Wait a minute...

By Kerry Craig

Kind of interesting about that Planning and Zoning Commission meeting last week. Not that they met, but the action they took to reject a zoning change to allow for a restaurant in a residential area.

Members of this commission have a responsibility to listen to neighboring property owners in this type of action as well as to do their own investigation.

One can find no fault with the way this commission functions or with its purpose.

When there are, in separate requests in separate meetings, similarities it would seem the commission would be consistent in their rulings.

With a request to re-zone a parcel in a residential area from residential to commercial, whether or not it is "legally non-conforming" for a specific use, and a number of neighbors oppose the change or favor the change it would seem obvious which the commission would rule.

The final approval, or disapproval, of such a change is normally comes from the city council.

Recently, several months ago, a request for a similar change, from residential to commercial was made for property on Heights Street, near the high school. A number of neighbors there appeared before the city council to voice their opposition to the change, but the change was granted anyway.

Last week the zoning change for East Truitt Street was rejected by the P&Z Commission because eight or nine neighbors voiced their opposition to the proposal.

Now wait a minute — If, in the City of Winters, we are to have zoned areas such as residential and commercial to keep businesses out of residential areas and vice-versa both the P&Z and the City Council should be consistent. It is Democratic, I would think, to let the majority rule. If you have eight neighbors in favor of a proposal and only two or three opposed it would seem probable the idea would be approved.

If eight or so neighbors are against a proposed change and only one or two for the proposed

Ballinger man held in San Angelo

A Ballinger man is being held in the San Angelo City Jail on charges of driving while license suspended and misdemeanor escape from custody following his arrest last Sunday by police officers there.

Kenneth Logan, 27, was arrested on a warrant issued in Ballinger alleging drunkenness and driving while license suspended.

Police Detective Captain Ralph Englert said that Logan, after be-

Wind damage

A heavy thunderstorm rumbled through western Runnels County last Thursday evening with strong winds, heavy rains, and some hail. This barn, or what is left of it belonged to Gilbert Smith and was on his place east of Wingate.

The winds also damages several other barns and blew down about one-half mile of power line leaving some homes without power for quite some time.

The winds appeared to have been straight winds and not a tornado and apparently were from the same storm that inflicted heavy damage a few hours earlier in Merkel.

City to study Water Plant

The Winters City Council will be meeting with an engineering firm in the near future to discuss the possibility of upgrading the present fresh-water treatment plant.

City Administrator Glenn Brown said that the present plant is operating at capacity at the present time and that during peak usage periods the plant was being pushed beyond its designed capability.

The study will outline the needs of the water plant and will make recommendations and price estimates for the upgrading of the plant.

Several engineering firms had already given tentative prices for the work and the council asked that Donald G. Rauschuber & Associates of Austin be asked to meet with the council in October to discuss the project.

The Rauschuber firm had given a price quote of approximately $6,000 for the study.

Mayor Lee Colburn noted that Donald Rauschuber was a former engineer for the firm that

Police checking abduction attempt

Winters Police officers are investigating the attempted abduction of a six-year old girl Monday afternoon.

Police reports indicated the child was asked by a man, described as having short hair and a mustache, to go into the Super D store to purchase him a package of cigarettes. When the child returned with the cigarettes, the man reportedly tried to get the girl into his vehicle.

The child then started screaming and the man fled when a shopper approached.

Police say that witnesses described the man's car as being a two-tone brown color, possibly a late model auto. Officers said, however, that the witnesses were apparently unable to obtain a license number from the vehicle when the man fled.

Police officials are urging parents to warn their children about talking with strangers or getting into a stranger's car. Officers also asked that anyone with information on the incident please contact the Winters Police Department as soon as possible.

Police spokesmen said that the investigation into the incident was underway.

WHS Open House Sunday

Special open house activities are set for Sunday afternoon in the newly-refurbished Winters High School building and the two gymnasiums. The $2.2 million project which began in May of 1982, was completed just prior to the start of the current school year.

The open house activities will begin at 2 p.m. in the high school auditorium with Dr. James Nevins as the featured speaker. The Blizzard Band will also perform during the program. The school facilities will be open to the public from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

During the program, former

Elementary School building hallway, it will not be part of the open house activities.

The WHS seniors who graduated in the spring of 1983 will receive special recognition during the open house. The Class of 1983 completed their final year in temporary classrooms in the Catholic Hall, the Vocational Ag Building, and the Elementary School building, but did not enter the High School building.

School officials extended a special invitation to all residents of Runnels County to attend the open house Sunday afternoon from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

teachers and administrators of the Winters Schools will be recognized and all former teachers and administrators as well as ex-WHS students are invited to attend the open house.

Refreshments will be served in the Home Economics Cottage where plans call for a number of items of historical interest concerning the Winters Schools will be on display.

Sewer Plant gets State OK

When the Winters City Council met in regular session Monday, council members found that an emergency item had been added to their agenda concerning the long-awaited approval from the Texas Department of Water Resources for a new waste water treatment facility for Winters.

Billy Jacob, of the engineering firm of Jacob & Martin of Abilene, said that the project which has been in the works for over five years received approval from the state agency earlier Monday.

The Department of Water Resources approval allows the City of Winters to advertise for bids on the project. Jacob recommended to the council that the bids be received by November 31 and submitted to the state agency for its approval.

The engineer told the council that the bid could possibly be let by late January, 1984.

Winters man falls 14 floors to death

Funeral services were held Wednesday in Winters for Gary R. Blake, 42, of Winters, who died Monday in a construction accident in Abilene.

Blake was working on the 20-story First State Bank building in Abilene when he apparently lost his balance and fell from the 14th floor. Co-workers said that Blake was removing an elevator brace when the accident occurred.

Workers said that he had been on top of the construction elevator car about 4:45 p.m., working to free a brace that holds the elevator shaft in place. Officials said that Blake and several co-workers normally got off work at 4:30 p.m., but were working overtime, trying to move a scaffold full of bricks from one floor to another.

The construction manager on the project said that in order for the mason's elevator carrying the bricks to move up the shaft, the brace had to be changed.

Blake was using a leverage tool to change the brace when he apparently lost his balance and fell.

Funeral Services for Gary R. Blake were held Wednesday in the Main Street Church of Christ in Winters with Bill Hooten, minister of the church, and Jim Roberts, a brother-in-law, from Princeton, New Jersey officiating.

Burial was on the Roberts Ranch.

Gary R. Blake was born May 3, 1941, in Terre Haute, Indiana and graduated from High School there before serving four years in the

Blizzards snow the Dragons 20-0

The Blizzards up their season record to two wins and one loss Friday night against Bangs. In a game which included 26 penalties (16 which was against Winters). The Blizzards still managed to get 265 yards of offense. Greg Guevara carried the ball 18 times for 127 yards and Ronnie Lujano carried 14 times for 91 yards to account for the largest part of the Blizzards offense.

Winters threatened to score twice in the first quarter but a fumble stopped one drive inside the 5 yard line and a penalty stopped. Late in the 2nd quarter the Blizzards went 60 yards for their first touchdown. Ronnie Lujano scored on all 11 yard run and Ronnie then kicked the extra point. Ronnie then scored again on a 5 yard run about midway through the third quarter and Ronnie kicked the extra point to make the score 14-0 at the end of the third quarter. Bangs got to the Blizzard 10 yard line on a 44 yard pass play, but the Blizzard defense pushed the Dragons back until they faced a 4th and 25. The Dragon's then tried a fake field goal but Don Kvapil made a crunching tackle to stop it. Greg Guevara scored the Blizzards last touch down on a 10 yard run to make the final score 20-0.

The Blizzards played another outstanding defensive game as they held Bangs to only 75 yards rushing and 65 yards passing. The defensive line of Don Kvapil, Jeff McDorman, Kevin Busher, Edward Rocha, Paul Trevino, and Barron Guy worked well together to keep Bang's offense under control all night.

The Blizzards open up District 9-AA play this Friday against Cisco. The Blizzards were pre-season picks to win the district and Cisco was picked to come in second. Both teams are 2-1 for the season and appear to be evenly matched. This game is the big game of the week in District 9-AA

Winters Schools now on the upgrade
 A.H. Smith was superintendent from 1924 until 1933. He was followed by E.D. Stringer who served for nine years, and R.V. Hardigree for two years. I.L. Lasater came in 1944.
 After its long absence, The Glacier made its reappearance. This first volume was dedicated to the men in service "So that we might have the privilege of going to school where we are, free to learn the truth and to use it to make this a better world, many Winters men and exes of Winters High School are fighting and dying on far flung battle fields. To them we humble and respectfully dedicate this, the 1945 edition of The Glacier."
 Floy Hood and Bernice Morton were faculty advisers to The Glacier staff. Fred C. Jennings was editor and Mord Tucker was business manager.
 C.N. Roth, Lutheran pastor, was acting director of the band which had 49 members. The pep squad leaders were Clara Nell Brian, Sue Hinds (head cheerleader), and Virginia Claire Smith. The Bizzard Club was organized in the spring to help build better teams by developing physical culture and mental alertness.
 Numerous school and social clubs sprang up all over the place. Melphomoneans, a literary club that assisted with all plays presented by the student body, was sponsored by Floy Hood. Other clubs and their presidents were Science Club, Boyd Bedford; Goal Diggers, Reba Jean Osborne; Sub-Debs, Dorothy Baldwin; Eskimoes, Weldon Smith; FFA, John Edward McAdoo; H.E. Club, Truma Lee Smith; American Government, W.J. Briley; and Student Council, Ladell Denton.

Primary building renovated as a school cafeteria. Completed in May 1955. Being centrally located makes it available for meals for all students. A seating capacity of 300, the has two serving counters and accomodates students and teachers.

A bevy of queens, sweethearts, and representative students now reigned supreme in many divisions. Mina Jean Wilson was school queen. The class queens were Maydell Henniger, senior; Virginia Claire Smith, junior and football sweetheart; Jean Barron, sophomore; and Doxie Lou Kornegay, freshman; Marianne Kendrick, FFA sweetheart; and Margaret Bredemeyer, band sweetheart. The title of most representative girl and boy went to Virginia Claire Smith Lynn W. Duncan.

The 1946 Glacier was dedicated to the memory of Robert Graham, a senior and one of the football boys who died from tetanus two weeks after school started. Lynn W. Duncan was editor and Jim McCartney business manager. Miss Hood and Miss Morton were sponsors.

The Blizzards got off to a good start in football with F.O. Nowell as coach and Neil McKlesky as assistant, but gave up their last chance at district to the Bearcats in a hard fought game. Duncan was exceptionally good on defense.

In contrast, the Blizzard basketball team started slow, but snapped out of it, after dropping the first game, and came on to win district, regional and went to state. The team had plenty of fight but were too small to compete with the strong Quitman team and lost, 49-33, in the state pay-off. Two men from Winters rated honorable mention for the all-state basketball team. They were Arnold Gene Baldwin, captain, and Clarence Wessels, center.

H.D. Thomas, band director, joined the faculty and the band now had 53 members. Barbara Nell Bratton, drum major, was assisted by Ira June Bramon, Jackie Briley, and Mary Burlene Rowland.

The Dramatics class under the direction of Miss Hood got off to a good start in 1945 with a group of one act plays and launched out with the production of Jane Eyre in 1946. Members also took part in the Senior play and other presentations.

This senior class was special to me as my daughter, Jearmine, was a member, also it had been my brother, Robert's, class. Teachers were difficult to find and I substituted several years in grade school for my cousin, Mattie Cooke, who was principal. I was now teaching American government, general math, and keeping study hall and library in High School.

This arrangement suited Jearmine and Dennis as riding with me kept them from being on the road an extra hour in the morning or evening, depending on the direction the one school bus for west of town was headed. Gasoline was rationed and it was convenient to have me around for band trips and football games. The trailer hitch on my car, for pulling cotton trailers, enabled me to carry a four wheel trailer loaded with seniors to the State Park for Senior day. The only way they could have managed and the boys and girls were most grateful.

School honors were carried by Nina Jean Wilson and Charles Baker as most representative girl boy. Emily Faye Chisum reigned as school queen and Ouita Baldwin was senior queen. The juniors chose Jerry Robertson; sophomore was Ira June Brannon; and freshman, Helen L. Smith. The sweethearts were Dorothy Moreland for football, Margaret for FFA, and Marianne Kendrick for band. Alternate queens were Jo Ann Mills, Betty Jean Underwood, and Miss Kendrick.

A number of new teachers joined the school staff in 1947. Omer R. Douglas came as principal. Willie Bell Cornett taught English and Earline Rodgers was speech and English teacher. Coaches were Bill Ellington and Bob Shelton. Those on the staff who remained were Mrs. Eva Kelly, social science; Mrs. C.S. Jackson, business administration; F.M. Larner, V.A.; Harold Thomas, band; and Bernice Morton, English. The High School annual was dedicated to Superintendent I.L. Lasater, "who had done much for our school since he came here and to show appreciation, to some extent, we dedicate this edition of The Glacier."

In 1948, The Glacier honored Coaches Bill Ellington and Bob Shelton for directing a splendid athletic program. A page of appreciation paid tribute to Bernice Morton for four years of faithfully guiding the annual staff.

An athletic association made up of business men for furthering the athletic program made its appearance for the first time members included J.S. Bourn, D.O. Gray, Roy Young, I.L. Lasater, H.L. Speer, and C.E. Sullivan.

A page of "Who's Who" also appeared in the annual listing the following students: La Nell Workman, Arnold Gene Baldwin, Barbara Davis, Von Rhea Frierson, Ila Fay Teague, Dickie London, Helen L. Smith, Lane Dixon, and LaVoy King. Ira June Bramon and Johnnie Wilson were representative boy and girl. A choral club and speech club were also organized.

In 1949, Bernice Morton was now Mrs. Bill Ellington and still sponsor of The Glacier. Dedication was to Omar R. Douglass, principal. Those on the "Who's Who" page were Lane Dixon, Betty June Wilson, Joline Baker, Dickie London, Dorothy Offerbach, Argene Hodge, Kay Young, and Paul Stoecker. Most representative boy and girl were Edward Bredemeyer and Helen L. Smith.

The Gale Staff was re-activated with Helen L. Smith as editor. Sponsors were Earline Rodgers and Mrs. George Poe. This was my last year at school. George and I both retired and moved to town that fall.

Due to their decreasing enrollment, eighteen common school districts had consolidated with the Winters School District by 1950. These schools were Valley Creek, Cochran, Victory, Drasco, Franklin, Mann, Independence, Mazeland, Poe, William Spring, Eagle Branch, Dale, Pumphrey, Baldwin, and portions of Bradshaw, Hatchell, and Crews.

The increased income enabled the school to begin an extensive building program. While the plans for the program were being developed, two temporary buildings were constructed by the W.M. Cameron Co. One of the buildings was used a short time as a band hall. The other building, used to accomodate overflowing classes, now remains on the school grounds and houses the primary and elementary music departments.

A bond election was held on October 27, 1952, and the people of the district approved the issuance of bonds for the school building program. Mr. Lasater left in the spring of 1953 and James B. Nevins assumed his duties as superintendent that fall and continued with the building program.

The McGuire Construction Company of Abilene was given the building contracts which provided for the construction of an elementary building, gymnasium, and field house, the renovation of the primary building for use as a cafeteria, and the reworking of the gym built in 1930. The entire building program was completed in February, 1955, at which time the buildings were inspected and approved.

Several other structures were built in addition to the main building program. Concrete tennis courts were completed in October. A V.A. show barn was also completed in 1955. It was constructed by the volunteer work of approximately 200 members of the school district. The barn, with its 6 acre farm plot, is used by FFA and 4-H club members.

EMGY DAT!

The world's longest heat wave—180 days with temperatures topping 100°F.—was recorded at Marble Bar, West Australia, during 1923-24.

People enjoying meals at fast food restaurants across the country are reporting a new phenomenon. Their cold drinks are staying colder...longer. The reason, according to the Society of the Plastics Industry, is the foam cup. Because it insulates better, it prevents ice from melting sooner, too.

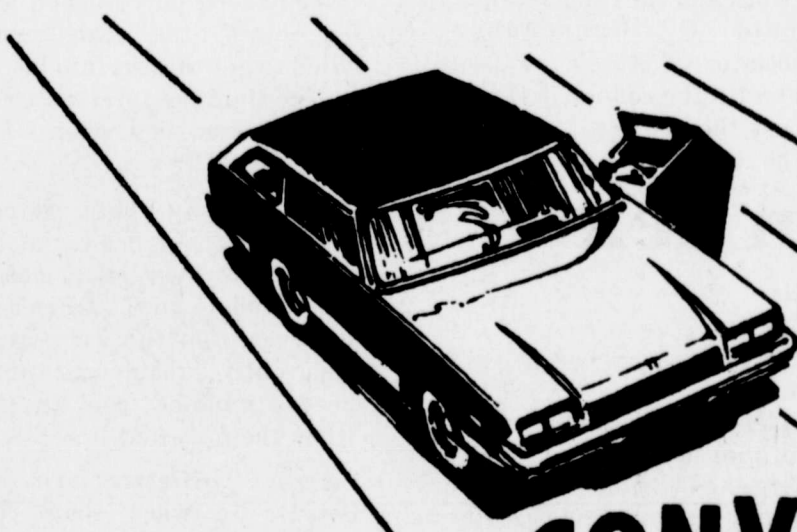

The oldest known song written in English is a ballad called Judas. A manuscript of this survives from the 13th century.

CAPITOL UPDATE

John Tower
U.S. SENATOR for TEXAS
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20510

Recently, many economists have greeted news about the state of our economy with surprise. I believe they may be surprised because the economic recovery is much stronger than expected.

Some economists had claimed that the economic recovery we are experiencing was below average, but the facts show this to be a normal, healthy recovery from a recession. Six months into the recovery, the rate of real Gross National Product growth is 5.6 percent — very close to the 6.3 percent average for all recoveries since 1960. Additionally, the most recent Department of Commerce figures show real GNP grew at an 8.7 percent annual pace in the second quarter of this year.

Statistics indicate a decline in the unemployment rate. The civilian unemployment rate in June stood at 10 percent, after peaking at 10.8 percent in December. At the same time, civilian employment increased 1.2 million in June, to 100.8 million Americans with jobs. This is more than the level of employment in November 1980. In June, employment increased in 67 percent of all U.S. companies — last fall this was true of only 29 percent.

In housing, the numbers continue to bear out the view that this is a normal recovery. Compared to the recession's lows, June's housing starts and building permits have more than doubled. Existing home sales for June were up 58 percent to the highest level of sales in 2½ years. In May, new home sales were up 94 percent.

Equally encouraging are the figures for the automobile industry. For mid-July, car sales ran almost 40 percent over last year's levels. Auto industry unemployment has fallen 11.6 percent since last November. General Motors alone has recalled 53,000 workers since January. In July, auto layoffs were at a 1½ year low.

There are other encouraging factors. In addition to the fact that our nation's factories are operating at their highest capacity in 16 months, perhaps the most encouraging indicator is the fact that consumers have joined the recovery.

Personal income was up in June. Real personal income has risen $31 billion higher than the level of August, 1982, when the recession began.

The large increases in income have occurred because more Americans are working. In the past six months, wages have increased $69 billion in annual terms. This compares to the last six months of 1982 when wages only increased $12 billion in annual terms.

With more income, consumer spending is up. Retail sales have increased four months in a row.

Net worth is also up. The real net worth of households has grown over 10 percent in the past year. This is the best one year gain in the postwar period.

The rate of inflation also indicates that this recovery is a normal, healthy one. Inflation was 13.1 and 12.4 percent during the last two years of the Carter Administration, but for all of 1982, the inflation rate was only 3.9 percent. This is particularly encouraging because inflation usually rises during a recovery.

The fact that inflation has not increased indicates that this is a lasting recovery.

As for the future, confidence is increasing that the economy will continue to recover. Over the past three months, the conference board's index of consumer expectations has been at the highest levels ever recorded. This index is a very good forecaster of future GNP growth. A recent poll by one of the most respected consumer polling organizations at the University of Michigan shows that favorable buy attitudes toward autos and houses are at all time highs. And, a recent National Federation of Independent Business survey found that 68 percent of the companies polled expected business to improve this year.

I believe, if Congress can continue to chip away at the federal deficit, then we will see our nation's economy become even more solid.

Mrs. Mark Todd Roe

Roxanne O'Dell, Mark Roe married Sept. 3rd.

United in marriage during a double ring ceremony on September 3 were Roxanne Ella O'Dell and Mark Todd Roe. The wedding took place at the Wingate Baptist Church at 4 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin C. O'Dell Sr. of Winters. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Roe of Abilene.

Rev. Charles L. Myers of Abilene, pastor of the Wingate Baptist Church, united the couple.

The church was decorated with two brass candelabras and an archway adorned with garlands of greenery.

Organ music was provided by Deonn Deaton of Winters. Sherry Kurtz was the soloist and sang "In the Eyes of Love," and the "Wedding Song."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of sheer polyester knit and Chantilly lace. The Queen Anne neckline was accented with pearls and sequins. Back lace flounces extended from the waist to form a chapel length train. She carried a cascade bouquet of white and apricot silk roses made by her mother.

Phyllis Bearden of Wingate, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Rebel Hancock of Winters and Mrs. Robert Englert of Norton.

Bridal attendants wore floor length dress of apricot and white gingham checks, accented at the waist by an apricot grosgrain ribbon. Each carried a nosegay of silk flowers.

Flower girls were Tristy Lee of Denver City and Mindy Stanfield of Cedar Creek, both cousins of the bride.

Serving as ringbearers were Aaron Roe and Victor Roe of Allen, nephews of the groom.

Candlelighters were Sherri Miller of El Paso, niece of the groom, and Marty Stanfield of Cedar Creek, cousin of the bride.

Charles Roe of Allen, brother of the groom, served as best man.

Groomsmen were Bobby Miller of El Paso, brother-in-law of the groom, and Franklin O'Dell Jr. of Lovelady, brother of the bride.

The groom wore a

Davidson Reunion held in Lubbock

The children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great-grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Davison (now deceased) of the Wilmeth Community met in Lubbock, Texas for a reunion the first.

The day was entitled Cousin's Day. Forty people registered. They came from the four corners of the United States, needless to say it was an enjoyable day.

Those present were Mozelle Davidson Hensley and husband Buck of Walnut Springs, Texas, their children, Louis Mozelle Williams of Freehold, New Jersey, Leldon Cherie, Dean and Shea of Odessa, Texas, Jane Ellen, Ted and Karen Magnese of Farwell, Texas with Mrs. Kim Spearman and children Tiffany and Todd of Midland, Texas; Mrs. Marion Hensley, Yvonne, and Neiland of Burleson, Texas; Lyman Buck (Corky) and Marion Hensley were unable to attend. Members present of Fred Davidson (now deceased) family were Mrs. Fred (Pearl) Davidson of Wilson, Texas, Fred Davidson, Jr. and wife Georgia of Gruver, Texas; with Misha Davidson Moore, her husband, Gordon, and son David of Goodwell, Oklahoma; Melinda Davidson Cline, her husband, Mike, and son Adam of Tyrone, Oklahoma. Also present were Mary Ann Davidson of Wilson, Texas, Mason Davidson and wife Dorothy and daughters Given and Gail of Abilene. Members of the Philip Davidson family present were Philip and wife Lamoine of Mesa, Arizona, Philip Davidson III and wife Barbara and son Philip IV of Tempe, Arizona; and Priscilla Davidson Richards of Ventura, California.

white tuxedo. Attendants wore off white western style tuxedos.

Guests were seated by Terry Bland of Ballinger, brother-in-law of the bride, Kevin Roe and David Caves both of San Angelo, cousins of the groom.

Receptionist was Sandra Bland of Ballinger, sister of the bride.

The wedding reception was held in the church Fellowship Hall.

Serving at the bride's table were Pat Spradling of Beaumont and Priscilla Stanfield of Cedar Creek, both cousins of the bride.

Serving at the groom's table were Tammy Roe, cousin of the groom, and Stephanie Miller of El Paso, sister of the groom.

A barbecue rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents in the Fellowship Hall.

NOTICE OF FILING

Notice is hereby given by West Texas Utilities Company (WTU) that on September 1, 1983, WTU filed with the Public Utility Commission of Texas (Commission) under Commission Substantive Rule 23.23 (052.02.03.033) (b) (2) - Rate Structure - a Petition to Set Interim and Final Fixed Fuel Factors. ## Texas Crime Victim's Clearinghouse

Governor Mark White announced this week that a $109,000 criminal justice division grant will finance the Texas Crime Victim's Clearinghouse operating as a new division in the Governor's Office.

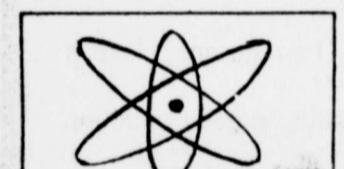

The clearinghouse will identify and coordinate crime victim assistance programs operating in Texas while concentrating on crimes against women. Suzanne McDaniel Willms, clearinghouse project coordinator, said the grant will fund one year's operation through August 1984.

In addition to providing training manuals and materials for those offering services to crime victims, the clearinghouse will publish a directory of such services and update that list in a quarterly newsletter. Its staff will hold regional workshops on the needs of crime victims for interested law enforcement agencies, prosecutor's offices and community service organizations.

Mrs. Willms said the clearinghouse hopes to have a toll-free telephone number operational by October to refer crime victims to available assistance programs.

For additional information, contact Suzanne McDaniel Willms at (512) 475-3021.

A report of educational progress in Winters public schools, 1955-56, was published and contains many pertinent facts. A that time the district area was 339 square miles with an assessed value of $13,400,000. About one-half of the Winters student body rode buses to school daily. Eleven regular routes covered 777.8 miles daily. There were 98 extra trips made in 1944-45 for football and all other activities.

The Winters schools employed 59 professional employees, teachers, principals, and a superintendent. All teachers had a Bachelor's degree and 38 percent (23) had master's degrees. The school also employed 5 custodians, 9 cafeteria employees, 11 bus drivers, a tax assessor-collector, 3 secretaries, and a maintenance and transportation supervisor.

In addition to Mr. Nevins, superintendent, Rodney Cathey was high school principal, C.C. Powell, elementary principal, and Mrs. Keva Russell, primary principal.

The board of trustees during construction days consisted of T.A. Smith, president; M.H. Wilson, vice president; Raymon Lloyd, secretary; W.H. Minzenmayer, James Glenn, Clarence Ledbetter, A.L. Mitchell, and J.B. Smith, business office.

Our schools were truly an important business.

Winters school district opens records

The Winters Independent School District maintains general educational records required by law. These records are available to parents and guardians and contain information concerning their child enrolled in this school. Until parental rights are legally terminated, each parent or guardian has access to the records unless the student is 18 years of age and no longer dependent. After that time, only the student has access to his records.

Parents, guardians, the student, and officials of the school district with legitimate educational interests are the only persons with general access to the records. The district also forwards education records on request to a school in which a student seeks or intends to enroll.

Certain other officials from various governmental agencies may have limited access to the records.

Some items of information are directory in nature and may be released to anyone, without consent, unless a parent or student objects to its release in writing within 10 days after the issuance of this notice. The following is directory information: a student's name, address, telephone number, date and place of birth, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, weight and height of members of athletic teams, dates of attendance, awards received in school, most recent previous school attended, and other similar information. Objections to release of any or all directory information should be directed to the principal.

Records may be reviewed during regular school hours.

The superintendent of schools is legal custodian of all records; however, a parent may usually review his child's records by contacting the school principal.

If, after reviewing the records, a parent or student believes that the contents include misleading or incorrect information, an informal hearing will be conducted to give that individual the right to challenge the record's contents. The principal should be contacted for this hearing.

After following the administrative procedures under Board policy, the parent, guardian, or student has the right to file a complaint if (s)he feels that the district is not in compliance with the law regarding student records.

Copies of all items in the records are available at a cost of $1.00, payable in advance.

Please contact the principal or superintendent if you have questions regarding this notice.

PUBLIC NOTICE

BRIEF EXPLANATORY STATEMENTS OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

SPECIAL ELECTION NOVEMBER 8, 1983

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 91 proposes a constitutional amendment which requires a county with a population of 30,000 or more to be divided into not less than four nor more than eight justice of the peace precincts. A county with a population of 18,000 or more but less than 30,000 shall be divided into not less than two nor more than five justice of the peace precincts. A county with a population of less than 18,000 shall be designated as a single justice of the peace precinct or, upon a finding of necessity by the commissioners court, shall be divided into more than one justice of the peace precinct but not more than four. The amendment provides further, that in any precinct in which there is a city with a population of 18,000 or more, two justices of the peace shall be elected. The amendment allows a justice of the peace, constable or commissioner to continue in office until the expiration of his term, although a change in precinct boundaries results in the officer no longer being a resident of the precinct for which he was elected or appointed and allows a justice of the peace or constable to continue in office until the expiration of his term even though a change in precinct boundaries results in the abolition of the precinct or more than one justice of the peace or constable serving the precinct. Vacancies in the office of justice of the peace or constable that result from a precinct boundary change shall be filled by the commissioners court until the next general election. The amendment would take effect on January 1, 1984, and counties with populations of less than 30,000 and with more than four justice of the peace and constable precincts would have until January 1, 1987 to comply with the amendment.

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 105 proposes a constitutional amendment which would limit a homestead in a city, town or village to a lot or lots amounting to not more than one acre of land, together with any improvements on the land. The constitutional requirement that, at the time of designation, an urban homestead not exceed ten thousand dollars in value without reference to the value of any improvements on the land would be eliminated. The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment replacing the limitation on the value of an urban homestead with a limitation based on size."

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 12 proposes a constitutional amendment that authorizes the Legislature to enact legislation providing for the use of the permanent school fund and income from the permanent school fund to guarantee bonds issued by school districts. The amendment provides, further, that the Legislature may appropriate part of the available school fund for administration of the permanent school fund or of a bond guarantee program established pursuant to the amendment.

PROPOSITION NO. 4 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 14 proposes a constitutional amendment that authorizes the Veterans' Land Board to provide for, issue, and sell general obligation bonds of the State of Texas in an amount not to exceed $800 million to provide financing to veterans of the state. The amendment requires that three hundred million dollars of the state bonds be dedicated to the Veterans' Land Fund. The Fund is to be used to purchase land to be sold to veterans under such terms, rules and regulations as may be authorized by law. The amendment creates the Veterans' Housing Assistance Fund and requires that $500 million of the state bonds authorized by the amendment be dedicated to the Fund. The Veterans' Housing Assistance Fund will be utilized by the Veterans' Land Board for the purpose of making home mortgage loans to veterans for housing within the state and for the administrative

4-H officers for upcoming year

The Runnels County Senior 4-H Club met on September 12, at 7:00 p.m. in the county Courthouse. Officers for the upcoming year were elected and the results were:

*President-Brenda Niehues,
*Vice-President-Craig Teplicek,

*Secretary-Treasurer-Caroline Niehues, and *Reporter-Heath Belk.

*Council Delegates-Karen Carter and Grant Teplicek.

*Organizational leaders for the club will be Todd and Bonnie Huckabee of Ballinger.

ity of the members present.

The amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing statutory provisions for succession of public office during disasters caused by enemy attack, and authorizing the suspension of certain constitutional rules relating to legislative procedure during those disasters or during immediate threat of enemy attack."

PROPOSITION NO. 5 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 12 proposes a constitutional amendment that authorizes the Legislature to enact legislation providing for the use of the permanent school fund and income from the permanent school fund to guarantee bonds issued by school districts. The amendment provides, further, that the Legislature may appropriate part of the available school fund for administration of the permanent school fund or of a bond guarantee program established pursuant to the amendment.

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 105 proposes a constitutional amendment which would limit a homestead in a city, town or village to a lot or lots amounting to not more than one acre of land, together with any improvements on the land. The constitutional requirement that, at the time of designation, an urban homestead not exceed ten thousand dollars in value without reference to the value of any improvements on the land would be eliminated. The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment replacing the limitation on the value of an urban homestead with a limitation based on size."

PROPOSITION NO. 7 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 14 proposes a constitutional amendment that authorizes the Veterans' Land Board to provide for, issue, and sell general obligation bonds of the State of Texas in an amount not to exceed $800 million to provide financing to veterans of the state. The amendment requires that three hundred million dollars of the state bonds be dedicated to the Veterans' Land Fund. The Fund is to be used to purchase land to be sold to veterans under such terms, rules and regulations as may be authorized by law. The amendment creates the Veterans' Housing Assistance Fund and requires that $500 million of the state bonds authorized by the amendment be dedicated to the Fund. The Veterans' Housing Assistance Fund will be utilized by the Veterans' Land Board for the purpose of making home mortgage loans to veterans for housing within the state and for the administrative

PROPOSITION NO. 8 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 13 proposes a constitutional amendment that would change the Board of Pardons and Paroles from a constitutional agency to a statutory agency and would eliminate the Governor's power to revoke paroles. The Legislature would be authorized to establish the Board of Pardons and Paroles and to require it to maintain records of its actions and the reasons for its actions. The amendment would empower the Legislature to enact parole laws. Constitutional language specifying the qualifications and terms of office for members of the Board of Pardons and Paroles is eliminated.

PROPOSITION NO. 9 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 70 proposes a constitutional amendment to authorize the Legislature to provide, by local or general law, a method by which judges of statutory courts with probate jurisdiction may be assigned to any other statutory court with probate jurisdiction and any constitutional court in any county in the state.

PROPOSITION NO. 10 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 17 proposes a constitutional amendment that authorizes the Legislature to enact laws which would allow a city or town to expend public funds to relocate or replace sanitation sewerage laterals on private property if done in conjunction with the replacement or relocation of sanitation sewer mains serving the property. The amendment requires that the law authorize the city or town to affix a lien on the private property, with the consent of the owner, to cover the costs of the replacement or relocation of the sewer laterals on the property. The lien may not be enforced until five years have expired since the date the lien was affixed. The amendment provides, further, that the law require that the costs of the replacement or relocation of the sewer laterals on private property be assessed against the property with repayment to be amortized over a period not to exceed five years and at an interest rate provided by law.

PROPOSITION NO. 11 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 13 proposes a constitutional amendment that would change the Board of Pardons and Paroles from a constitutional agency to a statutory agency and would eliminate the Governor's power to revoke paroles. The Legislature would be authorized to establish the Board of Pardons and Paroles and to require it to maintain records of its actions and the reasons for its actions. The amendment would empower the Legislature to enact parole laws. Constitutional language specifying the qualifications and terms of office for members of the Board of Pardons and Paroles is eliminated.

PROPOSITION NO. 12 ON THE BALLOT

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to change the Board of Pardons and Paroles from a constitutional agency to a statutory agency and to give the board power to revoke paroles."

These are the informal explanations about the amendments proposed to the constitution that appear in the ballot on the 8th of November of 1983. If you have not received a copy of the informal explanation in Spanish, please write to the Secretary of State, P.O. Box 12887, Austin, Texas 78711.

PRP office solves tax problems

Experiencing an uncomfortable feeling akin to indigestion regarding an unresolved tax problem? If you have already tried the normal IRS remedies to solve your problem, the tax agency suggests you try its Problem Resolution Program (PRP) office.

The most common problems brought to the PRP office are complaints about missing refunds, mixed up social security numbers, incorrect billings by IRS, and situations caused by taxpayer error, the IRS says. They cautioned, however, that the Problem Resolution should not be used as a substitute for normal procedures.

Although most taxpayers will never need the services of PRP, the IRS says that taxpayers with a persistent tax problem will find PRP willing and able to help. Taxpayers can contact PRP through the IRS assistance number listed in the phone book under U.S. Government.

Black joins A&M Extension Service

In an effort to streamline administrative operations, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service of the Texas A&M University System has named an associate director for fiscal and management affairs.

Dr. Delbert O. Black, who has served as personnel officer for the Extension Service for the past 10 years, has been named to the position, said Dr. Zerle L. Carpenter, Extension Service Director.

Black will provide administrative leadership and coordination of fiscal operations, personnel management, agricultural communications and computer services, Carpenter said. He will work closely with the associate director Doyle L. Moore to assure an effective interface between Extension programs and fiscal management components. He will also serve as administrative liaison to the Texas Rodent and Predatory Control Service.

"Dr. Black's years of Extension experience plus his professional expertise and understanding of Extension philosophy make him well qualified for the position of associate director,"

Carpenter noted. "He has performed admirably as personnel officer and also served effectively while 'filling-in' in several other administrative capacities, including that of state agricultural program leader."

Black joined the Extension Service in 1971 as a resource development specialist. He served as a poultryman with the Oklahoma Extension Service and was vice president of a turkey sales company in Oklahoma before coming to Texas.

A native of Ottawa County, Okla., Black holds B.S. and M.S. degrees in poultry science and an Ed.D. degree in educational administration from Oklahoma State University. He completed a training program developed by the National Project in Agricultural Communications and was involved in communications training workshops for Oklahoma Extension employees and other professional staffs.

Black is a member of numerous professional organizations and societies, including Epsilon Sigma Phi and Phi Delta Kappa. He received the Meritorious Service Award from Epsilon Sigma Phi last year.

Safety starts early

Most kids living in an agricultural community want to be involved in farm work, even if only as a means of earning pocket money. Farming parents expect to hear pleading from very young family members to help out, especially operation farm machinery.

At what age can these future farmers safely be allowed to become part of the action? Common sense tells us that preschoolers have no place in work areas or livestock enclosures except in the arms of a responsible adult. Assigning simple chores to early grade-schoolers is a good way to teach them responsibility and provide experiences that give them a feeling of satisfaction and accomplishment. At this age, children usually understand warnings and will comply if they are well-instructed. It is at the later stages that they may challenge your warnings, or develop feelings of immortality or immunity to danger.

At the junior high school stage, the desire to become fully involved may become acute. The parent now must make a judgment on the youth's ability to accept responsibility and follow direction, as well as match his or her size and strength to the job to be done.

When it comes to working off the home farm, the law steps in. No one under 16 years of age can be employed to drive a tractor nor perform a number of other hazardous farm and ranch jobs unless they have had specified training and certification. This training is available to 14 and 15 year olds in most rural communities, through the extension service or at high schools. The safety record of young people who have received training is better than that of those who have started working without instruction. (A few states have rules prohibiting the employment of youth below a certain age regardless of training or experience.)

A recent National Safety Council study of farm work accidents shows that workers under 24 years of age suffer a disproportionate number of severe and fatal accidents for their representation in the work force and exposure to hazards. The same study reveals that many accidents happen during the first few hours of use of a machine or a work activity.

All of this evidence points to the need for training and supervision of new workers. If farm safety training is not available in your community, urge your vocational agriculture teacher, county extension agent and other community leaders to establish this learning opportunity.

Increased foreign investment in U.S.

The Wall Street Journal's August 25, 1983 issue reported that foreign investments in U.S. companies increased $11.42 billion, or almost 13 percent, in 1982, to $101.84 billion at year end. Last year's increase followed a record rise of 32 percent, or $22.07 billion, in 1981, to $90.42 billion at that year's end.

6th Fiesta de la Paloma in Coleman

The Fiesta Committee of the Coleman Chamber of Commerce is happy to announce its 6th Annual Fiesta de la Paloma (Dove Festival) will be held on Saturday, September 24th at the Rodeo Grounds in Coleman. Hundreds of Coleman County citizens have rolled up their sleeves to see to it that "Fiesta time" is a special time of the year in the county.

One of the main attractions of the Fiesta will be the National Championship Dove Cook-off to be held that morning. Cash prizes of $900 will be presented to the top three chefs and a plaque and $100 will be given to the most unique cooksite. Last year, more than twenty contestants prepared their favorite dove recipes.

Other events during the day will be an art show, beauty pageant at which the Miss Fiesta is crowned with the traditional huge sombrero, flea market, arts and crafts booths, jeep rides, trap shooting contest, home foods exhibit and contest, commercial displays, horseshoe pitch, carnival and food and drink concessions.

There will be a dance on Saturday, September

24th, 'Bandana', a unique phenomenon in country music will be playing for this dance which will be held from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. in the open air pavilion. Cost will be $5.00 per person. This group writes and records its own material, plays on its own records, features two lead vocalists, two drummers, and has the musical ability to play everything from jazz to sophisticated funk, but "Bandana's" roots are firmly planted in country music. 'Bandana' is a new country breeze blowing out of the country music capital of the world, Nashville, Tennessee. 'Bandana' will play for a free matinee under the big top tent at 5:30 p.m. for all to enjoy.

The fun lasts all day long and there is no gate admission fee for anyone. If you have any questions concerning the Fiesta, contact the Coleman Chamber of Commerce office, 516 Commercial, P.O. Box 796, Coleman, Texas 76834. Or Call: 915/625-2329. The Chamber of Commerce is proud of the Fiesta and is sending a cordial invitation to everyone to spend Saturday, September 24th, with them to enjoy the sixth annual "Fiesta de la Paloma."

L & S club meets to preview year-books

Artistically hand-decorated place cards marked places of each guest when members of the Literary and Service Club held its first meeting of the Club year at Simply Taylor's restaurant in Ballinger on the evening of Thursday, September 16. The club president, Mrs. Martin Middlebrook gave a cordial welcome to the 17 members present.

Following the dinner, the president turned the meeting to Mrs. Charles Kruse, Jr., year book committee chairman, who distributed the new, very attractive and unique year-books which had been compiled by Mrs. Robert Pruser, also a member of the year-book committee. As Mrs. Kruse called attention to each program, she also complimented Mrs. Pruser for the very interesting art work on each page. Worthwhile programs have been chosen for each meeting of the year.

Mrs. Middlebrook announced the Fall Board meeting of the District Federation of Clubs which is to be held at Robert Lee on Saturday, October 15; and urged the members to attend.

A parliamentary drill was conducted by Mrs.

Wayne Sims with the assistance of several of the club members. Mrs. E.E. Thormeyer gave the Federation Counselor's report.

At a called meeting at the home of the club president, a week prior to the first regular meeting, the club members voted to sponsor the new "Total Teen" organization of high school girls; and to attend the first meeting at the home of Mrs. Robert Pruser on the second Monday in October. Members were also reminded of the Annual Turkey Dinner which will be held on the night of October 28 in the School Cafeteria, just preceding the annual Homecoming Football Game this year to be played by the Blizzards vs. Baird football teams.

Club members who attended the dinner meeting at 'Simply Taylor's' included: Mrs. J.N. Clark Sr., Mrs. Michael Conner, Mrs. R.E. Dorsett, Mrs. Calvin Helm, Mrs. Joe Irvin, Mrs. Melton Kennedy, Mrs. Charles Kruse Jr., Mrs. R.B. Leathers, Mrs. Elo Michaelis, Mrs. Middlebrook, Mrs. Pruser, Mrs. Sims, Mrs. Jake Smith, Mrs. Barry Sullivan, Mrs. Thormeyer, Mrs. J.S. Tierce and Mrs. Hudon White.

Cattlemen's Round-Up collecting cattle

Trailers are fanning out throughout Texas picking up cattle and other livestock for the 24th Cattlemen's Round-Up for Crippled Children.

Jim Alexander of Abilene, general chairman of the Cattlemen's Round-Up, stated the time is now for a great deal of worry and concern. The drought has been broken in some spots but is still very distinct in other segments of Texas and the Southwest.

say he hoped that stockmen throughout the state will realize how important their sharing of their livestock for the Cattlemen's Round-Up for Crippled Children is this year.

Cattle previously pledged are being picked

Cotton growers control destiny

Texas cotton growers have an opportunity to control their own destiny as far as the 1984 cotton program is concerned.

Several provisions of the program are still "up in the air," and farmers have until October 4 to offer suggestions and comments. At stake is next year's cotton production and its ultimate influence on market prices.

"A number of provisions that will bear heavily on the market supply-demand relationship next year are still unresolved," says Dr. Carl Anderson, economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. "So, farmer input is needed to enable policy makers to make better-informed decisions."

He points out that comments from growers and others in the cotton industry are needed on the following:

*Whether or not USDA should establish an acreage reduction program and at what level.

*The appropriate national program acreage and voluntary reduction percentage if no acreage reduction program is announced.

*Whether or not USDA should establish a paid land diversion program, the percentage of diversion and level of payment.

*Whether or not here should be a PIK program and the provisions of such a program.

*Whether or not to require offsetting compliances if an acreage reduction program is established.

*Methods for determining 1984 crop acreage bases for upland cotton.

*The base loan rate for upland cotton will be determined by statutory formula according to domestic and world price data.

*The '84 target price is currently set at a minimum of 81 cents per pound by the 1981 farm bill.

Persons should send their comments on provisions of the 1984 cotton program to Director, Analysis Division, USDA-ASCS, Room 3741-S, P.O.

Box 2415, Washington, D.C. 20013.

"Next year's cotton program will influence cotton production in the U.S., thereby affecting supplies and consequently the market price," notes Anderson. "A crop that would exceed domestic and export usage--normally 11 to 12 million bales--would add to carry over stocks and weaken prices."

The economist contends that an acreage reduction program is in order to keep cotton supplies in line. "Based on average yields of a little more than a bale per acre over the past three year, around 11 million acres of cotton would adequately supply market needs. This means that our base acreage of upland cotton, which stands at more than 15 million acres, would need to be reduced accordingly," says Anderson.

"'Tis not a lip, or eye, we beauty call, but the joint force and full result of all," Alexander Pope

Blackwell

By Savannah Thompson

The United Methodist Women of the Blackwell United Methodist Church met Monday afternoon, September 12 in the home of Mrs. Mary Louise Alderman with nine members attending. Mrs. Alderman served as hostess. Winnie Oden (President) presided for the meeting and called the meeting to order with all holding hands and saying "A Silent Prayer" for the Conditions of the Council meeting of the community and the town and then Fern voiced the last part of the Closing Prayer.

A business session was held at which time the reading of the minutes of the last meeting were read and stood approved as read and then the Treasurers report was given.

November 19 was the date set for the Bazaar. Winnie Oden then adjourned the meeting and turned the program to Savannah Thompson, which was entitled "The Things That Make For Peace."

The closing prayer was the prayer (in unison The United Nations Prayer) which was at the close of the program.

A refreshment plate was served to those attending. Mmes. Winnie Oden, Ida Oden, Fern English, Savannah Thompson, Juanita McRorey, Darlene Pate, Emma Lee Lanier, and Inez Tucker.

The next meeting will be September 26 in the home of Darlene Pate and Mrs. Laura Seale will give "A Special Program" and Darlene will be hostess.

The Women's Missionary Union of the Blackwell First Baptist Church did not meet Thursday, September 8 due to the funeral of Rupert Clarence Rhynes, father of the Rev. Henry Rhynes, pastor of the Blackwell Baptist Church. Blackwell had a good shower last Tuesday and another better one on Wednesday and a bad thunderstorm Thursday night, but only a good shower and really do need lots more.

The Senior Citizens of Blackwell met Tuesday morning at 10:30 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall of the Blackwell United Methodist Church with 29 attending for their day of games, visiting, and with a covered dish luncheon at noon.

Mr. Ben Murray from Oak Creek Lake gave the Invocation for the luncheon.

Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Herman Seale, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Strickland, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ware, Mr. and Mrs. Olin Corley, Mr. and Mrs. Kay Corley, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Noble, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Jones, Oak Creek Lake and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Murray also from Oak Creek Lake and Mr. Sam Sisson from Bronte, and Mmes. Willie Burwick, Eula Nabors, Thelma Smith, Margaret Stout, Florene Van Zandt, Juanita McRorey, Josie Craig, Ida Oden, Ninnie Kinard, Savannah Thompson and Miss Bertha Smith.

A card was signed by all those attending to send to Bro. Rhynes (pastor of the Blackwell Baptist Church) whose father, Ruppert Clarence Rhynes, age 74, was buried last Thursday, September 8.

Mr. Rhynes of Trent passed away Tuesday, September 6 in the Sweetwater Hospital after an extended illness. Services were at 2 p.m. at Starbuck Funeral Chapel with burial in the Rose Hill Cemetery in Merkel.

And another card was signed by the group to send to W.T. Hagler of Oak Creek Lake who had major surgery at Hendricks Hospital in Abilene Monday morning. Also another cards signed went to Mrs. Grady Patterson who is a patient in the Scott and White Hospital in Temple, Tuesday morning she had major surgery.

The Seniors meet each second Tuesday of each month for their games, Fun Day, and luncheon, so all seniors of Blackwell are invited to bring a covered dish and enjoy the day of games and visiting with us.

Mr. and Mrs. R.E. Shewmake had as their visitors last Monday and Tuesday, his sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Struder from Lubbock. This was their first visit to Blackwell and they really did like our city.

The Women's Missionary Union of Blackwell Baptist Church did not meet again this Thursday due to the Funerals of Oxford Raney of Bronte and Mrs. Stella Jackson of Abilene, mother of Mrs. Cecil Smith which was at Shep.

Blackwell already has a good crowd so so many have come for the "Blackwell Home-Coming."

Mrs. Stella Brannon Jackson of Abilene, 77, mother of Mrs. Cecil Lewis Smith of Blackwell passed away at 6:35 p.m. Tuesday in her home after an extended illness.

Services were held at 2:30 p.m. Thursday at Caps Baptist Church. The Rev. Jenneth Jones, Pastor and the Rev. E.V. Brooks, Baptist Minister officiated.

Burial was in the Shep Cemetery directed by Elliott-Hamil Funeral Home of Abilene.

She was born September 27, 1905 in Rucker, she married R.L. Jackson on November 24, 1923 in Ballinger. They lived in Wingate, Shep and Caps before moving to Abilene in December 1982. She was employed by T.S. Lanksford Clothing for 20 years, retiring in 1971. She was a member of the Caps Baptist Church for 35 years.

Survivors include: her husband; three daughters, Mrs. Jim Jordan of Midland, Mrs. Van Brown of Big Springs, and Mrs. Cecil Smith of Blackwell; three brothers, Bob of Big Springs, Floy of Granbury, and Roy Brannon of Fort Worth; three sisters, Mrs. Cecil Self and Mrs. Fred Lawrence both of Wingate and Mrs. Fred Helm of Granbury; seven grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Refresher course flight instructors

The Texas Aeronautics Commission (TAC) will sponsor a flight instructor recertification and refresher course Sept. 30-Oct. 2 (Friday through Sunday) at the University Inn, South Bryant at Jackson, in San Angelo. Class on the first day begins at 8 a.m.

The three-day course will be conducted by Texas A&M University personnel in cooperation with the Federal Aviation Administration. A $35 registration fee payable to the Texas Aeronautics Commission covers all texts and materials. The TAC will make refunds only if notified before September 29.

Developed by Texas A&M's Engineering Extension Service, the clinic is recommended for certified flight instructors seeking renewal of their certificates, commercial pilots working toward flight instructor ratings, and teachers of aeronautical subjects. A select staff of professors and leaders in aviation education will present the material.

A flight instructor certificate will all ratings will be revalidated upon successful completion of this course, provided the certificate is current (expiration date within two years). If the certificate has expired, a check ride with a local FAA General Aviation District Office will be required.

Room reservations in San Angelo should be made through the TAC.

Talpa

By Maggie Ruth Stokes

We had scattered rains in Talpa on Sunday and Monday. We had 1 1/2 inches in all at our house. We hope everyone gets rain soon.

Brian Stokes, our grandson, spent the weekend with us. He's in college at T.S.T.I. in Sweetwater.

Edgar and Loy Whitley of Coleman, Horace and I spent Thursday until Saturday at Lake Buchanan, Paradise Point. We failed to catch fish but enjoyed our trip.

Non-profit clubs tax exempt

Many non-profit civic and social welfare organizations can have their tax exempt status recognized by the Internal Revenue Service by filing an application for recognition with the IRS. The IRS says that an organization with subordinate chapters can apply for a group exemption letter, rather than having each affiliate apply.

Allen and Kay Mills honored in Mills Co.

Four Mills County citizens were recognized for community service at the annual Chamber of Commerce Banquet, Tuesday, September 13.

Thurman and Sybil Head were presented "Outstanding Citizen" awards by Chamber awards Chairman and incoming president, Truett Aldridge. They were recipients of the over 35 category.

Allen and Kay Mills were named "Outstanding Citizen" in the under 35 category.

Allen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Mills of Winters. Mrs. Mills, formerly Kay Jacob is a native of Ballinger. She is the daughter of Mrs. Otis Jacob of Ballinger. They have two daughters, Kyla, 9 and Sheri, 11.

Allen and Kay's community services included being Chairman of the United Way Foundation, members of the Lions Club, and other civic organizations. Kay teaches school in Mills County School District.

The presentations were the highlight of the Banquet. Over 300 Chamber supporters were in attendance.

Speaker for the event was State Representative Stan Schlueter and Borden Sauer, of Lone Star Gas Co., provided the entertainment.

New officers and directors were introduced. Layton Black was master of ceremonies for the Banquet.

John Magee retires from Exxon

John D. Magee retired from Exxon Company, U.S.A. on September 1 with 32 years of service.

He was assigned as maintenance specialist in the Bronte-Ft. Chadbourne area, Midland District, Midcontinent Production Division.

In 1951, he joined the Company as a roustabout in Anahuac in the Gulf Coast area. Subsequent Production field assignments were in Port Acres and in 1956 he transferred to Bronte-Ft. Chadbourne area.

His hometown is Dublin. Retirement plans for Mr. and Mrs. Magee are to continue making their home at 300 Roselane, Winters.

A dinner is planned in his honor in the near future. At that time he will receive retirement awards.

Rural mailboxes get uplift

All rural routes in the Winters and Wingate delivery area are being inspected during the month of September. The rural mailboxes are inspected to see if they meet the official standards listed on the sample Form 4056.

Many customers do not currently have their box numbers on their mailboxes. The customer's name is no longer required, but the box number must be on the box.

Mailboxes that are maintained by the Highway Department will be taken care of by them. There is no need for these people to call.

Pm's McDorman and Hurt would like to ask all the customers who receive their mail on a rural route to please look over the checklist, check their mailbox to see if it meets all the requirements, and make any necessary corrections. Your cooperation will be appreciated.

First Baptist plans revival

Dr. Kenneth Hall, pastor of Crestview Baptist Church in Midland, will preach for the First Baptist revival beginning Sunday. Services will be held Monday through Thursday at 12 noon and at 7:30 p.m. Sunday services will be at 10 a.m. and 6 p.m.

Dr. Hall pastored churches at Stephenville and Gatesville before going to Midland in 1980.

He graduated from High School in Shreveport, Louisiana, Tyler Junior College and Texas Eastern University. Other degrees include both his Master of Divinity and doctorate at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary at Fort Worth. He has written for Baptist publications.

Dr. and Mrs. Hall have two children: Kevin Lane, 10, and Kaye Lea, 6.

David Speegle, minister of music and youth at First Baptist Church since June, will direct the music. Mr. Speegle came to Winters from the Fannin Terrace Baptist Church in Midland. He served in churches at Corpus Christi and Roanoke. He was summer music worker in 1978 for the Baptist General Convention of Texas.

A graduate of Andrews High School, Mr. Speegle finished Del Mar Junior College, and Texas A&M University, both at Corpus Christi, before receiving his Master of Music Degree from Southwestern Seminary. He received many honors in the field of music and was president of the Southwestern Singers.

"Church of Loyalty Night" is designated for Monday with Carl Grenwelle as chairman. Chairman of other committees are: Susan Conner, Youth; Jack Pierce, adult; Mrs. Lee Harrison, children; and Nadeen Smith, telephone.

The weekday noon service will be held in Fellowship Hall and will include a covered dish luncheon.

Pastor Glenn Shoemaker urges all members to attend and cordially invites visitors.

Rites held for Jesse Tamez

Jesse Reyes Tamez, 55, of Rotan died Monday at his home.

He was born in Yorktown on June 17, 1928. He moved to Victoria in 1938, then on to Runge in 1957 and Eola in 1968. Moving to Rotan in 1971, he worked on a farm most of his life.

The deceased was a member of the Catholic Church.

Rosary was said at 8:00 p.m., Thursday, September 15, in the Winters Memorial Chapel. Funeral was held Friday, September 16, at 10:30 a.m. in the Mt. Carmel Catholic Church with Father John Hoorman officiating. Burial was in the Wingate Cemetery under the direction of the Winters Funeral Home.

Survivors include: three brothers, Lupe, Joe, and George, all of Rotan; and three sisters, Natalia Gomez of Wingate, Rosa Sarsosa and Janie Sarsosa of San Angelo.

designed to face backwards. When a child weighs between 20 and 40 pounds can sit up, he or she would graduate to a forward-facing car seat. Some child safety seats are convertible and can be used for both infants and toddlers.

"When you select a child safety seat," she said, "look for a label certifying that it meets Federal Motor Vehicle Standard No. 213. The label or literature should state that the device has been dynamically crash-tested. Be sure that the seat is suited to your child's size and personality and that it fits your car."

T.D. Smith acquires controlling interest

The controlling interest in the LaMarque United Bank, LaMarque, Texas, has been purchased by a group of investors, T.D. Smith, Bob Fairchilds, and Firmin LePori, Jr. LaMarque United Bank reports assets of $9 million dollars.

Thomas "T.D." Smith, a practicing attorney with Smith and Lamm, is a native of Winters. He attended the University of Texas as an undergraduate and received his law degree from the University of Houston.

Smith, in addition to being a principle in the LaMarque bank, is Chairman of the Board of Northshore Bancshares, Inc., a holding company with consolidated assets of $68 million and an average annual growth rate from 1977-1982 of 16 percent.

Other interests of Smith include the Northshore Bank of Houston with total assets of $56 million, and the First National Bank of Crosby, with assets in excess of $12 million. Smith and Fairchilds serve as Co-Chairmen of the Board of all three Houston area banks.

Hughes said there are various types of safety seats. The infant car carrier is designed for babies less than a year old who weigh less than 20 pounds. It is a plastic shell with a built-in harness

Runnels County receives State funds for roads

Texas Treasurer Ann Richards this week is sending checks totaling $7.3 million in grants to the state's 254 counties for road construction and maintenance projects.

Runnels County's check is in the amount of $26,184.85. The amount allocated each county under a formula based on the county's area, rural population, and lateral road mileage.

In the 19-county Big Country area the checks total $392,000. Coleman County is receiving $27,158, Coke County $13,481, Concho County $15,553, Nolan County $18,684, and Taylor County $28,013.

The State Treasurer each year disburses money appropriated by the legislature for the Lateral Road Program. The grants may be used by counties for the purchase of right-of-way and for construction and maintenance of lateral roads, farm-to-market roads or state highways.

Department of Health schedules hearings

Public hearings are scheduled by the Texas Department of Health in five cities to receive comments on a new law relating to the administration of medications in convalescent homes.

The new law established fees for the issuance and renewal of permits to administer medication by non-licensed persons referred to as medication aides. It also provides for the establishment of minimum requirements for the issuance, denial, renewal, suspension, emergency suspension, and revocation of a permit to administer medications to a resident of an institution.

The Texas Department of Health has developed proposed rules in accordance with the new law. Public open hearings on the new proposed rules will be held in the following locations:

*LUBBOCK: Friday, September 16, 1 p.m.,

Garden Arts Center, 4215 University;

*AUSTIN: Thursday, September 22, 10 a.m., Board Room No. 164, Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation, 909 West 45th Street;

*ARLINGTON: Friday, September 23, 10 a.m., Music Room, Arlington Community Center, 2800 South Center St.;

*HOUSTON: Monday, September 26, 10 a.m., Houston/Galveston Area Council, 3701 West Alabama St.; and *CORPUS CHRISTI: Wednesday, September 28, 10 a.m., Conference Room, Mercantile National Bank, 421 Ayers.

In addition to the public hearings, any person of the state may obtain a copy of the proposed rules and/or submit written comments to: Howard C. Allen, Acting Chief, Bureau of Long Term Care, Texas Department of Health, 1100 W. 49th St., Austin, Tx 78756.

Home computers help household management

"When it comes to household management, a home computer is just another appliance," says home economist Bonnie Piernot.

"A home computer can assist in keeping household records of checks, mailing addresses, telephone numbers, special days and appointments. It can also maintain an accurate inventory of household goods or the stamps in your collection," she explains.

"But a computer will not make you a good record-keeper," says Piernot, who specializes in family resource management for Texas A&M University's Agricultural Extension Service. "Unless good household records are available, you will have nothing to put into the machine."

"The computer simply organizes, retrieves and presents the information you give it in a useful form. Poor record-keepers who are looking for a way to organize their lives might be better off learning to use a simple paper and pencil system than investing in a home computer," says the specialist.

Home computers can also assist in financial decision-making. Financial modeling programs allow the household to do a cost-benefit analysis of large investments such as a home or car, rather than guessing at the financial consequences of a purchase decision.

Programs that allow consumers to figure the cost of loans at variable interest rates and over different periods of time may be especially useful she says. For families with well-planned budgets, electronic spread sheet programs allow them to forecast the impact of a purchase on their budget.

Some computer programs will even help families compare their spending to that of families in similar circumstances. "But the computer can't tell you how to budget," she adds, "since budgeting decisions rest on the family's value system and priorities."

Many public education agencies, including county Extension offices, now have financial decision-making and budgeting programs they will run for residents on their computer system at little or no cost. Unless a family has an ongoing need for financial analysis, they might take advantage of such services rather than purchase a computer.

According to Piernot, computer software is also available for monitoring household appliances. A security system, energy control and fire alarm can be controlled by computer. Other programs are available to improve diet and fitness by monitoring the nutritional value of foods eaten, analyzing health risk factors and even teaching exercises.

"Although a home computer can do a variety of household management tasks, its purchase price may not be warranted if used for that alone," states the specialist. But multiple functions such as providing educational programs and games for children, use in a family business, for farm and ranch management, or performing job tasks at home, may justify the investment.

Consumers should also recognize that unlike other household appliances, the major cost will not stop with purchase of the machine, cautions Piernot. "You can expect to invest many more dollars in software to run a computer than in the computer itself," she notes.

Social security in Winters

John Willis, representative of the San Angelo Social Security Office, has scheduled his October visit to Winters. He will be at the Housing Project Office on Monday, October 24th between 9:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m.

Anyone who wants to file a claim for benefits, get information, or transact other business with the Social Security Administration may contact him at this time.

Band Boosters meeting held

Winters Band Boosters met Monday, September 12th, at 6 p.m. Present for the meeting were: Mary Jane Blurkshear, Jackie Murry, Marthiel Russell, Nancy Bryan, Lorene Halfman, Janice Prusser, and Mr. and Mrs. Bailey McAnulty.

Mr. McAnulty, band director, reported 84 high school band members, 55 sixth and seventh grade members, and 45 fifth grade band members.

Members of the band will be selling individual band booster membership cards for $3 each and band boosters will be selling business membership cards for $5 each.

Winters Band Boosters will meet again, for their regular first Monday of the month meeting on October 3, at 6 p.m., at the Blizzard Band Hall, urging all parents to attend.

Gambling losses are deductions

From a tax standpoint, cash winnings from lotteries, races, games of chance, and raffles are viewed as income on the federal tax return, the Internal Revenue Service says.

Similarly, contest prize money and awards from employers are also considered as taxable income by the IRS and must be reported.

The IRS adds that property items won in contests or donated by employers, such as household appliances, all-expense-paid vacations, or cars must also be included in income at fair market value. Both cash and non-cash winnings are shown on Form 1040 as "Other Income."

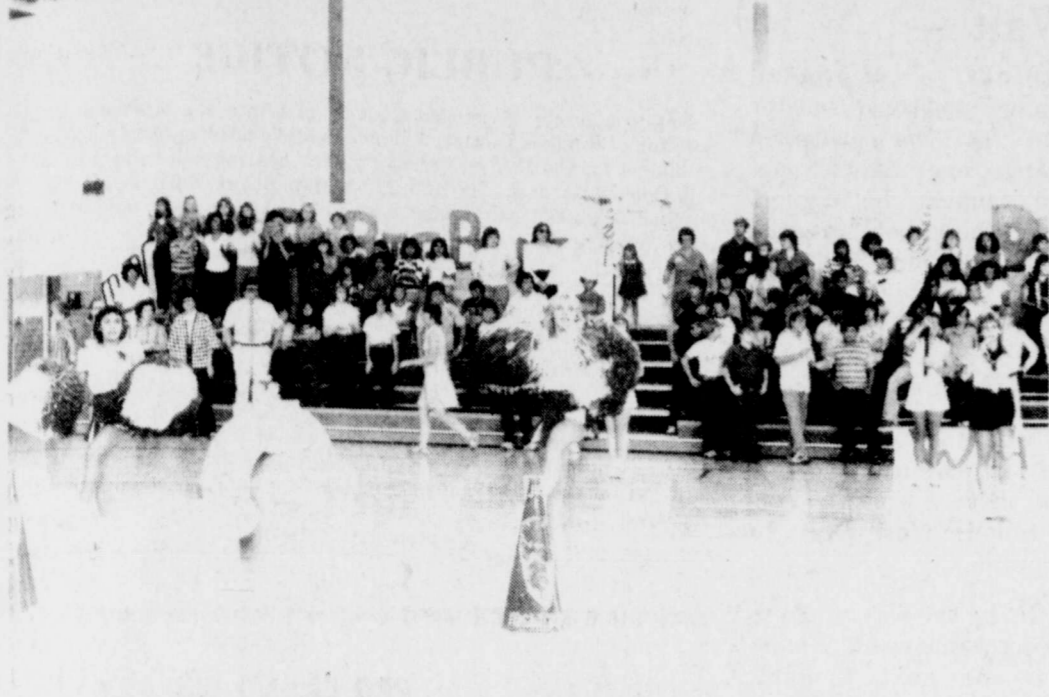

The IRS notes that gambling losses may be deducted to the extent of the winnings if deductions are itemized.

October deadline for Form 941

October 31 is the date by which employers must report on Form 941 social security and withheld federal income taxes for the third quarter of 1983 and pay any taxes due, the Internal Revenue Service says.

This deadline does not apply to those employers who make timely deposits of the full amount of tax due in Federal Reserve or approved commercial banks. They are allowed until November 10 to file Form 941, "Employer's Quarterly Federal Tax Return."

If employers have not received Form 941 by mail, they can order one through the Forms/Tax Information number listed in the phone book under U.S. Government. IRS Publication 15, Circular E-Employer's Tax Guide, is also available through this number.

Tax rebate checks here

State Comptroller Bob Bullock has sent checks totaling $41.1 million in local sales tax payments to the 974 Texas cities that levy the one-percent city sales tax.

"Last September, we were reporting the biggest allocation based on a single month's tax collections in the history of our state," Bullock said. "This month, with sales tax receipts running about one percent behind last year, shows us just how fast things can change."

In Runnels County, Winters was the only city that reflected the statewide trend with a decrease of almost two percent. Ballinger showed an increase of 7.10 percent and Miles with 42.62 percent increase.

Winters' check totaled $4,615.67. For the same period last year, Winters received $5,490.28. So far this year Winters has received a total of $91,970.21 in sales tax rebates.

Ballinger received a check totaling $6,419.61, down from the $10,653.67 cents last year. The total for Ballinger this year is $249,898.43.

The City of Miles continues to show increases in retail sales has received a total of $10,434.98 this year compared with $7,316.75 for the first eight months of 1982.

The checks received represented sales made in July and reported to the State Comptroller by the end of August.

CARD OF THANKS

Thanks to the many who helped to lessen our sorrow at the loss of our loved one, Merion A. Jackson. Your prayers, visits, calls, memorials, food, and floral tributes were greatly appreciated.

We extend a special 'Thank you' to Brother Ricky Foster of the First Baptist Church of Tuscola for his comforting message.

May God bless each of you.

PRO BRAND WHEAT 817

Northrup King's PRO Brand Wheat 817 is a medium maturity Hard Red Winter Wheat. It is resistant to leaf and stem rust. Moderately susceptible to soil borne mosaic virus. 817 has resistance to Hessian fly biotypes commonly found in the Great Plains region. This allows planting prior to fly free dates. One of the best winter hardy semi-dwarf wheats available that also has excellent stem and leaf rust resistance. 817 has better winter survival than Vona. Much better lodging resistance when grown under good growing conditions than taller varieties such Centurk.

PCNB Terra-Coat® LT-2* seed treatment has been applied to 817 Wheat seed at 2 oz./bu. This fungicide is designed to control common smut or bunt plus damping off by Rhizoctonia. (*Registered trademark of Olin Corporation.)

Escape —

McCloud said that company officials said that the pickup had been locked in the company compound Friday evening and that the office had been locked.

Sheriff's officers said that charges of unauthorized use of a motor vehicle and burglary of a building were being prepared against the Logan and that after the San Angelo charges against him were resolved he would be transferred to the Tom Green County Jail.

Further investigation by sheriff's officers revealed that about $350 cash had been taken from an office drawer at the well servicing company along with two Orbit valves and a clock-radio. The detective said the valves were valued at about $3,000 each and that only one was found in the pickup.

Fall —

Gary R. Blake was born May 3, 1941, in Terre Haute, Indiana and graduated from High school there before serving four years in the United States Air Force.

Following his tour of duty in the air force, he attended Abilene Christian University where he received a degree in Bible in 1970.

He married Susan Roberts of Winters December 26, 1970 in Winters.

The couple then moved to Cambridge Mass. where he lived for four years employed as an iron worker.

They moved to Winters in 1974 where he has lived since. Blake was a member of the Main Street of Christ. He also served as a deacon of the church.

He was very active with the young people and in sports activities.

Survivors include his wife, three sons: David, Matthew, and Benjamin and one daughter, Laura all of the home. His mother, Maxine Blake of

Sewer —

City Administrator Glenn Brown told the council that to pay for the project, the city may have to increase the amount charged water customers for sewer service. Currently, residents are charged $1.20 per month for sewer service along with their water rate charge.

Jacob also told the council that Winters had also received an additional $10,000 grant to help fund the project. That money will be added to approximately $316,000 in grants that been received earlier.

City Administrator Glenn Brown said that the present plant is operating at capacity at the present time and that during peak usage periods the plant was being pushed beyond its designed capability.

The study will outline the needs of the water plant and will make recommendations and price estimates for the upgrading of the plant.

City —

The Winters City Council will be meeting with an engineering firm in the near future to discuss the possibility of upgrading the present fresh-water treatment plant.

gym. Officials say that although the tours will go through the Elementary School building hallway, it will not be part of the open house activities.

The WHS seniors who graduated in the spring of 1983 will receive special recognition during the open house. The Class of 1983 completed their final year in temporary classrooms in the Catholic Hall, the Vocational Ag Building, and the Elementary School building, but did not enter the High School building during the school year.

Wait —

Oh, by the way, I had to wait a whole week to mention the next thought. THANKS to Michael Lee and Joe Gerhart. These guys are the ones you see along the sidelines with cameras during the Blizzard football games, the ones who take the close-up action shots for us. Fellows, we really appreciate you.

I have just gotta get in this parting shot. Sometimes there are stories on Page One that someone might disagree with or not really like. The personal likes do not alter the fact that such incidents do happen.

These things happen, unfortunately, and it is understandable that someone wants to say something. This is fine, but not after bedtime... Now wait a minute - the city's water supply. Brown said that during a power failure several months ago, the plant was shut down for about three hours, and because of the demands for water it required almost four days for the plant to catch up with the water requirements for Winters.

In other action, the council set October 3 as the date for two separate public hearings. The one hearing would be for the 1983-84 proposed Revenue Sharing budget and the other would be for the proposed budget for the City of Winters for 1983-84.

The council voted to support a ruling by the Planning & Zoning Commission rejecting a request for a zoning change at 201 East Truitt street to allow for restaurant to be located in the Rice Grocery building.

The city administrator told the council that the people requesting the change had, after hearing the Planning & Zoning Commission's rejection, withdrawn their request. The council noted that the property will revert to a residential classification if it is not used as a grocery store within the next five months. The property is presently classified for legally non-conforming use in a residential area for the purpose of operating a grocery store only.

While discussing the Planning & Zoning Commission, the council was told that commission member Preston Barker is moving outside the city limits and is resigning his position on the commission. A successor will have to be appointed by the council.

The council agreed to discuss making nominations to serve on the commission as well as to establish terms of office for members of the commission. At the present time members of the Planning & Zoning Commission have a lifetime appointment. Members of the council agreed to work out a new method to set terms of office for commission members.

The council gave its approval to the purchase of a lot on South Penny Lane to correct a drainage problem in that area.

The lot will be purchased at a price of $1,250 from Johnny Merrill, and will give the city a way to solve a flooding problem where it had no easements for flood drainage.

The city administrator told the council that later, after the drainage problem had been solved, the city should be able to sell the property to one of the property-owners in that area.

PRO BRAND WHEAT 812

Northrup King's PRO Brand Wheat 812 is a short, stiff-strawed variety that produces excellent grain yields and exceptional winter pasture grazing. Ideal for most of Texas and Southern Oklahoma, 812 has superior plant vigor that promotes rapid regrowth. Growers have reported 812 to have been the best grazing wheat they had ever planted. Early-maturing 812 has a significantly wider leaf than most competitive varieties. Plus it has resistance to most currently known leaf and stem rusts and soil borne mosaic virus. The early maturity of 812 makes it a good variety for doublecropping ahead of soybeans or sorghum.

PCNB Terra-Coat® LT-2* seed treatment has been applied to 812 wheat seed at 2 oz./bu. This fungicide is designed to control common smut or bunt plus damping off by Rhizoctonia. (*Registered trademark of Olin Corporation.)
