

Money market eases

McLean sees silver lining

Bob McLean, president of the First State Bank of Dimmitt, said this week that the tight money market finally seems to be easing.

"WE'VE FELT quite a little loosening in the last three weeks," he told the Dimmitt Lions Tuesday. "Money still isn't cheap, but it's getting more plentiful. It's still going to cost you 9 or 9 1/2 percent, but at least it's available — for a while, there just wasn't any money to loan."

McLean said the availability of money is especially good news to prospective home buyers, since Dimmitt is facing a housing crisis with the influx of new people.

"We can make home loans now," he said. "Some of the people in the mortgage loan field have told me that within a few months they'll be hunting loan customers."

BUT McLEAN doesn't see any immediate easing of the high interest rates on home loans.

"I think the trend now is toward easier and cheaper money, generally," he said, "but the interest rate on home loans will be the last rate to come down. Many of the savings and loan institutions, insurance companies and others that make long-term loans got burned on the interest hikes. They're going to be very careful."

He said the money market got so tight last year that the local bank had to cut its local loans by $5 million.

IN THE main lending activity here — the financing of farm operations — McLean said the Production Credit Association has been a "tremendous help" to the local economy.

"I don't think all of you realize just what the PCA is doing here, and how beneficial it is to our community," he told the Lions. "The local economy is in trouble, and will be for the next three years or so, with our farm prices as low as they are."

HE ADDED, "We could see farmers going out of business during the next several years, and if some big outfit were to come in and buy up a lot of our land — as Rockefeller is doing in the North Plains — it can't do anything but hurt our community."

HE SAID labor strikes pose the most immediate threat to the local economy.

"Strikes could hurt us worse than anything right now," he said. "Strikes that are threatened could really hurt us, especially our cattle industry."

H. ROE BARTLE ... Not ashamed of America

Bartle wows banquet crowd

Conducting his audience as if it were an orchestra, H. Roe Bartle of Kansas City delivered a stirring performance at the annual banquet of the Castro County Chamber of Commerce Saturday night.

BETWEEN light-hearted jokes aimed at himself and others at the head table — whose first names he had memorized — Bartle called upon community and national pride to solve society's problems and cope with the current problems in education, religion, science and philosophy.

The former mayor of Kansas City — a huge, dynamic man — spoke to a near-capacity audience of 450 or more in Dimmitt High School gymnasium. The banquet crowd included guests from Amarillo, Plainview, Hereford, Muleshoe, Portales, Friona, Tulia, Earth, Lubbock and Olton.

"I LOVE people who have pride in their hearts in a day of strife," he added. "We need more people who will stand up and be counted for what they believe. We have too many Casper Milquetoasts in this country."

With both humor and passion, he told of his experiences as a college football player, student in a Jesuit school, Presbyterian layman, metropolitan mayor, businessman, youth worker, father and grandfather.

He outlined three views that he feels are predominant today: "THERE ARE those who say, 'What's mine is mine and what's yours is mine if I can get it.' They are parasites."

"There's a second group that says, 'What's mine is mine, and what's yours is yours — and it's none of each other's business.' But we can't solve the world's problems with this attitude — I am my brother's keeper."

"And there are those who say, 'What's mine is yours if you need it.' That's not socialism — in my opinion, that's practical, applied Christianity."

BARTLE'S rapid-fire speech was interrupted by applause after he said, "I'll never be able to pay my debt to America — I think there's a lot more good than bad about my country!"

And moments later, the audience gave him a standing ovation.

A TWO-HEADED CALF is such a rarity that Dr. W. J. Hill of Dimmitt, who delivered this one, said, "I may go the rest of my life and not deliver another one." The black and white calf was born by Caesarian section Saturday to a 5-year-old crossbreed cow on the Lawrence Acker farm near Nazareth. The calf, which was born dead, had four eyes, two muzzles and two mouths. Its skulls were fused together with a single ear on the outside of each.

Friday night

Show will have 34 acts

The curtain will go up at 8 o'clock Friday night on one of the biggest talent shows ever held here.

IT'S the Roundup Talent Show, to be staged in Dimmitt High School auditorium by the Castro County Activities Committee.

Thirty-four talent acts from 17 communities in Texas and New Mexico will perform for applause and trophies.

Linda Langford, show chairman, said performers will range in age from 4 to 70 and acts will include puppeteers, fiddlers, singers, dancers, guitarists, combos and folk-singing groups. Music will range from country and western to barbershop and gospel songs.

"WE WILL even have a little girl from Fritch who will skip rope and tap dance while singing 'Pistol Packing Mama,'" Miss Langford said. "She placed in a big talent show in Dallas recently."

Fosters hurt in car wreck

Mayor and Mrs. E. E. Foster of Hart were injured last Thursday morning when their car collided with a truck near Texline.

THE FOSTERS were en route to Colorado to visit relatives when the accident occurred at the intersection of US 87 and Farm Road 296 near the state line.

Both were taken to a Dalhart hospital, where they received emergency treatment before being transferred to Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo. Mayor Foster, 74, was dismissed over the weekend but his wife is still hospitalized.

The driver of the large freight truck, Charles McNeel, 26, of San Antonio, was not injured in the wreck. Although the truck received only a dented fender, the Fosters' auto was demolished in the wreck.

Play cast wins district title

Dimmitt High School won the district championship in one-act play competition at Floydada Tuesday with its performance of "Waiting for Godot."

AND THREE of the five actors in the DHS play brought home individual honors.

Members of the cast are Craig Vandiver, Rick Bell, Mike Elder, Lonnie Markley and Shannon DeVaney. The play is directed by Bob Farrer, DHS speech and drama instructor.

Of the 60 students performing in the District 3-AA contest, Vandiver was named the best actor. Judges placed Vandiver, Bell and Elder on the eight-person district all-star cast.

BY WINNING the District 3-AA championship, Dimmitt's play cast earned the right to compete in the regional UIL contest April 25 in the Texas Tech Theatre in Lubbock.

Little Dribblers climb, then fall

After defeating Andrews in their opening round game last Thursday night, Dimmitt's Little Dribblers All-Stars were eliminated in their next two games Friday in the first national Little Dribblers Championship Tournament in Levelland.

THINGS looked good for the Dimmitt All-Stars as they took a comfortable 2-24 win from Andrews in the first round of the eight-team National Division play-offs.

But in the second game Friday evening, Dimmitt lost to Snyder, the eventual tournament champion.

THE DIMMITT All-Stars lost a heart-breaker to Friona and were eliminated.

A western band from Artesia, N.M., will feature a fiddler who has accompanied Webb Pierce, Farren Young and other top country and western singing stars.

One of the best-known local entries will be the Windborn Trio, popular folk group composed of Dimmitt High School seniors Skip Skinner, Ruth Dyer and Suzanne Merritt.

"MANY of the acts in our show performed recently at the Grand Ole Opry in New Mexico," Miss Langford added.

Competing in the show will be entries from Dimmitt, Hart, Nazareth, Canyon, Farwell, Bovina, Plainview, Amarillo and Fritch, and from the New Mexico communities of Melrose, House, Floyd, Portales, Clovis, Taihan, Artesia and Yeso.

Trophies will be awarded to the first, second and third place winners in adult and junior divisions.

The show will have two masters of ceremonies. They are H. K. "Red" Hill of Dimmitt and a Yeso, N.M., man who goes by the stage name of "Hi."

ADMISSION to the big talent show will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for students. Proceeds will go to the Castro County Activities Committee to help finance the annual Roundup celebration in August, as well as other county-wide activities.

Tickets are on sale at the Village Shop, Parsons Drug, Cobb's, C. R. Anthony Co., Perry's and the Colonial Inn.

"We're expecting a large crowd," Miss Langford said.

Athletic banquet on tap Saturday

Dimmitt High School will hold its annual athletic banquet Saturday night at 8 in South Grade School cafeteria.

MAIN SPEAKER will be Dennis Walling, head basketball coach at West Texas State University.

Highlight of the banquet will be the presentation of the Most Valuable Player awards for football, girls' and boys' basketball and track. Presenting the MVP awards will be the head coaches of the different sports.

Another feature of the banquet will be the announcement of the year's Football Queen and Basketball Queen.

The banquet honoring all the school's athletes is open to the public. Tickets at $2 each may be purchased in the high school principal's office or at the door before the banquet.

Activities group needs delegates

Each community club, civic and service organization, women's club, lodge and sorority in the county is urged to appoint a representative to the Castro County Activities Committee during the next week.

MELVIN BARTON, president of the activities committee, said the county-wide planning group's next meeting will be April 28 in the courthouse assembly room. The committee meets the fourth Tuesday of each month.

"The activities committee isn't just for planning the August Roundup," Barton said. "It's for planning and coordinating county-wide activities the year round."

'Goose' Ramey receives Citizen of Year award

Edwin "Goose" Ramey, one of the county's best-known personalities, was announced as the "Citizen of the Year" Saturday night at the annual banquet of the Castro County Chamber of Commerce.

HE RECEIVED a standing ovation from more than 450 in the banquet audience as he accepted his Citizen of the Year plaque from Chamber Director Robert Benton, who made the announcement of the year's top citizen.

During his 36 years in Castro County, Ramey has earned his living by farming and ranching, while becoming an authority on waterfowl, wildlife, weather, beekeeping, US money coinage and local history.

It was his love of Canadian geese — many of which he sheltered or tamed on his farm east of Dimmitt — that led to his nickname of "Goose."

"BY THE time his second child was born, everyone who knew him — from Saskatchewan, Canada, to Uvalde, Texas — was calling him by the name of the bird," Benton said in his award introduction.

Last year the US Weather Bureau presented Ramey with the John Campanius Holm Award for 46 years' service as a volunteer weather observer. Although Ramey started keeping the official log of the county's rainfall and temperature extremes in 1923, his weather records actually date back to 1911.

The Holm Award, the highest that can be presented to a volunteer weather observer, was named for the Lutheran minister who kept the first known rainfall records in the American colonies.

IN HIS announcement speech Saturday night, Benton sketched Ramey's background and his lifelong partnership with his twin brother, Edgar.

"A displaced East Texan, who was born of stock that craved new land in unsettled areas, left Cherokee County, Texas, as a toddler — one of a large family," Benton said.

"They farmed land in Indian Territory. Three years before the Indian Territory became a state, in 1904, with pneumonia having claimed her mate, a sensitive mother determined to do what her husband had dreamed of — she sent the oldest boy of the family ahead to locate land in Castro County."

"THE LIVESTOCK and household goods, along with farm implements, were shipped 450 miles in a railroad 'immigrant car' at a cost of $78."

"This red-faced, freckled boy helped freight the family and its belongings from Hereford..."

"He and a brother, who was just a little bit older, worked together in a brothers' partnership — farming, trading livestock, eagerly inquiring into everything they were curious about, which meant everything and everybody they ever saw or even heard about..."

"EARLY in life these brothers learned about the wildlife of the area. They hunted antelope, killed badgers, skunks, swift foxes, prairie chicken, curlew, plover, field larks — and if hungry enough, rattlesnakes and hawks, and cashed in on coyote scalps for county and state bounty..."

"This year's outstanding citizen likes to think of himself as 'friend of the beasts of the field and birds of the air.'" Benton concluded.

As a wheat farmer, Ramey operated the first mechanical harvester in the county.

HE WAS president of the Dimmitt School Board when the old high school — now Dimmitt Junior High — was built in 1929.

He served on the board of directors of the Deaf Smith County Electric Cooperative from 1939 to 1945, during which time the membership grew from about 400 to more than 20,000.

Ramey is active in Masonic work and has served as master of the local lodge several different terms. He is also an active member of the Chamber of Commerce.

EDWIN 'GOOSE' RAMEY searches for words to express his feeling Saturday night after being announced as the "Citizen of the Year" at the annual banquet of the Castro County Chamber of Commerce. "I've heard of being hit below the belt," he said, "but never in so nice a fashion."

County 4-H winners announced in skits and demonstrations

The county's 1970 4-H "Share the Fun" contest and method demonstrations were held in the courthouse Saturday night. Judges for the contest were Mrs. Anita Jernigan and David Springer. THOSE who won the right to compete in the district contest at Canyon May 2 were:

The Ranch Headquarters will be a laboratory for historic study, a center for educational activities of all types, and a setting for social and cultural events.

ROGERS has been a research assistant at Texas Tech, a staff historian with the National Park Service and assistant keeper of the NPS National Register. He also has authored several publications on Texas Military history.

Last rites held for Ben Fortner

Ben Fortner, 62, long-time farmer and stockman in the Arney community, died at 8:30 p.m. Friday in Amarillo's Northwest Texas Hospital.

HE HAD been in ill health for the past 1 1/2 years.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon in the LaGrone Funeral Chapel of Canyon. Elder Morris Morral, minister of the Seventh-Day Adventist Church of Hereford, officiated. Burial was in Dreamland Cemetery in Canyon, under the direction of LaGrone Funeral Home.

Born March 30, 1908, in Coleman County, Mr. Fortner spent his boyhood years in Ford County before moving to Castro in 1928. He married Miss Edna Burks on Jan. 24, 1931, and that same year they established their farming and ranching operation in the Arney community.

MR. FORTNER and his family moved to Amarillo in December, 1968, after illness forced his retirement from active farming.

He was a member of the Seventh-Day Adventist Church. Survivors include his wife, Edna, of 3515 Carlton in Amarillo; two sons, B. Ronald Fortner, M.D., of the University of Texas Medical Branch in Galveston, and Robert Lynn of the home; two sisters, Mrs. Ed Money and Mrs. Ross Campbell, both of Canyon; three brothers, O. L. and Floyd A. of Amarillo and B. D. of Arney; and two grandchildren, Cynthia Lynn and John Marques Fortner of Galveston.

Shelly's chatter

C of C banquet draws big crowd of interesting people

By MYRTLE SHEFFY
Didn't we have fun at the big Chamber of Commerce party, all 500 of us? The speaker was good. The food was good as was the entertainment. We are happy that our friend Edwin Ramsey was chosen as "Man of the Year." Edwin's life here is his book, to be read, and a good one.
WE MET Judge and Mrs. John Boyd and daughter Rebecca of Plainview. He has the same job that Judge Joy once had — interesting people I would say. Also at our end of the table were Ralph and Stella Shirley of Friona, Stella was a Guggenmos girl, a sister to Lucille Drerup and Mary Wilhelm of Nazareth and others, R. W. Bradley and daughter DeVona of Muleshoe, and the Youngs of Hereford. It is always good to have Dr. Bill and Millicent Bennett of Lubbock come back to see us.
Ray and Ella Cowert of Hereford were there with Punk and Rose Azelia Gilbreath. Ray is a lawyer. Ella is quite a gardener and worker in the club too. The decorations were clever. The girls used the Zodiac signs in bright colors on the walls and tables. Artist Sue Broderson, Dwight Joiner and Jeri Butler helped with this.
There were many newsmen from different places. Did you recognize the nice Patti Pettain of Amarillo? The speaker said he was having his picture made so much, he just might run for some Texas office. Everyone else is.
I dressed up in my very best bib and tucker and walked in with Jo Shearer, all dressed up in the very same outfit. Only thing is she is prettier and a blonde. Well! Well!
I guess Don Nelson can tell you the rest of the banquet story, but did you see Janice Mooney with her hair cut short? Usually the piano player has long blonde hair. I like the short style, don't you? Janice is in school at WTSU.

AND another interesting week is ahead for us. Most of the Dimmitt citizens go to church on Sunday. We have 11 different buildings, many ways of finding God, all fine.
The Little League baseball boys are tuning up for future games. Their dads are getting the diamonds or fields cleaned up.
Wednesday the Garden Club people go to Palo Duro to see what is growing in that canyon. We know about the cottonwood trees and cedars. It is a trip down to the mountain instead of up.
Then the Talent Show will be at the high school auditorium April 17. Let's all go to that one. Aren't you glad you are alive? Now get to the yard and clean up, plant some flowers.
I got that spring thing, painted and papered the kitchen. Now muscles are sore I didn't know about — nice results! The coffee even tastes better — chatter! chatter!
MRS. BILL GRAHAM Jr. was heeest at a very good dinner Thursday when she had the bridge club out to the farm. I hear on good authority that she can cook, chicken tetrazzina, pies, everything!
Guests were Courtenay Armstrong, Ruth Jackson, Shirley Wise, Ina Cleavinger, Gail Bruegel, Marilyn Carver, Joannis Robertson, Dorothy Mayfield, Dorothy Gilbreath, Joe Eddie Riley, Mona Merritt and Ann Touchstone.
Billy and Katy Graham took their daughter Kathy back to Amarillo where she is in nurses training. She will receive her cap in four weeks. She will be a good nurse, and the hospitals need many more.

MINISTER Bedford Smith is doing fine after a sick spell. His guest speaker at the Christian Church Sunday was Dick Sorenson, graduate student at EMU at Portales. Dick's home is in Amarillo.
Rev. Jim Pickens introduced three young ministers from McMurry in Abilene at the morning services at the First United Methodist Church. They were David Hutchins, D. D. Stalder and Ross Tipps, whose wife and children came also. His parents are from Amarillo also.
ALL OF THE FHA girls worshipped in a group with the Methodists. This is TWIRP Week at Dimmitt High School. I have just learned this means "The Woman Is Requested to Pay." She must ask the boys for dates, furnish the car and food. The girls have a banquet one evening for their dads and one big party for the young'uns.
The Bedford Street Church of Christ will be hosts to a chorus Wednesday evening at 7:30. This is an all-Negro group that are very good singers from Southwestern Christian College at Terrell. MORE MORE MORE! MIMO Landol Frazier and wife from Fort Worth visited with his father and mother, the Alvin Fraziers, the weekend of April 5.
Eugene Ivey was at Konawa, Okla., to see the new granddaughter, Suzanne Elizabeth Perry. Raneal (Ivey) and Eugene Perry are the parents and brought Connie home.
CONGRATULATIONS go to Robert Yates in winning a $25 prize on his "Handy Device" in the Farmers-Stockman. His was for making a simple and unique way to roll and unroll smooth wire for electric fence. You'll find it on page 62 of the April issue. Fine work Robert. Wonder who got the $25, Dee?
The Alvin Fraziers visited Frances' father, Floyd E. Ivey in Amherst this weekend. Floyd had another birthday. Congratulations recently in Lubbock in the home of Terry's sister Mrs. Ivalene Gletree. Terry is the son of Alma and Irvin Ott, southwest of Flagg. Another day Ivalene and boys spent the weekend with her parents, the Irvin Otts and other callers in the Ott home were Mrs. H. H. Hamilton, Mrs. Floyd Burgess of Earth and Mr. and Mrs. Andy Behrends who live west of Flagg.

MRS. VICKERS and son James of Lubbock were in Dimmitt attending to land business. Their farm is near Jim Roberts'. They were dinner guests of Peggy and Allan Webb on Thursday. Peggy says that mama Vera Webb is visiting her four sisters in Seymour this week. Oh yes, Vera has a new yellow car. That's why she likes to go places!
NEWCOMERS in Dimmitt are Mr. and Mrs. James Fewell and sons Kim and Tim and Jim Jr. is a student at Texas Tech. They live at 611 SW Fifth St. Jim is with A-1 Mechanical, and they attend church with the Presbyterians.
Others are Carl and Floydelle Benton, son Bruce, 2, and daughter Carla, four weeks old. They moved here from Floydada. Carl is manager of Perry's Store.
Jose Sartorelli or "Zito", our foreign exchange student from Brazil in 1967-68, writes to the Lennie Bells that his middle sister, brother-in-law and their baby girl, were all killed in a car accident. Zito says he learned much about our democratic way of life. He would like to get into politics in his country.
Waldene Webb, Nell Proffitt, Anna Calvert and Janice Bell attended part of a youth and child care seminar Friday at the Broadway Church of Christ in Lubbock. The theme was "Child in Crisis of Today." They heard several good speakers on the subject.

MR. AND MRS. Claude Hickey attended the funeral of a brother-in-law, Reginald Cushionberry in Quitaque at the Baptist Church Sunday. W. G. Stavenhagen and Reeford Burrus attended a short course in Dumas pertaining to their work. Mr. Burrus is local manager for West Texas Telephone Co.
Jerome Durbin and a brother went to Russellville, Ark., this week. They plan to stop in Dallas and visit a sister and Jerome's daughter.
Cheryl Durbin of Nazareth visited her grandmother Mrs. Durbin on Friday. She is Harold's daughter.
I recently met Emilio Fuentes Jr., at Anthony's Store. He is assistant manager and moved here from Hereford with his wife Mary and daughter Veronica.
Nick Gonzales and wife Olivia and children Mary Ann and Nicky are home from a vacation trip to San Antonio. They planned to fish and see the town too.
Mrs. Laura Billings is visiting her brothers Hiram, M. B. and Raymond Odum and Grandmother Odum, who has been very ill in Plains Memorial Hospital.
I TALKED to Barbara Perkins who tells me that her husband, Dr. Raymond Perkins, has been to Nashville, Tenn., where he attended a writers conference. He will write 13 lessons for the Baptist young teens. I want to read these. He is pastor of the First Baptist Church here.
This group of people decided to be different instead of going south, they went east to Lake Texhoma to fish. They are Mr. and Mrs. Jess Birchfield, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wooten, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Wooten and Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Claborn.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Devin of Tulsa visited his sister Lena and husband Leucie Allen Sunday.
"The Seven Story Darkness" a combo band composed of five boys, Gail Crum, Perry Graham, Craig Vandiver, Gary Fennimore and Steve Buckley, played for a teen dance at Cannon Air Force Base in Clovis Saturday night. They play for the teens at Nazareth and Plainview Friday and Saturday. I wish they could shorten their name. How about the "Musical Angels," or the "Satchellites." These kids are good and loud.
SPC LARRY GEORGE and Andrea Axe were married March 31 at Juarez. They drove down for a quiet and quick ceremony because Larry reports back to his base at Fort Irwin, Wash. Andrea is a student at Dimmitt High School and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Axe of the Jumbo community, and Larry is the son of Mrs. Bobbie Vilas, and the grandson of Cletha George.
Jim and Becky Killingsworth are the parents of a baby boy who was born March 23. He has been named James Patrick. His grandmother Mrs. E. W. Beeman of Denver has been here for a visit and has now gone home. The other grandparents are Woodrow and Alice Killingsworth.
We are sorry to hear of the death of Roy Hawkins of Bovina. He was the brother of Bea Hawkins, who has taught in the Dimmitt School System for several years.
Mrs. Edna Tote Cooper who has been quite ill is better and she went home with son Buck and Elsie for a while to recuperate. They live in Burkburnett.

OUR SYMPATHY goes to the Ben Fortner family. We just heard of Ben's sudden death. The Fortners live in the Arney community. Mrs. Fortner is a sister to Rachel Hunter. They were the Burk girls. Also our sympathy to Mrs. Sam Gilbreath and Henry Benson on the death of Virginia's sister and Mr. Benson's wife. Also sympathy to Wes Brown and family on the loss of his mother.
The golf group had a big salad supper at the Country Club Sunday night after the Scotch Foursome. Saturday they had a big friendship tournament — 12 people on each side. Kathy Thomas and Bobbie Vilas were the leaders. Mrs. Thomas' group will serve food next weekend because they lost to Mrs. Vilas' group. This was just the ladies' group.

Bible Thoughts FINAL APPOINTMENT By RONNIE PARKER
There is a sundial in Cluny, France hanging under this inscription: "Of all these hours, fear but one! Your life is leading to the one final appointment when the destiny of all humanity will be sealed forever. Paul speaks of the day in which he will judge the world in righteousness by the man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead" (Acts 17:31).

Time to enjoy children is now

By IRENE KEATING

This week I want to share a poem with you. It contains excellent thoughts and I feel like we all need to read something like this frequently.

CHILDREN WON'T WAIT

There is a time to anticipate the baby's coming, a time to consult a doctor;
A time to plan a diet and exercise, a time to gather a layette.
There is a time to wonder at the ways of God, knowing this is the destiny for which I was created.
A time to dream of what this child may become,
A time to pray that God will teach me how to train this child which I bear.
A time to prepare myself that I might nurture his soul.
But soon there comes the time for birth,
For children won't wait.
There is a time for night feedings, and colic and formulas.
There is a time for night feedings, and colic and formulas.
There is a time for rocking and a time for walking the floor.
A time for patience and self-sacrifice,
A time to show him that his new world is a world of love and goodness and dependability.
There is a time to ponder what he is - not a pet nor toy, but a person, an individual - a soul made in God's Image.
There is a time to consider my stewardship. I cannot possess him.

He is not mine. I have been chosen to care for him, to love him, to enjoy him, to nurture him, and to answer to God.

I resolve to do my best for him. For children don't wait.

There is a time to hold him close and tell him the sweetest story ever told;

A time to show him God in earth and sky and flower, to teach him to wonder and reverence.

There is a time to leave the dishes, to swing him in the park,

To run a race, to draw a picture, to catch a butterfly, to give him happy comradeship.

There is a time to point the way, to teach his infant lips to pray,

To teach his heart to love God's word, to love God's day,
For children don't wait.

There is a time to sing instead of grumble, to smile instead of frown,

To kiss away the tears and laugh at broken dishes.

There is a time to share with him my best in attitudes - a love of life, a love of God, a love of family.

There is a time to answer his questions, all his questions, because there may come a time when he will not want my answers.

There is a time to teach him so patiently to obey, to put his toys away.

There is a time to teach him the beauty of duty, the habit of Bible study, the joy of worship at home, the peace of prayer, for children don't wait.

There is a time to watch him bravely go to school, to miss him underfoot,

And to know that other minds have his attention, but that I will be there to answer his call when he comes home,

And listen eagerly to the story of his day.

There is a time to teach him independence, responsibility, self-reliance,

To be firm but friendly, to discipline with love,

For soon, too soon, there will be a time to let him go, the apron strings untied,

For children won't wait.

There is a time to treasure every fleeting minute of his childhood, just eighteen precious years to inspire and train him.

I will not exchange this birthright for a mess of pottage called social position, or business or professional reputation, or pay check.

An hour of concern today may save years of headache tomorrow,

The house will wait, the dishes will wait, the new room can wait,

But children don't wait.

There will be a time when there will be no slamming of doors, no toys on the stairs, no childhood quarrels, no fingerprints on the wallpaper.

Then may I look back with joy and not regret.

There will be a time to concentrate on service outside my home;

On visiting the sick, the bereaved the discouraged, the untaught; To give myself to the "least of these."

There will be a time to look back and know that these years of motherhood were not wasted.

I pray there will be a time to see him an upright and an honest man, loving God and serving all.

God, give me wisdom to see today is my day with my children.

That there is no unimportant moment in their lives.

May I know that no other career is so precious, No other work so rewarding, No other task so urgent.

May I not defer it nor neglect it, But by thy Spirit accept it gladly, joyously, and by thy grace realize

That the time is short and my time is now,

For children won't wait!

Jones receives state citation

An official State Health Department citation for work proficiency has been awarded to E. M. Jones, public works director for the city of Dimmitt.

SIGNED BY the State Health Commissioner and authorities of the Texas Water Utilities Association, the certificate of competency is awarded only to those utility plant operators who have successfully demonstrated their skill and knowledge in modern principles of plant management. To qualify for certification, a plant operator must have accumulated a prescribed amount of actual work experience. He must also have attended both regional and statewide short schools at which the techniques of water treatment and waste water disposal are taught, and must have passed an examination given by State Health Department sanitary engineers.

STATE LAW requires that at least one operator per shift be certified for competency by health department engineers, but many operators seek certification on their own time and at their own expense to increase their efficiency as key public servants to their community and state.

The engineers said the attainment is evidence of Jones' efforts to better prepare himself for the duties of his profession.

Brother and Mrs. Brown: "My children and I wish to thank you and the church for the food and a place to stay on the Friday night of the storm.

"The good Lord works in many ways, yes, it is good to pause, even if forced and take inventory in today's swiftly changing and sometimes chaotic world to ask, "Where am I?" The ways of the Lord were very evident that Friday night. He supplied the food, a place to stay, and the Samaritans along the wayside.

Our lives were touched. I know Christian love is ever present. I pray God will receive the glory in each moving experience.

Partnership golf tourney this weekend

Golfers will choose their partners and tee off Saturday in the Castro County Country Club's First Annual Partnership Golf Tournament.

The two-man teams will play 36 holes each — 18 Saturday and 18 Sunday — for low ball honors. Entry fee is $40 per team, and merchandise prizes will be awarded to the first three places in each flight.

Flights will include eight teams each, and flight pairings will be determined by the lowest handicap of the two partners on each

Cats win four blue ribbons

Dimmitt's Bobcats placed third in the District 3-AA track meet in Olton Saturday and have a good chance to finish in the money at the regional meet two weeks hence in Lubbock.

COACH Roy Blair's Bobcats ran away with blue ribbons in both major relay races, giving them a strong position in the regional meet. A relay victory is worth almost four times as many points as an individual blue ribbon.

Dimmitt runners also won two individual events and qualified for the regional meet in a third.

Fielding their biggest track team in years — although they didn't compete in any field events — the Bobcats won the 440 and mile relays, the gruelling 330-yard hurdles and the 100-yard dash, and brought home a red ribbon in the 220-yard dash.

Floydada won the district team championship with 123 points, placing in eight events. However, the Whirlwinds won only two blue ribbons in the meet to Dimmitt's four. Lockney came in second in the team totals with 85 points, followed by Dimmitt with 80, Olton in fourth place with 68, Abernathy and Hale Center tied for fifth with 56 each, and Friona in sixth with 39.

Dimmitt's 440-yard relay quartet covered the distance in a fine time of 43.9 seconds to win an easy victory. In second place with a 44.5 time was Floydada. Both teams will go to the regional meet.

Members of the Bobcats' 440-yard relay team are Nelson Chavers, Roy Thomas, Charles Stewart and Matthew Daniel.

IN THE classic mile relay, Dimmitt posted a 3:31.8 time to streak home in first place less than a second ahead of the Floydada team, which finished with a 3:32.7 clocking.

On the mile relay team are Chavers, Thomas, Stewart and Daniel Frierston.

In the 100-yard dash, Stewart was first across the finish line in 10.2 seconds to beat out Lockney's Tracy Dickson by .05 of a second. Both boys will go on to the regional meet in Lubbock April 25.

CHAVERS captured first place in the rugged 30-yard intermediate hurdles, running and jumping the distance in 40.8 seconds to finish just a step ahead of Hale Center's Randy Tiffin, who posted a 41.0 time.

Thomas qualified for the regional meet in the 220-yard dash by finishing second in the event with a 23.3-second clocking. First place went to Tracy Dickson of Lockney who stepped off the eighth of a mile in 22.9 seconds.

Posey resigns as golf pro

Bud Posey, golf pro at the Castro County Country Club for the past year, has resigned to accept a post as the head professional at the Clovis Municipal Golf Course.

POSEY has accepted a three-year contract with the City of Clovis effective May 1, when his one-year contract with the local country club expires.

"We hate to leave all the friends we've made here," he said, "but the opportunity at Clovis was so great that I couldn't refuse."

Before coming to Dimmitt last May, Posey was the head professional at the Colonial Park Golf Course in Clovis.

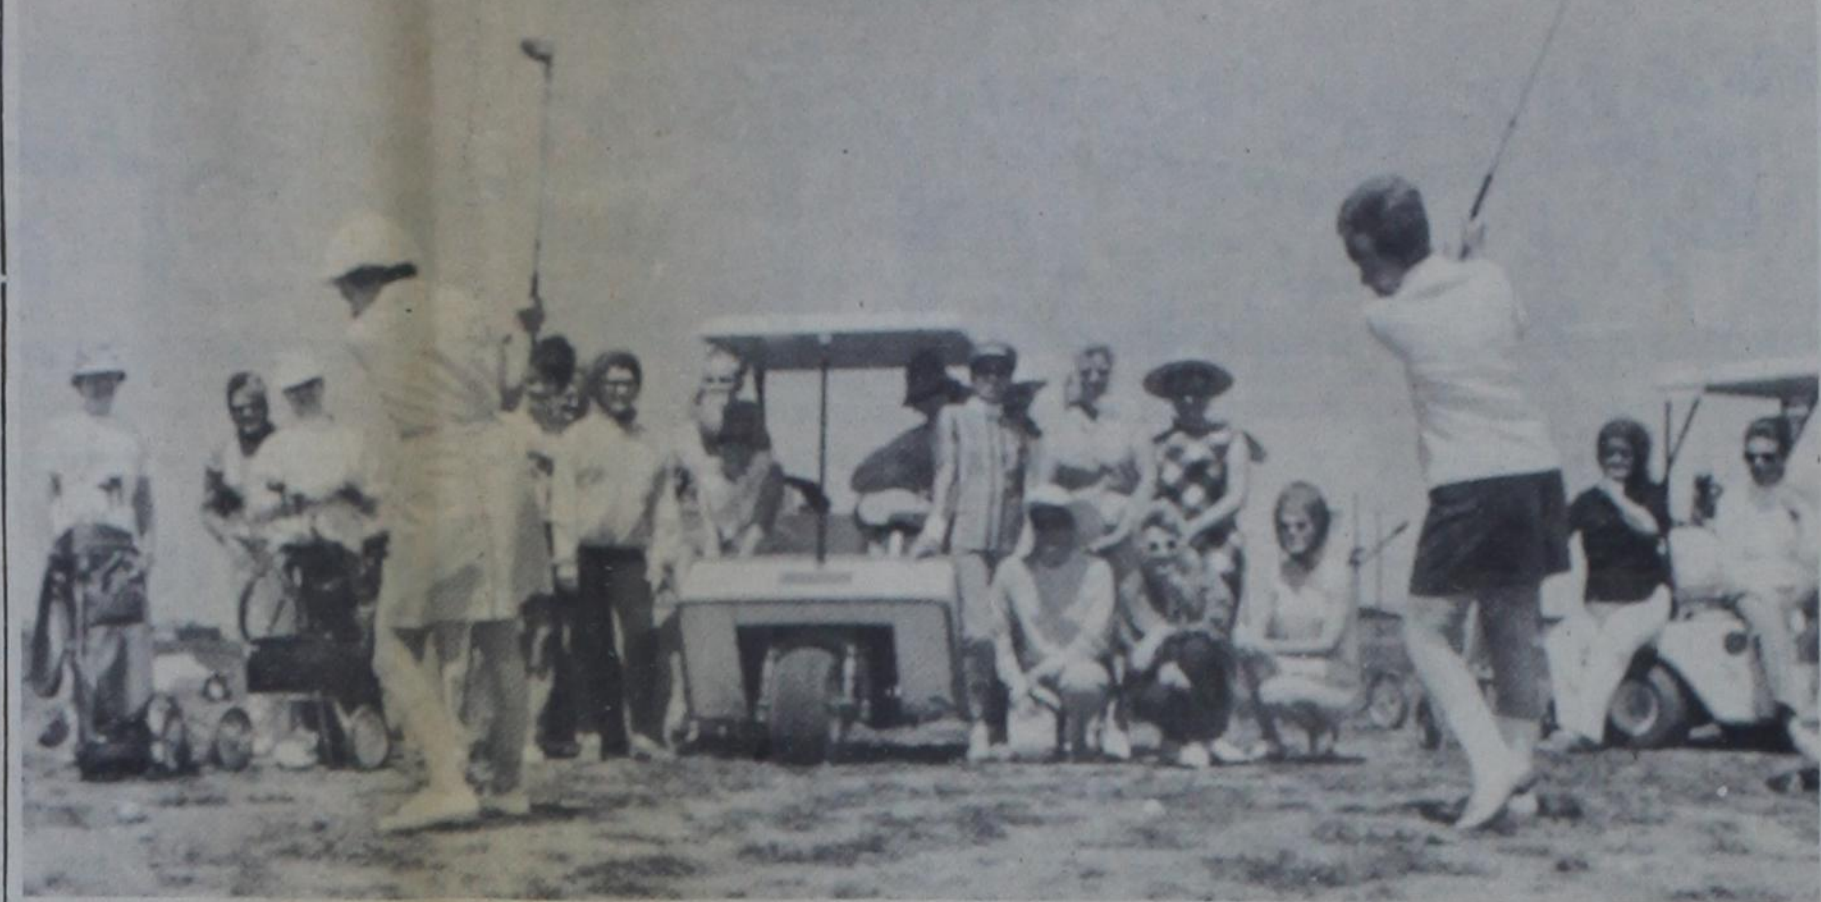

THE COUNTRY club's board of directors is now interviewing applicants for Posey's job here, and is expected to announce a successor soon. Posey is the third golf pro at the local club since the golf course opened for play three years ago.

Posey said he feels the local course "is in good shape now and should be in great shape later this summer, with the proper watering. I think the course has real possibilities, and most of the professionals being interviewed by our board will realize this."

He added, "We would like everyone here to come over to Clovis and play golf with us or just visit with us at any time."

Posey's wife, Carolyn, and their children will remain in Dimmitt until the school year ends next month.

● On the Go
MRS. HAZEL MULLINS has returned to the Golden Spread Nursing Home after being hospitalized in the Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo as the result of a broken hip and leg she received when she was hit by a car.

Butlers win golf event

Fifteen teams competed in the Castro County Country Club's "Scotch Foursomes" golf event Sunday with the husband-wife team of Joe and Dugan Butler capturing top honors with a low gross score of 45.

EACH team consisted of a man and a woman playing the same ball around the nine-hole course.

Teams winning low net score honors (gross score less handicaps) were:

First — Ira Davis and Bill Williams, 32.

Second — Tie between Doris and Bob Lindsey and Bernice and Ben Hill.

FOURTH — Carolyn Posey and Swain Burkett, 34.

Fifth — Bobbie and Bob Vilas, 36.

Sixth — Three-way tie between Joanna Davis and Mark Wohlge-muth, Libby and Kenneth Cleveland and Vaudine Giles and Bill Glenn, 37.

PIONEER 3306

PIONEER 3369A

TWO FOR THE MONEY

Pioneer brand corn hybrids are setting the yield pace wherever corn is grown in Texas. Here are two Pioneer varieties you can count on for this area. 3306 is a record breaker that really responds to modern farming practices—high fertility levels, high plant population, and narrow rows. 3369A is an outstanding grain producer everywhere. The 1969 Dimmitt Wheat Growers corn performance test is one of many yield tests 3369A won last year. If you're after maximum yield—for grain or silage—pick up the seed you need right away from your Pioneer dealer.

How does our library fit into state system?

By HAZEL MERRITT

Why is it that you can now get virtually any book or reference material you want through the Castro County Library?

WHO SET up the inter-library loan system that brings the world of books to a small community library such as ours? How does the system operate, and how does a library qualify to be a part of the system?

The new concept in library service was authorized by the Texas Library Systems Act, and is being initiated by a statewide advisory board created by the Act.

Here's the official structure of the system that enables a hard-to-find book to be put into your hands, via a statewide network of major resource centers and community libraries:

THE LIBRARY Systems Act passed by the Texas Legislature calls for the formulation of initial rules and regulations for the program of state grants-in-aid to libraries, including qualification for major resource system membership.

THE ACT specifies that these rules and regulations shall be formulated by the state librarian with the advice of the Library Systems Act advisory board.

The Advisory board includes Marie Haney, library coordinator for Abilene Public Schools; Heartsill Young, associate librarian of the University of Texas at Austin; Mrs. Thelma Phillips, librarian of Pioneer Memorial Library in Fredricksburg; Lee Brawner, assistant librarian of the Texas State Library; Mrs. Marie Shultz, program director of the Library Systems Act; Dr. Edward Holley, director of the University of Houston Libraries; Wyman Jones, director of the Fort Worth Public Libraries; Mrs. Thelma Phillips, representing the smaller public libraries; Heartsill Young, representing libraries of colleges and universities; Miss Marie Haney, representing school libraries; Wyman Jones, representing the larger public libraries, and Dr. Edward Holley, representing technical and research resources.

THE Mary E. Bivins Library in Amarillo had to meet these requirements to qualify as a "major resource center":

- Must serve a population of 200,000 or more within 4,000 or more square miles.
- Must submit a plan of service as part of the grant application for the major resource system.
- THE STATE Library and Historical Commission has set the following requirements for participation in the program:
- The counties served by a major resource system must be contiguous unless permission to vary is granted by the commission upon recommendation of the advisory board and the state librarian.
- Interlibrary loan, reference referral, and participation in the state library communications network shall be considered minimum services offered by the major resource center and area libraries and included in the major resource system plan of service.
- TO BE a member of the Major Resource System, the Castro County Library has to agree to meet the following minimum standards:
- Must be a public library serving a population of less than 25,000, which is a member of a library system interrelated to a major resource center. (Our library meets this requirement.)
- Must have an operating budget of at least $5,000 per year or $1 per capita, whichever is larger. Both amounts are to be based on local appropriations and exclude state and federal grants. (We don't yet meet this standard.)
- In order to continue participation in the major resource system, local support must increase each year until current American

Library Association standards are met. (Local financial support of our library by city, county and Friends of the Library, has been increasing.)

- If must have a book collection of at least 10,000 volumes and be making annual progress toward meeting current American Library Association standards. (Our library doesn't yet meet this requirement but we are making progress.)
- It must have a local budget allocation for staff. (Our library has this.)
- If serving a population of 10,000 to 25,000, it must be open for service at least 30 hours per week. If serving a population of less than 10,000, it must be open for service at least 20 hours per week. (Our library meets this requirement.)
- A community library which does not meet all the above requirements may be given provisional accreditation for membership in a major resource system if the library can demonstrate expectation of meeting the requirements within three years or is actively working to qualify by joining other libraries. (Our Commissioners' Court and library board are showing good faith on this provision.)
- Libraries serving communities too small to support a library capable of meeting these requirements must join other libraries on an agreement or on a contractual basis to form a unit large enough to support adequate service in order to qualify for membership in a major resource system. Libraries which join on such basis to operate and offer service as parts of a single unit shall be considered as a single library for the purposes of qualifying for participation in a major resource system.
- THE LIBRARY Systems Act provides that funds for implementing library systems be allocated through the State Library and Historical Commission. The advisory board of the Texas Library Systems Act has researched the financial aspect of implementing the Act. The board's recommendation to the next state legislature will be for funds equivalent to 10 percent of the annual total state income from taxes, or a figure of $1,700,000 for Sept. 1, 1971 through Sept. 1, 1972. Funds provided by the state will be distributed to major resource centers on a per capita basis for the area served.

19 from county attend PEP meet

Castro County was well represented at the PEP Family Living Youth Seminar in Amarillo last Wednesday. We were the only county who took young people to hear the program.

Those attending were Byron Hutto, Steve Brown, Lonnie Markley, Andy Murphy, Bill Sanders and Mike Elder from Dimmitt High School.

Mrs. Margaret Brockman took Kathy Brockman, Michelle Wilhelm, Bea Schulte and Lucy Maurer from Nazareth High School.

Others who attended were Mrs. Sandra Bagwell, Oneida Hutto, Rachel Cleaver, Bobbie Damron, Irene Keating and Edd McLeroy, Wes Anthony and Charles Hottel.

The highlight of the program was a panel of Amarillo 4-H'ers who spoke on drug abuse. Much of what they said was similar to Richard Perigo's comments.

There were both optimistic and pessimistic predictions made about the future of the family and life as we know it now.

Dr. POPE from Texas A&M reminded us of the five things that caused the fall of the Roman Empire. They were breakdown of the family, spiraling taxes, insatiable urge for pleasure, increase in production of arms and wide array of religious forms.

He said it took Rome 300 years to fall. How long would it take now?

Dr. Hutchison, Director of Texas Agricultural Extension Service, reminded us that each individual is the architect who shapes his own future.

Dr. Tinsley, Dean of Home Economics at Texas Tech, illustrated a pyramid of life with all four sectors of it constantly working with each other. They are physical, safety, love, and esteem. This is essential for each of us to become healthy individuals. She said our ultimate goal in life should be to have peace with oneself.

Of interest to the young people was the panel of educators who spoke on careers in home economics and agriculture. Dr. Tinsley told them that women in home economics rated next to highest salary wise of women except for women chemists. The reason for this is that there are so few women chemists.

Dr. Pope and Dr. Smallwood, West Texas State, told the boys of the expanding jobs in agriculture and new jobs.

Mrs. Hudson's brother dies

Funeral services were held at the Victory Baptist Church in Stinnett April 7 for James Conaway Jr., brother of Mrs. George Hudson of Dimmitt.

MR. CONAWAY died April 4 of an apparent heart attack. A 20-year resident of Stinnett, he was a pumper with an oil company.

He is survived by his wife, Sylvia; three sons; his mother, Mrs. J. A. Conaway of Claude; three sisters, including Mrs. Hudson of Dimmitt; one brother; and two grandchildren.

On the Go

SYLVIA SPRABERRY, a student at Texas Tech in Lubbock, spent the weekend with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Spraberry.

V.F.W. NEWS

BY GERALD BROADSTREET
Greetings, Comrades:

AT OUR last regular meeting last week I was proud to see such a large turnout. Much was accomplished, including the election of our officers.

Herman Acker was awarded the "Special Recognition Gift" as a token of our appreciation for the many hours of volunteer labor he has provided for our post this past year. Herman is a very knowledgeable "handy man" and when something breaks or needs repairing at the post, he is always there to help. Thanks a million, Herman — we are proud to have you in our organization.

If you have noticed the pleased look on Bud Griffin's face this past week, it's because the post has a new cash register. We've needed one for quite some time, and at the last meeting we voted to buy one. I might add, all the buttons and keys on it really work.

DURING the election of our officers, a motion was made that each officer be re-elected to his present position if he so desired. The motion carried, so our officers remain the same for another year. There is one exception — Chet Braafadt was elected trustee to replace E. P. Calhoun.

During the meeting H. K. "Red" Hill presented for approval a 30-minute tape recorded program which he composed for our Loyalty Day activities. It was a beautiful and most patriotic program concerning the heritage and love of this great country of ours. Needless to say, approval was unanimous. This program will be aired on Radio Station KDHN May 1, so be sure and tune it in you'll be glad you did.

There will be a special joint meeting with the VFW Ladies' Auxiliary Monday night. The main item for discussion will be plans for the District 13 convention. All you members, please make plans to attend — we need your assistance in making this the best and most memorable convention this district has ever had.

ALONG with the convention plans, there are several other items that need to be discussed, so please be there.

By the way, our post has 10 new bar stools to go with the new carpet and other features of the lounge. The new stools are deep-cushion chair type stools with black leatherette upholstery, and chrome plated legs and foot rests. When you come out to the post for "Game Night" Wednesday at 8:30, be sure to go by the lounge and take a look at them — they're very nice, and we're proud of them. See you then.

On the Go

VISITING Mrs. Leona Rothwell in the Golden Spread Nursing Home Sunday were her daughters and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Nowell of Muleshoe and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bates of Plainview.

Librarian

This is National Library Week, April 12-18. We will have open house at the Castro County Library Wednesday, Friday and Saturday. Refreshments will be served on these days, so I hope you will take your "coffee break" at the library and visit with us. IF YOU are new here, the library is located in the basement floor of the courthouse. Library hours are 2 to 5 p.m. Tuesdays, 10 a.m. to 12 noon and 2 to 5 p.m. Wednesdays, 2 to 5 p.m. Thursdays, 2 to 5 p.m. Fridays with the Children's Story Hour from 1 to 2 p.m., and 10 a.m. to 12 noon and 1 to 4 p.m. Saturdays with the radio program being broadcast at 9:30 a.m. from the First State Bank community room.

During National Library Week, overdue books can be returned without any charge! So please look through the house and bring those books in.

The Castro County Friends of the Library will hold their annual meeting Monday at 8 p.m. in the courthouse assembly room. Refreshments will be served.

SPEAKING of friends, I would like to thank the ladies who kept the library for me while I was in Amarillo last week — Mrs. John Merritt, Mrs. Charlie Hays, Mrs. E. R. Little and Mrs. Goodwin Miller. Thanks also to Mrs. Bagley and Mrs. Carver for being in charge of the Children's Story Hour (I understand they had nearly 50 children), and to Mrs. Charles Vandiver for being in charge of the library radio program Saturday morning.

Hazel Merritt and I attended the Texas Library Association's 57th annual conference in Amarillo last week. It was a good meeting and we enjoyed it very much.

Thursday night we attended the first general session with Carl Rowan as the guest speaker. He is a nationally syndicated columnist, author, diplomat, and former director of the US Information Agency. The subject of his address was "The Great Menace of Moral Pollution."

MOST OF the meetings were held in the Amarillo Civic Center, but Friday morning I went to the Children's Round Table breakfast meeting at 7:30 a.m. at the Howard Johnson Motor Inn. (I still cannot understand why Hazel did not need to go to this meeting — I think the time was too early for her!) Local authors of books for children and youth were special guests. These authors included Loula Grace Erdman of Amarillo, Gladys Miller of Hereford, Mr. and Mrs. Burl Brim of Canyon, and Barbara Walker of Lubbock. Robert Burch, also an author, was the guest speaker.

Friday night we went to the awards presentation and Saturday morning we attended the third general session, at which George Christian was the guest speaker. He is a former presidential press secretary and White House confidante during the Johnson administration. He spoke on "Managing Public Opinion."

Morrison elected to ginners' board

E. L. "Gene" Morrison, operator of the Morrison Gin in Sunny-side, has been elected chairman of the executive committee of the Texas Cotton Ginners' Association.

HE WAS elected at the association's 57th annual meeting in Dallas last week. Other new officers of the association for the coming year are Otto C. Pfluger of Pflugerville, near Austin, president; and B. J. Mikeska of Eola, near San Angelo, vice-president. Tony Price of Dallas was re-elected executive vice-president.

More than 3,000 cotton gin operators, their guests and representatives of related businesses attended the three-day trade show and convention. Keynote speaker was Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes. Other speakers were from the National Cotton Council and the Department of Agriculture.

JOE MOSS, director of cotton policy for the USDA, sounded an optimistic note in his address before the convention.

"If cotton can hold its present position and work out its problems, then in the next 20 years we should see a 50-million bale market," Moss said. He predicted markets would expand due to population growth and increase in exports.

English workshop slated in Tulia

A Laubach Literacy Workshop has been announced for May 3, 4, and 5, at the First Baptist Church in Tulia.

This non-denominational clinic is for any person who would like to learn a simple method of teaching people to read and write English.

There is a $7.50 fee to cover the cost of workbooks and other materials. IF ANY club, church, civic group or individual is interested, they may get full details from Mrs. Dale Barkley, Box 450, Tulia, Texas 79688.

ed, half the carcass is hung in the conventional manner and the other half is hung by the Aitch bone," Hostetler explained. "The two halves are then tested and compared for increased tenderness."

THERE ARE problems to be solved in fabricating the hind quarter to make cuts which are acceptable in appearance. However, the new method of handling offers a great opportunity for developing new cuts and better cutting methods which may ultimately be superior to conventional methods, Hostetler said.

Former Supreme Court justice 'retires' with change of jobs

Retirement may come to most men at 65, but for former Texas Supreme Court Justice Meade F. Griffin, age 76, it just means a change of jobs.

SINCE retiring from the State Supreme Court in 1968 he has twice been called back to serve the people of Texas.

Judge Griffin, a native of Callahan County in West Texas, was recently appointed staff legal assistant on the administrative staff of Attorney General Crawford C. Martin. His main function is to oversee the preparation of legal briefs for the department.

"The law is different today," reflected Judge Griffin. "It's more complicated now." A graduate of the University of Texas Law School, Judge Griffin relates that early lawyers had few books and most of them practiced law by ear.

IN AN age of oratory, Judge Griffin described jury trials as entertainment. There was a little radio and no television, therefore all the entertainment came in the form of courtroom oratory or from politicians "stumping" the state. People were anxious to hear lawyers and politicians since it was their primary way of finding out what was going on in the legislature.

"Texas law around the turn of the century was much less complicated," said the Judge. "It filled about one volume then... but not today," as he pointed to a bookshelf full of law books. "A man's word was good as his bond back then," he continued. "A handshake was all the security you needed. People were people and every new and then civil disputes ended up in court. Once in court though, the lawyers still usually argued only general principles of law."

WHEN ASKED his thoughts on the young people of today and the law, the Judge pointed out that only a small minority of young people are causing all the trouble. "Older people know what lack of freedom really means. Some young people forget the sacrifices that have been made and take freedom for granted." Judge Griffin's main duty as assistant attorney general is in the supervision of briefs which must be submitted before the state can present its case. It is a big job since the attorney general's department is the largest law firm in Texas with more than 125 attorneys on the staff. With over 50 years' experience as a lawyer, Judge Griffin knows by now the makings of a good case.

Though Judge Griffin and his wife Dorothy live in Austin, they call Plainview "home." They have two grown children, Willis F. (Fred) Griffin of El Paso and Mrs. Mariellen Garner of Canyon. DURING World War I Judge Griffin served in the US Army and was discharged in 1918 with the rank of major. He entered the service again in World War II and served as a lieutenant colonel of infantry.

In May, 1945 he was detailed to the judge advocate general's department and helped establish the trial section of the US Army branch of war crimes and became chief of the prosecution subsection at Wiesbaden, Germany. He retired as a colonel in the judge advocate general's department in 1953.

HE was appointed to the Texas Supreme Court by the late Governor Beauford H. Jester in March, 1949, where he served until his retirement on Dec. 31, 1968. THE judge was a charter member and first post commander of the Plainview American Legion Post and a member of the Plainview Rotary Club. Though he and Mrs. Griffin enjoyed square dancing in earlier days, he limits his activities to following Texas Longhorn football—something he has done ever since a freshman at the university in 1911.

His loyalty to UT football is matched only by his loyalty to the people of Texas. He is one attorney the state is lucky to have on its side, Martin says.

Micronized grain sorghum feed performs well in Lubbock test

Preliminary evaluation of micronized grain sorghum, second cousin to popcorn, as a quality feedlot ration base have been completed recently at a Lubbock feedlot, an area livestock specialist has announced.

THE TERM "micronization" was coined to describe the method of dry heating sorghum grain with gas-fired infrared generators, Dr. B. L. Shake explained.

"Originally, popping of the grain was thought to be essential to increase nutrient availability," he said. "However, data derived from feeding and digestion trials indicate that popping was not essential, and suggested that dry heat treatment reducing the grain to about 7 percent moisture followed by rolling may produce a feed grain with certain unique feeding qualities."

Four hundred uniform Hereford steers were made available for the study by the Lubbock Feedlot of Lubbock, Shake said. They were randomly placed in one of four lots of 100 head each and all were maintained on a high roughage ration containing some steam flaked grain for 20 days previous to the start of the trial, he continued.

"CHARDA Pierce, who devised the process of micronizing grain, was responsible for micronizing the grain which was obtained from the same source as the grain fed by the Lubbock Feedlot," Shake said. "Half of the test animals were fed steam flaked grain and the other half were fed the micronized grain."

"ONE half of each group were treated with drugs to destroy worms in the digestive tract before the test was started," he added.

Steers fed rations containing micronized grain gained 0.12 of a pound more a day than steers fed rations containing steam flaked grain, Shake said.

BUT ON THE other hand, pounds of ration required per pound of live animal gain was 0.20 pound less for steers fed steam flaked grain rations, compared with steers fed micronized grain rations, he noted, adding that these data are consistent with field observations comparing steam flaked and popped grain rations.

Carcass characteristics tend to be rather uniform, except for several minor advantages for carcasses from steers fed micronized grain rations, he said. Most of these differences appear in accordance with observed differences in feedlot performance of the steers, Shake said. "Results of the field trial indicate that both of these processed grains produced carcasses with near equal value with slightly improved feedlot performance of steers fed the micronized grain rations," Shake concluded. "Average carcass value of steers fed steam flaked grain rations was $348.09, while steers fed micronized grain rations had an average carcass value of $355."

GRIFFIS, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Walker, Route 1, Dimmitt, is student teaching physical education at Hillcrest High School in Dallas. Miss Rubalcaba, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Rubalcaba of Hart is student teaching shorthand and typing at Irving High School in Irving.

EARLIEST horse race recorded in England was one held in 210 A.D. at Netherby, Yorkshire. US AIR Force solar furnace at Cloudcroft, N.M., yields temperatures of 8,500 degrees F.

STONE and bone carvings prove that horse racing is a sport at least 30 centuries old.

Grain Sorghum CHAFF

By WES ANTHONY
If you haven't been to see one of the many feed lots in our county, you certainly are missing something. You'll see those beautiful, slick, fat cattle by the thousands.

JUST DRIVE down one of the feeding alleys and stop and look on both sides and in front and behind you. It is wonderful—millions and millions of people would love to see this.

And just think, it has been only a few years since we raised the calves and the grain, then shipped them to someone else to get the profit, then they shipped back to us the processed meat and feed that we raised, and we paid the freight both ways.

And if you are a pork eater (and most of us are), it is a sight to see those hundreds of thousands of fat, happy, lazy hogs lying stretched in the warm sun.

HUNGARIAN Paprika, after an absence of 25 years to American homemakers, is being reintroduced. Unlike Spanish Paprika, used for color and appearance, Hungarian Paprika adds flavor and aroma to food explains Gwendolynne Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist with Texas A&M University.

Hart places at Sundown

Hart's junior high track team won the sprint relay and the 100-yard dash, and placed in four other events at the Sundown Track Meet Saturday.

Brown also ran on the junior high sprint relay team that covered the 440-yard oval in 50.2 seconds for a blue ribbon. Rounding out the sprint relay team were Kenneth Davis, James McLain and Garrimo Carrasacas.

JOHN HENRY Robinson and Thomas Cunningham finished third and fourth respectively in the 120-yard low hurdles.

In the high school division, Graciel Catano won a fourth place ribbon in the 440-yard dash, while Landra Brington finished fifth in the 100-yard dash and Gary Six came in fifth in the high jump.

ASCS notes

Deadline near on acre-reports

By CHARLEY E. HILL

Sugarbeet Growers are reminded to certify to their planted acreage no later than June 1. You are to report your actual planted sugarbeet acreage even though your plantings may exceed your proportionate share at the certifying time.

THE ADDITIONAL optional non-grazing period will run between May 14 and Oct. 15, permitting spring grazing two weeks later than was first announced. This means you can graze your Diverted Acres until May 14. This does not change the final date for reporting your wheat acreage. Your wheat acreage must be certified to by May 1.

The planting of sweet or forage sorghum on diverted acres will not be authorized for 1970 and subsequent crops. If you are grazing a small grain crop on your diverted acres, the crop must be grazed down by May 1, to the extent that it cannot possibly mature any grain on the land.

MAY 1 IS the final date to report wheat acreage to the county office. Any acreage adjustment needed must be made prior to certification of final acreage. When reporting acreage, report exactly as the crop exists on the farm, such as wheat for grain, wheat destroyed by plowing, wheat grazed out, etc. Farm operators should not report acreage the same as shown on their intentions unless these are the exact acres. In other words, don't guess, because errors could cause a complete loss of program payments.

Earley acreage must also be exactly as the crop exists on the farm as of the May 1 deadline.

WE WILL have car next sign-up on April 17 for cost-share practices under the 1970 Agricultural Conservation program in Castro County. The farm limit of $500 is still applicable. Applicants will be accepted on a first come basis for cost-share practices to be carried out in April, May and June.

Financial Facts

By Willis A. Hawkins, Jr.

Did you ever hear of the "Brasher doubloon?" It is regarded as the most valuable coin in the world today. Once owned by George Washington, it is now worth $150,000. Actually it is a $16.00 gold piece.

On May 29th, 1965, this numismatic masterpiece was stolen. It had been on display with other coins at the Sterling Memorial Library. The famous library is located at Yale University in New Haven, Connecticut.

The doubloon was one of six made by Ephraim Brasher, a goldsmith. Being a good neighbor, he gave the coin to George Washington in 1787. The coin had been given to Yale about thirty years ago.

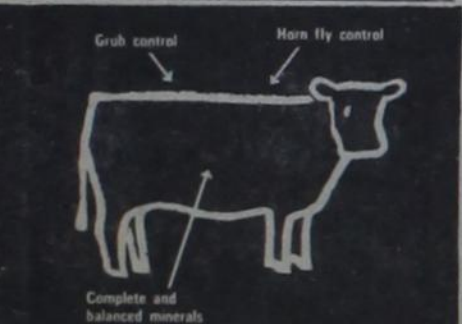

Thank to Richard F. Andrews, an insurance company investigator, the coin was recently recovered. A doubloon is a former Spanish gold coin.

LOOKING TO THE FUTURE

- Q. In the future can I expect the Public Library to meet all demands for informational and educational materials?
A. YES — Your Texas State Library now can bring you the resources of libraries from 10 major designated cities — called major resource centers.
- Q. What is this new plan called?
A. LIBRARY SYSTEMS — This new plan is devised to secure for all library patrons the resource material you need in a day or so — or in a matter of hours, if urgent, through a new quick-find system called TELEX. In a very few weeks an inter-system telephone will be placed in your Public Library that will enable your librarian to pick up the phone at an appointed time each day and call Amarillo for needed material. If the Amarillo Library does not have the material, it in turn will phone one of the 10 other Major Resource Centers over the state to secure your needed material. An acknowledgement will be teletyped, and the book mailed back to your librarian.
- Q. Will it cost me anything to get this information?
A. NO — This world of knowledge is brought to you through the Texas State Library Network with them accepting the cost and giving you the information you need.

LOOKING TO THE FUTURE

- Q. Can I expect the present library to be enlarged in the near future?
A. YES — Plans are now underway for the enlargement of Castro County Courthouse. Tentative blueprints now show the floor space of the library to be three times larger than it is at present. Also, plans show an outside entrance which will enable you to use the library even when the courthouse is closed.
- Q. Do you think someday we can look forward to a new library building like many of our neighboring counties have?
A. YES — When Mr. Citizen of Castro County becomes concerned and avails himself of the opportunity to become a member of "Friends of the Library," When you receive your invitation to become a "Friend," please accept. COMMUNITY INTEREST AND PROGRESS DEPEND ON YOU.
