Washington Trip On Farmer Special By Dickens Men an interest in the New Deal Grocery

(By Roy Arrington, Spur, and Joe M. Rose, Duncan Flat)

Leaving Spur Saturday, May 11, at 6:20 o'clock; we boarded one of the special trains at Ft. Worth on Sunday, May 12, at 2:00 o'clock. This really marked the beginning of our trip to Washington. With stops at Dallas and Longview to finish out our train of some sixteen or eighteen coaches including diners and observation cars.

From Longview we traveled via Texarkana, arriving at Texarkana at eight or nine o'clock Sunday nite, so we traveled through Arkansas at night mostly, and could not tell whether or not they wear shoes there now. We went along the side of the great Mississippi River some-business. Albin is an experienced groceryman, having for the past two years been with the Bailey Food Store, and in the past been connected with other groceries of the city.
