THREE DIED IN CONDARCO AUTO SUNDAY ON 385
... And four others were injured critically

THIS CAR OVERTURNED NEAR FLAGG SUNDAY
... Its owner, Franklin Goen, was killed

Five persons died violent deaths and seven others were hospitalized in three separate tragedies in Castro County Saturday and Sunday.

Victims of the county's most grim weekend in recent history ranged in age from 7 to 61. Two of the dead and three of the injured were county residents, and all the other victims were from Hereford.

The deaths resulted to a self-hanging in the county jail Saturday at noon, a one-car turnover at Flagg Sunday afternoon, and a two-car head-on collision 2 1/2 miles north of Dimmitt Sunday evening.

Below are the details:

1 Man Hangs Self In County Jail

A Dimmitt farm worker hanged himself with his belt in the county jail Saturday after telling his cellmate, "I ought to kill myself," and writing a note to his wife to "take good care of the children."

MIKE GARCIA, 33-year-old father of six, strangled himself at 12:45 p.m. Saturday while his panicked cellmate shouted to the street below for help.

Garcia was in county jail on a charge of driving while intoxicated, second offense, and was being held also for the Dallam County Sheriff's Office on suspicion of writing bad checks, Sheriff Jack Cartwright said.

The prisoner who shared Garcia's cell with him, an older Negro man, told Cartwright that he had been preaching to Garcia the night before and that Garcia had told him, "I have been doing wrong — I ought to kill myself."

CARTWRIGHT said Garcia tied one end of his thin leather belt to a cell crossbar only four feet above the floor, looped the buckle end around his neck and slumped to the floor, extending his legs in front of him.

Garcia's cellmate told officers he was asleep at the time, but was awakened by the rattling of the cell door. He said he panicked when he saw what was happening, and ran to the window facing Bedford Street to call for help.

Cartwright said Garcia wrote a note to his wife before his death, telling her he was going to go join their daughter who had died when she was 4, and instructing her to take good care of their other children.

The couple had six living children, ranging from 1 year old to a grown son and a married daughter. Last rites and burial were conducted in Anton Monday, with Dennis Funeral Home in charge.

2 Car Overtakes; Worker Killed

Franklin Goen, 33-year-old Indian farm worker, was killed Sunday afternoon when his car overturned half a mile north of the Flagg Gin on Farm Road 1055.

A PASSENGER in the car, Jerry Lynn Vassaur, 39, received cuts and bruises in the rollover, but was not seriously injured.

Sheriff Jack Cartwright said Goen's late-model Ford sedan went out of control at a lake dip north of the Flagg Gin at 12:40 p.m. and skidded 100 yards down the road before rolling over in a bar-ditch.

Funeral services were in Goen's home town of Idabel, Okla.

3, 4, 5 Sunday Head-on Claims 3 Lives

A family Easter egg hunt and a boys' fishing trip ended tragically at 7:30 p.m. Sunday when a car and pickup collided head-on 2 1/2 miles north of Dimmitt, killing two Hereford women and a 7-year-old girl and injuring six others.

KILLED in the wreck on US 385 were Clara Lombrano, 29, Juliana Condarco, 61, and Monica Sa'inas, 7, all of Hereford.

Two 16-year-old Dimmitt boys, Tommy Youts and Lee Buchanan, occupants of the pickup, were hospitalized with severe lacerations and bruises. Both are now reported in satisfactory condition at Plains Memorial.

Other occupants of the Hereford car who were injured were George Condarco, 18, driver; Mrs. Lombrano's two sons, Burnie, 9, and Armando, 7; and Joe Condarco, 9, a cousin of the driver. All were admitted to Plains Memorial Hospital with critical injuries and all are still hospitalized except Condarco, who was released Monday. Burnie Lombrano is still in critical condition, while his brother...

Tower to Speak To 500 Saturday

Sen. John Tower, the leading voice of progressive conservatism in the US Senate, will speak to a sellout crowd of 500 here Saturday night at the Castro County Chamber of Commerce annual banquet.

THE DINNER will begin at 7:45 p.m. Saturday in Dimmitt High School gym. "Civic Betterment for a Stronger America" will be the banquet theme and red, white and blue will be the banquet hall colors.

Texas' junior senator will be kept busy from the time he touches down at Dimmitt Airport at 5 p.m. Saturday. His pre-banquet schedule includes a press conference for area newsmen from 5:15 to 6 in the First State Bank and a public reception from 6 to 7 in the Allan Webb home in West Dimmitt.

CHAMBER President Bill Bennett emphasized that the 6 o'clock reception is open to everyone, and said he hopes Sen. Tower will be greeted by a wall-to-wall crowd of Dimmitt people in the Webb home.

This will be one of Sen. Tower's first back-home appearances since his February tour of Southeast Asia, and he is expected in his speech here to discuss the Vietnam war as he sees it. He has reiterated his "hawk" position on Vietnam strategy since his return from Southeast Asia.

Other highlights of Saturday night's banquet will include the announcement of Castro County's "Outstanding Citizen of the Year" by Bill Bennett; an appearance by Miss Grain Sorghum of the Nation, Linda Morris of Ulysses, Kan., who was crowned here last August; and a report of chamber activities during the past year by Mrs. Dorothy Magness, secretary.

RONNIE PARKER, minister of the Fourth and Bedford Church of Christ, will emcee the banquet. A few tickets are still available at $4 each from the chamber office and from James Horton, Bill Bennett, Bill Gregory, Carl Bruegel, G. C. Bröckett and Don Newman.

Seven Elections on Tap

Voters across the county will cast ballots in seven elections Saturday and Tuesday.

However, no one will have to make more than two trips to the polls during the week.

THE ELECTIONS are for school board members in Dimmitt, Hart and Nazareth; county school trustees; Plains Memorial Hospital directors; Dimmitt mayor and corporation court judge; and Hart mayor and councilmen.

The school and hospital board elections will be conducted together Saturday, and the city elections will be Tuesday.

Polling hours are 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. both days. Incumbents are running unopposed in all elections except two—the hospital board race and the Hart school trustee scramble.

IN THE HOSPITAL board race, five men have filed for three posts. Dr. Bill D. Murphy and medical technician James Cannon, both of Dimmitt, made a contested race of it when they filed to run alongside the three incumbents.

Their filings turned the race into a free-for-all, since all hospital board members are elected at large.

Hospital directors seeking re-election are Ed Bennett of Hart, Aubrey Epperson of Easter and Vaden L. Kirby of Dimmitt.

The hospital board election will be held at the same time and place as the three school board elections.

Only registered voters who are also property tax payers can cast ballots in the hospital and school elections.

HART SCHOOL district voters will have a choice of five men for three posts, too. The only Hart school trustee seeking re-election is Ralph Fu-rell. The other two incumbents, Doyle Davis and Lorenza Lee, did not file.

The other four candidates are Dean Sanders, Bob Lacy, Dwight Miller and Robert Hawkins.

Balloting will be conducted Saturday in city hall, and school voters will also be issued ballots to the hospital board and county school board elections.

COUNTY SCHOOL board members will be elected along with local school district trustees Saturday. Three posts are open, and all three incumbents have filed without opposition.

Morgan Dennis seeks the Precinct 3 post on the county school board, and Ed Drenup is seeking re-election to the Precinct 4 trusteeship. Running for county at-large trustee is Ivor Bagwell, who was appointed last year to fill the unexpired term of the late Lester Dowell.

IN DIMMITT'S school board race, two posts are open and incumbents Frank Wise and G. L. Willis Jr. are seeking re-election to them. No other candidates filed.

This election will be Saturday in Dimmitt Junior High School. Hospital board and county school board ballots will also be issued to voters at the polling site.

NAZARETH'S school board election sees an unopposed race, also. Two places on the seven-man board are to be filled. And both incumbents, John Schacher and Charles Heck Jr., are seeking re-election.

Balloting will be Saturday in the Nazareth Community Building, and voters will also choose hospital directors and county school trustees at the same time.

IN DIMMITT'S city election Tuesday, Mayor George Bradford and Corporation Court Judge John Broadstreet will have the ballot all to themselves.

Balloting for the two offices will be in the city hall from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. Tuesday. Those casting ballots in the election need not be resident city voters, and not property tax payers.

Bradford has been in office six years, and is unopposed as he seeks a fourth term. Broadstreet, also unopposed has held the corporation court judgeship eight years and is up for his fifth term.

IN HART, Mayor E. E. Foster and Councilmen Buster Aven and John Heloway have drawn no opposition in their bids for re-election.

The city election will be in Hart city hall, and is open to all registered voters who have lived in the city six months or more.

Current Water Study: Uphill, From Arkansas

By the year 2000, water may be imported into West Texas, uphill from Arkansas.

THIS IS THE proposal being studied by the state water development board, a representative of High Plains Underground Water Conservation District told an audience at the Colonial Inn last Thursday night.

Bill Waddle, public relations representative for the district, said the plan was proposed after West Texas raised a ruckus about being left out of the futuristic Texas Water Plan.

The original Texas Water Plan, he pointed out, considered future water only for the metropolitan areas of eastern, central and coastal Texas, projecting the needs of these areas to the year 2020. The plan would abandon West Texas and convert the dry coastal delta to irrigated agriculture.

"AFTER the uproar from West Texas came these three proposals now being studied," he said: "Study No. 1 is to bring 16 million acre feet from Arkansas through Oklahoma City by way of a cut channel, and across to the Panhandle."

"Study No. 2 is the same Arkansas route — from the Arkansas River to the Sulphur River — but then to raise the water up to the Red River and bring 16 million acre feet into West Texas by this route."

"Study No. 3 is to bring the water down its natural course to East Texas, then divert it to the Colorado River from East Texas, then back-pump it up the Colorado to West Texas."

HE SAID either of the three plans would probably deliver a net 12 million acre feet per year — much more than is now being used to irrigate West Texas.

"This water would be coming in for 365 days a year," he said, "so terminal storage would be necessary. Bull Lake in Lamb County would probably be used for terminal storage, also several of our larger playa lakes. Palo Duro Canyon wouldn't work because of its large gypsum deposits."

He said the idea of lifting river water isn't as radical as it may sound, and that it's already being done in California.

"Texas has been found to be 50 years behind California in moving surface water," he said.

ALTHOUGH he discounted proposals to bring surface water here from the Northwest ("Canada isn't going to give up its greatest natural resource"), Waddle was optimistic about the prospect of irrigation via imported surface water when the well's run dry in West Texas.

"My personal opinion is that if the people out here will join together in a unified effort, they will import surface water," he said.

ROSS GOODWIN, another water district official, showed slides of California's tremendous progress in lifting water over a mountain range in the San Joaquin Valley.

"A pumping plant being built now near Sacramento will raise water 1,900 feet up a mountain,"

he said. "And this is water that has already been raised 1,300 feet."

Goodwin added, "Seventy percent of the state water board's time is now being used to devise ways of getting water to the High Plains."

"A YEAR AGO they told us there was no water for us, and even if there were we couldn't afford to pay for it after having it pumped uphill," Goodwin said.

"Now, three of the biggest engineering firms in the US, plus the Army Corps of Engineers, are working on it."

Waddle said the imported water would probably cost $15 to $20 per acre foot at today's figures.

HE ADDED that the water cost would probably be paid partially by agricultural users and partly by taxes from vast "improvement districts" that would benefit from it.

"We have a great job ahead of us if we're going to get any of this accomplished," he told local water district members. "Our biggest hurdle may not be the technical problems, but a matter of people — to get the public involved."

THIS IS IT — the big loan check that will make Castro County's huge labor housing project a reality. Allan Webb, president of the Castro County Agricultural Housing Association, Inc., accepted the $570,000 US Treasury check last week from Don Jennings, county supervisor for the Farmers Home Administration, which is insuring the loan. In addition to this check, the housing association received a $20,000 check as the first advance on an FHA project grant of $387,380. In background are scale models of the housing units. Related story, Page 8.

There is no such thing as an unimportant election. Every election is important, and reflects the desires of the people involved. Dimmitt school patrons and citizens of Dimmitt will be voting in elections Saturday and Tuesday where incumbents are running for re-election without opposition. This makes easy ballots to vote and they should be voted. People that serve in these public offices, without pay, certainly deserve a vote of confidence.

For the life of me I can't understand the reason for college students selecting the Easter season as the time for gathering at seashore resorts to engage in revelry and debauchery. For that matter people who are fortunate enough to have the opportunity of attending college are downright stupid if they fail to take advantage of their opportunity to get an education, and the background for responsible citizenship. I realize that it is only a small percent of college students who engage in irresponsible actions such as beer busts at Easter time and lunatic fringe demonstrations, but it is enough to make other people stop and wonder, and it is certainly not good for what we call our "national image."

The state legislature is supposed to vote today on the daylight savings time bill. The Congress passed a law that provided for all states to go under daylight saving time under the state legislature, of any state, voted to remain under standard time. I predict that we will refuse to go along with the rest of the nation. Uncle Sam can't tell us when to get up and go to bed, no siree. The way I get it, if the Legislature keeps us under standard time and with New Mexico, Colorado, Arizona, etc. going under daylight savings time, then we will in effect be in the Rocky Mountain time zone. That's something we are not accustomed to. I hope we go along with the rest of the country and observe daylight saving time. It doesn't mean that you can't turn in when you get ready, or rise and shine when you feel like it. Texas is strong for States Rights right down to the hour, minute and second.

Little League Tryouts Slated

Minor League action will not start until the last of May, after school turns out for the summer. Little League officers this year are Ray Chambliss, president; Connie Morrison, vice-president; Jim Hays, secretary-treasurer; and Jack Patton, player agent.

Bible Thoughts
"THE GOSPEL"
By Ronnie Parker

The birth of Jesus was announced by the angel, "Be not afraid; for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all the people for there is born to you this day in the city of David a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord." The word Gospel means "good news," or "good tidings." The Gospel is the good tidings of the Kingdom of God and of salvation through Christ, to be received by faith. God is the source of the gospel for Paul said he was "separated unto the gospel of God" (Rom. 1:1). The gospel of Christ is the "power of God unto salvation" (Rom. 1:16).

Beginning April 10 through 16 a Gospel Meeting will be held at 4th and Bedford. The good news of salvation will be proclaimed each evening by a very outstanding preacher, Brother Earl Danley of Lubbock, Texas. He will be telling the glad news of salvation through Christ and highlighting our responsibilities before God.

The time of services will be 7:30 p.m. each evening and 10:30 a.m. Sunday morning and 6:00 p.m. Sunday evening. You will find a warm welcome at all of these meetings.

SURE HANDS OF THE SURGEON

A child walks... an arm is straightened... a growth is removed... these and many other things are the result of the fine work of the surgeon. This is an occupation and a labor worthy of appreciation.

A star... a new born baby... the world itself... these and many other things reveal God to us. "The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork."

Psalm 19, 1

God has wrought a great work. Let us show our love and appreciation by worshipping him in Church

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

WTCC Slates 'White Paper' On Town Ills

One of the highlights of the 49th Annual West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention in Del Rio April 23-25 will be the release of the "white paper" on small town problems, according to John Ben Sheppard of Odessa, president of the WTCC.

THE "WHITE paper," which is now being prepared, will be distributed at the convention. It is a resume of the six hearings held recently by the Small Town Task Force, as well as conclusions and recommendations for solution of small town problems.

"It was originally intended that the report would be released sooner, but the depth and scope of the study was so great that it could not be completed prior to the convention," according to Jack Springer, executive vice-president.

Other features of the convention program will include panel discussions on agri-ranch business, money, business-government and other subjects.

Included in the plans for the three-day event is adequate time for visiting tourist attractions in and near Del Rio. Special tours are planned to visit the new Amstad Dam and Lake, located 11 miles northwest of the city on the Rio Grande, between Texas and Mexico.

Shopping tours in Mexico, sight-seeing in the San Felipe Springs Park, golfing at Del Rio's golf courses, as well as other recreational opportunities will be a part of the planned events.

Also on tap is the second annual conference for local chamber of commerce presidents. This will be a breakfast meeting and will include discussions on the duties, obligations and opportunities for the new chamber of commerce leaders.

The WTCC is the largest of all regional chambers of commerce in Texas and covers 132 counties from Arlington and Denton on the East to El Paso on the West. It extends from the "Top of Texas" to the Rio Grande River and includes all the Hill Country and the Highland Lakes area.

'Cancer Crusade Sunday' Slated

Cancer Crusade Sunday will be observed in local churches Sunday when ministers and congregations join in recognition of the 1967 campaign against the nation's largest killer.

THE MONTH of April, "Cancer Control Month," marks the highlight of volunteer activities. Over 75,000 ACS workers will be visiting their neighbors this month to distribute information on cancer's warning signals and to gather support for the Society's three-fold program of education, service and research.

Churches of Texas have agreed to join the Crusade on an individual basis by using the specially prepared church bulletin folder during their Sunday service.

Higher Vegetable Plantings Urged

Plantings of fall vegetables 3 percent above last year's level, and a 1 percent increase in total 1967 acreage for principal summer vegetables, are recommended by the USDA.

COPIES OF "1967 Acreage Marketing Guides, Summer and Fall Vegetables, Melons and Sweet Potatoes," will soon be available at the county agent's office.

Science Club Visits Computerized Center

The Science Club had a very good time Wednesday when it visited Kilgore Research Center at West Texas State University in Canyon. The club members hurried off at nine o'clock Wednesday morning to spend a day learning about computers.

AT WT THE guide was ready and waiting. The kids piled out and the tour began. The first thing they were shown was how the speed of light is found. With a series of lens and mirrors situated around the room, two beams of light were shot. One had a shorter route. By figuring the difference between the long and shorter route, the speed was found. This, of course, fascinated the students.

We were ushered into the Environmental Control Room. In this small room the temperature and humidity could be controlled. Here, plants can be grown and animals can be raised with controlled temperature and humidity.

To prove the point, the guide led us into the room and brought the temperature down to thirty degrees below zero. Brrrr! He later turned the temperature up to ninety or one hundred degrees. The room had a temperature range from thirty degrees below zero to one hundred fifty degrees above zero.

We, still very much mystified, passed into a room containing a huge magnet. It cost $26,000 and weighed 8,000 pounds. It was used to rearrange the positions of molecules. So much heat is generated in its use that the heat is used to heat the city water. As we inspected this room, we saw tables and tables filled with transistors and other electronic equipment.

THE TOUR then proceeded to the Anthropology Lab, where bones and fossils of all kinds were seen. The guide said "If you happen to dig up any old fossils or bones in your backyard, bring them here!"

After this we went to the Biochemistry Lab. Here we observed how experiments of chemistry and living matter are related.

The guide then took us to the Chemical Analysis Room. Here he showed how computers using beams of light can analyze any chemical known to man. By this, a person can tell the chemical's which make up a substance. We were still amazed at all we had seen. However, it was decided that a lunch break was necessary.

AFTER LUNCH we met at a pre-designated spot and explored part of the Science building. There we saw many very interesting machines and experiments.

Regretting that we had to end such an interesting tour we piled back into the buses and started home. We finally persuaded Mr. Cooper to stop in Hereford for refreshments. Several gallons and quart jugs of Root Beer were bought. It seems that John Howey drank half a jug, and "Bob-b" somehow drank one and a half jugs. We don't think "Bob-b's" stomach was quite ready for this.

The club members arrived in Dimmitt just before the last bell rang.

Editorial: So You Want to Talk

BY GARLAND JARVIS

How long does it take to make a speech? Most of the time not over fifteen minutes are taken up.

How long does it take to prepare a speech? If it is one for class, it usually takes about one hour or maybe two. If it is a very important speech, it might take up two, three, or sometimes even four hours.

Does this surprise you? I imagine it does. Most people don't realize the great amount of time involved in planning, preparing, and practicing a speech.

THERE ARE many steps involved in the preparation and presentation of a speech.

and gentlemen. No! That is, Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen.

This opportunity to give me the speech — I mean — this speech gives me the opportunity to view my presents, or rather to present my views on the importance of — on the importance of — of — the subject.

Point me out to permit, that is, permit me to point out and prove to my satisfaction — no, to your satisfaction — that one's ability to feet on his think — I beg your pardon — to think on his feet is one of man's most unvaluable accomplishments. Gir's, too, I guess.

Feeting on one's think — uh, ah — indicates — or rather thinking on one's speak, I mean feet, is a speech feat that is a definite asset to everyone or even everybody. That covers you all, doesn't it?

I HOPE I have said nothing — what I really means is — ah-hem, I hope nothing I have said reflects on these unnecessarily unprepared. There is nothing more worst than listening to an unnecessary, that is, or rather, a totally unvaluable speech totally unprepared.

In closing, therefore, I implore with you in humble to be unnervous and to make sure that when you seat from your rise, you do the following three things: One, prepare your subject. Two,

Amarillo Rabbi Compares Faiths

Thursday morning another of the Religious Emphasis assembly programs was given by Jewish Rabbi Feuer of Amarillo.

THE RABBI gave the similarities and differences between Judaism and Christianity.

He said the similarities were that we all believe in the one Supreme God, morality, human equality and freedom.

The differences began with the theory of the divinity of the Messiah.

The Rabbi answered questions asked by faculty and students.

ONE QUESTION brought about much discussion of why Jews do not take the Bible literally. The program was very well presented and informed many people about the Jewish faith.

We would like to thank Rabbi Feuer for coming to Dimmitt to give this program.

Weeks Getting Shorter

The weeks are speeding by faster and faster now, and it seems as though the "villain," known as the five-day school week, is no longer in existence. Last week, we had only four days of school, and this week it is the same story. Just think! About thirty more days left for seniors! Isn't that exciting?

GETTING BACK to the events of our school life, our teachers have really been busy decorating the showcases. Mrs. Leeth had a beautiful display depicting the events that happened in March. The color scheme was green and white to commemorate St. Patrick's Day. It was entitled, "It Happened in March." She changed it then, to the theme of Easter. It is entitled, "Bunny Hid Careers for You." This is done in many different colors used in the eggs the Easter bunny left. It illustrates various career opportunities offered to everyone.

The homemaking showcase is also very striking. The theme is "Join the Easter Parade." It is decorated with garments furnished by the Village Shop. One dress is made of yellow and white checked material, and the other is a two piece costume with yellow and white checked top and white A-line skirt.

WE HAVE several people in our student body who have been injured in one way or another in the last few weeks. Jackie Schaeffer is suffering from a twisted knee that she got on the ski trip. Debra Summers burned her arm badly while cooking some steaks. John Hays also had a little accident. He was playing soccer at the fieldhouse when Lee Buchanan hit him unexpectedly, as a result, John is sporting a broken arm.

Mrs. Leeth recently attended a four-day conference of the Texas Librarians' Association in Fort Worth. Dorothy McGowan accompanied her on the trip. The first day, they toured libraries, and the remainder of the conference was spent in lectures and study sessions. A record attendance of 1,629 librarians was present.

MRS. SMITH, Mrs. Hardison, and Miss Littlepage attended a workshop on Vietnam at West Texas State University, Saturday, March 18. Social Studies professors discussed the early history, geography, climate, occupations, and the customs of the people. An Air Force major who has just returned from Vietnam discussed the lives of the people and the military situation there now.

Garland Jarvis, our staff editor, entered the Piano Festival at Texas Tech, Saturday, March 18. It was sponsored by the National Federation of Music Clubs. There were approximately 180 participants. Each person had to play one required selection and one personally chosen number.

Seniors of Week: Susan Walker, Kenneth Oldham

This week we have two interesting people as our Seniors of the Week.

Susan Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Walker, was born in Lubbock on June 24. This is Susan's first year at DHS and she says she is glad she could spend it here. Susan's studies include homemaking IV, American history, English IV, shorthand, journalism and drama and she still manages to find time for FTA.

SUSAN WAS honored this year when she was chosen as Most Talented Girl in the senior class. She enjoys making friends, collecting dolls of all types, cooking and sewing.

Susan's ambition is to be a likeable person. After graduation, she plans to be married in June and make her home near Plainview.

When Susan was asked, "What do you like best about being a senior," she answered: "First of all, graduating from high school. A'so this year has been lots of fun and I have also learned a great deal in my classes."

KENNETH OLDHAM, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Oldham, was born on Feb. 8. He was chosen Most Handsome Boy in the junior class, and this year he is president of the Industrial Arts Club. Kenneth finds time to study civics, speech, English IV, woodworking, geometry, and English III. His favorite activities are the Industrial Arts Club, drama club, science club and FFA.

Kenneth's hobbies include swimming, water skiing, horse back riding, and shooting pool. He plans to go to college and major in agri-business education, and he hopes to become manager of a cattle company and eventually start his own herd.

When Kenneth was asked, what he likes best about being a senior, he said, "Because it's my last year of high school. He also likes all his activities and the opportunity to be a leader to the lower classmen.

Garland was one of 35 students to receive the superior rating. Congratulations!

JUST A FEW added notes, the Science Club went to WT last Wednesday to observe some exhibits. We hope they were enlightened in some way. In the next few days, the school evaluation committee will be here. Let's try to have our school clean. It has really been trashy lately. The seniors are busy now studying "Macbeth." We hope they are enjoying it.

Also, our intramural volleyball tournament began last week. I am not sure of the standings, but it has really been exciting. Watch next week's Bobcat Tales for the results of the tourney.

JAMES BATES, a former Dimmitt teacher, visited on the campus Thursday. "Rosy," Mrs. Bates, Martha Jane and Jo Beth now live in Paramount, Calif., where Mr. and Mrs. Bates teach in the public schools. "Rosy" regaled the first period American history class with amusing accounts of life along the famous freeways of California, and among the junior high "beatniks," who are complete with long hair, miniskirts, and empty heads! We were happy to have him report that most Texas kids are about twice as smart as those in California.

Miss Littlepage has become a firm believer in the Easter bunny, since Sheila Hamilton and Juanelle Conard presented her with a beautiful "Bunny Cake," resting in a green nest which was filled with candy eggs.

Remember, keep our campus cleaner, back the track and tennis teams, back the literary competitors and the one-act play. Try studying some, too.

Two Debate Teams Plan for Action

The DHS debate teams are in full swing, as are many other district literary events.

This year, we have two debate teams—a girl's team and a boys' team. Mary Lee Stone and Tommie Hutchison are the members of the girls' team. Robert Froehner and Ronnie Burks make up the boys' team. Both teams are coached by Paul Diehl, teacher of junior English.

THE TEAMS are given a question to debate each year at the beginning of the year, and they prepare an argument for debate. This year's Interscholastic League

30 Girls Go To FHA Meet

Thirty girls accompanied by Mrs. Snider, Mrs. Stokes and 6 mothers left Dimmitt after school Friday, Mar. 17, to go to Lubbock to attend the Area I FHA convention.

Friday night a banquet honoring FHA's 21st birthday was held at Monterey High School. Janice Mooney, this area's candidate for national pianist, entertained with piano selections.

THE FIRST general session began at 9 a.m. in Lubbock Municipal Auditorium Saturday with the presentation of colors and the opening ceremony. Featured speaker was Clark Elzey, Lubbock, Professor of Home and Family Life, Texas Tech, who spoke on "Youth's Greatest Problem."

The afternoon session was highlighted by a very inspirational program by the Sharon Singers, the area choir, made up of FHA members from all over the Panhandle and South Plains. The session closed with the song, "God Bless America" with Janice Mooney at the piano.

OVER 2500 GIRLS attended the convention. Most of them spent the night in Lubbock motels where they continued their "gab sessions" long after the official convention sessions were over.

Thanks goes to Mrs. Ed Wilson, Mrs. Gladys Benson, Mrs. Doyl Underwood, Mrs. Ray Robertson, Mrs. Bob Mooney, and Mrs. Carroll Webb for taking their cars and staying up most of the night to be with the "playing girls."

Thespians Attend Lubbock Clinic

Did you ever drive down the road, look in your mirror, and suddenly see a pink roller bonnet? It's not very often Sharron Flynt travels to Lubbock with rollers in her hair, but Saturday at 6:50 a.m. that was the way she started out as the one-act contest play cast took to the road.

THE GROUP and Miss Griffing were travelling to Lubbock for the one-act play workshop sponsored by Texas Tech on March 18.

The cast arrived in Lubbock and reported to the University Theatre to register. At 9:55, the "big" moment arrived as the group from Dimmitt gave their performance in the old Speech Building. Immediately following the performance, a critique was given by Ronald Schulz, director of drama at Texas Tech.

MR. SCHULZ had some fine compliments for the production, but he also gave them enough things to work on during the two weeks before the district contest.

As the cast went back to the University Theatre, it was conducted on a tour of the Theatre by some students of the college.

AFTER THE tour, the group visited a costume shop in Lubbock. The report is they saw some very interesting (?) things in this shop. Is that right, Cast? It is also rumored that Genita Aldridge had a little trouble with runners in her hose. How about that, Genita?

Those who attended the workshop were: Sharron Flynt, Sandra Colman, Shirli Leinen, Genita Aldridge, Elaine Davis, Garland Jarvis, Randy Hasley, David Land, Wendell Moore and Miss Betty Griffing.

What Type Easter Did You Observe?

BY SUSAN WALKER
Last week we celebrated one of the most important holidays in the world. It is an important one in the lives of a great many people. There are, of course, as many different meanings to Easter as there are people.

TO SOME, Easter is just another holiday; one where they can be out of school and have fun. To some, Easter has a deeper meaning. One that creates an important religious view. Easter is a time when religious obligations should be seen and met. These obligations should be met at all times, but Easter should be recognized as a special time to meet these obligations.

THINK! You and I would not have a hope of life in the hereafter if it had not been for the resurrection of Christ. His death, and his conquest of death assures us that the lives of every per-

Bobbies Lose in Volleyball

The Dimmitt Bobbies played the Friona Squaws March 21.

This was a district volleyball game. The winner of this game is to represent these teams at the district tournament which will be at Olton April 3.

THE BOBBIES lost the first game with a score of 15-6. The second team went in when the score was 3-7, Bobbies trailing.

The third and final game of this meeting of the Bobbies and Squaws was very close at the beginning. The score at one time was 7-7, but the Squaws came out ahead of the Bobbies by six points. The final score was 15-9.

THE STARTING six Bobbies on the volleyball team are: Allan Webb, Cathy Godfrey, and Debra Summers, spikers; and Carolyn Simpson, Kay Bradley, and Genita Aldridge, set ups. The Bobbie substitutes are: Shirley Leinen, Mary Hays, Kita Struve, Poppy Byrnes, Betsy Simpson, Ann Spencer and Dorice'l Oldham.

The Dimmitt freshmen and the eighth grade Bobbie teams won all their games with Friona the same afternoon.

Congratulations, teams. You have represented DHS very well.

FU Convention Pledges Fight for Family Farm

More than 3,000 delegates and members of the National Farmers Union, meeting in a convention hall dominated by a mammoth mural asking the question, "Who will control agriculture — corporations or family farms?" answered the question this week with a call for heroic measures to sustain and strengthen the family farm system.

ATTENDING the 65th annual sessions of the NFU held at the Sheraton-Oklahoma Hotel in Oklahoma City were over 125 Farmers Union members from Texas.

ROLLER MILLS Your PEERLESS Equipment Co. Dealer is Hays Implement Co. ROLL-N-MIX

Those attending from this area were Mr. and Mrs. James Welch and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Graet of Dimmitt.

The convention approved a 15,000-word statement outlining the NFU viewpoint on agricultural, economic and social issues, and supplemented it with a shorter "Target Program" spelling out legislative priorities for 1967.

The "Target Program" detailed demands for commodity program improvements this year, including wheat export certificates, increased feed grains and soybean supports, authorization for dairy payments to producers and for the closing of dairy import loopholes, re-establishment of sugar beet acreage allotments, and establishment of a cotton stamp program as a part of the Food Stamp operation.

THE "TARGET Program" called attention to the deepening crisis in agriculture as a result of six consecutive months of decline in farm prices and the persistence of tight money and higher interest rates.

The convention delegates heard expressions of concern about sagging farm prices from Vice-President Humphrey, Sen. Robert F. Kennedy and Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman, and a defense of the family farm system by NFU President Tony T. Dechant.

Dechant maintained that "there is nothing wrong with our family farm system which would not be cured by adequate credit and full parity prices over a sustained period of time."

The NFU president, making his first annual report since taking office last March, warned of pitfalls both for consumers and the nation in an era of "super farms."

Vice-President Humphrey brought a pledge of the Johnson Administration that the "gap between farm income and income in other parts of the economy — the farm prosperity gap — must be closed."

Sen. Kennedy declared that "farmers deserve and the nation can afford to pay them a fair price for what they produce."

Senate Approves Tax Option Bill

The Texas Senate last week approved Senator Jack Hightower's permissive tax bill for cities and towns and sent the proposal to Gov. Connally.

THE BILL, designed to ease the growing financial problems of Texas towns and cities, would authorize municipalities — with approval of its citizens — to impose a one percent sales tax.

Sen. Hightower pointed out that the sales tax could be levied only with approval of the voters.

Beet Leafhopper Invades in Force

A recent survey shows that the beet leafhopper is again quite prevalent in New Mexico and most of western Texas, according to County Agent Charles Hottel.

THE BEET leafhopper transmits the virus disease "curly top," which played havoc with sugar beets in the northwestern counties last year. Curly top also attacks tomatoes and other vegetables.

Beet leafhoppers were found on host plants at the rate of 26 per 100 square feet of host — more than three times last year's count, says Hottel.

Host plants were widely distributed and in excellent to good condition. These included town mustard, Texas filaree, bladder pod, pepper-weed, flaxweed, California filaree, milk-weed, borragge, patata, hot mustard and plantain.

HOT PLANTS of the High Plains area yielded 136 beet leafhoppers at the 23 positive stops out of the total 34 stops which the survey team made. This number, points out Hottel, was an increase of almost 100 percent over last year's count.

The number of stops or locations having overwintering leafhoppers increased by 8½ times over last year's count.

Migrations of leafhoppers from more heavily infested areas in Southwest Texas and New Mexico add to the danger of disease epidemic in northern and western regions of Texas, Hottel points out. The survey was made by personnel of the Plant Pest Control Division, Southern Region; by Don Rummel, area entomologist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service; and by Paul Scott, agronomist with the Holly Sugar Co., Hereford.

Disulfoton Gets New Label Rate

Disulfoton (Di-Syston), a systemic insecticide, has received a new label clearance for cotton seed treatment from the Pesticides Regulation Branch, US Dept. of Agriculture.

John G. Thomas, Texas A&M University Extension entomologist, said the prior label clearance permitted a maximum rate of four ounces per 100 pounds of cotton seed.

Producers who did not apply systemics at planting should consider side-dressing them to control the leafhopper and reduce the disease occurrence.

Stay on Lookout For Screwworms

With the arrival of warmer weather and some moisture, livestock owners are reminded that the spring season poses a real threat for re-infestation of screwworms if ranchers relax their vigilance.

Officials at Mission emphasize the importance of this close observation and urge producers to continue to treat all animal wounds, collect worm samples and send them to the Mission Lab for positive identification.

Cropdusters Set Panel at School

Aerial application of pesticides has developed into an extensive and skilled profession. Modern aerial application equipment is as up-to-date as the newest automobiles, and like them is designed to do a specific job well if correctly handled.

FOUR ACTIVE members of this skilled profession will participate as a panel and discuss "Aerial Application of Pesticides — the Operator's View" at the Northern Texas and Oklahoma session of the Southern Regional Pesticide-Chemical Application School in Wichita Falls Tuesday morning, April 6.

W. L. Norman, president of Texas Aerial Applicators Association and operator of Norman's Flying Service in Dougherty, will act as the panel chairman. Panel members are Miller Tuttle (Tuttle Spraying Co.) of Breckenridge, Clint Fry (American Dusting Co.) of Chickasha, Okla., and Ray Williams (Midwest Aero Service) of Wichita Falls.

The Southern Regional Pesticide-Chemical Application School is jointly sponsored by the State Agricultural Extension Services of Texas and Oklahoma and the Federal Extension Service, USDA.

'Cotton Fly-In'

FU Men Will Go To D. C. Tuesday

A chartered plane load of Texas cotton farmers will fly to Washington Tuesday to participate in the National Farmers Union Cotton Legislative Fly-in Program. They will join farmers from Oklahoma, Arkansas and New Mexico for the two days of meetings with USDA cotton officials and members of Congress.

THE "COTTON Fly-in" is one of the several "legislative fly-ins" called for by the recent National Farmers Union convention to dramatize the urgency of improving farmers' economic position.

Texas Farmers Union President Jay Naman of Waco will lead the cotton delegation which will leave Dallas by chartered plane in the early afternoon Tuesday and return to Dallas next Thursday.

Regarding the purpose of the "fly-in," Naman said, "We are asking farmers to take a couple of days off their farms to speak up on the problems facing Texas' cotton growers where their words will directly reach those who are making the decisions that affect prices and costs."

Naman added, "The announcement of changes in quality differentials on cotton is inconsistent with this administration's frequent assurances that it seeks parity income for farmers, and was completely unjustified. It will cost Texas cotton farmers from $5 to $10 a bale on the 1967 crop, and might discourage rather than encourage the production of better quality fiber.

"PLACING a greater premium on the better quality cotton might have achieved the objective stated, but with technological and weather handicaps determining quality, most farmers won't be able to respond even under the whip'ash of lower prices.

"The trip to Washington will give cotton farmers an opportunity to discuss this injustice along with other problems facing cotton growers with the people who can do something about them."

"Other 'Fly-ins' planned in which Texas Farmers Union will participate are a 'Dairymen's Fly-in' on April 2-4 and a 'Ladies Only Fly-in' on April 30-May 3.

Powell TV Sells To Kittrell Firm

John and Jerry Kittrell, owners of Kittrell Electronics in Dimmitt and Hart, have purchased all stock and inventory of Powell TV and Appliance.

The sale will become effective Saturday.

ALONG WITH the sale will go the dealership of RCA radio and TV products and Whirlpool appliances.

The Kittrell brothers said they will keep their present dealerships of Zenith radio-TV products and Kelvinator home appliances, and will remain in their present locations in Dimmitt and Hart.

Powell TV and Appliance, owned by Dewey Powell, was established in Dimmitt 20 years ago and is the oldest television dealership in the county.

POWELL SAID he will vacate his building at 113 W Bedford St., which is owned by Ray Bearden, after he clears his stock of used appliances. The Kittrells' inventory purchase included only Powell's new floor models.

Powell added that he hasn't made any plans yet about his future.

The Kittrell brothers have been in business in Hart three years and in Dimmitt since last June. John Kittrell operates the Dimmitt dealership and Jerry Kittrell manages the Hart store.

DIMMITT CLEANERS

THE $878,406 CONTRACT for construction of Dimmitt's huge migrant housing project was signed last week by H. A. Padgett (right), Lubbock building contractor, and officials of the Castro County Agricultural Housing Association, Inc. In fact, the contract was signed again and again by Padgett, who affixed his signature to 28 different forms. From left are Pete Rowell, job superintendent who will live here during the construction project; Bill Bennett, secretary of the housing association; and Allan Webb, president. Padgett said the project will require an average of 30 men on the job daily, and probably 50 during the masonry stage. Last Thursday, Padgett sent in the largest concrete-block order of his career to build the housing complex here.

FHA Going for Record On Castro Home Loans

The Farmers Home Administration has made 31 home loans for $270,280 in Castro County so far this fiscal year, and is on the way to a record here.

THIS WAS pointed out Wednesday of last week by Louis W. Lee of Temple, state FHA real estate loan officer, during the presentation of funds with which to build the new million-dollar migrant housing complex here.

The current year's figure is already more than double last year's, Lee said. In fiscal 1966, the FHA made 12 direct home loans totaling $119,530.

"The Farmers Home Administration has been in the housing business about 16 years," he said. "We have loaned money on 10,000 houses in Texas, and haven't lost a penny on any of them."

"LAST YEAR, we made 2,400 mortgage loans for $17 million. As of Friday, we have made more than 2,500 housing loans this year for $18 million — including this one for the housing project."

"The record of repayment speaks very well for the people in rural areas who get these loans," he said. "People still pay their debts."

He added that he feels the FHA's success in the home mortgage field "has been due largely to our county committeemen," local residents who review and act on loan applications.

THE MIGRANT housing project here, one of the biggest yet in Texas, is the first in the state and the nation to be helped along by an outright grant from the FHA, Lee said. The FHA has authorized a grant of $387,380 to pay more than a third of the construction cost.

"This project is the only one so far in the US to be granted funds that were designated two years ago for this purpose," he said. "Congress set aside $3 million two years ago, and now is setting aside more for grants to such projects."

"The purpose for the grant program is this — it's pretty expensive to build these housing projects and have people living in them just a few weeks or months out of the year. The grant is designed to alleviate this problem."

ALLAN WEBB, president of the Castro County Agricultural Housing Association, Inc., explained that the new apartments, when completed in October, will rent for $13 and $15 per week.

"This isn't any more than many of our people are now paying for inadequate facilities," Webb said. He added, "We intend to operate this project in such a way that it will be pleasing to the taxpayer's eyes. We realize that this project may increase the burden on some of our facilities — schools, hospitals and so forth. But this project is going to be paying a sizeable amount of taxes here, too."

WEBB EXPLAINED that the project first started in February 1966, when a group decided to try to establish housing here for predominantly seasonal workers.

"At first, we were thinking in terms of a project one-half this size, but after a complete survey we determined that it was going to have to be bigger," he said.

"The project got so big we wondered if we could pay off a loan on it and still charge only what the laborers could afford in rent. We decided we could pay off no more than $600,000. The grant from the FHA solved this problem."

The insured loan on the labor housing project is $570,000. Total construction cost will be $966,820. The difference is made up in the FHA grant for $387,380 and $9,440 in money put up by association members.

Schaeffer-Harden Firm Moves To Plush New Offices Monday

Schaeffer & Harden, Certified Public Accountants, moved over the weekend into Dimmitt's most modern offices, in their new building at 103 NW Third St.

THEIR NEW offices are just off West Bedford Street, north of Dr. J. E. Wehlemuth's building. The accounting firm was ready for business at its new location Monday morning.

Previously, the Schaeffer & Harden firm was located in the Taylor-Harrison building on the south side of the courthouse square. Stanley Schaeffer, partner in the accounting firm, built the new building and will rent it to the partnership. Gerald Harden is his partner in the business.

ALSO IN THE new building are the offices of Dimmitt TV Cable Co., of which Schaeffer is a partner.

The building houses three executive offices, a library, a supply and duplicating room, a reception office and a machines room, with customer parking in front and employee parking in the rear. All offices are connected by telephone intercom.

The entrance porch, flanked by molded pebble pylons, is carpeted with Marci Gras green weather-resistant carpet. The exterior is of porcelain finish white brick.

INNER SHELLS of the building's walls are of autumn gold antiqued brick, which make up the outer walls of all offices. Interior walls and hallways are of walnut paneling.

Traffic areas are floored in Terrazo, while all offices are carpeted in antique gold tweed Karistan. The walnut and brick walls abound with water colorings, oil paintings and prints. Furnishings in the various offices are mainly Spanish, Provincial and traditional.

Schaeffer said the firm will hold an open house in late April, after completing income tax accounting, its busiest season.

"HOWEVER, if anyone wants to come by to see our building, we'll be glad to show it to them," he said.

The accounting firm includes Schaeffer and Harden, junior accountant Jim Ratcliff, and three secretaries.

Agri-Chemists Will Be Here Next Thursday

Three experts on agricultural chemicals will be in Dimmitt next Thursday to advise farmers on weed and insect control chemicals suitable for Castro County's problems.

THEY ARE Bob Sanser of Gely Agricultural Chemical Co., Tom Powers of the Ansul Company, and Jim Blaylock of American Cyanamid Co.

They will be at the American Cyanamid Co. blending plant and farm supply center on US 385 north all day next Thursday, according to Bill Dannevik, manager.

The three men will counsel local farmers on all phases of agricultural chemicals — their uses, methods of application, residue levels, specific properties, and capabilities in weed and insect control.

NO FORMAL program is planned, Dannevik said. Instead, the three men will talk with local producers individually. Those needing to discuss chemicals with the three experts before or after business hours may call the Cyanamid store here at 647-3555 to arrange an appointment, Dannevik said.

The three men will be in Kress Wednesday and will be in Bovina the day after appearing in Dimmitt.

New Cotton Board Chooses Officers

The Cotton Board of the Cotton Research and Promotion Act met for the first time March 15 in Washington. They elected officers, employed a manager, designated the "first buyer" as the one responsible for making the $1 per bale collection, and set up tentative procedures for producers to obtain refunds.

CAULEY CORTWRIGHT, Mississippi cotton farmer and former president of the National Cotton Council, was elected chairman of the board. Named vice-chairman was J. Russell Kennedy of Bakersfield, Calif.

Lubbocks Roy B. Davis, manager of Plains Cooperative Oil Mill, was elected secretary. Manager for the board will be Carlton Powers, former associate director of field service for the National Cotton Council.

Detailed regulations on how the program will work with the first buyer making collections have not been formulated. This could mean the collector would be the ginner (if he buys the cotton), the country merchant who buys either for export or domestic markets, the mill which buys direct from producers, or Commodity Credit Corporation if the cotton goes into the government loan.

Refunds, according to the first information from Washington, will be made from serially numbered request forms through a central office, probably in Washington.

Grain Men Elect Barton President

Melvin Barton of Easter was elected president of the Castro County Grain Sorghum Producers Association last Thursday night.

THE COUNTY GSPA election and annual meeting were held in conjunction with an educational session on grain sorghums present and future status, sponsored by the national GSPA.

Other county GSPA officers for the coming year are Theron Morrison, vice-president, and Doyle Underwood, secretary-treasurer.

The grain men also elected 20 county directors at last week's meeting in Dimmitt High School cafeteria.

BESIDES THE three officers new directors are Frank Wise, Carl King, Donald Wright, Don Carpenter, Calvin Lippard, D. L. Thompson, Raymond Wiley, John Gilbreath, Calvin Petty, D. A. Bass, Dale Winders, James Welch, Wes Anthony, S. L. Garrison, Charles Heck, George Sides, J. Lee Touchstone and R. Young.

Y. F. Snodgrass of the GSPA staff reported that the GSPA has requested an additional 53 cents per hundred pounds on grain sorghum this year if more acreage is planted in the red grain. He said the goal of the GSPA is to get the loan rate set at a minimum of $1.80 per hundred.

RUDY TATE, GSPA field representative, pointed out that more milo was consumed last year than was produced, and that a 5 percent increase in production will be necessary for cattle feeding alone this year.

Tate added that the GSPA is continuing its search for more uses for milo, to help increase consumption.

Art Gallery Perspective

By ALICE COWEN

Babe Scoggin has an outstanding picture done in a technique Larry Hilburn calls the "pull-out" technique. Larry says it is the best of that type a student of his has ever done. This is true accomplishment, and Babe has shown talent and ability. The canvas is covered with paint, applied not too heavily; then paint is removed with a dry brush to delineate and shade the subject, leaving the color in values.

THE ART Guild met last night. Four new paintings were shown. Larry's exhibit in Amarillo will continue this week. Several paintings of Dimmitt artists are displayed.

Muleshoe is having an art show sometime soon. Students there have been taking lessons from Cabellero. More of this later.

This week will complete the current series of lessons under Larry Hilburn at the Gallery.

Smith-Holt Vows Recited Saturday

The Presbyterian Church of Dimmitt was the scene Saturday evening for the marriage of Miss Madelyn Smith of Dimmitt to David Holt of Frenship.

THE STUDENT couple will reside at 3207 22nd St., Lubbock, following a wedding trip to Ruidoso, N.M. Both are Texas Tech students.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe R. Smith, and is a 1965 graduate of Dimmitt High School. Holt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holt of Carlisle, and is a 1965 graduate of Frenship High School.

Rev. C. Michael Kennedy, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony at 7:30 p.m. Saturday.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, the bride wore a white crepe wedding gown with an empire waist, elbow length sleeves and lace trim. Over the gown she wore a sleeveless full length gown which formed a train. A white fabric rose headpiece secured her shoulder length veil.

She carried a cascading bouquet of white roses and stephanotis atop a white Bible.

Miss Linda Davis was maid of honor, and Mrs. Eugene Oldham of Canyon was matron of honor. They wore crepe formals fashioned with empire waists. Miss Davis' dress was pink, and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Mrs. Oldham's dress was yellow, and yellow roses with pink carnations formed her bouquet. Both honor attendants wore tulle rose headpieces that matched their dresses.

RAY SHELTON of Sonora was best man, and groomsmen was Charles Seal of Lawton, Okla. Ushers were James Powell of Lubbock and Jeff Myers.

Jo Ann Smith and Robert Myers were candle lighters. Mrs. Keith Howard served as organist and accompanied her daughter, Keith Ann, soprano soloist.

A reception at the Colonial Inn followed the ceremony.

VFW Auxiliary Stands Inspection

The top district officers of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and Auxiliary inspected Dimmitt's Post 8056 auxiliary last week, and the local ladies emerged with flying colors.

They reported that the local auxiliary is carrying out its obligations so well it has already won several awards and can expect several more during the forthcoming convention.

DIMITT'S growing VFW Auxiliary concentrates mainly on service projects here.

New auxiliary officers will be elected during April, and the District 13 convention is scheduled for April 15-16 in Canyon.

Hey Red!

Hey Red,
I am a sandy headed person at best, but this West Texas dusting is getting me down. As I said, my hair is sandy, not dusty, in color that is. But when I arrive on any scene someone is bound to jump up and look out a window with the exclamation "Oh Heck; Is the dust blowing again?" What would you suggest to keep them in their seats during my entrance?
Dusty Sandra

Dear Dusty,
You will make a grand entrance in a new color from the Blue Room or, if your figure will allow it, and, above all, if it's mostly male, try a luscious gown or even a bikini on that audience. The girls at the Blue Room are experts in color (or in black and white).

Sunday Marred by Accidents

By MYRTLE SHEFFY
A sad day was Sunday evening. I went to the hospital to be with Nora and Earl Buchanan. Their son, Lee, and Tommy Youts, Jr., 16-year-old boys, were hurt in a car wreck north of town. I tried to comfort a small Mexican boy, 9-year-old Joe, the only one of his family able to talk.

Florence Leinen is in the hospital for a few days.

Mr. Vasseur was hurt in the wreck near Flag Sunday. Carl Burt from Nazareth and many of his other friends were over to see about him. The Pink ladies, nurses, and doctors were very busy folks.

WE SAW most all the Flag Community folks at Madelyn Smith's and David Holt's wedding Saturday night at the Presbyterian Church.

Rev. Kennedy, the new Presbyterian minister here, said this was his third marriage ceremony.

Folks I know from out of town were Sybil Stringer of Graham, former home demonstration agent here; Marvin and Janie Axe and the Crammers of Vega. Mr. J. W. Crafton of Jonesboro, Ark. Lucille Dameron Cook and her children, Mark, Steve and Brenda of Amarillo; and our friends, Don and June Gladman of Plainview. Don says he still reads the Castro County News.

I heard that Joe Smith has a new pair of custom boots made to wear to his daughter's wedding, then they hurt his toe, and he had to wear the old ones. But the bride was pretty in her long white dress, and her mother, Dollie in her pretty rosy red suit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ricketts of Lubbock were Sunday guests of the Jim Roberts, also, they came to church.

The Howard Hershey were hosts to their nice family Sunday.

I hear by the telephone that John and Flo Nichols (now of Tulsa) are grandparents of a boy born to Tom and Karen Nichols. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Howard McColum. This boy arrived Friday.

Katy Burkett was hostess to a few friends in to visit with Swain's sisters, Mrs. O. M. Allen (who will be remembered as Zada), who lived in Dimmitt a few years ago, and Mrs. Ollie Skelton of Lubbock. Guests were Virginia Gilbreath, Sue Merritt, Pearl Sheffy, Helen McLean, Jeanne Miller and Emily Clingingsmith.

Bill and Mary Stephenson and children, Billy, Jonette, and Lawrence of Watonga, Okla., were guests of his mother, Elizabeth Huckabay this week. Mary is a niece and relative of the Cooper family, Sam and Frank.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hawkins of Park Ridge, Ill., spent this week visiting her sister-in-law Bea Hawkins. You know Bea is one of our school teachers.

Leta Mundell Tubbs and husband, Jerry, of Irving were guests this week of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Mundell.

JERI AND Dale Doar of Gruber are the parents of a new baby girl, Shann Gayle. Shann is the granddaughter of Jimmy Dean and Junior Weyer.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stalcup and children, Joe and Cindy, visited Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Duncan and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stalcup in Lubbock. Mr. Stalcup teaches in Dimmitt High School. The Mrs. works at First State Bank.

Saw Kathy Huckabay in the beauty shop. She was home from Texas Tech in Lubbock for a visit with her parents, Bob and Betty Huckabay.

RUTH WILSON is spending a few days with her daughter, Mary Jo Reynolds and her family at Odessa. Her daughter Mitzi (Mrs. John Ethridge of Amarillo) was here for a visit Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cowser went up to Taos for the holidays. Their son, Jim, at Ft. Collins, Colo., met them there.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Teague and girls of Fort Hood visited her sister and family Mr. and Mrs. Al Lytle, last weekend.

Helen Follis of Hobbs, was here this week for a visit with Edna Follis.

SANDY BRUEGEL and her roommate at Tech, Krystyna Miesak of Southhampton, Conn., were guests through the holidays of the Fred Bruegels.

Miss Henry McMurry of Marlowe, Okla., is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Bill Graham, and her nephew, Bill Jr. and family, and niece, Mrs. Ted Sheffy.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Kountz and girl's visited his relatives in Lubbock last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Durant Canfield have returned from a vacation and relative-visiting trip to Houston and Lufkin. They said it rained and rained there. Durant is with Western Ammonia.

Jack and Beth Hodges and children of Panhandle were holiday guests of her parents, Berle and Raymond Hance.

Irene Keating and her husband had a house full of company - her mother, Mrs. August Albrecht, her twin sister, Nell Albrecht of Fordyce, Ark.; who is also a home demonstration agent; and her brother, David and his wife Dorothy, from Snyder, Okla.

Our son Don and Karen Sheffy and Kristi of Canyon were down to visit the Sheffy bunch and her folks, the Elmo Bells.

DON AND Gail Parsons who now live in Kansas City, stopped in Dimmitt on their way to Spur and visited friends Bill and Martha Dannevik and Jimmy and Nancy Ross.

Ralph and Avis Smith and boys visited a few days with her parents at Spearman.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Ross are her mother, Mrs. W. H. May; her grandmother, and small sister, Le'a, of Luling and Eastland.

Suzie Davis spent the Easter holidays with her friend, Cam Cooper, daughter of Gordon Cooper, the astronaut, at their home at Seabrooke, near Houston. She was entertained royally, she says.

Suzie came home by Odessa to visit the Finleys, parents of her fiancée, Charles Finley.

JANE KOONTZ and son Bill of Golf, Ill., near Chicago, flew in Monday for a three-week visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kirkpatrick.

RONNIE PARKER, minister of Bedford St. Church of Christ, attended a lectureship at Fort Worth Christian College last week. Ronnie was the speaker Wednesday night.

Jack and Myrna Miller are in Fort Worth visiting her sister and family.

I saw Hazel McGill and daughter Roni of Hart having supper with Cecil and Virginia Crum Saturday night at the cafe. They lived here a few years ago.

Da'e and Peggy Prather's guests are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Prather of Hale Center and his sister Mrs. Charles Woods and family.

Donna and Ira Hulse of Houston and Patsy and Gerald Moody of Irving were here to visit the girl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Woodell. Hugh Mays of Clovis, Maxine's father, was here too. The Modyds are moving soon to Jackson, Miss.

MARY AND OLEN Rice attended the wedding of Pau'a Kay Jones and Tommie Yates at the Presbyterian Church Friday in Durant, Okla. Pau'a is the daughter of Stub Jones and the niece of Mrs. Cecil Vandiver. Stub was a druggist here years ago.

Raymond Lusk took some of the student council members to Laredo for a state meeting and the trip. Going were Paralyrn Render, Vicki Vaughan, Beelee Goodwin, Scott Moran and Martha Nitsa, foreign exchange student from Greece, who lives with the Charlie Hays family.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Taylor went up to Boston last week for a visit with his sister Penny, and family.

Judge and Mrs. Raymond Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Winders, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wright and Tump McLain attended the West Texas Judges and Commissioners meeting in Fort Worth last week.

Bea Hawkins visited her brother, Roy Hawkins, at Bovina Sunday.

Most all of the college kids were home. I saw a few. Irene Thornton of Abilene sang the offertory at the First Methodist Church. Such a nice voice. Kristi Wesson lent her nice voice to the Sunday service. I wish I knew all who came home.

THE DIMMITT Square Dance Club has its regular meetings the first and third Tuesday nights of each month at the American Legion Hall. The caller is Sid Perkins. Method Demonstration Contest To Be Saturday

By IRENE KEATING
The Castro County 4-H elimination contests for method demonstrations will be held Saturday, at 9 a.m. in the assembly room of the courthouse.

TUESDAY, Mrs. Jane Berry was here and gave a very interesting program on home storage. She showed slides with examples of both good and bad storage.

She listed six storage principles that we should keep in mind. Store things near point of first use; store together things used together; store items at convenient heights; store articles where they are easy to see; store items for easy reach and grasp; and build to fit storage needs. . . keep storage flexible.

She discussed the possible value of purchasing portable storage devices (turntable, racks, etc.) for use if you rent, so you could move your storage with you.

★ NOW THAT spring is really here we're thinking of sewing for spring and summer. Here is some interesting information about fabrics.

Fabrics from far away places echo history and reflect the culture of their native lands. The environmental influences, the climate and terrain are often portrayed in the designs of the fabric.

Paisley comes from ancient Persia via India and is named after a small town in Scotland where Indian shawls were beautifully copied in the 19th century. Its characteristic motif is a highly stylized mango, though some insist it is copied after the pine cone.

BATIK is a Javanese word meaning "wax painting." Designs and colors indicate the part of the country from which it comes and are based on objects in nature. Wax is applied with a pencil-like funnel to the areas where color is not desired. As the wax cools, tiny cracks occur, permitting the dye to make fine crisscross lines of color. The wax is removed while the dyes are set by immersing the cloth in boiling water.

The beautiful islands of Hawaii influence fabric designs which reflect the blue of the sky and sea and the co'ors of their native flowers. The use of these designs reflect the many-cultured population which includes Chinese, Japanese, Filipinos, Polynesians, Europeans and Americans.

The sun-drenched co'ors of Mexico come to life in colorful striped fabrics. The homespun appearance of the weave is reminiscent of the early looms and peasant handiwork.

CLUNY LACE was perfected by monks in the Abbey of Cluny in France. The bobbin lace is made of linen and cotton thread, characterized by wheat or wheel designs on a coarse mesh. Today the lace is machine made, but it retains its distinctive quality.

African prints sport geometric patterns found in tribal robes throughout the continent. The highly woven intricate borders, some think, are historical records woven into the design. As in primitive design everywhere, great attention is paid to detail. Here the environmental hues of soil and foliage influence color selection and motif.

Durable press fabric now has its own special thread. "Dual Duty" thread is designed particularly for sewing durable-press knits and stretch fabrics. Available in many sewing centers, the new thread sews and irons like stronger, more durable seams of a synthetic thread.

THE first "Dual Duty" thread had a nylon core which is being replaced by a core of polyester covered with silicone-treated cotton. The nylon gave twisting and knotting problems in hand sewing.

The thread, size 60, comes in a range of 30 colors including black and white. The manufacturer makes these recommendations for sewing with "Dual Duty" thread.

Don't break the thread when you take it from the spool; cut it on a slant for easy threading. Use a light touch when hand sewing and a loose tension when machine stitching.

Use a short length of thread (about 18 inches) and an embroidery needle when hand sewing. TEST the machine stitch on a double thickness of fabric until you have a smooth seam. A ripple at the end of a seam is caused by too much pressure on the pressure foot. To correct, loosen the pressure bar screw.

The appearance and performance of a durable press garment are affected if the interfacing or interlining is not completely compatible with the fabric. Therefore, an interfacing must perform the same as the outer fabric in shrinkage, color retention and sewability.

Interlinings must have the correct stiffness and tensile strength with the right weight to provide a particular styling result and to add life and stability to the garment.

Final Rites Held For Mrs. Pearson

Funeral services were conducted in Tulla March 17 for Mrs. Sarah Ophelia Pearson, 83, a Swisher County pioneer who was a resident of the Golden Spread Rest Home for the last year and a half.

RITES WERE in Tulla's First Presbyterian Church with Rev. Murray Travis, pastor, officiating. Burial was in Rose Hill Cemetery in Tulla under the direction of Wallace Funeral Home.

Born May 5, 1883, in Springtown, Mrs. Pearson had been a resident of this area since she was 9 years old. She lived most of her life in Tulla where her late husband, B. G. Pearson, was a farmer.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Leo Eby of Nazareth and Mrs. Bob Ballard of Seagraves; a son, Marion C. of Seminole; a brother, Monte Cayton of Tulla; 10 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren.

Final Rites Held For G. V. Lopez

Funeral mass was said Saturday morning for Guillermo Vargas "Willie" Lopez, 71, retired rancher and property owner who once fought beside Pancho Villa.

MR. LOPEZ died March 22 in Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo. Father Rafael Chen conducted final rites at 10 a.m. Saturday in Dimmitt's Immaculate Conception Church. Burial was in Castro Memorial Gardens under the direction of Lemons Funeral Home of Plainview.

Born Feb. 10, 1896, in San Pedro, Cuella, Mexico, Mr. Lopez fought in two revolutions in his native country before moving to Texas in 1929.

He was involved in the Zapata Revolution, and later fought with Pancho Villa in the 1920's.

HE OWNED much of the property on which the proposed new grain mill is planned, and was a partner with his brother, Jose, in a goat ranch in Mexico.

He is survived by his wife, Margaret; three daughters, Mrs. Julia DeVilla and Mrs. Oelita Ovias of Dimmitt and Mrs. Francisco Lopez of Old Mexico; five sons, George, Juan, Manuel L. and Joe of Dimmitt, and Manuel R. of Mexico; and his brother, Jose, of Mexico.

Head-on her's condition is listed as satisfactory.

THE SEVEN persons in the Hereford car were reportedly returning to Hereford from Slaton, where they had been on an Easter egg hunt.

Youts and Buchanan were returning to Dimmitt from a fishing trip to Oscar Wylie's farm northeast of town. They were in a service pickup owned by Youts' father, Charlie.

Officers said the accident occurred near the center of the two-lane highway. BUT HIGHWAY patrolmen were mum on details of the fatal accident, pending a grand jury investigation. Sgt. W. E. Wells, district Highway Patrol supervisor, said the case will be given to the next Castro County grand jury, which is to convene Monday. In the meantime, no citations have been issued, he said.

Textile Imports Increase — And So Does Opposition

The textile products import situation, which has seen an increase of over 37 percent in the past year — the equivalent of over a million bales of cotton — is more and more drawing the concentrated fire of the American Textile Manufacturers Institute, raw cotton interests, congressmen and senators.

WHAT ALL seek if (1) a five-year extension of the Long Term Arrangement for Cotton Textile Imports which expires Sept. 30 of this year; (2) to get the LTA administered in such a way as to return textile imports to reasonable levels, and (3) assurances that there will be no further tariff concessions to foreign countries in what is known as the Kennedy Round of tariff negotiations, now in progress.

He, along with other congressmen, will call attention to the progress made in the cotton industry, including increased domestic consumption of raw cotton and 1966 exports projected at 5 million bales, up from 2.9 million in 1965.

This progress has given cotton producers hope of restoring at least a part of the almost 30 percent cut in planted acreage suffered in 1965 and 1966.

Donald Johnson, PCG Executive Vice President, says there are so many departments of government and so many diverse interests involved it is difficult to make any sort of prediction as to the outcome of what is rapidly approaching uproar proportions over textile imports.

But he adds that "over a million bales of cotton are involved, and the outcome will obviously have its effect on High Plains cotton producers as well as those from the rest of the belt."
