Thin, Pale, Weak "I HAD been through a bad spell of sickness which left me very weak," says Mrs. Virginia Spruce, of Stapleton, Va. "I was pale and felt lifeless, and my strength did not return. "I spent most of my time on the bed. I was very nervous, and the least thing upset me. I did not have strength enough to lift a broom. At times I would have bad headaches, which would hurt me until I could hardly see. "Someone asked me why I did not try Cardui. I had read of it, so I thought I would see what it would do for me. It was really remarkable how I came out. My strength returned, and my health was better than it had been in years. I gained in weight about ten pounds. My color was good, and I ceased to suffer from headaches. I have told my friends about Cardui because I was benefited after taking it." GLAD TO SPEAK A GOOD WORD FOR ARGOTANE ANOTHER WOMAN TELLS OF AID NEW TREATMENT, ARGOTANE IS GIVING HER HUSBAND. "My husband had a severe case of stomach trouble and kidney trouble and seemed to only get worse all the time until he began to take Argotane. Said Mrs. J. M. Hooser, wife of a well known Ardmore man, who resides at 112 Mill Street, in a conversation recently. "This stomach and kidney trouble of his," continued Mrs. Hooser, "kept him feeling badly all the time. He did not have any appetite at all and what little he did eat seemed to do him a great deal of harm. He lacked energy and strength, tired easily and was just in a generally rundown condition. He was nervous and it seemed he could never get a good night's rest. Then we read about Argotane and he decided to give it a trial.

"Well the quickest way to tell you of the good is that his appetite is now good. He eats everything he wants and all he wants of it. He sleeps well and has gained in weight since he started on the treatment. His stomach does not seem to bother at all any more. I can see a great improvement in him and after seeing how it has worked in his case I recommend Argotane for anyone suffering from ailments such as he had." Genuine Argotane may be bought in Spur at the Spur Drug Co.

Mr. Richbourg stated that while Hobbs had been 'booming' the town has now settled down to actual business and there is plenty laborers there to care for all work in progress. Melvin Landers and family returned Thursday of last week from a visit and vacation trip to Oklahoma and other states where they have been spending several weeks during the past month. Upon his departure, Mr. Landers requested he be wired should it rain in order that he might rush home. However, he did not receive a wire to come home.

Formal Menus to Honor The Bride of the Month

By JOSEPHINE B. GIBSON Director, Home Economics Dept., H. J. Heinz Company.

At this season all of us are interested in weddings, whether or not they closely concern us or our friends. We pause at shop windows to see the beautiful bridal clothes on display, and on these over the splendid new home furnishings that are featured in the stores. Some truly is a glamorous month, and we find these days all the more thrilling as we are actively engaged in planning parties for a bride-to-be or in helping with arrangements for her wedding! The question of the wedding menu is always worthy of serious consideration, for on this all-important occasion we want everything to be in memorable style. In every case the food must be perfectly prepared and served, whether we plan for an elaborate breakfast or tea, or for only a simple buffet supper.

As there is so much else to be taken care of in every household on the wedding day, it is well, if possible, to have most of the nuptial feast prepared beforehand, or else turn over the menu details to a caterer or other capable persons who make a specialty of such affairs. The following suggestions may help you if you are confronted with the very important task of planning a wedding menu:

Eyes Tired? A Lotion Will Soothe And Rest Them

SOMEONE once said "the eyes are the windows of the soul." But I should like to have you think of them as the windows of a woman's beauty—for they are just that. Eyes reveal a woman's personality more than any other part of the face.

Tired eyes always make a woman look tired, though she may have rosy cheeks carefully to a natural glow, and put on her most attractive frock. But if you get enough sleep, and keep your health up to par, your eyes usually will be bright and clear. If they still seem dull, however, here is a simple, easy remedy: Use a good eye lotion at least once a day without fail. This will take away any small bits of dust or grime that may have lodged in your eyes, and will leave them clear, brilliant and soothed. And you will find it makes a great improvement in your appearance if you use an eye lotion before going out to a party.

Always remember to apply a tiny bit of tissue cream or skin food to your eyelids before you powder and rouge your face. Wipe off most of this cream, but leave on enough of it to give your eyelids a soft, rather moist look.

The result is far from artificial—it is exactly the way your eyes should look in their natural state. And if you are tired, the cream will take away that tired, drawn look from around your eyes.

Perhaps you have noticed unattractive little wrinkles forming around your eyes. Unless they appear with quite advanced age, these lines may be smoothed away very safely and easily. First, of course, your skin must be thoroughly cleansed with a good cleansing cream. Then apply either skin food or a tissue cream generously all around your eye. If your skin is normal or inclined to be oily, use tissue cream. But if your skin is very dry, I recommend skin food.

Next, dip your middle and index fingers into muscle oil. You can feel how rich and stimulating this oil is the moment your fingers touch it. Then with gentle, rhythmic movements move your finger tips around and around your eyes. Begin at the bridge of your nose, and laying your index and middle fingers on each side of your nose, move your fingers upward, across your eyebrows, down across your temples, and lightly back across your cheeks to your nose again.

Repeat this movement at least ten times, and make it rhythmic, not jerky. The little lines will be smoothed away gradually, and if you are faithful in this treatment, they will not come back.

Iced Coffee Drinks Are Hot Weather Favorites

By ANNIE REDDICK, Home Economist

HOT summer months bring a demand for cool, refreshing drinks. There is no end to the variety that can be served by the ingenious housewife, but it would be better, perhaps, to follow recipes that have been tested and approved by dietetic experts. Many delightful summer drinks can be made of coffee. Its appeal is universal, in hot weather as well as cold, it is always on hand and it is easily and quickly prepared.

Coffee for cold drinks may be made in the usual way, but, since it will be diluted by ice, it should be somewhat stronger than if it were to be served hot.

Here are several recipes that have been tested:

Iced Spiced Coffee

Six cupfuls strained strong coffee, 24 whole cloves, one five-inch stick cinnamon, three-fourths cupful heavy cream, whipped and sweetened. Add spices to coffee, boil five minutes, strain, add sugar and chill. Serve in glasses containing crushed ice and top with cream dusted with powdered cinnamon.

Frosted Coffee

Six cupfuls cold, strained strong coffee; three-fourths pint vanilla ice cream. Serve on tray with coffee in pitcher, glasses and shaker and ice cream in bowl. Put two heaping teaspoons of ice cream into the shaker and add cup of coffee. Shake till cream is dissolved. Pour and serve. Each guest should be served separately.

Iced Russian Coffee

Three cupfuls ice cold strong coffee, one cupful cocoa made with milk; two tablespoons cream; four tablespoons sugar. Combine ingredients in order given in pitcher, stir well or shake and serve with crushed ice.

Coffee Maple Ice Cream

Combine one cupful of very strong coffee with two cupfuls of light cream, one and one-eighth cupful of maple syrup, a few grains of salt, an egg yolk and one and a half teaspoonfuls of vanilla. Freeze in an ice cream freezer.

Turkish Iced Coffee

For each cupful of cold, strong coffee, allow one and a third tablespoonfuls of powdered sugar and a third of a teaspoonful of rose extract. Stir until dissolved, pour into glasses, each of which should contain a little crushed ice, and top with stiffly whipped cream which has been sweetened, or add a little plain cream to each serving.

Honey-Flavored Iced Coffee

Stir a fourth cupful cold, clear, strong coffee into four and a half teaspoonfuls honey, and, when dissolved, add a half cupful more of coffee. Pour into a tall glass which has been filled a fourth full of crushed ice and top with stiffly whipped cream into which a little honey has been beaten. Serve with any type of sweet sandwiches or little cakes.

RESERVE SYSTEM'S DIVIDENDS ANALYZED

Bankers Find Increased Payments to Member Banks Would Be Small Inducement.

Various proposals that member banks in the Federal Reserve System should participate more largely in its net earnings through an increase in the dividend rate above the present fixed 6 per cent "would be a very small financial inducement" to them, it is declared in a recent study of this subject by the Economic Policy Commission of the American Bankers Association. This is shown, the commission says, by a theoretical forecast, on the basis of the past six years, of additional earnings that would be disbursed to member banks during the next six years under two plans introduced in bills before the United States Senate.

"The Fletcher bill provides that Federal Reserve Bank earnings, after present 6 per cent dividends to members and completion of a 100 per cent surplus, should all be distributed as extra dividends to the stockholder banks," the report says. "If the earnings of each Federal Reserve bank were distributed among its own members there would be no extra dividends in the Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Cleveland, Chicago and San Francisco districts during the next six years, but the other six Federal Reserve Banks would pay annual extras at the following rates: Richmond, 6.08 per cent; Atlanta, 4.99 per cent; St. Louis, 3.59 per cent; Minneapolis, 9.51 per cent; Kansas City, 5.48 per cent; Dallas, 4.83 per cent.

"If the earnings were pooled and paid out to all members in all districts each member would receive an average annual extra dividend of .78 per cent. Under this plan no franchise tax as now would be paid by the Federal Reserve Banks to the Federal Government.

Another Plan Analyzed

"The Glass bill would provide that, after present 6 per cent dividends, one-half the remainder should be paid to member banks as an extra dividend with the residue going to surplus and Federal Government as franchise tax. The average annual extras to members would be as follows: Boston District, 2.51 per cent; New York, 48 per cent; Philadelphia, 2.05 per cent; Cleveland, 2.09 per cent; Richmond, 3.26 per cent; Atlanta, 4.67 per cent; Chicago, 3.20 per cent; St. Louis, 2.02 per cent; Minneapolis, 4.75 per cent; Kansas City, 2.74 per cent; Dallas, 3.31 per cent; San Francisco, 1.87 per cent.

"If these extra funds were pooled the result would be an extra average annual dividend of 1.73 per cent for each member. Under this plan the system would still pay as now an annual franchise tax, amounting to $1,941,996 on the average."

By way of concrete instance, the report says, a member bank having capital and surplus of $200,000, therefore holding Federal Reserve Bank stock amounting to $6,000 on which it is receiving $360 under the present 6 per cent dividend arrangement, would with the addition of each 1 per cent to the dividend rate receive an additional income of $60 a year.

"If each member bank will figure out for itself the dollar-and-cents gain it would enjoy we are confident it will be agreed that the gains are small as against the economic disadvantages which can be pointed out," it concludes.

Mrs. Clyde Weaver is in the Nichols Sanitarium for treatment.

IF ICHABOD CRANE HAD A FLASHLIGHT

By JOHN G. LONSDALE
President American Bankers Association

WE ALL remember the story of Ichabod Crane and the headless horseman. There was the dark form by the side of the road—thundering hoofs on the Sleepy Hollow highway—and Ichabod fleeing in confused terror before this terrible monster. If Ichabod had only known that his hobgoblin was an inventive rival disguised with a pumpkin head, he would have had a good laugh and gone on with the business of vanquishing his competitor.

What Ichabod really needed was a modern flashlight. Then he would have discovered the trickery at once. Many business men need the flashlight of analysis to uncover the hobgoblins in their business and then they might sit back and laugh at their rivals who hesitate to investigate and learn the truth.

At this time, when business and banking are making strenuous efforts to have a clear vision ahead, it is especially important that the power of research and analysis be employed to their fullest extent. When these twin brothers of good management have been pressed into service in all fields, I am confident we shall see a further lessening of periods of stress. However, I believe business in general has learned the valuable lesson that any prosperity that is not leavened with a little adversity would not seem basically safe or sound.

MESDAMES EDMONDS AND MARTIN HOSTESSES.

One of the most enjoyable parties of the season was that of Thursday morning when Mesdames Edmonds and Cal Martin were joint hostesses at bridge and 42, complimentary to Mrs. Virginia Davis of Frisco, California. Mrs. Pitts of Allentown, Pa., Mrs. Clyde Weaver of Abilene and Mrs. Margaret Newman of the city. In the bridge games Mrs. Jas. Reed made high score, Mr. Horace Gibson was lucky in the cut, and Mrs. Harr received consolation. Lovely handkerchiefs were presented the guests of honor, Miss Bobbie Graves assisted the hostesses in serving a refreshing iced drink during the progress of games, and in serving a salad plate with iced tea to those enjoying the occasion.

Mrs. C. B. Jones was a most pleasing hostess to her Bridge Club members and other invited guests Monday morning at 9 o'clock at her apartment at the Spur Inn.

Three tables with lovely appointments were arranged for bridge. A delicious ice refreshment was served to those present and enjoying the occasion, Mesdames D. L. Granberry, Margaret Newman, W. A. Sunburn And Freckles Can Be Prevented With Care

SUMMER is dreaded by many women, for they know it does unpleasant things to their faces. Many skins are quite lovely until summer comes, when they suddenly become very temperamental, and look shiny and spotty soon after powdering. Some women even complain that their faces feel hot and irritated after the least exposure to the sun.

The change a hot summer works in your skin often is so gradual that you may not notice the damage until it is done. Neglected skins suffer most, so it is wise to accept the fact that hot weather may spoil the texture and color of your skin, and then try to prevent this.

In the inquiries that come to me at this season, I often find that women do not know how to care for and protect their skins during warm weather. "After all," many of your letters say, "I can scarcely step outside my door without getting freckles. Now, what am I to do about that? I cannot stay inside all summer!"

No—you certainly should not stay indoors too much, for fresh air and sunshine are excellent skin tonics. Instead, you can learn to take a few precautionary measures, and then safely enjoy being outside as much as you wish. Foundation cream has very good protective qualities. Spread plenty of it all over your face and neck, wipe off the surplus cream with cleansing tissues, and then pat on your face powder. Or, if you prefer a liquid foundation, apply a generous coating of powder lotion with a bit of cotton, and then pat on your powder.

Naturally, these simple preparations will not protect your skin from burning if you insist on staying out in the sun for hours at a time. But if you are sensible, and expose your skin no longer than necessary, you will not need to be in despair about sunburn or deep freckles. Many women never have freckles until their skins are painfully sunburned. And it is difficult to get rid of these deeply-laid freckles, for they have formed under severe conditions, and almost seem to be there to stay.

Of course it is best to start the summer with a good, clear complexion. Then if the sun or wind burns and smart your skin, this can be corrected by a good soothing cream or lotion. If your skin is not in good condition, but is irritated, and shows blackheads, enlarged pores or annoying little lines—then start in immediately with the right corrective care. A preparatory course of home treatments will keep your perspiration and oil glands working normally, and will help to protect your skin from undue burning or irritation.

New Ford Truck With Closed Cab

NEW Ford Model AA trucks and Model A light delivery cars were announced this week by the Ford Motor Company and are on display in the show rooms of Ford dealers.

Changes in the trucks are principally in the front end, which has been completely redesigned, and in the cab. The radiator is higher with more cooling surface, fenders are wide and flowing, and a black cowl strip adds a note of distinction.

The new Model AA trucks with the four-speed transmission introduced several months ago may be had with enclosed or open cab. The enclosed cab, shown above, is all steel, it is low in appearance yet with ample head room. The open cab is of black rubber top material and is easily removed. Both cabs are equipped with windshields of Triplex shatterproof glass and vacuum type windshield wipers.

Model AA trucks may be had with a platform body, which can be equipped with stakes or a panel body. The chassis has many improvements, including the four-speed transmission, larger front brakes, stronger springs, power take-off opening and optional dual rear wheels.

The Model A line of new commercial cars comprises a light delivery truck with pick-up body, a deluxe delivery truck, a small panel truck and a station wagon. These cars have the smaller wheels and larger tires of the new Ford passenger cars.

Sauces for Meats and Fowl

By ETIENNE ALLIO, Chef, Hotel New Yorker, New York City

S KILLFULLY prepared sauces can add greatly to the appetite appeal of many kinds of meats and fowl. This secret the French discovered long ago, and it is unfortunate that the American housewife so often passes by the opportunity to give an added zest to the piece de resistance of the meal.

In making such sauces, the greatest care should be taken that the least possible amount of fat remains in the liquid. Another excellent point to remember is to add a little sugar to the other seasonings, not for sweetening purposes but to bind the various flavors.

In making a brown sauce, for instance, heat a teaspoon of sugar until it melts, and add to the sauce, bringing it to a boil. It improves the flavor, browns the sauce and does not sweeten.

Orange Sauce for Roast Duck—Brown two tablespoons butter in a saucepan. Add two tablespoons flour and stir until the mixture bubbles and becomes brown. Add three-fourths cup meat stock. Cook until smooth and creamy, stirring constantly. Add six drops onion juice, one-half teaspoon walnut ketchup, one teaspoon sugar, few grains cayenne, and salt to taste. Continue stirring and add juice and grated rind of two oranges. Bring to boiling point. Serve around fillets of breast of roast duck, arranged on a platter with a pile of wild rice in the center.

Sauce Chevaux for Fish, Poultry or Game—Dissolve one teaspoon vegetable bouillon extract in one cup of boiling water. Add one-half teaspoon pepper, one-half teaspoon paprika, and salt to taste. Add one cup orange juice, pulp of two oranges, few slices of rind, and one teaspoon sugar. Brown two tablespoons butter in saucepan. Add two tablespoons flour, and cook until mixture is brown, smooth and creamy. Add slowly to stock mixture, stirring constantly. Cook until thickened. Take off fire and add one-half cup skinned and seeded white grapes.

Currant Sauce—To make a currant sauce for roast lamb, add one glass currant jelly to a cup of brown gravy made from drippings in the pan. This is especially good when slices of the cold roast are warmed in it.

Advertising, Like Business, Must be Continuous

It is superfluous to say that commercial enterprises must be open every business day to be successful. Still many merchants, who keep their doors open figuratively close them to a vast group of customers, whose index to buying is the Texas Spur columns, by not advertising weekly. Without advertising that merchant's business is closed for the day to a number of potential buyers.

John Wanamaker once said, "continuous advertising, like continuous work, is most effective. If there is any enterprise in the world that a quitter should leave alone it is advertising. Advertising does not jerk, it pulls. It begins very gently at first, but the pull is steady. It increases day by day, year by year, until it exerts an irresistible power. To discontinue your advertisement is the same thing as taking down your sign. If you want to do business you must let the public know it. I would as soon think of doing business without clerks as without advertising."

ATHLETE SOON REGAINS HEALTH BY NEW KONJOLA

Baseball Player Suffering From Rheumatism and Other Ailments Finds Prompt Relief.

"For over two years I suffered from rheumatism," said Mr. Jack M. Long, 511 Burnett Street, Fort Worth. "My legs and back were affected so much that I could not carry on my work as a baseball player. Finally I was forced to remain in my home for three months. I had attacks of indigestion and my kidneys gave me no end of trouble, the pains in my back were terrible. I was forced to rise many times nightly and became very nervous."

"I tried many remedies without result when a friend recommended Konjola. After taking seven bottles, I was able to resume my work in the K. I. C. League as a ball player. The rheumatic pains have completely vanished and my stomach is in perfect condition. My kidneys are again normal and I do not have to rise at night. The pains have left my back and my nerves are strong. Konjola restored me to perfect health."

Although many men and women state that one or two bottles have brought relief, it is recommended that six or eight bottles be taken to obtain the best results.

Konjola is sold in Spur, Texas, at Sanders Pharmacy, and by all best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

While in town Wednesday Edd Lisenby said that he had never stopped his plows—and that his crops, in comparison, shows the results. We recall another dry year in the past, and at which time only one farmer in our community made a successful crop. This farmer kept his plow going without interruption throughout the dry spell—while his neighbors laughed at his lost labor—but he marketed the only crop made in the community. Experience demonstrates that the successful farmer keeps plowing in dry seasons as well as wet.

FLYING MISSIONARY BROTHER G. J. FELTES

New York, June 30—Destined for another and from the outside world, for the greater part of the usefulness in the snowbound country of Alaska, a "Missionary Plane", christened "The Marquette Missionary", was presented by the Marquette League at Roosevelt Field, Long Island, yesterday to Brother G. J. Feltes, S. J., the first "flying missionary" of the Jesuit Order. He plans to leave June 30th with George Pickenpack as co-pilot, for the Pacific Coast, and officials of the League state that he will thus win the distinction of being the first member of a religious order to attempt a transcontinental flight.

The plane, which was presented to Pilot-Brother Feltes by the Marquette League, of which Judge A. J. Tally is President, and the Rev. William Flynn is Secretary-General, to further its objects of rendering aid to Eskimo missions of Alaska, is a Bellanca Pacemaker, powered by a Packard Diesel Motor and fueled and lubricated by Texaco Aerodiesel Fuel and Airplane Oil. It is said that "The Marquette Missionary" will be the first Diesel powered plane to fly on the Pacific Coast and in Alaska. It was given to the Jesuit missionaries at the earnest request of Venerable Bishop of Alaska, the Rt. Rev. Joseph Raphael Crimont, S. J.

Much interest has been manifested in the many unique features of this plane which will be exhibited at important transcontinental way-points, including Buffalo, Detroit, Dubuque, Des Moines, Wichita, Albuquerque, Phoenix, Los Angeles, San Francisco and Seattle.

Upon arrival in Alaska, where it will be shipped from Seattle, "The Marquette Missionary", with headquarters at Holy Cross Mission, about 100 miles up the Yukon, will be utilized for humanitarian as well as spiritual work. It is equipped to serve as an emergency ambulance, can carry as to isolated posts, and through flights and by the use of its equipment, maintain contacts about the winter months that are untold hardships and suffering. The main use of the plane will be to meet up the various missions completely isolated from one another and from the outside world, for the greater part of the usefulness in the snowbound country of Alaska, a "Missionary Plane", christened "The Marquette Missionary", was presented by the Marquette League at Roosevelt Field, Long Island, yesterday to Brother G. J. Feltes, S. J., the first "flying missionary" of the Jesuit Order. He plans to leave June 30th with George Pickenpack as co-pilot, for the Pacific Coast, and officials of the League state that he will thus win the distinction of being the first member of a religious order to attempt a transcontinental flight.

Realizing the importance to the progress of Alaska of adequate landing facilities, the United States Government has established seventy-three landing fields, beside the many natural fields to be found in many parts of the North. In the winter time, a plane can land on its skis in the snow most anywhere there is a level stretch free of obstructions.

Brother Feltes, the Jesuit Pilot, who is 32 years old and a member of the Jesuit Order for 15 years, is the only Jesuit holding an aviator's license in America. He has had about 100 hours of flying in many types of planes, and has received varied types of instruction from some of the world's most famous pilots. He started his training on the sixteenth of last July, under the able tutelage of Captain Royle at the Alameda Airport, across the bay from San Francisco. After eight hours of dual instruction, he made his first solo flight on the 5th of August, this being the first time a Jesuit ever flew an airplane alone. He won his Private License on the 28th of August, and then continued his instruction with the Curtiss Company, receiving his instructions in acrobatics at the hands of Roy Hunt. The first training he received was in an OX5 Robin, Challenger Robin, and Fledgling. On finishing his instructions, he received his Limited Commercial License, having been examined by Dillard Hamilton, Inspector of the Department of Commerce. Since going to New York, last January, Brother Feltes has inspected and flown a large number of different types and makes of planes. He has flown the Bellanca Pacemaker with Capt. George Heldeman, Wesley Smith, Jack Ayres, and Howard Young; the Ireland Amphibion with Captain George Pickenpack and Elmer Meyers; the Stinson-Detroit with Eddie Stinson; the New Crescent with Clarence Chamberlin; the Junkers with Fred Melchior; the Ryan

IT'S THE TRAINING TABLE THAT SETS THE STROKE

By Richard Glendon, Jr. (Coach of the Columbia University Crew Inter-Collegiate Champions, 1929)

In the old days, when a coach was looking around for a place to locate his training camp, he usually spotted a hotel or boarding house that specialized in corned beef and cabbage. For corned beef and cabbage was the "me plus ultra" of training fare in the "dear and fortunately dead days." And yet, while the men stowed away as much of Jiggs' favorite dish as they could hold, they were allowed only a limited quantity of water. The idea, then, seemed to be to stuff 'em, and then bring them to a keen competitive "edge" quickly through sweats and lots of after results. Needless to say the after results were anything but desirable.

Today a coach goes about bringing his men into shape in just the opposite fashion. I always start the men as early as possible, so that there will be no need for last minute, intensive grinding to bring them to the "peak."

The more gradually a man can build up his stamina and drive, the more effective he will be and the less apt to go stale. Balanced against the necessary meat in our crew diet is always an impressive assortment of leafy and fibrous vegetables, the cellulose or bulk of which promotes intestinal hygiene and helps carry off the residual poisons in a normal and healthy manner. This same "veg-

No coach of any sport has ever rocketed into a deserved place of such nation-wide prominence in such a short time as has "Dick" Glendon. Son of an illustrious father who has guided Navy crews to so many stirring victories in past years, the younger Glendon after temporarily replacing his father at the Naval Academy, came to Columbia just four years ago. In those four years he has completely rejuvenated rowing at Columbia, his freshmen winning in 1926 and his varsity walking up two wins and a second in the next three years. Realizing the supreme importance of conditioning in such a grueling race as the 4 mile race at Poughkeepsie, we have asked Mr. Glendon to tell us something of the training requirements imposed on a crew man, particularly in regard to what he may and may not eat.

—EDITOR.

works pace with the early spring workouts. Nothing whips such men into shape more quickly or more effectively than a diet which keeps appetite at a keen edge and works off, sanely and normally, the residues collected during the athlete's lay-off period of inactivity.

When eight men swing their shells in line for the 4 mile grind at Poughkeepsie, these men should be carrying in their stomachs nothing but energy supplying foods. They will call upon—and need—every ounce of reserve they can carry before they pass the finish marker. Naturally, the men in the best condition to meet this exacting demand upon energy are those whose training has removed from the body all the dead weight and useless residues.

One hears a great deal of talk—and sees much written about the stroke used by this or that crew. Naturally, each coach teaches his men the stroke which he believes, through experience, will be most apt to drive his colors out in front and keep them there. But no type of stroke in the world is worth a plugged nickel, if the men manning the oars have not been properly conditioned to set a winning pace and then have the stamina and reserve energy to hold it.

A sensible diet then, which includes plenty of roughage, cellulose or bulk (choose your own name for it) is as necessary in the long training grind, as the actual work-outs in the racing shells, for a crew man needs every ounce of usable foods that he can store in his body. When the coxswain increases the beat for the final spurt, it takes a perfectly trained human machine to stand the gaff.

HEN MONEY

Some people call it pen money, but in this case it is too much to stay in that class. For the month of June Jessie Hagins of Gilpin received a net profit of $29.98 from his flock of 163 White Leghorn hens. These hens laid a total of 3221 eggs which sold for $48.71. He used $18.73 worth of feed. These hens laid an average of nineteen and one-fourth eggs each for the month. The standard for June is 16 eggs. All of these eggs were infertile and brought the price of 20 cents per dozen for the biggest part of the month, although they were at 17 cents or a few days early in the month.

Side Dishes Point Up Flavors

By ETIENNE ALLIO, Chef, Hotel New Yorker, New York City

SIDE dishes—the various slaws, a bit of fruit prepared in some unusual manner—point up the flavors of the dishes with which they are served, and so far toward giving the added zest of surprise and variety.

Deserving a far greater popularity than they now enjoy, it is hard to say why, except for the ordinary cole slaw, they so seldom appear upon the home table unless guests are present. They are inexpensive and easy to prepare, and there seems to be no good reason why they should not become regular items of the family menu.

Peach and Pineapple Curry— Fill the bottom of a casserole with a layer of sliced, canned pineapple. Dot with butter and sprinkle with two teaspoons brown sugar and one teaspoon curry powder. Add a layer of canned peaches and sprinkle with the same amount of brown sugar and curry powder. Repeat the process until the dish is filled. On the top layer, which should consist of peaches, double the amount of sugar and curry. Bake for one-half hour in a moderate oven. For those who like more or less curry, the amount may be varied. Delicious with roast lamb.

Cheese Stew— Let one pint of shredded cabbage stand in cold water until fresh and crisp. Dry and mix with five tablespoons grated cheese. Mix one tablespoon vinegar, one teaspoon mixed mustard, one teaspoon salt, one teaspoon brown sugar, one-fourth teaspoon paprika, few grains cayenne. Add three-fourths cup buttermilk, mixing thoroughly. Pour over the cabbage and cheese. Garnish with green pepper rings.

Banana Vinaigrette— Peel and slice lengthwise four or five large, firm bananas. Pack in shallow casserole. Mix together one tablespoon vinegar, one-half cup beef stock, one-fourth cup brown sugar. Pour over bananas. Dot with four large tablespoons butter and bake in hot oven for twenty minutes. Serve with roast beef.

COWS DIE ON HEGARIA FIELD

Reports coming to the County Agents office indicate that a few cows are being poisoned on cane and hegaria pasture, Charlie McClain of Red Mud Community reports loss of a calf which broke in a field of hegaria. He said that in five minutes after entering the field the calf was down.

During drouthy seasons in particular these plants are often very dangerous to grazing animals, Red top cane, hegaria, and at times sudan often give off deadly poison known as hydrocyanic acid. This affects the heart and quick death follows. Immediately after frost is another dangerous time. Treatment is very doubtful and the following is recommended by some leading veterinarians: Raise the animals head as high as possible if down to facilitate breathing as this is usually difficult. Drench with the following mixture. One ounce of common baking soda dissolved in a pint of water; one half ounce of coperas (iron sulphate) in a pint of water. Mix these two together and drench at one dose.

As a usual thing death is so sudden that treatment is too late.

OLD FOLKS SAY DR. CALDWELL WAS RIGHT

The basis of treating sickness has not changed since Dr. Caldwell left Medical College in 1875, nor since he placed on the market the laxative prescription he had used in his practice.

He treated constipation, biliousness, headaches, mental depression, indigestion, sour stomach and other indispositions entirely by means of simple vegetable laxatives, herbs and roots. These are still the basis of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, a combination of senna and other mild herbs, with pepsin.

The simpler the remedy for constipation, the safer for the child and for you. And as you can get results in a mild and safe way by using Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, why take chances with strong drugs?

A bottle will last several months, and all can use it. It is pleasant to the taste, gentle in action, and free from narcotics. Elderly people find it ideal. All drug stores have the generous bottles, or write "Syrup Pepsin," Dept. BB, Monticello, Illinois, for free trial bottle.

WHEN FOOD SOURS

ABOUT two hours after eating, many people suffer from sour stomach. They call it indigestion. It means the stomach nerves have been overstimulated. There is excess acid. The way to correct it is with an alkali, which neutralizes many times its volume acid.

The right way is Phillips Milk of Magnesia—just a tasteless dose in water. It is pleasant, efficient and harmless.

It is the quick method. Results come almost instantly. It is the approved method. You will never use another when you know.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips Milk of Magnesia, the kind physicians prescribe to correct excess acids, and 50c a bottle—any drugstore.

"Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Charles H. Phillips Chemical Company and predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875.

Hamlin Theatre
Loss Is $27,000

HAMLIN, July 7.—Loss resulting from fire which Saturday night destroyed E. S. Ferguson's theatre here, Monday were estimated at $27,000, including equipment valued at $5,000. Insurance amounting to $12,000 was carried.

Ferguson possibly sacrificed his show to allow the Saturday night crowd in the building to file out safely.

The blaze originated in the wiring in the theatre left, and was discovered by the projection room crew. The fire caused the fuses to blow out, placing the house in darkness.

Rather than turn in a fire alarm at once, which probably would have thrown the crowd into a panic, Ferguson informed the audience that trouble was being had in the projection room and that the building must be cleared. The crowd marched quietly out, and then a search was made for any children who might be sleeping. The audience did not know the building was on fire until it was in the streets.

J. P. Koonsman, of Croton, was in town the first of the week, meeting with acquaintances and friends of this section. Mr. Koonsman is within the recognized 'oil belt' of this territory, and is very hopeful and optimistic of securing more drilling here within a short period of time.

Ev To Dairy Production Is Protein Feed

Profits in dairying are made largely by carefully selecting feeds and providing cows at all times with stable and sufficient rations.

Well balanced rations include the kinds and amounts of feed which satisfy all the requirements of cows. All rations furnish a proper amount of the right kind of nutrients including protein, carbohydrates and fat, and also minerals and vitamins. A farmer who neglects to feed his cows a concentrate mixture that makes a well balanced ration cannot expect a profit.

The limiting factor in profitable production of milk is protein, or perhaps we should say lack of protein in regular farm grains. Ordinary farm grains supply carbohydrates and materials for fat, but their protein content is low and unbalanced. The feeder, therefore, is forced to go to market to buy a high-protein concentrate, such as linseed meal, to balance his rations. Protein furcured, and a cow can produce only as much milk as she has curd for.

A grain mixture recommended for the milking herd by the Animal Husbandry department of the University of Wisconsin, consists of 200 pounds ground barley, corn or hominy, 100 pounds of wheat bran, and 100 pound of linseed meal. One pound of this should be fed for each four or five pounds of milk produced. For the dry cow the testing officials advise equal parts by weight of ground oats, ground barley, or corn, wheat bran and a high protein feed like linseed meal. From three to eight pounds daily should be fed depending on the condition of the cow.

It is common knowledge to dairymen that if a cow is thin when she freshens, her production will suffer during the entire lactation period following. It is just as true but not as generally known that the thin cow will have a lower test than if she were in good flesh while milking. The reduced yield and lower test resulting from a thin condition make it doubly important to get her in good flesh while dry.

TEXAS HAS 1,283,897 QUALIFIED VOTERS

Austin, July 7.—There are 1,283,897 qualified voters in Texas this year, a decrease of 84,147 from the 1,368,044 two years ago, figures compiled here disclose.

Based on the average vote of the past three election years, a poll of 731,821 ballots, or 57 per cent of the total, was indicated. With an estimate of 50,000 Republican votes, this would imply less than 700,000 ballots being cast in the democratic primary.

It was pointed out the area south and east of the I. G. N railroad from Longview to Austin to Laredo contains 83 counties, with qualified vote of 511,634, or 40 per cent of the total of the state. A circle around Dallas of 100 miles radius would embrace 36 counties, with 359,884 qualified voters, or 28 per cent of the state total. In these two areas are 119 counties, with 68 per cent of all the votes of Texas, or a total of 497,638 ballots, based on the average of past years, to be cast this year.

County School Board to Meet August 4

The Dickens County School Board will hold its regular meeting on August 4th at Dickens. A special meeting will be held this week at Dickens.

At the special meeting plans will be discussed and formulated with a view of combining the Red Hill school with Spur Schools, in promoting and furthering educational advantages of pupils of the Red Hill school district.

The institute for Dickens county teachers will be held in Lubbock September 1st, 2nd and 3rd.

TO THE CITIZENS OF DICKENS COUNTY.

I wish to take the means of thanking the voters of this county for the splendid vote I received last Saturday for the office of County Attorney of Dickens County.

To you who voted for me, asking the same hearty cooperation in performing the duties of my office that you gave me in the past. To you, who did not vote for me, I want to say, that you are my friends just as much as if you had cast your vote in my favor. It does not take the cooperation of all the people for an officer to be elected, but it does take the cooperation of all for one to make a good officer after he is elected. So, if there have been any little differences to come up during the months preceding the primary, let us all forget them and work together now for the common cause.—Yours very truly, Alton B. Chapman.

Mrs. Fletcher and Harry Patton Married on Vacation Trip

Mrs. W. E. Fletcher and Harry Patton were married recently on their vacation trip to Pecos and other West Texas points.

The Texas Spur pleads guilty to a lapse in its usual promptness in reporting in this instance, but assures the principals that it was not through any lack of congratulatory interest. For a number of years we had known that Harry Patton had assiduously been in quest of an "old maid" and two children to adorn his home and care for his material welfare, therefore when his friends reported his marriage we naturally thought they were endeavoring to discredit and hamper him in his quest among eligible maidens. However, Harry has confirmed the report, stating that he is proud of his final conquest and happy in his home and married relations, and at this late date the Texas Spur heartily joins with other friends in extending congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Patton, and wishing for their years of peace, happiness and contentment.

Exum Carries Dickens and State for Governor in the Republican Primary

In the Republican primary election Saturday a West Texas man, Exum of Amarillo, led the state as well as Dickens county, for the nomination to the governor's office. The Republican vote in Dickens county was as follows:

- Senator: Haesly 9; Haines 1; Harris 4.
- Governor: Butte 6; Exum 7; Gaines 1.
- Attorney General: Atkinson 4; Sanford 10.
- Comptroller: Beard 11; Dorsey 1; Welty 2.
- Treasurer: Johnson 10; King 4.
- Supt. of Public Instruction: Reed 4; Cooner 9; Reynolds 1.
- Commissioner of Agriculture: Brock 9; Thurman 1; Yates 3.
- Land Commissioner: Beard 14.
- Criminal Appeals: Girard 14.

There were a total of 14 Republican votes polled in Dickens county, elections held in Spur and Afton. The Republican leaders of the state are speculating on whether or not it is possible to elect a governor over Ma Ferguson, whom is very likely to be nominated by the Democratic party.

TO THE PEOPLE OF DICKENS COUNTY.

I wish to express to the people through the columns of The Texas Spur my appreciation for your wonderful support given me in Saturday's primary. I hope, you, Robert Reynolds,

FROM W. B. (BILL) ARTHUR

I wish to thank my many friends for the very excellent vote given me at the primary election Saturday. I appreciate the confidence you have shown, and I want to state here, that if I am elected your sheriff that I will do my best to be the best one you have ever had. I believe in strict enforcement of the law, using good judgment and much consideration in this respect. I want to treat everybody with the principle of a white man if elected, and be the sheriff of all the people. In going into the second primary, I earnestly solicit your continued support, and those who saw fit to vote for others, if you can see your way clear to vote for me this time, I will greatly appreciate it. W. B. (BILL) ARTHUR

Only One Vote Difference Between Speer and Twaddell for Superintendent

The very closest race of the primary election was that of Mrs. Madge D. Twaddell and Frank Speer for county school superintendent. The unofficial returns give Mrs. Twaddell 1368 and Frank Speer 1367 votes.

We hear rumors that this race may be contested, should the Executive Committee in canvassing the returns Saturday find that this is the official result of the election.

This was one of the most warmly contested races of the county.

TO THE VOTERS OF DICKENS COUNTY, TEXAS:

I want to thank the people of Dickens County for the support given me in Saturday's primary, and I solicit your vote and influence in primary August 23rd.—Kenneth Bain, Judge 110th Judicial District of Texas.
