Home Destroyed By Fire

Fire, possibly caused by an electrical short or lightning, last Wednesday morning destroyed the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hambright, about nine miles east of Winters on FM 53.

The fire began between 3 and 3:30 a.m., apparently, and completely destroyed the house. The blaze was seen by a passing motorist, and reported to the Winters Police Department, who turned in the alarm.

Mr. and Mrs. Hambright were not at home at the time of the fire. Hambright, who has been seriously ill, had entered St. John's Hospital in San Angelo the night before the fire, and Mrs. Hambright had stayed at the hospital with him.

When Winters firemen arrived, they made sure there was no one in the house, and then concentrated on saving outbuildings. The fire had been burning some time before firemen arrived, and they were unable to save the house.

Speculation was that the fire may have started from an electrical short, or by lightning. An electrical storm had hit the area during the night.

Mr. and Mrs. Hambright moved to the farm home in February, 1935, according to one of the sons. The seven children were raised on that farm. They are Mrs. George (Gerry) Lange and Mrs. Aubrey (Patsy) Faubion, both of Ballinger; Cecil Hambright of Winters; Ben Hambright of Bronte; Mrs. Ed (Chris) Franks of Iraan; and Eldon Hambright and Mrs. Mike (Shirley) Dyess, both of Lubbock.

A fund has been established at the Winters State Bank to assist the Hambrights.

Band Boosters Plan Style Show Sept. 19

The Blizzard Band Boosters organization is planning a back-to-school style show for Sept. 19.

Garments to be modeled in the show will be provided by Heidenheimer's and The Fashion Shop. Admission will be $1.25 and 75 cents.

The Boosters held a monthly meeting in the Homemaking Cottage recently and made plans for the style show.

AFTERMATH—A pile of smoldering rubble is all that remained of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hambright, about nine miles east of Winters on FM 53, following an early-morning fire last Wednesday. All contents of the home were destroyed. Mr. and Mrs. Hambright were not at home when the fire occurred. A special fund has been established at The Winters State Bank for the Hambrights. Runnels County REACT has been instrumental in collecting much of the money already deposited in the fund. (Staff photo)

Blizzards To Clyde For Season Opener

With four weeks of hard practice and two scrimmages under their belts, the Winters Blizzards Friday night will take to the road for their first game of the 1977 football season.

The Blizzards will meet the Clyde Bulldogs in a non-conference game, at Clyde.

The team already has been crippled to some extent, with the injury last Friday night of Mark DeBerry, a defensive end, but Coach Jimmy Stubblefield hopes to field a team against Clyde which will refute the pre-season predictions that Winters would be at the bottom of the stack in District 6-AA. The coach has only five starters back from last year, but has the natural confidence of coaches that those boys he sends out will make themselves noticed.

In the scrimmage with the Brady Bulldogs Friday night, the Blizzards crossed the goal line once, with the Bulldogs following suit. The Blizzards made their crossover after a 70-yard hard drive. The Blue team looked much better in action Friday than they had in their mixup in scrimmage with Comanche, with players beginning to find their niches and going from there.

At Clyde Friday night, the Blizzards will meet a big rough and tumble team. The Bulldog line will average around 200 pounds, and the Clyde team likes powerhouse plays, and tries to run over opponents. There are several last-year starters on the Bulldog squad. Last year, on a visit to Winters, Clyde beat Winters 22-19 in the first game of the season.

Except for the injured DeBerry, the Blizzards will go into the Clyde game fit and ready, except for usual stiffness and soreness. DeBerry had a small leg bone broken in last week's scrimmage, and will be out for the rest of the season, the coach said.

For the Clyde encounter, Coach Stubblefield has picked the following:

STARTING LINEUPS

Offense

Tight End: Leroy Jones.
Strong Tackle: Phil Colburn.
Strong Guard: Nathan Tekell.
Center: Jim Bob Webb.
Quick Guard: Gary Lett.
Quick Tackle: Douglas Cooper.
Split End: Johnny Lujano.
QB: Chuck Evans.
FB: Gary Schwartz.
TB: Pat Salas.
WB: Paul Hudson.

Defense

Nose Guard: Phil Colburn.
T: Douglas Bryan, Jim Bob Webb.
E: Leroy Jones, Gary Lett.
LB: Gary Schwartz, Pat Salas.
CB: David Esquivel, Reggie Boles.
S: Chuck Evans, Paul Hudson.

Manhunt Nets 1 of 3 Escapees

One man was in custody and in Runnels County jail Tuesday, and two more were being sought in the San Angelo area, following a jail escape in Coryell County Monday morning, alleged theft of four vehicles, a manhunt involving law enforcement officers from several counties, department of Public Safety troopers and private citizens, and a 100-mile-an-hour highway chase late Monday.

Jimmy Lee Lenard, 17, who officers said was one of three prisoners who escaped from the Coryell County jail at Gatesville early Monday morning, was captured in San Angelo by Runnels County officers Monday night, and was charged with grand theft auto and lodged in Runnels County jail. Bond was set at $10,000. County Sheriff Hershall Hall said Lenard would be released to Coryell County officials Tuesday.

Sheriff Hall said Lenard was captured near St. John's Hospital in San Angelo, following a highway chase which reached 100 miles an hour from Bronte Monday night. The other two men in the vehicle escaped capture, and were being hunted in San Angelo Tuesday.

Officers said the other two men involved were Julius C. Evans, 18, and Gary Lewis Bailey, 17.

The manhunt and chase began with a jailbreak at Gatesville. Officers said the three men, who were confined in the Coryell County jail, broke out about 1:30 a.m. Monday, overpowered a radio dispatcher, taking his money, a watch, a ring, and drove off in his car.

Runnels County officers became involved about midmorning Monday, when Doyle Cooper, who farms about 4½ miles north of Winters, reported three men had driven off in his pickup.

He said they were about 500 yards from where he was plowing, and drove the pickup through a steel gate to get out of the field.

Law enforcement agencies in the area were alerted, and a while later, someone reported a pickup wrecked on FM 1086, west of Bradshaw, with no one around. Officers from Runnels and Taylor counties, with assistance from at least one state trooper who was passing through the area, and local citizens, began a manhunt, which

CRASH SCENE—This sign at the Church of Christ on North Main in Winters was demolished when a pickup left the street and plowed into it early Sunday morning. Police investigated the incident, and said that Betty Sue Gray was driver of a pickup which hit the sign. Police reported that Mrs. Gray was driving south on North Main about 3:30 a.m. Sunday, when she lost control of the pickup on wet pavement, and crossed the street and hit the sign. Betty Gill was a passenger in the pickup at the time, according to the police report. (Staff photo by Joe Eckols)

FIRST PICKUP—A pickup belonging to Doyle Cooper of Winters was wrecked on FM 1086 west of Bradshaw Monday morning, after being stolen at his farm four and a half miles north of Winters earlier. The pickup was the second of four vehicles allegedly stolen by three escapees

Reddy Tips To Help You...

Your ENERGY Dollar$

Use your Refrigerator Wisely...

- ★ Open and close the refrigerator and freezer doors only when necessary. Several items can be removed at once to reduce loss of cold air.
- ★ Freezers and refrigerators operate most efficiently when filled to the correct capacity. Foods should be placed slightly apart on refrigerator shelves for correct circulation.
- ★ Cover all liquids stored in the refrigerator (especially frost-free models). Moisture is drawn into the air from uncovered liquids making the refrigerator work harder.
- ★ Be sure your appliance is standing level so that the door seals properly. By setting a glass of water on the top, you can see if it is level.

Nelson Wolff Has Announced For Congress

Nelson Wolff announced that he is officially a candidate for U.S. Congressman from the 21st District in Texas.

Wolff made his announcement at press conferences/receptions in four cities in the district: San Antonio, Del Rio, Ft. Stockton, and San Angelo.

The former state senator has been traveling throughout the 21st District for the past five months visiting with people about his possible candidacy. He has also been preparing position papers on important issues facing the district and the nation.

"We must realize that there are no easy, overnight solutions, and if we think there are, we are only fooling ourselves. The challenges we face will require many hours of diligent study and hard work if we are to find common sense solutions that will endure. This is an awesome challenge for any congressional candidate, but it is a challenge I accept gladly," Wolff said.

RETURNED HOME
Dru and Devin Smith returned Saturday to their home in Midland after spending a week with their grandmother, Mrs. A. O. Merck.

A new violin, even the most perfectly made, will not produce as rich and full a tone as one that has been used many years.

O'CONNOR'S COLUMN

Home Freezer "Shut Down"

Home freezer "shut down" does not always mean total loss. In general, Mrs. O'Connor points out, if a food is safe to eat, it is safe to refreeze. Rule of thumb: Partially or completely thawed foods are safe to refreeze if they still contain ice crystals or if they are still cold—about 40 degrees F.—and have been held no longer than one or two days at refrigerator temperature after thawing. Exception: Thawed ice cream should not be refrozen. Warning: Get ride of foods that have poor—or questionable—odor or color. The food may be dangerous. Do not eat or refreeze thawed ground meats, poultry or fish with off-odor or off-color.

Quality note: Even when partial thawing and refreezing is safe, it does reduce the eating quality of foods—particularly fruits, vegetables and prepared foods. The eating quality of red meats is reduced less than that of other foods.

Care guidelines: Foods that have been frozen and thawed require the same care as non-frozen foods. Also, use refrozen foods as soon as possible to save existing eat quality.

Parents Help Beginners

First-year school children need parental encouragement, says Mrs. O'Connor, county extension agent.

Miss Routh and James Priddy Plan Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Roy T. Routh of Ballinger announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Deborah Ann, to Mr. James Michael Priddy, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Priddy, Jr., of Winters.

Miss Routh is employed as a teacher by the Talpa-Centennial school district, and Priddy is engaged in farming and ranching in the Talpa area.

The couple plans a September 30 wedding.

Starting school may be emotional for children and parents when six million 5- and 6-year-olds enter school for the first time.

Treat going to school as routine and expected of children, but offer support and encouragement, the agent advises. Here are hints that may help to alleviate some of the stress:

—Do not make going to school the topic of daily conversation.

—Do not let other children frighten or tease with tales of how awful school is. Encourage the child to trust your perceptions of what school is like.

—Answer all questions about school honestly.

—If possible, visit the school during the summer with your child. Look over classrooms, school buildings and facilities.

—Never give the impression that there is a choice about attending school. Make it clear that all children go to school.

—Show that you appreciate your child's cooperation in helping with preparations to begin school.

—Make transportation plans clear. If the child is to walk to school, go along once or twice to establish the route, or arrange for your child to walk with other children in the neighborhood.

If the child is to ride a bus, clearly identify which bus before school starts.

—Do not get into the habit of seating your child in the classroom. This can lead to tears and clinging, which can start the child off on the wrong foot with the teacher and other children.

—If your child does cry, rest assured that in most cases the tears will stop quickly.

—Do not overly excite your child about going to school. It is not natural for children to be happy about giving up the secure atmosphere of home for the uncertainties of school.

—For working mothers, if possible, make arrangements to be at home for the first day or two when your child gets home from school.

—Let your child know that during the school day you will be going about your usual work.

—Maintain a normal home life during the first days of school.

—Be mindful that some of the child's anxieties will be associated with your own. Be calm and relaxed about the opening of school, and this attitude is likely to filter down to the child.

Even with the best made plans, there is still the possibility that when the day arrives, the child will cry or be "sick." Try not to be overcome with sympathy.

Standing firm from the beginning will help to alleviate problems which could arise later. Be patient and reassuring to help your child feel secure about the first days of school.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the friends, neighbors and relatives for making our 50th wedding anniversary a joyful occasion of our 50 years together. —Mack and Violet Edwards. 26-1tp.

Manhunt—

extended into Taylor County, and eventually into Nolan and Coke counties. A DPS helicopter from Midland was sent to assist in the hunt.

At the beginning of the hunt, the theft and wrecking of the Cooper pickup was not connected to the Gatesville escape, according to reports. Cooper had reported he saw "three men" get into his pickup and drive off. Later in the afternoon, the car which was said to have been taken in Gatesville was found abandoned in Winters, and officers began to suspect that the three men from Gatesville were involved in the Runnels County affair.

According to officers, the trio walked to U.S. 277, where they took another pickup from a farm house. They allegedly drove this second pickup to Bronte, where it was abandoned. At Bronte, they took another pickup, and it was there they were sighted and chased by officers to San Angelo. Sheriff Hershall Hall of Runnels County said the chase reached 100 miles an hour, until the fleeing pickup skidded to a halt in front of St. John's Hospital in San Angelo. Lenard was caught at that point, while the other two made their escape.

Even though the Cooper pickup was turned over, there was no evidence of injury to any of the occupants, officers said.

Law enforcement officers from Runnels, Coke, Tom Green, and Nolan counties were involved in the manhunt.

Problems Of Our Border Areas: Toward A Future Of Opportunity

From El Paso to Brownsville, our 900-mile border with Mexico offers Texans spectacular opportunities, and complex social problems. I have spent this Congressional recess traveling throughout our state, and I have learned much from people who have shared their ideas and problems with me—especially from Texans who live and work in the border area.

In Del Rio, I had the opportunity to co-sponsor, with that city, a Border Legislative Conference. More than 20 representatives of federal and state agencies were there, for a series of panel discussions. It was meant to be an exchange between the people who provide government services, and the people who use them. I think it worked.

Emergency relief won't be enough to solve the problems of our border areas. We need positive action to match the size and complexity of the problems themselves. That is why I asked members of such diverse areas of government as the Immigration and Naturalization Service, the Customs Service, the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, the Department of Commerce, the Small Business Administration, the Veterans Administration, and the Republic of Mexico, to attend the Conference.

As I see them, the major problems facing our border areas are these:

Income—Based on data taken from the 1970 census, per capita income nationally is $3,781, on an average. In the border region, it is $1,555 a year. This glaring level of income deviation is due to a number of factors; foremost among them are the unemployment level, and the impact of green carders, white carders, and of undocumented workers. The out-migration of capital and labor are also reflected in the income figures.

Schools—Mexican immigrant and alien students account for 9.6% of the total enrollment in border schools. Even though those school districts have a tax base much lower than those in other parts of the state. The greatest problem seems to be finding funds for the construction of facilities to house these additional students. My office has been working with a delegation of border school officials, and we hope to move toward a solution when Congress reconvenes.

Devaluation—Mexican citizens and business people have found their purchasing power reduced by an amount corresponding to the devaluation of the peso relative to the dollar. At one point, the value of the peso fell as low as 60 percent. The result has been critical for border area merchants, who have not experienced a devaluation since 1955.

I am deeply concerned about upgrading the quality of life in our border areas. They have been a gateway to a nation with which we in the United States, and Texas in particular, have strong ties. We want it to be a gateway to opportunity for all its citizens as well.

Grain Bins Can Be Hazards

Grain storage bins are a common sight on farms and ranches that may appear to involve little risk. But there are potential hazards that should be recognized.

One of these dangers is accidental suffocation. This often happens during the unloading of the bin when grain may form a "bridge" and the operator must break the bridge to get the grain flowing again. Bridged grain may look perfectly safe to walk on from the top, but it could hide a cavity that will collapse and hopelessly submerge an operator almost immediately.

Furthermore, an operator who enters a grain bin with the unloader running may sink in the flowing grain before he realizes what has happened. Once submerged, suffocation follows in seconds. It only takes a few inches of grain coverage to cause suffocation.

These mishaps can be prevented. Ladders should be installed in all bins. This will provide an exit if you need to get out as well as a safe way of getting in. But remember, even if there is a ladder in the bin, you must be able to get to it. If you walk out to the center of the bin and get caught in flowing grain, you may not be able to reach the ladder.

If grain bridges, shut off the unloader and use a pipe or some other long object to

Small World-- 1954 Grads Met In Faraway Place

Johnny L. Green and Robert Jewell were members of the Winters High School graduating class of 1954. Jewell was best man at Green's wedding the same year, and then they went their separate ways.

Green is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Green of Wingate.

Green received his degree from Abilene Christian College, and after working with other companies for some time, became associated with Haliburton. He is presently financial coordinator for Haliburton's Eastern Hemisphere division, stationed with his family in London.

Jewell is an A&M graduate, and is with Haliburton in the Far East. A few months ago, they met again, in Jakarta, Indonesia, where Jewell is division manager for Haliburton. They were featured in a recent issue of the Haliburton magazine.

Mrs. Carl Green plans to leave Sept. 10 to visit her son and family in London.
