3 Aces Beats 3 Kings

The scribbler, as previously stated in this column, is wholeheartedly in favor of the majority of the qualified electors of this state selecting all the officers, from governor to constable and we are democratic enough to abide by the decision of the majority. We do not believe any office belongs to any individual or clique, but is a trust belonging to all the people the majority of whom have the inalienable constitutional and God-given right to select the custodian. When a fellow casts his political fortune on the political sea he is asking the voters for preference, then that preference, wherever it is bestowed, should be treated as a matter inviolate. The heads I win, tails you lose artist has never appealed to us as a fair citizen. We believe three aces beats three kings any time the cards are drawn and the fellow with the kings should have been willing and able to lose before he sat into the game. Of course though it is of record that a nigger beat three aces one time with three kings and a "razzor," but we are not strong for the razzor guys.—Ralls Banner.

Local Man On Committee to Push National Ticket

Judge H. A. C. Brummett was named on one of the committees of the 18th congressional district group of Democrats to push the national ticket, at a meeting of the committee in Amarillo, Saturday.

Judge Brummett was named on the finance committee along with J. H. Goodman of Lubbock, Ross Bell, Childress; H. E. Hoover, Canadian; Julius Dorenfield, Amarillo; Judge Kenneth Bain, Floydada; Mr. Grundy, Memphis, and Mr. Veale of Wheeler.

The publicity committee included Chas. A. Guy, Lubbock; T. E. Johnson, Amarillo; H. S. Hilburn, Plainview; John L. McCarty, Dalhart; Olin E. Hinkle, Pampa; Deskin Wells, Wellington; Van Stewart, Perryton; and Sam Roberts, Haskell.

On the executive committee are: R. E. Underwood, Amarillo, chairman; Durwood H. Bradley, Lubbock; Mrs. Meade F. Griffin, Plainview; J. M. Harris, Snyder, and Mrs. Floyd Fletcher, Amarillo. Harwood Beville, of Amarillo, was named district secretary.

The purpose of the organization is to promote and in every way possible boost the Democratic national ticket, Roosevelt for President and Texas' John Garner for Vice-President. And it is the hope of the Texas organization to bring out the largest presidential ever polled in the State at the general election. The following letter to Judge Brummett notifying him of the committee appointment will explain his duties in the organization:

NATNL. DEMO. HDQ.
Amarillo, Texas.
Hon. Henry Brummett,
Dickens, Texas.
Dear Mr. Brummett:
At a meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee for the 18th Congressional District campaign for the National Democratic ticket, you were appointed as a member of the Finance Committee. Please advise us your acceptance, and any suggestions you may have for furtherance of the campaign in the territory.

We will need, of course, money to care for the expenses, and also to aid in the doubtful states. In connection with this, plans have been set out by the State Finance Chairman, for sale of medallions, and October 8th has been designated as medallion day. The medallion is one designed by the noted sculptor, Gutzon Gorglum, of Roosevelt and Garner, and will be worth while. If you can do so, we will appreciate your letter letting us know as near as you can, what number of these different counties in your section can use. You can get in touch with the county chairmen. Other letters will be sent you from time to time.

We urge you to take immediate steps to care for the situation in your territory, to the end that we may not only get out a full vote and give a great and overwhelming majority for our candidates for President and Vice-President, but also further the finances which are greatly necessary.

Please give us benefit of your advice and help, and urge all Democrats to get to work for the interests of the National ticket.

Sincerely yours,
R. E. Underwood, Chairman.
Harwood Beville, Sec-Man.
Incidentally, Mr. Underwood, chairman of the committee, is an uncle of Miss Pauline Buster of this city and Miss Kathryn Buster of McAdoo.

W. A. Smart of Rotan was visiting his sons A. B. and Clay Smart in Spur Tuesday.

Seminole Indian Village Moved From Florida to Dallas For State Fair

Dallas, Texas, Sept. 22.—A Seminole Village, with its tribe of 28 people, a chief, and three alligator wrestlers from the Everglades of Florida, will be set up as one of the featured attractions at the 1932 State Fair of Texas, Oct. 8 to 23. The village will occupy a space 200 feet by 200 feet, and the side walls, the huts, the ceremonial stages, will be set up just as they are found in the native villages of the Florida swamps.

Three alligator wrestlers, each of whom has been raised in the Everglades, will be seen in hourly wrestling matches with the alligators. Twelve wrestling alligators are carried by the Indians and the smallest of these measures eleven feet long, and weighs 250 pounds.

More than 350 birds, animals, and insects will be shown to the managerie of the village. Included in the list of animals are ostriches, kinkajoes, flamingoes, coral snakes, Everglade rattlers and moccasins, fox squirrels, raccoons, Florida beavers and others.

The 28 Seminole Indians, in their peculiar dress, will be seen in tribal dances and ceremonies, and such of their solemn rites as weddings, will be staged during their stay and exhibit at the State Fair of Texas.

Allredge Takes Over Management Afton Barber Shop

C. A. Allredge, part owner of the Spur Barber shop, has this week acquired the Afton Barber Shop and will move with his family to that place.

What Is Value Of Terracing?

Texas farmers think county agents too conservative in the values they place on terraces. At least that is the conclusion drawn from a summary of farmer estimates from all over the State which averages $7.92 per acre for the value of terraced land compared to $5 per acre estimated by M. R. Bentley, farm engineer in the A. & M. College Extension Service. The latter figure is commonly accepted by the Service and cooperating organizations. Using farmer estimates, terracing up to 1932 has been worth $4,000,000 to Texas.

The range of farmer estimates is great, but seldom has one been lower than $5 per acre. A West Texan says: "I have seen years when terraces meant difference between a crop and no crop at all." An East Texan states: "I had rather work terraced land with no fertilizer than unterraced land with 200 pounds of fertilizer per acre." Most of them express the worth of terraces in terms of increased yields which they estimate all the way from $1 per acre per year up to one-third increase. In 10 or 15 years ago there was therefore had a chance to observe the effect of terraces on market values, declare terraces make the land worth from $10 to $25 more per acre.

A county agent says that a portion of the crop increases should be credited to the better management that is usually practiced by those who terrace. "A man who thinks enough of his farm to terrace it will ordinarily use a crop rotation including legumes, till the land better, and sow better seed."

"This is the view of the Extension Service," says Mr. Bentley. "Terracing is the first step in building soil to profitable levels. Terracing saves the foundation, prevents further losses of fertility, and makes the most of rainfall. This gives a good farmer something on which to build a paying farm."

Writ Would Bar Mrs. Fergusons Name On Ticket

Austin, Sep. 29—Judge W. F. Robertson, of 126th district court granted a temporary injunction at 12:30 a. m. this morning restraining Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, her husband Jas. E. Ferguson, the State Democratic Executive Committee, State Chairman Maurey Hughes, Mrs. Jane Y. McCallum, secretary of state, or other state officials from causing Mrs. Ferguson's name to be placed on the Nov. 8 ballot as the Democratic nominee for governor.

County clerks and county judges in each of the 254 counties of the state were made parties to the suit.

The petition was presented at Judge Robertson's home early this morning by General M. M. Crane of Dallas, C. S. Bradley, of Groesbeck, and Sam McCorkle, of Mexia, attorneys for Governor Ross S. Sterling.

Robertson asked if attorneys for Mrs. Ferguson were in town and had been notified inasmuch as they had asked for an opportunity to be heard should an injunction be presented.

"We object to giving any advance notice whatever," Bradley declared. The attorneys for Governor Sterling contended that since the governor filed a contest two weeks ago of Mrs. Ferguson's certification by the state Democratic convention in meeting at Lubbock, alleging fraudulent voting had been uncovered in many counties over the state and that only Robertson had the right to order the name of Mrs. Ferguson placed on the ballot.

Robertson signed the temporary restraining order and it was filed with George H. Tomplin, district clerk shortly before 1 a. m.

Entire Cotton, Corn, and Wheat Crop Go For Fed'l Salaries

In favoring temporary readjustment of federal salaries as a part of the economy program, Senator McKellar of Tennessee declared that the government payroll had grown to $1,350,000,000 a year, or $250,000,000 more than all the federal expenses for every purpose in 1916. He pointed out by way of graphic illustration:

The absolute necessity of these reductions is shown by what it takes to pay the present federal salary list. It will take the entire average cotton crop of 16,000,000 bales at five cents per pound, the present price, amounting to $40,000,000; in addition to that it will take the entire average wheat crop of 800,000,000 bu., aggregating $400,000,000; and in addition to that it will take the entire corn crop, averaging 2,000,000,000 bushels, at the present price of 22 cents a bushel on the farm, making $550,000,000; in all, $1,350,000,000, to pay the federal salary list alone.

Think of it Mr. President! All of the cotton crop at the present price; all of the wheat crop at the present price; all of the corn crop at the present price, to pay the federal salaries alone!

Delinquent Tax Notice to Payers

Sterling, and a bill signed by him exemption all penalties and interest on all taxes that are delinquent for past years if paid by December 31, 1932. Will be very glad to serve you either by mail or personal for we think this a good law, but such a short time.

W. B. ARTHUR,
Tax Collector, Dickens County, Texas.

Demonstration Club News

(By CLARA PRATT, H. D. A.)

DATE SET FOR CLUB EXHIBIT

October 21 and 22 were the dates set for the Club Exhibit by the County Home Demonstration Council in its regular meeting Saturday. The Council Chairman appointed various committees needed to put on the exhibit. Mrs. J. C. Payne and T. C. Sandlin compose the building committee. They are to secure a building and clean it ready for use. Mrs. Cecil Fox and Mrs. I. E. Abernathy are the registering or receiving committee and will register each entry, as it is brought in. Mrs. Foy Vernon is to act as secretary for the judges. Mrs. J. W. Carlisle and Mrs. Willis King, the committee who solicited the prizes will put these prizes on display and award them when the judging has been done.

We are expecting 100 per cent participation on the part of the clubs and a high percentage of the club women bring a complete list.

A slight change in the premium list was made in Council Saturday. There will be four prizes offered for canned vegetables as follows:
Best quart string beans - 1 gal
canned pineapple
Best quart peas - 1 lb coffee
Best quart greens - Hair cut
Best quart other vegetable - 10 lbs cotton for quilts

For the canned fruit a dust cloth will be given and a year's subscription to the Dickens County Times and five gallons gas for the two best quarts of other fruits.

2. Dress cleaned and pressed

NEW CAN LABELS ARRIVE
This week we received samples of the new tin can labels for home demonstration products. The label was designed by Miss Lola Blair, Extension Nutritionist at A. & M. and is to take place of the standard 4-H label except for those products which have been standardized with the Home Industry Specialists.

The new label is printed on buff and green paper and has an interwoven monogram of Texas as Home Demonstration Products over a Texas star. There is space below the star for the name of the product. The label is very significant and will mean much to the users.

An attractive package creates additional pride in canning achievements, and pride in efforts as the generator of quality. Each label, too, will be a constant reminder of the part the user has played in putting over one of the greatest food preservation programs the county has ever known. Besides adding to the attractiveness of the home pantry the use of the labels will protect the cans from rust thereby insuring their use a second or third time. Each pantry demonstrator will have her pantry all dressed up in new labels for the achievement day in November.

Your attention is called to an advertisement appearing in this issue of the paper giving the opening day menu and prices charged, and Mr. Wann extends a cordial invitation to old friends and patrons to visit the new cafe.

His Last Request

A merchant was told that he had but a few days to live. He summoned his attorney and instructed: "Make my will so my overdrafts at the banks goes to my wife—she can explain them. My equity in my car to my son—he will have to go to work to keep up the payments. Give my good will to the supply houses; they took some awful chances on me and are entitled to something. My equipment you can give to the junk man—he has had his eye on it for many years. I want six of my creditors for palbearers—they have carried me so long they might as well finish the job."—Ex.

Hooking the Collateral
"I'm sorry," said the diner who hoped to get away with it, "but I haven't money to pay for that meal."
"That's all right," said the cashier. "We'll write your name on the wall and you can pay the next time you come in."
"Don't do that. Everybody who comes in will see it."
"Oh no they won't. Your overcoat will be hanging over it."
—Boston Transcript.

Music
Music was prohibited during certain hours in the precincts of the college, but an undergraduate found the saxophone more engaging than his studies. Next day he received a note from the higher authority to this effect: "Much against my better judgement and for purposes of discipline only, I am compelled to regard your saxophone playing as music."

Final Proof
Brown—Do you think the dead can communicate with us?
Black—I know they can't. One time I managed to borrow a dollar from a Scotchman. A week later he died, and I haven't heard a word since."

On The Street Car
"Madam," he said, "will you please get off my foot?"
"Put your foot where it belongs," she replied shortly.
"Don't tempt me, Madam, don't tempt me," he countered.

Her New Job
A colored man injured in a fall at a construction site was taken to a hospital. "Did Washington F. Johnson live here?" he asked the weeping woman who opened the door.
"Yassah," she replied between the sobs.
"I want to see the remains."
With a new sense of importance the dusky widow drew herself erect and answered proudly, "I'm the remains."

Helmet of Navare
The vicar was paying a visit to the houses of his poorer parishioners, and in one of the houses he asked a good many questions about the family. A very grubby but cheerful little boy attracted the kindly cleric's attention, and he asked him his name.

"Reginald d'Arcy Smif, sir," replied the boy, with a grin.

The vicar turned to the boy's father.
"What made you give the boy a name like that?" he asked.
"Cause I want 'im ter be a professional boxer," returned the parent, "an' wiv a name like that he'll get plenty o' practice at school."

Applying the Word
A little girl was out walking with her aunt when a man passing them raised his hat.
"Who was that, auntie?" she inquired.
"That's Mr. Brown, dear," was the reply; "he's the village undertaker."
"Oh, yes, I remember him now," said the child; "he undertook grannie."

George (from next door)—Mrs. Jones, may I use your telephone?
Mrs. Jones—Certainly, George. Is yours out of order?

Wasn't For Him
Workmen were making repairs on the wires in a schoolhouse one Saturday, when a small boy wandered in.
"What you doin'?" he asked.
"Installing an electric switch" one of the workmen said.
"Well," concluded the little fellow, "I don't care. We've moved away and I don't go to this school any more."

She—What a lovely statue over there. Whose is it?
He—Oh, it belongs to the town.
She—No, no, I mean what's it of?
He—Granite, I guess.
She—But what does it represent?
He—Oh, about $50,000.
She—Thanks.

Trouble Overcome
CRAZY
CRYSTALS

I had an attack of influenza which left me with a bad case of toxemia and indications of colitis. I tried various treatments to overcome this trouble but was unable to obtain any relief until starting the use of CRAZY CRYSTALS. I have been using CRAZY CRYSTALS for some time and am feeling fine and have apparently overcome the trouble.
Others in my family have also obtained good results from the use of CRAZY CRYSTALS and I am recommending them to all my friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Crump were very busy the first of this week preparing to do some canning.

A Practical Joke Broke Friendship

Brown and White (which of course are not their right names) not only were near neighbors, but they worked in the same office. One Saturday Brown received notice from his superior that he would have to leave immediately for Chicago to close a deal.
"Do me a favor," he said to White. "I generally buy a couple of books for the wife to read over the weekend, but I can't do it now. Will you stop off at the store and get a couple for her? She'll want them particularly this weekend because she will be lonesome."
White promised faithfully, but White was a practical joker, and besides he knew quite a bit about the Brown household, including the fact that Mrs. Brown did not shine particularly at preparing meals. So, in cheer devilment, he bought two cook books, took them to Mrs. Brown and intimated that her husband had purchased them and asked him to make the delivery.
When Brown returned home there was the deuce to pay. He hasn't spoken to White since, but he has sent the latter a book devoted to methods of developing feeble minds.—New York Sun.

Everyone should include meat in the diet at least twice each day, according to the latest doctrines of the medical world. This fact will be brought out by several nationally famous physicians during the campaign for "Meat for Health," which will be one of the features of Beef Cattle Week at the 1932 State Fair of Texas, Oct. 8 to 23.
F. O. Taylor of Duck Creek was in Saturday and brought us a bucket of his sorghum syrup which is the best we have tasted, even better than the famous East Texas sorghum.

While armored brutes fought for life in PENNSYLVANIA

SINCLAIR Pennsylvania Motor Oil is an outstanding example of what Nature and man working together, can produce in a fine automobile lubricant. Back in the Devonian Age, a hundred million years ago, long before even the dinosaurs came into being, Nature deposited in the Bradford-Allegheny District of the Pennsylvania field, the crude oil which today commands the highest price of all Pennsylvania grade crudes. Man has done his part in the great Sinclair refineries where Sinclair, in manufacturing Sinclair Pennsylvania Motor Oil, de-waxes Bradford-Allegheny crude and frees it from non-lubricating petroleum jelly at as low as 60° F. below zero. Try a crankcaseful of Sinclair Pennsylvania—the year-round Pennsylvania grade motor oil.

Should Texas Set Such Precedent?

District Judge W. F. Robertson of Austin has granted a temporary injunction forbidding the printing of Mrs. Ferguson's name on the general election ballot. The order was granted late at night (12:30 a. m. Thursday morning) after having been presented by attorney of Governor Sterling, and was filed with the district clerk 30 minutes later on the same night. In answer to Judge Robertson's inquiry as to whether Mrs. Ferguson's attorneys (who had asked to be heard should such injunction be present) were in town, C. S. Bradley of Groesbeck, an attorney for Sterling, replied, "we object to giving any advance notice whatever."

Whether or not Judge Robertson, who is an uncle of former Governor Dan Moody, and an appointee of Gov. Sterling, has the authority to override the State Democratic Executive Committee and prevent Mrs. Ferguson's name from going on the ballot is not known since the writ will probably be passed on by a higher tribunal. If it should prove that he has this authority, however, it will certainly set a precedent in the State of Texas, and a most disagreeable one. Following such a precedent any defeated candidate for state office could easily prevent his opponent having his name printed on the ballot of the general election. All that it would be necessary for such a defeated candidate to do would be to file a contest of the election and obtain a writ from a friendly judge—perhaps at night sometime. The possibilities of such political maneuvers are unlimited.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

By Edson R. Waite
THAT there is no substitute for newspaper advertising. It is far the best by every test. Newspaper advertising means more to a business than any other form of advertising because it makes more for a business. Persistent, truthful advertising will afford positive and permanent relief for poor business. A pleasing thing about well advertised goods is the fact that they sell quickly and give satisfaction. Newspaper advertisements are busy little things, working all the time, helping business concerns to make money and helping the people to save money. They work for all. Business concerns that do not advertise may know what they are doing, but no one else does. Live concerns that want to make sales quickly and advantageously place their proposition before the people and keep it before them by newspaper advertising. You save by reading the advertisements and buying where the best buys are.

Municipal Ownership

It is just as common for Public Utilities in almost every European country to be owned and operated by the Municipality or State, as it is unusual in our own country.

Water Works Systems, telephone, telegraph, light and power plants, street cars, bus lines, ferrys, railroads etc.—in the countries across the Atlantic all are owned and operated without private control.

It may be that taxation, growing steadily larger as the country grew older, helped bring about this situation in Europe.

It is different in this country, where the majority of our utilities are owned and controlled by private interests who are robbing the public by charging exorbitant rates, and by the issuance of millions of dollars of worthless stock as was done recently in the South Plains area.

However, we find many cities finding municipal ownership of public utilities a solution to their tax problem. Chanute, Kansas; Ponca City, Oklahoma, and others found it unnecessary to make a tax levy for the year 1932.

What would your electric rate be in Spur today if it was not for our Municipal Light Plant?
