U. S. Senator Lloyd Bentsen (D-Tex.) notified The Winters Enterprise at 4:45 (CST) Tuesday that the Farmers Home Administration had approved loans and grants totaling $3,945,000 to the City of Winters to finance a proposed dam and water reservoir and for other improvements in the city's water system.
FmHA approved a 40-year loan at 5 percent for $2,445,000, and a grant of $1,500,000. (See story below)

For Hospital Equipment

Charles Hudson, president of the Winters State Bank, presents Ted Meyer, chairman of the Special Hospital Equipment Fund committee, and Clay Miller, administrator of North Runnels Hospital, with a $2,000 check, to be used to help purchase special blood-count equipment for the hospital. The bank is making the contribution as "living recognition" to two men who have served on the board of directors of North Runnels Hospital District, and who have played a big part in the organization of the district and the building of the hospital. They also are members of the bank board. The gift is being made in recognition of the "work, devotion and interest" demonstrated by John W. Norman, who was the first chairman of the board of the hospital district, and Audra L. Mitchell, who also was on the first hospital board.

Three Will Run Again For Council

The Winters City Council Monday night officially called the annual city election for Saturday, April 5, and the three aldermen whose terms expire this year have announced they will be candidates for re-election.

E. J. Bishop, Randy Springer and Jim Hatler, whose terms expire, said Tuesday morning they would be available for return to office. An important factor in their decision, they all indicated, was the ongoing work by the council to provide a more adequate water supply for Winters. The council now is working on the final phases of the project, and approved an ordinance Monday night to issue bonds to build a dam and water reservoir.

In addition to the water project, the aldermen agreed, are several projects which have been undertaken by the council, and with which they are vitally concerned. One project which is in the final stages of completion is the waste water disposal system, which should get under construction within a few months.

The council also has been working with a park improvement project, an airport improvement project, and street improvements.

Farmers Warned Of Weevils

Area farmers who have farm-stored wheat this week were warned by grainmen to check their storage bins for weevil infestation.

A spokesman for Alderman-Cave Milling & Grain Co. said there have been several reports of heavy infestation of weevils. He said that the unusual mild winter weather has caused a hatch of eggs. When the temperature goes above 40 degrees, he said, the eggs will hatch. There is no danger of hatching when temperatures are winter-level, below 40 degrees.

Farmers need to check their wheat now, before costly loss results, it was said.

To Build Dam, Reservoir—

Council Okays Bond Issue Ordinance

Winters City Council Monday night in a regular meeting approved passage of an ordinance authorizing the issuance of bonds to finance construction of the proposed dam and water reservoir, which has been in the planning stage for several years.

Passage of the bond issue ordinance was another and necessary step toward obtaining financial assistance from the Farmers Home Administration, in the way of loans and grants. With the passage of the ordinance, officials said, engineers and financial advisors can now proceed to wind up the final applications for the water project.

The bonds will be designated as "City of Winters Waterworks Revenue Bonds, Series 1980, in the maximum principal amount of $2,445,000, dated Feb. 1, 1980, to be payable from, and secured by a junior lien on and pledge of, the net revenues of the City's waterworks system." The bonds will bear interest at a rate not to exceed 5 percent per annum, scheduled to mature serially within a maximum of not to exceed 40 years from issue date.

Gifts To Museum

Gifts and memorials of money continue to come in for the Z. I. Hale Museum Foundation, with The Winters State Bank this week agreeing to finance remodeling work on the big front room or lobby of the building which will house the museum.

Charles Hudson, president of the bank, this week presented a check to Mrs. J. W. Bahlman, chairman of the museum, to finance work on the lobby. It has been estimated that cost of this will be about $1500, according to museum board members. It was hoped that work on remodeling could begin within a few days, Mrs. Bahlman said.

Others making gifts or memorials to the museum fund include Winters Jaycees, Mr. and Mrs. Rankin Pace, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Young, Winters High School Student Council, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Williams, Mrs. Ola Graham, Town and Country Garden Club. Gifts in memory of the late Mrs. Hal Dry have been made by the Winters Chamber of Commerce, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bahlman and Mr. and Mrs. Gattis Neely.

"Religion of Iran" To Be Discussed Thursday Night

DR. B. J. HUMBLE

—How did Islam, the religion of Iran, begin?
—What are the major beliefs of Islam?
—How is Islam different from Christianity?
—How is the Shiite branch of Islam (which the people of Iran follow) different from the Muslims? And does this explain the political situation in Iran?

These and other questions will be discussed and possibly answered during a public meeting and discussion here Thursday night, Jan. 24, beginning at 7 p. m.

The meeting will be held in the North Main Church of Christ. The principal speaker will be Dr. B. J. Humble, head of the Department of Bible at Abilene Christian University.

Bruce Black, minister of the North Main Church of Christ, said this is not a "religious type" meeting or service, but is being sponsored as a public service, in order that the general public may gain a better insight into the Islamic religions, the Islamic peoples, and to better understand some of the happenings of the past few months.

Dr. Humble, the speaker for Thursday night's discussion meeting, joined the ACU faculty

Scott Billups On All-Area '79 Team

SCOTT BILLUPS
... All-Area Punter

Twenty-four football players, including two kickers, were honored on the first team, All-Area for 1979, coming from 13 schools, and representing Class AAA, AA, A and B teams.

Class AA was represented by 10 players, while Class AAA had nine, Class A two, and Class B, three.

Scott Billups, a junior from Winters High School, was picked as the punter for the 1979 All-Area first team.

During the 1979 football season, stats of which are available for only nine games, Billups punted 30 times for 1325 yards, for a 44.1 yard average. He had one blocked punt, against Coleman early in the season, and had one bad snap from center in that same game.

Billups' best punt was 74 yards, in the game with Ballinger. He had a 49.2 average in that game. In his best game of the year, against Merkel, he punted four times, for a 51-yard average.

Billups was one of three juniors selected for the All-Area first team.

Winters Blizzard Head Coach Les Fisher said Billups "is a good candidate for all-state next year, if everything goes well." He needs to work in two areas, the coach said: Release time and hang time. "He has had a good distance average, and good placement," Fisher continued. During the '79 games, the coach said, Billups kicked five times out of bounds inside the 5-yard line.

Billups, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Billups of Winters, played split end and was backup quarterback on defense, and was a defensive cornerback.

For Museum

A check from the Winters State Bank to pay for remodeling of the lobby of the museum building is accepted by Mrs. J. W. Bahlman, chairman of the board of Z. I. Hale Museum Foundation, by Charles Hudson, president of The Winters State Bank.

Jerry Lackey's Country Folk

Curly Hays of Abilene, another well-known public relationsman, and this writer have had some good visits the last several weeks as we took to the roads and the stock show circuit.

Despite the increase of supplemental feeding and inflated dollar, stock show animals are in top shape this season. Both 4-H and FFA youth in every community and county show we have attended have prepared their animals with the challenge of winning and hopefully making every step toward the big shows next month. . . Fort Worth, San Antonio, Houston and San Angelo.

While watching Judge Ross Appleton of Eden place lambs at the Coke County Stock Show, Hays said he was going to ask him what he knows about lambs. "Appleton is a cow man," laughed Hays.

"I asked him the same thing a year or so back at Miles," said Edwin Book, "to which he replied: 'not a darn thing, but it is official which ever way I place them!'"

Conda Richards, Ballinger banker and ranchman, pulled his hat down as he eyed the placings of the judge at the Ballinger Stock Show. "At least the weather was better to us this year," he smiled. Last year's event was marked by ice and snow.

Hays says the annual West Texas Hereford Association Sale is scheduled for Feb. 25 in Abilene. "We will be offering 70 head of two year old bulls," he said. "The females will be sold by the organization in May."

Hays is already looking forward to the West Texas Fair next September in Abilene. "We will have an ROM Show of Herefords this year and it will be dedicated to me," he added. There are only 12 ROM shows in the United States each year. This will be the fourth time Abilene has had one.

Stanley Broz of Lowake and wife watched the placing of Livestock at Ballinger with pleasure. "We are just enjoying this one and gearing up for the Concho show Jan. 19," stated Mrs. Broz.

Daniel Redman was watching at the Miles Stock Show for the first time in 11 years. "No, I don't miss it yet," he said. "I think those stock shows are harder on the mommas and daddys than the kids when the kids are showing. Anyway, I'm glad mine are finally out of it."

John Stephenson of Robert Lee moved about the grandstands and the coffeestand during the Coke County show with a bit of nervousness.

Well, I observed alot of that the last several weeks, but also saw the excitement that goes with competition and winning too.

For over 20 years I have attended many of these stock shows and seeing the second generation showing livestock these years. As editor of the SHEEP AND GOAT RAISER magazine and agriculture to the STANDARD-TIMES, I photographed the parents of those showing today back in the old days. And now those old friends and I talk about those times over coffee near the fire as their children carry on.

I recalled in Mason the other day while watching that 1980 show progress, as a young newsman I photographed a young fellow with his winning lamb 15 or so years ago by the name of Tom Loeffler. Now he's a U.S. congressman.

One of the good things you can say about Tom, however, he is still as nice as he was back in Mason showing livestock. He still likes to put on his cowboy hat and boots and get out in the country and visit with country folk. He's a good congressman too!

Lost Veteran's Documents

The need for veterans to tell their families where important veterans' documents are kept cannot be over emphasized, Jack Coker, Waco VA Regional Office Director, says.

Safeguarding discharge papers, marriage certificates or child custody evidence from fire, theft or loss could be one of the most important legacies a veteran can leave his survivors, Coker said. Among documents that should be protected and filed with family papers are government and commercial life insurance policies, any VA correspondence with identifying claim numbers, social security numbers, wills and, where applicable, naturalization papers.

Families should also be aware of possible survivor benefits. These include VA pensions, dependency and indemnity compensation for service-connected death, burial benefits and interment in a national cemetery.

A few minutes spent by the veteran organizing documents and informing his family can do much to avoid anguish during times of emotional stress, according to Coker.

Veterans should alert their families that information and assistance concerning benefits are available at the Waco VA Regional Office. Assistance is also available through veterans service organizations and veterans county service officers.

Hospital Aux Officers Installed

Officers for 1980 for the North Runnels Hospital Auxiliary were installed at a recent meeting in the office of the Chamber of Commerce.

Sandy Griffin was installed as president; Mary McCreight, vice president; Fay Clark Thompson, secretary; Mary Louise Bauer, treasurer.

Committees named were: Billie Alderman, Community Relations director; Mary McCreight, Director of Volunteers; Fay Clark Thompson, memorials; and Mildred Gardner, reporter.

Clay Miller, administrator for North Runnels Hospital, spoke to the group on the needs of the hospital.

The Auxiliary voted to contribute $1500 toward the purchase of a sodium and potassium machine.

Persons interested in becoming members or associate members of the Auxiliary may contact Billie Alderman, Community Relations Director, or Sandy Griffin.

CARD OF THANKS

Our heartfelt thanks to all who extended comforting sympathy and help in our recent sorrow. For the beautiful service, floral offerings, and other kindnesses, we are deeply grateful.—The Family of Alfred Russell. 46-1tp

'80 Economics Looked At

What does the economy hold for 1980 and beyond? That's one of the key areas that bankers will look at during the 28th Texas Farm and Ranch Credit Conference for Commercial Bankers at Texas A&M University, Feb. 11-12. The conference will also deal with governmental legislation in agriculture and commodity loans and outlooks, points out an economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Farmers' Tax Deadline

Farmers must file their 1979 income tax returns by March 3 if they did not file an estimate of their income and pay these estimated taxes by Jan. 15. Farmers who did file an estimate have the same deadline as other taxpayers—April 15, points out an economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. Farmers with hired help should provide W-2 forms to employees by Jan. 31 and should also complete Form 943, "Employer's Annual Tax Return for Agricultural Employees."

Sen. Grant Jones Bids For Another Term

State Senator Grant Jones will run for a third consecutive term, it was announced Tuesday.

"The Texas Senate is in my opinion the principal place where decisions about the future of Texas will be made over the next four years," said Jones, whose 24th senatorial district ranges over thirteen Central Texas counties from Abilene to Waco.

"I want to be a voice for conservative, sober and responsible solutions to the problems of this district and to this state," said Jones, chairman of the Senate Committee on Finance which has a major role in determining the state government's biennial budget.

Also a member of the Legislative Budget Board which reviews funding requests from state agencies between legislative sessions, Jones' other senate committee assignments include Education and Economic Development.

Senator Jones, a four year veteran of the Texas House of Representatives before his first term in the senate, is an Abilene businessman and civic leader. He is on the official board of the Saint Paul Methodist Church, the First Security Savings Association, and the West Texas Rehabilitation Center. He passed the Texas Bar Exam and was licensed to practice law in January, 1975.

During the past legislative session, Jones authored bills to make property tax codes and their administration more equitable, to provide meaningful tax relief for Texans, to increase tuition grants for students in private colleges, and to update strip mining regulations.

A Calorie Equals A Calorie

Waistwatchers remember—food by any name is still food, says a foods and nutrition specialist.

Eating a lot of extra foods or snacks can add up to too many calories even if no one sees you eat them, points out Mary K. Sweeten.

Mrs. Sweeten is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Waistwatchers have two wise alternatives: —avoid snacks altogether, or —plan snacks as part of the total allotted calories for that day.

This way you will not feel cheated if you see others nibbling.

It doesn't matter how many or how few calories are in a serving of food, a smaller serving will have fewer calories, the specialist says.

Here are some hints for dieters to use in determining if food fits their diet.

Generally, a food is low in calories if it is:

—thin or watery like tomato juice, —crisp, but not greasy crisp, like celery, radishes, cucumbers, melons and other fruits and vegetables, or —bulky like many salad greens.

On the other hand, higher-caloried foods will have these characteristics:

—oily or greasy-crisp like fried vegetables, butter or margarine, —smooth and thick like rich sauces, cream cheese, peanut butter and cream, or —sticky and sweet as candy, regular soft drinks, rich baked goods or other desserts.

PUBLIC NOTICE

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO ISSUE REVENUE BONDS Notice is hereby given, in accordance with Article 2368a, V.A.T.C.S., that the City Council of the City of Winters intends to pass at a Regular Meeting to be held at 5:30 P.M., on February 18, 1980, at City Hall, Winters an ordinance authorizing the issuance and delivery of an issue of bonds to be designated as "CITY OF WINTERS, TEXAS WATERWORKS REVENUE BONDS, SERIES 1980," dated February 1, 1980, in the maximum principal amount of $2,445,000, to be payable from, and secured by a junior lien on and pledge of the net revenues of the City's waterworks system. Said bonds will bear interest at a rate not to exceed 5 percent per annum, will be scheduled to mature serially within a maximum period of not to exceed 40 years from their date, and will be subject to redemption prior to maturity, and will have such other and further characteristics, as will be provided in the aforesaid ordinance. Said bonds will be authorized, issued, and delivered pursuant to Articles 1111 through 1118, V.A.T.C.S., and other applicable laws for the purpose of providing money for acquisitions, extensions, construction and improvements of the Waterworks System of the City of Winters.

Dairying Stable in Texas

Texas dairymen can expect a stable year in 1980, with profit margins favorable but lower, points out an economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University. Both milk prices and production costs will be higher and demand should continue strong. Prices of milk and dairy products may increase 10 to 12 percent in the coming year. However, production costs are expected to climb sharply, with feed costs alone increasing about 15 percent.

The only survivor of the Battle of Little Big Horn, where Custer made his last stand, was the horse Comanche, whose embalmed body now stands on display at the University of Kansas.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to take this method of saying thanks for your thoughtfulness and remembrances while I was in the North Runnels Hospital. First of all I would like to say thanks to every member of the North Runnels Hospital Staff for their very fine care and excellent attention. I believe that they must be one of the finest group of nurses and staff you could find anywhere. Especially I would like to thank Dr. Rives for his fine care. Thanks for every card, flower, and visit while I was there. Thanks to all. Sincerely, Gattis Neely. 46-1tp

Rep. Nabers Announces Candidacy For Re-Election

Representative Lynn Nabers of Brownwood announced today that he would be a candidate for re-election to the office of State Representative for the 55th Legislative District. The 55th District is composed of Brown, Callahan, Coleman, Comanche, McCullough, and Runnels Counties.

Nabers is a member of the law firm of Day and Nabers and practices law in Brownwood. He is a member of the Brown County Bar Association, Texas Bar Association, American Bar Association, and the Texas Association of Bank Councils.

Nabers said that he believed that the next session of the legislature will be the most important session in the decade of the 80's.

The main issue will be re-districting. This will include the re-arranging of state legislative districts, senatorial districts, and congressional districts. The decisions made on re-districting alone will mold and shape the future of our area tremendously, Nabers stated.

Nabers is serving as Chairman of the Criminal Jurisprudence Committee and has served in that capacity for the past three legislative sessions. He also serves on the Financial Institutions and the Calendars Committees.

Nabers is married to the former Mary Scott of Chairman of the Criminal Cross Plains and they have two sons, Scott-age 15, and Tim-age 10.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Pursuant to TEX. REV. CIV. STAT. ANN. art. 1446c §43(1975), Lone Star Gas Company hereby gives NOTICE of the Company's intent to implement a new schedule of rates effective on the latter of February 4, 1980 or such other date as new rates become effective in the City of Winters, Texas, to be charged for natural gas service to residential and commercial customers in the environs areas (outside incorporated limits of Winters, Texas). The rate schedule is expected to furnish a 19.61% increase in the Company's gross revenues in the environs of Winters, Texas.

A Statement of Intent has been filed with the Railroad Commission of Texas and is available for inspection at the Company's business office located at 116 N. Main St., Winters, Texas. Any affected person desiring to contest such changes in rates can file a complaint with the Director of the Gas Utilities Division, Railroad Commission of Texas, P. O. Drawer 12967, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas, 78711.

cently, when VFW awards were presented to students taking part in the Voice of Democracy program sponsored by the Post and Auxiliary.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Nancy Michaelis, American Government teacher, 44 senior students wrote papers on "My Role In America's Future." Seven of these students were chosen to make tapes of their themes, which were judged on delivery, originality and content by Mrs. Charles Kruse and Mrs. R. J. Bauer, retired teachers, and Mrs. Ted Meyer, representing VFW and Auxiliary.

Brett Billups, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Billups, was presented $50 as first place winner. Mike Zuniga, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Zuniga Jr., was awarded $30 for second place; and Pat Salas, whose guardians are Mr. and Mrs. Tom Nixon, received $20 for third place.

Honorable mention and awards of $10 each were presented to James Fahey, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Fahey; Silene Hubach, daughter of Mrs. Lillian Hubach; Penny Springer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Springer; and Joe Eubank, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Eubank Jr. The first three place winners read their speeches to the students.

As Winters first place Winner, Brett Billups' tape was forwarded to District 22, Voice of Democracy Contest, sponsored by Winters, Ballinger, Rowena, San Angelo, Big Lake, Sonora, Coleman and Eden VFW posts. Judging in the District 22 contest was held Dec. 13 at San Angelo. Billups' speech was selected as first place district winner, and he will receive a $100 scholarship during the District 22 spring convention. The Rowena post won second place and Coleman, third place.

Billups' tape has been sent to Austin for the state contest. The state winner will receive an expense-paid trip to Washington, D. C., Feb. 29 to March 5, and an opportunity to compete for scholarship awards totaling $22,000 in the national contest.

Oil People Say Thanks

The Winters members of West Texas Oil & Gas Association and the two Runnels County directors wish to thank the businessmen and the area oil operators and producers for attending the meeting at Winters Construction Co. offices Tuesday night of last week.

Food Safety For 1980

Make 1980 your year of food safety, says Mary K. Sweeten, foods and nutrition specialist.

Preventing illness—and loss of food through spoilage—can save time and money, she adds.

Mrs. Sweeten is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas A&M University System.

Here's a brief seven-part plan to help carry out the resolution:

1. Keep refrigerator temperatures between 35 and 40 degrees F.
2. Make sure the freezer stays at 0 degrees F.
3. These precautions will keep bacteria from growing, since it needs warmth, moisture and food for survival.
4. Keep meat and poultry refrigerated—always.

Be aware of the new nitrite-free meat products, and don't mistake them for the cured ones. Nitrite-free meats keep safely only three to seven days—instead of the usual three weeks that cured meats keep.

For freezer storage, wrap foods tightly in moisture, vapor-proof paper. That will prevent freezer burn, and it insures a high-quality, well-preserved product.

Do not store cured meats in the freezer, since that can hasten rancidity.

4. Thaw frozen meat and poultry in the refrigerator—or, if time is critical, thaw it in a water-tight package under cold water.

If there's no time to thaw, cook "frozen-solid" meats—and be sure to allow extra time for the cooking (1½ times the usual time for large roasts, for example).

5. Use clean cutting boards for food preparation.

Clean them with one part bleach to four parts water after using them.

Also, it's wise to use a separate board for meats and another for vegetables.

6. Never buy foods in dented or bulging cans, even if they're on special.

These processed foods may be contaminated with bacteria.

7. Keep hot foods hot (140 degrees F. or above)—and cold foods cold (40 degrees F. or below).

That prevents bacteria from growing, which they do best at room temperature.

Some used to say that carrying horse chestnuts in the pocket would prevent rheumatism.

Loyle Lewis Remembers

Loyle Lewis recalls that her Dad, Cliff Kornegay, came west on crutches back in 1907 searching for better health. After camping on a river at Miles for two weeks, he threw away his crutches and went home to Burselon. "We're moving to West Texas," he told his family.

Bringing two men with him, Bill Sudberry, a gin-ner, and Sim Riddle, an engineer, Mr. Kornegay returned and built a gin in Winters before 1907 was over. He also had to dispose of his flour mill at Burselon and a gin at Crowley.

"During this time mother took my brother, Buck, and me on a visit to her people back in Georgia," said Loyle.

In 1908 the family moved to Winters and lived in a house that is now the home of Mrs. Louis Heard. The next year they moved to a house by the gin lot, where Super D is located.

"When we lived by the gin, I took my first piano lessons from a woman who taught in a tent across from the old city Hotel," Loyle remembers.

The Kornegays built their first home on Arlington, later the Adolph Ernst home, on a block where two others, the A. Bryan and Alexander homes, were located. The entire block was fenced and entrance was through a gate.

Before the home was finished, the railroad came and a celebration was held with a picnic on the creek, back of the present Hal Dry home.

The night before the big Celebration, Grandfather Newton died at Grandview and the Kornegays were gone. They went to Ballinger in a hack to catch the train. On returning they learned a downpouring rain had spoiled the picnic and people came into the partially finished house for protection. Muddy feet had caused the already laid flooring to need resanding.

The Kornegays lived in this home until 1914, when they traded with D. R. Smith for the farm home where Loyle now lives.

Soon after moving to the Smith place, Mr. Kornegay went hunting and brought home three little deer, two fawns and a buck. Afterwards he found an antelope. In order to keep them he had to get a permit from the state, so he built a high fence and had his own private game reserve. He had 27 head when it became necessary to sell the herd because people kept shooting at them.

"While we had the deer, two boys came by and wanted a job chopping cotton," said Loyle. "While they were at work they hung their detachable collars on the fence. When the day was finished, they couldn't find their collars, only some strings, the deer had eaten them."

Mrs. J. Glenn Died Last Wednesday

Mrs. James Glenn, 77, died at 6:30 a. m. Wednesday of last week in Senior Citizens Nursing Home, following an illness of several months.

Funeral services were held at 10:30 a. m. Friday in the First United Methodist Church, with the Rev. Bob Holloway, pastor, officiating.

Burial was in the Bronte Cemetery under the direction of Winters Funeral Home.

She was born Angie Leta Johnson, Sept. 11, 1902, at Bronte, daughter of the late Theodore and Louisa Johnson.

She married James Glenn, June 14, 1924, at Bronte.

Mrs. Glenn had lived all of her life in Coke and Runnels counties, and since 1945 in Winters.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn operated a cotton gin in Winters for a number of years.

Mr. Glenn died Jan. 1, 1974.

Mrs. Glenn was a member of the First United Methodist Church, the Methodist Women's Organization, the American Legion Auxiliary, and was a charter member of the Diversity Club.

Survivors are one son, Jimmy Glenn of Fairborn, Ohio; one daughter, Ollie Lou Cole of Winters; and six grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Wesley Vogler, Rankin Pace, George Brown, James Brown, Roger Robinson, Bobby Staggs, Melvin Williams and Billy Joe Colburn.

Water that has been boiled before cooling will freeze faster, because the boiling drives out some air bubbles.

Loyle recalls a number of events that happened in 1918—the big sandstorm was followed by a snow that was covered with dirt. Seven people spent the night in their home. By this time Mr. Kornegay had three gins but the severe drought made it hard on everyone. This was the year she finished high school. "Dad had promised me a diamond ring—and he gave it anyway," said Loyle.

When Loyle finished Baylor University in 1922, majoring in Spanish and English, she came home and taught school for a year. But with five gins now in the family, four on the same block and one on the Huffman location, she began keeping books for the gins and stayed with it. "If I knew a man, I knew his initials," she said.

Also her Spanish was invaluable for speaking with Mexican workers on the farms and in the gins.

Mr. Kornegay had no more health problems. Sudberry and Riddle stayed with him until retirement and they continued building gins. One in each of these places: Wingate, Miles, San Angelo, Big Spring, Longworth and Loraine. He also bought two more farms.

Mrs. Kornegay died in 1929 and when Mr. Kornegay remarried in 1933 he gave Buck and Loyle the Winters and Wingate property. They ran the gins together until they were sold. Buck and his family moved to El Paso. Mr. Kornegay died in 1944.

When gin season was over each year, Loyle kept books for various organizations including the Ballinger airfield, Winters Public Schools, C. R. Kendrick Ford Company and Oldsmobile House owned by Press Edwards.

Church and civic responsibilities were not neglected. Loyle was pianist at the First Baptist Church from 1909, when it was on West Pierce St. until 1950, except when she was away at school. She is a charter member of the Literary and Service Club and sponsored the "Goal Diggers", a high school girls club, from 1934-1949.

She married Max Lewis, employed by Cameron Lumber Co., at Rankin in November of 1950. They lived at Rankin, Eunice, N. M. and Big Spring until Cameron sent him back to Winters in 1955. When Cameron wanted to move him again, Max said "No Soap" and quit two months before 20 years, and retirement, with the company. He then operated his own Paint and Paper store in Winters. Max died in 1973. He was a life long fireman, and member of the VFW. Max was a Sgt. in the U.S. Army, during World War II, and was in overseas service from 1943-45.

Loyle joined the Methodist Church with her husband in 1950 and taught a Sunday School Class until 1966. She continues to maintain the family home and does a few tax returns for people each year. She enjoys playing bridge.

Mrs. Lewis continues to be a valuable member of her community.

Mrs. L. Scott Died Sunday At Andrews

Mrs. Louis Scott, 64, of Andrews, formerly of Wingate, died at 3:15 p. m. Sunday enroute to the hospital from her home, following an illness of several months.

Funeral services were held at 3 p. m. Tuesday in Winters Memorial Chapel, with the Rev. Fred Thomas, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating. Burial was in Wingate Cemetery under direction of Winters Funeral Home.

She was born Mildred Latayne Allen, Nov. 8, 1915, at Wingate. She married Louis Scott, April 1, 1933, at Ballinger. They lived in Wingate and later moved to Tatom, N. M. For the past 16 years they had lived in Andrews.

She was a member of the Baptist Church.

Survivors include her husband of Andrews; two daughters, Peggy Miller and Mrs. Houston McMullan of Midland; two sisters, Mrs. Joe Wilson of Tatom, N. M., and Juanita Wilson of Odessa; two grandchildren. A brother, Harold Allen of Winters, died May 10, 1979.

Pallbearers were Wardell Long, B. Phelps, Bob Webb, Clarence Huckyaby, Jerrell Walker and Billy Joe Walker.

NEWCOMERS

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Eckols of Irving announce the birth of a daughter, Dana Michelle, born Jan. 16, 1980, in Irving Community Hospital. The baby weighed 10 pounds 6 ounces, and was 22 inches long.

Grandparents include Mrs. Johnnie Spence of Winters, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth York of Abilene, and Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Eckols of California.

Great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Holder of Cisco, Mrs. Lonie Dison of McCamey, Mrs. Belle Spence of May and Mrs. Josie York of Bogata. Dana has a sister, Jessica, two and a half years old.

The Rev. and Mrs. Larry Henrichs of Clovis, N. M., announce the birth of a daughter, Liesl Robin, born Jan. 13, 1980, at 2:06 p. m. The baby weighed 7 pounds 11 ounces, and was 21 1/4 inches long.

Maternal grandmother is Mrs. R. C. Simpson of Winters. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Henrichs of Sweetwater. Great-grandparents are Mrs. Louis Ernst of Winters, Mrs. A. E. Simpson of Clyde, and Mrs. Charlie Hartmann of Shiner.

Liesl has a sister, Heather 4, and a brother, Ty, 19 months.

Blackwell

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Oden and son, Larry visited over the weekend in Albany with their son and brother and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dan Oden and daughters, Sarah Joh and Mislia.

The United Methodist Women of the Blackwell United Methodist Church did not meet on Monday, Jan. 14, as Mrs. John McRorey was in charge of the program, "The Installation of Officers". Mrs. McRorey had a dental appointment and said when you do get an appointment these days, you cannot afford to miss them.

The next regular meeting day will be Monday, Jan. 28 in the home of Mrs. Mary Louise Alderman, who will also have the program, entitled, "Week Of Prayer And Self Denial", with Mrs. Alderman as hostess and a covered dish luncheon also planned.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Patterson had as their visitors on Tuesday, her sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Jewel Turner of Elmore City, Oklahoma. Another visitor in the Patterson home was his sister, Savannah Thompson. Mrs. Turner was much improved after she was in the hospital in Oklahoma for 12 days. They also visited with their daughter and her family in Bronte and their Bronte friends.

CARD OF THANKS

Thanks to everyone who visited me while I was in the West Texas Medical Center in Abilene. Also thanks for the lovely flowers, cards and all the food brought to my house.—Mrs. A. N. Hale

The Women's Missionary Union of the Blackwell First Baptist Church did not meet Thursday for their regular meeting day, so the ladies could visit the Blackwell Euterpean Club in the home of Mrs. Rhoda McCarley, as it was visitation day.

Hubert Lanier was transferred from the Rolling Plains Memorial Hospital in Sweetwater to the Holiday Retirement Center in Sweetwater.

Mrs. Austin Jordan is a patient in the St. John's Hospital in San Angelo.

Only Children Not Lonely

An "only child" is selfish, lonely and maladjusted. Right? Wrong, says a University of Texas social psychologist. Dr. Toni Falbo, who does research on aspects of family life, says no sound evidence supports the stereotype of the only child. Only children "are not isolated," she says, noting that such children have as much interaction with other children as they will need to develop normal personalities.

Dr. Falbo's research suggests that only children and first-borns may have much in common as adults. "They may be more achievement oriented and readily take leadership positions," she says.

Cattlemen Can Have Say In Feb. 19-22 Voting

An important vote for cattle producers is coming up Feb. 19-22. Cattlemen who register between Jan. 28 and Feb. 6 can vote on the Federal Beef Research and Information Order at their county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) offices.

The Order, if approved, would authorize a mandatory deduction from each sale of cattle. The money would go to a Beef Board (authorized in the Order and to be appointed from producers by the Secretary of Agriculture) which would administer the beef research and promotion program. Producers can get refunds by applying for them within a specified time.

A lot of money is involved. The Order permits deductions up to 2/10 of 1 percent for the first two years; this could go to 1/2 of 1 percent after two years without another producer referendum. Money raised annually would amount to about $40 million and $100 million, respectively.

The first push for a government-backed collection of beef research and promotion funds got started back about five years ago when the beef industry was in the depths of a price depression. Since then, cattlemen have cut back on cattle numbers, and prices are almost five-fold above the 1974-1975 levels.

Whether or not a mandatory deduction program is good or bad is for each cattle producer to decide for himself. They'll have that chance Feb. 19-22.

Halibut is no small fish, as some folk imagine. Specimens range from three to nine feet long and weighs up to 600 pounds.

Combining Cleaning Products Is Dangerous

Those involved with public education programs are reminded to call attention to the dangers of combining chlorine bleach and cleaning powder and other common substances found in most households.

Recent tragic accidents point out the need for more public education in this area. Two housewives in separate locations were faced with the same cleaning problem. Both were using ordinary toilet bowl cleansers, but they were unhappy with the way stains were being removed. Each decided to use a chlorine bleach, which they poured in with the powder and stirred with a brush.

One woman died as a result, while the other spent a lengthy stay in the hospital.

When certain types of ordinary cleaners are combined, an oxidizing agent in the powder mixes with a chemical in the bleach and produces phosgene, a highly toxic gas that can be fatal when inhaled.

Users of such products should be advised to read labels carefully, use only as directed and remember to never mix bleaching agents, toilet bowl cleansers, ammonia, lye, rust removers, vinegar, oven cleaners or other cleansers with one another.

Embargo Adds Uncertainty To Grain Market

The U.S. embargo of grain shipments to the Soviet Union injects a major new element of uncertainty into the grain market, say two economists with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

"The added uncertainty injected into the grain market is of both a short and long-run nature," point out Dr. Ron Knutson, an economist in marketing and policy, and Dr. Roland Smith, a grain marketing specialist. Although immediate price impacts may be larger until the grain market stabilizes, Knutson and Smith expect the price of wheat and feedgrains over the next year to be 10 to 15 percent lower than it would have been if the embargo had not been imposed.

"Russian purchases in the 1979 market year were expected to total 18 million metric tons of feedgrains and 7 million tons of wheat," note the economists. "This represents 12 percent of the U.S. wheat production and 8 percent of the feedgrain production. Russia had been expected to purchase about 18 percent of U.S. wheat exports and 25 percent of feedgrain exports."

As a result of the embargo, U.S. grain exports to the Soviet Union will be limited to 8 million metric tons, with the mix expected to be 3 million tons of wheat and 5 million tons of feedgrains. "This represents about a 6 percent reduction in both the total demand for wheat and in the total projected use of feedgrains," point out Knutson and Smith. "The projected price impact will be greater than the percentage decline in demand due to the inelastic nature of the demand for grains."

The economists say the embargo also will likely have an adverse longer-term impact on Soviet demand for grain. "Indications are that the Soviet Union has, to a large extent, based expanded livestock and poultry production on the ability to import U.S. feedgrains and oilseeds," note Knutson and Smith. "The embargo, combined with strained U.S.-Soviet relations, has to result in a reconsideration of this policy within the Soviet Union. Russian dependence on the U.S. as a source of supply is likely to decline."

"The embargo also is likely to cause U.S. grain producers to reconsider their apparent support for using grain as a tool of international diplomacy. Producers will now realize that effective use of food as a diplomatic tool requires a periodic destabilizing effect of the grain market which lowers price and increases uncertainty."

Knutson and Smith believe the Carter Administration likely will soon announce plans to soften the embargo's impact on farm prices. However, they do not expect actions taken by the President to lessen the impact on grain prices to be fully effective in protecting producers. Possible actions include increased government purchases of grain, larger foreign-aid grain shipments, expansion of the farmer-held grain reserve program, and increased gasohol production.

"There is no government option substitute for commercial grain sales to the Soviet Union," contend the economists. "Increased reserves are not sales, foreign-aid frequently competes with commercial exports, and gasohol production capacity is limited in the short run until new plants begin operating."

However, lower grain prices will increase the economic feasibility of alcohol production from grain and could encourage more domestic use of feedgrains in livestock rations, note Knutson and Smith. More favorable feeding margins than earlier expected could result in cattle feeders being able to pay more for feeder cattle in the near term.

Managing Money

Don't take out a mortgage that is more than two-and-a-half times your annual take-home pay.

That advice comes from Dr. Harold Wolf of The University of Texas Finance Department, who is the author of college and high school textbooks on money management.

Carelessness is frequently at the root of troubles with personal finances, Dr. Wolf says. Ways to improve those finances, he says, range from setting up a "loose" budget that includes an item for savings to investigating the terms of three or four places before borrowing money or buying insurance.

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Texans are going to have to wait at least until August, maybe later, to watch their Legislature debate tax relief, initiative and referendum, and wire-tapping... and possibly a few other issues thrown in a la carte.

Governor Bill Clements last week announced he will wait until next fall to call his promised special session. Clements wants to spend a state surplus for tax relief in the special session, but, he said no one really knows right now how much surplus will be available.

The governor has estimated there will be some $600-$700 million he can turn back to taxpayers, but State Comptroller Bob Bullock recently predicted a biennial surplus of only $124 million. Clements said he is putting the issue on the back burner until he and Bullock get a clearer picture.

Others say there is more to the postponement than meets the eye. One view is that Clements is waiting until right before the general election in November to give Republican challengers an advantage over incumbent Democrats in the Legislature. However, Clements has recently angered rural Democrats and he may be afraid of losing Senate confirmation of some of his new appointees. The Senate may vote to confirm in any session meeting longer than ten days.

Hunger Strike
A Central Texas farmer continued his hunger strike outside the governor's office last week to symbolize his disillusionment with Clements' agricultural policy.

Charlie Fitts of Milam County vowed he would stay at Clements door until he can personally apologize to Clements' 1978 opponent, former Attorney General John Hill, for voting for Clements.

FB For Promotion of Beef Industry

The Texas Farm Bureau has clarified its position on the Beferendum, according to TFB President Carrol Chaloupka.

In a letter to county FB presidents, Chaloupka said the TFB board has voted to implement the state policy adopted at the recent state convention which supports voluntary contributions for beef research and promotion and opposes the proposed Federal Beef Research and Information Order.

Chaloupka explained that the board met following the annual meeting of the American Farm Bureau Federation Jan. 6-10 in Phoenix.

"National policy, as interpreted by the AFBF board of directors, permits each state Farm Bureau to establish its own position on this matter," he said. "The TFB board voted to implement the state policy adopted in McAllen in December."

The state policy reads: "We support the National Livestock and Meat Board in their promotion of the meat industry and urge all local livestock markets to participate in the voluntary check-off program."

"We also oppose the Federal Beef Referendum Program," The TFB leader said livestock producers generally support a program to promote their industry.

Estate Planning Seminar

Professionals in estate planning will be able to get a wealth of assistance by taking part in the 1980 Estate Planning Seminar at Texas A&M University, Jan. 28-29, according to an economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. Discussions will key in on estate taxes and estate planning problems, effects of recent tax acts on estate planning, charitable giving, and the Texas inheritance tax.

CARD OF THANKS

My family and I would like to extend sincere thanks for all the comforting sympathy and help I received during my recent stay in the hospital. For the many visits, cards, calls and other kindnesses we are deeply grateful.—Mrs. O. K. (Jessie) Paschal 46-1tp

Fitts was irritated by the dismissal of the Texas farmers' liaison in Washington DC, and for Clements' failure to keep campaign promises to farmers.

Clements v. White?
Attorney General Mark White says the Texas Department of Human Resources can build its planned $40 million office building and the governor says it can't.

Clements vetoed the project in June 1979, but White said then that the governor lacked the power of veto in that issue. Clements then raised 31 questions of illegality in the project.

White came back again last week and ruled down the governor's objections. Clements has threatened to take the issue to the Texas Supreme Court.

Teacher Pay Hikes
House Speaker Bill Clayton said the Texas Legislature will be inviting unionization of the state's public school teachers if they don't receive a bigger pay raise in the 1981 session.

Teachers received a 5.1 percent pay increase last spring at Clements recommendation. They had wanted a 7 percent hike.

Clayton said he will fight unionization and make the pay raises a priority issue.

Presidential Polls
President Jimmy Carter and former Texas governor John Connally have moved out front in their parties in this state, a recent poll showed.

The Texas Monthly magazine poll showed Carter leading Ted Kennedy 52.7 percent to 20.6 percent among Democrats. California Gov. Jerry Brown registered 5.9 percent in the poll.

Carter led Kennedy in virtually all areas of the state and other categories, except among Mexican-Americans and Blacks where Kennedy led by some 15 points.

Republican Connally with 35 percent had a nice lead over Ronald Reagan's 26.6 percent. Fellow Texas George Bush received 12.1 percent approval and Tenn. Sen. Howard Baker got 5.7 percent.

Like the Democratic front-runner, Connally led his party in all areas of the state, with Reagan showing a lead among blacks and senior citizens.

AG Opinion
In a legal opinion last week, Attorney General White ruled the sale contract of rock may be voided where a county commissioner receives royalties on the sale of the rock to a company which in turn sells it to the county.

Texas Farmers Face Lower Net Income in 1980

Texas farmers and ranchers face prospects of lower net incomes in 1980 than during last year, an agricultural economist says.

Dr. Carl G. Anderson, marketing economist, says it simply boils down to costs increasing faster than farm prices.

He notes that cow-calf operators generally will fare a little better in 1980 than most other agricultural producers. Fewer calves and strong demand are expected to help hold prices near the level averaged in 1979. An exception would be those ranchers of South and Southwest Texas who are hard-hit by the current summer and fall drought and are dispersing their entire herds.

Higher feed costs and the likelihood of a sluggish fed cattle market may mean that cattle feeders may find profit margins slim over the next 12 months, Anderson points out.

"Large supplies of competing meats, particularly pork and poultry, will likely dampen any big rise in price of fed beef. The expected economic recession will increase unemployment and add to the cooling off of demand for beef," he predicts.

As a result of abundant supplies, hog, broiler and turkey prices are expected to remain low until late in 1980, when a possible reduction of output could bolster markets.

Lamb prices may run slightly less than in 1979 as total meat supplies are expected to be sizable, particularly in the first half of 1980. A small increase in U.S. lamb and mutton production is likely in 1980, with the inventory of sheep and lambs expected to be up from a year earlier.

Crop farmers of the state can expect 1980 price levels to remain near those of 1979. Little price change is foreseen in average prices for cotton and grains, but soybean prices may weaken slightly as increasing world consumption failed to match this year's increase in production, says Anderson.

The economist says vegetable supplies are up, causing market prices to weaken. And the plentiful supply of fruit and tree nuts points to moderately lower prices for producers until the 1980 crop size can be determined.

In memory of Bill Hendrix, by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bean.

In memory of Bobby Greger, by Mr. and Mrs. Morris Robinson.

Memorial and contributions may be made at the Winters State Bank or by contacting Auxiliary member, Mrs. Fay Clark Thompson.

Anderson says production expenses for U.S. farmers moved up about 16 percent in 1979 and will probably increase another 11 percent or more in 1980.

"For irrigated farming in Texas, the increase will be much higher because of rising fuel and energy costs," he points out.

No let-up is foreseen in the rising price of energy and climbing inflation rates.

"Early this fall, prices paid by farmers for fuels and energy were 44 percent higher than a year earlier. Prices for tractors and other machinery were 11 percent higher, and for building and fencing, prices were up 10 percent. Interest rates on farm mortgages had jumped 25 percent during this period," Anderson notes.

on Heart O' Texas Savings' New 2 1/2 Year Money Market Certificate $100 minimum!

Heart O' Texas Savings announces an outstanding investment opportunity: new 2 1/2-year money market certificates, replacing the present 4-year certificates. The rate is tied to the monthly computed yield of Treasury securities maturing in 2 1/2 years. This means the interest rate may change each month but will remain constant for the entire term of your certificate. The rate is announced three business days before the beginning of each month.

$100 minimum ... for small savers. That means virtually anyone can invest in Heart O' Texas Savings' new high yield certificates. You don't have to invest $10,000, as with 6-month CD's, or even 1000, as with other 2 1/2-year CD's. The amount you invest is entirely up to you.

Earn 1/4% higher than bank CD's! Heart O' Texas Savings' new money market certificates offer a 10.40% annual return. That's 1/4% higher than any bank offers. And because your interest is compounded, the actual percentage yield is even greater.

Rate guaranteed for 2 1/2 years! It's wise to invest in Heart O' Texas Savings' new 2 1/2-year certificates today because your investment is locked in at a reasonably high interest rate for at least 2 1/2 years. Regardless of how low interest rates may drop! And that's security you can depend on.

A substantial interest penalty is required for early withdrawal of certificates.

Savings insured to $40,000 by a Federal agency (FDIC).

RANDALL M. BOLES
Randall Boles
System Analyst
At Dry Div.

Randall M. Boles of Claude will join Dry Manufacturing Div. of the Wallace Murray Corp. as system analyst-programmer Feb. 1, it has been announced by Hal Dry, vice president-general manager.

In his new responsibilities, Boles will succeed Rick A. Dry, who has been promoted to assistant controller of this division.

Boles is a graduate of Winters High School and West Texas State University where he earned a degree in business administration. He served as secretary-treasurer of the Alpha Kappa Psi business fraternity while attending WTSU. He served as deacon and Sunday School teacher for the First Baptist Church of Claude, and held various offices in the Lions Club. He was a member of the board of directors for the Warner Community Home in Claude.

Prior to joining Dry Division, Boles was business manager for various businesses in Claude.

Boles, his wife, the former Jean Mostad, of Winters, son Brandon 6, and daughter Jennifer 3 1/2, will make their home in the Winters area.

MARLENE WOOD
Marlene Wood
In Accounting
Dept. At Dry

Marlene Wood has joined Dry Manufacturing Division of Wallace Murray Corp. in the accounting department, it was announced by Hal S. Dry, vice president-general manager of the division.

Prior to joining Dry Division, Mrs. Wood, a graduate of Ballinger High School, held various positions with the Winters State Bank for the past nine and a half years.

Mrs. Wood, her husband Pat, area sales manager for Dry Division, and daughter Kimberly, make their home in the Winters community.

Fuel Tax Law To Be Talked At Meeting

A meeting is scheduled Feb. 5 in the Community Room of the First Texas Savings building in Ballinger, to discuss the new fuels tax law, which became effective Jan. 1.

Representatives from the State Comptroller's Department, San Angelo Field Office, will give an overview of the new law and explain how it will affect business.

RICK A DRY
Rick A. Dry
Promoted At
Dry Division

Rick A. Dry has been promoted to assistant controller at Dry Manufacturing Division of Wallace Murray Corp. Hal Dry, vice president-general manager, has announced. Dry assumed his new duties Jan. 15.

Dry is a graduate of Winters High School and West Texas State University where he received his degree in business administration. For the past eight years he has been manager of data processing and accounting at the division.

Dry, his wife, the former Linda Tischler of Winters, daughter Tammy and son Christopher, make their home in the Winters area.

in 1964, and served as vice president for academic affairs for nine years. He is interested in mission work and has made four preaching tours through Asia, Africa and South America.

He has published a filmstrip on the restoration movement entitled "Back to the Bible" and one of Biblical archaeology called "Proof From the Past."

The public is invited to participate in this meeting, and urged to attend.

Livestock Assn. Meets Next Monday

A general meeting of the Winters Livestock Assn. will be held in the school vo-ag building, Monday, Jan. 28, at 7 p. m., B. J. Colburn, president, has announced.

Officers will be elected, and other business discussed.

All members have been urged to attend this important meeting, which follows a highly successful livestock show sponsored by the organization.

Tenants' Rights

A new law spells out tenants' rights—and landlords' duties—on repairs for rented apartments or houses.

Effective Sept. 1, 1979, the law gave tenants the right to force a landlord to repair damages or defects—after four steps have occurred:

1. Tenant gave landlord written notice of defect,
2. Tenant paid all rent due in full,
3. Defect or damage materially affects the tenant's physical health or safety, and
4. After a reasonable period of time, the landlord has failed to attempt repairs.

When all of these conditions are met, the law allows a tenant to either terminate the rental agreement—or file a law suit against the landlord, Claudia Kerbel explains. But, first, the tenant must give an additional seven

"Jaws" Fund Grows

The special fund started by the Winters Volunteer Firemen to purchase emergency rescue equipment has been built up to more than $400 by the first of this week, according to Mike Meyer, secretary-treasurer of the organization.

The firemen plan to purchase special equipment to be used in emergency situations, such as auto wrecks, to tear the auto bodies apart to rescue victims when necessary. The equipment, which most firemen have seen demonstrated, will cost about $6,000, it was understood.

This equipment is needed very much here, firemen and EMS personnel have pointed out. A few minutes saved in removing victims from wreckage can mean the difference in life or death, they reminded.

Contributing thus far to the fund have been:

Winters Funeral Home, Joe Bryan, Mac Oil Field Co., J. R. White, Marvin Seals, Hollis Dean, Scotty Belew, and the Runnels County Citizens Band Radio Assn.

Persons wishing to help in this worthwhile and vital project may leave contributions at The Winters State Bank, Winters Funeral Home or at The Enterprise office.

Turkey Meat Popular

Turkey meat isn't just consumed during the holidays anymore, according to a Texas A&M University poultry expert. Each American will eat more than 10 pounds of turkey meat throughout the next year, says Dr. Bernard J. Marquez.

Two major reasons contribute to the turkey's rising popularity. They're one of the most cost-efficient birds around, currently selling at an average of 69 cents a pound in Texas. Turkeys are also being used more extensively in processed meat products such as turkey ham, turkey wieners and turkey salami.

days notice, she says.

Ms. Kerbel is a consumer information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Tenants should realize, however, that this new law does not allow a tenant to withhold rent when a landlord fails to make repairs, Ms. Kerbel notes.

As long as the tenant lives on the premises, he must pay the full rental rate.

Also, if the damage or defect is insured, the landlord has no duty to start repairs until the insurance money arrives.

In addition, if damage or defect is the tenant's fault, his family's or guest's fault, the landlord has no duty to repair.

Landlords only have a duty to repair a condition caused by normal wear and tear—and which materially affects the tenants' physical health or safety.

Tenants must file a lawsuit in a county or district court—not a justice of the peace court.

So most tenants will need an attorney to represent them.

For more information on this subject, contact the local tenants' council or consult an attorney to know what rights you have.

Winters To Celebrate 90th Anniversary

Residents of Winters will celebrate the 90th birthday of the founding of the town, and also will celebrate the 100th birthday of Runnels County, with a special "Our Birthday Celebration," May 30 and 31, and June 1.

A special committee of the Winters Chamber of Commerce is now working out details for the celebration, which they hope will include "something for every one."

The celebration committee will be asking the many separate organizations in Winters to volunteer to take responsibility for certain phases of the celebration.

May 30-31 is not actually the anniversary of the founding of the town—that date has been misplaced in antiquity—but was the only combination of days available to the chamber birthday committee, it was explained.

The entire celebration will not be confined to Winters alone, it was pointed out, but other communities in North Runnels will be invited to participate, especially in the celebration of the county's birthdate.

No concrete details have been worked out as yet, committee spokesmen said, but the public will be kept alerted regarding plans. They explained that it would take everyone in the community to make this special celebration a success, and they are asking all organizations and individuals to step forward with their ideas.

Texas Ports Reporting Increases in Exports of Cotton

Cotton, once the undisputed king of traffic from Texas Gulf Coast ports, may be in the process of regaining its crown, according to Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown, with port authorities reporting recent dramatic increases in export activity there as the highest waterborne movement from the state in almost 10 years. "Large movements of cotton to the People's Republic of China are accounting for the bulk of export increases from Texas ports," Brown explained. This has been bolstered by the fact that cotton shippers have been switching in recent months from minibridge movement via the West Coast ports to the Gulf port facilities due to container shortages and West Coast port congestion."

The bulk of the cotton going out of the Gulf Coast ports, primarily from the bumper 5.7 million bale Texas crop, is being exported break-bulk instead of by containers.

Port of Galveston's expected shipment of more than two million bales by the end of the year puts the annual total there up sharply over 1978 while Corpus Christi officials report that their movement of more than 150,000 bales in 1979 is three times that of a year ago.

Figures available from Port of Houston authorities show nearly 491,000 bales shipped out through August, 1979, an increase of 38 percent over the same period a year earlier.

Mrs. Buck Matthews Died Last Friday

Mrs. Willis (Buck) Matthews, who with her husband, the late Buck Matthews, owned and operated the Triple J Grocery here for many years, died at 2:20 Friday in St. Paul Hospital in Dallas, following an illness of several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthews operated the grocery store on North Main, named to represent the first letter in each of their daughters' given names, until his death Feb. 7, 1972. Mrs. Matthews has continued to operate the store since her husband's death.

She was born Vera Lamar, Dec. 26, 1912 at Strawn. She later attended Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, and following her graduation, she taught school. She married Willis (Buck) Matthews April 24, 1934, at Miles. Following their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Matthews lived in Abilene, and then in 1936 moved to Winters.

Mrs. Matthews was a member of the First United Methodist Church.

Survivors include three daughters, Judy Starkey of Roanoke, Dr. Jane Wray of San Diego, Calif., and Jill Matthews of Austin; one grandson and two granddaughters.

Funeral services were held at 11 a. m. Tuesday in Winters Memorial Chapel with the Rev. Bob Holloway, pastor of the First United Methodist Church, officiating. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery under direction of Winters Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were Bueford Baldwin, M. M. Guy, Luther (Doc) Smith, Kenneth Cook, Johnny Wilson, Roy Young, H. M. Nichols and Ellis Wilson.
