

Meeting Tuesday On Elm Creek Project

FIRST BALE—A. C. Minzenmayer, right, produced the first bale of cotton to be brought in last week to the Winters Gin from the 1976 crop. Don Robertson, left, is manager of the gin. The bale weighed 510 pounds, from 2500 pounds of stripped cotton. Minzenmayer stripped five bales from 15 acres. This is the first time Minzenmayer has produced the first bale of the season.

A public meeting for the purpose of commenting on and discussing the work plan and environmental impact on the Elm Creek watershed has been announced by David Ledbetter, chairman of Elm Creek Water Control District.

The meeting will be held Tuesday, October 26, at 7:30 p.m. in the Winters Community Center.

Beade Northcut, of Waco, work plan staff leader for the Soil Conservation Service, and Max Richardson, also of Waco, hydrologist for the SCS, will be present at the meeting, as well as local representatives of the sponsoring organizations to answer any questions concerning the watershed project.

Elm Creek watershed includes 238,253 acres within its boundaries, which extend from 15 miles southeast of Abilene in Taylor County, to Ballinger in Runnels County.

The local sponsoring organizations for the Elm Creek project include Elm Creek Water Control District, Runnels Soil and Water Conservation District, Middle Clear Fork Soil and Water Conservation District, Runnels County Water Authority, Runnels County Commissioners Court, Taylor County Commissioners Court, the City of Winters and the City of Ballinger.

Technical assistance is being provided by the USDA Soil Conservation Service at the request of the sponsors, under authority of the Watershed Protection and Flood Prevention Act, Public Law No. 566.

Blizzards Host Wylie Friday

Two District 6-AA non-winners will meet Friday night on Blizzard Field, as the Winters Blizzards meet the Wylie Bulldogs, in a conference football game. Kickoff at 7:30 p.m.

Coach Jimmy Stubblefield said Monday the Blizzards will be back in shape with no immediate injuries to plague them as they go into this third conference game. With the possible exception, however, of the loss of running back Marvin Moore, who received arm and rib bruises in the Merkel game last Friday night. During one play at Merkel, Moore ran hard into an unpadded light pole located only a few feet from the playing field. He was momentarily stunned, and over the weekend still was picking utility pole splinters from his left forearm. On the run out of bounds, Moore narrowly missed stepping into a deep grass-obscured hole a few inches from the light pole. Some sideline bystanders also reported stepping into the uncovered hole, located a few feet away from the playing area of the football field.

The Blizzards' one win of the season was 14-0 against Eldorado, a non-conference tilt. In District 6-AA play, they have lost to Stamford and Merkel.

The Wylie Bulldogs have a similar won-loss record for the season, and have a tie with Ballinger. The Bulldogs and the Bearcats fought to a standoff last Friday night.

Livestock Assn. Barbecue Next Monday Night

The annual barbecue for members of the Winters Livestock Association will be held Monday, October 25, in the Winters Community Center.

Membership cards will admit families of members to the barbecue.

FB Officers Elected Last Wednesday

The board of directors of the Runnels County Farm Bureau elected officers for the year during a meeting of the board in Ballinger last Wednesday.

LeRoy Pelzel was re-elected president; Edward Bredemeyer, vice president; and James Eggemeyer, secretary.

Delegates to the state Farm Bureau convention to be held in Fort Worth December 5-8 were elected, including Mr. and Mrs. Pelzel, Mr. and Mrs. Bredemeyer, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Frerich, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Estes Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Droll. Named as alternates were Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Dobbins.

C-C Members To Elect Seven New Directors

Postcard ballots have been sent to all members of the Winters Chamber of Commerce for the annual election of members of the board of directors of the business organization.

Seven members will be elected this year, to serve two years. Ten names of candidates for the board will be on the postcard ballot. Members are to vote for seven persons who will serve on the board for two years, beginning January 1. Members are asked to return the ballots as soon as possible. Ballots will be counted at the next regular meeting of the board, and announcement of new directors, and officers for 1977, will be made following the December meeting of Family memberships are still available, and may be obtained at the door; cost is $6.

The barbecue climaxes the fall membership drive. Proceeds from membership dues are used to promote the Junior Livestock Show, which will be held in early January, and to pay premiums to young livestock exhibitors.

Officers of the Winters Livestock Association are A. N. Blackerby, president; Don Vinson, vice president; F. R. (Phil) Anderson, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. Virginia Schwartz, reporter.

One-year directors of the association are Freddie Bredemeyer, Edward Bredemeyer, Joe Bryan, Gaston Boatright, Frank Carter, B. J. Colburn, Darrell Compton, Hollis Dean, Dick Dunlap, Bo Evans, Coy Hord, Delbert Kruse, Brent Mikeska, Mike Mitchell, Clifton Poe, Jimmy Smith and John Spill.

Two-year directors are Bobby Airhart, Robert Webb, Paige Baize, Douglas Colburn, Jay Henderson, Glenn Hoppe, Jerry Kraatz, R. Q. Marks, R. T. O'Dell, Suvern O'Dell, E. B. Hope, Calvin Helms, Pat Pritchard, Raymond Schwartz, Bill Cathey, Sid McGinnis, and Marion Wood.

C. T. Parker, Dale Brandenbarger, Stanley Blackwell, Charles Allcorn, Bill Graves and Tommy Lancaster are also directors.

Rummage Sale To Benefit Cancer Unit

A rummage sale will be held in the old Queen theatre building on West Dale Street, Friday and Saturday, sponsored by the North Runnels Unit of the American Cancer Society.

All proceeds from the sale will be used for the unit's work in combating cancer.

Baptist Assn. Meeting In Paint Rock

The 69th annual meeting of the Runnels Baptist Association will be held at the Paint Rock Baptist Church, Monday, October 25.

Dr. Charles McLaughlin, director of the State Missions Commission of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, will be the denominational speaker for the evening session, beginning at 7 p.m.

Roy Epperson, pastor of the Robert Lee Baptist Church, will preach the annual sermon.

The afternoon session will begin at 2:30 p.m. The Association WMU officers will be installed at 5:15 p.m., with Mrs. Charles McLaughlin leading the installation service.

Supper will be served by the host church at 6 p.m.

The public is invited to attend all sessions.

Monday Deadline For Reserving Carnival Booths

Monday, October 25, will be the deadline date for groups and organizations to reserve booth space in the Winters Community Center for the Halloween Carnival, slated for Saturday, October 30.

The Community Center will be open at 9 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 30, for booth operators. No preparations can be made prior to that time. Those sponsoring booths in the carnival also are reminded that they will be responsible for removing all materials and the booths by 2 p.m. Sunday, or materials will be disposed of.

Former WHS Student Killed In Wreck

Four other persons were injured in the accident, and two of them were reported Monday still in serious condition in an Abilene hospital.

James Carl Blair, 48, of Bronte, and William Howard Hail, 37, also of Bronte, were reported in serious condition.

POE'S CORNER
BY CHARLSIE POE

History has a way of repeating itself in the lives of people as well as in events.

When asked by Mayor Homer Hodge to serve as United Nations Day Chairman, I remembered that I had served in this capacity once before, but I was amazed when I found from a newspaper clipping that it was 19 years ago. It was dated 1957 and is as follows: WINTERS OBSERVES UNITED NATIONS DAY.

Winters observed United Nations Day Thursday in churches, schools, civic clubs and Boy and Girl Scout organizations.

At a high school assembly program, Sue Thomas spoke on the history of the UN, while Dianne Sims and Kleta Gerhart told some of its accomplishments. The UN flag, made by the Drasco Home Demonstration Club and presented to the school several years ago, was flown at the school during the day. (I wonder where that flag is today.)

Churches have observed the day by special mention, talks and prayers.

At the Lions Club dinner, Mayor George Poe presented Mrs. Poe a certificate of merit from Stanley M. Rumbough Jr., National UN chairman.

The Rev. Harold G. Wise, UN chairman for the club, told about his visit to the UN last summer.

Time has made many changes. Some people have grown weary and disenchanted with our own government as well as the United Nations. But now more than ever before in history there is need for us to be informed.

IN 1957—Mrs. George Poe received a certificate of appointment as UN Day chairman in Winters, from her husband, the late George Poe, mayor of Winters at the time.

This year the UN anniversary occurs at a time of dramatic change in our nation and the world. Here in the United States, we are on the eve of an election which will directly affect not only our domestic priorities but also the future role of the US in world affairs. At the same time, the observance of our Bicentennial has added an important new dimension to the questioning of American policies and goals which has characterized the campaign.

In reexamining our past we have found guidelines for the future. The same need for mutual understanding and cooperation which drew the 13 colonies together in 1776 is drawing the nations of the world together in 1976. Interdependence is no longer a theory, it is the central fact of contemporary life. We can now sense the promise of a more peaceful world and the opportunity for new strides in international cooperation.

In the years ahead, the community of nations will inevitably require international institutions to be even more effective in dealing with a steadily increasing agenda of global problems. Equal rights for all peoples must become a reality in fact as well as law.

Important steps have already been taken by the United Nations in meeting these challenges. For the first time, problems of food, population and the environment are being dealt with on a global basis. International standards have been set for the protection of a wide range of individual human rights.

The United Nations has been under attack and many of us have had questions in our own minds about some of the issues and the way they were handled. The material that I have received has given some answers in a straight forward manner and I'll try to give this information in brief with the hope that you will give each question further study.

1. THE UN HAS BEEN BEHAVING BADLY AND DOESN'T DESERVE OUR SUPPORT.

It is not the UN which is behaving badly. The UN merely provides the hall in which delegates cast their votes according to their governments' instructions. The UN as an organization should not be blamed for their sometimes irresponsible actions. To withdraw from the UN is to abdicate our responsibilities. To improve it, we must act from within with greater purpose than ever before.

2. THE UN IS CONTROLLED BY A BLOCK OF IRRESPONSIBLE NATIONS WHICH SUPPORT HOSTILE AND UNENFORCEABLE RESOLUTIONS.

Lop-sided majorities do, in fact, pass ill-conceived resolutions in the General Assembly as well as its subsidiary bodies. However, these resolutions are not "law". They are recommendations only, not legally binding on any member state. Moreover, contrary to current impressions, the majority of decisions taken by the General Assembly are adopted with the support of the US. Last year at the 30th General Assembly, out of 256 resolutions and decisions, the controversial ones on which the US voted "no" came to only 20, or just 7.8%.

3. THE UN'S VOTING PROCEDURES SHOULD BE CHANGED SO THAT THE "MINISTATES" CAN'T HOLD THE BALANCE OF POLITICAL POWER.

The problem here—if it is a problem—is that the United Nations is a democratic institution. The question of majority rule vs. minority rights in democratic procedures is an old one. Those seeking to prevent "irresponsible" voting and "bloc" voting in the UN have usually advocated weighted voting, but no acceptable formula has as yet been put forward. In the Security Council the veto power held by the five permanent members is essentially a form of weighted voting—and the object of severe criticism.

4. WE SHOULDN'T EVEN BOTHER TO COOPERATE WITH THE DEVELOPING COUNTRIES. MOST OF THEM ARE SMALL, POWERLESS, AND CONSISTENTLY OPPOSE US ON IMPORTANT ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL ISSUES.

Refusal to negotiate with over half the world's population is short-sighted and will accomplish nothing but our own isolation. On the other hand, serious initiatives can produce unexpectedly good results. This is what happened at the 7th special session of the General Assembly held in Sept., 1975.

5. WE SHOULD WITHDRAW US FINANCIAL SUPPORT FROM UN DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMS BECAUSE MOST OF THE RECIPIENTS OF THE FUNDS ARE THE COUNTRIES WHICH VOTE AGAINST US.

Assistance is determined solely by need and by the individual country's ability to absorb the funds efficiently. To cut off this aid would be punishing the innocent for the actions of their government officials.

Continued aid is also important in terms of our own self-interest. Even now, the developing countries account for almost 1/3 of our exports, 1/4 of our foreign investment—and a $2 billion balance of trade surplus for us. Far from being a "give away", US contributions to UN aid can be an economic asset for the US in turning aid recipients into valuable trading partners.

A more constructive approach would be a reassessment of aid to offending countries especially, where military assistance is involved.

6. THE UN IS NOT THE SAME INSTITUTION WE HELPED ESTABLISH IN 1945 AND NO LONGER REFLECTS THE SAME POLITICAL VALUES.

There is no question that the UN "Ain't what she used to be". But neither is the rest of the world. Since 1945 there have been far-reaching changes at all levels of society—economic, technological, sociological and cultural—and these changes are reflected in new international relationships. This is seen most clearly in the fundamental disagreements between the industrialized and the Third World countries. They may be expected to continue for some time to come.

7. THE UN MAINTAINS A DOUBLE STANDARD, CRITICIZING SOME COUNTRIES FOR ACTIONS WHICH IT DOES NOT CONDEMN IN OTHERS.

This statement is generally true. The General Assembly's failure to condemn terrorist acts by the Palestinian extremists is inexcusable. Recently, however, some steps have been taken to restore some balance and to broaden the scope of the discussion of human rights.

8. THE UN IS INEFFECTIVE. IT HAS BEEN UNABLE TO PREVENT OR STOP WARS.

The UN is not a political entity which can force its member states to take action against what they consider their own national interest. The UN is further limited by its own charter. In cases of internal disputes, such as the civil wars in Nigeria, Angola and Northern Ireland, the UN cannot act without the consent of the government involved.

Despite these built-in weaknesses, when given the authority to function, the UN's ability to adapt quickly and effectively to individual situations has been demonstrated from the Balkans and Indonesia to Kashmir and the Congo. In all, the UN has helped settle disputes in almost 50 countries in its first 30 years.

9. THE UN IS AGAINST ISRAEL.

Voting patterns in the General Assembly and other UN bodies, show all too clearly that most UN members are strongly critical of Israel, even hostile.

The situation would be no different if the UN did not exist. The UN, on the other hand, gives Israel and her allies the only major opportunity in which to react publicly, and in many cases to balance the tone of the debate. The Israelis themselves recognize the continuing value of the UN to their future survival and have never suggested withdrawal.

10. THE UNITED STATES IS PAYING TOO LARGE A SHARE OF THE COSTS OF UN.

Although the US share of UN costs may seem large, it is not out of proportion to what others put in. Each American pays just about 30 cents per year for the regular UN budget, or $63.5 million out of a national budget of over $300 billion. Fourteen other countries pay a greater per capita amount, primarily the countries of Western Europe and four oil-producing states.

11. WITH OUT ECONOMIC AND MILITARY POWER, WE DON'T NEED THE UN. BILATERAL DIPLOMACY IS MORE EFFECTIVE.

Food shortages, the environment, dwindling supplies of natural resources, nuclear proliferation—must be dealt with on a worldwide basis. National action alone is not enough. The UN and its agencies continue to provide the only established global mechanism for dealing with these major international issues. It is the only place where communication with all nations is possible, in a crisis, on a continuing basis and informally on issues of more long-range concern. It is for this reason that 14 heads of government and over 100 foreign ministers attended the 30th General Assembly in person.

It would seem that our fragmented world is slowly but surely moving toward Wendell Wilkie's dream of "One World."

Reddy's helpful tips for your Home Laundry

- Avoid wasting hot water while laundering. Use the cold and warm water settings as much as possible to cut down on the energy needed to heat water.
- Use the water level control on your washer. You should use less hot water for small loads.
- Follow detergent instructions carefully. Oversudsing makes your washing machine motor work harder than it needs to.
- Clean the lint filter on your washer and dryer after each load to keep your machine running efficiently.

O'CONNOR'S COLUMN

Halloween Costume Safety
As Halloween nears, safety comes to mind—especially costume safety. Mrs. O'Connor suggests some ways parents can make children's "trick or treating" safer this year.

—Consider using make-up to decorate the face rather than wearing a mask which may block vision.

—Sew or glue reflective tape to both front and back of the costume, be creative and incorporate the tape into the costume design.

Dissolve three ounces of boric acid in two quarts of hot water and stir in seven ounces of borax (boric acid and borax are available at drugstores).

Soak the costume in this solution for about five minutes, then wring out and hang. When just damp, iron until dry.

"This solution will not appreciably change the fabric, although any fabric that will shrink or discolor in water will be affected by the solution. This treatment will not fire-proof a costume, but will help it to resist ignition and spreading the fire. It will be effective until the costume is laundered."

Will Organize Wingate Senior Citizens

An organizational meeting for Wingate community senior citizens will be held in the Wingate Lions Club building Thursday at 3 p.m.

Rosemary Bennie, who works with Winters Senior Citizens, will help to organize the group for planned programs.

Senior citizens from the entire North Runnels area are invited to attend.

Truth-in-advertising laws have taken the wind out of a lot of sales.

COW POKES

—Check labels or packaging on purchased costumes for flame retardant finishes. Children may be exposed to many direct sources of fires such as lighted pumpkins, colorful candles or open fires for toasting marshmallows.

—For home-sewn costumes, select fabrics that have a flame retardant finish. Or apply one at home—aerosol or home made. But remember that the commercial aerosol may not be effective on all fabrics, so check the aerosol label.

The agent suggested a recipe for making flame retardant finish, but cautioned that this solution will work only on costumes made of muslin, burlap, old sheets—in other words, items made of cottons, cotton blends or other natural fibers. It is not good on synthetics or resin-treated cottons.

A LOOK AT THE FACTS

by
O. L. Rake

In the Thursday, October 14 edition of The Winters Enterprise, my opponent stated, "I am not obligated to any organization or committees." A similar assertion is also being made on radio.

I would like to point out that these statements are not entirely correct.

As most of you know, every candidate's total campaign contributions and expenditures must be reported to the County Clerk at various intervals set by law. These financial statements are a matter of public record and can be examined by any citizen. As of Sept. 30, my opponent listed contributions for the general election totaling $1922.00. These contributions were listed as coming from different individuals but no names were given. In addition he also listed previous contributions received during the primary campaign at $2601.20.

The figures therefore reveal that he has received campaign contributions totaling $4523.20.

As of Sept. 30, my total campaign contributions were $2848.00. All of the contributions have come from various individuals and as required by law the names of those who have contributed over $50.00 are listed. In addition every penny expended has been recorded and I have not used a dime for my personal livelihood.

These facts reveal very clearly that if money is an obligating factor then my opponent is exactly $1675.20 more obligated to his individual supporters than I am to mine.

I believe this is a very clear example of how easily people can be intentionally misled.

Truthfulness in public office is very important.

GROUND GAINER!—A Blizzard ball carrier hunts for more yardage during the Winters-Merkel game at Merkel Friday night. The Blizzards dropped this conference game 19-12 to the Merkel Badgers.

MOVE 'EM OUT!—Jimmy Chapman, No. 30, a Blizzard backfield stalwart, outruns several Merkel Badgers during the Winters-Merkel game at Merkel Friday night. Chapman also went 96 yards for a TD on a kickoff return to open the second half of the game.

STOPPED—A Blizzard is stopped by at least two Merkel Badgers during the Winters-Merkel game at Merkel Friday night.

Blizzards 12, Badgers 19

Winters held a six point lead going into the fourth period Friday night only to have the Merkel Badgers come from behind and defeat the Blizzards 19-12.

After a scoreless first period, the Blizzards got on the board with 6:35 left in the half. Johnny Curbo intercepted a Badger pass and, eight plays later, Flent McNeill climaxed a 78-yard drive and scored on an 11-yard run. The PAT attempt failed. With 1:02 left, Badger quarterback David Pfister passed 30 yards to Brad Parsley and tied the score at 6-6. The conversion try missed. The score followed a 40-yard drive in five plays after Garth Doan recovered a fumble for Merkel.

Winters safety Jimmy Chapman opened the second half of play with a 96-yard kickoff return. The point-after attempt was missed and the Blizzards led 12-6.

drive that took nine plays. Smith then kicked the PAT and ended the game with a 19-12 victory for the Badgers.

Leading rushers for the Blizzards were Jimmy Chapman with 104 yards in 22 carries; Flent McNeill with 11 carries for 74 yards; Gary Schwartz, six yards in two carries; and Kent McNeill with eight yards in one carry.

Gary Schwartz was cre-ding with most tackles with eight. Darrell Kurtz and Phillip Colburn had seven each, and Leroy Jones had six.

The Wonderful World Of Tomorrow

Automobile experts know that one way to save energy for the future is to have lighter cars. They also know that one way to have lighter cars is to make more parts of plastic. It has been predicted that by 1980, there will be 400 pounds of plastic in every car.

An increasing number of plastic plates will probably be seen on American tables. Since a pretty healthy idea isn't they can't develop the unsanitary, dirt-collecting craze-cracks that china can.

It has been predicted that by the year 2,000, the plastics industry will contribute so much to the American economy that it will account for 7.2 percent of the Gross National Product and employ 1.3 percent of the labor force.

AROUND THE 6-AA LOOP

Colorado City is clearly the leader in District 6-AA, with three comeouts in conference and three wins. The Wolves have defeated Merkel 14-7, Wylie 33-0, and Coahoma 33-0. C-City rests this week.

Stamford is the second runner, with a 2-0, beating Ballinger 9-7, and Winters 20-13. The Bulldogs rested last week, and will host Merkel this week.

Merkel has a 2-1 record, beating Ballinger 12-7, Winters 19-12, and losing to C-City 14-7. The Badgers go to Stamford.

Coahoma has a 1-1 district record, beating Wylie 32-8, and losing to C-City 33-0 last week. Coahoma goes to Ballinger this week.

Wylie has a 0-2-1 record for district, losing to Coahoma and C-City, and then playing Ballinger to a 0-0 tie. Wylie plays at Winters Friday night.

Winters still has not come up with a win for district, losing to Stamford in the first conference game, and then to Merkel last week.

Ballinger, usually a powerhouse during football season, has failed to come up with a

DAVID CAREY

Seaman Apprentice David Carey recently completed nine weeks basic naval training at Recruit Training Command, Orlando, Fla. He will be assigned to hospital corpsman school in San Diego, Calif.

Rescue Green Tomatoes Before Frost

Green tomatoes, picked before the first frost, can be used many ways that add more flavor to them and will prevent losing them to winter frost. Mrs. Mary Sweeten, foods and nutrition specialist, points out.

"Green tomatoes aren't as top quality as the vine-ripened red flavorful ones, but they can be a delicious accompaniment to any meal. Try this method—especially good with Mexican food—slice, dip in buttermilk and flour, salt them and deep fat fry. The flour, salt and pepper and the fat add flavor to the green tomatoes," she said.

Mrs. Sweeten is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"They are also delicious as ingredients in relishes or chow chow, mincemeat, marmalade, spiced green tomatoes and green tomato pickles.

"But remember to harvest them before the first frost, because after they've been touched by frost, they aren't suitable for eating," she said.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester McBeth attended the funeral of an uncle, Dr. J. P. McBeth, Baptist evangelist in Irving. He had one surviving brother out of 8 brothers. The McBeths had visited him on Tuesday where he is a patient in Rotan Hospital. He has improved slightly.

Charlsie Poe Named Chairman Of UN Day

Following her appointment as 1976 United Nations Day chairman by Mayor Homer Hodge, Mrs. George Poe announced that this year's UN Day observance will highlight a series of important questions about the UN that will be answered in the newspaper.

UN Day, Oct. 24, commemorates the 31st anniversary of the United Nations. In the United States, over 2,000 communities are expected to participate in the nation-wide observance under the leadership of Edgar B. Speer, Chairman of the Board of United States Steel and 1976 National UN Day chairman.

Mrs. Poe noted the coincidence of UN Day with the closing days of the 1976 election campaign and expressed support for Mr. Speer's statement that "It is essential that American citizens of every political persuasion understand the real meaning of global 'interdependence'. The voters as well as the candidates must be encouraged to form opinions and take stands on the many domestic issues related to international concerns and to US policies in the UN."

Since Oct. 24, falls on Sunday there will be no formal programs, but Mrs. Poe has asked that there be special prayers for the UN in all the churches, and that all citizens be concerned about furthering their understanding of the UN, its accomplishments, its limitations and its potential.

"Miss Spirit of '76" To Be Crowned At Game

Students of Winters High School this week will vote for a senior girl as "Miss Spirit of '76," and the honoree will be crowned in special ceremonies before the Winters-Wylie football game Friday night.

The four nominees, all seniors, were named by the members of the senior class, and final selection delegated to the entire student body. Nominees are Lisa Bedford, Christi Spraberry, Cheryl Colburn and Cathy Colburn.

In the ceremonies before the game, the Blizzard Band will perform, and presentation of "Miss Spirit of '76" will be made by the president of the Student Council. The girl selected will be featured in 1976-77 Glacier, school annual.

Naming of "Miss Spirit of '76" is in lieu of selecting a Homecoming Queen this year. There will be no homecoming celebration this year.

Fire Prevention Posters To Be Judged

Division 2, Grades 5 through 7, Division 3, Primary grades, K through 4; and for Plan A self-contained classes.

Cash awards will be made for the top three posters in each division, $10, $7.50, $5. In addition, 1st, 2nd and 3rd place ribbons will be awarded for the top three posters in each room.

City of Winters Gets $756 From Sales Taxes

The City of Winters has received $756.02 rebate from the State Comptroller's office, as the October rebate of the one-cent city sales tax for the period ending October 1. The amount was considerably lower than the previous month's rebate because most sales tax reports are filed at the beginning of the quarter.

Comptroller Bob Bullock said Friday that his auditors turned up more than $9 million in additional local sales taxes owed Texas cities and towns during fiscal 1976, more than double the amount turned up the two previous fiscal years.

Bullock said city sales tax audit production during the fiscal year ending Aug. 31 was $9,056,072, compared to about $4.5 million each of the two previous fiscal years.

He added that city sales tax rebates have totaled $239.1 million so far this year, well ahead of the $209.2 million rebated during the same period in 1975.

Consumer Food News

Whole fryers save the food budget this week in Texas grocery stores, Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt reports.

Consumers who are looking for ways to save money will buy fryers whole and cut up their own chicken. Turkeys are showing reasonable price tags on parts as well as whole birds, she added.

Mrs. Clyatt is consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"Pork specials in the spotlight include smoked cuts—semi-boneless hams, picnics and bacon—along with Boston butts, end chops and quarter-loins cut into chops.

"Fish continue to offer an excellent protein value in cost per serving," the specialist added.

Check beef counters for better value on tender steaks as T-bone and rib roasts. Ground beef, round steaks and beef liver are other economical choices, she said.

"Since head lettuce is staying in the high price range, cabbage is a likely choice for salads. Other greens, such as young tender leaves of collards, mustard and turnip tops, go well in a tossed salad, too.

"Good quality cauliflower is available now with moderate prices. Also, eggplant, broccoli, Brussel sprouts, rutabagas, acorn and butter-nut squash, along with potatoes and dry yellow onions are the most economically priced fresh vegetables," she said.

PREPARING APPLIANCES FOR A MOVE

Moving appliances from one home to another requires care, Mrs. Lillian Chenoweth, a family resource management specialist, says. She is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"Because the interior mechanisms of some appliances are swung on spring hangers to lessen vibrations when operating, some major appliances should be serviced before being moved. This process includes wedging, padding, bracing or bolting down of motors, compressors, or washer tubs. An appliance serviceman usually handles these procedures," she said.

Major appliances such as refrigerators, freezers, dishwashers, washers and dryers may need such servicing. Many newer model appliances require no servicing, but older models may. It is a good idea to tape on the control knobs of all appliances, she added.

"In preparing for travel, thorough cleaning and drying of all appliances is essential. Any moisture left will cause the growth of mold and mildew with resulting musty odors that are quite difficult to remove. After cleaning, leave the appliance door open at least 24 hours to allow thorough drying. Grease left on appliances can turn rancid and catch dust.
