Harvest About Over

For all practical purposes, harvest of the 1977 milo crop is over in this area, with only a few fields to be cut, according to grain men and farmers.

Production in this area has been "fair," it has been reported, but below totals realized in previous years.

Pricewise, milo farmers have been in a tight situation, with market price lower than in previous years, and cost of production continuing to climb. However, farmers in Runnels County have been fortunate in that government loans for milo have been easier to obtain than in some areas. There are four elevator-warehouses in Runnels County approved for storage of government loan grain. This reportedly is not true in many counties in the area, and in many sections of the state. Locally, farmers have been able to get government loans on their grain because of the local storage facilities, thus immediately netting more than the market price. The government loan has been in the neighborhood of $3.00, while the market price has been about $2.80 or below. In areas where there have been no government approved storage facilities, it was said, farmers have had to take the market price.

Availability of government approved storage and therefore available government loans on milo, has been a needed shot in the arm for the local economy, it is said. Most of the grain has been going into government loans, it is said, therefore using the available storage facilities, and necessitating outside storage of cash grain by the grain buyers. None of the outside-stored grain is in the government loan. Lack of huge shipments by rail and truck, and the big piles of grain outside are not indications of a bumper crop, nor the lack of cars, it was said. There is very little grain leaving, because so much of it is going into government loan storage.

MILo MOUNTAIN—Even from atop the elevator stand at Alderman-Cave Milling & Grain Co., this pile of 1977 crop milo more than filled the camera lens. Since this picture was taken Saturday morning, many more loads of milo have been unloaded here, and by Tuesday there were about seven million pounds on the ground. It was said that the milo would not be damaged by the weather, if left outside no more than a couple of months. (Staff photo by Joe Eckols)

Stock Assn. Member Drive Begins

The annual membership drive of the Winters Livestock Association is now underway, following a meeting of the organization last week.

Dates for the annual barbecue in October, and the Junior Livestock Show in January were set. New two-year directors also were elected.

Family membership in the Livestock Association will be the same as last year, $6.00 per family. Officers pointed out that membership tickets will have to be presented for admission to the barbecue.

The membership barbecue will be held Monday, Oct. 24.

The Junior Livestock Show will be held January 7, 8 and 9. There will be some changes in this year's show, it was said, and these changes will be announced at a later date.

Don Vinson was elected president for 1977-78, and Brent Mikeska, vice president. F. R. (Phil) Anderson is secretary-treasurer, and Bill Cathey is reporter.

Directors with another year to serve are Bobby Airhart, Paige Baize, Douglas Colburn, Calvin Helm, Jay Henderson, E. B. Hope, Glen Hoppe, Jerry Kraatz, R. Q. Marks, Sid McGinnis, R. T. O'Dell, Suvern O'Dell, Pat Pritchard, Raymond Schwartz, Robert Webb, and Marion Wood.

Booster Club Will Meet Next Monday

The first meeting of the season for the Winters Booster Club will be held next Monday, Sept. 12, in the first floor lounge of the high school, Jim Gehrels, president, has announced.

A film of the Winters-Junction game will be shown.

This is the first meeting of the season, and all members and persons interested in joining the organization, are urged to attend, Gehrels said.

An election of officers for the new year will also be held.

C-C Hamburger Supper Before Game

The Winters Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a hamburger supper, Friday, Sept. 9, in the school cafeteria before the Winters-Junction football game.

Serving will continue until 7:30 p.m.

Blackwell Homecoming October 1

The 1977 homecoming for ex-students of Blackwell School will be held Oct. 1, Lane Jackson, president of the ex-students association.

Highlight of the homecoming will be the Blackwell vs. Hobbs football game Saturday night, and crowning of the Coming Home Queen and King.

Ex-students are asked to make plans early to attend the homecoming event. Every ten-year class will be honored at the 1977 homecoming, including the classes of 1917, '27, '37, '47, '57 and '67.

Rental Housing Corp. Elected Officers Thursday

The board of directors of Winters Rental Housing Development, Inc., will begin new studies on the need for additional rental housing in Winters, and possible means of acquiring such housing.

In a meeting of the stockholders of the non-profit corporation Thursday evening of last week, directors were asked to continue studies, and to seek financial means to acquire additional housing, if studies indicate there is a need.

Winters Rental Housing Development, Inc., was organized several years ago with main purpose of obtaining additional rental housing here. In the beginning, the organization obtained the assistance of architects and planners, with an aim toward building several housing units for rental purposes. Eventually, when a private company expressed interest in the project, the plans were turned over to that company, which built

Blizzards Host Junction Here Friday Night

After taking a drubbing from a heavier, more experienced Clyde Bulldog team at Clyde Friday night, the Winters Blizzards will host the Junction Eagles for an 8 p.m. kickoff Friday night on Blizzards Field.

The Blizzards will be meeting Junction for the second time in many years. Last year, the first encounter in the two-year match-up program, the Blizzards lost to the Eagles 27-6, at Junction.

Coach Jimmy Stubblefield said his Blue team will again be going up against a much heavier team, giving the Eagles an average of 12 pounds per player. The Class A Eagles average 172, while the AA Blizzards average 160 across the board, the coach said. Also, there are at least four Junction players who tip the scales over 200 pounds, while Winters has only one who will hit 200, and there is some question whether he will get to play.

Phil Colburn, who at 200 outweighs most of the other Blizzards, received a freak injury to an arm or shoulder—whether in practice or in play—and may be sidelined. The injury is not serious, the coach said, but will hamper Colburn and the Blizzards.

Junction has eight starters back from last year, and hit McCamey 20-7 last week. The Eagles are rated as a "fine Class A team," and are about the only team in their single-A district which could pose a threat to a strong Wall squad. Wall defeated District 6-AA Coahoma last Friday night.

The Blizzard squad started comeback workouts Monday night, seeking to overcome some of the faults which contributed to their defeat last week. "We made a lot of mistakes Friday night," Coach Stubblefield said, "in addition to being 'outmanned' by Clyde. We're going to try to work our way out of these mistakes," before meeting Junction.

There will be little change in the starting lineups for this week's encounter with Junction, the coach said. Notwithstanding some minor injuries which may sideline some players, probables are:

Poe's Corner

BY CHARLIE POE

Staying in the mainstream of life was the subject of this talk I made in Ballinger Tuesday night for members of the American Association of Retired Persons.

On June 1, I was one of 700 people who attended the Generation Connection forum held at the Abilene Civic Center and heard Mrs. Dolph Briscoe, statewide chairperson, speak on bringing the older citizens back into the mainstream of society.

She suggested a new term "Mature Citizens," to identify "these people to whom we owe so much."

"We need to offer mature people more than hand-crafts," she said "another profession." And this may come about, she said, if the level of allowable income outside Social Security is raised from the current $3,000 a year to $4,800.

Discussing the important role of the mature person "who has traveled the highway ahead of us and can reach back with a hand of help that comes from the wisdom of knowing the rough places and the sharp turns," she said, "In a way it's selfish when I beg to

Mr., Mrs. Lilly To Celebrate Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. (Bill) Lilly will be honored with a reception celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary, Sunday, Sept. 18, in the Shep Community Center.

Hosting the reception will be the children of the couple, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Lilly of Abilene and Mr. and Mrs. Manton Reid of Lawn, and their grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Spurgers, Tonya Lilly of Abilene, and Sherry, Vonnie and Wanna Reid of Lawn.

They were married Sept. 20, 1927, in Eastland. They live on a farm in the Shep Community.

A retired farmer, Mr. Lilly enjoys fishing and making things in his shop. Mrs. Lilly does handwork and also enjoys fishing.

Friends and relatives are invited to call between 2 and 5 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 18.

have the mature person brought back into the mainstream. There are too many answers I seek, and I know I speak for my age group."

This was the tenth public forum Mrs. Briscoe had attended and she was scheduled to be in Lubbock for another in two weeks.

These forums are being conducted by the State Department of Public Welfare throughout Texas and Mrs. Briscoe believes they are helping in both financial and emotional ways to change the lot of the mature citizen.

Co-sponsors for the Generation Connection Forum are American Association of Retired Persons, First Lady's Volunteer Program, The Governor's Committee on Aging, National Association of Retired Federal Employees, National Retired Teachers Association, and Texas Association of Regional Councils.

I have news for you, I've never gotten out of the mainstream of life and that's the last thing I'm going to do. I'll stay just as long as I can paddle my little canoe and when I can't, I'll do my best to enlist help.

How do we stay in the mainstream of life? Happiest is he, who can see the connection between the end and the beginning of his life. Growing older is continuous from conception to life's end.

The poet, Robert Browning, expresses this in his poem, "Rabbi Ben Ezra": Grow old along with me! The best is yet to be, The last of life for which the first was made: Our times are in his hand Who saith, "A whole I planned, Youth shows but half; trust God; see all, nor be afraid!"

"Becoming" was Dr. Gordon Allport's description of the span of life. And today research is telling us that we who continue to "become", we who continue to grow, to change, to adapt, escape the devastation of senility. Of course, the exception to this is among those who suffer severe mental and physical deterioration.

"As we grow older, we tend to become more what we really are," someone has said. My version of that is "When we get old, we're just like we've always been, only more so."

To choose continuous "becoming" to life's end is not the easy way. It requires energy-conscious use of energy when its use sometimes requires major effort.

And I believe that we must set goals for personal achievement. If we don't reach them it is better than not having any. Without anything to strive for we will suffer boredom, which is a living death.

I have all sorts of goals, little ones and long range ones. I don't expect to live long enough to reach all my goals, but if I do I'll set new ones.

Eric Pfeiffer, in his excellent analysis of successful aging, stresses remaining in the mainstream of life. Participation, continuous learning, delight in play and fun, and productivity place even the aged in the center of living.

Participation is reaching out for active friendships on every age level. It is offering opportunities for associations which are mutually rewarding. It avoids sitting back, waiting and resenting because of the requirement that those who are younger make major overtures to those who are older. (I have friends of all ages and find that human nature is the same in all people, young or old.)

Participation takes varied forms. Persons whose careers have been satisfying and successful share their accumulated wisdom, knowledge and perspective to the end of their days. Those who have given with generosity to their communities, their organizations, their families continue their contributions.

Persons whose physical limitations require new patterns of participation find ways of adaptation even to wheelchair requirements.

Aging does present a real challenge. It takes work to stay physically fit. I've often said that I spend all my time going to the doctor, the dentist, the beauty parlor, the grocery store and the garage. My car has to be kept fit too. My biggest hangup is not taking enough exercise, but I work at it.

Participation becomes less in physical action and more in emotional-intellectual sharing as years go by. To share experiences and ideas and not be expected to do the physical work of carrying out these ideas is very satisfying.

Participation in the activities of our churches should also be an important part of our lives. As the outer man decays that inner man is being renewed day by day. We should be spiritually stronger now than ever before and eternal values become increasingly important. Whatever church you attend, I hope you are faithful and your purpose is to help God's Kingdom come on earth.

Belt buckles will be awarded to the all-around cowboy and all-around cowgirl participating in a play day in the rodeo arena north of Winters, Saturday, Sept. 10. Events will begin at 8 p.m.

The play day event is being sponsored by the Winters Rodeo Association. Events will be for boys and girls 8 and under; 9 to 12, 13 to 15, and 16 to 19.

The microwave requires at least 50% less power than a conventional oven.

Cinnamon Streusel Coffee Cake

Streusel Mixture:
1 cup 100% natural cereal, original
1/2 cup firmly packed brown sugar
1/4 cup butter or margarine, melted
2 teaspoons cinnamon
Coffee Cake:
1/4 cup vegetable shortening
1/2 cup granulated sugar
3/4 cup milk
1 egg
1 1/2 cups all-purpose flour
1 tablespoon baking powder
3/4 teaspoon salt

For streusel mixture, combine all ingredients; mix well.

For coffee cake, beat together shortening and sugar until light and fluffy. Blend in milk and egg. Add combined flour, baking powder and salt, mixing just until dry ingredients are moistened. Spread half of batter into greased 8-inch square baking dish; sprinkle with half of streusel mixture. Spoon remaining batter by teaspoonfuls evenly over streusel mixture; top with remaining streusel mixture. Cook in microwave oven about 7 minutes, rotating dish 1/4 turn 3 times. Cool about 10 minutes; serve warm. Makes 8-inch square coffee cake.

MICROWAVE COOKERY
a subject no longer on the "foods of the future" list. Microwave oven sales have dramatically increased since 1970, when 40 thousand units were sold. Units of microwave ovens sold in 1977 totaled 2,100,000 (including units sold commercially). It is estimated that about 4% of the households in the United States currently own a microwave oven. The microwave industry, however, is anticipating unit sales will reach 4 million units by 1980.

Who is the microwave consumer? According to Leo Shapiro and Associates, a research company studying and monitoring the growth of microwave cooking:

1. 40% are purchased by families with household income of less than $15,000.
2. More than 50% of the microwave ovens are purchased by families with two wage earners.
3. More than 30% of the customers are under 35 years of age.

We've learned there are a number of reasons why people are using microwave ovens. Performance and speed of cooking are the major factors, plus the ease of warming up foods. Oven manufacturers also claim there is an energy savings as land as described in the oil, gas and mineral lease dated August 10, 1953 executed by the City of Winters in favor of Robert B. Cockrell, and being of record in Vol. 283, Page 154 of the Runnels County, Texas Deed Records.

The City of Winters reserves the right to reject any or all bids and to award the bid considered the most advantageous to the City of Winters.

Homemakers To Meet Next Monday

Winters Young Homemakers will meet Monday, Sept. 12, at 7:30 p.m. in the school Homemaking Cottage. Mary Lynn Presley will give a program on personal grooming. FHA members are invited to attend.

This toxin is so powerful that one-fourth teaspoonful is enough to kill 100,000 people, she adds.

For children, protection against tetanus usually starts with the basic immunization series—in which the tetanus toxoid is given in combination with diphtheria toxoid and pertussis vaccine—at two, four, six, and eighteen months with a booster when they start school.

To continue the protection, physicians generally recommend a booster every 10 years. Adults should consult their physician or local health department about their immunization status.

Everyone should be protected against tetanus, but it is particularly important for pregnant women and agricultural workers and adults in occupations in which tetanus-favoring injuries are frequent.

You Never Outgrow Need For Immunization

Tetanus immunization is not kid stuff. Adults need its protection, too, warns Mrs. Juanita O'Connor, County Extension Agent.

More than half of the reported cases of tetanus occur in persons 50 or older, she says.

Tetanus—also known as lockjaw, can often be fatal. It is caused by spores of bacteria which can enter the body through a wound. The spores are almost everywhere, but particularly in manured soil.

Because the tetanus germ cannot grow in the presence of air, deep puncture wounds or cuts are a favorable growing environment for the germ, the agent says.

Once in the wound, tetanus germs secrete a toxin.

Funing Game News

Santa Claus usually makes his rounds in December, but this year we thought he had made a mistake, when a large box of gifts was delivered by the Wilmeth Friendly Helpers Club in August. Each resident received a gift, and plenty left over for bingo prizes. Thank you so much for the surprise package.

Tuesday, Sept. 13, at 3 o'clock is our monthly birthday party. Those being honored will be Armene Hodge, 10th, Nannie Brooks, 22nd, Katie Adair, 23rd, and Flor Henry, 28th. Relatives and friends are invited to join us in wishing these people a happy birthday.

Our newest resident is Mrs. Lydia Kelly. We hope her stay with us will be a pleasant one.

We all started "Back To School Daze" on Aug. 23rd. Of course Mattie Cooke was the teacher, and she kept her reputation of giving stiff assignments. On Aug. 30th our theme was "Dog Days," and Charlsie Poe reviewed "Old Yeller."

The Winters String Band will be here this Friday evening at 7 o'clock.

Blizzards Lose 33-0 To Clyde

The Clyde Bulldogs failed to score in the first quarter Friday night at Clyde, but made up the difference in the other three periods, as they defeated the Winters Blizzards 33-0 in the season opener, a non-conference game.

The Blizzards, outweighed by many pounds by the senior-strong Bulldog squad, were unable to gain any amount of control, and gained only 116 yards on the ground and in the air during the evening, while watching Clyde rack up 350 yards. The Clyde team lost 70 yards through 9 penalties during the game, while Winters lost 20 yards for two infractions. The Bulldogs kept control throughout the evening, in spite of the penalties and 3 fumbles lost.

PLAYER GRADING

Remembering the one-sided affair with Clyde last Friday night, Coach Jimmy Stubblefield said "We were 'outmanned' by a team which showed a lot of talent." The Blizzards, outweighed many pounds, were up against a Bulldog team with experience. According to the program, there were about 23 seniors on the list of 28 Clyde players for Friday night. Winters made a lot of mistakes, however coaches did turn in good "report cards" on most of the members of the Blue squad.

Game grades recognized: Pat Salas, 71 percent. Many tackles in the Clyde game.

Paul Hudson, 51 percent. At least one good pass reception.

Wayne Kraatz, 66 percent. Kraatz, a sophomore up from the B team, to fill in for injured Phil Colburn.

Gary Schwartz, 60 percent.

Leroy Jones, 62 percent on defense, and 54 percent on offense. He snagged two good passes.

Chuck Evans, 52 percent. This junior 130-pound, 5-7 quarterback, had difficulty seeing over the taller linemen.

Milk: An After-school Delight

School time means after-school snack time, and it's sometimes a challenge to find the right foods that will gain acceptance by youngsters, and at the same time be nourishing.

Fortunately, there are milk and dairy products to turn to. They are nourishing and can be prepared in ways that are appealing to children. Right now, the U.S. Department of Agriculture advises that they are also plentiful.

USDA marketing specialists report that although September milk output will be seasonally lower than spring output, it should be above the September 1976 level and above the September average of 1974-1976. Butter, cheese, instant nonfat dry milk, and other dairy products as well as milk are in abundant supply.

Milk and dairy products are one of the "Basic Four" food groups that are essential for keeping strong and healthy. They provide calcium to help grow sound bones and teeth and protein to help build and repair body tissue and fight infection. They are also a good source of riboflavin, a B vitamin that helps keep skin healthy and vision clear.

Milk and dairy products can add new dimensions in menu planning. These recipes have been tested in USDA kitchens:

Maple Float (6 servings, about 1 cup each): Mix 1/2 cup maple syrup, 1 tablespoon molasses and 5 cups milk. Stir well. Cut 1 pint vanilla ice cream into 6 pieces and place 1 piece in each glass. Pour maple mixture over ice cream and serve immediately. Calories per serving: About 275. For fewer calories, use skim milk in place of whole milk. About 215 calories per serving.

Strawberry Milkshake (6 servings, 1 1/2 cups each): Thaw 1 ten-ounce package of frozen strawberries until soft but still very cold; crush. Add 1 quart milk and 1 cup instant nonfat dry milk to strawberries and blend thoroughly. Add 1 quart slightly softened strawberry ice cream and beat or shake just enough to blend ingredients. Pour into tall glasses and serve immediately. Calories per serving: About 370.

Cheese Bread Sticks (makes 24 bread sticks): Stir together 1 1/2 cups unsifted flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder and 3/4 teaspoons salt. Mix in 1/2 cup shortening until the mixture resembles coarse cornmeal. With a fork, stir in 1 cup or 4 ounces shredded sharp cheddar cheese. Stir in 1/4 cup milk gradually, using just enough to make a dough that is soft, but not sticky. Preheat oven to 450 degrees F. Put dough on a lightly floured surface and knead a few times. Roll pieces of dough between palms to form pencil-like shapes about 1/4-inch in diameter and 4 inches long. Roll dough in poppy seeds if desired. Bake on an ungreased baking sheet about 10 minutes. Calories per breadstick: About 80.

WHS Homecoming Plans Being Made for Nov. 11

The Winters Ex-Students Association is planning a big homecoming celebration for Friday, November 11, according to O. J. Murray, president of the organization.

Members of the association met in the Murray home last week and made plans for the homecoming, which will be held on the day the Winters Blizzards meet the Ballinger Bearcats in the last football game of the regular season, on Blizzard Field.

Highlight of the celebration being planned will be the selection of a Homecoming Queen, elected from candidates from the junior and senior classes, and the Coming Home Queen, chosen by a special committee. The queens will be presented during halftime activities at the football game.

An after-game reception will be held in the school cafeteria where refreshments will be served and special groups will be recognized. All former teachers attending will also be introduced.

This being the first homecoming event since 1974, there will be three 50-year honor classes, 1925, 1926 and 1927. The 25-year classes of 1950, 1951 and 1952 also will be presented.

Activities will begin in the afternoon with a pep rally and a pre-game meal served in the school cafeteria by Literary and Service Club members. Tickets may be purchased from them or at the door.

Various committees have been appointed to assist with different phases of the homecoming activities, and a meeting to finalize all plans will be held Tuesday, Nov. 1, at 7 p.m. in the home of Betty John Byrns, secretary-treasurer.

Lura Lee Garrett, vice president, and Charis Poe, reporter.

Directors attending the meeting were Charlotte Davis, Juanita Wilson, Naomi Gerhart, Novie Mostad, Janice Pruser, James Spill, and Gattis Neely. Those unable to be present were Lanny Bahman, Mike Mitchell and Edward Bredemeyer.

Stretch your energy dollars - install an energy-efficient electric heat pump

A heating system that's more than 200% efficient may seem like something out of the future. But it isn't. It's yours today, with the electric heat pump. Because when correctly installed in a properly insulated home, the heat pump produces two units of heat for each single unit of electricity it uses. The heat pump operates by using the future's most abundant energy source, solar energy. It transfers heat that's always present in sun-warmed outside air into your home during the winter. And reverses the process, pumping heat outdoors during the summer.

If you have plans to buy, build, or remodel, or are looking for a new heating and cooling system for your home, call a local FACTORY CERTIFIED heat pump dealer or talk with WTU. We will arrange for a WTU heating and cooling specialist to contact you. Learn more about the easy-to-install, economical electric heat pump — your most energy-efficient heating and cooling system buy.

several rental units on North Grant St. These units are kept full, according to information, and there still remains a need for additional rental housing.

Mrs. Edna England, secretary-manager of the Winters Chamber of Commerce, said she has been making an informal survey of the need for rental housing, and indications are that any new units which should become available would be taken immediately. She said her office receives many calls for information on rental housing.

The board will make complete studies, and will seek means to finance rental units if the need justified, J. W. Bahlman, president of the board, said. Also at the meeting, stockholders elected three new members to the board, to fill existing vacancies. They are Charles Hudson, J. W. Bahlman, and Walker Tatum. AROUND THE 6-AA FOOTBALL LOOP

District 6-AA seems to have fallen upon hard times . . . at least for the opening week of the 1977 football season.

Only two of the district's seven teams made entries on the black side of the ledger in the openers Friday night, with the other five entering results in the red column.

Wylie and Merkel were the only members of 6-AA to win their contests last Friday.

Wylie went against the Jim Ned Indians, and took that contest 13-6, in spite of the fact of four fumbles by the Bulldogs.

The other district winner, Merkel, went over to Baird, and "mauled" the Bears 6-0, according to reports. Stats did indicate a wider difference, but the scoreboard failed to follow suit.

Colorado City, pre-season picked as the leader in 6-AA for 1977, lost their footing, and fell to Slaton 32-0.

Coahoma, always in the past a threat to all comers, in or out of district, fell to a hard-hitting Class A Wall team. Wall, rated tops in their district, hit Coahoma 14-6.

Ballinger, always unpredictable in early season, stayed close to Brady, but failed, and went to the locker room with 20-18 loss.

Stamford hosted erstwhile district mates, the Pied Pipers of Hamlin, now Single A, and were thrown to a 14-12 loss.

Winters, pre-season tagged to trail the pack in district, went up against a big senior team at Clyde, and got clobbered 33-0 Friday night.

All in all, it wasn't a very good night for District 6-AA last Friday. And the seven teams have a lot more outsiders to meet before the counting games begin in October.

WTU To Operate Coal-Fired Power Plant

A permit has been granted by the state Water Rights Commission for West Texas Utilities Co. to use water from Lake Kemp and Lake Diversion to operate a proposed coal-fired power plant.

Walter Meller, WTU generation engineer who attended a hearing before the commission this past week in Austin, said there was no opposition to the permit.

"This is just another step in the process of planning and eventually building what will be our company's largest generating plant," Meller said.

A contract for water rights in the two-lake system was signed last December by WTU, Wichita County Water Improvement District Number 2, and the City of Wichita Falls. The contract provides for WTU to consume up to 20,000 acre-feet of water per year for power generation. WTU plans to construct a 2,000-megawatt complex near one of the lakes, which are on Waggoner Ranch property south of Vernon and southwest of Wichita Falls.

Meller said a site study is "moving forward," and should be completed soon.

Krueger's Kolumn

Traveling through rural Texas, and particularly through the rich farm and ranch land of the 21st District, the strength of the people who live from the land is visibly apparent.

The importance of agriculture to American society has always been a fact of life, but it for too many years was a "given," meaning that our citizenry expected good, wholesome food in plentiful supply, without giving much thought as to the labors and efforts that go into supplying food.

Those labors and efforts cannot be overlooked, however, when one visits rural areas of Texas and talks with the people who have made production of food their life's work.

Certainly the fact that our President is a farmer, a fact he proudly proclaims, has no doubt left more Americans aware of not only the farmer as a professional, but of farming in general.

And in being more aware of agriculture as an industry, the populace, maybe surprisingly to some, comes face to face with an industry that functions with exceptional efficiency.

Often the agricultural industry functions with little or no guarantee of return on investment and time because the world agricultural market is a complex one and because the American consumers' wants and needs are mercurial and unable to predict.

A United States Congressman must bear that in mind when he votes for legislation affecting agriculture, for if a congressman pays attention only to the status of agricultural products produced in his legislative district then important food products distributed statewide or nationwide could receive inadequate legislative support.

For instance, in July I voted for legislation that will have effect on sugar producers in Texas and throughout the nation should our agricultural economy confront slump and sugar prices slip beneath an acceptable level.

The legislation provides for a minimal type of guarantee, and involves a minimal amount of federal dollars, but the guarantee is essential should sugar farmers have to survive a lowering of price for their product.

This kind of government assistance—there if needed—is the kind of assistance government should be willing to provide any essential industry, as long as it is strictly controlled and is indeed essential, as opposed to some of the less than responsible farm subsidy programs that have been abused in decades past.

But those abuses, compared to what the farmer has contributed to our nation, sometimes at great personal financial risk, are few and I know of no American industry any more conscientious or professional than the Americans who live with the land.

In 1780 the population of the U.S. was 2,781,000.
