

Dear People:

BEGINNING SUNDAY, MARCH 20th, 1921, WE WILL KEEP OUR CAFE CLOSED ON SUNDAYS DURING THE SUMMER MONTHS.

We are trying to give you the very best service possible in return for the unlimited amount of boosting given us, as well as the liberal patronage.

In order to be able to give your orders the attention they should have, our employees, as well as ourselves, must have a reasonable amount of rest. Besides this, the Brady folks have for years past made Sunday a day of recreation and rest and enjoyed day's outing at the numerous natural beauty spots of McCulloch and adjoining counties. This, together with the fact that our farmer and stockmen friends have their way of spending the Sabbath which rarely ever brings them to our city. This Sunday exodus leaves the Brady population depleted to where it hardly justifies the expense of operating a Cafe of this size.

You are a Dandy bunch of Folks, and you are "SOT" in your ways as regards the observance of the Sabbath. While we try to approach as near as possible to your good old home style of cooking and service, we are not going to expect you to change your customs to meet our business needs; on the contrary, we prefer to do as many other successful ones have done. PUT IN WITH THE WINNERS.

Remember, this Sunday closing is only through the hot, dull Summer months. We will keep our place open Day and Night during the busy season of the year.

Thanking you for your kind consideration of this matter, we hope to remain,

Yours very truly,

"IRWINS"

The Stamp Of Edison's Genius

is clear and unmistakable. It places Edison's Amberola so far above "talking machines" and ordinary phonographs that there is no comparison. You don't have to be a musical expert to realize that the Amberola is the world's greatest phonograph value. Anyone who likes music cannot fail to note the tremendous difference.

EDISON'S NEW DIAMOND AMBEROLA

has such a pure, musical tone, that once you've heard it, no metallic sounding phonograph or shrill "talking machine" will ever please you again. The genuine Diamond Point Reproducer does away with needles. The practically indestructible Amberol Records outlast ordinary fragile records by many years! Name your own terms and learn how surprisingly easy it is to own an Amberola, thanks to Mr. Edison. NOW—can you refuse to visit our store and listen to the Amberola? Come right away—don't forget please.

G. B. DILWORTH, UNCLE OF MRS. M. E. ABERNATHY, PASSED AWAY AT TILDEN

The following article, reprinted from the San Antonio Express, tells briefly of the life and death of G. B. Dilworth, retired ranchman, and prominent business man of McMullen county. The article is of local interest, Mr. Dilworth having been an uncle of Mrs. M. E. Abernathy. The article reads: "G. B. Dilworth, retired stockman and highly respected citizen of McMullen county, after a lingering illness of several months, died here Friday at the home of his sister, Mrs. Louis Pursch, at the age of 64. He was born in Gonzales county, October 23, 1856, and received his education in that county. He was permitted to practice law, but had never followed the legal profession. "He was actively engaged in the mercantile and cattle raising business in McMullen county until a few years ago, when he retired. "He was a member of the Masonic fraternity and at one time was district and county clerk of McMullen county for a period of eight years. He was well known in Southwest Texas, and enjoyed a great host of friends throughout this section of the state. "Mr. Dilworth left surviving him two brothers, A. L. Dilworth of Duval county, and A. M. Dilworth of Tilden, and two sisters, Mrs. Louis Pursch and Mrs. J. H. Sling, both of this place. "The funeral took place from the home of Mrs. Louis Pursch and interment was made in the Tilden cemetery."

THESE BRADY CITIZENS ENDORSE COUNCIL'S PROJECT DEEP WATER WELL

The following is the petition, together with the several hundred subscribers thereto, which was circulated a couple weeks ago by Henry Miller and which serves as an endorsement of the proposed deep water well which the Brady city council will seek to have drilled at an early date:

The following is the petition, together with the signers, as presented by Mr. Miller to the council: Brady, Texas, Feb. 26, 1921.

We, the undersigned citizens hereby express our desire that the city council drill a well, at the plant, at once, to supply the town with water:

CHMN. MAYFIELD SAYS HIGH RATES CURTAIL TRAVEL

Austin, Texas, March 15.—Chairman Allison Mayfield of the Texas Railroad Commission said today that he seriously doubted whether yesterday's rate increase will benefit the carrier; instead, he thinks it will have the opposite effect by curtailing travel and thus reduce the earnings. Passenger fares were raised 20 per cent and the railroads will collect a surcharge of 50 per cent on Pullman tickets. This is not added by the Pullman company, as some people think but is a charge made by the railroads. The total sleeping car fare from Austin to Dallas is now $4.05 for one night's travel. Seat fares have likewise gone up.

Chairman Mayfield says such unusual high charges will discourage travel rather than increase it and thus the railroads will defeat the very purpose of their raise. There was submitted in the United States Supreme Court at Washington yesterday the Wisconsin case, involving the right of the States to fix the transportation charges between points within their own borders, as against the jurisdiction asserted by the railroads under the orders of the interstate Commerce Commission.

Freight rates are also to go up as a result of the Interstate Commission's orders, and the railroads enjoined the States from attacking same. The carriers acted promptly following Attorney General Curoton's defy to the Interstate Commission in Washington when he said this is to be no "rubber stamp State."

NEW MURDER MYSTERY PUZZLING OFFICIALS NEIGHBORING COUNTY

Bell county officers are puzzled as to the identity of a woman whose headless and limbless body was found in Little River late Sunday. The body was in a tow sack, and there is apparently no indication as to either the identity or the motive or method of murder.

The limbs and head had been sawed from the body, according to the opinion of physicians who examined the torso. Around the neck and body was securely tied a sisal three-eighths-inch rope, to which was evidently attached a weight. On one of the sacks blood stains were apparent. It is thought that the body remained on the bottom of the river a number of days because the sacks were saturated with mud on one side.

The physicians stated that both limbs had been saved off with a saw at the hips and that the head was also sawed off. It is the theory that the murderer did this so that the body could be put in the sacks and sunk more easily. There was possible one other mark on her body which would indicate a wound, but this could not be established, since it is possible that it was inflicted when the corpse was removed from the water.

It is the theory of the officers that the woman was killed, put into the sacks and taken to one of the bridges and thrown in. They are of the opinion that the body was thrown off the King's Trail bridge over Little river, but stated that it could have been thrown off one of the other bridges in that section, or off one of the Leon river bridges.

In the opinion of examining physicians the woman was probably 35 or 40 years old.—Brownwood Bulletin.

NEW PASTOR CHRISTIAN CHURCH, BRINGS RECOMMENDATIONS OF HIGH ORDER

Evangelist P. Richard Campbell, who, with Mrs. Campbell, arrived in Brady some two weeks ago, to act in the capacity of pastor for the local Christian church while undertaking the upbuilding of that congregation, brings with him recommendations of the highest character. Rev. Campbell has been engaged in evangelistic services for many years, and has served in various states of the Union Everywhere he and his good wife have made friends, and everywhere have his services been accorded full recognition for their value and for the salvation that he has brought to erring sinners. Already have Rev. and Mrs. Campbell established themselves firmly in the favor of members of the local church, and increasing interest is following his work in the church. One of the evidences of appreciation was to be found in the pounding given Rev. and Mrs. Campbell Tuesday by the ladies of the church, who showered them with innumerable good things to eat. The men of the church also made up a nice purse, which was presented the pastor at the pounding.

The Standard is privileged to reprint several of the letters of endorsement given Rev. Campbell, both in this and other states, as follows:

"Brother Campbell has done a good work here and he leaves the work in good condition for the pastor. I know no man who lives nearer to the Master than does Brother Campbell; nor who can more effectually hide behind the cross of Cavalry in the delivery of his messages. His every theme is the Christ of the Bible, and his preaching is the Gospel in its simplicity and power. And first of all he is a man. J. AUSTIN STRANGE, Chm. Finance Com., Herring Ave Church, Waco, Texas."

"Evangelist P. Richard Campbell recently closed a revival in Holland extending over a period of eleven days that was not only successful in numbers added to the church but was successful in exciting an unusual interest among men who seldom attend church. He found a place in the hearts of the Holland people that made him a universal favorite regardless of church affiliations. A man of wonderful magnetic power and personality he thrilled his audiences to such an extent that every one seemed to hang upon his every utterance with intense interest. That he is truly a man of God and an evangelist with but few equals is the verdict of the entire community. W. F. DOUTHITT, Elder Christian Church, Holland, Texas."

"I have known P. Richard Campbell, Evangelist, for years and do not hesitate to commend him as an able preacher of the Word. A preacher of ability and power and a man who fearlessly declares the whole counsel of God and a truly Christian gentleman. CHAS. S. SKINNER, Elder Christian Church, Tuscola, Ill."

Rev. T. L. Hagberg, from Waco, Texas, is conducting a series of revival meetings for the Swedish M. E. Congregation. The meeting began Monday night of this week and will last over next Sunday. From Thursday night to close the services will be in English and everybody is especially invited to attend.
OTTO MARTINSON, Pastor.

At the Methodist Church.
For Sunday, March 20th:
Our subject for the morning hour will be "True and False Foundations." Few subjects can be of more importance than this one; because we are all building, and the durability of our most valuable edifice—Human Character—will depend upon the foundation upon which we have builded.
At the evening service, 7:45, our subject will be "The Modern Ball with the Cover Kicked Off." While in college at Southwestern University, I saw the covers peeled off from two base-balls during the process of one game. Being on the team and having something to do with the care of the property, the two balls were turned over to me, and I was much struck with the inner material of which they were made. Being a young preacher and studying for the ministry, I at once applied the above subject to the infamous Modern Dance of the present day. This discussion will be a sane, sensible, dissecting of this most common and very dangerous evil. Come with us on this little trip and we shall endeavor to do you good, now and throughout all life to come, then in an everlasting eternity.

Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.; Epworth league at 6 p. m. Why not give each Sunday to the service of our God? It can be spent in no better way. Ours is the home-like church. Come! We give you a ready and glad hand.

S. C. DUNN, Pastor.

Senior Epworth League.
The league last Sunday was especially interesting. The young people seem to be enjoying the programs, from Sunday to Sunday, and they are all ready to respond when called upon.

The crowds have been very encouraging but there are still many who have not yet come that should. The older people as well as the young, are invited. Come, and make it a point to bring some one with you.

The program for next Sunday, March 20, follows:

Subject: "My Favorite Psalm."
Song—No. 7.
Reading of the Scripture References. Psa. 12:1-8.—Edith McShan; Matt. 26:30.—Cleone Deavers.

A GOOD FRIEND.

A good friend stands by you when in need. Brady people tell how Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test. A. H. Connor, carpenter, of Brady, endorsed Doan's four years ago and again confirms the story. Could you ask for more convincing testimony? "My back hurt me pretty bad and it seemed that the pains were mostly over my left kidney," says Mr. Connor. "My kidneys were very congested and the secretions pained in passage and contained sediment. One box of Doan's Kidney Pills relieved the trouble with my back and regulated my kidneys."
(Statement given April 29, 1915.)

On May 16, 1919 Mr. Connor said: "I still recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as highly as I did when I previously endorsed them. I think Doan's are a fine kidney remedy and I find occasional use of them keep my kidneys in good shape."

The Junior Red Cross. The Junior Red Cross has been very beneficial to the Central school. Some of the money that was contributed has been used to buy a set of reference books for the fifth and sixth grades. These books have been needed for many years and are an invaluable aid to those pupils. Quite a number of balls and bats have also been bought with some of this money, and which have added greatly to the playground equipment and assisted the pupils in getting the necessary exercise.

Some scales have also been purchased to weigh the children in order to determine whether or not the pupils are of normal weight and height for their age. These scales have already proven to be beneficial as some of the children in the first grades were very much underweight. The teachers told their parents the kind of food that these children needed and in two weeks' time they had gained several pounds.

The First Aid kit is another valuable asset to the school that is a result of the Juniors' ready response in contributing. It contains bandages and all of the different kinds of medicines that could be needed in emergency cases; and it has answered calls from all sources, such as bruises, cuts, and even the toothache.

The latest work of this energetic crowd of young Junior Red Cross workers is the cleaning of the school grounds. Although the task was much harder work than that in the school-room, it was a change from the regular duties and the pupils entered into it so heartily that it almost became play. In a very short time the aspect of the grounds was changed. The loose, troublesome rocks were all carried off, and all paper and trash were burned.

HONEST INJUN.

Even the mesquites are beginning to leaf out—and the mesquites have been here so long, surely they ought to know when Spring has really come.

BOB GRESHAM.

The Texas Press mourns the passing away of Bob Gresham, editor of the Temple Mirror, prince of good fellows, and, withal, one of the most popular and universally esteemed citizens of Texas. A great man was Bob Gresham, great in body, great in mind and great in heart. It is said of him that no man could claim more friends and fewer enemies. Everybody liked Bob, and, apparently, he liked everybody. His last visit to Brady was made with the Temple Booster excursion last year. Then he was in the best of health and spirits, and death seemed afar off.

There are numbers of Brady citizens who knew Bob Gresham personally; there are thousands of Texans who knew him—and one and all knew him but to love him. The greatest monument he has left to mark his life's work is found in the kind words his memory brings forth from his legion of friends.

CHILDREN SET EXAMPLE.

Dad and mother very often find son or daughter setting an example which the older folks might well emulate. In fact, the younger generation, more often than not, set a pace for good works that makes us older ones realize that we really are older. For example, we direct attention to the report published in this issue from the pen of Miss Cherry, secretary of the Junior Red Cross at the Central school. Not only does this report show much beneficial work and results in the school work and equipment by reason of the Junior's activities, but it also comments upon the clean-up program at the school.

The Standard editor is advised that the teachers dismissed school one afternoon at 2:30 o'clock to enable the children to accomplish the tidying up of the school grounds. The children set to work with a right good will, and not only cleaned off all the unsightly and troublesome rocks, leaving the playgrounds as smooth as a floor, but they continued the good work until all the rubbish, weeds and brush about the school grounds were gathered up and burned.

The Central School playgrounds grades A1 in the Brady Clean-Up. Every Brady citizen should endeavor to measure up, in the home clean-up, to the standard set by the Juniors of Central school.

HIGH RATES CURTAIL TRAVEL.

In a statement just issued, Chairman Allison Mayfield of the Texas Railroad Commission says that the increased railway rates will defeat their own purpose, viz: the placing of more funds in the coffers of the railroads. The increased rates will serve to curtail travel, and thereby defeat the purpose of the raise, says Mayfield.

There is small question but what Mr. Mayfield states the proposition correctly. The increase in passenger rates, with war tax added, amounts to so considerable a sum, that people are going to travel by rail only when they find it absolutely necessary. Again, the tremendous increase in Pullman rates makes this a luxury which comparatively few will feel they can afford.

The immediate result of the increase in freight rates is said to be found in the fact that there are more idle cars on the railway right-of-ways today than there has been in the past four or five years.

WHY IT FAILED?

Some religious organizations in Chicago recently sponsored a daily paper which began publication with the announcement that it would minimize crime and scandal news. The paper lasted less than three months. Evidently it failed to meet popular approval.

This is the age of sensations. The great mass of people crave it. They deplore gossip and crime—but they grab the morning sheet to see what's the worst that happened yesterday. Should the skeleton be dragged from their own private closet, they deplore the action of the papers in making a public scandal of their private affairs—but let the scandal concern some neighbor, and the items are read down to the minutest detail—and discussed far and wide.

To succeed nowadays, one must cater to one's patrons—or else lose them to someone who will. The people want to read about crime, scandal and gossip—that's why the newspapers print it. The general public is "crazy" to see the latest divorcee, the "beautiful defendant" on trial for shooting down her husband in cold blood; the "other woman" in the "eternal triangle," etc. Let any of these engage in the movies, and her success is assured.

The great mass of citizens deplore these facts—yet they occupy front seat when the performance is on. They deplore woman's dress of today—yet, to be fashionable they wear 'em a little shorter than their neighbors.

All this is a far cry from the normalcy of the "good old days," but the few reformers who are endeavoring to get back to those days are making poor headway. The jazz is in everyone's system now, and life does not appear to be worth living without it. Whether it be woman's dress, public concerts or newspaper stories, the jazz has to be there, or the public decides the attempt as an utter failure.

UNRECOGNIZED GOOD FORTUNE.

Many of us, in fits of temper, have thrown away opportunities which later were valued highly but could not be secured again. Here is a little story that illustrates the point:

A real tragedy was brought to light in a recent issue of "A Nap," a Budapest newspaper. A poor Hungarian, whose family was on the point of starvation, had written to a well-to-do brother in America for help. For months he had waited, hoping desperately against hope that the assistance would not reach him too late. One day, when he had almost given up in despair, he received a bulky package from America, and his heart leaped with joy. From its size it must contain as much as $1,000, he was sure. But when he opened it with trembling fingers he found only a handsome photograph of his prosperous brother. Enraged at this vain reply to his pitiful appeal, he hurled the picture into the fire and watched his last hope go up in flames. The next day he received the following letter, also from America:

"Dear Brother: With sincere regret have I read in your letter of your pitiful condition, and I wish to help you. Yesterday I sent to your address a picture; take the back paper off carefully, as there is a one-thousand dollar bill under it. Use it with health and my best wishes. Your brother."—Brownwood Bulletin.

THE LURE OF INK.

There is a recognized fascination about the printing business—something that makes the profession hard to get away from. Rarely does anyone who has engaged in the printing business, remain away for any length of time. There's J. A. Wilhelm, for instance. Announcement in the Eden Echo the past week states that Mr. Wilhelm has leased the Echo from D. C. Broyles, the owner, and will conduct that worthy paper. For several years prior to 1918, Mr. Wilhelm was in charge of the Echo and after this lapse of time, he is merely coming "back home." But in the meantime, no doubt, he has broadened his knowledge and enlarged his sphere of usefulness—at any rate that is the impression obtained from the Echo issued last week and which is decidedly the best issue gotten out in a number of years. We trust Mr. Wilhelm's return among his former friends, and to his old standby will result in much mutual benefit to himself and the good citizens whom he seeks to serve.

The Texas prison system has one employe to every seven convicts, according to statistics contained in the report of the prison auditor. The auditor's report showed that in 1920 there was a prison population of 2,692. There were 365 employes besides the "trusties," who do a large part of the office work and other labor. The total cost of operation of the system in 1920 was $1,220,715.48 a year, or $101,726.29 per month. This would make the cost per man $37.70 a month. The total value of State prison system property is $6,911,796.93 according to the report.—Coleman Democrat-Voice.

old lady in North Carolina, who, when voting the first time, voted the Republican ticket, as she had always read the Bible as her guide and she saw very much in its pages about Republicans and sinners, and she naturally thought the Democrats were the sinners, so she voted the Republican ticket. This reminds us of a story about the trustees of the public school in Minneapolis, who had under advisement the teaching of the Bible in the schools of their city. They said they were not acquainted with the Bible, but would obtain a copy and read it, and if it met with their approval they would order it taught in their schools. But upon the next meeting they voted that the Bible be not taught for the reason it said a great deal about St. Paul, but not a word about Minneapolis.—Lott Post.

Louie Rohde requests that the party or parties who first stole a good inner tube, then his tools and lastly his tool chest, please make themselves known to him, so that he can plead with them not to take his car next.

Henry Bradley was a Fife visitor in Brady yesterday. Henry says he is having 100 acres planted in corn this year. The rains the first of the month fell just right to give a good corn season, and he figures that if the crop does make, he can store it or find some good use to which to put it, even should there be no market for the same.

W. H. Ballou is another of Brady citizens who are adding to the comforts of life by the enlarging of their homes. Mr. Ballou has the construction of a commodious sleeping porch under way, and will also enlarge the kitchen and materially improve the appearance of the interior of his home. Ferris Woodward has charge of the carpenter work.

From the Lometa Reporter we note the following: "Mrs. W. E. Adkins and Ryan are now domiciled in Austin, and the latter has taken up his studies in the law department of the State University." Ryan recently sold the Lometa Reporter in order to devote his entire time to the practice of law. He was admitted to the bar several years ago, but is in Austin to take a course in law.

Isn't it surprising what a great amount of happiness a little bright-eyed girl can bring into this world? There's Gibbon Roberts, for instance—one of the happiest men in town just because the wise old stork left a dainty little Miss for himself and Mrs. Roberts in the wee sma' hours of this morning. Mother and babe doing fine, and parents and grandparents, and friends as well, delighted.

There is a dusky citizen of Brady doing some mighty good work in filling up the low places on the east side of the court house square, with old plaster which has been taken from the courthouse wall during the process of replastering that temple of justice. Incidentally, the negro is working out an accumulated fine of $48.75, imposed because he deigned to shoot craps and cuss a woman. Verily the way of the transgressor is hard-work.

It was a happy message yesterday which brought tidings of the arrival of a fine boy, born to Mr and Mrs. H. B. Ogden Wednesday night, March 16th, at Fort Worth, where Mr. and Mrs. Ogden have been guests of Mrs. Ogden's sister, Mrs. H. M. Brannum, and family. The new arrival weighed about eight pounds. Mother and babe are reported doing splendidly, and Father Ogden as proud of the new arrival as can be. Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Crothers are now in Fort Worth getting acquainted with their new grandson.

The many Brady friends of R. C. Brewster, engineer in charge of the Santa Fe extension to Eden some ten years ago, will be interested to learn that Mr. Brewster is now manager of the Toyah Valley Title Co., with office just opened at Pecos, Texas. To prove they are prepared to give the right service at the right price, is the emphatic statement that "pre-war prices" are made for their

Cheapness—or Quality

Long ago most of us learned that true economy comes from buying for quality, and not for cheapness; the best, in the long run, is usually the cheapest.

You want good telephone service; we want you to have it. But good telephone service (like anything else) costs more to make than inferior service—and the money any utility company can spend for making its service depends upon its revenue.

The small difference between inadequate and adequate telephone rates means little to the individual subscriber—but in the aggregate it means, to the telephone company, the difference between inadequate and adequate wages for its employees; between insufficient and sufficient upkeep and operation of its property. Therefore it may mean, to you, the difference between poor and good telephone service—

In buying telephone service, just as in buying anything else, isn't it better to pay enough to allow quality, rather than to buy simply for cheapness?

LOCAL BRIEFS.

M. F. Fuller is one of the happiest men about town, just now, all because of the fact that Mrs. Fuller is slowly recovering from a long spell of illness. Since last August, Mrs. Fuller has not walked a step, and during the entire period was under treatment, either at home or in the sanitarium. Last week she began to learn to walk once more, and is in hopes that her first steps are merely the starting point in the return to complete health.
 Mrs. George W. Henderson, who has charge of the hemstitching machine at the Singer shop, is becoming wonderfully proficient in her work, and her picoting and hemstitching is declared by Mr. Westbrook, manager, to be superior to that of the expert operator who demonstrated the machine when he first received it. This wonderful machine is a distinct credit to Brady, inasmuch as heretofore only the larger cities have boasted of this marvel.

 Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Sheppard of Spur, Texas, are now numbered as Brady citizens, having come here to make their home with their son, Will Sheppard. Mrs. Sheppard has been here for the past couple weeks and Will Sheppard went to Spur ten days ago to bring his father, who was quite ill at time. Since coming to Brady, the elder Mr. Sheppard has regained his health and both he and his wife are delighted with the town, the climate and the people they find here.

There is more than one way to reform a man, and this is the story told by Mrs. R. A. King, upon a visit here the past week, of how she broke her husband, "Bob" King, of smoking. Since moving out to the ranch beyond Eldorado, Bob has been working like a Turk. He plows all day long, just like a veteran. The other day he was driving a skittish mule to the cultivator, and Mrs. King rode up nearby and implored him not to work so hard, and also suggested that he was smoking entirely too much for his own good. Bob said not a word, but kept on with his work. Just then the cultivator struck a hidden stump, with the result that Bob was pitched head-foremost into the plowed dirt. Mrs. King rode up quickly and caught and held the skittish mule so it could do no damage by running away. Bob rose from where he had been pitched, dug the dirt out of his eyes and ears and disgustedly threw his cigar down. He had reformed—he had quit smoking.

 "No stranger must be allowed to enter the bank at night under any pretext whatever."
 "No, sir."
 "And our manager—he is a good man, honest and trustworthy; but it will be your duty to keep your eye on him."
 "But it will be hard to watch two men, sir, and the bank at the same time."
 "Two men, how?"
 "Why, sir, it was only yesterday that the manager called me in for a talk, and he said you were one of the best men in town, but it would be just as well to keep both eyes on you, and let the directors know if you hang about after hours."

Church Merger Undecided.
 "I thought there was a movement in your town for all the churches to merge into one."
 "There is."
 "What's the delay?"
 "They can't decide which one."

Nothing to Worry About
 The fussy man who was waiting in the little depot for the 4:30 train happened to notice that the clock in the agent's office said 4:17 while the clock in the waiting room said 4:18. The fussy man dashed out to an old Irish porter who was sweeping off the platform in front of the depot.
 "See here! said the fussy man, "one of those clocks says 4:17 and the other says 4:18. I am waiting for the 4:30 train and I'd like to know which clock is correct."
 "The Irish porter glanced at one clock and then at the other clock. Then he spat on the platform and looked wise.
 "Sure," he replied, "it don't make any difference which clock is right. The train goes at 4:30, any how."

PAPER REFUSING TO PRINT CRIME NEWS IN CHICAGO FAILS

Chicago, Ill. March 12.—The American Daily Standard, a daily afternoon newspaper which started publication on Dec. 22, 1920, with the announcement that it would minimize crime and scandal news today permanently suspended publication. The paper was sponsored primarily by religious organizations.

 The lanky mountaineer drew himself up haughtily.
 "Mister, you got me wrong," he asserted. "Since prohibition come in we-uns call ourselves irrigation engineers."

REMARKABLE TRUTH—BELGIAN'S BROTHER DIED 125 YEARS AGO

Brussels.—When a man, aged 83, applied to the court for relief the magistrate asked him whether he had no friends or relations who could help him. The old man said he had none, for his only brother died 125 years ago.
 After the usual warning that the court was not to be turned into a theater, the old man explained that his father was married in 1792 and had a son who died three years later. The father married a second time in 1836, at the age of 62, and the applicant was born the year after.
