decrease in population as shown by the federal census just announced, is due to the fact that an addition to the city which has never been included in the corporate limits of the city, was included in the count ten years ago, and not included in the recent enumeration. The population is estimated to be about the same as ten years ago.
