It's the guys' turn

Bobcats, Swifts are in state tourney today

Castro County is the hotbed of basketball in the state of Texas this week. On the heels of the Nazareth Swiftettes' 15th state championship and Texas Cup victory, here come the guys!

The Dimmitt Bobcats and Nazareth Swifts earned trips to the state basketball tournament last weekend, and they'll be in action today (Thursday) at the Frank Erwin Center in Austin.

The Swifts (25-9) will face Goodrich (34-2) at 8:30 a.m. today in a Class afternoon. A Division II state championship game, and they have a shot a earning a rare double if they can bring home the boys' state crown to go with the girls' title. Dimmitt's Bobcats (26-8) will meet Corpus Christi West Oso (32-3) at 3:30 p.m. today (Thursday) in a Class AAA state semifinal game.

The Bobcats pulled out of Dimmitt by charter bus at noon Tuesday after a ance at the state tourney, and they've been eliminated in the first round both pep rally and hot-dog cookout at the high school and a motorcade sendoff. They stopped off at Abilene Christian University's Moody Coliseum for a workout Tuesday afternoon before going on to Austin.

The Bobcats are staying at Embassy Suites North at I-35 and Hwy. 183, as are the Swifts. On Wednesday the Dimmitt boys worked out at a college gym in Austin in preparation for their appearance in the Super Drum Thursday

"We may go (to the Erwin Center) early and watch some of the other games —especially the Naz game," Coach Alan Steinle said, "just to get the feel of the place, to get the boys familiar with the surroundings."

It will be a determined bunch of West Oso Bears that the Bobcats will meet in the semifinals Thursday afternoon. This is the Bears' third straight appear-previous times.

"We feel like they're going to be there with a mission," Steinle said. "They may come out with their ears laid back and really try to make a statement. We can't panic. Our focus will be to match their intensity early on."

No. 5 Dimmitt and No. 11 West Oso appear to have a lot in common. Both like to play an up-and-down game and score in the 70s or 80s, but both are also capable of playing a low-scoring control game when they need to.

Because of "a really good scouting report," Steinle said, "We really feel like we know a lot about them and how they're going to approach this first game.

"They're a very talented, quick bunch," Steinle reported. "They're a simple, fundamental team with two inbound plays and one kind of defense—man to man. Defense is what they really hang their hat on; they try to get a ton of (Continued on Page 9)

Winning two titles in one weekend is a first, even for Class A basketball powerhouse Nazareth.

Thursday, the Swiftettes managed a 61-51 win over Saltillo to claim the Class 1A, Division II state girls basketball title and a national record senior Whitney Hoelting's first answered with a three from the cor-15th state championship.

Then, on Saturday, the Swiftettes combined clever defensive tactics with some well-timed three point shots to whip the Class A, Division I champions from Kennard, 61-44.

The game Saturday at Austin's Erwin Center matched the class A large school state champion, Kennard, against the small school champion, Nazareth, in a quest for the first ever Texas Cup. There were 6,542 fans on hand to watch the contest.

"It was like winning the state championship twice, "junior Mandy Hoelting said.

"The Texas Cup adds to the Nazareth tradition," guard Stephanie Thiel said. "People will remember our team for starting a new tradition." Kennard earned the right to play for the Texas Cup with a 61-54 win Thursday win over Windthorst.

Normally, the Swiftettes run a pressure man-to-man defense, but Saturday they came out in a 2-3 zone and ran up 13 points before the Tigers ever found the goal.

"Defense was everything in that game," Nazareth Coach Matt Garrett said. "We hadn't run a 2-3 zone all year (just in spots), so it was impossible to scout.'

The Swiftettes also used a 1-3-1 zone defense to keep the Tigers off-

"The key to the game was experience," McClain said. "We don't have swiped the ball and went the distance that. Nazareth does."

That experience was apparent in quarter performance. The 5-11 post ner, Thiel connected underneath, and scored 7 of her 15 game points in Thiel and Wendy Black sank three that stanza, first on a 10 foot jump shot after a steal, next on a short jumper, then on a deep corner threepoint shot.

"I felt like I had to take charge inside," Hoelting said. "Once I got the defense to draw inside, we started shooting better outside."

Hoelting's performance was enhanced by a game opening bucket by Mandy Hoelting, a free throw and a basket underneath by Thiel, and a three-pointer from Wendy Black, 3:46 left in the quarter. sophomore guard.

The clock had ticked down to 2:37 before Kennard's Jessie Skinner got a steal and converted it into a basket. The 5-10 senior sank two more shots in a row, and Tanesiah Lamb, a 5-10 post hit two charity shots and a short jumper at the end of the stanza to pull to within five points, 15-10.

"They have an explosive offense," Garrett said, "so they came back quickly."

Whitney Hoelting opened scoring in the third stanza with a layup at 6:30. Then the Swiftettes hit three unanswered three-pointers.

Mandy Hoelting launched a left side three. Lesley Brockman hit one from the same spot less than a minute later. Then it was Wendy Black's turn out front. The nine-point run put the Swiftettes ahead, 34-21, with

The Tigers fought back when 5-10 post Tanesiah Lamb pumped in two free shots and a turnaround jumper. Whitney Hoelting answered that with another basket underneath. Skinner added three Kennard points on a follow-up rebound and a free shot.

With: 24 left, Thiel drove the lane and hit a short jumper.

Sheriff's deputies discovered the site of the assault after back-tracking from the field where Vega collapsed and died sometime during the night of Feb. 18 or early on Feb. 19.

Autopsy results showed that Vega died from multiple blows to the back of the head with a blunt instrument. He also had been severely beaten in the upper portion of his body, according to Fitzgearld.

However, no signs of a struggle or of drag marks were found where the body was discovered in a field beside Cesar Vega, 37, of Hereford, was a road in the Coronado Acres subdivision in the northern part of the county, and blood was found on a fence around the field where Vega apparently climbed over it.

> Vega's body was clad only in jeans and boots. Fitzgearld said the victim's white tee shirt and a hooded sweatshirt jacket, along with blood stains, a pack of cigarettes and a lighter, were found at the site of the assault, off of CR 511. The ground was disturbed in the area and officers were able to make a cast of a tire track found there.

> Fitzgearld said a man has been questioned who was one of the last to see Vega alive, but no arrests have been made. Investigation is continu-

Period for settling wildlife park restitution ends soon

If you still owe the state civil restitution for loss or damage to a wildlife resource as a result of being convicted of a fish and game law violation, you may soon be denied participation in any activities licensed or permitted by Texas Parks and Wildlife.

Senate Bill 1302, passed by the 76th Texas Legislature, gives TPW the authority to refuse to issue an original or renewal license, permit or tag if a person has failed to pay a civil restitution assessment resulting from having been convicted of a violation of the Parks and Wildlife Code or a proclamation issued under the authority of the Code.

The legislature granted a two-year

> "We have historically recovered about 30% of the restitution assessments as a result of voluntary payment prior to the new law, and since then the rate has increased to 68%," said Jack King, TPW law enforcement director of policy and planning. "We want this to be a deterrent against committing the violation to begin with. But, it should also serve as motivation for paying restitution if you break the law."

Persons owing civil restitution who would like to arrange for payment can call the TPW Law Enforcement Division at (915)646-0601.

Another counterfeit $100 bill has turned up in Dimmitt, this one at First Bank, Muleshoe, Dimmitt Branch. It is unknown who may have passed the bill to the bank.

Police said the bill was a little darker than real bills and the paper was a little thicker, but it looked very close to the real thing. They cautioned merchants and citizens to carefully examine any money they handle and if there is any doubt about its authenticity, then contact the police or sheriff's department.

A Hart woman told deputies early last Thursday that she heard someone trying to enter her home. She said she also has been receiving harassing phone calls. Deputies found tracks leading up to and away from the woman's porch and the storm door had been left standing open, but the prowler had been unable to get in the front door. Investigation is continuing.

Police reported that a suspect was arrested Friday for shoplifting some necklaces from the ALCO store in Dimmitt.

Sunday, some suspects were arrested on south US 385 in Dimmitt for being minors in possession of an alcoholic beverage.

Stephanie Ryan Waldo (DHS Class of 1986) was at the game with her husband, Joey, and their two small boys. They now live in Loop, near Seminole. Stephanie was trying very hard to be quiet during the

Some of the other Dimmitt high school grads that we saw at the game are Jerry Schaeffer (Class of '76). He and his wife, Bussie, have three children, Texie, 10, Farmer, 7, and and Carolyn Jones, Doris Lindsey, Hondo, 6. We also saw Rala Byrnes (Class of '93), who now lives in Lubbock and teaches at New Deal. Polly Simpson had a good time at She is the sponsor of the New Deal cheerleaders, the student senate, and oversees the spring prom each year. Another one we saw is Paul Dannevik ('88). He and his wife, Kathy, have a 3-month-old son, Kaylor. They live in Lubbock, where Paul is manager of the branch bank of ABC. We saw Will Shannon ('99), the son of Ken and Linda Shannon, who is a student at Texas Western in Snyder; Cindy (daughter of Ewell and Nell Kelly) Broussard Polly's son, Brad Sanders, was of Lubbock, and her husband, Andre, Bethany; and Cindy's brother, Greg Kelly ('78) of Levelland and his sons, Ben and Sam. Greg works for the Levelland appraisal district.

Joe and Pam Josselet, parents of Bobcat #13, Brent Josselet, were joined at Spirit Arena by some family members from Oklahoma and New Mexico, including Pam's brother, Joe Ellis Jackson and wife, Jo Anne, and their son Jay, and their other son, Ty, along with his wife, Tycie and daughter, Taylor, and son, Clay, of Goodwell, Okla.

Justin and Kara (Josselet, Class of '96) Gleghorn of Lubbock, the children of Dwight and Jolene Gleghorn and Joe and Pam Josselet, also were there. Joe and Pam's other daughter, Renea of Wichita Falls was watching the girls' basketball tournament in Austin. Now she will be returning to watch her brother Brent and his teammates vie for the big prize this weekend in Austin.

The day that Brent Josselet was born, Renea was playing near our house with some of the other neighborhood kids. I was quizzing her about her new baby brother and asked his name. They hadn't quite decided for sure, but Renea sure hoped it would be Kevin. I believe this was a tribute to Dimmitt's legendary coach Kenneth Cleveland and his all-state son, Kevin. Brent is making his sister proud, even if his name isn't Kevin.

I visited with Poppy Byrnes ('68) of Hereford, who was excited about the Herd's win over the Randall Raiders. This has been a good basketball year for Dimmitt and its neighbors. Dimmitt, Hereford, Nazareth, Stratford, and Hale Center all will represent our part of Texas in the boys' state championship games.

The Nazareth and Plainview girls are home after winning the big ones. Waurayne Hughes reports that their grandniece, Chelsi Welch of Plainview, once again was awarded the Most Valuable Player trophy.

Pete Laney, the Texas Legislature's Speaker of the House and a native of Hale Center, presented the all-state tournament team medals to the girls. He and his wife hosted a reception for the Plainview champions, their parents and fans at the capitol building in Austin following their victory.

Mary Edna Hendrix celebrated her birthday this past week. Three friends took cake and birthday cards to the museum for a small celebration. Her daughter, Mary Lynn Lankford came down to take her out to lunch over the weekend.

We visited briefly with the Hollis Cains of Springlake and their daughter, Kathy of Perryton, and her husband, Johnny Hill. Johnny is the former business manager for DISD. Their two children, Joshua and Rachel, also were at the game.

Doris Hill of Hale Center, a former Hereford resident and student at Hereford High School during my era, was with her son, Lee of Dimmitt, his wife, Patrice, and their two children to see the Bobcats capture the regional title. Attending this game and visiting with old friends was as good as a class or family reunion.

And with the state tournament approaching, we think its going to get better and better.

To borrow a quote from our neighbors to the north when the Herd was on their way to the state football playoffs in 1999, "Will the last one leaving Dimmitt please turn out the lights?"

Good luck, Bobcats.

The Swiftettes, their coaches and bus drivers were given a warm welcome home Sunday afternoon at the Nazareth School Cafeteria.

"Reaching New Heights" was the first sign that greeted the team as they left Hart and headed home with a police escort.

After the girls repainted their names on last year's yellow station wagon, Nazareth Supt. N. Dean Johnson began the program with the Pledge of Allegiance and a big welcome to the team, coaches, parents and all who were gathered. He asked several trivia questions: No. 28 is the number of times Nazareth fans have traveled to Austin; No. 2 is the number of Texas Cups we hope to own after Saturday. No. 17 is the number of state championships we hope to have after Thursday.

The girls have been there 19 times and have won the state championship 15 times. The boys have been to state nine times and have won it once-in

The Swiftettes then took the floor to sing a song, Emilio, which they had prepared for Deb Clinton, their principal and dedicated bus driver who is wonderful with our kids.

A skit was then performed by the girls' parents, predicting the Austin results from the Swifts' games this weekend.

Our three senior girls, Whitney Hoelting, Tara Kleman and Shawna Gerber spoke to the assembly, thanking everyone for their support, as did Assistant Coach Amy Huseman. Coach Matt Garrett said the girls just defended their new state title on Saturday by winning the first ever "Texas Cup," which is beautiful.

Everyone then enjoyed punch and cake.

The cake was huge and shaped like the state of Texas and featured the girls' names and a mapped route to Austin. The cake was made by Vicky Kleman, who has made one each year for victory celebrations since

'Irish Stew' celebration set March 18 in Nazareth

The Home Mercantile in Nazareth will present "Irish Stew" on March 18, with a meal served at 6 p.m. followed by entertainment at 7 p.m.

The public is invited to attend, and donations will be accepted.

The event is planned as a celebration of the Celtic heritage that brought settlers, cowboys, music and so many other gifts to Southern Plains life and to the world in general, according to a news release from the Promised Land Network.

The meal of Irish stew, soda bread and Killean's Red beer will be provided, and those who attend are asked to bring along a side dish or dessert if possible.

The entertainment will include music by the String Technicians and folksinger Sara Atherton and band. There also will be a dramatization of Nazareth's first Irish settler, T.P. McCormick, performed by resident Keith Birkenfeld. Also there will be some featured folk dances and "audience request" jam sessions from a combination of musicians.

Members of the String Technicians are Joe Gillis, guitar and vocalist, Chet Calcote, bass, and Jean Warren, fiddle. The trio's repertoire includes cowboy, Celtic, light jazz, and blues music.

Atherton brings to the stage the comedy of Irish folk songs, as well as stirring ballads from centuries of struggle against political domination, according to information from the

Susan Cothran Welch Home Place

Susan Cothran is proud of the Welch Home Place, the geriatric psychiatric unit here that ministers to the psychological needs that are unique to elderly people.

"I like the contact with people, and trying to make a positive difference," she said.

Susan, a licensed medical social worker, is the program director of Welch Home

A native of North Carolina, she earned her undergraduate degree in sociology from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro and her master's degree in social work from the University of Tennessee at Knoxville. Her husband, Mike, operates a farm near Tulia. The Cothrans have two children, Ben, 17, and Emily, 15.

"The Welch Home Place is unique in that we're really the only facility in this area that serves only the geriatric population," Susan said.

It's no wonder, then, that the Welch Home Place draws patients from throughout the region who need help in coping with such traumas as loss of a spouse, loss of mobility or independence, despondency, depression, etc. These are real problems for elderly people, and it requires specially trained and caring professionals to help patients and their families work through these problems.

The staff includes a full-time psychiatrist, Dr. Josefina Diaz-Vogt; an activities director, Karen Harkins, a nursing director, Randall Keeney; a community relations director, Roy Puente; and a nursing staff that is on duty around the clock.

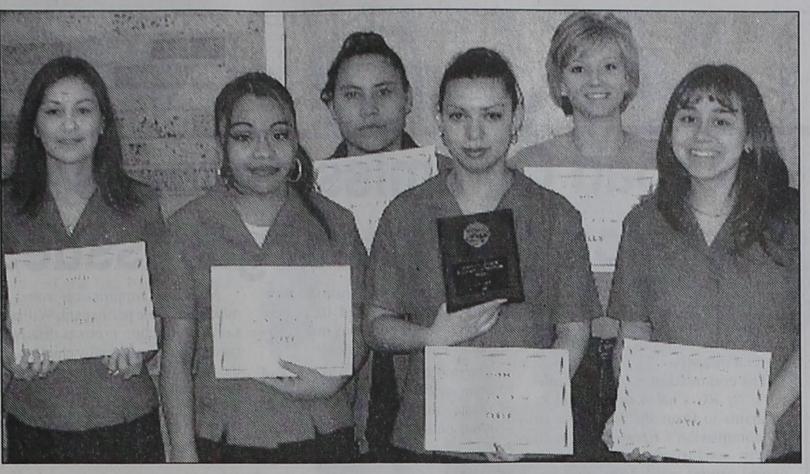

The Welch Home Place provides inpatient service for up to six persons at a time in the main unit, which is located in the east wing of Plains Memorial; and also provides an outpatient program, or "partial hospitalization" program, based at the former Hardee Family Clinic building at West Bedford and Front Streets. Mary Gilmore heads the clinic program.

All services provided by Welch Home Place are Medicare-approved.

If you think that you or someone you love can use the professional care offered by the Welch Home Place, call Susan at 647-3321.

Texas 4-H reaches million-member mark

Each child in Texas 4-H is now literally "one in a million."

Recent enrollment figures show that nearly 1.2 million Texas children between the ages of 5 and 19 took part in one or more 4-H programs last year.

In reaching the million-member milestone for the first time, Texas 4-H also leads the nation in participants, accounting for one-sixth of the total national enrollment of 6.6 mil-

In Texas, 4-H is administered by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, in partnership with the Texas A&M University System, US Dept. of Agriculture and the county commissioners courts of Texas.

Texas 4-H began in 1908 with a 25-member boys' "corn club" in Jack County west of Fort Worth. Formed initially to teach rural children new methods of agricultural production and food preservation, 4-H has evolved into an organization dedicated to the development of 4-H is about more than just number or enrollment totals-it's about the whole child, providing education, leadership and character development that will help each 4-H'er grow into a leader of tomorrow.

Texas 4-H remains rooted in the heart of rural communities, but it also thrives in the cities where most young people in Texas now live.

Many kids participate in 4-H through such school-based enrichment programs as "Blue Skies Below My Feet," which concerns aerospace; "Hatching in the Classroom," which is about embryology; "Something's Fishy," which concerns agriculture; and "Talking with TJ," which covers conflict resolution.

In this new, more complicated world, everyone needs to appreciate each other's uniqueness and have the dream of a better future. Young people are our best hope for building that future, and 4-H is giving them the tools to be successful.

Applications for cost-share assistance for the Environmental Quality Incentive Program (EQIP) are currently being accepted by the Natural Resources Conservation Service and ranked for the 2001 program year.

Castro County is one of nine counties in a Water Conservation Priority Area to help stabilize the decline of the Ogallala Aquifer.

Special emphasis will be to fund the applications with the greatest water savings, environmental and economical benefits. Priority practices available include converting sprinklers to low pressure systems, irrigation pipeline to new sprinklers, replacing leaky pipeline and subsurface drip irrigation.

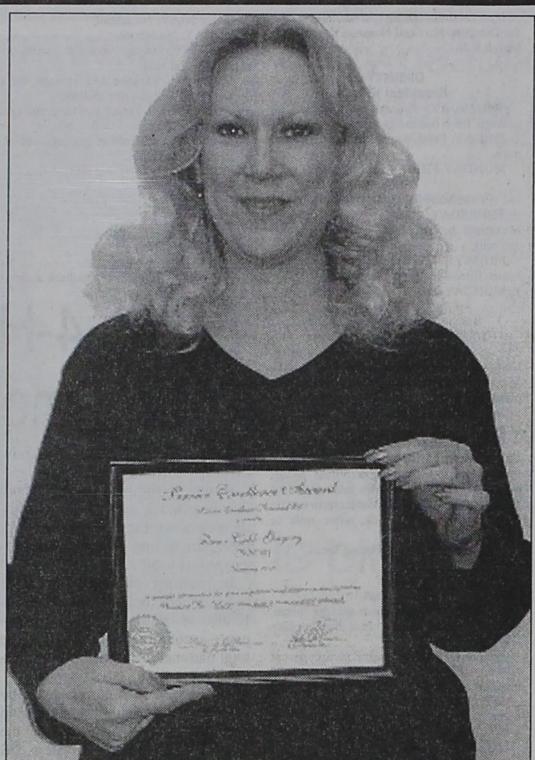

The deadline to apply for EQIP is March 30.

DYF will discuss stock show rule changes March 22

The Dimmitt Young Farmers have scheduled a meeting on March 22, and during that meeting they will discuss possible rule changes for next year's county stock show.

The meeting will be held at 7 p.m. at the Dimmitt High School vocational-agriculture building in Anyone with a proposed rule change or questions about existing rules should attend the meeting, which is open to the public.

SERVICE EXCELLENCE AWARD WINNER-Dana Cobb, R.N., of Dimmitt won the January award at Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo, where she works part-time in the Surgical Intensive Care Unit. Chosen from among all the hospital's numerous employees, Cobb was honored with a framed certificate, movie passes, a free meal ticket, and a "Star Performer" pin for her name badge. She was cited for her "exceptional performance in demonstrating how to serve others from a team-centered approach." Photo by Linda Maxwell

Railroad Commission focuses attention on natural gas issues

The Railroad Commission of Texas, which regulates the natural gas industry in Texas, recently announced two policy decisions affecting that industry.

The commission approved a proposal by RC Chairman Michael L. Williams to focus the remainder of the commission's fiscal year's audit efforts exclusively on investorowned natural gas distribution utilities. These audits will address the pass-through of gas costs to the enduse residential and commercial cus-

"In order to address public concerns over the high costs of natural gas, mandatory audits will ease the minds of hard-working Texans," Williams said. "A thorough examination will ensure that the price paid by consumers is no greater than allowed by law."

Under Texas law, gas utility companies can charge residential and commercial customers what the utility had to pay for natural gas, but no

The audit plan will have the following focus:

◆ Perform cost of gas (COG) audits on the local distribution companies that are experiencing some of the highest weighted average costs of ◆ Perform COG audits on the local distribution companies that are creating the largest percentage of customer complaints (being received at the commission).

"We are very concerned about consumers' gas costs, especially for low and fixed income customers," Williams said. "The commission is committed to working with investorowned gas distribution utilities to reduce the cost of natural gas and expect to find no wrongdoing."

Also, the emergency rule the commission had established to protect customers this winter was made permanent by the commission.

The rule applies to gas utilities and to owners, operators, and managers of master meter systems within the original jurisdiction of the commis-

After the commission voted on making the rule permanent, Williams said, "Our action protects disadvantaged Texans, especially children and the elderly, when winter temperatures drop towards freezing. We do not want Texans forced to choose between home heat and other needs this year or in the future."

Horse club members win awards at banquet

Members of the Panhandle Golden Spread Quarter Horse Association held a banquet Feb. 17 in Amarillo. Year-end results were tabulated and award winners were honored.

bull listed in the 2001 Spring Sire Evaluation Report, published by the American Angus Association of St. Joseph, Mo.

Issued in both the spring and fall, the new report features the latest performance information available on 4,916 sires.

"The American Angus Association has the most complete and comprehensive beef cattle database in the world," said John Crouch, American Angus Association director of performance programs. "Of the sires listed in the main report, 65 percent have expected progeny differences (EPDs) for carcass traits, which should assist cattlemen in choosing genetics that will produce a more consistent, higher quality beef product."

Additionally, 66 percent of the sires posted an ultrasound body composition EPD. EPDs are generated from performance data submitted by breeders through the Angus Herd Improvement Records (AHIR) program.

Traits in which EPDs are available include birth weight, weaning weight, milk, yearling weight and height, mature daughter weight and height, and scrotal circumference; as well as carcass traits including carcass weight, marbling, rib eye area, external fat thickness and percent retail product. The analysis for the sire evaluation report is done in cooperation with Iowa State University, by Doyle E. Wilson and Dr. Abebe Hassen.

Appeals court to hear oral arguments in farmers' case

The US 10th Circuit Court of Appeal in Denver, Colo., will hear oral arguments concerning the appeal of the "Four Farmers' Lawsuit."

The lawsuit was filed Jan. 24, 2000, in US District Court in Denver, claiming the federal government's refusal to implement statutory law requiring market regulation, antitrust action and foreign currency exchange stabilization has damaged ag producers. The federal district judge dismissed the case as a political question. That dismissal was appealed to the Tenth Circuit.

The appeals court will hear oral arguments concerning the dismissal of the case, with the hearing set for Tuesday at 9 a.m. at the Byron White US Courthouse, 1823 Stout St., in Denver. Case No. 00-1357 is known as Schroder et al vs. Clinton et al, and also is known as the "Four Farmers' Suit."

The suit seeks to compel the government to obey its own laws that require maintenance of market conditions which affect farm prices, protect consumer interests and provide stability in international monetary policy. The suit finds authority in many laws enacted over the years, as recently as 1990 and as far back as 1933.

The four farmer plaintiffs, Dr. Eugene Schroder of Colorado, Ed Petrewsky of Kansas, and Russell Grider and Wesley Myers of New Mexico, are supported by numerous individuals, the American Coalition of Consumers and Agricultural Producers (ACCAP). Several state commissioners of agriculture and attorneys general, including Colorado's, are studying possible action. The plaintiff seeks relief from governpresently unsustainable condition of the nation's family farmers. Named as defendants are the US President, US Secretary of Agriculture, US Secretary of the Treasury, and the United States of America.

The plaintiffs charge the defendants with failure to provide and maintain a proper economic balance of income (parity) as required by further contend that the defendants have intentionally, willfully and deliberately failed and refused to perform their statutory obligations, directly causing damage to the plaintiffs and others within their class.

The complaint says that a declare state of National Emergency, with all incidental powers of control, was imposed over agriculture on May 12, 1933 (Agriculture Adjustment Act). It also maintains that agriculture was impressed into service with a National Public Interest by Roosevelt's New Deal Congress. While the Act was to be temporary in nature, it has yet to be terminated 68 years later.

Schroder reasons that since every succeeding president has shown no interest in declaring the emergency terminated and giving up emergency regulatory powers, the current president should be required to follow the legal mandates regarding how those powers are used.

"It isn't just a farm issue," Schroder said. "Consumers should know that the price of groceries has little relation to the price farmers are paid for their production. They need to consider what will happen when corporate farms squeeze out the few family farmers remaining. They need to think about what will happen to ment inaction that has resulted in the the price and quality of food when these corporations achieve a total monopoly.'

Arguing the appeal for the plaintiffs will be Walker F. Todd of Chagrin Falls, Ohio. He is an attorney and economic consultant, former assistant general counsel and research officer at the Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland, and also formerly an officer in the legal department of emergency statute. The plaintiffs the Federal Reserve Bank of New

County producers are approved for Livestock Assistance Program

County and most other counties in Texas have been approved for the Livestock Assistance Program (LAP), administered by the US Dept. of Agriculture's Farm Service Agency.

LAP provides direct payments to eligible livestock producers who suffered grazing losses due to natural disasters during 2000.

Nationwide, $430 million has been allocated for livestock producers for weather-related losses as part of the farm assistance package approved last October.

For drought-related losses, LAP benefits are available in approved counties where precipitation was 40 percent or more below normal for at least four months, and where there was at least a 40 percent loss of available grazing during a 90-day period due to drought during the 2000 crop year.

Eligible producers must have suffered a 40 percent or greater loss of grazing for three or more consecu-

Obituaries

William Cowan

William H. "Bill" Cowan, 96, of Johnson Valley, Calif., the brother of Cleo Forson of Dimmitt, died Feb. 13 at Braswell's Convalescent Hospital in Yucaipa, Calif.

Funeral services were held at Mountain Valley Memorial Park at Joshua Tree, Calif., with arrangements by Mountain Valley Memorial

Mr. Cowan was born Aug. 11, 1904, in Huckabay and lived in Johnson Valley, Calif., since 1968. He also had lived in Ontario, Calif., for 36 years, having owned and operated Bill's Barber Shop in downtown Ontario from 1928 to 1963. He was the last charter member of Ontario Eagles in 1947 and was a member of the Ontario Optimist Club for 10 years.

He is survived by his wife, Opal; a daughter, Bettie Pruneri of Ontario; a son, William B. Cowan of West Bloomfield, Mich; a sister, Cleo Forson of Dimmitt; four grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren.

Gladiola Shipley

Funeral services for Gladiola Shipley, 85, of Dimmitt, were held Saturday afternoon at First Baptist Church in Dimmitt with Rev. Howard Rhodes, pastor, officiating.

Burial followed in Mission Garden of Memories at Clovis, N.M., under direction of Steed-Todd Funeral Home of Clovis.

Mrs. Shipley died March 1 at her home in Dimmitt.

She was born Nov. 23, 1915, in Normangee. She married Donald Shipley on June 10, 1933, in Portales, N.M. Mrs. Shipley had been a past resident of Plainview, Chickasha, Okla., Clovis, and Friona, before moving to Dimmitt in 1977. She was a member of First Baptist Church in Dimmitt.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Marvin Alexander and Carrie Belle Gilbert Black; a brother, Roger Black; and a sister, Ruby Guthrie.

She is survived by her husband; a son, Don Shipley of Waco; a daughter, Dona Lee Mathos of San Angelo; a brother, Arvel Lee Black of Friona; and three grandchildren.

The family suggests memorials to the First Baptist Church of Dimmitt.

DAV mobile office to visit in this area

The Disabled American Veterans (DAV) will be sending its Mobile Service Office to visit in this area on March 15-16.

The L.F. Ferguson Chapter No. 44 will host a visit on March 15 from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the Chapter Home, 7414 83rd St. in Lubbock.

The J.E. Pietzsch Chapter No. 26 will host a visit on March 16 from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the Federated Womens Club rooms, 2001 Civic Circle in Amarillo.

The on-site counseling and claim filing assistance will be offered at no charge and detailed explanations of the full range of benefits available for disabled veterans and their families will be presented.

A highly trained National Service Officers from the DAV's Waco office will meet with veterans and their families personally. Veterans and members of their families do not need to be members of the DAV or the DAV Auxiliary to take advantage of this free service.

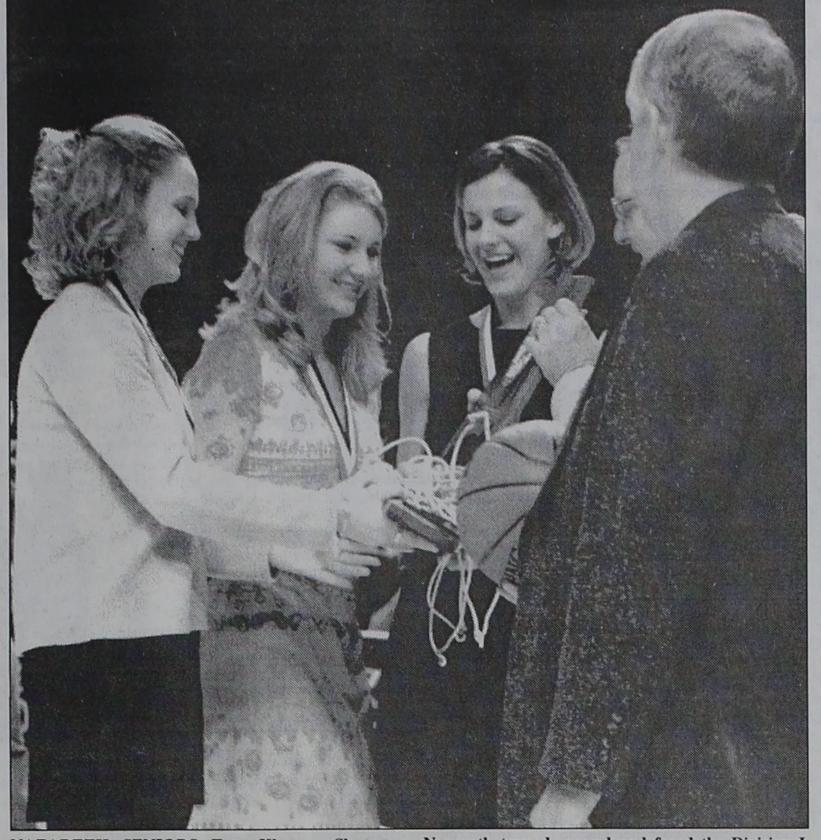

Those seeking assistance should bring their Dept. of Veterans' Affairs (VA) claim number and Social Security number and any other pertinent documentation with them.

St. Ann's, Bovina sets sausage meal

St. Ann's Catholic Church of Bovina is sponsoring its annual German Sausage Dinner on Sunday, with serving set from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the St. Ann's Parish Hall on Third St. in Bovina.

The meal will include German sausage, creamed potatoes and gravy, green beans, sauerkraut, cranberry sauce, relish plate, homemade bread, desserts, and tea and coffee. The cost will be $6 for adults and $3 for children under 6. Take-out plates will be available at no extra charge.

In addition, sausage will be offered for sale by the pound by ordering from any St. Ann's Society member and also on the day of the dinner.

"They're not very big, but they're a very physical, aggressive team. They'll do the hand-check, they body up, they bang you. But they're just aggressive,

West Oso's floor leader is Richard Gonzales, a 6-3 senior guard who, Steinle said, "does it all—he handles the ball, he shoots the three, he can pass it, he plays defense, he rebounds."

In the Region IV-AAA Tournament, Gonzales scored 17 against Columbus in a 57-50 semifinals victory, despite having to sit out five minutes with four fouls, and 19 points against Gonzales in the championship game, which West Oso won, 66-61.

The Bears also have a lot of talent in 6-4 sophomore post Cameron Teague (15.5 points per game), 6-0 senior guard Jimmy Fling (13.5 ppg), who is "the heart of the team," Steinle said, and senior guard Lydell Anthony (11 ppg).

"It's going to be a test of our kids' wills," Steinle said, "but I think they proved themselves in the regional tournament (by defeating No. 4 Graham and No. 9 Seminole). "There were some times against Graham and also against Seminole when our boys got a little shaky and could have folded our tent, but they were very determined and just had a strong will to win the game. We feel like those games prepared us for this.

"We want the kids to enjoy the trip, the experience, the tour of the Capitol and all," Steinle said, "but we don't want to be satisfied with just going to Austin. There are four teams and two games left, and somebody has to win the state championship. If we play, we've got our chance."

Nazareth's boys boarded the bus for Austin early Tuesday morning and traveled to Brownwood, where they spent the night. They arrived in Austin Wednesday morning and had a shooting practice at Early ISD. Later on Wednesday the Swifts worked out at Southwestern State University in Georgetown.

The Swifts will be up bright and early this morning (Thursday) and will head to the Frank Erwin Center for their biggest game so far this season—the state championship game.

The Swifts will have to shut down 6-2 senior post Joe Henderson, who is Goodrich's leading scorer, pouring in 25 points per game. He's joined in the starting lineup by 5-11 junior guards Tim Grant and Darryl Woods, 6-0 sophomore post Jeremy Walker and 5-7 sophomore point guard Jonathan Brown.

The first man off the bench for Goodrich is Josh Benson, a 5-11 junior point guard who is the team's second leading scorer with 15 points per game. He usually plays as much as or more than some of the starters.

Goodrich will be making its second appearance at the state tournament, having lost to Moulton in the finals three years ago when Henderson was a freshman. The team is coached by Lester King, who has been orchestrating the game plan for Goodrich for 12 seasons.

Goodrich stresses defense and likes to pressure teams up and down the court, running either a man-to-man or zone press.

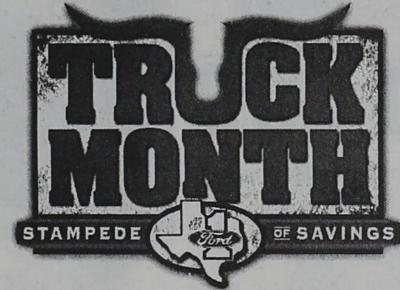

Benson is the team's steal and assist leader and he gets a lot of his points from the transition game. Goodrich favors a double low post offense versus a man defense, and Henderson is the go-to man.

Goodrich won its district, then beat Dime Box (80-32), Waelder (60-43), Trinidad (83-35) Calvert (112-82) and Ladonia Fannindel (82-73) to reach the Having three state tournament teams from one small rural county in the same year is rare, indeed.

So let's enjoy it!

I look back at the state tournament history of our county's basketball teams and can't help thinking: My gosh, I've gotten old!

I wasn't even born yet when the Dimmitt Bobbies made their first trip to state. They logged five trips from 1930 through '36. I was a 10-year-old kid in 1944 when Bill Birdwell, Kenneth Jackson, John Curtis, Howard Cook, Tom Mayfield and their bunch made the Bobcats' first state trip.

I was a high school freshman in 1948 when Carl Jowell, Lewis Martin, Jack Ziegler, Lonnie Rice, Junior Fulfer and their teammates made the second trip.

Those Bobbies who won all the state championships from 1950 through '54 were my classmates and

The Bobbies kept up the tradition And there have been several years through 1957, then in 1960 the Bobcats started going alone—three times in the '60s, three times in the '70s, six times in the '80s.

During the '90s, as we suffered and grieved over the loss of Kenneth Cleveland and kept our fingers crossed for Alan Steinle, the Bobcats didn't make it to state. That was the first decade since the 1930s for that to happen.

But now we're starting the millennium right. And the Bobcats still hold the record among Class AAA teams for the most state tournament appearances (16 counting this year).

I was a witness to the Swiftettes' first quiet steps toward national history, when Supt. Joe King and the Nazareth School Board hired Cathy Wilson straight out of Wayland in 1975-76 to coach a bunch of girls who they thought had a lot of promise and who had, in fact, won bi-dis- job of it: Brenda Durrett Schulte. trict in '75.

I don't remember exactly how many state tournaments I've covered since. I'd have to go back through 34 years of files to nail down a number.

I usually went with the boys, whether it was the Bobcats or Swifts, but I've covered some girls' state tourneys, too.

In the mid-'70s there came along an angel, a former state tennis champion, who had worked her way through college as a sports reporter, who became a News staffer, who later helped coach the Swiftettes under Joe Lombard and who is now a Nazareth High School English and journalism teacher, wife and Swiftette mom, who has covered many of the Nazareth girls' state championships for us through the years, including this one, and who has always done a superb

Between Anne and Dwayne, Dimmitt photographer Carter Townsend and myself, the News will have more staffers on the floor in Austin this week than any other newspaper, daily or weekly.

Sure, we could do with fewer people. I've covered many tournaments by myself with only a camera, a pocket notebook and the official stat sheets.

But these guys have covered these teams all year, in good weather and bad, in sickness and in health, and they've earned the right to be there with the teams this weekend.

Swiftettes snap sluggish start to stop Saltillo

By BRENDA SCHULTE

"Big teams show up for big games." Nazareth Coach Matt Garrett told his team Thursday in the locker room.

Despite a sluggish defensive start and a poor shooting performance, the Swiftettes showed up enough to win a 15th state championship.

Eleven unanswered points in the second quarter and key free throws near the end of the game helped Nazareth hold off Saltillo for a 61-51 win and the Conference A-Division II girls' state basketball title.

There were 3,394 fans on hand at the Frank Erwin Center in Austin to watch the matchup.

second quarter and in the fourth made the difference in the game," Garrett said.

The eleven point Nazareth run began with 2:27 left in the half when junior Stephanie Thiel landed a short jumper and an ensuing free throw to give Nazareth a 20-18 lead. Sophomore Wendy Black was fouled and stepped to the charity line for two more points. At the 1:03 mark, Thiel weaved in for a layup and Nazareth led, 24-18.

Marsha Black then connected on one of two free shots, and with 13 seconds left, the junior swished a three-pointer from the corner to give the Swiftettes a 28-18 advantage.

Nazareth kept the lead after that, pulling away as much as 15 points until a seven-point Saltillo surge in the fourth quarter narrowed the gap to 54-48.

"I think the key to the win at that point was our composure," said Thiel, who scored a game high 31 points and was named the tournament's Most Valuable Player.

That composure was evident at the charity line as juniors Mandy Hoelting and Lesley Brockman sank two free throws each with less than a minute to play, giving Nazareth a 10point cushion, 58-48.

'We just lacked a little focus in the first half," Swiftette senior post Whitney Hoelting said. "It seemed like we were more worried about getting the title than just playing for it. We were not really ourselves."

Indeed, the Swiftettes were not themselves. Their normally potent man-to-man defense allowed Saltillo to shoot at will in the paint, hitting three short jumpers and six layups in the first half.

Offensively, Nazareth shot an unusually low percentage from the field (40 percent) and from threepoint range (25 percent).

"We played shaky at first," Thiel "That run right at the end of the said. "We didn't execute as well as we have in the past. I think it was just the excitement of finally getting here and getting to play for the state championship. In the second half, we definitely stepped up and played better.'

A three pointer by Wendy Black at 6:27 in the first stanza put Nazareth's first points on the board. At 4:33, Thiel hit another long range shot. Then she sank two short jumpers to give Nazareth a 10-8 first quarter edge.

Whitney Hoelting opened the second stanza scoring for the Swiftettes with an inside shot at 7:23, making it 12-8.

Three quick fouls slowed Nazareth's momentum; however, Saltillo only hit two of the four charity shots. But 5-10 posts Amanda Davis, Jessica Vanlandingham, and Branda McClure hit a short jumper and three layups in a two-minute stretch to give Saltillo an 18-17 lead with 2:41 left in the half.

Nazareth hung on with another jump shot by Whitney Hoelting and a free throw and layup by Thiel.

The lead in the game had changed five times until Thiel's jumper and free throw at 2:27 put Nazareth ahead for good.

"We finally figured out what we needed to do to stop or at least control their offense," Whitney Hoelting said. "We had to deny hard to keep them from passing the ball so much."

"The third quarter was our strongest quarter," Mandy Hoelting said. "We played hard on defense which gave us opportunities to score more

Region 1-AAA tourney goes to the final buzzer

In a showcase of evenly matched teams, the Bobcats—ranked No. 5 in the state—outlasted No. 4 Graham 58-54 Friday and No. 9 Seminole 71-67 Saturday for the Region I-AAA championship.

All three games of the regional tourney, staged in Texas Tech's United Spirit Arena, went down to the final buzzer. In the second semifinal game Friday, Seminole fought to a 68-62 win over No. 15 Glen Rose.

The Bobcats came out firing three's, and their impressive accuracy from long range was a major factor in their regional championship. They scored 24 points against Graham and 42 against Seminole from beyond the arc while hitting more than half of their three-point attempts.

It was the first regional championship in 13 years for Dimmitt High School, which has one of the most successful basketball histories in Texas. And for Coach Alan Steinle, who has been at the helm here since 1993 and has taken the Bobcats into the playoffs eight straight years, it was his first regional title as a head coach.

Two of Dimmitt's wingmen, senior Daniel Proffitt and junior Dee Norman, were named to the all-tournament team. Norman, who was the tourney's high scorer with 57 points in two games, was named the Most Valuable Player.

The I-AAA championship vaulted the Bobcats into this week's state tournament at UT-Austin, where they'll meet No. 11 Corpus Christi West Oso today (Thursday) at 3:30 p.m. in the semifinals.

Contributing to the run were Norman with two treys and a 12-ft. jumper, Proffitt and Josselet with a trey apiece and Matthew Wright with a pair of free throws.

After Seminole's Seth Nichols notched a pair of free throws, Julian Velo countered with an inside basket to keep Dimmitt ahead by 10, 59-49. The Indians' Eric Sheets sank his team's first trey at the 1:32 mark and followed with a steal and snowbird layup less than half a minute later to cut the margin to seven points, but Norman ended the quarter with a 6-ft. turnaround jumper at the buzzer to build Dimmitt's advantage back to seven, 51-44, going into the final period.

Senior post James Ralech opened the fourth quarter with Seminole's second-and last-three-pointer at the 7:40 mark, and Norman countered with a trey at 7:23.

Three players did all of Seminole's scoring in the fourth—Ralech, Sheets and Seth Nichols-while the Bobcats had six players contribute, hitting an impressive 85% of their field-goal

"Even when we had a good lead on them, they kept hanging around," Proffitt commented.

Slowly but steadily the Indians climbed back, cutting the Bobcats' lead to six, then four, then three, and finally to two, 69-67, when Nichols sank three free throws after Proffitt was whistled for a three-shot foul

The Bobcats served notice by hitquarter — the first three from in front of Graham's bench — for 12 of their 13 points in the opening frame. Norman hit two, Larra one and Proffitt one as the Bobcats took a 13-11 lead.

Despite being triple-teamed at times, Graham post Blaine Wilbanks, a 6-4 senior, sank the first four points of the second quarter to put the Steers in front, 15-13, and they made the Bobcats play catch-up the rest of the half, which ended with Graham leading by 25-23 after a pair of final free throws by Wilbanks.

Norman opened the second half with a finger-roller from the lane and followed with his third trey less than half a minute later to give Dimmitt the lead again, 28-25.

Graham countered with back-toback field goals to take a brief onepoint lead, but a three-pointer by Brent Josselet gave the Bobcats the lead again and they managed to hang

As both defenses recorded some spectacular steals, the quarter ended in a flurry of three's by Norman, Proffitt and Graham sharpshooter Mark Duncan. Proffitt's trey came with three seconds left after a 30second stall to send the Bobcats into the fourth with a 41-38 advantage.

But Wilbanks, despite being virtually surrounded by Dimmitt's sinking zone, fought back with a five-point surge on two inside baskets and a free throw to cut the Bobcats' lead back to 53-52 with 1:18 to go.

About the Bobcats' reliance on three-point shots during the regional tourney, Steinle commented, "It gets a little scary living on three-pointers, but that's kind of our slam-dunk. We have to use that shot to energize ourselves and to serve as an equalizer."

playoff games, played just 10 min- Wildcat guards around the court, utes Saturday because he was in foul trouble.

Schilling played just a minute and 21 seconds in the second half before he fouled out early in the fourth quarter. He had tallied 14 points and seven rebounds in the first half. But without Schilling's size on the floor, the Swifts were seriously undersized. It wouldn't matter.

Kade Wilcox and Trey Robb slowly drained the life out of the Wildcats as they combined for 47 points on offense and chased the wearing them down.

Between them, Wilcox and Robb sank eight of Nazareth's 11 threepointers in the game and each had four steals as they sparked the defensive effort that earned the win.

Wilcox would finish with a gamehigh 29 points while Robb added 18.

Wilcox rained threes from all around the arc, then he would pull a sneak attack on Westbrook guards, striking without warning for steals which resulted in layups.

"This is undescribable," Wilcox said after Saturday's victory. "This is something we've been dreaming about since the fourth grade. It's an amazing feeling."

Roberson and Rich never got on track. Roberson managed 17 points and Rich finished with six, but neither was a factor in the game.

"We wanted to come out like we did against New Home, stressing our defense and getting after them. We felt like if we could put a lot of pressure on their perimeter players, it would stop them from getting the ball inside to their big guys," said Nazareth Coach Mike Scarbrough.

Nazareth poured in 28 points over the first eight minutes as the Swifts took a 28-9 lead in the first quarter. They owned a 48-27 advantage at halftime and blew it wide open in the third quarter by outscoring Westbrook 31-15 in the stanza for a 79-42 lead.

Starting point guard Blake Birkenfeld hit a couple of key threepointers and finished with nine points while Pohlmeier added two.

Not a single Swift was afraid to go up against Roberson. Even the shortest players off the Swifts' bench, 5-6 guards Chase Schulte and Brock Birkenfeld each scored inside while Roberson was parked in the middle of the lane.

They weren't the only two reserves that contributed to the Swifts' healthy point total, either.

Nazareth got 24 of its points from the bench. Tyler Ehly hit four-ofseven field goals for eight points. Justin Kleman and Schulte each finished with six while Wade Price and Brock Birkenfeld had two apiece.

The Swifts connected on 31-of-58 field goal attempts in the game—a whopping 53.4%. They made nearly half of their three-pointers, too (12of-25). The shots from the charity stripe were on target, as well, with Swift shooters sinking 22-of-26 at-

Nazareth was out-rebounded, 35-26, but the Swift defense forced 24 turnovers.

"It was a great team effort. We had a lot of people step up," said Scarbrough. "With Eric in foul trouble we had some people step up. Trey had a big game and Kade finally started shooting well. And for the last two games, Daryl Pohlmeier has been a big key. He's done a great job defensively. He had two big defensive assignments in the tournament and he came through.

Swifts breeze past New Home for semi-state semifinal victory

By ANNE ACKER

Steal after steal turned into layup after layup for Nazareth Friday, and that aggressive defense allowed the Swifts to smother New Home, 62-37, in a Class A semi-state semifinal game at D.L. Ligon Coliseum in Wichita Falls.

The Swifts forced 24 Leopard turnovers, and Nazareth cashed in on eight of those miscues for 17 points.

When the Swifts weren't getting transition buckets, they annihilated the Leopard defense with a super inside attack led by 6-4 sophomore post Eric Schilling.

Schilling perfected a turn-around move in the game, connecting on 11of-17 field goals as he paced his team with 23 points.

Time after time, the Swifts found Schilling, and he banked in shots off first quarter and that was all New Home managed in the first half. By halftime he had 16 points to his credit and had single-handedly outscored the Leopards.

New Home didn't have a defensive answer. The Leopards couldn't find a productive offense, either.

The Leopards main scoring threat, Jason Reyes, was shut down by Daryl Pohlmeier and the Swifts. Reyes only had eight points in the game on 2-of-12 shooting from the Nazareth's defense allowed a mere 10 points in the first half and 14 after

"We've been preaching through the playoffs that defense was the key," said Nazareth Coach Mike Scarbrough. "I felt like we stepped up and played good defense."

Schilling and Pohlmeier dominated the boards in the first few minutes of action, each scoring on offensive put-backs.

New Home tied the score at 4 when 6-4 post Matt Cramblet connected on a wide open jumper inside the paint with 5:30 left. But the Leopards never owned a lead and they would never tie the score again. In fact, they wouldn't score again until the 6:49 mark in the second quarter. Schilling took a feed near the free throw line, faked out Reyes, dribbled the glass. He had 10 points in the once and popped a shot to give the Swifts the lead for good with 5:18

> A steal and coast-to-coast layup by Wilcox with 2:10 left made it 10-4 Nazareth.

Schilling took over after that. He took a back door lob pass and tipped it in, then scored back-to-back jumpers on turn-around moves to Nazareth run and 16-4 lead. Two more banked shots by Schilling extended the Swifts' lead to 20-4 early in the second and it was all close out the first quarter with a 12-0

With 6:40 left in the half, Reyes scored, but it was New Home's first field goal since early in the first Nazareth's Trey Robb answered that shot with a three, erasing any ground the Leopards gained.

Before the half was over, Nazareth had gone on another big run and owned a 32-10 lead. "Eric really took over in the first half. The guys did a good job of getting him the ball. We really didn't shoot the ball well. None of our guards had a big night, but as a whole they did okay.'

Schilling continued his domination in the third quarter, this time moving to the perimeter for a three.

Nazareth's defense gave up a short jumper to Shaun Wied with 4:02 left in the third and that was the first New Home bucket of the second half. The only other time the Leopards would score in the quarter would be on single free throws by Michael Wied and Shaun Wied.

Schilling's 23 points was gamehigh, but he wasn't the only Swift to reach double figures. Wilcox finished with 11 points and Tyler Ehly had 10. Pohlmeier chipped in six, Robb had five, Justin Kleman finished with three and Blake Birkenfeld and Chase Schulte had two each.

Nazareth hit 25-of-53 shots in the game and only four of those were from three-point range. The Swifts made 8-of-15 free throws.

Nazareth junior Stephanie Thiel has been named the District 4-A Most Valuable Player and she headlines a list of Swiftettes featured on the all-district squad.

Nazareth's starting five all made the honor team, while three reserves earned honorable mention honors.

All-district honorees joining Thiel are sophomore Wendy Black, senior Whitney Hoelting and juniors Lesley Brockman and Mandy Hoelting.

Others qualifying for the honor team are Happy's Buffy Adkins, Chandra Adkins, Megan Simons and Brittany Spradling; Silverton's Taylor Griffin; and Valley's Kim Woods.

Honorable mention honorees include Nazareth senior Tara Kleman, junior Marsha Black and sophomore Erica Gerber; Silverton's Chelsey Cherry, Amanda Estes and Bryn Mayfield; and Valley's Jana Merrell and Natalie Wheeler.

"Don't squat with your spurs on."

Eugene Shipp worked maintenance for an electric coop for twenty-eight years. During an ice storm in '78, he worked thirty-eight hours straight, fixing downed lines and restoring power. He retired two years ago to spend more time on his ranch, working his own hours. He uses coop power; he knows he can count on it.

Eugene belongs to a Smart Choice cooperative. What's "Smart Choice?" We're a coalition of West Texas cooperatives committed to making the right decision on electric deregulation.

The goal of deregulation is to bring the benefits of retail competition to the power industry. But so far, in states such as California and Pennsylvania, reality has fallen short of the promise, often bringing higher rates and even power shortages. The Texas Legislature gives cooperatives an opportunity to wait and see how deregulation will affect Texans. We intend to take advantage of that time to be sure deregulation is right for our member-owners.

Texas electric cooperatives have been providing power to Texans since 1937. As co-ops, we are non-profit and member-owned. To learn more about deregulation visit us at our web site, or call your local Smart Choice cooperative.
