

CORN MILL MODEL — Dimmitt Wheat Growers, Inc., has received this architect's model of its corn wet-milling plant, and soon will have a builders' complete working model that is detailed down to the electrical wiring and water pipes. Both models are the products of Intensa, Inc., of Mexico City, consulting engineers for the huge project. This is the future, expanded version of the mill; the plant now being built will not include the mill house in right foreground. In extreme left background is the dry-starch storage building which has already been completed. In front of this building are tall starch packaging tanks, corn syrup refinery and liquid loading tanks. To the right of the main mill houses are white "dryers," above-ground feed storage tanks, and ground-level steep tanks, which will take corn from the elevators and hold it in a warm sulfur dioxide solution until it goes into the milling-refining process.

Housing needed for mill workers

Dimmitt's already-tight housing market is going to get tighter as 100 or more construction workers on the new corn milling plant seek homes for their families.

DIMMITT Wheat Growers, Inc., which is building the huge plant, has asked the Chamber of Commerce to compile a list of all

Garden Club cited for shrub project

The Dimmitt Garden Club has received a citation and a check for $175 from Sears, Roebuck & Co. for its landscaping project at the Castro County Country Club last year.

THE PROJECT was directed by Mrs. Ray Riley, chairman, and Mrs. Charles Vandiver and Allie Mae Willis, committee members. Mrs. Jay Lee Touchstone was president of the club when the project was begun.

Judges in the state contest, which was co-sponsored by the Texas Garden Clubs, Inc., and Sears, Roebuck & Co., were Mrs. A. L. Marjot and Mrs. O. G. Hill Sr. In their statement to the club, they noted that trees and shrubs selected would do well in the area, and that chosen material was in keeping with the architecture of the clubhouse and other buildings on the grounds.

More than 60 trees were planted on the grounds, including some 21 honey locust, six ketler juniper, 15 hopla flowering crab, three fitzer juniper, three purple plum, 10 sycamore and three ash trees. MONEY FOR the project came through the combined efforts of all club members and friends. Income projects included rummage sales, home tours, an annual hat party, cookbook sales and other club projects.

Follow-up plans for the project include helping in the care of the present plantings in the future, and assisting in the development of the memorial plot near the clubhouse.

The committee consulted with directors of the recreation center and a local nurseryman in choosing the plants and designing the landscape.

available housing in the Dimmitt area.

Forty skilled workers — mostly welders — are now employed in the plant's fabrication shop, which went into production two weeks ago. The work force is expected to jump to 150 soon, when construction begins on the mill house, and the impact is expected to yield $7,500 to $10,000 a month for the city's apartment and rent-house owners.

ANYONE in the Dimmitt area with houses or apartments available — either furnished or unfurnished — should contact Mrs. Dorothy Magness, Chamber of Commerce secretary, at 647-2524.

School starts for 5-year-old Latin children

More than 15,000 Texas children who have grown to nearly school age speaking only Spanish will be introduced to basic English this summer in 129 schools across the state.

DIMMITT and Hart both started classes for these pre-school children Monday morning, with 36 enrolled at Hart and 33 in Dimmitt.

Dimmitt expects its enrollment to double by Friday, Curriculum Director Weldon Skinner said.

This program was developed by the Texas Education Agency and gives each youngster a working knowledge of the basic words he will need to begin the first grade.

THE PLAN, first authorized by the 56th Legislature in 1961, is financed by the Minimum Foundation Program. All non-English speaking children who will reach age 5 by Sept. 1 and who will be slated to enter the first grade are eligible.

Teachers assigned to these classes have both a fluent command of English and experience in teaching children whose first language is not English. Each teacher has a Spanish-speaking aide to help the pre-school children convert to English in the classroom.

'Come on by,' interviewers urge holdouts

If answering personal questions is keeping you from registering in the county labor survey, you needn't worry — go on by and register.

QUESTIONS asked in the survey are mostly impersonal, and the questionnaires are kept strictly confidential.

Every person over the age of 16 now living in Castro County is urged to participate in this phase of the industrial development program being sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and conducted by the Smaller Communities Research Program of the Texas Employment Commission at 103 Bedford St.

THE SURVEY takes two to five minutes per person, and questions include name, address, marital status and education level. The survey also asks husband's and wife's working status, the type of work currently being done, past length of residency in Castro County, and your willingness to change residency to obtain employment.

Only statistical information of interest to industrialists and other investors will be made available in the soon-to-be-published Castro County Economic Base Report.

The few minutes it takes to answer the questions on this survey could be a great benefit to this area by showing industrialists what skills and services are available, the TEC surveyors said.

TO DATE, only a few over 700 have registered, and to make this survey accurate and helpful to the community, approximately 2,300 more adults need to register soon.

Hart Lions will name Man of Year

Hart's "Man of the Year" will be named Saturday night at the annual Hart Lions Club Ladies' Night.

THE BANQUET will begin at 8 o'clock at the school cafeteria, according to Boss Lion Willis Hawkins Jr.

Nurse's son among missing

A Dimmitt nurse's son is one of the 73 men still missing from the destroyer USS Frank E. Evans, which was cut in half in the South China Sea by an Australian aircraft carrier before dawn Tuesday.

HE IS JOHN SPRAY, whose mother, Mrs. Ruth Spray, is head of nurses at the Golden Spread Nursing Home here.

Spray, an electrical engineer aboard the US destroyer, is a graduate of Borger High School and North Texas State University. He holds advanced degrees in both engineering and music.

His wife, who teaches in Long Beach, Calif., reportedly was notified Wednesday morning that Spray was still missing.

TUESDAY night, 10 ships from three nations had called off their search for the 73 men still missing and a US Navy spokesman had announced, "We have absolute confidence that we have picked up all survivors."

Spray is the son of the late Rev. Luther Spray, a Baptist minister.

The missing man's mother moved to Dimmitt from Borger in February to become head of nurses at the Golden Spread Home. She was unavailable for comment at press time.

Spray was on his final scheduled voyage, and reportedly was due to be separated from active Navy duty within three months.

THE TRAGEDY occurred before dawn Tuesday, Vietnam time, when the Australian carrier Melbourne plowed into the port side of the USS Evans, severing the destroyer's forward section. The severed portion of the ship sank quickly in 5,400 feet of water.

After a 24-hour search, the Navy listed one man known dead, 73 missing and 199 survivors.

In Washington, the Pentagon said a Navy investigative board was being formed to find out what caused the disaster.

Hand-crafted 'dune buggies' lead summer parade

By DARLA KAY
The warm weather has brought out some rather unconventional transportation in Dimmitt.

POLICE CHIEF W. W. Jones was one of the first to appear in Dimmitt with a little auto that has been nick-named a "dune buggy" in other parts of the country.

Jones' little vehicle is different from most of the others, though. Dune buggies are usually built with Volkswagen frames and engines, but Jones built his mainly from a 1950 Ford. The frame, transmission and V-8 engine are all from the old Ford.

The entire car was put together by hand, and took about four months of spare time. A great deal of the outside is made of scrap metal. The fenders, in fact, are parts of old ice boxes. The rear wheels are made from tractor utility wheels, and Jones said the 120-hp buggy gets over 25 miles per gallon.

MAKING the little blue vehicle appear even more custom-made, a small frontpiece resembling a badge reads, "Mini-Texan, by Jones, Dimmitt, Texas."

Jones said that besides the many hours of work tied up in his project, he has $203 invested in it. He said he did it mainly "to have something to do," and he has no plans for the buggy right now. He also estimated that a similar auto would cost about $1,200 if built with standard parts.

BOB VILAS has a dune buggy, too, but his is one of the more conventional types. It is made from a Volkswagen frame and engine.

Vilas said that to make a dune buggy, the frame is cut in half, and 15 inches taken out of it.

Both Jones and Vilas said their buggies will go anywhere a motor cycle will go, and Jones added that they will "climb like goats."

Vilas has more than 2 1/4 months tied up in his buggy, along with about $900. He plans to use his at Padre Island this summer for transportation. His buggy has a bright orange fiberglass molded body, and he has just put a stripped top on it.

GENE SMITH also has built a dune buggy. He said his is made from a 1963 Volkswagen, and uses mostly VW parts. It does not have a fiberglass body, but Smith said it "climbs and goes everywhere the others will go."

Smith has used his for hunting, and plans to take it to the mountains sometime this summer. He estimated that he had $450 in cash in his buggy and approximately 75 hours of work.

All three men enjoy their dune buggies, and quite a few teens seem to enjoy talking Vilas into loaning his, then "dragging main" in it.

Weather hinders mosquito battle

The weather has been a major problem in city mosquito control this year, City Manager E. B. Noble said this week.

"IT DOES very little or no good to spray when the wind is blowing, and it is impossible to spray when it's raining," he explained.

Country Club meeting slated

The Castro County Recreation Association will hold its quarterly membership meeting at 8 p.m. June 23 in the clubhouse, according to Jack Miller, secretary.

THE MEETING will be open to all members of the Country Club, and will include membership, financial and activity reports. Bud Posey, new golf pro, will give his first report at the meeting also.

Also, mosquitoes seem to be bigger and tougher than ever.

Noble said that recent reports published in a trade magazine show that mosquitoes may become immune to insecticides by continuous exposure to them, and may actually come to thrive on them. For this reason, the city is considering changing its spraying materials, at least for a while.

RESIDENTS can help control these pests by keeping grass and weeds short, and by keeping water-catching tires, cans and old "junk" around the house free of water, Noble said.

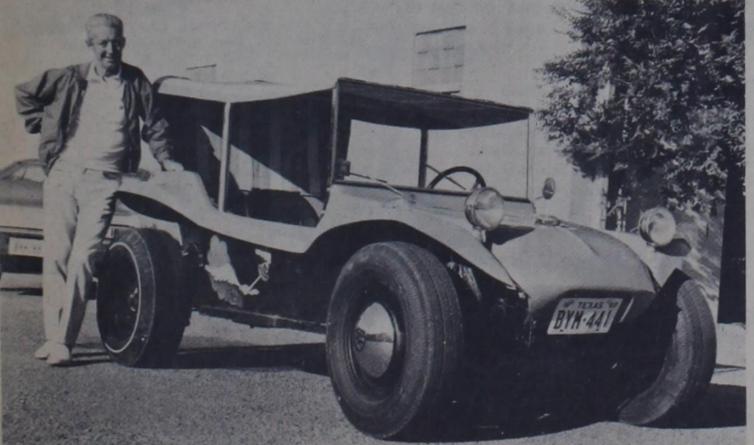

Funeral is held for Alberto Jaso

Funeral services were held Monday for Alberto Jaso, 49, a former Dimmitt resident who died last Thursday in the Veterans Hospital in Big Spring.

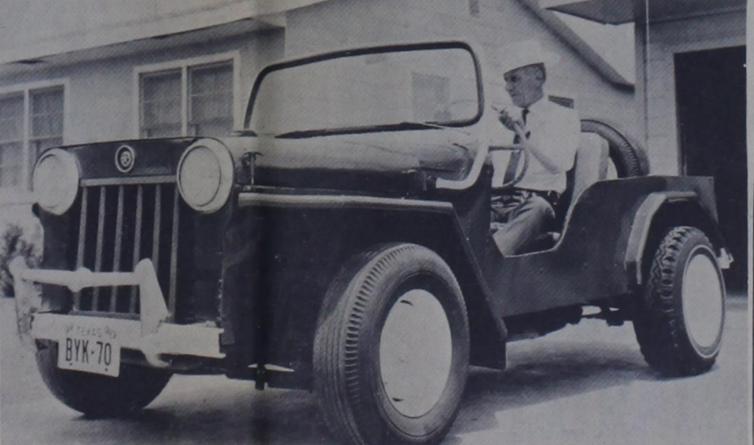

MR. JASO was born July 4, 1919, and had been living in Merton as a retired laborer. He had been ill for some time.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Jasinta Jaso of Hart; two brothers, two sisters and 11 children.

Services were conducted in the Church of God on East Halsell Street Monday afternoon. Burial was in Castro Memorial Gardens under the direction of Dennis Funeral Home.

Sheffy's chatter

June is 'busting out' with green fields, bright flowers

By MYRTLE SHEFFY
"June is here," and what is so rare as a day in June? The roses have it, "so they are flaunting it," as the ad says - and driving in the country the crops are fine. The maize and corn are a foot high, and I could go on and on but you go see!

ALL THE college kids are home - can't tell who all, hundreds I guess. I saw my friend Ginger Kemp mowing the grass, riding the thing of course. She is from Baylor. Beth Sheffy, the granddaughter, is home and Kathy Graham is a nurse and plans to work at our hospital this summer. She is the daughter of Bill and Katy. The girls went to Littlefield to pick up their aunt Henry McMurry who came by bus that far, from Marlowe, Okla. Henry is Mrs. Bill Graham Sr.'s sister. The Ted Sheffy's son Graham went back to his Marine base at San Diego after a 20-day visit in Dimmitt. Jimmy and Garland Frazier left here this week with Wade English and his combines to harvest wheat at Vernon now, then on to South Texas.

MANY PEOPLE went off on weekend trips. J. R. and Mary Jo Brown have bought a houseboat and went up to Conchos Lake. The Joe Carvers and George Elders took Joe's new boat and went over to Ute Lake or Conchos. Carl Lee and Boo Kemp and her cousins the Jimmy Callihans of Amarillo went to Ruidoso for the weekend. Young Carl Callihan, stayed with Grandma Louise.

The Gene Smiths went up to Ute Lake and Dr. and Mrs. David Bechtol and girls went to Conchos I think. They also visited Mary's brother and family at Los Alamos as well.

I talked to Frank Welch. He is working with Dr. Bechtol. He said Mike Hutton and Danny George made a business trip to Ruidoso but are home now.

Mr. and Mrs. Randy Small and three children have a house on a pickup truck. They left here Thursday for a trip through Missouri. The Smalls moved to the Brooks house on South Eighth St.

MR. AND MRS. Russel Moran went to Waco to attend the graduation exercises for daughter Pat, who plans to teach school. Scott will be home.

Glen Boozer also received his BA from Texas Tech. He is a brother to Monty.

Bob and Helen McLean are coming home this week from a nice sightseeing trip to Hawaii. Their children Robert and wife Roxie and son Charles went along.

Johnny Webb helped his dad cook wieners and all the trimmings for his sixth grade class one night recently. Probably 20 boys and girls and their teacher Paul Frye enjoyed this party. Paul will teach Head Start this summer.

Do remember to see the Little League and Pony League baseball games. They have double headers and the mothers serve food so go have supper with them.

Reba and Jay Lee Touchstone are hosts this week to her son from Dallas.

MR. AND MRS. G. L. Willis Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Joe Butler and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gilbreath spent a few days at the Willis Ranch near Springer. Scenes the ranch has three or four houses where guests can put up or I should say "bunk up."

I heard that Allan Webb is going to summer school at Tech in Lubbock and Cecilia Vandiver will go to A&M and stay with the Elroy Ottos, former Dimmitt teachers and their daughter Vikki who is a friend. Mary Hays will go back to Baylor and Sue Lust will work at Dimmitt Wheat Growers this summer. She is a student at WTSU. And Kathy Graham will be a nurse at Plains Memorial Hospital.

I hear that John Hays will work on his folks ranch north of Hereford. Jim has all his sons at work at the implement house - David, Doug and Norman. Rich and Jackson will help dig ditches. Larry Gamble is working with John Aldredge. Coach Don Parker received another degree from WT SU, a BS I think.

Juanella Conard, daughter of Tex and Norma goes back to Hardin-Simmons at Abilene. She will work at the business research office part time.

Darla Underwood and Patty Simpson will attend summer school at WTSU. They will room together.

Darla Kay is working at the News office this summer helping with news stories and pictures. She plans to go into journalism.

Carla Robertson is attending summer school at Tech. She will play in the All-Star basketball game at Duncanville this summer too.

Janice Mooney is working at First State Bank. Debi Musick is working at Foodway and Vickie Lawson is working at the Labor Survey office. Sharon Barker is working part-time at Carver's Pharmacy.

Cantu of Dallas have been visiting her mother Mrs. Joseina Martinez and brothers Johnny, David and sister Janie.

Patsy and Von Keenon and three boys of Phoenix have been visiting her sister Anita and Cob Adams. They also visited their kin the L. W. Keenons at Hart. All these folks and the Dean Bryants of Hereford went on this week to Conchos Lake to fish, ski and swim. They will live there on the big houseboat "The Conchos Queen," owned by Dean.

The Horace Carliles and Clarence Eardens were also guests at the Jimmy Dean open house at his meat packing company in Plainview. Gov. Smith is a long-time friend of the Carliles.

Elsie Ulloa is visiting friends and kin at Junction, that town is in the Hill Country - a pretty place!

Roy and Suzie Ellis flew up to Meade, Kan., to check on the trailer house business. I believe they stopped off to see his folks.

Eldon and Clotee Minchew and their son Charles and Linda from Hereford attended the Powell family reunion Sunday.

THE FRANK LATIMERS spent the Memorial Day holiday with relatives in Higgins.

Vadabell Oldham of El Paso was here visiting her daughter Verbie Nelson and family this week. Don, who is president of the Jaycees, and a group went to San Angelo on business over the weekend.

The Rayphard Smithsons spent the weekend with her folks at Shamrock.

I saw Dicky Dyer at church. He is home for a few days with his folks Goldman and Carol Dyer. Dicky is with an engineering firm in Dallas.

Dr. Robert Monk of Lubbock was the guest speaker at the Methodist Church Sunday morning.

His wife Carolyn and girls and his mother came with him. Carolyn was a Parker girl and lived in Dimmitt when a small girl. Rev. Jim Pickens and Rev. Monk went back to Lubbock to annual conference.

Jimmy Dean Wyer has been quite ill for several weeks. She is at Parkland Hospital in Dallas for treatment. May be back in Dimmitt soon. Her daughter Sunny Randolph of Earth is with her.

SID AND I and the Kenneth Jacksons went to Dallas Monday to attend our granddaughter Sunk Bond's graduation exercises from Mesquite High School. We also visited Dorothy and Bill Bond.

Ray and Lottie Bearden went to Port Neches for a few days visit with their daughter Yvonne and family.

went to Snyder Sunday morning to get their son Cleve, who was visiting his grandmother Mrs. Pete Machlinger. His home is with his mother in Waco. He will visit here this summer.

The Troy Langfords have gone fishing some place. We will ask them where later.

Rev. Mitch Kennedy, the Presbyterian minister was guest speaker at the First United Methodist Church Sunday evening. Rev. Jim Pickens listened and all of us shared in the program presented by the Vacation Bible School children. They did some beautiful singing led by Gay Minnick. Carolyn Sides was the director of the school and probably 25 young matrons worked at teaching Methodist and Presbyterians the Bible and the songs.

THE COME and stay shower and party for Debbie Vaughn at Sunnyside was fun. I saw so many people that we don't see often.

Peggy Ott is home from Baylor University at Waco. She received her BA degree in elementary education and plans to visit this summer. You will hear more about that. Peggy is the daughter of the Bob Ott's, who did live north of town but now live in Sunnyside. She was a Miss Dimmitt contestant one time. I also saw Mrs. H. H. Hamilton of north of Earth. She is the grandmother of Carol Bryant. I met Mrs. Turner, the pastor's wife. She teaches school here. She took over for Mrs. Jones Hedrick, who is the mother of a new baby. Jones teaches and is a coach. Mrs. Turner comes from around Fredrick and Hollister, Okla. I am from Eldorado, near there.

Mrs. R. V. Bills, Debbie and Larry drove over to Dallas where Larry will enter an electronic school. They went to make arrangements for living there after June 14.

JO AND DOLL Smith were the honorees at a reception in their Flagg ranch home Sunday afternoon. It was their 25th wedding anniversary hosted by nephew Bob and Martha Myers and daughter Madelyn Holt and David, and Jo Ann Smith.

Martha was at the guest book and Madelyn, Jo Ann and cousins Jean and Jim Smith served the white cake from a pretty table covered with lace. Joe and Dell received many nice gifts. Out-of-town guests were Joe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Smith, a sister Mrs. Lillian Brown of Plainview, a brother J. H. Smith, Jean and Jim of Amarillo. Doll's mother Mrs. H. A. Williams and a sister Madelyn Myers of Amarillo, Bob and Mildred Sheffy of Hereford, Don and June Gladman of Plainview, Mr. and Mrs. Gomie Roundtree and Lisy Ann of Hereford, Billy Scale, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Crammer and Marvin and Janice Axe and girls of Vega and dozens of Dimmitt friends and also Mrs. Johnny Holt of Lubbock.

So, a knowledge of the Bible becomes the most important knowledge of all. That knowledge comes only through study. The haphazard reading of a few verses of Scripture every day is better than nothing, but it is not real Bible study. It is simply nibbling at the truth and does little toward building us up.

Our vacation Bible school will be held next week, June 8-13 at 8:00 p.m. nightly. Men and women who are good students of the Bible themselves have made long and prayerful preparations for teaching the theme "Jesus loves me." This school furnishes an opportunity for children and adults to gain greater knowledge of God's wonderful Book. We invite and urge you to attend.

THE PROFESSIONAL PHOTOGRAPHER gives careful thought and study to lighting his subject. Contrasts must be right and reflections must be right to achieve the best effects. Individuals' lives reflect how they think and what they believe. Our lives count most, when we attend church regularly and walk in the light of the Lord.

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

... With Joan Braafladt, alternate

Delores Wilke is Girls Stater

Delores Wilke, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilke, will attend Bluebonnet Girls State at St. Edward's University in Austin June 10-20.

MISS WILKE has been a twirler in the Bobcat Band, a member of the Bobbies basketball team, reporter for Future Homemakers, a member of Future Teachers, and a member of the National Honor Society. She was also a candidate for Basketball Queen and she was crowned Football Queen for 1964-65.

Miss Wilke is sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary and co-sponsored by the Jaycees, Rotary Club, Lions Club and the Kiwanis Club.

Joan Braafladt, a senior in Dimmitt High School, was chosen as Miss Wilke's alternate.

Representatives are selected by various procedures after a student is recommended by her school on the basis of leadership, character, scholarship and physical fitness.

THE MORE than 450 girls who attend the '69 session will study and actively participate in the state government, as these are structured in Texas. The girls are divided into two political parties so they may learn about the American democratic system.

After a form of city government is chosen, the girls will file for city, county and state offices. Upon election, the state officials are "inaugurated" at the Texas Capitol, where their real counterparts will escort them to their inauguration.

The entire group will tour the state legislative chambers and the governor's mansion. During one day, the citizens will conduct their own legislative sessions within the Capitol chambers.

IN THE 1968 session of Girls State, Sherry Clements of Plainview was elected governor, and Sharon Flynt of Dimmitt was lieutenant governor.

Representatives to Girls Nation will also be chosen during this session.

Clayton lauds legislature's water, conservation measures

"I think history will prove that we have passed more meaningful legislation in the field of water resource development, pollution and conservation than any session of the Legislature ever has," Rep. Bill Clayton of Springlake said as the 61st Texas Legislature wound up its session Monday.

Bill Clayton

DISTRICT 72 representative attributed much of the constructive legislation to Speaker Gus Mutscher's recognition of the state's problems and his allowing members full privileges of the House floor for a full hearing of their bills. Clayton added that Speaker Mutscher has added his support to all water development bills for the state.

Clayton has served as the author, co-author, subcommittee chairman or conference committee member of every major piece of water legislation that has been considered by the Legislature since 1963. He has served as a member of the Committee on Conservation and Reclamation since he started as a freshman member that year.

Clayton said District 72 leads the nation in cotton and grain sorghum, cattle feeding, slaughtered cattle and all-irrigated agriculture.

"BEING from a district whose people understand the value of water conservation to agriculture and agricultural-based industry, I am trying to serve the best interests of my constituents in my work for water legislation," he said.

He is the author of House Joint Resolution 9, which increases the authorized amount of Texas Water Development Bonds to $3.5 billion, the largest bond issue ever passed by the legislature. It will be submitted for a vote by the people Aug. 5. The four-term Representative has carried 27 bills in the House this session, most of which were passed into law by the time the session closed. His bills are about equally divided between local and statewide interests.

IN ADDITION to his work in water legislation, Clayton has served on the Urban Affairs Committee for four terms and is a member of the Committee on State Affairs. He was appointed by the speaker as chairman of the Committee on Livestock and is also serving on the Elections Committee.

'Enzyme action' could be adverse

Enzymes concentrated from such as those present in some laundry products may have an irritating effect on the skin.

ALTHOUGH the enzyme concentration in the laundry products is low, some people may be hypersensitive to the enzymes and develop an allergy when exposed either to enzymatic detergent solutions or to clothes washed in them, reports Linda Jacobsen, Extension home management specialist.

If such a problem develops, she suggests you see your dermatologist and revert to a non-enzyme detergent.

Coin laundries - less expensive?

If a household washes less than five loads of laundry a week, it saves money to use self-service, coin-operated machines, according to Doris Myers, Extension home management specialist.

LAUNDERING costs in the coin-mats are lower today than 10 years ago, she adds. A decade ago, coin-operated laundries charged 20 cents for eight pounds - or 2½ cents a pound. Today's larger more efficient equipment makes laundry cost about 1½ cents a pound.

For self-service dry cleaning, several dollars can be saved on every eight-pound load, according to National Automatic Laundry and Cleaning Council figures.

BY USING self-service dry cleaners and following recommended procedures, a large percent of all stains found on garments will be removed, notes the specialist. But some stains, especially those that become "set," can never be removed without damaging the fabric.

Spotting spray used in coin-op dry cleaning establishments will assist in the removal of water soluble soil, but circumstances such as the age of the stain, type of fabric, dye and unusual stains may require chemical treatment by a professional, Mrs. Myers states.

Now's the time to spot trouble in grain fields

Grain sorghum is making good growth in South Texas, and so will be in the northern areas of the state. It's important that farmers get out and see what's occurring in their fields and determine what sort of disease control measures to use for the coming year says Dr. C. Wendell Horne, Extension plant pathologist at Texas A&M University.

TWO DISEASES that could cause trouble are downy mildew and maize dwarf mosaic virus. Downy mildew is characterized by down, or a fuzzy type of growth, on the underside of the leaf surface. Stripping of young plants occurs when the plant is systemically infected. Infection causing this symptom occurs in the soil. Plants that are systemically infected are sterile and will not produce a normal seed head Horne said.

The fungus carrying downy mildew is carried over from season to season in the soil. One helpful control measure is rotating with a non-related crop. You can also grow resistant or tolerant plants added the pathologist. All county agents have a list of the hybrid or varieties that are resistant to the disease.

MAIZE DWARF mosaic virus requires a living host at all times. It is carried over from season to season in rhizomes of Johnson grass. Shoots of the Johnson grass come out in the spring before grain sorghum is planted. Aphids feed on these shoots, and then migrate to the grain sorghum, carrying the virus.

Elimination of the Johnson grass is an effective control measure of the virus in some areas, said Horne. Tolerant hybrids should be planted. Information on these are available from the county agent.

While checking the field, watch for other diseases, such as head-smut, anthracnose, and various seedling diseases. These are all causes for concern

June is 'Dairy Month'

By IRENE KEATING
The Dimmitt 4-H girls have been meeting and doing their 4-H clothing projects. They are making blouses and dresses depending upon their age group.

JUNE IS known as Dairy Month. All of us know that milk is essential in our diets. It provides us with calcium, thiamine, and protein in addition to vitamin D.

Let's make a pledge to see that each family member gets his or her required amount of milk each day. Remember that cheese, ice cream, etc. give us some milk. For recipes that use milk pick up the bulletin "Good Milk for Good Meals."

The USDA Consumer and Marketing Service also has some interesting milk recipes I'll share with you this week.

Incorporate sweetened condensed milk in this recipe for Crispy Bread Sticks - Slice day-old white bread 3/4 inch thick, remove crusts and cut into strips 3/4 inch wide. Dip sticks in sweetened condensed milk, covering well, then train on waxed paper or cake rack. Roll in shredded coconut or finely chopped nut meats. Put on lightly greased baking sheet. Bake on top shelf in 350 degree oven until lightly browned, about 15 minutes. Serve hot or cold.

PEANUT CLUSTERS - For 26 clusters, 1 and 3/4 inches in diameter, melt 1/2 pound sweet chocolate in top of double boiler over boiling water. Remove from heat. Add two-thirds cup sweetened condensed milk and 1 cup whole peanuts. Mix well. Drop by teaspoonfuls onto buttered sheet or plate. Chill several hours.

MAGIC FRUIT CREAM SAUCE - for cottage pudding or ginger bread. For 2 cups sauce, combine two-thirds cup sweetened condensed milk and 3 tablespoons lemon juice. Stir until mixture thickens. Add 1 cup fruit, such as drained crushed pineapple, sliced strawberries, fresh raspberries or cubed bananas. Blend well, add cold water by tablespoonfuls until of desired consistency.

Homemade Fresh Strawberry Ice Cream made with an ice cream freezer. For 1 1/2 quarts, sweeten 1 quart crushed ripe strawberries to taste with sugar. Let stand until sugar dissolves. Combine 1 and one-third cups sweetened condensed milk, 1 cup light cream or evaporated milk and 1 cup cold water. Add strawberries. Chill. Freeze in 2 quart freezer as directed.

Buttermilk's cultured quality brightens mealtime fare with refreshing goodness. Try it in this Creamy Low-Cal Buttermilk Dressing for tossed salads. For 3 cups dressing, sieve 2 cups cottage cheese or mix in a blender until smooth and creamy. Stir in 1 cup buttermilk, 1 tablespoon red wine vinegar, 2 tablespoons chopped parsley and 3/4 teaspoon seasoned salt. Keeps well covered in refrigerator at least two weeks.

WHIPPED Buttermilk-Horseradish Sauce for roast beef entree. For 1 1/2 pints of sauce, whip 2 cups heavy cream until very stiff but smooth. Fold in 1 cup buttermilk, 4 to 6 tablespoons horseradish sauce, as desired, 1 teaspoon salt and a dash of cayenne. Serve at once.

DIETER'S Buttermilk Delight - Combine equal amounts chilled buttermilk and vegetable-tomato juice. It's a party drink for summer afternoons, too.

Match that, anybody. We give you an honest increase in car at an honest decrease in price. Take the '69 Impala above. We improved the ride. Made it quieter inside. Added an anti-theft locking device. Put steel guard rails in the doors. Still, this Impala with a 300-hp V8, Turbo Hydra-matic, advanced-design power disc brakes, head restraints, whitewalls and wheel covers is priced $101* less than in 1968. The 300-hp V8 is priced $40 less than last year's 275-hp. Turbo Hydra-matic costs less. Power disc brakes about half as much. Whitewalls a little less. Wheel covers about the same. And head restraints are now standard. Upping value and dropping price. That's the way Chevrolet operates. Putting you first, keeps us first.

Farm mechanics' shortage severe

Help wanted: 2,000 qualified farm machinery mechanics to begin work immediately. THAT'S THE call from repair shops throughout Texas, a plea that will get louder because of an expected need for more than 7,000 farm machinery mechanics within the next five years, according to Dr. Earl S. Webb, professor of agricultural education at Texas A&M University.

"Unless steps are taken to meet this need, unrepaid farm machinery could cause a creeping paralysis of agricultural operations," Webb says.

A survey of farm machinery service department managers, just completed by Webb, verifies this shortage and outlines what is needed of individuals for employment as machinery mechanics. Webb made the study to determine what should be taught to high school students as preparation for this career.

TWO OF THE reasons Webb cites as causes for the current shortage of machinery mechanics have been the lack of a training program for the job and the increasing complexity of the equipment to be repaired.

Many farmers who previously doubled as machinery mechanics, providing a good source of workers, find it more difficult to perform repair on today's machinery. The limited source of mechanics has caused businesses to pirate employees from their competitors, and the automobile industry to entice mechanics from farm machinery repair.

Wages for machinery mechanics average about $2.50 per hour statewide, below that of most skilled laborers, Webb pointed out. An average work week is 48 hours, ranging from 44 to 54 hours, and unskilled machinery mechanics usually begin at about $1.50 an hour. Thus, wages have also had an effect on the shortage, Webb said.

ACTION IS being taken, however, to help eliminate this shortage, Webb added. In 1966, the Texas Education Agency set up a "Pre-employment Laboratory Program in Farm Machinery Service and Repair" for junior and senior secondary students. All instruction is given in the schools using facilities similar to commercial repair shops. About 35 Texas schools — including Dimmitt High — are now offering this program.

Webb's survey was conducted to aid this program by accumulating suggestions from farm machinery service departments on courses of study needed to prepare students for this career. Survey information will be used to construct a more adequate curriculum of training, Webb explained.

Another approach to the problem is a cooperative program in which the student spends a half day working in a commercial shop and one hour studying related subjects in the classroom.

FROM HIS study, Webb found that farm machinery shop managers wanted, most of all, employees who have a high mechanical aptitude and who can work well with customers. Also high on the list were the ability to read and interpret repair manuals, efficient use of tools and general knowledge of making repairs.

"In these times when machines are getting more expensive and more technical all the time and so few young men are pursuing this field of training, we desperately need a source of young men who are intelligent and who have a basic knowledge of mechanics so that we have replacements for older men who are retiring or who cannot keep up with technical advances that are being made in farm equipment," replied one manager in Webb's survey.

"To meet the demand of qualified farm machinery mechanics, we are going to have to accelerate our training programs in the schools, or else the companies will have to set up their own programs," Webb concluded.

Vets' officer here outlines GI Bill's three-year record

Sunday was the third anniversary of the post-Korean GI Bill education and training program.

DURING the past three years more than 1,148,000 veterans and 83,000 servicemen nationwide entered training under this program, Mrs. Mary Flynt, Castro County Veterans service officer, said.

In Texas, more than 68,739 veterans and servicemen entered training during the past three years, both in college and below the college level.

This spring more than 33,454 veterans in Texas were enrolled in training. This is an all-time high for the three-year-old post-Korean GI Bill, Mrs. Flynt said. More than 21,770 were enrolled in institutions of higher learning.

April bond sales hit $4,588 here

During April the sale of US Savings Bonds and Freedom Shares in Castro County totaled $4,588, according to county chairman Raymond Wilson.

THE January-April sales were $26,798 which is 45 percent of the 1969 goal of $60,000.

Texas sales during April totaled $15,932,089 compared with $16,729,456 during April of 1968. Year-to-date sales totaled $62,659,465, which is $176.5 million.

Total April sales of E and H Bonds and Freedom Shares over the nation totaled $411 million, 1 percent over April 1968. Total January-April sales of $1,657 million were 5 percent under last year's first four months.

TO BE eligible for post-Korean GI Bill education and training from VA, a veteran must have had at least 181 days of service, part of which was after Jan. 31, 1965, and have received a discharge other than dishonorable, Mrs. Flynt said.

A recent change gives a veteran 1 1/2 months of educational entitlement for each month of service, with a maximum of 36 months' entitlement. Veterans eligible under two or more VA programs may have a total entitlement of 48 months' education.

Veterans who have not completed high school may receive full VA educational assistance while earning their high school diploma without having any of this time charged to their maximum entitlement to college training, Mrs. Flynt emphasized.

MRS. FLYNT reminded post-Korean and Vietnam era veterans that they must complete their training by May 31, 1974, or eight years after separation from service, whichever is later.

The Castro County Veterans Service Office is located at 114 W. Bedford St.

ONE COTTON bale provides fiber for 250 sheets or 650 shirts.

Sewing with cool, summery fabrics like cotton voile, dotted swiss, or cotton eyelet, calls for a little extra care with seams. They should be as invisible as possible, neat and narrow. The French seam is the best choice. Check sewing books for exact instructions for stitching this seam.

'New Orleans diary'

By MRS. LAURENCE McLAIN

Hart's graduating seniors and their sponsors left at 8 a.m. Saturday, May 17, via TNM&O bus enroute to New Orleans, La., where they were to spend four fun-filled days.

THE FIRST stop for the group of 41 was made in Dallas, where we ate dinner at the Zuder Zee, picked up the bus driver, Tom Trout, who was to accompany us throughout the remainder of the trip, and then visited the Wax Museum and midway at State Fair Park. All agreed that the wax museum was one of the highlights of the trip.

At 6 p.m., we left Dallas enroute to Shreveport, La., arriving there at approximately 11 p.m., the group decided to go bowling. Leaving Shreveport around 1:30 a.m., we headed for New Orleans. By this time most of the students were tired and sleepy, so the rest of the trip was quiet and uneventful, with only the whine of the wheels, the whir of the windshield wipers and an occasional snore from the passengers to keep the driver company.

Daybreak found us approaching New Orleans. As the fog broke, one could glimpse what seemed to be acres of water in the marshes and bayous that lined the road, and everywhere the magnolia trees, azaleas and bougainvilleas were growing and blooming profusely. What a lovely greeting to a lovely, historic city!

WE ARRIVED at the Pountown Motor Inn eager to add our footprints to those of Jean Lafitte's, Andrew Jackson's, Mark Twain's and the other historically famous, who have traveled Canal and Bourbon Streets in ages past.

After a meeting with the sponsors at 8:45, the seniors divided, some to attend worship services, some to swim and others to rest. At 3 p.m. we re-assembled and traveled out to the beautiful Lake Ponchartraine, passing by New Orleans' unique cemeteries, whose mausoleum burial sites are all built above ground of beautiful white and gray stones. At the lake, time was spent on the midway rides, sightseeing and walking.

Sunday night found a tired group who decided to get to bed at a reasonable hour.

MONDAY we left the motel at 10 a.m. and went down to the "Mighty Mississippi," where we boarded a riverboat called the "Mark Twain" for a scenic five-hour cruise.

Sailing down the river, we saw ships of other nations waiting to load and unload their cargo; river barges loaded with oil, shells, bananas, etc.; colonial homes along the river front, the Texaco Company's big industry; a glimpse of the SAC Base, formed by building levees around a big bayou and pumping it dry, so that the runways, etc. could be built.

We sailed through the locks, where we were lowered seven feet going downstream, and raised by that much as we returned upstream. We saw seaplanes lighting and taking off on the river waters. We saw draw bridges which were lifted straight up in the air to allow us to pass underneath, and another that turned on its base to let the ships pass.

We went downstream to the spot once rendezvoused with his cohorts. With the Spanish moss draped mournfully down the arms and trunks of the cypress trees, and the birds twittering along the bank, one could almost lose himself in yesterday. This was truly a great experience.

MONDAY night the entire group went down town to the famous French Quarter. When you pass from the beautifully lighted Canal Street, where there is room for eight lanes of traffic, into the dimly lit, narrow streets of old New Orleans, you can envision yourself in another world as you stroll along the streets where horse-drawn carriages go sauntering past.

You see artists busy at their canvases, inebrates lying unconscious on the sidewalks, a motor cyclist zooming by, and sightseers such as yourself with mouths a-gape. Shop windows beautifully display their wares of clothing, china, gorgeous ornate antiques, fine linens, or just simple knick-knacks.

You can hear the sounds of tin-pan pianos and banjos or Dixieland jazz bars, or the plaintive strains of folk music. You see the trolley cars as they make their way along the line. You see some of the most beautiful wrought iron-work surrounding upper-story verandas, patios and court yards and covering window after window — and you know it speaks of another, grander and nobler era.

MANY OF the streets are made of stone which was used as ballast in ships coming from Belgium and calling for cargo at New Orleans.

Tuesday morning found most of us sleeping in until about 10 a.m., and then busily sorting clothes, writing letters, visiting, swimming and getting organized. In the afternoon, we visited again the fabulous French Quarter to see and shop, and also to see the French Market, with its many products on display. Just back of the beautiful Jackson Square here in the Quarter rose the majestic spires of the St. Louis Cathedral. A glimpse at the Cathedral's exquisite interior left one breathless.

TUESDAY NIGHT some ate shrimp Creole at the Cafe de Crepes, and sat listening to the wonderful Dixieland jazz, which is part and parcel of New Orleans. Others ate at a Pizzeria, and returned to visit around the pool, and others went to a movie after supper at a nearby cafeteria.

WEDNESDAY morning found everyone busily packing. We were checked out of our rooms by 1 and the afternoon was spent seeing various parts of New Orleans. As we again gathered at Jackson Square, we found quite an assembly of "hippies." Visiting with, listening to and observing these people was quite an experience for us.

We saw the movie, "Support Your Local Sheriff," and bid adieu to New Orleans at midnight.

We arrived at Dallas at 8 a.m., where we picked up a relief driver. We ate lunch at Seymour and presented out two birthday boys, Gary Cole and co-sponsor Laurence McLain, with individual birthday cakes as we sang "Happy Birthday."

We arrived back in good old Hart at 5:40 p.m., a tired but happy group.

WE SHALL be forever grateful to our community for making this dream a reality, knowing that in all the years ahead it shall hold an honored place in our book of treasured memories — a time set apart from all the rest when we said goodbye to boyhood and girlhood, and reached forth to greet manhood and womanhood, with all the responsibilities that are therein.

NEW STYLES in men's shirts show the wide-reaching effect of the Thirties on the fashion world. Shirts have bigger collars and are worn with wider ties. Moreover, the outlook calls for lots of color. In both cotton dress shirts and sports styles, designers are featuring blue, pink, yellow, spruce green, and reds from melon to mulberry.

Miss Gragg weds John R. Samford

The First Presbyterian Church of Amarillo was the setting for the wedding last Thursday evening of Miss Glynda Gragg of Hart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Gragg of 3212 Milam St., Amarillo, and John Robert Samford of Morton.

Rev. Gordon Smith of Sea-graves officiated at the double-ring ceremony, assisted by Dr. James R. Carrol, minister.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of peau de soie accented with Venice lace and fashioned with a court train. A coil of floral medallions and lace secured her bouffant veil of illusion. She carried a white prayer book crested with stephanotis and centered with an orchid.

Miss Vickie Gragg of Dallas, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Jim Terry of Lubbock was best man. Ushers were John Stockdale and Joe Bowers of Morton, David Bowers of Lorenzo and Ernest Chessa of Lubbock.

A reception in the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. Upon their return from a wedding trip to New Mexico, the newlyweds will be at home at 3002 Fourth Ave., Apt. 67, Lubbock.

The bride is a graduate of Baylor University, where she was a member of Athenian Club, and is a teacher in Hart Elementary School.

Samford, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don L. Samford of Morton, is a May graduate of Texas Tech.

Here are some cleaning tips for stylish leather-like cottons. Leathery vinyl with a cotton backing should be cleaned with a sudsy sponge. Cotton leather that has a silicone finish comes in washable versions and can be dry-cleaned as well.

Cotton fabrics are ideal sewing choices for the popular shirtwaist dress. Easy to sew and comfortable to wear, the classic shirtwaist is suitable for all ages and sizes. For a dressy version, choose fabrics like cotton organdy or romantic cotton lace. For sporty looks, make up the shirtwaist in cotton oxford cloth or printed sailcloth.

MRS. GENE SPARKS
... Formerly Anita Cameron

Students exchange vows by candlelight

In a formal candlelight ceremony Sunday afternoon at the First Baptist Church in Hereford, Miss Anita Emily Cameron became the bride of Gene Sparks.

REV. GERALD MANN officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Cameron of Nazareth are the parents of the bride. Sparks is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Sparks of Hereford.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of imported crepe, trimmed with three-dimensional Venice lace at the bodice. The long sleeves, also of Venice lace, came to a point. The gown's detachable train was chapel length, with appliques of Venice lace. The gown was accented by a finger-tip veil, secured by a coil of organza, lace and pearls.

THE BRIDE carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and stephanotis, centered with a white Catalpa orchid.

Mrs. Anthony Mays of Dimmitt was the matron of honor. Vicki Aze and Betsy Simpson, both of Dimmitt, served as bridesmaids. They wore formal length gowns of apricot Dacron crepe, trimmed with imported lace. The headpieces, also apricot, were veils of tulle attached to bows. They carried white carnations with apricot satin bows and streamers.

Best man was Daryl Plank of Houston. Johnny Sparks, brother of the groom, and Dennis Latham of Hereford served as groomsmen. Gary Goodin and Jimmy Childers of Hereford, and Louis Martinez of Amarillo seated guests.

JERRY AND TERRY Sparks, brothers of the groom, were the candlelighters.

The central decoration was an arched candelabra holding white cathedral tapers. It was flanked on each side with spiral candelabra and brass stands containing white carnations and apricot gladioli.

Wedding music was provided by Robert Bell of Hereford, organist, and Miss Shary Kerbel of Canyon, soloist, who sang "More," "The Twelfth of Never" and "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception followed the ceremony in fellowship hall of the church, where a four-tiered cake was served from a white lace-covered table. The cake was on a mirror, and small heart-shaped cakes were at each corner.

FOR TRAVELING, the bride chose an apricot Dacron knit suit with a tunic top, and beige accessories. After the wedding trip to Colorado Springs, the couple will be at home at 1904 Howard, Apt. 3, in Amarillo.

The bride is a 1963 graduate of Dimmitt High School, and is a student at West Texas State. The groom is also a student at WTSU, and is currently employed by Illinois-California Express in Amarillo.

Solve the Case of the Disappearing Sock by trying this laundry method: keep a cotton drawing string mesh bag near the washing machine. When you sort the wash, drop all-cotton socks in the bag. After washing, take out those without mates or with unremendable holes, and use as polishing cloths.

Quilted cotton pads will protect your mattress and insure its long life. Choose an all-cotton mattress pad with quilting stitches that are closely spaced. Cotton pads are highly absorbent, a must for keeping a mattress fresh. And the closer the quilting pattern in a pad the more durable it will be.

J. R. BROWN TRIES SKIPPER'S CHAIR OF REMODELED HOUSEBOAT ... The craft passed its "cruise test" over the weekend

Old houseboat converted to nice 'floating cabin'

J. R. Brown has been getting ready for summer by rebuilding a houseboat. THE BOAT originally was on Ute Lake, N.M., a few years ago, and got loose from the dock. The former owner had stored the craft in a barn after recovering it, and made no repairs. The boat remained in the barn for about two years, where rodents and birds did their part in its deterioration. But now, Brown has the houseboat looking new again.

Brown started his work about 2 1/2 months ago, and is now finished with his repairs. He has done repairs and redecoration on the inside, with the help of his wife, Mary Jo, and it now has a self-contained butane stove, an icebox, running water, electricity, a chemical toilet and a radio. It will sleep six, and the interior is finished in blue and white. THE OUTSIDE features a sun-deck on top, a small forward deck and rear deck.

Brown said that the only major problem he had while working was curious people in and out of the boat at all times. The Browns had their boat on Lake Conchas Sunday, and Brown said it performs very well, and that the family "enjoyed it very much." The boat is now docked at Lake Conchas, and the Browns are looking forward to many weekends of fun this summer on their "floating cabin."

SCENE FROM 'TEXAS' PAGEANT IN PALO DURO CANYON
... Summer run will begin June 27 in Pioneer Amphitheatre

'Texas' cast warms up

Actors, dancers, singers and technicians gathered Sunday to begin a month of rehearsals for the fourth season of the "Texas" production — the musical drama of Texas history by Paul Green, which plays during the summer in Palo Duro Canyon State Park.

THE CAST and crew includes people trained in more than 17 colleges and universities. They hail from five states, and have studied with numerous private instructors.

Rehearsals in the early stages are taking place in the Branding Iron Theatre in the Fine Arts Building on the campus of WTSU in Canyon, and performers in the "Texas" production receive summer theatre credits at the University.

After some opening comments from the officers of the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation and the staff of "Texas," the cast started its month of rehearsals — eight hours a day, 6½ days a week.

THESE rehearsals have two purposes. One is to prepare polished performances, and the second is to build up enough endurance in the cast members so that actors can run the great distances backstage at the Pioneer Amphitheatre and reach their places on the stage without being breathless.

The fourth season of "Texas" will open June 27 and run through Sept. 1.

For tickets and information, write to "Texas," Box 268, Canyon, Texas, 79015.

46 boys take tractor course; 33 are certified

Forty-six boys 14 to 16 years old enrolled in the public tractor-driving course in Dimmitt last week, and 33 of them graduated.

ALL 46 BOYS passed their written exam, but 13 of them failed the difficult driving test.

The course was sponsored by the County Technical Action Panel, Dimmitt High School vocational agriculture department and Extension Service Programs Building Committee.

The boys who received their certificates are now exempt from certain provisions of the Child Labor Law, and are allowed to operate a tractor for an employer. Without this training, they would have to be at least 16, under provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act.

THE 13 BOYS who did not receive their certificates will have another chance June 11. These boys passed their written tests, but failed to negotiate a tractor with a two-wheel implement through a turnabout course that included backing up 60 feet with only a six-inch clearance on each side.

Enrollment included one boy from Deaf Smith County, one from New Mexico and 44 from Dimmitt, Hart and Nazareth.

A similar course is being planned in Hereford, and Dimmitt instructors said that another course would be organized here if 20 or more boys want to take it.

CLASSROOM instructors for the course were John Quinby, Marvin Cepica and David Hays. Outside instructors were Charles Hotel and David Springer.

Several of the boys had summer jobs lined up before taking the course, and four of them have been placed in summer jobs by the Texas Employment Commission so far, according to Glenn Gripp, local TEC office manager.

'Snap-back clause' in spotlight as Senate studies $20,000 limit

The House of Representatives passed the Agriculture Appropriations Bill for fiscal 1970 last week, and in so doing, attached a rider limiting the amount of payments under the cotton, feed grain and wheat payments in 1970 to $20,000 per farmer.

THIS amendment was subject to a great deal of debate and is very important in its application to West Texas farmers, Panhandle Congressman Bob Price said.

"I opposed the amendment together with the leadership on both sides of the aisle in the House, in the Appropriations Committee, and in the Agriculture Committee," Price said. "I felt this was not the time or the place to attach the amendment of such importance to farmers throughout the district and our state."

"Since the limitation would trigger debate, I think you will be interested in some of the ramifications of the House action. When the bill is considered in the Senate, the effect of the so-called 'snap-back clause' will be of prime consideration."

THE 'SNAP-BACK clause' is Section 103, D12 of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended in 1965, and in essence it states that the House limitation on payments (such as was done by the House last week) enacted through low price support programs on upland cotton will snap back and revert to a different type of price support.

"The snap-back clause says that in such event the Secretary of Agriculture would support upland cotton at a level somewhere between 65 percent and 90 percent of parity. The 65 percent parity figure is 31.7 cents per pound on middling inch cotton."

"The snap-back clause goes on to say that the Secretary may accomplish this support either through a device called 'simultaneous purchase and sale' whereby the government would buy the cotton at a high price and sell it simultaneously back to the farmer at a low price, or through loans under which the cotton could be redeemed by a payment of a price lower than the amount of the loan."

"EITHER OF these options would mean a significant change in the government pricing system on upland cotton; and because of this fact, the rider applies only to fiscal year 1970. It creates some extremely difficult administrative problems.

"In the days and weeks ahead, I am certain that we are going to hear a great deal more about this limitation question and the application of the snap-back clause. Your views on this important and complicated question will be important to me, and I hope you will let me know how you feel about it." Price said.

His address is 507 Cannon House Office Building, Washington, D.C., 20515.

Survivors include his wife, Essie; his son, Harold of Dimmitt; a daughter, Mrs. Karen Luke of Amarillo; a sister, Mrs. Walter Snow of Fort Worth, and one grandchild.
