It's downright baffling. I can't figure it out. Superintendent Vestal has publicly announced on several occasions that he is never in agreement with the columnist. Wherever we meet, in the coffee shop, on the street corner (or anywhere but at one of the schools, you'll never find him there) an argument gets underway. It doesn't matter what the subject is, we just can't agree. I give the man credit for being honest, I really believe he is. But I know if he happened to hear me say he is honest he would argue with me about that, I am sure I would lose the argument as usual. I don't know why we can't agree on anything, I always try to be fair and see his point before I disagree with him, but it doesn't do any good, he never admits that he is wrong, and he has a very bad habit of calling in witnesses to help prove his point ever after I am satisfied in my own mind that any fair and impartial judge would rule in my favor. What burns me up is the way he brings up one of our regular controversies, he makes it appear that I started the fracas in the first place. Swain Burkett and Russel Moran are just about as obstinate as the superintendent and so is Don Gladman.

Dimmitt is on a football binge. Try to talk to a local citizen about the weather, the cotton crop, the wonderful prospects for a wheat crop, the Christmas rush, or what have you and you will get a grunt and the usual "What do you think about the game Friday?" "Sure, I know we'll win, but by how many touchdowns, and where will we play next week?" "Of course I know the Southwest Conference will be all fouled up if S. M. U. beats T. C. U. and that Texas and A. & M. are on the brink of their annual feud, but what does a little thing like that matter. Did you see the way those Bobcats were running, passing, blocking and tackling at Canyon Thursday?" And invariably, "There's championship material in that Bobcat squad if they will continue to play the game for the balance of the season like they have in the past." All agree that the Bobcats have had a wonderful season regardless of the outcome of the game this week, or next week or the next, but they also agree that the Class A team that wins State this year will win something special as this will be the first time in the history of football in Texas for a Class A champion to be selected. It doesn't do any harm to wish, or hope, or something.

Dimmitt is closing up as tight as a jug Friday afternoon so that all hands can go to Plainview for the game. The Bobcats won't lack for support. Maybe they will get a little extra enthusiasm from the fans, there will be plenty and some to spare. The Bobcats have played the brand of football that brings out all of the enthusiasm of their fans and supporters.

—adacc—
The beautiful weather for the past several days has resulted in capacity harvesting of the fire cotton crop. All gins of the area are running night and day and still losing ground.

—adacc—
The way it looks to us the score will be Dimmitt 26, Abernathy 13.

Late reports have it that General Eisenhower has definitely declared his intention of seeking the Republican nomination for president. Ike will be bucking some strong, astute politicians for the nomination and it is possible that he might fail to be nominated. In that case could he pick up his military career where he laid it down, or will his professional career suffer from his political experience? Regardless of whether the Republican or Democratic nominee is elected would the president, as Commander-in-Chief, hold the ex-presidential candidate Eisenhower in the same light as he would have if he had never entered politics? If the General definitely decides to throw his hat into the ring it will be due more to pressure from politicians and friends than from any real desire on his part to realize an ambition. If he should try for and fail to get the nomination, or if he was nominated and failed to be elected, his career would suffer irreparable damage. Almost without exception a defeated politician is relegated to the statue of obscurity. At least there will be plenty of material for political arguments in the months just ahead.

Car Caravan To Follow Bobcats To Plainview Fri.

Arrangements have been made for a car caravan to form on the west side, and around the square, to follow the Bobcats to Plainview Friday afternoon for their regional playoff game with the Abernathy Antelopes. The caravan will form and leave for Plainview at 12:15 in order to allow ample time to make the trip to Plainview by game time at 2:00 p. m. In addition to the hundreds of local cars that will form the caravan, there will be at least fifty cars of Bobcat boosters from Hereford joining in the 45-mile booster parade.

The Bobcats will have an opportunity Friday morning to witness a giant pep rally when the Bobcat Band, the Pep Squad, and various booster squads, accompanied by the fire trucks will form a parade at the Methodist Church and march down town for a giant pep rally at 11:15 o'clock. The band and pep squad will leave bus for Plainview at 12:00 o'clock.

Mr. Wyatt died Saturday afternoon in the Plains Memorial Hospital after an extended illness.

Mr. Wyatt was born at Goodwin, Arkansas, January 8, 1888, where he grew to young manhood. He was married to Miss Nora Ellen Smith on December 15, 1907. To this union five children, two daughters and three sons, were born. He was preceded in death by two sons who died in infancy. He is survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Ocie Day of Lubbock and Mrs. Ruby Barrows of Dallas; one son, Ralph C. Wyatt of Jacksonville, Florida, and one grandson, Gary Wyatt, who made his home here with his grandparents. He is also survived by one brother, W. E. Wyatt, of Michawaka, Indiana; and one sister, Mrs. Salenia Johnson of Tucson, Arizona. Mr. Wyatt was converted and united with the Missionary Baptist Church at Perryville, Arkansas, and was very active in church work, and served as deacon for many years. He was engaged in farming in Arkansas until he moved to Dimmitt with his family eight years ago. Graveside Rites Read For Goins Infant Daughter

George Ray, pastor of the Dimmitt Baptist Church in charge of the services. Virginia Kay was born November 24 at the Plains Memorial Hospital in Dimmitt and died November 25. Other than the parents, she was survived by two brothers, W. E. Goins, 13, and Chris 3.

Special Service At Methodist Church Sunday

Lee Stanford, pastor, a special service will be held at the regular Sunday evening service when the Womens Society of Christian Service will present a play entitled, "It Could Be You." The service will begin at 7:00 o'clock and everyone has a cordial invitation to attend.

Young Nemrod Gets 8-point Buck

Dewayne Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Brown, bagged his first deer on a hunting trip near Wheeler last week-end when he shot an 8-point buck. Dewayne with his father and Mrs. C. G. Choc Lay and Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Maples, Jr., went to Wheeler for a week-end hunting trip and outing. The party also bagged four turkeys and two squirrels.

Trying to add an antelope to their packed football season game bag, the Dimmitt Bobcats will tangle with the Abernathy Antelopes Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Bulldog Stadium at Plainview. The quarter-final Class A football championship will fall to one of these un-beaten and untied teams. Regional sports writers give the pre-game nod to Dimmitt, mostly because of their rough handling of Canadian last week when the Bobcats downed the northern team, 28-7. However, the game is expected to be something of a

Virginia Sale To Appear On Town Hall Program Thursday, December 6

VIRGINIA SALE in her "AMERICANA" Character Sketches

Virginia Sale, who will appear at the Dimmitt High School Auditorium at 8 p. m., on December 6, under the auspices of Dimmitt Town Hall, is one of the most versatile entertainers the country has known in many years. It seems as if there were no one of the entertaining arts that she not only knows, but in which she excels. She is best known to the platform perhaps through her being one of our best "One-Woman Theatres." In these "Americana" sketches of hers she has appeared in some 600 cities and towns across the United States. Before Miss Sale moved east and made the New York area her headquarters, she was one of the busiest girls in Hollywood. For years she appeared regularly in a radio serial. At the same time she would be doing character parts in motion pictures. It was inevitable that Miss Sale should do character roles, for she is the sister of the last Chic Sale, one of the character actors who made vaudeville a great American institution, in the days of vaudeville. While living on the coast, Miss Sale excelled in character parts. Her husband, Sam Wren, helps care for their twins, Christopher and Virginia.

In New York, television replaced radio, with Virginia Sale writing, producing, and appearing in her own program, "The Wren's Nest."

Rev. Brashear Is Seriously Injured In Highway Mishap

Rev. D. W. Brashear sustained injuries in a highway mishap early Wednesday evening of last week, when the car in which he was riding rammed the rear of a loaded cotton trailer. Reuben Mayfield, driver of the car, escaped with minor injuries while the car was badly damaged in the mishap. The accident occurred on the Dimmitt-Hereford highway about five miles south of Hereford.

Rev. Brashear, who was enroute to Amarillo to fill a speaking engagement, was rushed to the Deaf Smith County Hospital by ambulance, where he received emergency treatment. Further examination and x-rays failed to reveal any broken bones or anything that would indicate permanent injury. There was evidence of a severe internal injury. The attending physician however stated that he should be able to be up and about within a few days. Rev. Brashear for the past year has been employed as secretary of the Castro County Chamber of Commerce.

classic in schoolboy football as both teams are powerhouses in one of the most football minded regions of Texas.

Representatives of both teams met in Plainview Friday and agreed to play the game there. The Bulldog Stadium was offered the two teams by the Plainview Chamber of Commerce. Plainview will pay for printing the tickets, provide trophies to both the winning and losing teams, provide policing of the field, provide gatekeepers and furnish other courtesies. Tulia also offered their stadium, but it was feared the seating capacity would not be as adequate as facilities at Plainview.

An estimated 3,500 fans will see these ranking Class A teams in action. Abernathy has won eleven straight games this season while Dimmitt has won all of the ten games they have played.

Representing the schools in the meeting held Friday afternoon in the Hilton Hotel in Plainview were R. S. Vestal, Dimmitt School Superintendent; John Blaine, head coach; Aubrey Lester, assistant coach; Fred Miller, superintendent of Abernathy schools; Royal James, head coach; Earl Carter, assistant coach; Hank Decker, basketball coach; Bob Dyer and Lynn Young, members of the school board at Abernathy.

Admission will be $1.25 for adults and fifty cents for children. There will be no reserved seats.

Sports Afield

By Ted Kesting

Can wild ducks identify danger by scent? I don't believe they can, yet I have met many men who insisted that certain species of ducks can smell a man and when they get the scent are smart enough to get away from him. Some of these men were highly educated fellows and others were wise in the ways of ducks even if their schooling had been neglected.

All big game hunters know that if they want their game it must not get the man scent. This ability to smell man and recognize him by that scent has not been given to game birds. At least, that is my opinion and it is shared by Ray Holland, famous outdoor writer.

A hunter once told him: "Never give a pintail a chance to smell you, or you'll never have a chance to kill him." Another said: "Pintails can't smell you, or none of the rest of them, but a black mallard can smell you."

Not once, but dozens times I have had singles and pairs split from a flock when I was calling and light in the decoys. Wanting the flock in, I have paid little attention to them and kept on calling at the birds in the air. Those birds on the water didn't smell the man in the blind, and that goes for pintails and blacks and green-heads.

And geese. Can a goose smell you? I have had them walk into the decoys with the wind blowing straight from the blind to the flock.

Ruffed grouse and pheasants are credited with being the smartest of our game birds, yet you never hear their staunchest admirer claim that either could identify a man by scent. No one ever heard a shooting man say that a quail smelled him, or that a woodcock or any other species of game bird had that power.

Gene Howe, Texas newspaperman, is a veteran duck hunter. He says that after he has let mallards and pintails light until he would have a mass of ducks covering the water in front of him, with the wind blowing right over the blind into them.

Of course, a duck must have some use for those olfactory nerves. Howe thinks they can smell water and possibly food. I might go along with that.

sort who gave him the General Warranty Deed.

All of this confusion and resulting expense, would be avoided if the purchaser would insist upon having his abstract brought to date, and examined by an attorney of his choice, and seller would be careful that if there are any of these conditions, restrictions or reservations in the title to him, that mention of them should be made in the deed which he gives to the buyer.

THE LAW AND YOU

By Robert (Bob) Kirk

DO YOU KNOW whether in giving a General Warranty Deed you should mention previous restrictions and reservations made prior to the time you acquired a deed to real estate?

Under a General Warranty Deed, the person selling the property guarantees to the buyer that he, the buyer, is receiving full, complete, fee simple title to the property. If there are defects in the title, then the purchaser may look to the seller, upon his warranty that the title is good, to make the title good, or to compensate the buyer for damages he has suffered by reason of the title not being good.

Therefore, if a person does not have the complete title, or there are any conditions, restrictions, or reservations which are against the land, the person selling the land should see that there is some mention, either generally or specifically of these conditions, restrictions or reservations, so that he will not be guaranteeing to the buyer that the land is free and clear of all liens and incumbrances, indebtednesses, restrictions and reservations.

Failure to make mention of the outstanding indebtednesses, restrictions, conditions, reservations, and a giving of a General Warranty Deed as if the land were free and clear of all of these things, could render seller liable to buyer for damages suffered by buyer if at a later date someone holding some interest in these conditions or reservations might bring suit upon the buyer who was not aware of the same because of having accepted a General Warranty Deed as a guarantee that everything was clear. The present owner being sued for the breach of the conditions or reservations, would then in turn fall back upon and bring a claim against the per-

WASHINGTON NEWSLETTER

By Congressman Walter Rogers

BACK IN WASHINGTON: We missed the newsletter last week because I was in the District. I had a most pleasant visit and saw many people. I gave a full report to Jean and the children on my return, and it helped to restore my position in the household. You see, they were a little put out with me for going home without taking them. I wish that I could have brought the entire family and stayed over until January. However, this was impossible for several reasons, to say nothing of the cost that would be involved.

The fact that Congress adjourned does not mean that everything here stops. My mail was almost hip-deep when I returned, and there was a great number of matters to be handled through different boards, bureaus, departments and agencies. I hope to have these cleared enough to be able to return to the District before the first of the year for another visit.

THANKSGIVING: Most of the places up here observed the 22nd as Thanksgiving Day. This letter will reach you about the time you are observing the original Thanksgiving Day, that is, the last Thursday in November. Regardless of which day we observe, we could all spend the entire day and all of the night counting the many blessings that we have compared with other peoples of the world, and we would hardly touch the surface. Here in Washington there are so many things that come to your attention from other countries that you really appreciate the many things which we have to be thankful for. Last Tuesday night I was engaged in conversation with a couple who have just returned from a four-year stay in the Philippines. Space would not permit me to list the many things that they told. However, the one thing that was most impressive was the story they told me about having to soak all of the vegetables in germicide solutions for an hour and a half before they could be prepared for eating. They pointed out that the usual salad of raw vegetables carries with it a strong odor of the germicide solution. These folks promised to give me a complete story on many other matters, and I will try to include them later on. I asked them if they were happy to be back in the States, and the gleam in their eyes was a sufficient answer for me to know that they counted it as their number one blessing for this Thanksgiving.

BATTLE OF THE FLAGS: A Confederate flag is sweeping the South. I noticed traces of it in the worlds, on my recent visit. The Confederate flag is being used by manufacturers are exploiting the Confederate flag and recently have started the sale of Yankee caps. Many children will probably get GAR or Confederate uniforms for Christmas, rather than the cowboy and Indian suits that have been leading in this field. The Confederate flag is a symbol of a great people and a great cause, and it is deplorable that it should be used for commercial purposes. I have even received a Christmas card with the imprint of the Confederate flag on it and a most touching letter telling me why I should pay an outrageous price for these cards. Frankly, such practices should be condemned by true southerners, as we have been exploited enough without having our flag dragged through the dirt by a bunch of money seekers.

THE PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN: Senator Taft has a definite inside track for the Republican nomination, and let no one be fooled about this. If he can keep his present lead until the time of the convention, his nomination is almost assured. Don't be surprised if Ike Eisenhower turns

A Youth Center

A recent topic of discussion is a youth center for our school. Parents and youth alike have been joining in the talks of new entertainment for all youth.

There have been many ideas about what games should be played. To my notion the perfect center for a town like Dimmitt would be a center with games such as ping pong, square dances and other games too numerous to mention. Perhaps a small cafe would help create interest and present a place for parents to meet and talk while watching their children.

Boys and girls like to have a meeting place in which they can visit with others and join in recreation with their friends. This place would be a credit to our town and even this district.

Others have created youth centers with great success. In a Paramount News Reel about a year ago there was the story of a small town that had set up a very successful youth center. If they can do it, we can, because there are no better people or harder workers for a thing of this sort than there are in Dimmitt.

We have two paths on which to turn and we can take either course. We can set our minds and hearts to this work and build a fine respectable youth center, or we can let it drop now. With this I conclude and leave the rest up to you.

Our New Mascot

We've got the coach, team, pep, steam—also a new mascot!! Yes, it is a real live bobcat. Two rough-neck drillers captured the little bobcat in Southern New Mexico.

The bobcat has been taken good care of for sure, in fact it has been petted to death. The bobcat was taken on its first trip to Canyon, Thursday, November 22. The bobcat seemed to enjoy every minute of the game.

Look for our mascot in a new purple and white wagon Friday, November 30, as the Bobcats and Antelopes play in the Plainview Stadium.

Man is the only animal that blushes, or has need to.

Teacher of the Week

If you walk through the halls of DHS you will likely see our principal, Mr. O. T. Loyd, hurrying from one job to another. Some of his many jobs are sponsoring the Bobcat Tales and the BBA and

Master of Education at Texas Technological College at Lubbock. Mr. Loyd's favorites are:
 Food—Fried chicken
 Color—Blue
 Sports—Playing tennis and watching football and basketball
 Pastime—Attending the movies
 Favorite Actress—Betty Grable
 Favorite Actor—Gary Cooper
 Hobby—Traveling and photography
 Pet peeve—People lying on their excuses.

The students of DHS have had the privilege of having Mr. Loyd with us for four years as principal. Before Mr. Loyd came to Dimmitt, he had been in the teaching profession for eight years.

Windy's Breeze

by FARREN BROADSTREET
 Very often when you attend a football game and see only a small crowd from the other side you say, "My but they don't have much school spirit". People very often will not support a team when they lose all the time or do not have a good chance of winning.

Dimmitt is very fortunate to have such wonderful rooters win or lose, but we do not know what it is like to be around a bunch that lose all the time. We have such outstanding players and coaches in DHS we have not had to feel the sting of defeat so far this year.

I recently overheard a coach say about Mr. Blaine, "When a baby is born in Dimmitt he has his pedigree and family tree figured out and just how tall he will grow and what position he will play before he starts in the first grade". This is partly right. No average kid can grow up in this town without playing football. When they get of age they know the game from A to Z.

I have made a mathematical study on the slide rule by the "Brady Method" and can give this much information for those who are interested: Dimmitt 26, Abernathy 14.

History Department Is Well Organized

World History and American History are taught in Dimmitt High School by Miss Hazel Merritt. If you want to know history, Miss Merritt is the one to ask.

Of course, you all know what you study in history class. In addition, each class receives a current magazine which keeps the students up to date on happenings in our government and around the world.

The history department is one of the strongest and best organized departments in our school system here.

Although we dislike the study that is necessary in this subject, there are times we are pleased that we know a few of these things.

Rev. George Ray Speaks At Pep Rally

A pep rally was held Wednesday morning in preparation for the bi-district football game. Rev. George Ray gave a pep talk which roused the spirits of the boys and school. Corsages were presented to the mothers of the pep leaders.

Friday morning as the boys prepared to leave for Canyon, many of the Bobcat fans were at the school building to see them off. The local fire trucks arrived to escort them out of town. The siren really encouraged the boys and increased the spirits of all concerned.

 The way he's running now, he'll never need to pass.
 Look out for the guard, too,
 He's practicing his blocks.

 Here comes that streaking end;

Bobbies Defeat Muleshoe Tuesday

Dimmitt Bobbies held their form in a practice session with Muleshoe Tuesday by winning both the A and B games.

The "B" team won by a score of 41-24. The scrimmage was not as the score shows because the girls had a tough time for the first 3 quarters of the game, then pulled away to win in the last quarter. It was a good night for fouling, on the whole, as there were 37 fouls in the "B" game. High scorer for the game was Darlene Cates with 21 points. Cartwright was next with 16. All the guards did a fine job.

The "A" team won by an impressive score of 66-48. As we said before it was a grand night for fouling. As always the "A" team beat the "B" team in scores and fouls. There were 51 fouls committed in the "A" game. High scorer for the game was Lometa Odom with 44 points, with Markley and Nelson next with 9 and 8 respectively. All the guards did a fine job. Wagon was high scorer with 35 points for Muleshoe.

The Bobbies are entered in a tournament at Lubbock on December 6-7-8.

 Bill plans to attend college after he graduates.

Regional Final Next

Playing before an estimated 4,000 fans in Buffalo Stadium Thursday, the Dimmitt Bobcats won their 10th consecutive triumph, from the Canadian Wildcats by a score of 28-7. The Bobcats had too much speed and condition for the big Wildcats from Canadian.

Dean Hoover put Canadian out front the first time they got the ball when he raced 39 yards for the score. Jimmy Waterfield ran the extra point. The Bobcats cashed in on a Canadian gamble and went 43 yards in 7 plays for their first score. Glenn Brown went the final 3 yards. Donald Wright's conversion was wide. Still in the second quarter Weldon Warren passed to Billy Gregory on the 1 yard line and Gregory pushed on over. With Wright's missed conversion the half ended with the score 12-7.

Midway in the 3rd quarter Glenn Brown slashed around end for 7 yards and the TD. A Warren to Hunter pass for the conversion put the score 19-7. Early in the 4th Dennis punted 43 yards to Ramirez who was stopped on that one by Gregory. On the next play Brown trapped Hoover behind the goal line for a safety, putting the score 21-7. Dimmitt took the kickoff coming on a 14 yard pass play from Dennis to Wesley Smith. Wright's conversion left the final score 28-7. Dimmitt stopped Canadian's 220-pound Tom Schaefer, limiting him to 89 yards in 23 carries. Glenn Brown was the leading ball carrier of the day with his 6.5 yard per try in 26 attempts. Dimmitt lead in every department of the statistics also. The Bobcats will meet the Abernathy Antelopes Friday at Plainview at 2:00. Both teams are undefeated for the season. The winner will advance into the State quarterfinals.

Health Talks

As with every type of illness, mental illness is not always a cut and dried affair with only one kind of "bug" responsible and affecting only one part of the body. Measles, a very common childhood illness, can sometimes cause the most serious complications, depending not only upon the virulence of the "bug" that causes the disease itself but also depending upon each person's physical condition at the time the disease develops. Even previous illnesses, long forgotten, may in some way create a more serious complication with measles than would otherwise arise.

It is always necessary, therefore, not only to try to find the original "bug" which may cause the first symptoms of mental illness but also to trace back to any other weaknesses which may be involved in the whole picture of mental health.

Everyone has depressions, moments of sadness. When death, disappointment or failure are the causes of the blues, the sad feeling is quite natural. In time, the normal person adjusts himself to other events and other people and overcomes his feeling of depression.

In the neurotic person, the cause of that depression may not always be obvious. He may just feel blue all of a sudden, even when things seem to be going pretty well. Or he may be feeling terribly blue about something that is really a rather minor affair. But the neurotic person (for medical purposes) is aware that his depression is not in proportion to what he should feel, that he is exaggerating his sadness, his sense of disappointment, his failure. And in time he will adjust or compromise and pull himself out of the doldrums. The psychotic person, however, when he is blue or depressed lets himself go completely in his melancholy and feels that everyone should respond to his situation with the same intense feeling he has. He detaches himself from all other phases of life and from associations with others who cannot respond to his sad situation with great despondency. His world is made up entirely of that one phase which he finds unsolvable and everyone who does not see it exactly as he does is out of step.

Every person with a mental illness cannot be clearly defined in one medical visit as a "neurotic" or as a "psychotic." And even in time, some person who is only slightly maladjusted or neurotic may later become psychotic. The whole point in treating those with mental disorders, then, is not putting a label on their disorder, but finding the cause and devising the best methods possible to adjust from the first point of deviation so that the individual may become normal again.

In most instances, the psychotic person has become so deeply enmeshed in his own world of fantasy that he must be removed from contacts with people and from life situations in order for treatment to be undertaken. This means institutional care in order to study the person and find the original cause of his disorder and then to re-train him, as you train a child, so that he can understand his difficulty and be guided in building himself toward maturity. It takes trained personnel who know the patient's needs to keep him on the "right track" in rebuilding his personality so that he can develop the strength to take his place again in society.

Some people who are psychotic develop definite symptoms that make up a picture of illness which can be labeled specifically. All do not; many psychotic persons present a combination of many different symptoms which defy application of any one name of mental disorder. The most common type of psychoses are manic-depressive state, schizophrenia, and paranoia.

In manic-depressive psychosis the outstanding symptom is one of utter depression or extreme gaiety or a sudden variation from one mood to the other. Between these periods of despondency and exhilaration, the person is usually normal, and the usual manic-depressive person will experience these "flights" from normal about four times during a lifetime, each period normally lasting about six months.

Schizophrenia may be differentiated from manic-depressive psychosis as a building up of two worlds, whereas the latter seems to be more of a one-track flight. In schizophrenia, the affected per-

Report Made On Green Bug Study

COLLEGE STATION — Small grain fields are not likely to be damaged by an early build-up of the greenbug population this fall—as they were in 1950.

Dr. Ralph L. Hanna, entomologist with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, points out that the weather was extremely hot last summer, a condition which is unfavorable to greenbug survival.

Surveys were made by the experiment station and the U. S. Department of Agriculture between July 15 and September 11 to obtain information on summer survival of greenbugs. Dr.

son seems most often to build one world of which he is the center and to be aware of but uninterested in the other world of people and events. In everyday language, schizophrenia is called a "split personality" but the personality is not evenly divided. The world of "I" is the world of fantasy which becomes reality to the schizophrenic, while the outside world of people and events, the real world, becomes the fantasy, not much to be reckoned with.

Paranoia is the state of mental disorder in which the person is motivated to action by imaginary persecutions. The paranoid is usually normal except for his concept of imaginary foes who are closing in on him. He acts as a person would who is being pursued or persecuted; his actions are normal except that there is no real cause for the actions. He has made his fantasy into something real and reacts accordingly.

These are the general pictures of psychotic individuals. They all require medical attention, not only to save themselves and rebuild their characters but also as a safeguard to their fellow man. Their world of fantasy is as real to them as the real world is to normal individuals; their actions, which may become dangerous, are motivated by the fantasies which they make their real life.

Hanna reports that 425 filed inspections were made in 1 counties. Several greenbugs were found on volunteer wheat in Deaf Smith, Floyd and Motley counties.

In a less extensive survey made in late October to determine the immediate danger of a general greenbug infestation, 71 inspections were made in 31 counties, most of them in the Northwest Texas grain area. Very few greenbugs were found.

If a heavy infestation of greenbugs should occur, parathion and metacide are the best insecticides available, says Dr. Hanna. These poisons proved to be the most reliable ones in 10 experiments conducted during 1950 in the High Plains area.

Although high winds and low temperatures often make effective application of greenbug insecticides difficult, Dr. Hanna says timely and careful application of parathion and metacide will kill up to 90 per cent of the greenbugs.

If conditions continue to be favorable for greenbugs, the population will build up again after the insects are poisoned. The number of applications of poison that can be made depends on the margin of profit expected for the grain field.

After all is said and done, we keep on saying and doing.

"Money is the root of all evil"—that's why we have to dig for it.

Self Employed Need SS Number

Are you one of the self-employed people now covered under the Federal Old-age and survivors insurance? If you are, you need a social security account number card, according to John R. Sanderson, manager of the Amarillo social security office.

"Self-employed people who were brought under the Social Security Act by last year's changes in the law will report their net income from self-employment at the same time they make their Federal income tax returns early next year," Sanderson said. At that time, they will enter their social security numbers on the tax form, together with other information.

Sanderson indicated that although the numbers will not actually be needed until early next year, self-employed businessmen should apply for them in the near future. This will help avoid any delay when the numbers are needed.

"If you have ever had a social security number, that same number should be used," Sanderson said. "If you have lost your card, we can get a copy of it for you, bearing that same number."

Both new and duplicate cards can be obtained through the Amarillo social security office. The address is Room 324 in the new Post Office Bldg. Sanderson asks all self-employed people to get in touch with this office if they have any questions about their coverage under social security.

It seems to us that the average person of today isn't quite so average as he used to be.

College Basketball Tournament To Be Held In Tulia

A four-school college basketball tournament will be held in the Tulia High School Gym on November 29 and 30, with Wayland College of Plainview playing host. The schools taking part, beside Wayland, are: Texas Tech of Lubbock, Hardin-Simmons University of Abilene, and Texas Wesleyan of Fort Worth.

First game, featuring Coach Harley Redin's Wayland quintet against the Hardin-Simmons squad coached by Bill Scott begins at 7:15 Thursday night. The second game will be between the Tech team, whose mentor is Polk Robinson, and Coach Don Hart's Texas Wesleyan five.

The preliminary play-off starts at 7:15 Friday night to be followed by the championship game.

Tickets are available from Charles Johnson, Tulia High Basketball coach. Duets for adults run $1.75 for the entire tournament and $1.00 a session. Student tickets are 50 cents for each night's game.

Two officials, Bill Ferem and "Hack" Folsom, have been chosen and two more will be picked by Dr. E. L. Larson of the University of Arizona, the Board of Conference Commissioner.

Capacity of the Tulia gymnasium is 1800.

Seeds and berries from certain species of cedar and shrubs seem to be their favorite foods.

A few bluebirds nest in the Canyon, but the heavy migration seems to be from points North and West each winter.

The bluebirds make a bright and happy addition to color splashed Palo Duro, the "World's Most Colorful Canyon." Their color contrasts with the predominant reds, tans, purples, pinks, and greys of the Canyon Walls. It also compliments the brilliant cardinals who spend the entire year in the Canyon.

The Palo Duro Canyon is a migratory bird paradise, more than 160 species having been identified by nature students.

Unlike the Swallows of Capistrano who have a regular timetable for their migrations the bluebird can be counted on about the time of the first real cold spell in Colorado and New Mexico. Theirs is no mass flight either in Winter or Spring.

Bluebirds Add To Color of Palo Duro

CANYON, TEXAS—The Bluebirds are back in Palo Duro Canyon, officials of Palo Duro State Park reported this week. Annually in November thousands of Western Blue Birds migrate into the Canyon to spend the winter.

Castro County Buys $7,443 in Defense Bonds

Castro County's sales totaled $7,443.75 during the first U. S. Defense Bond drive, Nathan Adams of Dallas, state chairman, informed H. W. Golden, local county chairman. The drive was held from September 3 through November 13.

Sales of $27,778,453.25 in Texas during the drive were almost 50 percent more than normal, Mr. Adams said.

"Normally sales for this period would have been about $18,000,000 or $19,000,000," he said, "and the facts that sales were so much higher is definite proof that the people of Texas are responding, as they always do, to the country's need in national emergencies."

The sales total for the state included $22,459,665.25 in Series E bonds and $5,318,788 in Series F and G. There were no state or county quotas, the goal being the "largest possible" volume of sales.

Mr. Adams expressed appreciation to the thousands of citizens who served as volunteers in the drive, but urged that they continue their efforts.

"The need for buying Defense Bonds still exists," he said. "With our country engaged in a gigantic preparedness program, these bonds form an important economic link in our defense."

Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn is the subject of a full-length article in the November 24th issue of The Saturday Evening Post. The story says this Texas veteran is the country's pre-eminent expert on how to pass laws and placate politicians.

Texas Congressman is Featured in National Magazine

The office of Speaker of the House has grown in prestige during Sam Rayburn's tenure, it is pointed out in the current (November 24th) issue of The Saturday Evening Post.

A full-length article on the venerable Texan cites the fact that Congress has raised the Speaker's salary and changed the presidential succession law so that he would become Chief Executive in the event of the death of both the President and the Vice President.

In "They're Just Crazy About Sam," author Paul F. Healy finds that Rayburn himself has added to this prestige by becoming a strong Speaker and he has held the post over nine years, longer than anyone else in U. S. history.

Few men have dealt so closely with such a cross section of human nature in the raw, Healy says. He has managed to move adroitly through a series of national crises with two Presidents of contrasting temperament and background, and simultaneously ride herd on 434 usually hot and othered colleagues, each from a different part of the country and each a full-blown personality in his or her own right.

The story says one of the secrets of his success is that he goes beyond his duties as presiding officer of the House, leader of his party in the House and highest adviser to the President on legislative matters to function as a combination father-confessor, counselor and Dutch uncle to members on both sides of the aisle.

Rayburn likes Congressmen. He figures he has served with nearly 3,000 of them during his 39 years in Washington and has tried to know intimately as many as possible. Evidence that they also like him is reflected in the statement of Representative Abraham Multer, a New York Democrat, that to the new members of Congress Rayburn has been more than a leader, "he has been our guardian angel."

Both Republican and Democratic members are said to seek him out continually for advice on their personal problems. Even wives of congressmen have got to the 69-year-old Speaker, who is a bachelor, for tips on how to handle their prima-donna husbands.

At the same time, Rayburn is reported to receive more proposals of marriage by mail than any other bachelor in Washington.

Healy also says that this holder of the second most powerful political post in the Government is the country's pre-eminent expert on how to pass laws and placate politicians.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Harris and family and Mrs. C. C. Reynolds of Lubbock were here Sunday to visit their daughter and sister, Mrs. E. S. Umberson and family.

FRIO NEWS

Mrs. Owen Andrews
Thanksgiving holidays were observed with family gatherings and other activities here. On Wednesday night a community gathering was enjoyed at Frio, instead of the usual mid-week service. After singing, scripture reading and prayers of thanksgiving, the folk enjoyed a supper together. Nell Simpson and Tavina Thompson read the scriptures, and song leader Lester Irwin led the singing.
The L. D. Irwins, except Lester and Tommy, spent the holidays with Mr. Irwin's brother, Razz and family in Arizona. They left on Tuesday afternoon and were to return the first of this week.
Mrs. H. M. Mobley had all her family home during the day. They included the Raymond Mobleys, the Floyd Coles, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Johnson, Lanelle, Don and Austin Mobley. Others who also enjoyed the occasion with the Mobleys were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cole and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shearhart and children.
Spending the holidays at the Leo Hall home were her parents, the Sam Tipsons, from the vicinity of Chickasha, Okla., and her brother and his family from Dallas.

The brother brought the parents who were on their way to California to spend the winter with some of their other children.
The A. H. Browns took dinner, Thanksgiving in the W. H. Andrews home and all went to the Dimmitt-Canadian ballgame at Canyon. Glenn Brown and James Dobbs were playing with the Dimmitt Bobcats. The Dobbs and quite a number of others from here also attended the game.
Lamerlas Berryman went to visit his sister, Mrs. Wiley Ewton, leaving last Thursday. The Ewtons recently moved from near Aguilar, Colo., to another ranch near Monument, Colo. Lamerlas plans to be there all this week.
