Work Commenced Monday on $18,000 School Building—The school board let the contract Saturday to Albert Wertz for the construction of the eighteen thousand dollar school building for Spur Independent School District and work was commenced Monday morning.

C. A. Jones and H. T. Garner were in the Tap community last week looking out the location for a road through that settlement for the convenience of Garza and Crosby county people going to Spur to trade.

Miss Jennie Shields is visiting relatives in Rang Star this week. Miss Deba Cross, of Tap, was in the Texas Spur office.

Mr. Minihan reports that he is about 2065 feet deep on the artesian well and the drill continues to go down in the same old hard, flinty rock.

Mr. James Foster and Miss Era Ham visited in Midway community last week from their homes in the Amity community.

Chas Durham was in Wednesday from his home south of Spur and reports everything in good shape with the exception of a few grass hoppers.

Prohibition Club Organized—Tuesday night Mayor Link, Rev. Berryman, Rev. Mike M. Young, J. V. McCormick, W. S. Campbell, G. T. Brandon, R. P. Cole, W. A. Hancock and Prof. Adams went out to Dry Lake school house to assist in the organization of a prohibition club at that place. The club was organized with a membership of thirteen or fourteen citizens of that section and the club is expected to be actively engaged in prohibition work from now until the election on state wide prohibition to be held July 22nd.

W. F. Godfrey a popular young real estate man of Spur was one among the many who attended the picnic at Dickens Saturday.

Mrs. Kerlin of Louisiana passed through the city on her way to Dickens, to visit her son J. R. Kerlin and family.

Frank Góff is now recovering from injuries received recently while hauling a load of wheel barrows to Dickens. In some manner Mr. Goff was thrown from the drivers seat and a rear wheel of the wagon passed over his leg.

Mrs. Buchanan, of near Dickens was in Spur Saturday afternoon with a load of berries grown in her orchard.

The squabble between Guthrie and Oklahoma City as to where the state capitol of Oklahoma should be located has been settled in favor of the latter place under the agreement that the state buildings would be erected free of cost to the state.

The fund for this purpose is being secured through the sale of town property as the government addition to the city.

A Number of Friends Greet Newly Weds and Form Procession of Escort—Wednesday Ned Hogan returned from Collinsville where he and Miss Melvin Patton were married Sunday at the home of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patton.

A number of Neds friends met the bride and groom at the depot with conveyances prepared in honor of the occasion, and after greetings the bride was escorted to an auto in waiting while the groom was gently but firmly led to a conveyance especially prepared and decorated for his benefit.

The conveyance was a two wheel cart decorated with flags, bunting, old shoes and to which was attached a donkey appropriately decorated and flitting flags in honor of the occasion. After placing the groom in the wedding carriage the conveyance was headed up the Burlington Avenue followed by friends who formed the wedding procession, escorting the groom to the Sol Davis establishment at which place the groom was lifted from the carriage by attentive escorts.

Attorney Chapman Enthusiastic Over Chance of Election

Attorney Alton B. Chapman, who has been making a vigorous campaign for the office of District Attorney of this Judicial District, returned here Friday night to rest over the weekend.

Atty. Chapman had spent the week in Floyd county, the home county of his opponent for office, and states that quite a number of citizens of that county who are well acquainted with the political situation there had encouraged him with information that he was expected to carry 40 percent or more of the Floyd county vote. Reports from Motley and Briscoe counties, which Chapman considers to be authentic, indicate that he will receive a majority of the vote at both places.

With these reports from the other three counties of the District as a basis to work on, Chapman estimates that if Dickens county gives him the vote to which he is entitled, his election is assured.

There is no question as to Chapman's qualifications for this higher office. He has educated himself on his own initiative with little or no outside help and after obtaining his degree in law was elected to the office of Attorney for Dickens County which is his home county. So well did he fill this office that he was reelected two years ago without opposition and during his four years or more tenure in this office no question has ever arisen as to his holding strictly to the highest ethics of his profession.

Marsh - Gilbert

Two of Spurs most popular young people were united in marriage, Thursday, July 12th when John O. Gilbert and Miss Johnnie Marsh drove over to Dickens, secured marriage license and the service of Judge Jim Cloud who read the marriage vows which made them man and wife.

Mrs. Gilbert is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Marsh of two miles north of town. She was reared in Spur and was graduated from Spur High School class of 1929 and also has had a business course which she is now putting into practice as stenographer at the relief office in Spur. She is a charming young woman and John O. is to be congratulated upon securing her for his bride.

John O. is the second son of Mrs. Ruby Gilbert, a pioneer West Texas family. He too was reared here and received his education in the Spur Schools. He is a young man of business ability and is a junior member of the Gilbert Bros. Shoe and Harness Shop.

They are at home in Spur at 507 North Trumbull where they are receiving congratulations and good wishes from their many friends here.

The Texas Spur and entire force wish them much happiness and prosperity and few of the hardships and sorrows incident to married life.

T. L. Conway and family of Wichita spent last week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Conway at their home two miles west of town, which position he has held a number of years.

Harry Crittendon, the famous Western Texas "Ranchman Poet" was in Spur several days this week visiting with Chas A. Jones and wife. Mr. Crittendon is now a resident of Burmuda Islands, but for years operated and still owns a ranch of several thousand acres of land and stocked with cattle in Jones county.

Married—Sunday Mr. Jim Foster and Miss Era Ham were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the home of the brides parents ten miles north of Dickens. A large number of friends of the contracting parties were present and on account of the large attendance the marriage ceremony was performed in the yard. Immediately after the ceremony, ice cream, cake and other refreshments were served and Mr. and Mrs. Foster received congratulations and good wishes of all present.

Will Watson Family Has Get-To-Gether

Mr. and Mrs. Will Watson had the pleasure of a get-together of the entire family over the week end at their spacious farm home in the Red Hill community.

Mr. and Mrs. Watson have three sons and three daughters, married and maintaining homes; all of whom live in and near Spur with the exception of a son Bernice and family who live on the plains near Plainview and who came down for a few days visit and one daughter, Mrs. Ben Bowlig, of Jayton who with her husband and baby were here for a week end visit. Other children are Floy Watson and family, Arner Watson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Pen Shugart, and Mr. and Mrs. Chap Reese and baby and Miss Virginia Watson all of whom were present for a family reunion and visit with their parents and each other and which undoubtedly must have been a most enjoyable occasion for Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

Sheriff Arthur Asks Support of Voters

Because of an injury to my leg which has never entirely healed I am unable to walk any considerable distance and cannot make a house to house campaign. And also due to the fact that I have been burdened with the duties of office as well as making a campaign I have not been able to see as many voters personally as I would like to have. However if you think I have made the county a good officer I sincerely hope that you will accept this as a personal solicitation of your vote and support. Thanking you in advance for your consideration I wish to remain, Faithfully yours,

W. B. (Bill) ARTHUR

David Eugene Taylor is spending this week in Rails visiting a great uncle, J. L. Ligon and other relatives.

County Superintendent Is Complemented

At McAdoo during the last session of the Dickens County Educational Association, an organization composed of teachers, trustees and patrons from the entire county, went on record as approving the work of Mrs. Twaddell as County School Superintendent. The meeting was followed by the secretary in the following manner.

A motion was made and seconded and carried unanimously to indorse the work of Mrs. Twaddell as County School Superintendent. The endorsement carried with it the fact that not many not many county superintendents have worked for teacher, pupil and community as does Mrs. Twaddell. She works hard and impartially. For the last four years she has given her time, every thought and her resources to the job. She has gone here and there anywhere there was a possibility of helping the schools without consideration of cost to herself.

Signed: S. L. Benefield, Sec.

School people have recently prepared and presented Mrs. Twaddell with a signed indorsement declaring that they had had occasion to consult her school records and had found them neat, accurate and easily understood. The county auditor, Mr. Jno. Ogelsby, who each year audits the books has left on file a statement to the effect that the books are accurate and well kept.—A Voter.

Who Wants To Go To The A. And M. Short Course?

Who wants to go to the Short Course this year? Probably at no other time will you be able to attend the Farmers' Short Course for $10. That amount will cover the total expense including $1.50 for room $4.50 for meals, $2.00 transportation, and $2.00 for incidentals. This low rate is possible because the Spur School Board is letting us use one of the school buses which will be driven by Mr. 'Red' Lain. The bus will probably leave Spur Saturday afternoon, July 28 and spend Saturday night in a tourist camp enroute, and complete the trip Sunday. If the start is made Saturday afternoon that will make a slight additional expense.

This is the Silver Anniversary of the Farmers' Short Course at A. and M. College and the program gives promise of being the best of all. Outstanding speakers of the state and nation will bring inspirational messages in the morning sessions and the afternoon programs are in the form of laboratory courses where the people may really do the things they are learning laboratory courses cover a wide range of subjects from making grape juice from wild Texas grapes, and syrup making to making hooked rugs and gloves.

During the same week, July 30-August 3, the Rural Pastors' and Laymen's conference, County School Superintendents' Conference, Extension Agents' meeting, Bee Keepers' Association, and Texas Agricultural Writers' Conference are all in session at College Station and visitors to the Short Course may attend any of these meetings.

See your local farm home demonstration agent and enroll with them to attend this short course where you will have a delightful week with hundreds of farm men, women, boys and girls from all over the state. Those planning to attend must leave their room reservation, the $1.50 mentioned above, with the farm or home agent not later than Monday, July 23rd.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Reynolds who have been spending a visit with their parents Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Conway returned to their home in Sunray the first of this week. Miss Gladys Conway accompanied them home and will spend a months visit with her sister before returning home.

Miss Stephens, of Mangum, Oklahoma is spending this week in Spur the guest of her cousin Loyd Womack.

State and District Candidates Speak In Spur Saturday

The political arena of Spur and territory has begun to resound with varied planks that go to build the platforms of some of the district and State candidates. Last week the streets of Spur were filled on two evening occasions when four West Texans brought their claims before Dickens County voters.

Clark Mullican, candidate in the race for Congress of the 19th District, turned his loud speaker microphone upon the citizens of Dickens county from in front of Bailey's Food Store, setting forth the kind of congressional government he was interested in helping to promote. He spread a well planned series of aims which he termed an extreme pleasure to inject into the basics of congressional workings, and brought forward some ethical methods of entering the aims.

Mounting the speakers stand following the termination of Mullican's address, Joe A. Merritt, of Snyder, hailing under the banner of the 118 District candidates for Representative of the state, came out with his claim for the office over his opponents, Leonard Westfall, Aspermont; and Ben F. Smith, Snyder. His presentation outlined some of the high points of his career as Representative in the preceding term and set out the plans of carrying on the string of his past work if he succeeds to reelection.

Saturday night a vast number of Spur people, swelled to a throng by the addition of many voters from the surrounding territory, heard a double political program in the claims of Senator Arthur P. Duggan, Littlefield aspirant for a seat in Congress from the new 19th District, and Leonard Westfall, County Judge of Stonewall county who is running for Representative of the 118th District. Burlington Avenue heard from Duggan's microphone a well rounded out platform concerning Duggan's splendid record in the past and the advantages he has in serving the people if placed in the Congressional seat. He is planning to relinquish his claims to the Senatorship if he cops the higher office. Duggan says he is a born West Texan and his ears heed the voices of West Texans wherever he plants himself to represent them. He laid his twelve plank platform forcefully before the Dickens county voters.

Judge Leonard Westfall, using Duggan's "mike," trained his guns on some of the high points of government of the past few years and presented his claims and qualifications for the office of Representative of the 118th District. Some of the stories he especially wished to stack into the walls of the House of Representatives were accepted as able representations from the district by many of the citizens and he was enthusiastic in endorsing cotton farmer cooperation in the marketing situation.

Spur people have later been informed that Arthur Duggan has made plans to speak at McAdoo July 23 preceding the schedule speakings of Dickens County candidates.

George White Has 'No Girls' In The White's Scandals

FOUR OF HIS "SCAN-DOLLS" TELL PRODUCER WHAT THEY THINK

Hollywood has its "yes men" but George White has his "no girls." Lois Eckhart, Eunice Coleman, Peggy Mosely and Hilda Knight are the girls.

They appeared first in the stage "Scandals" in New York, went on the road with the same company and, returning to New York from this tour, were called immediately to Hollywood to join the caste of the first motion picture edition of the famous musical show.

It was not until they were in the film colony for some time that White revealed he had brought them to Movieton City for a reason other than their ability to sing, dance and please the masculin eye. But at that he didn't make any revelation intentionally.

The expose came when White was called to one of the Fox Film projection rooms to view the rushes of himself in a role in the "Scandals." In addition to staying the famed show, he is appearing in the film—his initial appearance for benefit of a motion picture camera other than the news reel variety. Until this episode no one knew that the four girls had any different qualifications than the other 146 girls who appear in the show.

At the projection room White refused to enter—yet. "Waiting for someone," he explained. Eventually the four girls appeared, but not until a delay waiting for them had necessitated the explanation that he had four girls on the payroll who are not afraid of showing disapproval as quickly as approval.

Yes—"no girls."
"Scandals" comes on Sunday to the Palace Theatre.

There are almost 9 million fewer horses and mules in the United States now than there were in 1920, which means that 40 million acres of land are no longer needed for growing feed.

One plan of national recovery is to pass a law providing that all petroleum products used as fuel in internal combustion engines shall be blended 10% by volume with Ethyl alcohol made from agricultural products grown in the United States. This would provide a market for 680 million bushels of grain.

West Texas Utilities Company

Except in the larger cities, electric service was rarely satisfactory before long-distance transmission of electric power was perfected.

Small local plants serving single communities generally lack the variety and volume of demand which enables a larger system, serving a wide area, to operate efficiently.

Nor can small, isolated plants meet sudden demands for more power nearly as readily as the larger system.

The transmission line can deliver larger amounts of power at once without the delay of installing additional equipment. Thus it clears the road for industrial growth.

The present-day industrial progress of small communities is based in a large measure on the ample and economical power supply which resulted when the transmission systems replaced small local plants throughout the nation.

With 2,608 miles of transmission lines, the West Texas Utilities stands ready to render satisfactory service to 159 prosperous cities, towns and communities throughout West Texas—"The Land of Opportunity."

Do you know that your increased use of Electric Service is billed on a surprisingly low rate schedule... and adds only a small amount to your total bill?

Stars, Spectacles, Music, To Brim 'In Wonder Bar'

FIRST NATIONAL'S HIT REACHES NEW HIGH IN SCREEN ACHIEVEMENT AND BEAUTY

Never in the memory of this reviewer has there been staged a show of such magnitude and magnificence as the First National production of "Wonder Bar," which begins at the Ritz Theatre today.

"Wonder Bar" is not just another musical. Warner Bros.-First National have produced three great musicals, "42nd Street," "Gold Diggers of 1933," and "Footlight Parade," in the past year. It was held that they had hit the high spots with these three productions; that they could not go on indefinitely putting out greater spectacles.

But Warner Bros.-First National have again done the seemingly impossible. "Wonder Bar" is something entirely new, so vastly different from anything that has gone before it that there is no means of comparison. It surpasses its predecessors not only in its uniqueness and novelty, but in the beauty and grandeur of its spectacle and its throbbing drama of life.

And what a cast! Six brilliant stars, with a dozen featured players to say nothing of five hundred other performers. Jolson has his old stage role which he enacts with all of his old time fire and enthusiasm as one of the world's greatest entertainers. He sings two catchy new songs in English and a Russian gypsy melody, as well as acting as master of ceremonies at the gay Parisian night club where the drama is set.

Kay Francis is stately and charming as the somewhat flirtatious wife of a wealthy banker who has lost her head over a cabaret singer. Dolores Del Rio, the magnetic brunette and the dashing Ricardo Cortez make an excellent team as the dancing marvels of "Wonder Bar" cabaret, whose fiery and impassioned last performance of the newly invented "Gaucho" dance ends in the stabbing of the lover.

Dick Powell sings as engagingly as always, as well as giving an excellent performance as an orchestra leader and rival lover for the beautiful Del Rio. Hal Leroy, the famous stage star, performs one of his wizard dances that takes the house.

Other notable performers in the cast include Guy Kibbee, Hugh Herbert, Louise Fazenda, Ruth Donnelly, Fifi d'Orsay, Henry O'Neill, Robert Barrat, Merna Kennedy and Henry Kolker, all of whom do excellent work.

It is impossible adequately to describe the magnificence of the spectacles created and directed by Busby Berkeley, that master craftsman who staged the numbers not only in "Wonder Bar," but for "42nd Street," "Gold Diggers of 1933" and "Footlight Parade." The number called "Don't Say Good Night," set on a revolving stage and encircled by gigantic pillars and glass, is a revelation in beauty and splendor and can be appreciated only by being seen.

Three hundred of Hollywood's most beautiful dancing and singing girls romp through this and other numbers amid a riot of color and dazzling light effects.

Lloyd Bacon, who guided Jolson through the "Singing Fool," in the early days of the talkies, has welded the various parts of this mammoth production into a complete dramatic entity that makes it thoroughly balanced entertainment. Earl Baldwin wrote the screen play while the catchy music and lyrics are by Harry Warren and Al Dubin. If you only go to one show a year, this is the one you should not miss.

THINGS YOU MAY NOT KNOW ABOUT YOUR TELEPHONE

THE MEN who aided Alexander Graham Bell in the invention of the telephone are perpetuated today in many of the policies, and even in the form of organization, of your telephone service.

Bell himself, the young inventor... today his place is taken by Bell Telephone Laboratories, with its countless improvements to the telephone art.

Thomas A. Watson, making with his own hands the first telephones... today his place is filled by the great shops of Western Electric Co., which supplies at a saving the materials needed in the Bell System.

Gardiner G. Hubbard, first business adviser of the infant telephone industry... and today the American Telephone and Telegraph Co., parent organization of the Bell System... whose staff members develop more economical operating methods for the 24 Bell associated companies... whose financing facilities make available, at a saving, funds for necessary extensions to telephone lines and equipment.

In an undertaking planned like the telephone service for the long pull, what is best for the telephone user becomes in the end the course that should bring the surer, more enduring success. For more than 50 years, the savings from the specialized telephone organization these men created have gone to give good telephone service at fair cost to the user.
