TURKEY SEASON NOW OPEN—CROP REPORTED GOOD

Once more the turkey season is with us, and with a big crop of the festive birds reported in most sections of the McCulloch county territory, it would appear that turkey growers are destined to secure a nice bunch of jingling pocket change in exchange for their turkeys. This industry has received wonderful impetus in this section during the past few years, both because of the splendid prices which the turkeys have brought, and also because this section appears to be naturally adapted to their propagation. Once the turkey raiser gets started in the business, and gets his eggs hatched, the birds find their own living, and, like Topsy, just grow.

That the Brady market will be exceptionally good this year is made certain by the number of local buyers, for if competition is the life of trade, then four local firms should make the turkey business mighty lively during the pre-Thanksgiving and pre-holiday season.

Mayhew Produce Co. have their slaughtering department in readiness, and in addition have provided cold storage to facilitate the handling of the birds. Claude Grissom is in charge of the slaughtering, packing and shipping with this firm.

The Turner Produce Co. on North Bridge street will be active bidders for turkeys, and have made preparations for handling their fair share of the season's crop. Oscar Turner is well-known to the farmers of this section, and his popularity will serve to bring many a load of turkeys to his door.

The Roddie Produce Co. has secured ample quarters in the former Brady Brokerage Co. stand, and expect to fill their big wareroom with the Thanksgiving birds. Mrs. Mary Roddie will again be in charge of the business and will be assisted by J. L. McBride of Brownwood, an experienced poultry and turkey man. The firm promises to lend its full efforts in making Brady the premier market of this section.

The Spiller Grain Company has also made extensive preparations for taking active part in the turkey business. Mr. Spiller is moving his grocery stock into the building adjoining his ware-room on the north, in order to make available a greatly increased floor space. The rear of the building has been partitioned off and will be used for a slaughtering and dressing room. Pens have been provided on the adjoining lot as hold-overs for the turkeys. Mr. Spiller expects to begin slaughtering by the end of next week or the first of the following week.

While residents of the metropolitan cities are thankful for the fine, fat turkeys that grace their Thanksgiving dinners, McCulloch county is thankful, in addition, for the splendid money crop which her progressive citizens realize from this same Thanksgiving bird.

Children's Stockings, a regular 35-cent value; special, 2 for 35c. C. H. VINCENT, So. Side.

INTERESTING PIONEER CITIZEN BRADY VISITOR—BROTHER KILLED IN INDIAN RAID

W. Wyckoff, well-known in Brady and pioneer citizen of this section, was a visitor in Brady Monday, and when he and J. H. White met, both fell into reminiscent moods. They talked over the old times and old timers, and so aroused their desire to meet up again with their early-day friends that both declared their firm intention to attend the meeting of the Old Trail Drivers association when it next meets in San Antonio. Mr. White, himself, is numbered among the earliest of Brady's pioneer citizens, but Mr. Wyckoff's coming to this section ante-dates that of Mr. White by many years. Mr. Wyckoff was born in Burnet county in 1856, and when he was but six weeks old, his parents located within 2 1/2 miles of where he now lives on Cole Creek, near the line between San Saba and Mason counties. So while Mr. Wyckoff is not actually a McCulloch county citizen, he is such a near neighbor as to be one of us, in spirit, if not in fact.

When he was 15 years of age, Mr. Wyckoff spent some time in Arizona and New Mexico, but all the balance of his life he has spent near the scene of his boyhood. He visited the site of Brady before there was ever a house here. Asked if he had ever had any experiences with the Indians, he replied that he had run from them lots of times. As a matter of fact, his oldest brother was killed by the Indians in 1852, within six miles of where he now lives, and he recalled that 27 Indians once passed within 150 yards of where his house now stands. Those were strenuous days that these old-timers experienced, and many a thrill was theirs. They had the right stuff in them, and dared to brave danger and even death in the winning of this country and in its development from a wilderness to one of the garden spots of the universe.

CURTIS NORMAN PURCHASES BUSINESS OF W. H. HILL AND TAKES OVER QUARTERS

Arrangements were Wednesday completed by Curtis Norman, recently appointed local Ford agent, whereby he purchased the business, stock and equipment of W. H. Hill, former local Ford agent, and incidentally took over the lease on the present quarters of the Ford garage in the Broad building on South Blackburn street. Invoicing of the plant and property has been completed, and Mr. Norman is now in active charge of the business. Shipment of several car loads of Fords are now en route and will be unloaded immediately upon arrival by Mr. Norman. Incidentally, he plans extensive improvement and changes in the building, as well as the addition of machinery and equipment.

Mr. Hill retains possession of the buildings located south of the Broad building, and extending to the Lee Morgan building, and which have been used partly for storage, and also housing the Waples-Platter Grocer Co. He plans in the immediate future to remodel these buildings, installing a modern plate glass front, and converting them into up-to-date business locations.

ARMISTICE DAY DECLARED HOLIDAY IN BRADY—JOIN IN CELEBRATION

ELIJAH F. ALLIN POST, AMERICAN LEGION, WILL STAGE PARADE IN AFTERNOON—MORNING, AFTERNOON AND NIGHT PROGRAMS ARE ARRANGED.

Brady merchants and business men will on Saturday, November 11th, close up shop, and join with the American Legion in celebration of Armistice Day—one of the greatest of all holidays in American history. The Legion has arranged to stage a big parade here in the afternoon, and an all-day program, with many splendid features has been arranged at Dutton City Park. The big feature of the morning program will be a foot ball game between Brady and Coleman high school elevens, while the afternoon program will be devoted to racing, bronco busting, calf roping and novelty acts. The feature of the night program will be the boxing exhibition—a return engagement between Cates of Rochelle and Garrett of Doole.

The plans for an Armistice Day celebration were approved both by the Brady Luncheon club and by the Retail Merchants association. The decision to suspend all business on Armistice Day was reached after a canvass of the business houses showed a majority heartily in accord with the idea. Practically every business house in Brady has agreed to the closing, and drug stores, confectioneries, bakeries and markets will be open only for a stated interval, as set forth in the announcement published on another page of this issue.

The morning program will be given over to the foot ball game between Brady high school and Coleman high school teams at the Dutton City park. In the game with Junction, during the McCulloch County Exhibit, the Brady team showed wonderful form and proved they had the stuff that makes a winning aggregation. With the splendid training by Coach Hart, the team is being rapidly rounded out, and when they meet the Coleman team, they expect to show that they not only have retained their staying qualities, but have added the winning quality to it.

The parade of the American Legion will be staged at 2:30 p. m., with the Brady Municipal band of 40 pieces leading the way. After circling the square, the parade will lead the way

WILSON D. JORDAN GOES TO NEW YORK AS MAYHEW'S EASTERN REPRESENTATIVE

Wilson D. Jordan left Tuesday night for St. Louis, enroute to New York City, where he will make his headquarters for the next two months, while acting as Eastern representative for the Mayhew Produce Co. Mr. Jordan will have charge of the sale of all shipments of dressed poultry made by this firm to Eastern market, and in this capacity will visit Boston, Philadelphia, and, as well, points in Maine and in Canada seeking disposition of the shipments at the highest market prices. The experience of the firm the past season has convinced them that by having their own representative right on the ground, they are sure of all shipments being handled expeditiously, and also of being sold on the very best markets, all of which will be reflected in the increased prices which they will be enabled to pay local growers.

G. N. HARRISON OF BROWNWOOD SPEAKS TO AUDIENCE COURT HOUSE LAST NIGHT

Hon. G. N. Harrison, one of Brownwood's most influential and highly-esteemed attorneys and citizens, was in Brady yesterday and last night addressed an audience upon Republican principles and policies. Mr. Harrison was greeted by an audience that comfortably filled the district court room and was given a courteous and respectful hearing. In the course of his address, Mr. Harrison gave some time to the Senatorial campaign, and in advocacy of George Paddy for the high position, whom he declared as most worthy and deserving on account of his clean record, brilliancy and attainments. Mr. Harrison also inveighed strongly against the Ku Klux Klan, which he declared a menace to American institutions of free

INTERESTING PROGRAM MARKS FIRST MEETING OF McCULLOCH COUNTY TEACHERS ASSOCIATION

The McCulloch County Teachers' association met at the Methodist tabernacle October 28th, at 2:00 p. m.

Mr. A. D. Connor, on account of his duties as director general of athletics, sent in his resignation as president of the association and Mr. A. S. Johnston was elected to fill the vacancy. Mr. J. M. Young was elected vice-president.

After reading of the minutes by the secretary, County Superintendent Deans read the Constitution and By-Laws for the organization.

Prof. J. B. Smith, director general of athletics for McCulloch county urged all teachers to see that their schools were enrolled in the Inter-scholastic League for the year 1922-1923.

The following schools have been enrolled to date:

- Brady High school.
- Brady Central school.
- Melvin school.
- Doole school.
- Lohn school.
- Camp San Saba school.
- Fife school.
- Montgomery school.

Other schools wishing to enroll may send their membership fees to the secretary of the association, Miss Maggie McKeand, Brady, Texas. The fee for common schools, with less than 100 enrollment for last year is $1.00; common schools and ward schools with 100 or more enrollment last year, $2.

One of the most important things discussed in the association was the using of the money refunded on insulate fees paid by the teachers as a fund for a County Teachers' Library of professional books. While this money does not amount to much yet possibly in this way it may prove of much value to all teachers in the county.

Among the visitors present at the association was Miss Winters, who spoke in behalf of home demonstration work for girls in the rural schools. She stated that she hoped before long to be in the different communities carrying out her plans for the year.

We also had the good fortune to have with us Mr. Ehlinger, who reminded us of his work with the boys in the county, and its value along educational lines.

More than twenty-five teachers were present at the organization. Interesting reports were made by the superintendents and principals of the schools represented and many plans were discussed for the year's work.

We hope that at our next meeting which will be in Brady, six weeks later, all the teachers of the county may be present.

MAGGIE McKEAND, Secy.

BUICK CLAIMED AS STOLEN FROM WICHITA FALLS

The big Buick roadster, which was taken in charge by the officers at the time of the capture and arrest of the two men, Turning and Petersen, on a charge of burglary and theft, has been positively identified and claimed by R. R. Moore, insurance adjuster of Wichita Falls, as the property of the Emerich Oil Co. of that city, from whom it was stolen on August 22nd. While several of the original numbers had been altered by the parties stealing the car, the original numbers on the front axle, steering post and housing of the rear axle which had evidently been overlooked in the defacing, corresponded exactly with the record of numbers. Incidentally, Mr. Moore filed with County Attorney Pool a charge of theft of the car against the two men, who are still in the local jail in default of $1500 bond each.

S. P. Hale, proprietor of the Star Drug store at Talpa, was also here the first of the week and positively identified two watches and a ring, which was among the loot recovered from the stolen car when the two men were arrested, as having been stolen from his store a few weeks ago. Charges of burglary were filed by Mr. Hale against Turning and Petersen.

Fixing the Responsibility.

"You say the proprietor of that summer inn robbed you?"

"Yes, but I had some words with him before I left."

"I hope you talked to him straight from the shoulder."

"I did. I told him Nature was to blame for the poor scenery, but I held him personally responsible for the beds and the grub."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Hunters Numerous and Quail Abundant—End of Cotton Picking. Whiteland, Texas, Oct. 29.

Editor Brady Standard: This week is the last cotton picking in our community, except Ace Turk. He has out 53 bales and will get one or two more. Mr. Turk made several bales more than he expected. Mrs. Ed Hale and daughter, Eunice, attended the fair at Brady Tuesday.

Mrs. Locket and daughter, Miss Ethel, from near Eden were the guests of Mrs. John Gormes Friday. Alex Wilkerson of San Antonio is the guest of Ace Turk. Mr. Wilkerson is planning to locate here, and we welcome them to our community.

Mrs. Hugin of Melvin was the guest of her daughter Mrs. Dewey Gormes the past week. Irvin Hale returned Thursday from Brady, where he attended the fair. Miss Pauline Gormes of Bangs, who has been secured by Ace Turk and J. Gormes as private teacher, came in Friday. Miss Gormes has two certificates; she is a former student of Howard Payne of Brownwood, and is well recommended, and we are sure she will make a competent teacher.

Jeanne Priest was in Melvin Friday. Mrs. John Gormes and sons were in Brady shopping Saturday.

Ace Turk and family were in Melvin Saturday. Terry Togan of Melvin visited friends and relatives here Sunday. Lee Caine of Melvin was out buying chickens Thursday.

The hunting season must be open. We see numbers of hunters and their dogs passing each day. There seems to be a great many quails this year. "FLOWER BELL."

Another Votes Fair a Success—Rev. Wall Returned as Pastor. Rochelle, Texas, Oct. 31.

Editor Brady Standard: Well, here I am again. I have to chase Jiggs every once in a while. He will slip out and run off to Dinty's.

We are having nice weather for all the small grain in the ground. I didn't mean sunshine—I meant rain.

You folks that stayed at home and didn't go to the Exhibit certainly missed something. To see the Punkinville settlers would certainly have paid you for your trip to town. "The Old Lady That Lived In A Shoe" certainly hasn't anything on Mrs. Schwenker. If you had seen the parade you could understand what I am trying to tell you. The parade would have made any circus ashamed of itself. And everything on display in the booths was certainly grand. Some real art and skill, with nimble fingers and a well developed brain were back of all these. I am not an orator nor a skilled penman, as you know, so I can only say, in simple words, "It was a success!"

The many friends of Rev. W. L. Wall and wife, are rejoicing because the conference sent the good man back to preach here another year. Here's wishing them both health, wealth and happiness while they are here.

Mrs. Fronie Blackwell and little son, Claude, are visiting Prof. and son, Freeman, spent the day last Sunday with Mr. George Lockwood and wife.

Mrs. A. L. Neal entertained her Sunday school class at her home lately with a mulligan stew. Each one present report a nice time.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hudson and little daughter, Martha, stayed until bed time with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lockwood last Saturday night.

Mrs. J. D. Stewart was the guest of Mrs. Jones last Sunday.

Mrs. C. O. Johnson was a guest of Mrs. Oldham last Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Aycock and son attended the M. E. conference at Lampasas last Sunday.

Mr. F. W. Hurd and wife and daughter, Louise, and Mr. Edd Blackwell were visitors at the Oldham home last Sunday evening.

Geo. Cole and wife are rejoicing over the arrival of a little daughter whose name is Bessie Nadine. Congratulations.

FIFE FINDINGS.

Prospect of Large Grain Acreage—Push 1923 Fair. Fife, Texas, Oct. 31.

Editor Brady Standard: We have been taking a rest, thinking, perhaps, someone else would volunteer to take our place, but have given up the idea, so here goes again.

We are having an abundance of rain here lately, the last on Monday evening, when more than an inch fell, filling many tanks and putting a good season in the ground for grain sowing. We hope to see a good acreage in grain this winter.

A. M. Finlay has sold his place here to C. M. Tedder of Kempner and will leave shortly for the Abilene country to look for a location.

Dave Roberts and family of Oakalla are new citizens here. Mr. Roberts will farm on one of R. K. Finlay's places this year.

Our school is progressing nicely under the efficient management of Prof. J. M. Young, assisted by Misses Fay Alexander and K'Nola King. About 90 pupils are enrolled so far.

Rev. Henry Smith of Mullin filled his regular appointment here Saturday night and Sunday.

R. L. Pearce was a visitor at Brownwood Saturday on business.

H. T. Baldrige is here this week from South Bend on a visit to home folks.

Well, our 1922 "Free Fair" is over and so far as we could observe, was a complete success. Our community is glad it was there even if we did not have much to exhibit. We believe in making our fair permanent because if it does nothing else it creates a co-operative spirit in our county which will accomplish lasting good in the long run. We need a better place to meet and we understand the Brady folks are behind a move to have this by next year. We believe every community in the county ought to help in this move to the end that we may make the fair better. While if we would not add another single feature to the 1923 fair than we had this, we need more room for booths and outside exhibits. Let's push the 1923 Fair.

With the passing of summer and the approach of indoor days and longer evenings, music again comes into its own. Favorable Weather for Young Oats
Miss Purdy Conducts Sewing Club.
Lohn, Texas, Oct. 30.

Editor Brady Standard:

We have had very favorable weather the past two weeks for the young oats. The warm rains are not only helpful to the grain and young gardens but if we have a late frost many bolls of cotton will open and people will reap the benefit of the top crop.

Our school which opened October 16th with an attendance of fifty-five is progressing nicely. The girls are taking great interest in the sewing club which is being conducted by Miss Lucy Purdy. They have been patching the past week, but will begin their aprons soon. They are having a time learning to use their thimbles. Mary complained the first week about having sore fingers from the misuse of the needle, but they have the old time school spirit which is to say,

"If at first you don't succeed, Try, try again."

The Ledbetter school will put on a Hallowe'en program Friday night, November the 3rd. After the program, candy will be sold for the benefit of the school. We send the editor a special invitation to come out and see our witch and try that tooth on our home-made candy. I am sure you will not regret it.

Mr. D. Matthews and children visited his brother, Mr. W. Matthews at Menard the week end.

Those who attended the fair at Brady are as follows: Messrs. Cecil and Glenn Cochran, Hargist Patterson, C. W. Purdy, J. L. Smith, J. F. Moore and children. All report a nice time.

Mr. D. D. Woods and wife have been moving this week. The young folks enjoyed a singing at his new home Sunday night.

Miss Lela Liverman has been at home this week, but returned to Brady Sunday, where she is attending school.

Brother Smith, the Apostolic preacher filled his regular appointment at Fife Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. Gordon Valiant and family and Mr. P. C. Clifton and family visited Mr. J. A. Liverman Sunday.

Miss Viola Cochran returned Thursday from Eden, where she has been visiting the past two weeks.

VOCA ITEMS.

Exhibit Prize-Winners Look to Your Laurels—Voca Coming Again.

Voca, Texas, Oct. 31.

Editor Brady Standard:

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Smith from Brady spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Johnston.

Mrs. Tom Brown and children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Spiller.

On Sunday there were many families out from Brady enjoying the invigorating environments of the San Saba river.

Last Saturday the teachers from Voca attended the County Teachers' association at Brady. The teachers report a very interesting meeting. Mr. A. S. Johnston, superintendent of the Montgomery consolidated schools was elected president of the McCulloch County Teachers' association. Mr. Johnston reports that he may attend the State Teachers' association at Houston, Texas, November 30, 1922.

Miss Eloise Macon, graduate of Kidd-Key College, has secured a nice class, and is now teaching piano in the Montgomery consolidated schools. Miss Macon is a very accomplished young lady, and any community, town or city, is very fortunate in having Miss Macon with them.

In looking over the score that the Voca community made in the McCulloch County Fair, we are very glad to know that in anything McCulloch county undertakes, that the Voca community must be considered as a very important factor in the future of the county. It is a fact that we did not get first place, but it is also gratifying to know that if we had entered cotton, live stock and some of the fine poultry in this community, that we would have won first place. We do not feel discouraged, but give notice that next year the other communities are going to see us again enter the McCulloch County Co-Operative Exhibit, and carry off most of the first money and first places. It is an admitted fact that the Voca territory is one of the best sections of this county; it is a fact that in the Voca territory there are more varieties of produce raised than any other section of this county; it is a fact that the Voca territory has some of the best registered and graded live stock in the county. Then why should we feel discouraged in the score that we made in the last exhibit? We do not, but we give notice that we will be there next time with more and better products and live stock.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Mayo and family have moved to the Pontotoc community. We regret very much to give up this good family, and we are sure that this move by Mr. Mayo will be regretted by all the people in this community. Mr. Mayo is a man that is well liked by his fellowman, and is an asset to any community.

Pecan Crop Is Good—Comment on Exhibit and Judging.

Voca, Texas, Oct. 31.

Editor Brady Standard:

The fair is over and we have had some fine rains, and crops are all gathered. The banks and I suppose all the debts are paid now. Why should we be anything but happy and contented?

I said the crops were all gathered and they are. But some of us have got the easiest made crop of all yet to gather—that is the pecan crop and it is very good here.

There will be some moving take place around here this week. Harvey Henderson of Pontotoc has sold his telephone system at that place to Ben Mayo of Voca, who is the manager and operator of the Voca telephone system. Harvey Henderson will move back here on the farm lately bought from G. A. Spiller, Jr., and Mr. Mayo will move to Pontotoc to take charge of the telephone office at that place. Cleveland Perry who owns the Voca system will move to the Mayo place to take charge of the Voca office.

I made mention of the fair in the beginning of this letter. In most respects it was a grand success; the parade was excellent and I don't think could be excelled. The community exhibit was simply grand; many of the people told me it was equal to the Dallas fair. The live stock and poultry department was good. But the judging was a failure in some respects. I do not envy the community because they received a higher score than we did. If it was due them they justly deserved it, and I am glad they did so well. But listen! Lost Creek had live stock in the parade and on exhibit and some poultry, but I see nothing but 0 0 in the final score. Lost Creek received fourth prize on booth score, according to the judges. But according to the judgment of at least one thousand people who told me that Lost Creek was the best booth in the hall, it seems different. I had men of worth tell me they had been to State fairs and even World fairs and they said we had products in our booth that excelled anything they had ever seen in all their travels. We exhibited ten varieties of fresh vegetables; we exhibited five distinct varieties of farm grains, besides pumpkins and potatoes; we had fifty-five jars of canned goods of all varieties of fruits, vegetables and jellies and more pecans than all the rest combined; and crochet and needle work and paintings too numerous to mention, as fine as silk and not a prize on any of it. Of course, Lost Creek being the smallest district I think in the county, was foolish, in the outset, to think they could compete for prizes against large, consolidated districts, like Montgomery-Voca districts, or Lohn-Fairview and others; but we folks are ambitious and do not believe in letting anything like the county fair pass us by without taking stock. While we fell pretty low on scores, I am not ashamed of the showing we made, and the great number of compliments on our booth and its excellent display of actual home-grown products gives me great courage.

The Times are propitious in Grand Old McCulloch.

FOR A PERMANENT FAIR.

Following the great success that attended the holding of the second McCulloch County Co-Operative Exhibit, enthusiasm has run high, and there is a universal sentiment in town and country that the Exhibit should be made a permanent affair. That a permanent Exhibit along the lines of the one just held would accomplish a wonderful good in showing to the world the wonderful resources of McCulloch county, no one for a moment can doubt. But it would do more than that—it would bring the citizens of a community closer together, and bring the citizens of the communities closer together. It would create a spirit of friendly rivalry that would work wonders in encouraging the citizens to put forth their very best efforts in all lines of endeavor. It could not do other than to build town and communities, and to bring lasting benefit to all.

But when we say, "Make the Exhibit a permanent institution," it brings on more talk. The greatest obstacle to be encountered and overcome is the providing of suitable quarters for the holding of the Exhibit. It was that fact that came so near causing the abandoning of the Exhibit this year, and with the increased interest and demand for larger exhibit space the coming year, it is a foregone conclusion that other preparations must be made for the holding of the Exhibit next year and in succeeding years.

The Standard would like to suggest that the leaders in Exhibit work in each community agree upon some date and time at which a mass meeting of all the citizens of the county shall be held, and at which the matter of permanent quarters shall be discussed and acted upon. The time is now—right when everyone is enthusiastic over the matter, and while it is fresh on their mind. Further, the deciding of this all-important question at this time, will make certain our action next Fall and give the citizens a whole year in which to prepare for the 1923 Exhibit.

What say the people? It is for the citizens, themselves, to decide.

"A full tide of unprecedented prosperity is setting in throughout the United States. I have never seen a brighter outlook nor more hopeful condition. Of course it is the rubber business I know best about, but prosperity in any line means equal prosperity in all related industries."—W. O. Rutherford, Vice-President of Goodrich Rubber Co.

OUR ERROR AGAIN.

The Standard editor thought he was pretty thoroughly covering the ground in his write-up of the displays at the Exhibit hall, but, as usual, he overlooked one portion of it—in this instance, the attractive display of mattresses and cushions made by E. R. Cantwell. Every McCulloch county citizen is proud of our own home industries, and none are more so than is The Standard editor. Mr. Cantwell makes a splendid product, and one which has gained for him so favorable a reputation that his goods are in demand all over this section. In addition, he uses McCulloch county cotton, which is another reason why Brady-made mattresses should be popular and in greatest demand by our citizens.

COUNTRY DAMAGED COTTON.

The country damage to cotton amounts to many million dollars annually. The cotton producer pays for it. Buyers of cotton the world over make allowances for country damage. It comes with such regularity every season that docking the entire crop has become a regular habit. This docking is reflected in the price paid on every bale marketed. No matter if one farmer or a hundred farmers place their cotton in warehouses or protect it from the weather on the farm, they contribute to the sum paid for damaged cotton brought about through neglect and carelessness of others.

Before the practice of docking for country damage can be broken up, the method of handling cotton on the farm and at gins must be changed in all parts of the cotton belt. Farmers will have to cease the practice of hauling a bale of cotton home and dumping it out on the ground at the most convenient place. Cotton yards will have to be dispensed with or used only as a temporary place to store the bales. Not until those who produce or handle the staple in America show a disposition to give adequate protection to this valuable product will the practice of penalizing the American crop become obsolete.

Another reform is needed in the handling of the American crop, and that is the method of sampling, which method contributes largely to the ragged appearance of the bale and is responsible for much country damage. Every buyer or other person who inspects a bale feels called upon to slash the bale in a different place and drag out a pound of lint. Samples should be drawn at the gin and certified to. Why cut a bale into shreds so that when it reaches the port it looks like a wornout mop?—Farm & Ranch.

KINDLY COMMENT.

An attractive McCulloch county exhibit edition has just been issued by The Brady Standard. It announces the opening of the Exhibit Oct. 24, to extend through the following day, and extends an invitation on behalf of the city of Brady for all to visit the fair. In honor of the occasion, The Standard publishes a sixteen-page paper. It gives the program for the fair, which promises to be a very interesting occasion, and is full of local news and advertisements of the local merchants, showing the latter believe in publicity through the press.—Fort Worth Record.

The Brady Standard of the 20th of October appeared as a sixteen page issue in honor of the McCulloch County Co-Operative Exhibit. The program for the two days is varied and manifold and judging from the success of the forerunner, the special edition, the exhibit itself will be a grand success.—Radio Post, Fredericksburg.

SAN ANGELO POOR SPORTSMEN BRADY COMPLAINS

As an example of poor sportsmanship, Brady citizens point to the claims now advanced by San Angelo asserting defeat of the Brady polo team by the San Angelo polo team, based on the winning by San Angelo of the third game of the series and which was played on the last day of the San Angelo Fair. The San Angelo Standard reports the lining up of the San Angelo polo team before the grandstand and their presentation by Mrs. R. S. Waring of bits for their horses as prizes awarded by the fair association to the winning team.

This "die-hard" spirit of the San Angelo bunch finds no sympathy nor commendation upon the part of the general citizenship of Tom Green county as well as of McCulloch county. It was only after prolonged and earnest solicitation upon the part of San Angelo that Brady consented to a match. San Angelo touted hers as the best polo team in West Texas, which she had every reason to do since Fred Roe, captain, and Dick Waring, were both members of Eastern polo clubs. Brady, on the other hand, had a team composed of good men, but who had played only with local men and on the local polo grounds, and at that, had not played together in about a year's time. However, at the insistence of San Angelo, the locals consented to play a series of three games. All correspondence in arranging the games was carried on by Walter Caldwell of Brady and Joe Devlin of San Angelo, and both understood that the winners of two out of three games in the series were to be winners of the series. On account of both teams expecting to be short one player on Saturday, it was decided after the first game to play the last game with only three players on each side. Brady won Thursday's and Friday's game, and San Angelo won Saturday's game by a score of what they claim as 5 1/4 to 1, the 1/4 point being a penalty assessed against Brady, but which rule is now obsolete.

The Brady aggregation does not care anything about losing the trophies awarded, but does feel that San Angelo, in the face of the foregoing facts shows itself mighty un-sportsmanlike in claiming the winning polo team.

The following is the San Angelo Standard's report in which, it will be noticed, no account is taken of the first two polo games played and which were won by Brady:

A San Angelo victory over Brady in polo, 5 1/4 to 1, the defeat of Louis Jones of Christoval, goat roping champion of Texas, by Allen Holder of Lovington, N. M., who lost the title to Jones several years ago while residing in Garden City; spirited horse races, a baby show with 240 entries, including seven sets of twins and a traveling men's banquet at night were the high lights in Saturday afternoon's program closing San Angelo's thirteenth annual fair.

With Dick Waring, San Angelo, and Joseph Tweedy, Knickerbocker, screening his maneuvers, Fred Roe, Robert Lee, scored three goals for San Angelo. Waring and Tweedy each registered a goal. The fractional point resulted from the penalizing of Brady for striking the ball behind its own goal line. Ben Strickland shot the visitors' only goal in the first of the six periods, each of six minutes. Waring goalied in the same period and after that San Angelo was never threatened.

Roe flashed the most brilliant performance of the three days, upon one occasion carrying the ball the entire length of the field and between the posts at the end. His interference was perfect. Roe had hard luck, however, one of his best horses—valued at $1,500—dropping dead beneath him in the first period. Whether death was due to injury or to sudden heart disease resulting from over-exertion was not determined. With the game over, the winners lined up before the grand stand, where bits for their horses were awarded by the fair association as prizes. Mrs. R. S. Waring made the presentation, which was greeted with cheering.

BAND BOYS EXPRESS APPRECIATION OF EFFORTS DURING EXHIBIT IN THEIR BEHALF

The members of the Brady Municipal band are duly appreciative of the efforts in their behalf during the McCulloch County Co-Operative Exhibit, and this appreciation extends not only to the ladies of the town who so generously and loyally arranged the benefit dinner and who provided all the splendid dishes and foods served, but also to those citizens who attended the dinner and made it the great financial success it was. Something over $200 was realized from the dinner, which proved a substantial addition to the funds already possessed by the band, and which is to be used in the purchase of uniforms.

In fact, as further evidence of their appreciation of the support given them by the citizens, the band boys have voted to themselves subscribe the remaining amount, which will run around $300, and will place an order at once for regulation uniforms.

Consequently, in the no distant future, Brady and McCulloch county citizens will have the privilege and pleasure of seeing their band appear on public occasions in full uniform. Brady already boasts of one of the best, if not the very best, bands in this section, and in their new uniforms, it may safely be said there will be no more attractive band anywhere in the state.

Jack o'-Lanterns lent attractiveness to the scene.

Miss Ballou Entertains.

Miss Elizabeth Ballou entertained a number of her friends on Tuesday night with a Hallowe'en party. The invitation read:

To whit! To wheel!
Will you listen to me?
A Hallowe'en Party—
At Miss Elizabeth Ballou's—
On Tuesday, October 31, 1922—
At 8:00 o'clock P. M.
Admitted if masked.

Upon arrival the guests were invited to the dance hall and after a few dances, each guest was presented and much merriment was derived from the guessing of the characters. Several games were played, such as "The Old Witch Died," etc., and "Good Nite." Then it was announced that the witch had lost her black cat and that the party could not continue until it was found. The guests searched while each piece of the cat puzzle was found and put together correctly.

While the couples were dancing, a boy and girl were blind-folded and taken through the "Witch's corner." Next the fortunes were "dished" from the black pot where they had been brewed.

Orange ice and cake were served. The ice was in the shape of an orange with a black cat standing on it as favors. The Ballou home was most attractively decorated in keeping with the Hallowe'en spirit, while the darkened house, and ghosts and spooks in every nook and corner carried out the idea in detail.

The guests were Misses Helen Schill, Mary Louise-Davis, Dorothy Nell Broad, Mary Lou Ledbetter, Ruby Gahagan, Lillian Galloway, Ethel Reed, Louise Cox, Marjory Winstead, Jewel Bodenhamer, Lois Stowe, Ila Ruth Andrews, Frances White; Messrs. Harry Hill, J. K. Wooseley, Thad Davis, Alfred Davis, Thomas Erickson, Travis Reed, Cecil Striegler, Harvey Lang, Robert Ledbetter, Jerome Wilkerson, James Maxwell.

Hallowe'en Party.

Master Paul Mann was host at a most enjoyable children's party on Tuesday evening from 5:00 o'clock until 7:00, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James T. Mann. The little guests, upon their arrival, were met at the door by a spook and shown into the living room, where witches and bats and big black cats and other ideas suggestive of Hallowe'en, furnished the decorative motif.

Another spook then took the little guests into an adjoining room to meet the witch in person, and to have a shocking handshake. The witch, in the person of Bessie Roddie was stationed in a booth of black and yellow, while the dim lights of a score of jack o'lanterns, cast a weird reflection over the scene. However, the witch was in most gracious humor, and said the children had all been very good, so she would escort them to her witches' kettle and serve them with witches' stew. Out on the back porch the guests found the stew in the big black kettle, which was served by a spook stationed in a booth of black and white.

The game of "Feather" was then played by the children, and after the game the guests had to redeem forfeits by doing stunts named by the witch. Marshmallows toasted over a fire in the yard served to provide further enjoyment and entertainment for the little folks.

The dining room next claimed the attention of the guests, where orange sherbet in decorated baskets, and cakes were served. Decorated crepe paper, suggestive of the Hallowe'en spirit was used on the dining table, with a basket of orange cosmos furnishing an attractive and beautiful centerpiece. Favors of decorated crepe containing snappers, esp and fortune, and horns were presented each guest.

Hallowe'en decorations of cats, bats, witches and owls were used throughout the house, while the yellow lights added to the spooky effect and carried out the Hallowe'en idea perfectly.

Numbered among the guests were little Misses Christine Jones, Betty Brannum, Loudie Marie Schwenker, Darby Ogden, Phoebe Graham, Charlotte Stowe, Mary Eugenia Wood, Marietta and Mary Louise Sessions, Roylene and Floy Bell Erickson, Frances Charlotte Strickland, Reta McBride, Elsie Woosley, Margaret Dunn, Alice Lindley, Clara and Helen Schwenker; Masters Bill Gay Kennerly, Fred Wulff, Wayne Sellers, Ed Campbell, Jr., Eugene Tulk, John Francis Ogden, Malcolm Jones, Gardner Broad, John Knox, A. J. Ricks, Abner Trigg, James and Pershing Jones, Byron Baker, Yantis and Sam Jr. McCollum, Ben Hill Ogden.

Assisting Mrs. Mann in entertaining were Misses Bessie Roddie as witch, Elzora Cunningham, Dora Rawlins and Ruby Granger as spooks, and Mesdames Wm. C. Jones and J. H. Ogden.

TALE typical of the dean of America's most successful novelists. It goes back to a period when steamboating on the Mississippi was picturesque and full of romance.

The hero is from the North and the other prominent characters all southern. The atmosphere is entirely of the old South, excepting for a tinge here and there which reveals the carpetbaggers' regime and the influences of the early days of reconstruction.

unctious with humor and character drawing, presenting both the foibles and the lovable qualities of its people, the story is also salty with a quaint philosophy. Plots and incidents are dramatic and thrilling in the extreme; truly representative of a time when chivalry and hot blood were still in the ascendancy and men and women loved and hated with all the fervor of intense natures.

EARLY MARKETING OF TURKEYS MOST PROFITABLE IS OPINION OF STATE DEALERS

Local produce dealers are of the opinion that early marketing of turkeys this year will be most profitable, and they will urge turkey growers to arrange to bring in their turkeys just as soon as the Thanksgiving market is open. They base their opinion upon the fact that statistics show about 3,000,000 pounds of dressed turkeys held over from last year on cold storage in Chicago and New York, and also the threatened competition of birds shipped from South America, Australia and New Zealand, by packing house interests.

The following article, reprinted from the Fort Worth Record of October 26th, is said to set forth the situation very plainly:

John Collier of the Fort Worth Poultry and Egg company, predicts cheaper Thanksgiving turkeys this year. He recently attended a convention of produce dealers of Texas at Dallas, where the situation was discussed and statistics on the world's visible supply obtained.

In discussing the situation, he says: "Consumers throughout the United States, who have been complaining of the high cost of living, will be much pleased to know that their Thanksgiving and Christmas turkey is to be much cheaper this year than it has been since 1912.

"The dealers throughout Texas, assembled at Dallas, in their annual convention, have compiled their figures and find there will be between 600 and 700 carloads of dressed turkeys shipped out of the state of Texas between now and January 1, 1923.

"The dealers in Chicago and New York City still have on hand three million pounds of dressed turkeys, which were bought one year ago, and which must be sold this year to be consumed at Thanksgiving time and enough other poultry to total 25,883,000 pounds.

"Salesmen have been in Chicago and New York from Australia and New Zealand trying to make contract with the Chicago dealers for turkeys to be shipped from these countries which will arrive during December.

"Representatives of packing house interests in South America have been forwarding many heavy shipments of fine dressed turkeys during the past two months and they estimate during the next twelve months they will have approximately five million pounds of South American turkeys to be distributed from New York city.

"Texas leads all the other states in the union in the number of turkeys raised and shipped out of the state; and it is estimated that the present crop will bring into the state about 3½ million dollars.

"Nearly all the dealers feel that the turkeys marketed in November will bring more money than those held back and sold late in December.

"That lower prices must prevail to the producer of turkeys this year, than last year, can easily be understood, when it is known that the dealers in the East and North have lost as much as 15 cents per pound on carloads of turkeys bought in Texas last year. This loss was partially brought about by the fact that France and Ireland shipped in large quantities of turkeys which sold in the New York market in direct competition with the Texas turkey.

"At the national convention of the butter, egg and poultry dealers of Chicago, held on the 16th and 17th of this month, there was not a single operator who would make a price on ten carloads of turkeys to be shipped for consumption, or storage during the coming December.

"Many heavy failures have taken place in the poultry business in Texas and elsewhere, during the past year, and in the face of the fact, lower prices must prevail on turkeys, just as grain, hogs, cattle and sheep are bringing much less now than they did during the closing year of the war.

"Both the consumer and the producer will be much better off, when the prices return to pre-war basis, from the simple fact that the very high price turkey cannot be bought by the workingman in the North. He simply cannot afford to pay the prices. This year he will buy his turkey at a reasonable price, or there will be no turkey on his table."

LOCAL BRIEFS

W. K. Gay & Co. have greatly increased their facilities for handling their rapidly-growing business, by leasing the adjoining vacant building for use as a storage room for their hay and feed.

Finishing touches are now being put on the J. A. Holton residence in Southwest Brady, and Mr. and Mrs. Holton plan to move to and occupy their attractive bungalow residence the early part of next week.

County Attorney A. R. Pool has leased the C. D. Allen old homestead, which will be vacated next week by J. A. Holton and family, and Mr. Pool will be joined by Mrs. Pool and two sons in making their home here. All Brady folks will be glad to welcome this estimable family to citizenship.

J. C. Beckham, who recently moved from Cherokee to Brady, and who has been employed as watchman at the Brady compress, has purchased the Brady-Mason mail line from George White & Son, taking charge of the same on the 1st. Mr. Beckham also purchased the Dodge truck used to carry the mail, and will continue it in the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Conley are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a pretty little Miss, whose advent was announced last week. Mrs. Conley and babe are at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Steelhammer. Papa Joe is located at Mason, but is sufficiently footloose that he can make frequent trips over here to see the little newcomer, until such time as they will be able to accompany him back to Mason. Congratulations are extended.

The McCulloch county ballots have been printed and delivered with the name of Earle B. Mayfield appearing as the Democratic nominee for U. S. Senator. On account of the appeal now pending before the Supreme Court, it is very likely that all the ballots may have to be reprinted, with Mr. Mayfield's name omitted from the same, in order to make the ballot a legal one. The whole matter now hinges upon the decision of the supreme court upon this appeal. In the meantime, but three days remain until the date of the General Election, which will be held next Tuesday, November 7th.

The many friends of the family will be pleased to know that Will Russel will again become a Brady citizen, after an eight-years' residence in Concho county. Mr. Russel has accepted a position with the Curtis Norman Company in the capacity of salesman, and as soon as arrangements can be made, expects to be joined here by his family. Will is really a Brady boy, having made his home here for eleven years before removing to our neighbor county; he has warm friends throughout the length and breadth of the McCulloch country, and all will be glad to have him and his estimable family again become Brady citizens.

Friends of W. O. Kirchner and Joe Baker are "sniggering" up their sleeves at their prowess as turkey hunters. Messrs. Kirchner and Baker fared forth Tuesday with many a boast as to their knowledge of the ways of the wild fowl, and their unerring aim. Along in the gloomy light of a dim moon they snaked their way over brush and briars for the distance of between a quarter and a half mile until they came to the roost where reposed the object of the hunt among the branches of a mighty tree. Taking careful aim, they fired! The victim plunged to the ground almost at their feet, and proudly bearing the prey aloft, Kirchner and Baker made their way back to camp. Enroute, they became aware of an obnoxious odor, and flashing on a light the bag was examined—it was a fine, large buzzard. Friend Kirchner's and Friend Baker's Thanksgiving dinner now promises to be a "tame" affair.

GREAT MONUMENT TO BE ERECTED TO PERPETUATE MEMORY OF TRAIL DRIVERS

All patriotic Texans are urged to contribute from five dollars up, towards the erection of a monument to the old time trail drivers—the men who "went up the trail" to Kansas in the early days. The Old Time Trail Drivers Association, of which Geo. W. Saunders of San Antonio, is organizer and president, has started a movement to erect a $30,000 monument at Brackenridge park, San Antonio, which is the logical point on the old trail. Every individual who contributes as much as five dollars will be listed and his or name will be printed in a neatly bound booklet which will be sent free to all contributors. It will contain interesting facts about the aims and purposes of the association as well as data in reference to trail driving.

The early cowboys blazed the way for the civilization we today enjoy; they had a part in the history of our great state, and we should perpetuate their memory by erecting this monument. A Texan cannot stand on the field of San Jacinto without feeling a greater devotion to his state; he cannot stand within the sacred precincts of the Alamo, where men died for others, without having his heart purged of selfishness; he cannot think of the old cattle trail without remembering the sacrifices and dangers encountered by the pioneers of a great industry—the cattle industry of our state.

The Northern Trail started in 1867 and closed in 1895. During those 28 years 9,800,000 cattle and 1,000,000 horses were driven out and sold by the trail drivers, which, estimated $10 per head, amounted to a grand total of $108,000,000 which was placed in circulation during those years by the establishment of the cattle industry. At the close of the Civil War and during the early seventies our ranges were overstocked with cattle. There was no money in the state. It was up to the early cowmen to find a market for their cattle, and the great problem was solved by a few of our most venturesome cowmen driving small herds to Kansas in 1867 and 1868, and from that time on until the trail closed a steady stream of herds was kept up and the ranges the different states were gradually stocked, bringing to Texas that prosperity which has existed for so many years.

All who wish to contribute to a monument to the founders of this great industry, are requested to send their donation to W. W. Collier, treasurer, City National Bank, San Antonio. The monument committee is composed of Col. Ike T. Pryor, J. M. Doble of San Antonio, and J. A. Miller of Bandera Reference, any bank in San Antonio.

Two motor truck loads of human bones, the remains of several hundred early settlers of New York, were unceremoniously dumped into the ocean in New York City from a rubbish scow, according to a news dispatch from that city. The workmen dug up an ancient churchyard with old brownstone tombstones containing names and dates, the latest of which was 1820. Records indicate the old graveyard was undoubtedly connected with two prominent Manhattan churches of the early nineteenth century, and no doubt contained the bodies of heroes of the American Revolution and the War of 1812.

One of Interest to Our Readers. Good news bears repeating, and when it is confirmed after a long lapse of time, even if we hesitated to believe it at first hearing, we feel secure in accepting its truth now. The following experience of a Brady man is confirmed after four years. A. H. Connor, carpenter, says: "My back hurt me pretty bad and it seemed that the pains were mostly over my left kidney. My kidneys were congested and the secretions passed in pain and contained sediment. One box of Doan's Kidney Pills which I got at the Jones Drug Co., relieved the trouble with my back and regulated my kidneys." OVER YOUR YEARS LATER. ### CATTLE RAISERS AND PRODUCERS COMMISSION CO. IS NOW OPERATING FT. WORTH

As a matter of interest to every stockman and farmer in the McCulloch county section, Judge J. E. Shropshire has handed The Standard the following article, in which announcement is made of the opening for business in Fort Worth of the Cattle Raisers and Producers Commission Co. This organization will be operated as an auxiliary of the Texas Farm Bureau. The formal announcement reads:

The Cattle Raisers & Producers company opened for business at Fort Worth, Texas, Nov. 1, 1922. This company is chartered under the Co-operative Marketing Laws of Texas, without capital stock. It will not operate for profit, but on patronage dividend plan. Profits will be refunded to shippers on the basis of commissions paid by them. Under Co-operative Marketing Law, this company cannot handle shipments of live stock except for its members. Life membership for individuals, partnerships or corporations is $10; local shipping associations $50 minimum. Members are not liable for the obligations of the company.

The directors, at a recent meeting, bought out the good will of Hamm Brothers Live Stock Commission Company, and have engaged the services of A. B. Hamm as hog and sheep salesman, and Messrs. T. Z., Bob and L. B. Hamm, as cattle salesmen. These men have had years of experience on the Fort Worth Stock Yards and are prepared to render the highest class of service obtainable. Commission charges will be $12.00 per car for cattle and $8.00 per car for hogs, sheep and goats. A saving of 33 1-3 per cent over the charges of all other commission companies at the Fort Worth market.

Co-operative commission companies are no experiment. They are successfully operating at nearly all the Northern markets. The producers Commission Company at St. Louis, National Stock Yards, began operations January 2, 1922, and was successful from the first week. The Farmers Union Commission company of Omaha, Nebraska, (the oldest of this kind in existence) operated in 1921 at the cost of $5.69 per car; the St. Paul Company at $6.64 per car. This can be accomplished by the stockmen of the Southwest by joining the Cattle Raisers & Producers Commission Company. Membership in this company entitles shippers to become a member of similar agencies at the Northern markets, without the payment of additional fees, and enables them to participate in the profits of such concerns.

There are 33 directors of this organization, divided between the Texas & Southwestern Cattle Raisers association, the Sheep & Goat Raisers association, and Texas Farm Bureau. The present officers are Ed C. Lassiter, of Falfurrias, president; S. E. McKnight, of Sonora, vice-president; and E. B. Spiller, secretary-treasurer and general manager.

Death of Mrs. Jos. Hanson.
(Contributed.)

Mrs. Hilda Hanson, wife of Joseph Hanson, was born at Ulah, Ill. August 16, 1872. She was united in marriage to Joseph Hanson at Galls, Ill. September 15, 1892. To them were born seven children, Mrs. Minnie Nelson, Mrs. Olive Broman, Mrs. Lillie Rose, Mrs. Alice Nelson, Esther, Louise and Evelyn.

The family moved into West Sweden community March 1908. Mrs. Hanson joined the M. E. church at West Sweden on May 7, 1911. She was an active member and president of the Ladies Aid until the time of her death which occurred at the Brady sanitarium Oct. 26, 1922. She was a kind and helpful neighbor, true wife and a loving mother. She will be sadly missed in the home by husband and family, and by her many friends in the community. An aged mother at Cambridge, Ill., and two brothers, Ludvig and Oscar also survive to mourn her seemingly untimely death.

The funeral services were held Monday at 2:00 p. m. Many friends of the departed gathered at the home where a short service was held, after which all accompanied the family to the West Sweden M. E. church where Rev. Gustafson assisted by Rev. Klint from Melvin, conducted the service. The church was beautifully decorated and the choir sang some of Mrs. Hanson's favorite songs. Rev. Gustafson read the 90th Psalm and Rev. Klint offered prayer. After a solo by Mrs. C. Dahlberg, Rev. Gustafson gave message of comfort from the Word of God, showing that the righteous are delivered from death and the departed enter into life everlasting, receiving a crown of glory as reward for a life of service.

After a solo by Mrs. Byman, Rev. Klint gave a message from Rom. 8: 38-39. Among the many beautiful thoughts he said nothing but sin separates man from God. Death unites the righteous with God forever. He gave an earnest invitation to the living to accept Life through faith in Jesus Christ.

A song by the choir and Mr. Abner Hanson read the obituary and a short testimony of God's love which Mrs. Hanson had written during her illness. While friends of departed viewed the remains, the choir sang appropriate hymns and the services

MISS ALICE SELF, Secretary

Turkeys! Turkeys!!
—TURKEYS!—

We now have our Turkey Dressing Plant in operation, and will be in the market from this on until after the Holidays for your Turkeys.

We want Hen Turkeys weighing seven pounds and over, and young Tom Turkeys weighing eleven pounds and over.

Hold your light Turkeys back for a later market, as the increase in weight will pay you well, and too, by selling only the heavy turkeys, it will raise the grade of Texas Turkeys to an extent where there will be no discrimination against the Texas Turkey.

Our Mr. Jordan is now enroute to New York, and will remain there during the Turkey Season, which will enable us to secure the highest market prices for our Turkeys, and will, in turn, enable us to pay the producer better prices.

We will be in position at all times to pay you top market prices for everything in the produce line, as well as turkeys, during the coming season.
