RENEWED ACTIVITY IN LOCAL OIL FIELDS—DEEP TEST ON DAY TRACT

CASA OIL COMPANY TO RESUME DRILLING AT ONCE—SHALLOW TEST ABOUT READY TO SPUD IN ON DOUGLAS TRACT; DAY AND MERCURY FIELDS ACTIVE.

Oil operators are now completing preparations to give McCulloch county another thorough test, in which practically all of the various oil fields of the county will share. A. M. Lee, representing the Casa Oil Co. is here from Fort Worth and is actively superintending preparations for the resumption of operations on the company's test in the Lohn area, and which is known as the Cooper-Shields deep test. The shallow test on the Douglas tract will be spudded in within the next few days, and the deep hole will soon be in shape to permit a test of the 660 ft. sand. Thad O. Day is rapidly getting things in shape to drill well No. 1 to deep sand, and from Mercury comes reports of another well having been brought in, and more drilling now under way.

Mr. Lee has been here the past several weeks getting things shaped up for a resumption of operations on the Cooper-Shields test, near Lohn, and about 17 miles northwest of Brady. He states that after waiting for several weeks hoping for a rain that would replenish their water supply, his company has decided to take matters into their own hands, and will lay about a mile of water line to Cow Creek, where they have an ample supply in sight. As soon as connections can be made, the company will be ready to resume drilling, which was stopped some months ago.

In the Douglas field, the Friday Oil Co. last Monday successfully shot off several hundred feet of the 12-inch casing, which permitted the easy removal of the balance of the string of 12-inch. Several delays have been encountered but it is thought the well will have been plugged by the end of the week, and everything be in readiness for a shot in the 660 ft. sand, where a good showing of oil with gas was had in the drilling of the original 2,000 ft. hole.

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR HONOR GRADUATES RECEIVED

N. A. Cleveland, superintendent of the Brady school, has already received scholarships from L. A. at Denton and T. W. C. at Fort Worth, which will be awarded to honor graduates from the Brady high school. Mr. Cleveland also states that he has been assured one scholarship from Austin college at Sherman and two from Trinity college at Waxahachie—one for the boy, and the other for the girl honor graduate. Further, Baylor university at Waco has given notice that they have a scholarship to offer, providing same be used this year. A. & M. college at College Station advises they will forward one scholarship to Brady school on the 15th inst.

Mr. Cleveland has out letters of requests of free scholarships from the State University at Austin and various other institutions, and feels assured that his requests will meet with favorable response.

The Star State Oil Co. is also getting shaped up to start drilling, and, according to J. H. Hodges, owner of the rig, will probably spud in on the well either Friday or Monday. The test is located about 300 yards south and east of the Douglas well.

The 5,000 barrel steel tank, recently erected on the Hall-Dutton tract by the Day-Daley Petroleum association, is now being tested out by filling with water. The tank at half full is holding tight as a jug. This tank is to be used to store oil from the shallow wells, and will also be in readiness to take care of the production from the deep sands. Preparations for drilling the Day well No. 1 to a depth of 3,500 ft. or less, if production is had sooner, has been delayed by the giving way of the bull wheel, and the rig builder from Coleman is now building a new one, which should be in readiness within a week. The casinghead has been removed from No. 1, and the flow of gas has been found so strong, that it has been deemed prudent to build a forge outside, and while waiting for the new bullwheel, the workmen are engaged in constructing the forge. Bart Crowley, who has drilled a number of wells in this section with remarkable success, has been employed as head driller on the Day well, and under his careful supervision, no trouble is anticipated, and record time will undoubtedly be made in completing the well.

Reports coming from Mercury announce the bringing in of a new shallow well in that field. With numbers of other wells drilling, and with a pipe line connecting the field with the railroad loading station, the future looks mighty bright to the Mercury operators.

TEXAS GIANT COWBOY ATTRACTS BIG ATTENDANCE AT LYRIC THEATRE

R. E. Madsen, giant Texas cowboy attracted a large attendance at Lyric theatre last night, the building being filled to overflowing. Madsen appeared both in person and in pictures, in addition to the regular picture program. Sharing interest with the young giant, was the world's smallest horse, "Tynymite," weighing 65 pounds, standing 21 inches high, and 5 years old.

For the benefit of our readers, The Standard gives the following description of the giant: Madsen is only 23 years old. When he was 12 years old he was 6 ft. tall in his stocking feet, and he has not stopped growing yet. Although young Madsen is so much taller than normal, he is very slim, weighing 230 pounds.

Madsen's parents are both normal height and so are his brothers and sisters. He attributes his unusual height to outdoor life and he has spent practically all of his 22 years on Western ranges. Because of his height, being even taller than George Anger, who travels with the Barnum's show, Mr. Madsen has received many flattering offers to go into moving pictures or appear on the legitimate stage. Mr. Madsen spends most of his time on his ranch in Texas, and for a while each year travels about the country presenting himself in leading theatres.

A. D. WRIGHT HAS HAND BADLY CUT AT PLANING MILL

A. D. Wright, well known Brady contractor and builder, lost the index finger of his right hand, and had his right thumb badly lacerated at his planing mill Wednesday afternoon at about 4:00 o'clock. Mr. Wright was running some lumber through his band saw, when a piece slipped and allowed his hand to strike the swiftly revolving saw. The index finger was severed clean at the second joint, and the end of the thumb was also cut off. The doctors were enabled to patch the end of the thumb back on and give hopes of its healing normally. The severed finger tip, however, could not be located, and consequently Albert is going to have to get along as best he can without it.

The accident was not only a painful one but will serve to incapacitate Mr. Wright for some time.

BALLINGER VOTES BONDS FOR MUNICIPAL LIGHTING PLANT—VOTE 321 TO 11

Ballinger, Texas, April 13.—An interesting bond election campaign directed by the mayor, commissioners and Young Men's Business league was closed yesterday when the citizens of this city voted $65,000.00 in bonds for the erection of a municipal light plant by the overwhelming majority of 321 to 11. The result marks the end of a five year fight with the Interstate Electric Corporation for cheaper rates and satisfactory service. The efforts of the city to issue warrants for the building of the plant were recently enjoined by the corporation, rendering the bond election necessary. Eighty-five per cent of the local consumption has already been contracted for by the proposed municipal plant.

When the result of the election was announced the citizens immediately celebrated by turning in the fire alarm, building a huge bon fire, and driving the fire truck over the city with the siren whistle on at full blast.

Advertisements used by the Business League carried facts and figures on the success of the municipal light plant at Brady and other Texas points.

MORE NEW HOME OWNERS AND BETTER HOMES HERE

While The Standard last week published what we thought was quite a complete list of new home owners and new improvements in the way of better Brady homes, it appears that the half of the story was not told. For the past twelve months The Standard has been chronicling the improvements—and still they continue. Here are a few of the live news notes not included in last week's article.

Dr. Lindley Home Owner.
After seeing little old New York and various other great cities of the world, Dr. H. W. Lindley has decided that, after all, Brady is home and there is no place like Brady. Accordingly he last week closed a deal for the purchase from Drs. McCall & Anderson of the residence property in South Brady and at present occupied by himself. The property includes a quarter block of land located in a most desirable neighborhood, and possessing a well-built house, barn, sheds and other improvements. Dr. Lindley contemplates making further improvements on the place and will make it his permanent residence.

Doc Strickland New Home.
Doc Strickland has been added to the list of Brady home owners, having recently purchased one of the A. T. Jordan residences, which he has had moved to his lot adjoining the Strickland homestead, occupying the southwest corner of the block. Mr. Strickland will add a bath, sleeping porch and front porch to the house, giving him one of the neatest and most comfortable homes in the east part of Brady.

Claude Wood Moves Residence.
Claude Wood has recently sold his resident lot in West Brady to Otis Turney, who will add the new acquisition to his home place.

MALONE & RAGSDALE TO OFFER TREAT TO MUSIC LOVERS OF BRADY ON 25TH

JOINT RECITAL IN WHICH FAMED ARTISTS APPEAR WITH EDISON RE-CREATIONS OF THEIR PERFORMANCES—A NOTABLE EVENT OF LOCAL ENTERPRISE.

The enterprising firm of Malone & Ragsdale, local representatives for the Edison, announce a most notable event in local music circles on Monday, the 25th of this month, at the Lyric theatre, when Miss Helen Davis and Miss Sibyl Sanderson Fagan, famed artists, will appear in joint recital, enabling those attending the recital to hear their voices and performances in comparison with the Edison Re-Creation of the same. The two artists will be assisted by Mr. Willard Osborne, a violinist of wide renown, who will play in harmony with the Edison Re-Creation of violin solos by various world-famous violinists.

Miss Davis is a singer whose wonderful mezzo-soprano voice has charmed thousands, as re-created by the Edison. Miss Fagan is a most talented whistler, and likewise the Edison re-creations of her performances are valued treasures in many thousands of homes. Brady music lovers will have the opportunity of hearing both these artists in comparison with the re-creations of their art.

The performance is scheduled to begin at 8:15 p. m., and will serve to attract a large assembly of music lovers from near and from afar. While performances of this character have been had in numbers of leading cities, but few places no larger than Brady can boast of so meritorious a performance, and Messrs. Malone & Ragsdale are to be most highly commended for the enterprise shown in staging this wonderful treat to music sition to his home place. Mr. Wood has had his residence moved to a location facing the standpipe in South-west Brady, where he is now comfortably located on a splendid 11-acre tract. Incidentally, Mr. Wood had his barns and outbuildings also moved to the new location. The splendid elevation and uncramped quarters make this one of the most attractive residential sections of Brady.

Sam Wood Buys Home.
Sam Wood is another stray sheep that has come back into the fold—and to stay. At least, Sam gives us right to believe he is going to stay, since he has purchased the original W. H. Ballou home near the Central school building, and will make his home there as soon as he can obtain possession. The property includes a comfortable 5-room residence, with lot 100x142 and is located close in, making it all the more desirable as a home.

J. C. Wall Improvements.
J. C. Wall has just had his southeast porch screened and glassed in by Lee Morgan, converting it into a most comfortable and attractive sleeping porch.

W. W. Jones Improving.
W. W. Jones is adding to the comfort of his north side residence by screening and enclosing the back porch, which adds both to the appearance of the home as well as to its service.

How about your watch? Is it keeping correct time? If not, let us remedy the trouble for you. Satisfaction guaranteed. A. F. Grant, Jeweler, east side square, Brady, Texas.

Got Satisfaction, All Right.
A motorist was stopped by a policeman for speeding, whereupon he became angry and called the policeman an ass. After he had paid his fine, the judge reproved him for what he had said to the officer.

"Then I mustn't call a policeman an ass?" he said.
"Certainly not," said the judge.
"You must not insult the police."
"But you wouldn't mind if I called an ass a policeman, would you?"

"Why, no, if it gives you any satisfaction," answered his honor with a smile.

The motorist turned to the man who had arrested him. "Good-day, policeman," he said, and immediately left the courtroom. — Boston Transcript

On A Long Talker.
"I am not going to talk long this evening. I have been cured of that. The other night I was making a speech when a man who had been imbibing in Bevo and raisins entered the hall and took a seat right in the front row. I had not been talking an hour when I noticed he was becoming fidgety. Finally he arose and asked: "Shay, how long you been lecturing in?"

I smiled good-naturedly at the interruption and replied: "About four years, my friend." "Well," he remarked, as he returned to his seat, "I'll stick around here to see how long you'll be damn near done."

Conductive Anesthesia or Nerve Blocking

Which is being used by modern dental surgeons, enables the dentist to perform operations on the teeth, which are usually considered almost unbearable, practically PAINLESS. These operations include fillings, crownings, bridgings, nerve removing and extractions. I took a special course this past summer in New York in Conductive Anesthesia and Extractions. Abscessed, or impacted wisdom teeth, I now remove practically painless. No more fear of the dentist where this method is used.

WONDER WORDS.

"Faith, Hope and Charity—But of These the Greatest is Charity."

Wonder, Or., April 10.

Editor Brady Standard:

Not long since I read in your paper about somebody's sister having such good manners as to not exhibit any manifestations of temper no matter how much she was imposed upon.

Please pardon your humble servant if I say that it looked like adding insult to injury to offer her the penurious sum of five dollars as a complimentary reward. It should not have been less than five thousand; and I for one would have been willing to contribute my share to augment it to that amount. If everyone would manifest that charitable disposition towards their fellowman this old world would be a veritable heaven.

Such a thing as war would be impossible. But alas! it seems that the greater portion of mankind are disposed to impose upon the liberality of those who try to follow the golden rule. And as the saying goes, "Give them an inch and they will take an ell." Then it would seem that about the only thing for a true Christian to do is to say "Father forgive them for they know not what they do."

I promised to tell you about the "Apostolic faith" denomination who have been holding a series of meetings in this and surrounding communities. I ought to have told you sooner, then I should not have reported that many of their converts have fallen from grace so soon as this. But it resulted in good anyhow, as many of the converts paid bills that they had outlaid. I once asked a fellow merchant about what percent of his bad bills were owed by church members. He said about one in fifty, and the forty-nine were owed by non-professing ones. I told him that was my experience also. And whenever you hear an infidel making slurring remarks about "these goodie-goodie people," I would advise you to watch him. Without compunction of conscience what is there to deter an infidel from swearing falsely, except it be the Statutory laws against perjury.

Telephone Improvements—Lohn Ball Team Defeats Rockwood.
Lohn, Texas, April 12.

Editor Brady Standard:

The farmers are very busy planting and plowing. Some are putting a little cottonseed in the ground. These cool nights are not conducive to a very rapid growth and germination of seed and young plants. Better wait a little until the soil is warmer.

County Agent Black visited Lohn and Pear Valley last week.

Miss Grace Barton spent the week end with home folks in Lohn. On account of the rain she did not return to Eden until Monday morning.

Fred Lohn and Mr. Commander seemed to enjoy their trip from Brady in the mud Saturday. They are silent as to how many times they ditched the truck and as to how many barrels of gas they left at the Turner place.

Dr. Barton is quite ill at this writing. He is suffering with some kind of heart trouble.

The preacher, Brother Woods, did not get to fill his appointment here last Sunday on account of bad roads. Sunday school was also rained out.

Our general telephone men, Will and Ralph Hall, are still improving the Lohn telephone system. They are now engaged in stringing the new wires on the big poles that have just been put up.

Jack Amarine who has been attending business college in Dallas, returned home Sunday.

The boys' base ball team of the school played ball with the Rockwood team at Waldrip Friday. The Lohn boys were victorious by a score of one to four. It was a hard fought and interesting game.

REPORT DATA IN NUMBERS

IN LAST 14 YEARS THEY HAVE ADDED OVER MILLION MEM-BERS IN SOUTH.

WILL MEET IN CHATTANOOGA

Many Matters Related to Future Work
Will Come Up for Consideration
at the Annual Convention
May 12 to 18.

DR. E. Y. MULLINS

President Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Who is Touring South.

Following the close of the second year of the Baptist 75 Million Campaign April 30, several thousand messengers from the local churches are expected to assemble at Chattanooga, Tenn., for the seventy-sixth annual session of the Southern Baptist Convention. The Convention met in Chattanooga last in May, 1906, and during the interim there has been a marked growth in every department of the Convention's activities and in the numbers and work of the local churches as well. The total number of Baptists reported to the Convention in 1906 was 1,855,784, while last May, fourteen years later, when the body met in Washington, the total membership of the local churches as reported was 2,961,348, a gain of 1,105,564. The returns for this year are not yet available, but it is known there were fully 175,000 additions to the local churches last year by baptism alone, there is every reason to believe the showing for 1921 will be even larger.

Growth Shown in All Lines.

At the same time there has been a marked increase in the membership of the churches, there has been a distinct advance in all departments of local and denominational work, it is set out. The total number of local churches has grown from 20,129 in 1906 to 25,303 in 1920; the total number of Sunday Schools from 11,332 to 47,686; and the number of Sunday School pupils from 857,244 to 1,835,936, an increase of more than 100 per cent. The value of local church property has mounted from 4,501,122 in 1906 to $74,273,728 in 1920, an increase of more than 1600 per cent, while contributions to missions and benevolences in 1906 were $1,501,396.67, as compared to $7,331,266.55 in 1920, an advance of practically 500 per cent. Fourteen years ago the contributions to all purposes in a year were $5,941,283.44, as against $21,327,446.67 for 1920.

Next Meeting Important.

The approaching session of the Convention is regarded as vitally important to the future of the denomination's work. It is hoped that by the Convention two-fifths of all subscriptions to the 75 Million Campaign will have been paid in cash and that the program for the completion of the remainder of the campaign task can be formulated at this time. Dr. J. B. Gambrell, president of the Convention, and Dr. E. Y. Mullins, who recently completed a tour of Europe, where they carried fraternal greetings to the Baptists of that continent, will give their impressions of Baptist opportunity in that country, while Dr. George W. Truett and Dr. J. F. Love, who represented the Foreign Mission Board at the London Conference last summer when the mission fields of Europe were considered, will tell of the new territory of Spain, Jugo-Slavia, Hungary, Roumania and Southern Russia, which Southern Baptists are asked to occupy. This territory is as large as the Southern States and has a population of 128,000,000.

All the boards of the Convention will report the largest year's accomplishments in their history, the Home Mission Board being scheduled to report the completion of its million dollar loan fund for church building, in addition to the aiding of a thousand churches during the year with gifts and loans for the erection of new houses of worship. The Sunday School Board will report more than $1,000,000 in sales for the year and with collections as well as sales better than at any previous time in its history.

BRADY, TEXAS, April 15, 1921

HONEST INJUN.

According to the plans of a San Angelo citizen, Texas would be divided into five states with McCulloch county in West Texas, and San Saba and Brown counties in East Texas. Well, the laugh is on San Saba and Brown counties.

AMEN, AND AMEN.

The San Angelo fair is going to do away with the "side show junk" which travels under the name of "carnival shows" and which frequently makes the smaller cities, usually to disgust of the citizens thereof. The San Angelo fair will substitute a football game between Texas colleges, exhibitions of frontier skill by Indians from a Montana reservation and higher class amusements generally than the "carnival shows" afford. It will be a blessing when "street carnivals" such as are now quite too numerous are banned either by law or public sentiment; they have long since been outgrown.—Denton Record Chronicle.

Albert Wright says it's bad enough to lose one's finger, and part of one's thumb, but it's worse to think of all the hurrahing it is laying him liable to from his brother, A. T. Wright of the Eldorado Success.

BIRTHDAY GREETINGS.

Just to prove that "thirteen" is our lucky number, just read the following two very pleasant and complimentary letters received from our friends upon the occasion of The Brady Standard's thirteenth birthday anniversary. The first is from Friend C. P. Taylor, who is now living at Blythe, away out in West Texas, with only pleasant memories and The Standard to remind him of the glories of old McCulloch. Says Friend Taylor:

"As my time is about out with your 'windy' sheet, I guess I'd better send in a renewal. I hope my $2.50 will help tide you over your thirteenth year. May this year be more prosperous than any preceding years, and every following year better than the last."

Then here's another very enjoyable letter from a newer friend—he must be a friend or he wouldn't write such a nice friendly letter. At any rate we know we're going to be mighty good friends right from the moment he breezes up and starts that "Hello—Mr. Editor" greeting. Thus writes Friend Charles W. Salisbury of Chicago:

"Though living many miles away from Brady, Texas—namely 'in good old Chicago, I am always glad to get 'The Standard' and from your latest edition, I note you have now reached your 'Thirteenth' anniversary.

"Don't let that worry you. That's good luck, no 'Hoodoo.' The number is in reality the talisman of our country and has been such since thirteen colonies banded together to fight for their independence.

"The original flag of the United States, that is the original 'Old Glory' contained 13 stars while the flag of today still carries the lucky number in the thirteen stripes. The seal of the United States has 13 arrows and 13 stars. The American Eagle has 13 tail and 13 wing feathers.

"The National Motto 'E Pluribus' contains 13 letters. Warren Harding—President—has 13 letters in his name and so likewise his chief advisor—Charles Hughes.

"At any rate, I enjoy reading The Standard.

"Keep up the good work and some day I'll drop in on you and say, 'Hello—Mr. Editor. I'm the chap from Chi that wished you good luck and a long life.'"

Read it in The Standard.

ADVANTAGES OF STATE DIVISION.

The following is an excerpt of an article published in the Dallas News recently, and which was written by H. A. Tillett of Abilene. It sets forth some good reasons why state division is not an idle dream, but a political and economic necessity, and one which sentiment should not be allowed to over-ride. Here is what Mr. Tillett says:

"Nothing but unadulterated sentiment, a sickly senseless sentiment stands in the way of a division of Texas into two or more States. The writer just like the vast majority of Texas citizens, formerly nursed and approved that sentiment, until he chanced to spend three summers in the small New England states and studied their different laws. Take, for example, New Hampshire and Vermont, that lie by each other's side like two wedges, the two making a very fair rectangle. I doubt if a citizen in either State could be found who would vote to consolidate the two States into one State. Yet, were it accomplished, the consolidated State would be little larger than some West Texas counties. The statutory laws of these two states differ widely, and the reasons for the differences, you will be told, lie in the different needs of the two territories and the geographical situations. If the citizens of Texas could visit those portions of the United States which are divided into small States, though contiguous, and see for themselves how each little State had its peculiar and particular laws to meet the special needs of each territory, it would be a very easy matter, by popular vote, to divide 'grand old Texas' into four or five States, and do it by overwhelming majorities. To maintain one law-making body for such a vast territory, with climatic conditions so different, rainfall so different, industries so different, needs so different, is positively senseless, if the material welfare of the different portions of Texas is to be seriously considered.

"If the people of Texas could be persuaded seriously to consider the question and with intelligence study it, one might ask the privilege of submitting specific reasons for dividing Texas.

"As matters now stand, one could hardly ask such a paper as The News to print arguments, because so few citizens are willing to consider the matter at all seriously."

THE 8-HOUR DAY TOMFOOLERY.

The other day in making preparation for the Old Fiddlers' Show we had occasion to make a hurry up call upon some one to assist in getting a dray load of chairs over to the school auditorium. A drayman was engaged, but he needed a man or a boy to help him haul the chairs, and the money was in hand to pay any reasonable price for this extra service. A young fellow was approached and asked if he would help put over the job. "Hell no," he replied, adding, "I've already done my eight hours today—there's nothing doing for me." That's the youngster's privilege.

However, we submit that the able bodied person who, after having performed only 8 hours work, refuses to earn an honest wage for additional work is greatly in his own light. You may take the successful business men of the country, those who have made a living, paid their debts, acquired a home and enjoy either a competency or a fair credit rating, and you will not find one in a thousand who has attained this enviable position by working only eight hours per day. In fact we doubt if there is one such in 10,000. We have been working ourselves for nearly 30 years and we are sure that if we had drawn the line at 8 hours per day, or even at 10 hours per day oftentimes, we'd never have even a humble home, nor been able to get 30 day credit from the grocer. Whenever any fellow gets it into his head that he can get by and attain a competency in life by doing a scant 8 hours' work, the while watching the clock and showing more interest in getting all the money he can for as little work as he can possibly do to keep from being fired—whenever a fellow gets that into his mind, he's going to encounter hard times somewhere down the line. He will reach a place where he will have to live by begging, or by charity from others—and more than likely he will reach the place where he will state of his own honesty and condemn those who by hard work, honest effort and thrift of their time and money, are better off than he. It is of such cattle as these that the ranks of anarchy and I.W.W.-ism and bolshevism are recruited.—Troup Banner.

The Governor vetoed the $4,000,000 appropriation for what is known as aid to the rural high school. This is the money that has been used the past few years on first one school then another. It is our opinion that it is better without this appropriation than with it. It is not treating all schools alike. The $3,000,000 appropriation for the aid of all public schools was signed. This appropriation is for all schools and is prorated as other funds upon the scholastic population of the state. This will be used for the coming year alone. Both methods of providing funds for schools are mere makeshifts and for the present only. We should have a constructive law providing funds for every year and making funds certain, not dependent on the legislators nor on the governor. California by a referendum vote of the people have passed laws raising funds sufficient for a nine month school for every school in the state. There is to be raised by state and county taxation not less than $60 per pupil in the intermediate and primary grades and not less than $90 per pupil in the high school grades.—Herald, Paint Rock, Texas.

SOME GOOD LOOKING SHOWS ON PROGRAM AT LYRIC THEATRE THIS WEEK

Here's your choice of pictures to be seen at the Lyric theatre during the next few nights—and you'll have to admit that it's a hard choice at that, for every one of the offerings is mighty interesting and hard to pass by. For instance, tonight Bryant Washburn in "Burglar Proof," 5-reel comedy-drama is just the sort of a play you wouldn't want to miss. Then, tomorrow night, of course you would want to see clever Billie Burke in that other comedy-drama, "The Frisky Mrs. Johnson," now really, wouldn't you? And Monday night who could resist the chance to see Elaine Hammerstein in "Pleasure Seekers." And Tuesday night, "Rogues and Romance" suggests such an odd and clever combination that you'll just have to see what that slam-bang Yank did and what happened to him in Sunny Spain.

So, we repeat, it's a hard choice, and you'll hardly be satisfied unless you see every one of them.

RESULTS TELL.

There Can Be No Doubt About the Results in Brady.

Results tell the tale. All doubt is removed. The testimony of a Brady citizen. Can be easily investigated. What better proof can be had? B. Strickland, Brady, gave the following statement April 30, 1915: "About the only indication of kidney complaint I endured was getting down with my back. This came on every so often and I suffered badly with it. I have found Doan's Kidney Pills relieve me of this trouble. I always keep them on hand and use them if needed."

On May 15, 1919, Mr. Strickland said: "The recommendation I gave in 1915 holds good for I think Doan's Kidney Pills are just the thing for kidney trouble. Occasionally I take a few doses and with good results." Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Strickland had. JIM.

I you go to the lake
An' you follow the road
As it turns to the west
Of the mill,
Till you come to a stake
A surveyor has thrown
Like a knife in the breast
Of the hill,
An' you follow the track
Till you come to a blaze
By the side of the same
In a limb,
You will light on a shack,
In the timber a ways,
Of a party whose name
It is Jim.

In a day that is flown,
'Mid the great an' the grand,
In a time when his hair
Wasn't gray,
He was commonly known
By a fancier brand
In a city back there,
So they say.
But it's Jim, only Jim,
Is the name that he gives,
When you happen to bring
Up the same;
It is plenty for him
In the woods where he lives,
For the man is the thing,
Not the name.

By the gleam of his eye,
That is steady an' clear,
By the way he will look
At you square,
You will know that they lie
Who would make it appear
He was maybe a crook
Over there.
In the church I have stood—
Heard of preachin' a lot
That I never could much
Understand;
An' yet never the good
From a sermon I got
That I got from a clutch
Of his hand.

I have half an idea
That, if back you could turn
To the start of the trail
For a spell,
That a woman you'd see,
That a lot you would learn—
That the regular tale
It would tell
Of a fellow too fond,
Of a woman too weak,
Of another who came
To her door—
Then an endless beyond,
Lips that never must speak,
An' a man but a name
Evermore.

If you go to the town
An' you follow the street,
To a mansion of brown
By the glitter an' glow
Of the light,
Where the music is sweet
An' the lute whispers low
To the night,
In the dark of a room
At the end of a hall,
Where the visions of old
Flutter in,
There she sits in the gloom,
She, the Cause of it all,
In the midst of her gold
An' her sin.

If you go to the lake
An' you follow the road
As it turns to the west
Of the mill,
Till you come to a stake
A surveyor has thrown
Like a knife in the breast
Of the hill,
An' you follow the track
Till you come to a blaze
By the side of the same
In a limb,
You will light on the shack,
In the timber a ways,
Of a party whose name
It is Jim.

Last Night's Dreams
—What They Mean

DID YOU DREAM OF MONEY?

WHEN it comes to a matter of money the oracles seem to dispute over "filthy lucre" just as ordinary mortals are apt to do. Some of them say that to dream of finding money is a bad sign, indicating losses; and dreaming of losing money is a good sign, indicating gain; probably working on the "dreams go by contraries" hypothesis. But the best and most eminent authorities do not agree to this. Some of them admit that to dream of finding money signifies worries, but declare that out of these temporary worries great good will come; while others content themselves with the statement that to dream of finding money is lucky. All agree that to dream of losing money is a sign of good business, though one authority darkly hints that you may have a spat with your wife—if you have one—after such a dream. As to dreaming of saving money, there are two schools—the optimists and the pessimists. The optimists declare that to dream that you are saving up money means that you will have comfort and plenty, while the pessimists think it portends losses. The weight of opinion seems to be on the side of the optimists. If you dream that you are swallowing money look out for yourself; for if you don't you will become so penurious and money-grabbing that you will almost, if not quite, commit fraud to get it. So if you get this warning loosen up the purse-strings. If you dream of counting money you are liable to have a dispute over a bill. In effect it seems lucky to dream about money, but you are warned not to be too much of a millionaire in your dreams, for if you are too disgracefully rich in Dreamland your fortune will be only moderate in real life.

TAX ON MOVIES TO AID RURAL SCHOOLS SOUGHT BY STATE SUPERINTENDENT

Austin, Tex., April 9.—A tax of one per cent per ticket on moving picture shows and other places of amusements as a means of raising money for the rural school fund, may be incorporated in a bill and presented at the special session of the legislature for their action, if the plans of Miss Annie Webb Blanton, superintendent of public instruction, and proponents of the rural school bill vetoed by Governor Neff, can be carried out. Governor Neff vetoed the $4,000,000 rural school aid bill passed at the regular session of the legislature, pointing out that he did so because the state did not have the funds to meet the appropriation.

The tax will not be confined to picture shows and amusements alone, but may be levied on the natural resources of Texas, such as oil, sulphur, or coal, Miss Blanton said.

In other words she is trying to find a way to raise the money to meet an appropriation of this kind by taxation. At the same time such a tax must be constitutional and inasmuch as the attorney general's department has advised her that a tax of 1 cent per ticket on places of amusement in Texas would not be unconstitutional, Miss Blanton is considering asking the governor to submit such a bill at the special session.

However, Miss Blanton said that she had not yet asked about the natural products of Texas that might be taxed to provide funds for the rural school appropriation and that she would withhold any decision in the matter until she had investigated all such resources of revenue. Miss Blanton is making this investigation at the suggestion and request of legislators who proposed the bill at the regular session and from whom she has received numerous letters since the governor vetoed the $4,000,000 bill.

The tax on theatres and amusements now is $25 per year, of which 25 per cent goes to the available school fund and the other 75 per cent goes to the general revenue fund.

Unless an appropriation for rural school aid is made by the legislature there will be a large number of rural schools that will be forced to close next year, Miss Blanton said, because of the inability to get teachers for them. These schools with the state aid are able to operate for six months at least and some of them longer if they so desire, while without this aid they cannot operate for more than three or four months and it is impossible to secure teachers for less than six months terms, Miss Blanton said.

The thirty-sixth legislature appropriated $4,000,000 for rural school aid and with the exception of a small amount all of this appropriation has been distributed to the rural schools. The remainder of this sum is ready for apportionment and will be so apportioned by the state board of education at its regular monthly meeting next Monday, according to Miss Blanton.

With the withdrawal of these funds there will be no rural school fund for the rural schools of Texas, she said, and to provide means for renewing this appropriation is the purpose of her proposed tax on picture shows or the natural resources of Texas.

STILLMAN & WILENSKY'S

GERMAN NAVY OFFICERS WERE INTERNED DURING WAR OPERATE MODEL FARM IN SOUTH

Atlanta, Ga., March 29.—Atlantans will recall that, during the war, two German naval officers—W. Engelbrecht and M. Fratzscher—gave them quite a thrill by coming within an ace of escaping from an internment camp at Fort McPherson through a wonderfully executed piece of fancy tunneling such as one rarely meets except in the prison escapes recorded in romantic novels.

Today these two men are peacefully settled on a piece of land near the Federal prison, which they have made into one of the model farms of this part of Georgia. Moreover, they have brought their youthful sweethearts from Germany, have been married and are devoting their lives to becoming perfect American citizens. Mighty useful members of the community they have become, by their example of a farming skill and efficiency, models of which are so badly needed in the south.

Their whole story is one of rare romance, adventure and efficiency.

It began when Engelbrecht and Fratzscher finished their education in Germany and harkened to the call of the high seas. The first became a captain of a ship of the North German Lloyd line. The other became captain of a merchant steamer of the Hamburg-American line. They liked the adventure and tang of the sea, and the place they attained bears witness that they thrived upon it.

Sank Their Ship.

The war came. They were reserve officers in the Imperial German navy so they returned to Germany. Even before the United States entered the war they were captured when they went for leave to the island of Guam. They were ordered to surrender their ship. Instead, they blew it up while aboard and it sank in six minutes. They were picked up by U. S. Coast Guard Service boats and interned at the naval base there.

"We were brought to America and interned at Fort McPherson," Engelbrecht said. "They were good to us, but they wanted us to be still all the time. They wouldn't even let us walk. We had to do something. We couldn't be so good and do nothing. So we decided to make our way out to liberty."

"We dug a tunnel forty-five feet long, and so high that you could stand up in it. It passed under a new macadam street and we had to dig it deep enough so the heavy trucks wouldn't sink in when they went over the road. My partner here had charge of the flower pots and plants at the fort. We put the tunnel in the flower pots. In a few days the whole place was covered with flower pots. We put out a lot of new plants and the dirt was piled way up on the pots. After about a week there was nearly four feet of dirt piled up on the largest pots. Nobody suspected us."

"But they caught us," he went on. "Colonel Benteen called us up to him and he asked why we had done it. We told him we had to have something to do. We could not stand still. We were used to industry. So he told us he would arrange our release through Washington if we wanted to rent his large farm in South Boulevard, near the Federal penitentiary. So we have rented it for six years. If our business is successful we will buy it."

Romance Is Old.

The romance in the story began more than ten years ago. The two couples were engaged before the war. When the two young women arrived from Germany a few weeks ago and were married by the German chaplain in the presence of Colonel Benteen and other friends. They had not seen each other in eight years.

The two young women, Dorothea and Kate, are highly educated and cultured. Mrs. Dorothea Engelbradt, a direct descendant of Bismark, fluently speaks German, English, French and Polish. She paints in oils and is quite a student of art.

"In Germany," she said, "even one's high school education is not considered complete until English and French are learned."

"Engelbrecht and Fratzscher" is the title on the farm gate in South Boulevard. They make a good business-partnership. One is conservative, steady, a deep thinker, a steady worker; the other radiates enthusiasm.

Within fourteen months they have built one of the most attractive six-room bungalows in or near Atlanta. The interior art work is worthy of the most skilled contractor. Their open air chicken house, in which they raise thoroughbred S. C. Rhode Island Reds are declared by experts to be a model of industrial efficiency.

Experts Take Lessons.

Scientific farmers and poultry breeders from various parts of the Southeastern states have visited the poultry farm to absorb some of the unique ideas on material exhibited there. The poultry farm is said to be the best in this section of the State. Chickens from the farm won three ribbons at the Southeastern Fair last September.

Romance, adventure and business efficiency show themselves from the little spotted terrier dog who smokes a pipe to the hairy Airedale that is trained to stop rooster fights.

You don't have to be a musical expert to realize that the Amberola is the world's greatest phonograph value. Anyone who likes music cannot fail to note the tremendous difference.

EDISON'S NEW DIAMOND AMBEROLA

has such a pure, musical tone, that once you've heard it, no metallic sounding phonograph or shrill "talking machine" will ever please you again. PRES. HARDING'S FIRST MESSAGE TO CONGRESS

Washington, April 12.—President Harding's declaration in his first message to Congress today that the United States would have no part in the present League of Nations was received with a great demonstration. Republican members of the Senate and House, who, with members of the Cabinet, crowded the House chamber to hear the President deliver his message in person, applauded vigorously. The demonstration quickly grew into cheering, the Republican members standing. The galleries joined in the demonstration, and it was several minutes before quiet was restored.

High lights in the President's messages:
"In the existing League of Nations world governing with its superpowers, this republic will have no part."
"To establish the state of technical peace without further delay, I should approve a declaratory resolution to that effect with the qualifications essential to protect all our rights."

"It would be idle to declare for separate treaties of peace with the Central Powers. The wiser course would seem to be the acceptance of the confirmation of our rights and interests as already provided and to engage in them under the existing treaty."
"First in mind must be the solution of our problems at home, even though some phases of them are inseparably linked with our foreign relations."

"I know of no more pressing problem at home than to restrict our national expenditures within the limits of our national income."
"The most substantial relief from the tax burden must come for the present from the readjustment of internal taxes."

"The urgency for an instant tariff enactment....for emergency only, cannot be too much emphasized."
"The maturer revision of our tariff laws should be based upon the policy of protection, resisting that selfishness which turns to greed."

"Without the spirit of hostility or haste in accusation of profiteering, some suitable inquiry by Congress might speed the price readjustment to normal relationship."
"Railway rates and cost of operation must be reduced."
"Labor must join management in understanding that the public which pays is the public to be served."

"The American people expect Congress unflinchingly to voice the gratitude of the republic in a generous and practical way to its defenders in the World War.... Congress must twist the policy of generous gratitude and conscientious administration must stamp out abuses in the very beginning."
"Congress ought to wipe the stain of barbaric lynching from the banners of a free and orderly representative democracy."
"We are ready to co-operate with other nations to approximate disarmament. But merest prudence forbids that we disarm alone."

INDIANS SUE FOR 14,000,000 ACRES OF TEX.-OKLA. OIL LAND

Washington, April 9.—Claim to 14,000,000 acres of land in Texas and Oklahoma, including the cities of Tulsa and Oklahoma City and virtually the entire Burkburnett oil field, was filed in the Supreme Court today in behalf of the Cherokee Indian Nation, supported by a Government patent issued by President Van Buren and certified as authentic by the Interior Department.

The claim was in the form of a petition for permission to intervene in the Red River oil lands case, an original suit between Texas and Oklahoma involving jurisdiction over the valuable oil fields situated along the common boundary.

The motion was filed by John M. Taylor, grand nephew of General Zachary Taylor, an attorney for the Cherokee nation. He said the patent was discovered accidentally among the papers of a dead chief of the tribe.

Patent Dated 1838.
Bearing the date of Dec. 31, 1838, the patent gave to the Cherokee Nation "forever" a tract about 500 miles in length through the Panhandle section, comprising in all 14,374,135.14 acres. Only the possibility that the statute of limitations will nullify the claim prevents the Cherokee Nation from having a "water tight case," counsel said.

It will be contended, it was added, that this statute does not apply since the Supreme Court has held that it cannot be pressed against the Government itself, and that the Indian tribe, as wards of the Government, are possessed of the same rights.

Revival at Christian Church.
Church going, beyond all expectations as to immediate results. Large crowds and intense interest.

The Thomases are pleasing in every respect. Mr. Thomas is winning the children with his "sleight of hand" performances and his talks which always bring a fine lesson. He is also an excellent chorus leader and knows how to get the congregation to sing.

Mrs. Thomas possesses a very rare sweet voice and her solos are winning great favor among both old and young.

There have been nine accessions at the two invitations.

Rained out Tuesday night, but up and coming again.

Tabernacle will be prepared in few days to take care of crowds, even if it is cool weather. It will be enclosed and heated, etc.

The plain, forceful Gospel is being preached by Evang. Campbell, who is fearless in the denunciation of sins in all their stages and colors.
