Winters Gets Higher Water Grant Priority

Winters has received a higher priority rating in the list of cities with applications on file for federal grants to assist in developing additional water resources, it was learned Monday night. This puts the starting date for construction of a new dam and water reservoir just a bit closer, it was said.

At a meeting of the City Council Monday night, Donald G. Rauschuber, an engineer with the firm of Henningson, Durham & Richardson, now involved in engineering a new dam and water reservoir for Winters, told city officials that the Winters project had been moved closer to the top of the list of cities or counties seeking federal grants. This is because Winters has completed most of the necessary preliminary work toward final application for the grant money, he said. It is "highly probable," Rauschuber said, that financing of the Winters project can be accomplished in October of this year. He indicated that Texas has been appropriated $12 million for the next grant year, and the City of Winters is requesting a grant of $1.5 million for the local project, and has been moved to the top, or near the top, of the priority list.

The final application is now being prepared, it was said. Phase I of the final preparations toward application for funds will include the geotechnical aspects of the dam project, the engineer said, and will necessitate core drilling to determine underground and foundation rock and soil composites suitable for the dam and reservoir. The engineering firm is in touch with qualified firms who will be employed to do the core drilling and testing. The final plans of the dam structure proper will depend on findings of the core testing, and also final costs, it was said. Core testing could begin within the next two weeks, it was indicated. A more comprehensive core drilling phase will be done at a later date, it was said. Also, it was stated that any design changes must be made by October, 1979, to meet deadlines for grant applications.

Another part of Phase II, according to the engineers, will be surveying for "take lines" which will be necessary to determine the exact boundaries of the reservoir and dam, and contacting of utility companies, water and oil pipeline companies, to make plans for re-siting of lines, if necessary.

The engineering company is continuing to work with the Farmers Home Administration to finalize applications for grants and/or loans, the council was told.

The council approved work orders, which are necessary to continue the work.

County Leases Ambulance Service

Runnels County Commissioners Tuesday approved a lease agreement whereby a Sweetwater man will operate the Runnels County Emergency Service. The lease agreement will be for a five-year period, with the Sweetwater man to assume responsibility for the emergency service, financially underwritten by the county.

In a called meeting Tuesday, County Commissioners received two proposals for leasing the service—one from Glen Pratt of Sweetwater, and another from Bob McDaniel of Ballinger. In the continued meeting of the county officials Tuesday afternoon, County Judge Bill Stultz said the commissioners accepted the proposal from Pratt.

It was understood that contracts will be ready for signature shortly, and the arrangement will become effective July 1.

Under the agreement, the county will subsidize Pratt in the amount of $5,500 per month to operate the emergency service. Pratt will have one emergency unit stationed in Winters and one in Ballinger, with one standby unit. He also will be responsible for providing trained crews. It was not known what changes would be made in the present personnel assignment in the emergency department.

In addition, the agreement calls for a County Emergency Committee, to serve as liaison between Pratt and the County Commissioners. This committee will be made up of the County Judge, who will serve as chairman; two commissioners, Marvin Sallings and Pat Pritchard; one representative from the Winters and Ballinger City Councils; and the hospital administrators of North Runnels Hospital and Ballinger Memorial Hospital.

County Judge Stultz said Pratt had indicated he would begin immediately to update and upgrade the emergency equipment in the county. He is associated with the emergency department at Sweetwater, and also is qualified and instructs fire department and emergency service personnel.

The $5,500 monthly payment by the county will be broken down thusly: Salaries, $4,000; purchase of new ambulances, $500; radio pagers, etc., $200; gasoline, maintenance, $250; insurance, $200; telephone service, $250; and medical supplies, $100.

Runnels County Emergency Service will be headquartered in the east building on the courthouse square in Ballinger.

Aldermen Named To Head City's Departments

Mayor Lee Colburn Monday night named the five aldermen to head the several departments within the city. These officials will coordinate the work of their separate departments, and serve as liaison between the departments and the council as a whole.

Heading the departments are: Mayor Colburn, city administration (city hall), and police dept.; Charles Hudson, sanitation; Ted Meyer, water and sewer; E. J. Bishop, streets and airport; Randy Springer, animal control and cemeteries; Jimmy Hatler, parks and swimming pool.

Summer Reading Program At Library

The summer reading program for children at the Winters Public Library will be themed "In Search of Texas Treasures."

The reading program will be held each Wednesday, which has been designated Children's Day, from 10 to 5. There will be displays following the program theme, a story reading time, special activities, and much more, the librarian said.

Each child will receive a certificate of participation plus a free membership in the Winters Public Library.

The summer reading program at the Winters Public Library is under auspices of the State Library's Rural Library Service. The early Texas summer reading club began approximately 20 years ago as part of the State library's service. Children and teenagers were invited to enroll for the "Texas Reading Round-Up" at participating libraries. Purpose of the club is to promote a further extension of library services in every Texas city and community. It is estimated that 200,000 children will be enrolled for this year's summer reading program in Texas.

Bishop Boys Sale "One of Biggest"

The Bishop Boys Limousin First Production Sale held at Wingate Saturday was described in various ways by those attending, but the most graphic description seemed to be "the best overall production sale of any breed, commercial or otherwise" he'd ever attended by one cowman.

The sale realized a gross of $169,635 on 116 lots for an average of $1,462.37. This included several commercial cattle and 24 lots of club calves, some Brahman and Holstein crosses, and a Chianina, besides the Limousins.

A crowd of more than 1,000 cattlemen and guests were present for the sale—a standing room only event. Cattle buyers came from all over this section of the state.

Claude Mansell of Ballinger was the volume buyer top bid on 26 head.

A Fisher County group took 11 head, 5 bulls, five cows and one club calf.

W. R. Hager of Weinert and Bill Graham of Bradshaw were also among the volume buyers.

Bishop's Limousin operation has been lauded as one of the finest in North America and Bishop as one of the international leaders of Limousin breeders, and prices being bid reflected that position.

Auctioneer was C. K. "Sonny" Booth of Miami, Okla.

R. T. O'Dell paid the top dollar on the 100 percent French bull, Dan "C" CFM 32, the son of the highest-selling Limousin bull in the world. He gave $8,000.

Second highest bull went to Dyer-Sims Ranch of Baird for $3,700. It also was a 100 percent French bull. Dyer-Sims also took the third high-selling bull a 100 percent French, for $3,400.

FOR MUSEUM—This is the building which has been offered by Mrs. Z. I. Hale and her daughters, to be used as a museum. The building was the office of the late Dr. Z. I. Hale, optometrist. A museum foundation is presently being organized, with another meeting of the steering committee, to elect officers set for June 11.

Volleyball League Is Organized

A church volleyball league for the youth is being organized, and will be sponsored again this summer by the Winters Ministerial Alliance. The league will be for junior high and high school students. College-age young people are also eligible to play, but only one may play at a time on the court.

Randall Conner is chairman of the volleyball committee.

At a recent meeting of local church representatives, rules for playing and officiating were reviewed. Young people may play for the team of their choice, but once they sign up they cannot change to another team, the committee said. A team will be composed of from four to six players.

The league is open to all local churches in the Winters area. Each church is asked to contribute $5 to help buy trophies to be awarded at the close of the season.

Games will be played on the parking lot of the First Baptist Church. Games will begin at 8:15 p.m. Teams must be present and prepared to play by 8:30 or games will be forfeited.

The first game will be Sunday, June 10. Refreshments will be served to the teams each night.

Swimming Pool

Winters Municipal Swimming Pool is now open for the summer season, with Randy Loudermilk again manager.

Lifeguards will be Johnny Curbo, Mitzi Blackwood and Mark Whitlow.

The pool will be open Monday through Saturday from 1 to 6 p.m., and on Sunday, 2 to 5 p.m.; Tuesday, 8 to 10 p.m.

Thursday nights will be for "adults only," from 8 to 10 p.m.

Admission prices will be $1 for adults, and 75 cents for swimmers 5 to 18 years of age.

Loudermilk said parties may be scheduled by contacting the swimming pool office.

Swimming lessons will be offered later in the summer, Loudermilk said.

Fall Feeder Cattle Supplies To Increase

Relative to feedlot demand, there should be considerably more feeder cattle available this fall, causing some important price adjustments. "In other words, things will be considerably different than what they have been so far this year," says Dr. Ed Uvacek, livestock marketing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University.

While the West Coast states, Illinois and Kansas reported gains, Texas and Oklahoma accounted for 26 percent of this year's drop in feeder cattle numbers. Other major reductions came from Gulf Coast states, indicating tight feeder cattle supplies throughout the southern U.S.

The total number of feeder cattle outside of feedlots on Jan. 1 was 38.1 million head. Included in reasonable prices. High-quality protein at budget prices is today's egg buy. Specials may appear in most markets soon.

FRESH VEGETABLES—Best buys at lowest prices are potatoes, dry onions, carrots, soft-shell squash, corn, cabbage, mustard, collards, turnips and greens.

In general, vegetable quantity and quality are up and prices are a bit lower.

FRESH FRUITS—Strawberries are more plentiful, but watch prices. Two pints may be more economical than one-quart packages. Citrus prices are up as the season closes.

Prices are down a bit on cantaloupe, honeydew and watermelon, but the "really low prices" will come later. Pear prices are dropping, but watch quality.

AVOCADO prices are a little lower, while apple and pineapple prices rose a bit.

GROCERY MARKET AISLES—Features include several vegetables, spaghetti sauce, vegetable oil and sugar.

FROZEN FOOD SECTIONS—Specials include several vegetables. Fish supplies are ample, but shrimp prices are relatively high.

DAIRY—Features are milk, yogurt and several cheeses.

CONSUMER WATCHWORDS: In buying dry onions, look for bright, shiny and solid onions with dry crackly skins. Avoid those with signs of decay, such as moisture or mold around the neck or base.

Buy onions that are symmetrically shaped with thin necks. Those with double bulbs or thick necks are undesirable only because of waste, however.

POULTRY—Low prices appear on whole fryers and mixed fryer parts. Some stores feature turkey at attractive prices, while others offer it at

BEEF—Only scattered features are available, including chuck cuts, beef liver and ground beef which has higher prices due to short supplies of beef for grinding.

PORK—In buying pork, look for a high percent of lean and little fat—only enough to make flecks of fat in the lean. Choose pork that is firm and grayish-pink.

Features include end chops, whole loins, loin and rib halves and liver. Also expect values on center chops, fresh picnics and quarter-loin cut into chops.

In cured pork, watch for special prices on boneless hams, smoked picnics, bacon and frankfurters.

O'Dell Family Reunion Held At Wingate

The children of Bennie and Ella O'Dell held a family reunion at the Wingate Lions Club building May 26 and 27.

Dinner and supper were served Sunday. Among the 69 attending were eleven children, including Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Overman, Wilmett; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Roe, Haysville, Kansas; Mr. and Mrs. Benny O'Dell, Abilene; Jewell Mae Gresham, Plainview; Mr. and Mrs. R. T. O'Dell, Winters; Mr. and Mrs. Sovern O'Dell, Wingate; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth R. O'Dell, Alpine; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Barron, Arlington; Mr. and Mrs. Garland O'Dell, Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Lange, Denver City; and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin C. O'Dell, Winters.

Three children unable to attend were Mrs. John Perry, Dallas, Mrs. Gordon Foster, La Grange, and Merl O'Dell, Montezuma Creek, Utah.

Grandchildren attending were Barbara A. Blackmon, Billy and Edward, Austin; Mr. and Mrs. James Spradling, Jimmie, Dana, Katrina, San Antonio; Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Stanfield, Marti, Austin; Mr. and Mrs. Billy Weal, Timmy and Joy, Winters; Mr. and Mrs. Terrell Gresham, Douglas, Ariz.; Michael O'Dell, Odessa; Blake O'Dell, Arlington; Mrs. Vickie Cotter, Ballinger; Miss Phyllis O'Dell, Wingate; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Renken, Sandersville; Terry and Shannon O'Dell, Alpine; Mr. and Mrs. Randall Barron and Breck, Arlington; Miss Deborah Barron, Arlington; Clay O'Dell, Abilene; James and Zane Lange, Denver City; Franklin, Jr., Sandra and Roxanne O'Dell, Winters.

Visitors included Larry Bearden, Mr. and Mrs. Jewel Traylor, Winters; Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Traylor, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Traylor, Jr., Jill, Dawn and Kristal, all of Winters.

this total were 12 million steer and heifer yearlings along with 26 million calves.

"This total was 7 percent less than last year and the lowest level since 1970," notes Uvacek. "The decline reflected lower calf crops of recent years. These light feeder supplies have given us extremely high feeder prices so far this year."

Uvacek believes certain factors may radically alter feeder supplies the second half of this year. Recent cattle on feed reports show sharp reductions occurring in feedlot replacements. This has come even though feedlot profits have been good. By summer, losses at the feedlot level may be more frequent. And the 1979 calf crop could be as large as a year ago. Higher calf prices have also caused a tremendous drop in calf slaughter.

"All this means feeder cattle supplies might increase during the second half of the year," points out Uvacek. "That, together with increased feed costs, could pull feeder prices down much closer to feed slaughter cattle prices."

It was believed that if a man carried a cornflower in his pocket and it didn't wilt, he would marry his current sweetheart.

Cheese consumption now represents 20 percent of all spending for dairy products, compared with 14 percent in 1960.

Consumer Food News

Beef prices have climbed to record highs, while pork prices are dipping to attractive levels, Gwendolyne Clyatt, a consumer marketing information specialist, reports.

"Panic buying has helped push beef prices up, but they may drop a bit if consumer demand softens as some industry spokesmen believe it will," she says.

At the same time, consumers will see larger supplies of pork at lower prices throughout 1979 and into early 1980 due to increased pig production, she adds.

Mrs. Clyatt is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

This week's price-quality trends at Texas grocery markets are the following:

BEEF—Only scattered features are available, including chuck cuts, beef liver and ground beef which has higher prices due to short supplies of beef for grinding.

PORK—In buying pork, look for a high percent of lean and little fat—only enough to make flecks of fat in the lean. Choose pork that is firm and grayish-pink.

Features include end chops, whole loins, loin and rib halves and liver. Also expect values on center chops, fresh picnics and quarter-loin cut into chops.

In cured pork, watch for special prices on boneless hams, smoked picnics, bacon and frankfurters.

POULTRY—Low prices appear on whole fryers and mixed fryer parts. Some stores feature turkey at attractive prices, while others offer it at

INDIAN BATTLES

"Did you ever fight the wild Indians out here?" Mr. C. M. Hunt was asked during his interview for The Dallas News in 1926. "I was almost too young to enjoy the skirmishes, but several lively battles occurred within 18 miles of Bradshaw's present location in which a number of Indians were killed," he replied.

"The last battle with the Indians in this section began within two miles of this town, and it was a running fight. The news spread that the Indians were raiding this territory and were driving our horses toward the hills. Every man raced with his rifle toward the hill country."

"Soon a long line of the half naked tan bodies were seen riding with their bodies bend forward, gouging the flanks of the ponies with their heels. Seeing the whites, they scattered and concealed themselves behind rocks and trees. The settlers opened fire and the shots were effective. Groans echoed in response and in several instances low death chants were mumbled.

"The marauders saw that the whites were fighting for a death finish and they sprang from their places of concealment and fled westwardly. The whites pressed them closely and a crown of eagle feathers would topple headlong from a pony when the whites approached within rifle range. These horse thieves were pursued to Valley Creek, where they disappeared in the thickets never to invade this territory again."

Mr. Hunt doesn't give any names of those who fought the Indians, perhaps he was too young to remember. But we have an account of the last battle fought at Valley Creek, near Wingate, which stopped the Indian raids for all time.

Captain Jeff Moltyb, an experienced Indian fighter, had been chasing Indians since returning from the Civil War in 1863. He was ordered by Col. John S. Ford, Commander of Conscripts with headquarters at Austin, to organize a company in Burnet County, and to act without any further orders to "kill every Indian that puts his foot in the county."

The foot order pleased Captain Jeff, for every light moon in that year the county had been raided by a band of Indians and one of them had a remarkably big foot.

Three days after the company was organized, Big Foot and his men made a raid into Captain Jeff's settlement. Big Foot gathered fruit from the orchards, where his tracks could be seen, as if daring them to catch him if they could. From then on Captain Jeff pursued the Indians with great determination but they always eluded him.

Finally, after chasing the redskins for nine years, Captain Jeff caught up with them about dark on the banks of Valley Creek, near present-day Wingate. A furious battle followed.

Next morning, on examination of the battleground, Big Foot and his horse lay side by side. Two other Indians lay between the fire and where the horses were tied. A moan was heard and further search found a wounded man who admitted he was a Comanche, and his name was Jape. He said his dead chief was a Kiowa, but he would not tell his name. He said they had left Fort Sill a few days before and for many years had been coming down to the settlements, killing, capturing and robbing the settlers. One of the men drew his gun to kill him but the others prevented him as it was plain to see Jape had only a few minutes. Jape's bones could have been the ones that Mr. Hunt says lay on the hillside.

"For years the bones of an old chief lay on the hill and bleached," Mr. Hunt says. "A superstitious feeling arose about the spot of ground where the body of that Indian had fallen and that was never buried. When night came down, if the boys were in that section, they turned their horses' heads toward camp. I can recall the shivering fear that gripped me when I passed near that old bleached skeleton. The coyotes had left only the uncanny white bones.

"We didn't know what was happening in the other parts of the world then. Our interests were centered on the long trail after the wild longhorn steer. No one then believed that agriculture would ever be practical in this section, or that any other breed of cattle except the native brute would ever be branded on the mesquite range. In 1880 Henry Wylie drove in the first Durham bull that was ever imported to this immediate section, and Capt. Simmons of Bluff Creek imported the first Jersey animal.

"My father was one of the first settlers of this section to experiment with corn. Perhaps there was not a hoe in Taylor County then, and the corn patch was thinned by pulling up the stalks. Our only plow was a one-horse wooden stock that had been brought by my father when he drove West.

"We would not want our children to suffer the hardships and follow the careers through which circumstances pressed us. Instead we would like to see this vast fertile soil more highly developed and more intensely cultivated."

We wonder what Mr. Hunt would think if he could see the stock raising and highly diversified farming of today.

WINTERS FFA HAS HOUSTON AGOG

Future Farmers of the Winters area have always maintained a high standard in their livestock shows and won many honors, but there was a time back in 1956 when they outdid themselves and the highest expectations of their supporters.

From a clipping in a column called THE WAGGIN' TONGUE written by Bob Cooke and Duane Howell for the Abilene Reporter-News about the Houston show in 1956, we find the information that the Winters boys dominated the lamb division of the show.

"They were still agog at San Angelo Thursday over the Winters FFA chapter's magnificent showing at the Houston Fat Stock Show last week.

"Everywhere around the judging arena at the San Angelo show, eventually drifted around to, "Say those Winters boys really cleaned up at Houston, didn't they?" It seemed everyone had heard about it but us.

"Immediately after the Winters Livestock Show the chapter's supporters, impressed with the quality of the lambs they had seen, started predicting great things for their lads at some of the major shows.

"Well, the Winters FFA'ers didn't fail them. But it's doubtful if even the most avid supporter of the chapter had hoped for such an impressive array of honors as the lads picked up at Houston.

"Bobby Penny, one of the most successful lamb feeders in the history of the Winters Chapter, showed the junior champion trio of Southdowns at Houston. He then went on to take the championship of the entire show. He also had the reserve champion pen of Southdowns in the open show. In the breeding division he had both the champion Southdown ram and the champion Southdown ewe.

had the champion fine wool lamb and the Holle brothers, Maurice and Jerry, came through with the champion fine wool trio. Jimmie Largent owned the second place fine wool trio. Maurice and Jerry also had the fourth place trio of fine wools. Marion Roper owned the third and fourth place bucks in the Suffolk breeding show.

"The Winters boys owned nine of the first 19 lambs in the class of fine wools that had some 325 entries. Their pen of 15 fine wools took second in that division behind a pen of Southdowns.

"In the crossbred division of some 250 lambs, they had 11 in the top 35. They also showed the fourth, fifth, seventh, and eighth place crossbred trios, a class that had between 50 and 60 entries.

"They placed fifth, sixth, eighth and thirteenth in a tough Southdown division. The Winters boys have won the herdsman award everywhere they've shown this season—El Paso, Dallas, San Antonio and Houston.

"Few, if any FFA chapters in the state can claim such an illustrious record at a big show as Winters compiled at Houston. It's something of which Winters VA teachers Swede Hanson and Joe Seale are justly proud.

"Bobby Penny and Edward Bredemeyer, adult Southdown breeder of Winters, also came through with another good showing in the breeding classes at San Angelo.

"Edward had the champion Southdown ewe and the best flock of one exhibitor. Bobby showed the champion Southdown ram. The two teamed together to win the best get of sire.

"In the open division at Houston, Edward showed the champion pen of three Southdowns.

Start The Day—The Danish Way

BREAKFAST IS BETTER WITH CHEESE — DANISH please!

A HIGH NUTRITIONAL BREAKFAST IS A DELIGHTFUL WAY TO START YOUR DAY! This CLASSIC DANISH "DAIRY RIGHT BREAKFAST" is high in protein. Hearty breads and rolls are served with lots of cold butter, homemade preserves and a variety of fine DANISH CHEESE. For breakfast, mostly milder cheeses are served such as TYBO, SAMSOE, DANISH FONTINA or HAVARTI MILD (Creamy Havarti), and for the true enthusiast, stronger Danish Cheeses, such as ESRMOM or DANISH BLUE is served. Milk is another important feature, along with fruit juice and coffee. Soft-boiled eggs are sometimes served to give an extra boost to the high protein cheeses.

MRS. MARCY RAY GRUN

Miss Sneed and Mr. Grun Wed Saturday

Judy Lynn Sneed and Mr. Marcy Ray Grun were married Saturday, June 2, at 7:30 p.m., in the Drasco Baptist Church. Rev. Gene Farley performed the double ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Q. Sneed, Rt. 1, Winters. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs.

Russell Grun of Ovalo. The church was decorated with an arch of greenery mingled with daisies of the bride's chosen colors, blue, green and pink, flanked by candelabra entwined with greenery. Dwayne Grun, brother of the bridegroom, was pianist, and soloist was Mrs. Randall Sneed, sister-in-law of the bride.

Joe Gerhart of Winters was candlelighter, and Letitia Washman, niece of the bride of Wichita Falls, was flower girl. Ring bearer was Matthew Sneed, nephew of the bride, of Aledo. Terry Gerhart of Winters was best man. Ushers were Nathan Tekell of Wingate and Toby Gerhart of Winters. Groomsmen were Larry Lambert of Tuscola and Jimmy Henson of Winters.

Jeree Isbell of Winters was maid of honor, and Fran Hoppe and Teresa Helm, both of Winters, were bridesmaids. The bride's attendants wore floor length dresses of the chosen colors of the bride, pink, blue and green, sleeveless, with small collars. They carried nosegays of daisies dyed to match their dresses.

Homemakers Will Hear County Agent

Mrs. Juanita O'Connor, county extension agent, will present a program on food dehydration and tips on freezing and canning, at a meeting of the Winters Young Homemakers at 7:30 p.m. Monday, June 11, in the school Homemaking Cottage.

Those wishing to have their pressure gauges tested and ask questions about the same, should have them at the Homemaking Cottage at 7 p.m. on the night of the meeting.

All members and guests and the public is invited to attend this meeting.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white gown of satin, with lace yoke embroidered in pearls, with sheer sleeves with lace cuffs embroidered in pearls. The skirt had flowered lace down the front panel, and flowed into a train. She carried a bouquet of white rosebuds with daisies, trimmed with baby's breath.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church Fellowship Hall, hosted by the parents of the bride. In the house party were Mrs. Wilbert Washam, Mrs. Greg Buchanan, Mrs. Glendall Barr, Mrs. Louis Sneed, Mrs. Randall Sneed, Mrs. W. L. England, Mrs. Gerald Frazier. Highway Vandalism Costly To All Individuals Vandalism, pranks, and malicious mischief is costly to individuals, cities, counties, and the State of Texas.

These deliberate acts are costly in time, dollars and occasionally in injuries or death. The acts vary from throwing a bottle on the roadway to knocking over signs and delineators, to shooting out street and traffic signals, to removal of maps and signs at rest areas, to even trying to blow up a bridge with dynamite.

Perhaps it is due in part to West Texans being accustomed to having and using guns that the city and highway signs, street lights and traffic signals are more frequently damaged or destroyed by high-powered rifles. All signs and lights are installed by the cities and the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation (DHT) to insure the safe travel of the motorists. When a sign, delineator, light or signal is damaged, it could cause a stranger to be involved in a wreck, hopefully a fender-bender, but it has resulted in fatal injuries.

In some areas the acts of vandalism are more frequent than others, but this senseless destruction of public property happens in every county. The persons responsible may not be aware of the consequences of these acts if they are caught. The discharging of a firearm from or across a public road could result in a fine of up to $200. Destruction of public property valued up to $200 is a Class C misdemeanor; over $200 is a Third Degree Felony act. A misdemeanor conviction is subject to up to one year imprisonment and/or a fine not to exceed $2,000, depending upon the value of property damaged. A Third Degree Felony conviction is subject to two to ten years imprisonment and/or a fine not to exceed $500. The time and money spent repairing or replacing signs and lights results in less maintenance of the roadway. The Department is requesting the cooperation of the public to reduce vandalism in order that the traveling public will have the best roads or the tax dollars spent.

Actress Hedy Lamarr received a patent in 1942 for a secret torpedo-control system she invented with composer George Antheil.

MISS SAZAMA AND MR. HAMBRIGHT

Miss Sazama and Mr. Hambricht To Wed

The couple will be married July 30 at the First Christian Church in Albany. They plan to live in Albany.

Former Winters Teacher Will Marry in August

Karlene Gayle Eastman of Iowa Park and William Lee Bonchu, Jr., of Wichita Falls, are planning an August 4 wedding in Faith Baptist Church in Wichita Falls. The bride-elect is the daughter of the Rev. Clinton L. Eastman of Sterling City, and taught music for several years in the Winters Elementary School, before going to Iowa Park last year.

THE HIGHEST RATE ALLOWED BY LAW. NOW THAT'S GROWING WITH A GREEN THUMB.

Everyone's talking about Money Market Certificates these days. But somehow all that talk all sounds the same.

So where do you go to find the Money Market Certificate with a difference? First Texas Savings. Because at First Texas, your Money Market Certificate comes with something no one else can offer. Our green thumb.

Our green thumb is our First Texas Savings Counselors. Each one is an experienced financial professional with a real knack for making savings grow. And, when it comes to Money Market Certificates, that means growing at the absolute maximum rate allowed by law. No insured institution in the state, or in the country, can pay you more. And savings deposited at First Texas stays invested right here at home, working to make your community a better place to live.

Money Market Certificates are purchased for a term of 26 weeks. The interest rate is set weekly by the current 26-week Treasury Bill discount rate, and the interest rate at the time of the sale is set for the duration of the Certificate. It's a safe, secure and profitable way to invest $10,000 or more on a short-term basis.

Your money may be withdrawn at any time, although federal regulations require a substantial
