

'Registered Nurse' Unique Picture Of Hospital Romance

A love story, replete with drama, action and passion, yet entirely free from the morbidity of the usual hospital picture, a rapidly moving, superbly acted silver screen romance, is "Registered Nurse," featuring beautiful Bebe Daniels, which comes to the Ritz Theatre, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

First National chose wisely in eliminating the depressing elements of institutional life as well as in casting the production.

The story which was written by Florence Johns and Wilton Lackaye, Jr., centers around the beautiful trained nurse wife of a drunken wastrel, whose love is sought by two staff surgeons; the action, however reveals a number of the other romances, giving the audience a glimpse into the intimate lives of the members of a great metropolitan hospital.

Bebe Daniels, still youthful despite her long career in the movies, which incidentally she entered at the age of twelve, and more beautiful than ever in a nurse's costume, again shows the talent made her the first outstanding star of the silent films to score a personal hit in talking pictures.

Miss Daniels is ably supported by two leading men, Lyle Talbot, in the role of the villain, and John Halliday, as the hero.

Talbot, as ever, is the suave polished man-of-the-world, who by flattery and deception ingratiates himself into the affections of a too trustful woman.

John Halliday, as the chief of the hospital staff and surgeons, and Talbot's rival for the pretty nurse, gives an exceptional performance. There are few more talented players on the screen than Halliday as attested by his performance in such pictures as "The House on 56th Street," "Man Called Back," "Fifty Million Frenchmen," and others. In "Registered Nurse" he handles his part with a brilliance akin to genius.

Irene Franklin, the famous musical star lends a bit of refreshing comedy to the production as the lady of easy morals who attempts to disrupt the entire institution after having been forcibly taken to the hospital much battered up from a free for all fight as does also Sidney Toler, a wrestling promoter and Miss Franklin's companion in crime.

Ed Lisenby, Pioneer Cattleman Of West Texas, Died Friday, June 28, In Lubbock

Funeral Services Held At Family Home Saturday

Saturday morning at nine o'clock a large crowd of friends and acquaintances gathered at the Lisenby home here to pay last respects to Ed Lisenby, pioneer cattleman and cowboy of this section who passed away Friday morning at 5 o'clock at Lubbock Sanitarium. An added compliment to this veteran of the saddle and the plains country was that the gathering who came to pay him their last regards was composed of all classes of people. Both Mexicans and whites came with uncovered heads to hear the words of Rev. Brown, pastor of the First Christian Church who read the rites.

Ed Lisenby was born Feb. 2, 1871 in Grayson county near Whitesboro, Texas and at the age of 21 years came to the Panhandle section of Texas and in 1897 came to Dickens county working as a cowboy here and on a ranch in Briscoe county. On June 21, 1898 he was married to Mattie Belle Holland, daughter of a prominent ranchman, in Dickens City. Judge McKnight reading the marriage ceremony.

Following their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Lisenby bought land in the northwest part of the county where they lived for a time and later went to Floyd county where they lived for several years.

Some twenty years ago Mr. Lisenby bought the Chas. Windham Ranch northeast of Dickens and following the trend of the times placed something like two thousand acres of the ranch in cultivation and at the time of his death was known as one of the big scale farmers and ranchers of the county. Friends state that on every occasion this astute cattleman saddled his pony and rode with his "cow hands" during thunder storms and squalls to fix water gaps and keep the cattle from stampeding and his death is attributed to the fact that he worked night and day as did Thomas Edison and that his hours of labor were regulated by what there was to be done.

Seventeen years ago Mr. Lisenby bought a residence in Spur for the benefit of school advantages for his children and since that time the family has maintained both their ranch home and their home here. And during their residence here

TO THE VOTERS OF DICKENS COUNTY:

There are a great number of voters in this county that I will not be able to meet personally and present my claims for the office of County Treasurer. I regret very much being handicapped thus, but ask that you kindly accept this appeal as a personal call to you. Being without means of transportation, and unable to bear the expense of hiring a way of going to all places, I can not make a house-to-house canvass, but let me say that I am qualified to hold the Treasurer's office, and can devote my entire time to rendering service to the public in this capacity. Your consideration will certainly be appreciated.

Sincerely,
MRS. HATTIE TURVIN

Jinx Yarbrough, of McAadoo was transacting business affairs in Spur Tuesday and while in town made the Texas Spur force a pleasant call.

Misses Wilma and Winona Stephens spent the week end in the home of Wilma's parents at Dickens.

they have so entrenched themselves in the hearts of the people here that they number their friends by their acquaintances and many who were not personally acquainted with Mr. Lisenby attended his last rites out of the love they held for his excellent family.

Pall bearers at the funeral were G. H. Snider, H. O. Albin, Dr. E. F. Hale, E. L. Caraway, Homer Boothe, J. P. Caudle; and flower bearers were chosen from among George's friends, the eldest son, and were Jeff Brown, Cash Wileman, Harvey Giddens, and James McCormick.

Surviving are the widow and ten children, George Lisenby, who is manager of the market department of Bailey Food Store, Mrs. Jesse Pennell, of Wichita Kansas, Mrs. Bill Barnes of Abilene, Ernal, Leonard, Dot, June, Mary, Spencer, and Ouida Yvonne, all of Spur; also a brother, John Lisenby of Matador, and a sister, Mrs. A. B. Echols of Matador. Their eldest son, Earl, died in 1918 during the flu epidemic.

GEORGE MAHON

George Mahon For Congress Spoke In Spur Saturday, 30

George Mahon, of Colorado City, candidate for Congress from the newly created 19th District was an unexpected and unannounced speaker on the streets of Spur Saturday. The young, and energetic district attorney of his district however, managed to gather an audience which blocked the sidewalks and gained a big applause at the conclusion of his talk.

Mr. Mahon in his talk stated that his chief purpose was to gain friends and that the voters should have confidence in any man that they sent two thousand miles to Washington to represent them and that if he were elected he would not betray such a confidence. He is a young man 33 years of age who has the fire of American patriotism running in his veins and who does not hesitate to say what he thinks and the action he will take.

One of the chief points made in discussing his platform was to declare against the policy of selling tax free bonds. Mahon stated that there were 26 billion dollars worth of such bonds in existence, or approximately seven times the total value of the State of Texas, on which no taxes were paid whatever. And that if he were sent to Congress he would vote against every proposed issuance of tax free bonds and securities.

Another matter of importance which Mr. Mahon made plain in his talk was the tariff issue. He showed that in the earlier days of this nation it was a good thing to protect and mother American manufacturing industries but in the course of the last hundred years these interests had grown in such proportions that they were not only monetary giants with the big bankers back of them but were causing a serious injury and drain on the finances of the producing South.

In Texas prosperity depends on a good market for the 54 percent of the cotton which is exported, and a high tariff wall is injurious to this section and should be remedied. In his discussion of the depression and accompanying evils, Mr. Mahon stated that the government was indebted to the extent of two hundred billion dollars at the present time and that in the vaults of this country there was the small sum of eight billion dollars in gold to pay off said indebtedness which was mostly marked payable in gold.

Mr. Mahon concluded his talk with a few personal facts. He said:

Briefly, I have resided in what now composes the District for 26 years. I am 33 years old. The Constitution requires that a man be 25 years of age before he can be elected to Congress. My experience consists in having been reared on a West Texas farm among West Texas people, an attendant upon West Texas and Texas schools, completing my work at two schools of higher learning in Texas. My political experience consists in having been elected to high office for four terms, and am now representing a large number of people serving my fourth term as District Attorney of a large District. I am deeply grateful to the peo-

SPUR YOUTH ACCEPTED IN U. S. MARINES

(Special to Texas Spur)
New Orleans, La., July 5—Charles A. Holmes, of Spur was one of the youths accepted for service in the U. S. Marines at the monthly examinations held in this city today. It is announced by Major P. D. Cornell, officer in charge.

Mr. Holmes was immediately transferred to Parris Island, S. C. for the basic training of a Marine. It is not known what line of work this young man will enter on completion of his initial training, many young are selected for aviation, radio, music, clerical, mechanics and other schools for specialist training. Sea duty is also one of the choicest of the many and varied duties of a Marine. Men on ships travel thousands of miles and will have many strange and thrilling experiences.

The U. S. Marines demand the very best type of young manhood. The education, character and physical requirements are rigid. The varied duties of Marines at foreign stations where they serve under situations of international importance, and also afloat ready to land to protect Americans in disturbed areas, requires selection of reliable and capable men.

Prior to entering the Marines, Holmes lived with his mother, Mrs. Edna Smith of Spur, RFD-2.

Applicants to fill vacancies in the Marines receive their preliminary physical examinations in their home localities and those selected receive their final examinations in New Orleans, La.

ple of the district for the fine reception they are giving me on every hand. I trust that we may become better acquainted between now and July 28th."

IN MEMORY OF CLEO AND LANOY HOLLY

Dedicated to her parents and his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Christopher.

Take this message to our dear ones Up there 'mid angels bright In that land where comes no sorrow One long day that has no night.

Tell them we are all so lonely In the home they left down here, But we plan soon to join them On some morning bright and clear.

Oh, how hard we tried to reach them To be present at their side Just to get the last farewell, Sir As they crossed the swelling tide.

Tell them we did our best, Sir, But our train was a few minutes late. Our next train will be on time

And they must meet us at the gate. Tell them please how much we love them, Though we told them o'er and o'er, But the angels now must tell them; We can talk to them no more.

For I'll wait till in the morning, And I'll labor while I wait, They must sure be at the station, For this train will not be late.

Than's, kind angel for your trouble, Now soar away to realms of light, Take this message to our darlings While we wait. Good Bye. Good Night.

—Mrs. W. W. ELKINS

CAMPAIGNER AT EIGHT

The youngest campaigner in the state. At eight, precocious student of government and a silver-tongued orator, little Jane Lou Short of Navasota has been telling the voters who's who in the state races. Neither microphone nor crowds bother her. Here she is "pouring it on" while John Pundt of Dallas, candidate for Railroad Commissioner, holds the "mike" so her voice will be picked up.

DEDICATED TO OUR HEROES

We stood in happiness side by side. We filled the house with glee. But now we're scattered for and wide by mountains, canyons and trees.

The plains, the rolling plains have one, He rides where the Pitchfork cattle roam. And one is reaping northern grain.

And one is going home. Our baseball ace is selling books. Our punster, caps and clothes. Denton, canvasses for tooth ache drops.

A. L. for pure silk hose. Pete our dramatist is a waiter now, in white he looks so nice. J. C. Draper, our football star, is loudly shouting ice!

We stood at ease, side by side, as close as we could be. Now we are all parted by our pride in honor such as these—

Our sheik Curtis works in a mill, ten miles from any maid. And in the shade of some old tree his pal sells lemonade. James drives a pair of patient mules.

Bill runs around for tips. And Dan is painting signs instead of writing quips. J. C. Powell is the only one who works with quiet and ease, for he and Hude are dirtin tubs in the Pitchforks sunny breeze.

From Twin Wells the group will go to Red Top to the home of Mrs. W. O. Garrison whose bedroom won second place in the women's contest. The Council is anxious that each club will be represented in the tour.

IN LOVING REMEMBRANCE OF MRS. G. W. HARVEY

Mrs. G. W. Harvey, better known throughout the Afton community as "Auntie Harvey" was born February 14, 1846 in Tennessee. Later moved to Illinois, Indiana and Arkansas. Her maiden name was Sarah E. Arrington. She married G. W. Harvey in 1867, while in Illinois. To this union two children were born, Rupert and Mrs. Eugene Gates, Rupert is still living but Mrs. Gates has gone on. Besides rearing these two children she reared four nieces and nephews from infancy.

Auntie Harvey was a young lady during the Civil War and she was never too tired to tell of the experiences that the family went through with, while living in Arkansas.

She came to Texas in 1876 and settled in Palo Pinto county, and lived there until 1891, when she came to Dickens county and settled on the old homestead, two miles east of Afton, where she lived some 43 years, until her death February 8th, 1934. She only lacked 6 days being 88 years old. She was laid to rest in the Afton Cemetery to await the Resurrection Morn. She was a member of the First Methodist Church for over 50 years.

Being pioneers of West Texas, visitors were always welcomed at Auntie Harvey's home. At Christmas the good neighbors never forgot her with gifts. She too remembered them.

We cannot find words to portray this notable character. Perhaps this little poem will aid:

"Her mind would think no ugly

thoughts,
Her lips would speak no malice
The doors were made of righteousness
That opened to her place.

Her eyes would beam with love light,
For this kind and noble queen,
Loved life and all it held
For every living thing.

But she has closed her eyes in rest,
Her purpose she has won;
A smile has spread upon her face
For God has said: "Well done!"

AND UP, F. O. B. FLINT, MICH.

With the announcement of price reductions several weeks ago, Chevrolet stepped into the most favorable price position it has enjoyed in a long time!

Reductions amounting to as much as $50—the most substantial price cuts announced in the low-price field this year—dropped Chevrolet's base price to a new low figure of $465. Just compare this price—compare any Chevrolet price—with those of other cars. Then compare what you get for what you pay! There'll be no question in your mind which car to buy.

Chevrolet offers patented Knee-Action—and others do not! The same thing applies to Fisher body, cable-controlled brakes, shock-proof steering, and valve-in-head six-cylinder engine. Chevrolet gives you far more features—far finer quality. Yet the price of the Chevrolet Standard is lower than that of any other six or any eight in the world.

are held in old gold, platinum silver and diamonds, that could be turned into cash today. The U. S. Government is paying $35 per ounce—a price no one ever dared to dream of a few years ago. It is of general knowledge, that the government will buy gold to a certain quantity—and thereafter, all buying will be done at the old prices only. If you have anything of value, old jewelry, broken bits of gold, silver, platinum or diamonds, old dental work containing gold—in fact anything, send it today without fail to the GOLD SMELTING & REFINERY CO., 253 South Broadway, Suite 221, Los Angeles, Calif.
