Blizzards put district championship on ice

The Winters Blizzards are the District 9-AA Champions for the 1983-84 season. The Blizzards beat Albany last Friday 20-7 to win their district for the first time in 21 years. The game was very hard fought, a physical one, which was not decided until just two and one-half minutes were left in the game.

The Blizzards played very hard and kept their poise and patience and because of their stubbornness to win, finally came out on top of the score. The Blizzards finished the regular season at 9-1 and their district with a perfect 7-0 record.

The game opened with a very spectacular play, when Greg Guevara returned the opening kick-off 88 yards to score. There were many good blocks during the return, but Eric Belk and John Mesey got two key blocks which allowed Greg to get into the end-zone.

Ronnie Lujano kicked the extra point to put Winters ahead 7-0 only 14 seconds into the game. Albany, however, was not ready to give up. The Lions marched 60 yards to the Blizzard 25 before Winters forced a turn-over.

Kent Billups made a big hit on the Albany quarterback to cause a fumble which was recovered by Paul Trevino. Two plays later, the Blizzards fumbled the ball back to Albany on the Winters 32-yard line.

James Schade, from Albany, then scored on a trap-play up the middle and with the extra point the score was tied at 7-7.

The score remained locked at 7-7 through the rest of the first half of play. The Blizzards drove to the Albany 25-yard line late in the second quarter, but a holding penalty ruined a chance at a touchdown.

In the second half, the Blizzards took control of the game. After kicking off to Albany, the Blizzard's "dooms day" defense shut the Lions down and forced a punt.

The Blizzard offense (Eric Belk, Jeff McDorman, Barron Guy, Kevin Busher, Kelly Hood, Don Kvapil, Nick Trevino, Bill Wheat, Ronnie Lujano, and Kent Billups) put the ball into play at mid-field and stubbornly drove the ball down the field until Ronnie Lujano scored on a one-yard plunge. Ronnie then added the extra point to make the score 14-7.

Late in the third quarter, Albany drove to the Winters 7-yard line. With a first and five at that point, it looked as if the Blizzards were in trouble. The Blizzard defense (Kent Billups, Barron Guy, Paul Trevino, Kevin Busher, Jeff

Christmas Parade set for December 3

The Winters Area Chamber of Commerce announces the theme of the 1983 Christmas Parade to be "Christmas Carols". The parade will be Saturday, December 3, 1983, at 2:30 p.m. Mike Grantham and Lee Blackwell are co-chairmen of the parade.

Out-of-town judges will award cash prizes for the three best floats and for winner in the "kiddie" division of the parade. To enter, call or sign up at the Chamber office, 118 West Dale.

Santa Claus will be on hand with candy for the children and the lovely Sno-Queen candidates will be featured in the parade.

Veterans Day November 11

Veteran's Day, Friday, November 11, 1983, is a designated holiday on the Chamber of Commerce calendar. Most of the downtown business will be closed.

McDorman, Don Kvapil, Kelly Hood, Eric Belk, Ronnie Lujano, Alfred Yates, and Nick Trevino) rose to the occasion and kept the Lions from making even one yard in four tries.

The goal-line stand was what appeared to be the turning point in the game. The Winters defense completely shut off Albany's offense from that point on.

Kent Billups scored the last touchdown for Winters to finally put the game on ice with just 2 and one-half minutes left in the game.

The Blizzards play the Mason Punchers Friday night in Brownwood's Gordon Wood Stadium for the Bi-district Championship.

This Bi-district game appears to be a very good match-up. Mason averages better than 200 pounds per man on the line and has good overall team speed. The Punchers, offensively, are a big play team.

Mason tied with San Saba for the District 10-AA championship and will make the trip to the bi-district play-off game by virtue of a coin toss.

Winters' Head Coach Dan Slaughter said, "The Mason Punchers closely resemble the 1982 Blizzard team. They began the season slowly, but finished strong with four straight wins. See you Friday night in Brownwood."

Wait a minute...

By Kerry Craig

There'll not be much waiting here, got to get ready for the big game Friday in Brownwood.

Boy, those Blizzards are something else. Winning the district championship like they did.

The last time that Winters had the honor was back in 1962 - 21 years ago. Now when that happened, in '62 I mean, I was not too thrilled over that honor (not too many of those Bluecats in Coleman were).

If what OUR team did last year was not enough, the one this year got the chill to really soak in. I gotta confess, I have been converted - a true blue Blizzard fan.

Murder, drug indictments from Runnels Grand Jury

The Runnels County Grand Jury, meeting last Thursday, returned 13 felony indictments ranging from first degree murder to DWI, subsequent offense.

Danny Bruce Harris, 46, of Winters, was named in the first degree murder indictment. The indictment stemmed from the October 10 gunshot death of Harris' wife. The body of Jane Harris was found in the front seat of the family car which was parked at the couple's residence.

Investigators said that Mrs. Harris apparently died from a gunshot wound to the head from a .357 magnum revolver.

Winters Police officers and Runnels County Sheriff's officers took Harris into custody shortly after the incident was reported. According to reports, Harris called officers to the home where he was arrested.

In other action, the grand jury named two Winters men in indictments alleging possession of methamphetamines. Indicted were Cary Todd Terrell, 19, and Ronald Howard Ripley, 18.

Terrell was arrested in the early morning hours of October 11, when Sheriff's officers executed a search warrant at a residence on Winters' east side.

Ripley was arrested on the parking of a Ballinger grocery store later that same day.

City of Ballinger awards contract

The Ballinger City Council Thursday awarded a contract to Waldrop Construction Co. of Brownwood for the conversion of the old Santa Fe Railroad Depot into a city hall.

Waldrop had submitted a bid of $148,500 for the building and $15,000 for a new roof.

Other companies submitting bids included C.C. Hoerster of San Angelo, $173,073; Waldrop and Associates of Lubbock, $188,768; and RPH Construction of Sweetwater, $207,000.

Project architect Jack Meek of San Angelo said it would take about three weeks to complete the construction contracts. He said work will begin on the building as soon as the contract is finalized.

Meek said the tiles for the roof, put on in 1910 when the depot was constructed, are no longer available. However, Meek said a new material compatible with the overall architecture of the building will be used in place of the tiles.

the grand jury on charges of burglary of a habitation in connection with the burglary of the Effie Deitz home near Crews last Wednesday. Sheriff's officers said that the residence was entered by using a wire to open a front door and that a small amount of money was taken.

The trio, Johnnie Bowie, Sheryl Stewart, and Henry Hartley were arrested several hours after the burglary.

Robert Low, of Ballinger, was named in five separate indictments alleging felony theft in connection with the disappearance of mer-

Raymond Armbrecht points out the city limits boundary lines to the city council as he presented a petition protesting the city ordinance that governs the keeping of animals in the city of Winters.

The council told him that his protest and the petition would be taken under advisement and be discussed by the council in its next meeting.

Council discusses school crossing guards

The Winters City Council, Monday, discussed a proposal to join with the Winters Independent School District in hiring school crossing guards.

No action was taken on the item Monday to give city officials to check into liability questions and for City Administrator Glenn Brown to work with school officials on the project.

Superintendent Tommy Lancaster had approached the city to discuss the feasibility of using crossing guards after a seven-year-old child was seriously injured when he was struck by a car last week. Lancaster's suggestion was that two guards be placed on Main Street for about an hour in the mornings and about an hour in the afternoons to assist students in crossing the busy highway. The school official proposed using school personnel with the cost shared by the city and the school district.

In discussing the use of crossing guards, Councilman Rick Dry said, "I think that is the only way we can make it (the school zone) safe. If no

Peoples National Bank will locate downtown

The Peoples National Bank, newly charter bank for Winters has entered into a contract for the purchase of property located downtown Winters. The property is located on the east side of the street, north of the Winters Library on Main Street.

The Bank expects to set up a temporary facility and begin providing full banking services in January 1984. They plan to begin to build a new building in 1984.

The capital structure of the new organized bank is $625,000 in capital stock and $625,000 in surplus. The bank will be a member of FDIC.

Student injured seriously

A Winters Elementary School student, Kevin Crawford, 7, was seriously injured last Wednesday afternoon when he was struck by a car as he was crossing North Main Street on the way home from school.

The youth, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Crawford, was listed in stable condition at Hendrick Medical Center in Abilene with fractures to the right arm and right leg.

The youngster was first taken to North Runnels Hospital and transferred to the Abilene hospital.

Winters police said that the car was driven by Ailene Hubach of the Norton Community.

The accident has prompted the school district and the city to look into the possibility of using crossing guards in the school zone.

Victorian Mansion Falls to Progress

When the Floyd Allen property on West Fruett was purchased recently by the First Baptist Church for a parking lot, people began asking questions about the age of the house. This led to a search which produced some interesting and revealing answers.

Someone thought the house had been built in 1901, but Mrs. John Curry said it was before then because the house was there when she moved to Winters with her parents in 1901.

The records of ownership revealed that Dr. J.H. Grant once owned the house. He bought ten acres of land from Dr. and Mrs. W.H. Rubottom on August 14, 1894. His house was built in the northeast corner.

Dr. Grant's youngest sister, Beatrice, now Mrs. Asa Cordill of Ballinger, is 105 years old, but has a very clear memory of the past. She said, "Why, the house was there when my mother and I moved to West Texas in 1895."

This proves that construction was begun on the house at once and it was completed in 1894 or early the next year. At least 88 years of service can be credited to the large edifice which was a mansion in its day; and its passing removes another landmark.

Mrs. Cordill said that she was born August 24, 1878, in Grandview, and her father died when she was four years old. Her mother moved to Denton where the children attended school. After coming to West Texas they lived in Ballinger until moving to Winters in 1899 to be near her brothers, Dr. Grant and Charles Tipton, known as Charlie. Mrs. Cordill recalled that she and her mother lived in a little house in the vicinity of the present First Baptist Church.

Charlie had played in a band at Denton and organized the Winters Brass Band in 1899. Beatrice (Attie) was a charter member and played the alto horn until her marriage to Asa Cordill of Ballinger in 1901. The ceremony took place at the home of her sister, Mrs. J.H. Kipp in Winters, and the band played at the wedding.

Dr. Grant sold his house to Ollie and J.H. Kipp in 1902 and moved to Ballinger. The Kipps had served as missionaries in Guadalajara, Mexico.

The Kipps sold 1 1/4 acres of the ten acre tract to W.H. Rodgers in 1906, and from there it isn't quiet clear what happened but Mr. Rodgers went on to acquire more land in 1910; some of it being in the West Dale addition. Mr. Rodgers built a new home when the Quincy Traylor's now live, and it became known as the Rodgers property. However, Dr. Grant was soon to be honored by having the entire 12 acre tract to be named as the Grant addition to Winters.

By 1910 the people had grown tired of guessing at property lines and a group who owned lots or tracts of land out of what was formerly known as the Grant or Rubottom 10 acres and the Methodist Parsonage 2 1/2 acre tract, had this tract of land surveyed and a map made showing each lot owned by each separate owner, and a permanent record made of each map for future reference.

"Whereas we desire to have this tract covered by these lots as shown on said map and owned by us to hereafter be known as Grant addition to Winters and to give each tract a lot number by which to designate same."

The Grant addition included the two long blocks on each side of Church Street which extended to Truett Street on the north and Parsonage on the south; to Main Street on the east and the ally on the west.

This instrument was not to affect in any way the ownership or control of any property, but to show boundaries and avoid any future uncertainty as to the location or size of lots. It was presented on the 10th day of June, 1910. Those who appeared before Walter E. White, a notary public in and for Runnels County, were J.H. Hall, L.A. Bedford, W.H. Rodgers, P.L. Meeks, J.J. Hall, J.M. Johnson, W.M. Young, O.J. Hinds, C.R. Likens, Presbyterian Church (By T.W. Murray, J.H. Hall, Joe Vancil) J.M. Nowlin, J.H. Grant, O.H. Hearne and James Kirby.

On December 21, 1920, Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Rodgers sold Lot No. 28 and a strip of ground 38 feet and 11 inches wide extending entirely across the north side of Lot No. 27, to Mrs. M.E. Humphreys, a widow. She in turn sold part of lots No. 27 and 28 to Bert E. Low, bander in 1924. And as a further consideration she agreed not to erect or permit the erection of barns, bribes or out houses in connection with the property now owned by her adjoining the conveyed property, between her residence and the residence located on the 85 foot front tract facing Truett Avenue. Mr. Low built his home on 207 W. Truett the following year.

In 1925 Mrs. Humphreys sold the remainder of her lots to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mullin. They in turn sold to Mr. and Mrs. L.B. Steele in 1928, and the last were bought by Jewell Gardner in 1943. Mrs. Gardner sold to the H.J. Hodge, Sr. family in 1950 and they retained the property until it was sold to Floyd Allen in 1976.

The large house is rapidly being torn down but the small rent house will be moved intact. The neighbors were called on for information about it. Bertha Grisham said it was a teacherage at Independence and was moved in sometime in the 1940's. Ola Heard remembers it was October 30, 1949, the day her niece was born.

In the beginning the land was a patent and grants from the State of Texas by E.M. Pease, Governor to the heirs of Dolphin Floyd, who died in 1836 at the Alamo. It consisted of 640 acres southeast of Fort bourne. Floyd's heirs seemed to be endless. During the year of 1909, R.L. Bennett of Ballinger, in the business of abstracts and perfecting of titles, was hired by a mass meeting of citizens residing in and near Winters to seek out the heirs of Dolphin Floyd and secure deeds of Conveyance from them for whatever claim they might have in two surveys of land. Mr. Bennett sought out and found every living relative. He discovered it advisable to take the deeds in his own name and convey—all rights to the Winters State Bank. The funds for his expenses were furnished by the owners and holders of the various tracts of land.

The choicest part of this 640 acres became the Grant addition to Winters. Since that time there has been tremendous growth and the town continues to expand in every direction. Changes will always be necessary for growth.

D. Joyner to deliver address for VA

Dennis A. Joyner, who lost both legs and an arm in Vietnam War combat, will deliver an emotionally charged address during Veterans Day ceremonies at Arlington National Cemetery on November 11.

Over the past several decades, the annual ceremonies at Arlington have become the national focal point of Veterans Day observances in our country.

Joyner is national commander of the 3/4-million-member Disabled American Veterans (DAV).

His address is entitled "Retracing Paths of Courage".

Ext. retirees to be honored

Thirty-two retired staff members of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, an agency of the Texas A&M University System, will be honored at a special luncheon November 8 at Texas A&M University. The staff members, who all retired during the past year, have a combined total of almost 850 years of service to the state of Texas.

The luncheon at the Memorial Student Center will be sponsored by the Extension Service and the Alpha Zeta Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Phi, the national honorary Extension fraternity.

Associate Extension director Doyle L. Moore will emcee the program while Dr. Zerle L. Carpenter, Extension director, will recognize retirees and guests. Each retiree will receive a special plaque from the County Judges and Commissioners Association of Texas.

Growers paid for cottonseed

USDA reports prices paid growers at gins for cottonseed in Texas, for the week ending on October 12, 1983, averaged $156.10. The price paid for cottonseed by oil mills ranged from $170 to $175 per ton.

Issues hurting agriculture

Many non-farm issues weigh heavily on agriculture, and policymakers and farm groups have exerted little influence over these, says an economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. Monetary and fiscal policies and international trade actions of governments impact heavily on the economic health of agriculture.

These outside influences embrace interest rates, trade subsidies of other countries, the internationally strong dollar which discourages exports and encourages imports, tariffs, trade restrictions, inflation, economic conditions at home and overseas, foreign credit conditions and required shipments on U.S. vessels.

Fireman's Auxiliary to give Tot Finder stickers

In an effort to insure the safety of our children, elderly, and handicapped citizens of our community, the Winters Firemen's Auxiliary will be canvassing the town with fire safety stickers during the month of November.

Tot Finder stickers will be given to households with children under the age of ten. Alert-All stickers will be given to elderly and handicapped people. When these stickers are placed in bedroom windows, firemen will be alerted to the location of someone who may need special assistance during a fire or other emergency.

Ladies Auxiliary members will be going door to door with these stickers. If you are not contacted by the end of November, please contact Pat Simpson after 4 p.m. at 754-5353 or Teresa Davis after 5 p.m. at 754-5422.

61st Fall Festival set November 20

The 61st annual Fall Festival of St. Joseph's Parish has been set for Sunday, November 20th, at the Parish Hall in Rowena.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Lange are chairmen of the festival this year and Mrs. and Mrs. David Urbanek are co-chairmen. Kitchen committee members are Mrs. Hilmer Schaefer, chairman; and Mrs. August Haechten and Mrs. Maurice Moeller, co-chairmen. Members of the parish will prepare 117 turkeys, 4,500 pounds of German-style sausage, 650 pounds of dressing, 58 cakes, 326 pies, and all the trimmings.

The Rev. Benedict Zientek, general advisor, will say mass for the workers Saturday at 7:00 p.m. Sunday services will be held at 8:00 a.m. and 10:15 a.m.

Serving will begin at 11:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m. for the noon meal and meals to go. Sausage will be sold by the pound, cooked or uncooked. Sausage sandwiches will be served from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. A country store, fancy stand, and games for all ages will continue throughout the afternoon; auction of cotton and merchandise starts at 2:00 p.m.

The day's activities will be climaxed with a dance from 8:00 p.m. until 12:00 midnight with music by "Texas Time Machine."

Holiday turkey selections

When shopping for a holiday turkey, consumers should look first for the USDA inspection mark located on the package, say Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service foods and nutrition specialists.

This mark assures that the processing and marketing procedure was carried out under sanitary conditions. Since tenderness of the meat is determined by the age of the bird and not the grade, size or sex, consumers should look for the words "young" or "fryer-roaster" on the package. When deciding what size turkey to buy, plan for three-fourths pound per person, or one pound if you want leftovers. Dieters should select fresh-dressed or frozen plain turkey. Pre-basted frozen turkeys have more calories and usually cost more.

Robin Gallagher marries Royce Ivey

Kelly Robin Gallagher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Pruitt of Marshall, Arkansas, married Royce Wayne Ivey, son of Mr. and Mrs. W.B. Ivey of Winters, October 22 at 7:00 p.m. with Rev. Glen Shoemaker performing the double ring ceremony.

The church featured two candleabras, centered with a unity candle, offset by two alter bouquets of peach and white carnations.

"Walk Through This World With Me" was accompanied by Susan Conner on the piano and W.B. Ivey on the guitar and singing.

Bill Ivey of Dallas served as best man. Tracy Bower and Scott Pruitt of Texarkana served as ushers.

The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner at Holloways Barbecue House.

The reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist Church, hosted by Nadene Bedford. Tables were covered in lace and set with peach candles and napkins. Grooms table boasted German chocolate cake and a silver coffee service.

Lisa Bower, Felicia Pruitt, Sandy Radford and Nadene Bedford acted as servers.

The bride attended Centerburg High School and is presently employed by Dry's Manufacturing.

A graduate of Mason High School and Angelo State University, the groom is employed by Hrubetz Oil Co.

The couple spent a week in San Antonio and Corpus Christ for their wedding trip. They plan to reside in Winters.

committee members, to be appointed by the President, will be installed at the next regular meeting on Monday, November 14th. Following a few reminders of upcoming activities, the business meeting adjourned.

The members and sponsors then organized for the evening's activity, "Trick or Treat for REHAB." At 5:00 p.m., all members, sponsors, and helping mothers began their door-to-door canvas of Winters. Although we tried to cover all areas, it was very difficult to contact everyone.

All returned to the Educational Building at 7:45 p.m., a little tired but very happy for the beautiful response of the wonderful citizens of Winters, Texas. A total of $526.68 was collected on this Halloween night.

Those present were Daylor Bays, Deedra Blackshear, Marci Caffey, Beverly Halfmann, Lucy Lugo, Robin Michaelis, Rebecca Moore, Michelle Polston, Leslie Pruser, Ketta Walker, Mary Jane Blackshear, Nancy Michaelis, and Janice Pruser. The mothers assisting were Rae Dean Kennedy, Mary Ellen Moore, and Bennie Walker.

Miss Sno-Queen Contest rules

The rules of the Miss Sno-Queen contest are as follows:

1. The contestant must be a student in the 9th to 12th grades in Winters High School.

2. The contestant must not be married or ever have been married.

3. Each contestant must be sponsored by a local business and will be responsible for finding their own sponsor. (If unable to do so, one will be found for them.)

4. The sponsor should pay the entry fee of $10.00. The contestant is responsible for completing an entry blank (available at the Chamber of Commerce office) and returning it along with the entry fee to the Chamber office before the deadline, 4:00 p.m. on Monday, November 28.

5. The contestants will meet at the Winters Housing Authority Building, 300 N. Grant, beginning at 9:30 a.m. on Saturday, December 3, to meet with the judges for their individual interviews. They will each receive a number to be worn at all contest appearances. Street dress is appropriate for the interview (no jeans, etc.).

6. There will be three (3) judges from outside the area of the Winters Area Chamber of Commerce.

7. For the parade, at 2:30 p.m. on Saturday, December 3, the contestant is responsible for her vehicle or float (decorations should be paid for by the sponsor if agreed upon, and the sponsor's name should appear in plain sight) and she is responsible for her escort or driver.

8. The contestant must dress formal for the parade (parade appearance is one phase of the judging).

9. Contestants must assemble at the Winters State Bank parking lot at 5:00 South Main Street, no later than 2:00 p.m. for the parade. Their place in the parade will be designated at that time.

10. After the parade, contestants should go immediately into the Chamber office, 118 West Dale Street. The new Miss Sno-Queen and two runners-up will be presented in a ceremony in front of the Chamber office.

11. Upon winning the title of Miss Sno-Queen, there will be certain obligations the young lady must fulfill (representing the Winters Area Chamber of Commerce in out-of-town parades, etc) during 1984. If for any reason she cannot complete her year, the first runner-up will inherit the title.

Sr. students to attend College Night in Abilene

Senior students who are interested in attending the College Night in Abilene are invited to travel together Monday, November 14, at 5:45 on a bus to the college campus.

Students and parents are invited to hear the presentations and a special session on financial aid.

WHS juniors are also invited to attend the College Night but must be accompanied by parent(s) and must have their own transportation.

In January there will be a meeting on financial help for college to be presented to Sr.'s, Jr.'s and their parents at the school.

For further information please contact Mrs. Lee Harrison, counselor, at 754-5516.

Annual Stew Cook-off on Friday

The Annual Stew Cook-off Contest will be held on Friday, November 11, in conjunction with the Arts and Crafts Show. Entries will be accepted until 8:30 a.m. and judging will begin at 9:00 under the direction of Rhunell Poe and Becky Blackwell. Prizes will be given to the first three places. There is no entry fee other than the donation of the stew.

Keep financial records

Before serious financial planning can take place, families need to assess their spending habits says Nancy Granovsky, a Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service home economist.

Examine past spending patterns for at least two to six months. Use old receipts, check stubs or other records to show where the money has gone and how much has come in during the same period. Or, keep close records for two to three months.

Then determine what percentage of spendable income has gone for major categories such as housing utilities, non-mortgage credit payments and food. If more than 25 percent goes for "miscellaneous" you will need to keep better records for a while in order to accurately track your spending for budget purposes, says the specialist.

Coverage of nonprofit organizations

Starting January 1, 1984, all employees of nonprofit organizations will be covered by Social Security. Under the old law, such employment was not covered unless the organization waived its exemption from Federal taxes, including Social Security taxes. The new provision is included in the Social Security Amendments of 1983.

Newly covered persons can get Social Security retirement and survivors insurance with fewer years of coverage than normally required if they are at least 55 on January 1, 1984; and, they earn a specified amount of Social Security credit after January 1, 1984. The amount ranges from 1 1/2 years for a person who is 60 or older on that date to 5 years for someone who is 55 or 56 at that time.

Under the old law, these organizations could end coverage if they gave 2 year's notice if coverage had been in effect for at least 8 years. This is no longer allowed.

These provisions are designed to end gaps in the protection of workers who move between covered and noncovered work. In addition, they reduce the payment or windfall benefits to workers who work under social security and then qualify for a relatively high benefit in relation to the Social Security taxes they have paid into the system.

For more information, contact the San Angelo Social Security Office at 2214 Sherwood Way. The telephone number is 949-4608.

County Tax Assessor-Collectors to meet

Some 150 county tax assessors-collectors will take part in a first-time seminar at Texas A&M University November 15-17.

The First Annual County Tax Assessors-Collectors Seminar will be at the Ramada Inn and is designed to help these county officials become more effective public servants, says the coordinator of the V.G. Young Institute of County Government, a program of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Seminar theme is "Back to Basics for the County Tax Assessor-Collector."

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the objective of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States of America, are fraternal, patriotic, historical, and educational; and

WHEREAS, the VFW seeks to preserve and strengthen comradeship among its members; to assist worthy comrades; to perpetuate the memory and history of deceased veterans and to assist their widows and orphans; to maintain true allegiance to the Government of the United States of America and fidelity to its Constitution and laws; to foster true patriotism; to maintain and extend the institution of American freedom; and to preserve and defend the United States of America from all her enemies;

THEREFORE, I do hereby extend this Proclamation for Post No. 9193, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States of America, asking all residents of our community to support the VFW on Veteran's Day, Friday, November 11, and to express our gratitude to these men who have risked their lives in defense of the freedoms which we continue to enjoy as American citizens.

Witness my hand this 8th day of November, 1983.

Fruit tree spraying controls disease

Fall is often the time when fruit tree care is forgotten or neglected, but it's a critical time for controlling many peach and plum tree diseases to insure a good crop next year.

With the arrival of fall, there's often a tendency to forget our peach and plum trees that served us so well last summer, notes Allen Turner, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Turner says that applying a copper fungicide now can stop or reduce three of the six diseases that attack peach and plum trees in Texas. These are peach leaf curl, bacterial leaf spot and bacterial canker.

Puckered and distorted peach tree leaves that were either bright red or light green in diseased areas last spring were due to peach leaf curl fungus. The only time to effectively control this disease is in the fall with a copper-containing fungicide such as Kocide 101.

Timing of the fall spray is critical for effective control and for avoiding tree damage, the Agent explains. Cooper is a metal and may cause severe defoliation unless applied correctly.

He advises spraying when 70 percent of the leaves fall off the tree. Spraying too early will cause leaf shed or cause the spray to be ineffective later.

Bacterial leaf spot and bacterial canker can be partially controlled by fall spraying with a copper fungicide, he notes. But again it's important to spray at the right time to prevent foliage burn.

Bacterial leaf spot affects both fruit and foliage. The infection causes fruit to crack and leaves develop angular spots which drop out. Bacterial canker will kill trees slowly. Infected trees will have gum or wax forming on the trunk and main limbs.

Fall spray in northern Texas is most often applied from late October to November 15, in Central Texas from Nov. 1 to Dec. 1 and in South Texas from Nov. 15 to Dec. 15. Application time will vary with the season, so Turner suggests checking your fruit trees closely.

Fall spraying is important to the health and production of fruit trees, he says, because there's no other time when 50 percent of peach and plum tree diseases can be controlled with one spray.

Texas is greater than the total population of 42 of the other states," he said.

Speakers called for spiritual awakening and a resolution was adopted urging all church members to join in prayer for spiritual awakening and to greatly increase their rate of establishing new churches.

Messengers also adopted a resolution on the exclusion of divine creation from textbooks. It stated opposition to "secular humanistic views as the only view of origin taught in the public schools."

Other resolutions urged Christians:

To work to curb the influx of pornographic television programs and to refuse to patronize TV systems which promote such programming.

To support efforts to raise the legal drinking age to 21, ban open containers of alcoholic beverages in motor vehicles and join the nationwide effort against beer and wine commercials on TV and radio.

To see a "mutually verifiable nuclear disarmament that would in no way jeopardize our own national security."

To pray for families who have lost loved ones in conflicts in Beirut and Grenada.

To support Proposition 6 which calls for a constitutional amendment allowing courts to order a payroll deduction from the income of parents who would not otherwise pay child support.

The Convention's Christian Life Commission cited inequities in Social Security benefits and salaries of men and women sharing similar positions.

"Women have the same responsibility as men to respond to the call of God," said the Christian Life report. "Churches need to utilize fully the enormous abilities and gifts of ministry that women bring to the body of Christ."

It also called for Christians to increase help to the more than 450 million starving people of the world and called for Governor White to include child-related needs such as day care and Aid to Families and Dependent Children in a possible special session of the Legislature.

Annual Texas Baptist Convention

Texas Baptists in their annual Convention here pledged to work and pray for spiritual awakening in Texas and adopted resolutions on issues ranging from nuclear disarmament to enforced child support payments.

More than 2,500 "messengers" from many of the state's 4,700 Southern Baptist churches and missions also received a report from their Christian Life Commission dealing with sexual discrimination, hunger, Texas children in need and television morality.

Messengers underscored their missions concern by adopting a $53.7 million Cooperative Program budget, plus a $2 million challenge phase.

The new missions budget, which is a $5 million increase over last year's, allocates $19 million for worldwide causes including support for 6,000 missionaries in 100 nations. More than $34 million is budgeted for Texas missions causes including more than 20 child care homes, hospitals, colleges, and universities plus helping to start new churches and missions.

Messengers also elected the pastor of one of the state's most mission-minded churches as their president. Dr. W. Winfred Moore, pastor of First Baptist Church, Amarillo, was elected president by acclamation, an action that veteran observers said was almost unprecedented.

Moore's church has ranked first or second in the Southern Baptist Convention in Cooperative Program gifts for many years. He succeeds D.L. Lowrie, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Lubbock.

Charles McIlveene, pastor of First Baptist Church of Lufkin, was elected first vice-president, and Joel Gregory, assistant professor of preaching at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary of Fort Worth, second vice-president.

Lowrie in his outgoing presidential address warned that if Texas Baptist don't start doing more to support their institutions, they face danger of losing them to the secular world.

Lowrie chided Texas Baptist for being too quick to criticize leaders of their institutions and for being much too slow to offer needed help.

Speakers at the Convention focused on spiritual awakening and the need to minister to the growing ethnic groups in Texas.

In the annual Convention sermon, Paul Powell, pastor of Green Acres Baptist Church of Tyler, said churches are guilty of taking the gospel only to the American middle-class Anglo-Saxons.

He noted that by 1988, the United States is projected to have 62 million people belonging to ethnic groups.

The 2.3-million-member denomination's executive director, William M. Pinson, Jr., told the messengers that Texas is a mission field and said hundreds of new churches are needed.

Pecan rules

An entry consists of 45 pecans and must come from the 1983 crop. There is no entry fee; however, all entries become property of the show and will be sold to offset the cost of ribbons and awards.

The Rules and Regulations are as follows:

1. Date: November 29, 1983. 2. Location: Winters State Bank. 3. Entries will be accepted from pecan growers in Runnels and any adjoining county, providing there is no pecan show in their county. 4. Pecans exhibited must be from the 1983 crop. 5. Pecans must have been grown by persons exhibiting them. 6. Pecans may be entered at the County Extension Office, County Courthouse, Ballinger, or at Alderman Cave Company in Winters. No entry will be accepted later than Friday, November 25. 7. Each single entry will consist of not less than 45 pecans. 8. Pecans should be packaged in paper bags with exhibitors name, address and variety of pecan, if known. 9.

No exhibitor may have more than one entry in each variety class. (Example-John Smith may enter one Burkett, one Mahon, one Western, ect.) 10. There is no limit on number of entries of seedling or natives. (Example-John Smith has five different seedlings of native pecan trees. He can enter all of them.)

And: 11. All classes will be judged on size, color, conformation, shelling percentage, cracking qualities and other factors. 12. Winning entries in each class may be considered for entering in the Regional Pecan Show, with consent of owner. 13. All pecans become the property of the show and will be sold to help defray expenses. 14. Division will be: In-Shell, Shelling and Native. 15. Champion and Reserve Champion will be selected from each division: In-Shell, Shelling and Native. A plaque will be presented to these winners. 16. Classification committee or official judges will place entries in correct classes for judging.

The judges decision will be final. 17. Pecans will be arranged in variety classes and each variety will be judged. In addition to named varieties, there will be one class of seedling (trees produced from a pecan from a known variety, such as a Burkett pecan planted, produces a seedling tree.) 18. There will be a special class for the smallest pecan and the largest pecan, and in conclusion 19. Statistical winners will be determined from records.

-Fever: Colds rarely include fever, except in children. Flu usually begins with fever.

-How they hit: Flu is swift and severe. Colds tend to build more slowly.

-Location: Colds show localized symptoms such as sneezing and a runny nose. Flu has general symptoms such as weakness, muscular pain, chills, and headache.

-Other symptoms: Ninety percent of flu victims have a dry, hacking cough; 60 percent have sore eyes; 50 percent have a flushed face and hot, moist skin. These symptoms appear less often in cold sufferers.

Although neither has a cure, some drugs are being studied for the flu. (The flu vaccine is effective in preventing the illness unless the particular flu virus circulating shifts into a form new to the body's defenses, which it often does.)

Because penicillin and other antibiotics are ineffective against viruses, don't expect your doctor to give you "a shot."

With either a cold or the flu, it's best to stay home, drink plenty of water and fruit juices, and get rest. Aspirin helps the headache and muscle pains, and an aspirin substitute may be taken by children with the flu. Over-the-counter cold tablets, cough syrups, and nasal sprays may be given temporary relief for a cold.

If a cold has not cleared up within ten days and the flu within a couple of weeks, seek medical attention.

Colds and flu main season

A person inhales about 500 cubic feet of air daily, equivalent to a large walk-in closet. In that air are a variety of disease-causing creatures, including viruses.

The respiratory tract—consisting of the nose, throat, windpipe, bronchial tubes, and lungs—has defenses against viruses and other invaders like mites, bacteria, dust, and pollen. But they sometimes take hold anyhow.

This is particularly true in the winters, the main season for influenza and colds. Both are caused by viruses. Any of 200 viruses can produce a cold, and numerous others can cause the flu, says the Texas Medical Association.

Although the two illnesses can have similar symptoms, experiments with volunteers have provided these general differences:

1st fall freeze nearing

Time is fast approaching for the season's first freeze, notes a meteorologist with the National Weather Service's Southwest Agricultural Weather Service Center at College Station. Based on past records, average first freeze dates for various regions of Texas are as follows: Panhandle, Oct. 25; South Plains, Oct. 30; Rolling Plains, Nov. 4; North Central, Nov. 10; Northeast, Nov. 10; Far West, Nov. 8; West Central, Nov. 10; Central, Nov. 15; East, Nov. 10; South Central, Nov. 23; Upper Gulf Coast, Nov. 30; South, Dec. 25; Southwest, Nov. 28; and Coastal Bend, Dec. 8.

The decimal system was invented in ninth century India.

calendar quarter, the wages should not be reported. A calendar quarter is a 3-month period from January-March, April-June, July-September, and October-December.

The employer must deduct the Social Security tax from the worker's wages and pay the employer's matching amount. In 1983, the tax is 6.7 percent each for the employee and the employer.

Before the end of the month after the calendar quarter, the employer must send the taxes and a report of wages to the Internal Revenue Service. IRS Form 942 should be used for this purpose.

Failure to report a household worker's wages can mean the employee will not be eligible for Social Security benefits. Even if the worker qualifies for benefits, the amount may be lower because benefits are figured on the person's annual earnings over his or her working life.

The amount of work needed to get Social Security benefits is measured in "quarters of coverage". In 1983, all workers receive one quarter of coverage for each $370 of earnings, up to four quarters a year. The amount of earnings needed for a quarter of coverage increases each year with increases in average wage levels.

Many employers may not insist on reporting their employee's wages for fear the employee will quit, since the reported wages mean income taxes as well as Social Security taxes are due. However, employers should note that they may be liable for back taxes if the employee late files for benefits and reports the work.

For more information on Social Security and your household worker, contact the San Angelo Social Security office located at 2214 Sherwood Way. The telephone number is 949-4608.

"Pierre the TX Pelican"

"Pierre the Texas Pelican", a 28-part parenting education series distributed to first-time Texas parents, has fallen victim to budgeting cutbacks of social programs by the State Legislature, announced Betty Jo Hay, President of the Mental Health Association in Texas.

The "Pierre" newsletter was co-sponsored by the Texas Department of Community Affairs, Children and Youth Division, and the Mental Health Association in Texas.

"Many parents have contacted the Mental Health Association wanting to know why they have not received any more issues of "Pierre".

"We want parents to know that the newsletter will no longer be coming to them, but the Mental Health Association is advocating for statewide parenting education," said Mrs. Hay.

"Pierre" was introduced to parents of first-born children by hospital across the state. With the help of hospital staff and volunteers, new parents received the first issues of "Pierre the Texas Pelican" before they left the hospital. The remainder of the series was sent through the mail at intervals up to the child's sixth birthday.

Fiber companies launch push to thwart cotton

Synthetic fiber companies will spend $80 million this year to spur consumer sales and try to slow cotton's momentum at retail.

This 16 to 1 spending advantage over cotton producers by their competitors for marketing was the focus of a challenge delivered at the annual meeting of the Cotton and Grain Producers of the Lower Rio Grande Valley today by R. J. Boslet, Cotton Incorporated vice president. Marketing Service/Communications.

Urging that cotton producers keep their dollars in Cotton Incorporated, their research and promotion arm, Boslet told the producers that recent gains by cotton have triggered the synthetic's onslaught to regain markets with aggressive advantage.

Recent figures from the Market Research Corporation of America show that cotton's market share is up to 38 percent during the first half of this year for total textiles, compared to 37 percent for last year for the same period.

The economic recovery has led to increased volume of both domestic and imported goods, with cotton increases strongest for domestic goods.

Pointing out that cotton has regained markets through aggressive research, advertising and promotion by Cotton Incorporated, Boslet added that cotton needs "to keep the pressures up" through hard hitting message for the consumer.

Identifying cotton's consumers in the decades of the eighties and nineties as the "baby boom" generation, which represents over a third of today's population, he said that cotton is positioned to take advantage of this generation's growing preference for natural fibers assuming continued producer support.

4th Annual Hi-C Open Soccer Tournament

Entries are being accepted for the fourth annual Hi-C Open Soccer Tournament benefiting cystic fibrosis. The tournament is slated Thanksgiving weekend November 25-27 in northwest Houston. Deadline for team entries is October 15.

Boys' and girls' teams will compete in twelve categories of play: under 8, under 10, under 12, under 14, under 16 and under 19.

The tournament has experienced marked growth since 1980 when 76 teams signed up for the first annual Hi-C Open Soccer Tournament. This year a record 4500 soccer players representing cities throughout Texas and Louisiana are expected to participate making the Hi-C Open the largest open soccer tournament in South Texas.

According to Dick Moynihan and Kent Hutson, tournament co-chairmen, the Hi-C Soccer Tournament is unique because it is the only open soccer tournament in South Texas offering soccer enthusiasts the opportunity to meet in one location and compare themselves with other teams. As part of the Hi-C Good Sports Program, the tournament promotes good sportsmanship and fair play. The Hi-C Open Soccer Tournament exemplifies the spirit of "kids who can helping kids who can't".

The tourney encourages fellowship and camaraderie among participating teams while they help raise funds for children with cystic fibrosis.

The Hi-C Open Soccer Tournament will be played on forty soccer fields in northwest Houston. The main tournament site will be at Nimitz High School, 2005 W.W. Thorne Road.

The Hi-C Open Soccer Tournament benefits the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation and is being conducted by the Spring Soccer Club. The tournament is being sponsored by Hi-C Fruit Drinks, the Coca-Cola Company Foods

Cotton outlook mixed

While the current cotton market is good, it's not all "peaches and cream" down the road, says an economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Part of the problem is that higher prices this season will encourage increased production next year, driving market prices down to perhaps just above the loan level for 1984. The other factor dimming the long-term outlook for U.S. cotton farmers is that, while they have worked to reduce production, China and Russia have increased production.

The U.S. textile trade deficit is also hurting the cotton industry along with the loss of cotton's price advantage over synthetics.

The Nose Knows.

An aromatic chemical is added to natural gas to give it a distinct odor. One that's easy to detect. It's this distinct odor and knowing what to do when you detect it that keeps gas safe.

If you're outdoors and smell gas, you should call your local Lone Star Gas office.

If you're indoors and detect faint whiffs, check to see if a pilot light has gone out or a burner valve has been left partially open. These are corrective steps you can take yourself.

If your equipment is working properly and you still smell gas, please follow these precautions:

1. Don't switch anything electrical on or off. Don't strike a match or do anything that could cause a spark.
2. Have everyone leave immediately, leaving door open to help ventilate.
3. Go to a nearby phone and call Lone Star.

Help us keep natural gas one of the safest energies available. Use your nose. Then use your head...and follow the proper precautions.

(Just a reminder: Before you do any digging, call your local Lone Star Gas office so they can inform you on pipe locations.)

Whenever I pass a church, I stop in for a visit so, when at last I'm carried in, the Lord won't say, "Who is it?"

We express our sympathy to the families of Mr. Herbert Gerhart of Wilcox Arizona who was buried Friday. Mr. and Mrs. L.C. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gerhart, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gerhart, all members of that family, were born and raised in the Harmey Community.

Georgia and Connie Gibbs went to Merton to see her brother, Jeff McClutchen, on Saturday. Mrs. McClutchen is in Community Hospital of San Angelo.

Pat and Earl Cooper returned Friday after 10 days of fishing at Ranansas pass. They caught enough to eat.

Henrietta Lewis had a two hour phone call from her son, Bill, of Palm Bay, Florida, on Saturday.

Visiting Mrs. Effie Dietz were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hambricht, Bessie Baldwin, Inez Hambricht, and Clara McKissack.

Mrs. Dietz appreciated the help the neighbors gave on the night that she was robbed. They were Mr. and Mrs. Therin Osborne, the Clarence Hambrichts, and the law officers.

The Kat Grissoms and Von Byrds of Abilene attended the Hamlin and Monday football game on Friday night. They visited a while with Coach Bill Grissom's family afterward. The Grissoms spent the night with Von and Phillis in Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfrin Collom of Friendswood and granddaughter Amanda Collom of Talpa, and Mr. and Mrs. C.D. Berry came out to see Mrs. Effie Dietz on Sunday afternoon.

The Hopewell Baptist WMU Ladies met Monday with the Glen Cove Baptist ladies.

Nila and Therin Osborne went in to see Mr. and Mrs. Burley Campbell in Ballinger on Friday.

Our Thanksgiving supper was well attended on Saturday night. President Sam Faubion called a brief business meeting. Rodney Faubion was voted in as vice president and Mrs. Rodney Faubion as secretary. A young group of men have volunteered to patch the gym roof this coming week. Mrs. Betty Wittermore of Pueblo, Colorado, was a visitor and the hosts of the Mike Praters of San Angelo were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walkins, Mr. and Mrs. Therin Osborne, and Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Faubion.

Mike Prater family of San Angelo, Mr. and Mrs. N.L. Faubion, and Mrs. Betty Wittermore enjoyed supper on Friday night with the Rodney Faubion family.

Bernie Faubion and Betty Wittermore spent Wednesday night in Abilene with the Danny Phillips family.

Mrs. Alta Hale visited with the Edgar Whiteleys and Mrs. Valera Collum in Coleman on Saturday.

The Mike Prater family of San Angelo spent the weekend in the Noble Faubion home.

Mrs. Bob Alexander of Winters and I ate breakfast with Mrs. Minnie Nutt in San Angelo on Thursday. We shopped the rest of the day.

Mrs. Hazel Mae Bragg spent the weekend with her daughter Cheryl and grandson Chad Moss in Midland.

An average of one inch of moisture fell out here on Saturday. Four tenths in earlier.

Ruth Circle met Nov. 8

The Ruth Circle of United Methodist Women met Tuesday, November 8 in the home of Ethel Bridwell. Eight ladies were present.

Dorece Colburn, chairman, was in charge of the business meeting. They heard a financial report and reading of the minutes.

Marguerite Mathis led the group in prayer and also led the program "The Centennial of Methodist Women". Jewel Mitchell read the scripture, Matthew 10:15-15, Mark 6:7-13. The group dismissed by repeating the Lord's Prayer.

Those present were Lucille Rodgers, Alene Mapes, Pauline Mayhew, Jewel Mitchell, Marguerite Mathis, Dorece Colburn, Ozzie Stanley and Ethel Bridwell.

Naomi Circle met Nov. 8

The Naomi Circle of the United Methodist Church met Tuesday in the home of Ionah Vinson. Odessa Dobbins, Circle Chairman, presided for the meeting.

The opening prayer was given by Zelma Lee Lange. Mildred Carrell had charge of the program "The Change-To Be Doers of the Faith". Other taking part were Willie Lois Nichols and Billie Middlebrook. Dismissed with the Lord's Prayer in unison.

Present members were: Eva Kelly, Lula Bell Leeman, Ionah Vinson, Willie Lois Nichols, Odessa Dobbins, Zelma Lee Lange, Beatrice Traylor, Mildred Carrell, Billie Middlebrook and a guest Inez Moon from Garland.

Sew and Sew met Nov. 1

The Wingate Sew and Sew Club met November 1 at the Lions Club Building with Nellie Adcock as hostess. The club quilted for the hostess.

Refreshments were served to the following members: Flossie Kirkland, Madlin King, Pauline Huckabee, Elizabeth Babb, Ethel Polk, Edna Rogers, Mabel Hancock, Mildred Patton, Lauren Kinard, Marie Braddford, Grace Smith, Lessie Robinson, Nellie Adcock, Annie Fay King, Eura Lloyd and Mayola Cathy.

The next meeting will be held at the Lions Club Building on November 15 with Grace Smith as the hostess.

L. Aid Circle meeting

The Ladies Aid Circle of St. John's Lutheran Church met in regular session at 2 p.m. in the Fellowship Center of the church.

Mrs. E.E. Thormeyer, president, presided and presented Mrs. Ellis Ueckert, program chairman for November, who opened the program with the song "Lord of All Hopefulness".

Mrs. Walter Gerhart had devotions and lead in prayer.

Bible Study leaders were Mrs. Truman Dieke, Mrs. A.C. Minzenmayer and Mrs. Ellis Ueckert and Mrs. Charles Kruse had the birthday number.

Mrs. Robert Gerhart gave the Meditation reading and offered prayer.

Twenty-two ladies answered roll call with Scripture Verses.

The Circle will have their annual "In-gathering" of thanks offering boxes during the services on third Sunday in November.

Others in the program were Mrs. Walter Kruse, Mrs. Walter Gerhart, Mrs. A.C. Minzenmayer and Mrs. Erwin Ueckert.

The aid will again sponsor quilting for 1984 for the over seas project.

Talpa

By Maggie Ruth Stokes

On Friday and Saturday morning we had good rains. Our place had two inches and three tenths. In Talpa they had from 3 to 4 inches. Some tanks were filled. It was a wonderful rain.

Mrs. Doris McFadden of Guy and her son, Gerry, of Houston, visited Sonny and Wilma Norris and Mrs. Velora Jackson, her mother, a few days this week.

Patti Decker, Alexis and Bonnie of San Angelo visited Johnnie Dulcie Decker on Sunday.

Johnna and Jeffi Strawn of Ballinger spent Saturday with the Decker's.

Johnnie and Dulcie Decker attended her 1938 class reunion in Menard recently.

I visited Mrs. Bertie Stone on Thursday. She had been sick with a cold for two weeks but had recovered nicely.

Mrs. Thora Irwin visited a few days with her family in Crews, Coleman and our home. She had been at Yellowstone National Park working for five months. She returned to San Antonio on Friday.

L. Aid Circle meeting

The Ladies Aid Circle of St. John's Lutheran Church met in regular session at 2 p.m. in the Fellowship Center of the church.

Mrs. E.E. Thormeyer, president, presided and presented Mrs. Ellis Ueckert, program chairman for November, who opened the program with the song "Lord of All Hopefulness".

Mrs. Walter Gerhart had devotions and lead in prayer.

Bible Study leaders were Mrs. Truman Dieke, Mrs. A.C. Minzenmayer and Mrs. Ellis Ueckert and Mrs. Charles Kruse had the birthday number.

Mrs. Robert Gerhart gave the Meditation reading and offered prayer.

Twenty-two ladies answered roll call with Scripture Verses.

The Circle will have their annual "In-gathering" of thanks offering boxes during the services on third Sunday in November.

Others in the program were Mrs. Walter Kruse, Mrs. Walter Gerhart, Mrs. A.C. Minzenmayer and Mrs. Erwin Ueckert.

The aid will again sponsor quilting for 1984 for the over seas project.

Hostesses for November were Mrs. Jake Presley, Mrs. H.A. Minzenmayer and Mrs. W.F. Minzenmayer.

CAPITOL UPDATE

by Jim Parker

A topic you may have heard about recently and which I believe will be another of the major issues next session is health care for indigents. This is a major problem for both small counties which cannot afford major hospital and medical care for their indigents as well as for large counties with county hospitals which cannot afford the costs incurred serving the indigents from another county.

While Texas does spend state dollars for preventive health costs such as immunizations, well-baby clinics, etc., the state does not provide services for people who are already sick and might need surgery and hospital care. The people who qualify for AFDC (Aid to Families with Dependent Children) are also eligible for Medicaid which provides federal dollars for medical care for indigents; however, there are many indigents in Texas who do not qualify for AFDC because they do not have dependent children who are in dire need of medical care but go without because they cannot pay.

I know of no one who believes the poor should be denied medical care; yet, by the same token, I know of no one who has suggested an acceptable plan for paying for indigent health care costs. Small counties with just a few thousand people do not begin to have a county budget which could pay several thousand dollars or more for an indigent with a serious injury or accident; however, it hardly seems fair for the taxpayers of the county in which the hospital is located to be responsible for the medical costs of indigents from surrounding counties as well as their own.

Some believe the problem could be solved easier if there were one statewide definition of "pauper" or indigent rather than a different one for every county, city and hospital district. That seems like a logical suggestion and certainly should be done; however, the dilemma remains.

Who should pay when an indigent cannot and how?

It has been suggested that the state should be responsible for indigent medical costs, either totally or possibly kicking in state dollars after any county has paid a certain percentage of their budget for medical costs for indigents.

Assuming we come up with a solution to who pays, we still have to answer the how question. The most often mentioned suggestion is the ever popular increase in sales tax or severance tax.

Having made you aware of the problem, I hope you all will give it some thought and let me hear your suggestions. It is a serious problem which has to be dealt with and I would like to see it solved to your satisfaction.

Tuesday crashes injure four

Two separate accidents on U.S. 67 early Monday left four persons injured and an expensive roping horse dead.

In the first accident, which occurred between Miles and Rowena about 12:30 a.m. Monday, a San Angelo woman sustained minor injuries when the car she was riding in collided with a horse.

Sheriff's Deputy Odell Denton said that the horse walked onto the highway in front of the auto. He said the animal was thrown onto the top of the car by the impact. The horse was owned by Larry Tate of Southlake, who was returning home after the Ballinger Roping Fiesta in San Angelo. Denton said that Tate had stopped to eat when the horse got loose.

Tate told authorities that the horse was valued at about $25,000 and was insured for about $10,000. In the second accident, three persons were injured, two critically, when a pickup apparently slammed into the rear of a car parked on the side of U.S. 67 about 13 miles east of Ballinger.

liability exposure exists, I'm in favor of paying whatever the cost of crossing guards."

The council instructed City Attorney Ken Slimp to check into the liability question. Brown said that he would contact the Texas Department of Highways and Public Transportation about the question.

In other action, the council agreed to look into the possible hiring of a financial advisor to consult the city how to come up with the funds to pay the city's share in building the new sewer plant and the possibility of renovation of the water treatment facility.

The council took no action on bids submitted for a new vehicle for the police department. The city administrator told the council that he recently had talked with representatives of other cities about the size of Winters about police vehicles and found that many of them were purchasing vehicles from the Texas Department of Public Safety at prices that ranged from $2,500 to $3,000. The vehicles were retired from use as highway patrol vehicles with approximately 60,000 miles on them.

Brown told the council if this route were followed, the money budgeted for the police department for the next fiscal year could be stretched to purchase two vehicles and much needed radio equipment.

The council advised Brown to look further into the idea and report back at the next meeting.

Raymond Armbricht met with the council to protest the city ordinance governing livestock in the city and to present a petition bearing 29 names requesting a change in the ordinance to allow the keeping of livestock within the city limits.

After a rather lengthy discussion with Mr. Armbricht that included the ordinance in question, the city limits, and a number of other items, the council agreed to take the issue under advisement.

Mayor Lee Colburn told Armbricht that, "We will take this under advisement. I won't promise you we will make a decision, but we will try."

Assistance in establishing disability claims or gaining other veteran benefits is available without charge to any veteran through a nationwide system of veterans service officers maintained by the Veterans of Foreign Wars. A portion of the cost is contributed by the public through their purchase of VFW Buddy Poppies.

Buddy Poppy Day Saturday

Members of the VFW will be selling Buddy Poppies in Winters Saturday. More than 200 orphans of veterans are being cared for in the Veterans of Foreign Wars National Home in Eaton Rapids, Michigan.

A portion of the cost is raised through the annual sale of VFW Buddy Poppies.

Wait —

Really proud of those guys.

Oh, by the way, hope you did not miss the story about last week's game in that big city paper from Abilene. The one that mentioned something about the Albany defense lining up in front of our team's chartered bus.

Either that writer got carried away — or should have been.

Now it would be easy to forgive the guy for his oversight there (maybe, he is an Albany ex), but when he wrote the stats about the game — now wait a minute...

If ever you could get the Cowboys and the Steelers to play and to combine their total yards rushing, it would be an impressive figure. But for any one team to roll up over 2,100 yards rushing, well that has got to be one for the books. That is over a mile and a half.

Oh well, maybe he just sat on the wrong side and left his tri-focals at home, or more likely the computer did it to him. Now wait a minute...that's my excuse.

chandise from the Radio Shack store in Ballinger. District Attorney Dick Alcalá said that the alleged thefts occurred between December 27, 1982 and about August of this year. Alcalá said that Low was a former employee of the Radio Shack store.

Mark Anthony Green was indicted by the grand jury on charges of burglary of a building in connection with the burglary of Farmer's Seed and Supply in Winters on September 8. Green is accused of climbing through a window of the business and taking an undetermined amount of money. He was arrested by Winters Police a short time after the burglary was discovered.

The district attorney said that Jim Tom Harris was indicted on charges of "securing execution of a document by deception" in connection with a worthless check given to Henry Sibley in May of this year.

Alcalá said the charges stemmed from an apparently fraudulent transaction involving royalty on oil property.

Four persons were named in indictments alleging Driving While Intoxicated, subsequent offense, by the grand jury. Indicted were: Johnny Saucedá; Oscar Lopez Martínez; Rex Cody McNeill; and Manuel Vasquez.

The cases were presented to the grand jury by District Attorney Dick Alcalá and the findings were reported to District Judge Curt Steib. Alcalá said that pre-trial hearings and trial dates on the indictments would be set in the near future.

Public Utility Commission of Texas

Consumer Update

Most of us use utility service every day and experience remarkably few problems with it. However, sometimes in working with utilities, customers must contend with complicated, confusing rules and regulations. Understanding these rules can save time, money and aggravation. Many problems reported to the Public Utility Commission can easily be avoided if consumers become better informed.

In order to help you understand your rights and obligations as consumers, we require electric and telephone utilities to give customers a pamphlet or information packet at the time customers initiate service.

At least once each calendar year, telephone and electric utilities must tell their residential customers that certain information is available on request at no charge to the customer. This notice may take the form of a billing insert or a printed statement on the bill itself. Telephone utilities may include the information in the directories they are required to supply their customers.

The utilities must make available to customers the following information:

- The customer's right to inquire about rates and services, and the customer's right to inspect or obtain a reproduction cost a copy of any applicable tariffs and service rules.
- The customer's right to have a meter test without charge under PUC rules if those rules apply.
- The time allowed for payment of outstanding bills.
- Appropriate grounds for termination of service.
- The steps a utility must follow before service can be terminated.
- How the customer can resolve billing disputes with the utility and how billing disputes affect termination of service.
- Alternative plans offered by the utility to help customers pay bills, such as deferred payment plans, level billing programs and average payment plans.
- The steps the cus-

Turkey prices stable

Consumers shopping for the traditional holiday bird will be pleased to find that it's just as economical as last year, says a Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service poultry specialist. Retail prices should be the same or only slightly higher than last year, says Dr. David Mellor.

A larger than usual red meat supply is helping to keep prices stable, says Mellor, in spite of increased feed costs for producers and a reduction in the excessive storage stocks for turkey from last year. Consumers will find plenty of turkey in the stores, but prices will vary significantly between different types of turkey products — plain whole turkey, self-basted store brands and self-basted national brands says the specialist.

the business office of your utility. Keep any information you receive from the utility in a safe place for future reference. If you are unclear about any of the service rules, ask the utility for an explanation. If you are not satisfied with the utility's explanation, contact us at the address listed below, or call us at (512) 458-0223 or 458-0227. TTY for the deaf is (512) 458-0221.

Remember, taking the time to read the rules and ask questions now can save you time, money and aggravation later.

Felony convictions deny Social Security benefits

Social Security benefits are generally no longer payable to prisoners convicted of a felony. Recent legislation has expanded the previous restrictions for incarcerated disability beneficiaries to cover all types of Social Security beneficiaries.

Regulations for suspending the checks of a convicted felon while in prison depend on the type of Social Security benefits being received. Effective October, 1980, disability benefits for workers and disabled adult children and benefits for students who committed a felony after October 19, 1980, are not payable for any month or part of a month in which the individual is confined in a penal institution or correctional facility because of a felony conviction. The suspension of a disability benefit check does not apply for the months in which the prisoner is actively and satisfactorily participating in a rehabilitation program approved specifically for the individual by a court of law. The rehabilitation program must enable the disabled prisoner to work within a reasonable period of time after beginning the program and upon release from prison.

Effective May 1983, the new legislation extended the suspension of benefits provisions to imprisoned felons who are drawing retirement and survivor benefit checks. The checks of a disabled widow or widower will not be suspended if he or she is participating in an approved rehabilitation program which will enable him or her to work upon release.

Even though the prisoner's retirement, survivors, or disability checks have been suspended for a felony conviction, other family members drawing benefits on the prisoner's record can continue receiving Social Security payments as though the prisoner were actually receiving benefits. If the prisoner is entitled to Medicare hospital and medical insurance, the coverage can continue even though monthly benefits have been suspended. For the medical insurance to continue, the prisoner must pay the premiums in advance since they cannot be deducted from the monthly check.

For more information, contact the San Angelo Social Security Office located at 2214 Sherwood Way or call 949-4608.

Company pays to settle case

Ring-Around Products, Inc., a Dallas seed firm has paid $35,200 to the U.S. Department of Agriculture to settle a case involving shipments of soybean seed alleged to be in violation of the Federal Seed Act.

The case was settled in an agreement between the company and officials of USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service. Thomas H. Porter, an AMS official in Washington, D.C. said the case involved shipments of soybean and other agricultural seeds. Alleged violations, he said, included false labeling of seed for interstate commerce, and false advertising.

The company was alleged to have mislabeled and falsely advertised soybean seed as U.S. Protected Varieties RA604, RA701, and RA800. In addition to paying the settlement on the alleged advertising and shipping violations, Porter said the company has returned the protection certificates relating to RA701 and RA800 varieties.

Other violations alleged in shipping the soybean and agricultural seed were false labeling of variety name and purity, percentages of pure seed, other crop seeds, germination, hard seed and noxious-weed seed.

Also alleged were failure to show the required labeling for hybrid seed and all components of a mixture, the correct kind name, and treatment labeling; failure to test for germination within required time before shipping, and failure to keep required records.

The Federal Seed Act is a truth-in-labeling law designed to protect farmers and consumers who buy seed.

AMS administers the program with the help of state seed officials. Seed regulatory officials in Alabama, Arizona, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Oklahoma, North Carolina, Virginia, and Mississippi cooperated with AMS in the investigations.

Women's Hall of Fame

The Governor's Commission for Women will inaugurate a Women's Hall of Fame as part of "Women in Texas Today Week" planned for September 1984.

Gay Erwin, executive director of the 29-member commission, said these activities will increase the public's awareness of Texas women's achievements in education, public service, business, and other fields and provide young girls with positive role models.

The Governor's Commission for Women agreed to sponsor a statewide essay contest for girls in grades 9-12 on "A Living Texas Woman I Admire" in conjunction with "Women in Texas Today Week."

Other projects the commission will undertake in 1984 include:

Printing and circulation a business-size card listing toll-free, hotline telephone numbers offering a variety of services available to women needing assistance. Rose Meile, assistant director of the Nebraska Commission on the Status of Women, briefed the Texas commission on the success of this project in Nebraska.

Publishing a directory of women's groups in Texas and improving an informational exchange network between these groups.

Maintaining a current talent file for the Governor to consider when making appointments to state boards, commissions and advisory councils. For a copy of talent file form, interested women can write the Governor's Commission for Women, P.O. Box 12428, Austin 78711.

Publishing and editing a "History of Women's Commissions in Texas" prepared by graduate students at the University of Texas School of Social Work.

Hermine Tobolowsky, a member of the Governor's Commission for Women, briefed other commissioners on Equal Rights Amendment statute compliance in Texas. Tobolowsky lobbied for successful passage of the Texas ERA by the Legislature in 1971 and its adoption at the polls in 1972 as former legislative chairman of the Texas Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs.

Tobolowsky told the commission that the Texas ERA is the only amendment of its kind in the nation that is "self-operative" and renders all state laws contrary to the ERA automatically unconstitutional. Although the Legislature has repealed laws contradicting the ERA, she said that there are unenforceable laws still on the books - including statutes limiting work hours for women only in certain professions and permitting public schools to segregate on the basis of sex.

Brownsville Rep. Rene Oliveira, House sponsor of a proposed constitutional amendment to improve child support collections, briefed the Commission for Women on efforts to secure passage of Proposition 6 at the polls November 8th.

Proposition 6 will give courts the option of ordering an automatic deduction from a parent's paycheck to cover child support obligations. On a voluntary basis, members of the Governor's Commission for Women will help promote passage of this amendment by making speeches at the local level and encouraging increased voter registration.

CANCER ANSWER LINE

American Cancer Society
M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute

QUESTION: Is Kaposi's sarcoma an old or new form of cancer?

ANSWERline: Much remains to be learned about this baffling, often fatal disease. It was first observed among male patients in Europe in 1872, then in several areas of Africa, but rarely in other parts of the world. Unprecedented outbreaks among homosexual men brought Kaposi's sarcoma dramatically to public attention in the United States in 1981 and 1982. It has since been found in immigrants from Haiti, hemophiliacs, and recipients of kidney transplants whose immune systems have been intentionally suppressed to prevent rejection of the transplants. Kaposi's sarcoma is no longer considered unique to homosexuals, as it was first thought to be. Dark blue or purple-brown nodules or plaques frequently appear on patients' hands or feet, and also on mucous membranes and the skin.

QUESTION: Will the widespread dumping of toxic chemicals and the use of pesticides in homes and elsewhere lead to a general increase in the risk of cancer for everyone?

ANSWERline: Most reports of such contamination deal with the potential danger of cancer. So far there has been very little confirmed evidence of increased cancer risk. However, prudent public policy certainly calls for a clean environment to eliminate or minimize any such risk.

QUESTION: The use of diethylstilbestrol (DES) by some mothers during their pregnancies was implicated in a type of vaginal cancer which subsequently developed in some of their daughters. Has it also been related to sons of such mothers?

ANSWERline: There has been some indication of the possibility of testicular cancer in men whose mothers used DES. A study at Tufts-New England Medical Center revealed two cases of men aged 27 and 28 whose mothers had taken DES. One of the men appears to have been successfully treated by surgery and radiation. The other, who is receiving chemotherapy after surgery, has

Tests offer hope in AIDS cure & treatment

Laboratory tests indicate that a naturally occurring substance produced by healthy people's white blood cells may help victims of acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS), says the Texas Medical Association.

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration and the National Institutes of Health are testing interleukin-2. This substance is produced by normal lymphocytes (white blood cells) to combat viral infections or other foreign substances.

Test-tube results have been encouraging. The scientists found that interleukin-2 increases the infection-fighting ability of weakened lymphocytes from AIDS patients.

Although interleukin-2 is available only in small amounts, the initial results clear the way for trials on patients themselves.

As of early October, the Centers for Disease Control in Atlanta had recorded 2,416 AIDS cases and 981 deaths nationwide. The Texas Department of Health had recorded 71 cases and 35 deaths in Texas.

AIDS is a serious condition characterized by a weakening in the body's natural immunity against disease. People with AIDS become susceptible to a variety of rare illnesses. The two most common are a form of pneumonia caused by a parasite, and Kaposi's sarcoma, a rare cancer that attacks walls of blood vessels.

Early symptoms of AIDS are similar to those of other diseases, such as a cold or the flu. The signs include fever, night sweats, unexplained weight loss, yeast infections, shortness of breath, diarrhea, persistent coughs, fatigue, appetite loss, and swollen glands in the neck, armpits, or groin. Symptoms that persist should receive medical attention.

Although no cause has been found, scientists suspect a virus, possibly one present in the blood on in body fluids such as semen. AIDS appears to be transmitted primarily through sexual contact.

The U.S. Public Health Service says nearly 95 percent of all AIDS cases have occurred in one of four groups: homosexual and bisexual men with multiple sex partners, Haitian immigrants, intravenous drug users, and hemophiliacs.

No cases have turned up among friends, relatives, and co-workers of AIDS patients. This strongly suggests that routine contact may offer no risk, according to the Public Health Service, whose toll-free AIDS hotline is 800-342-AIDS.

The Texas Medical Association recently adopted a policy stating that "AIDS patients should receive no less care than any other patients requiring medical help. Physicians are morally bound to treat persons who have AIDS."

Historical Commission accepting local nominations

The Texas Historical Commission is accepting nominations for its 1983 awards Best Publications of the Year on Local or Regional Texas History. Deadline for nominations is December 1, and winners will be announced at the Commission's annual Historic Preservation Conference in Lubbock next May.

Each book submitted must be a scholarly historical work based on original research of historic documents, materials, and sources, and published in an edition of no fewer than 200 copies. For the 1983 awards, only books published between December 1, 1982, and November 30, 1983, will be considered.

For a book to be considered for an award, three copies of it must be submitted to the THC with the letter of nomination. The letter should include biographical information about the entries author and/or publisher. It must also include one of the following categories

Buddy Poppy Day
Nearly 100,000 men, women, and children donate a day of their time and effort each year to conducting the VFW Buddy Poppy Sale.

in which the book is to be judged:

I. County Histories
A. Personal Accounts (e.g., family histories)

B. Narrative Histories

II. Local History (e.g., town church, business, biography)

III. Regional History (e.g., East Texas, Permian Basin)

IV. Specialty Books (e.g., ethnic histories, cookbooks, travelogs, historical fiction).

All entries will be judged by the Publications Committee of the Texas Historical Commission. For more information on this competition, contact the THC Publications Department, P.O. Box 12276, Austin, TX 78711, 512/475-4407. Contest entries should be sent directly to the Publications Department.

The museum will be open on Friday from 1-4 p.m. and on Saturday from 10 a.m. till 3 p.m. Quilt entries may be picked up on Saturday after 3 o'clock.

Show entries will be accepted Wednesday, November 9, at the

There will be forty-one booths and some of the many items for sale include: ceramics, woodwork, dolls, Christmas decorations, hand quilted framed art, baked goods, peanut brittle, sack holders, wooden toys, crocheted items, quilts, dough art, swedish embroideries, hand painted skirts, paintings, wind chimes, spice racks, can-die holders, soft sculptured dolls, wall hangers, hand carved leather, beadwork, doll clothes, cactus gardens, stuffed animals, cook books, "fridgies", hand painted china, afghans, decorator pillows, counted thread, tole painting, flower arrangements, personalized items, bread boxes, "tater" bins, jewelry boxes, stained glass, walking puppets, puzzles.

The Fourth Annual Stew Cook-off Contest will be held on Friday, November 11, in conjunction with the Arts & Crafts Show. Prizes will be awarded the first three winners.

Amendments to Meat Act
The Senate-approved H.R. 3385 entitled "Dairy Production Stabilization Act of 1983" contains a provision which, if finally approved would remove the minimum limitation of 1,250,000,000 pounds from the Meat Import Act of 1979 for the calendar years of 1984 and 1985.

Foreign trade of meat
The value of all U.S. exports of livestock meat and meat products for the first six months of 1983 totaled $1,472,207,000, compared to $1,669,565,000 during the first six months of 1982. Imports of livestock meat and meat products during the first half of 1983 were $1,670,072,000, compared to $1,478,018,000 during the first six months of 1982.

Also, on Friday, November 11, a drawing will be held at 12:30 p.m. for a Remington Model 788 Deer Rifle. Both days, drawings will be held every two hours for door prizes.

Anyone attending this year's Arts & Crafts Show can sign up at the door. Meals will be served each day at noon (beginning at 11:30) with the featured meal on Friday being all the Stew and Cornbread you can eat. Saturday, a Chicken Spaghetti plate with all the trimmings will be served. Concessions will be available throughout the day.

The Z.I. Hale Museum will be sponsoring a Quilt Contest at the Museum located on West Dale Street in Winters. Entries will be accepted on Wednesday from 4 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. They will be judged on Thursday and on display Friday and Saturday, November 11 and 12.

Winning entries in the Children's Art Fair will be on display at the Community Center. Face painting and balloons will be available for children attending this year's Arts & Crafts show.

All the booth spaces have been reserved for quite some time, but anyone wishing to sign up for the Stew Cook-off may do so by calling the Chamber office or one of the chairmen of the event, Becky Blackwell and Rhunell Poe. The judging will begin at 9:00 a.m. on the 11th and all stew must be in place by 8:30 a.m.

Additionally, about five health professions scholarships will be awarded to students enrolled in or accepted for enrollment in an approved school of medicine or osteopathy.

Older citizens feel vulnerable
Many older Americans feel more vulnerable to crime because of physical and financial limitations, says Judith Warren, a family life education specialist.

"Actually older people are not victimized any more or less than other age group but this fact does not help feelings of fear," says Warren, who is with the Texas A&M University Extension Service home economics program.

"Older persons in both cities and small towns sometimes end up living in high crime areas," Warren says. Though they may have lived in the same place for years, the neighborhood often changes around them. They are the outsider—the different person—and so might be victimized.

"Older people living in rural areas may feel the isolation more than they did when they were younger," she adds. But older persons can take steps such as joining a neighborhood watch group and finding out about self-protection from local crime prevention groups.

October oil and gas drilling applications
A total of 2,883 drilling applications were processed by the Railroad Commission in October, according to RRC Chairman Mack Wallace. In September, the Commission processed 2,367 applications, and 3,632 were handled in October 1982.

The October 1983 total included 2,153 applications for permits to drill new oil and gas tests, 94 applications to deepen existing holes, 259 applications to plugback existing holes, and 58 applications for service (non-producing) wells. Operators also filed 319 amended drilling applications.

In September, the total included 1,820 applications for new holes, 55 applications for deepening, 193 applications for plugbacks, and 24 applications for service wells. There were 275 amended applications.

A total of 548 dry holes were reported in October, as compared to 487 in September.

Crimestoppers focus on sale of stolen property
The Runnels County Crimestoppers Focus for the month of November is the sale of stolen property. Burglaries are based on economic gain. It is the same old game as buying and selling except in the burglar's case it is stealing and selling. The burglar does not have much overhead or investment and make a high percentage of profit when he sells.

This low overhead is why the burglar or fence can sell their merchandise so cheaply. We as consumers just love a good deal and I guess that if someone came up and wanted to sell you a $200.00 watch for $75.00 that it would be tempting, but let's stop and think about what would happen if no one would buy stolen goods. The burglar would be out of business. He wouldn't have a market for his merchandise, thus our burglaries would drop dramatically because the

PRO BRAND WHEAT 812
Northrup King's PRO Brand Wheat 812 is a short, stiff-strawed variety that produces excellent grain yields and exceptional winter pasture grazing. Ideal for most of Texas and Southern Oklahoma, 812 has superior plant vigor that promotes rapid regrowth. Growers have reported 812 to have been the best grazing wheat they had ever planted. Early-maturing 812 has a significantly wider leaf than most competitive varieties. Plus it has resistance to most currently known leaf and stem rusts and soil borne mosaic virus. The early maturity of 812 makes it a good variety for doublecropping ahead of soybeans or sorghum.

PCNB Terra-Coat® LT-2* seed treatment has been applied to 812 wheat seed at 2 oz./BU. This fungicide is designed to control common smut or bunt plus damping off by Rhizoctonia. (*Registered trademark of Ulin Corporation.)

Winterize your home for lower electric bills.
Follow Reddy's tips this winter to help you save money on your electric bills:
CALL YOUR HEATING SERVICE SPECIALIST NOW. Have your heating unit checked NOW by a qualified specialist to put it into top operating condition. Not only will you minimize the possibility of a costly and uncomfortable breakdown in the middle of winter, you also will help to keep down home operating costs. Have it serviced early, before your serviceman or dealer has a waiting list.
SET YOUR THERMOSTAT AT 68 DEGREES OR LOWER. Leave your thermostat at 68 degrees or lower in the winter during the daytime, and turn it down a few degrees when you retire at night.
ADD TO THE INSULATION IN YOUR CEILING AND WALLS. Insulation comes in rolls, loose fill or batts. The "Resistance-value", or "R-value", indicates the ability of a material to keep heat from passing through it. The higher the "R-value", the more heat the insulation will keep inside in winter and outside in summer. Values up to R-30 in the ceiling and R-16 in the walls are recommended in these areas.
KEEP CAULKING AND WEATHERSTRIPPING IN GOOD SHAPE. Sealing of cracks around doors, windows, pipes and wiring should be done to help you save on both heating and cooling costs. Polyurethane or similar caulking, plus felt or foam rubber products, come in easy-to-install form at most hardware stores and will help to draft-proof your home.

Texas Farm Bureau to hold annual meeting

The state's largest farm organization, Texas Farm Bureau, will hold its 50th annual meeting in Houston on November 27-30, at which time over 1,200 voting delegates will decide policies for 1984.

Theme of the convention at the Shamrock Hilton Hotel will be "Celebrating a Golden Harvest."

Voting delegates from 216 organized counties will adopt state policies for the coming year. Approved resolutions on national issues will be forwarded to the 65th annual meeting of the American Farm Bureau Federation which meets January 8-12, in Orlando, Florida.

A young farmer and rancher breakfast will be held at 6:30 a.m. on November 28. Jack Jackson of Hurst, with the Leadership Development Institute, will be the guest speaker.

There will be five conferences conducted from 1 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. on November 28. These include field crops, livestock, natural resources and education, taxes, and transportation and farm labor.

They will be followed by six commodity conferences including: beef and sheep and goats; cotton and peanuts; dairy and poultry; wheat and feed grains; rice and soybeans, and citrus and pecans.

Other activities include: TFB queens district winners selections on talent and speeches; Outstanding Young Farmer and Rancher receive free use of a Ford Pickup for one year.

Annual Horse Symposium

The Third Annual West Texas Horse Symposium and Trade Show is set for December 17 in the Ector County Coliseum here.

Registration for the day-long event will run from 8:00 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. followed by a brief introduction of the days speakers and guests.

Stallion Management will be the first topic covered during the day. Set to present the talk is Dr. B.W. Pickett, DVM., Director of Equine Sciences Program at Colorado State University, Fort Collins, Colorado.

A break will follow Dr. Pickett. Two thirty minute breaks are scheduled during the day so that participants might have the chance to visit booths and displays set up by companies and individuals participating in the trade show portion of the program. Richard Shrake, a professional horse trainer from Oregon City, Oregon is scheduled to complete the morning session with presentations on bits and biting horses and correct horsemanship for all show classes.

Lunch will be served on the premises from noon to 1:00 p.m. The afternoon session will begin with a dual topic talk set to be delivered by Dr. Don R. McDonald, DVM, of Sterling City. McDonald will speak on the use of ultrasound therapy and Equine reproduction.

Sexual behaviour in breeding stallions will be the final topic discussed during the afternoon session. Dr. Pickett is set to make the delivery.

Following a second break, a stallion parade narrated by Jimmy Taylor of Big Spring will show participants what the area has to offer in the way of breeding stock.

Vet questions and answers

Q. What is Veterans Day? A. It is the day set aside by law during which the nation honors the sacrifice and service of its 29 million living veterans and millions of other veterans who have served and died in military uniform. Originally designated on November 11th to commemorate the end of WWI in 1918 and the signing of the Armistice on the "11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month", Armistice Day was redesignated Veterans Day after WWII to honor U.S. veterans of all wars. In 1968, the federal observance of Veterans Day was changed to the fourth Monday in October. In 1978, it was returned by Congress to the traditional date of November 11th.

Q. What is being done to put unemployed veterans back to work? A. The recently instituted "Emergency Veterans Job Training Act" now authorizes the VA to reimburse certain employers 50 percent of the starting wage of eligible Vietnam Era or Koreana Conflict veterans they hire into job training programs leading to permanent employment. Both employers and veterans must meet certain eligibility requirements. State employment job service and VA offices have details.

The day will conclude with a social hour and trade show visit followed by a barbecue set for 6:00 p.m. A representative from the American Quarter Horse Association is set to highlight the meal.

Q. What is considered Vietnam Era service? A. Active duty between August 5, 1964 and May 7, 1975.

Q. If a veteran dies before a home loan guaranteed by the VA is repaid, will the VA pay off the balance? A. No. The surviving spouse or other co-owner must continue making payments.

Q. Why did I not receive an increase in my VA disability pension check in July as in past years? A. Improved pension is increased in accordance with cost of living increases. The next cost of living increase will be effective Dec. 1, 1983, and will be reflected in the check issued on Jan. 1, 1984.

Q. Can a service-connected disability rating ever be changed? A. Yes. They may be increased or decreased in accordance with medical findings of changes in the affected condition. However, once a condition has been rated at 10 percent or more disabling for 20 continuous years, the rating is protected by law and may not be changed to a lower rate.

Q. What are the eligibility requirements for receipt of VA compensation benefits? A. To be eligible to receive compensation, a veteran must have a disability which was incurred in or aggravated by military service, and rated as being 10 percent or more by the VA. The veteran must also have a discharge other than dishonorable.

Q. What are the requirements for pension benefits? A. To be entitled to pension benefits, a veteran must have had at least 90 days of wartime service, be considered as permanently and totally disabled and incapable of engaging in substantially gainful employment, and have income which falls below specified income limitations.

Q. Can a veteran be entitled to both the pension and compensation benefit? A. Entitlement may exist concurrently to both benefits, however, payment can be made only for the benefit which provides the greater monthly allowance.

Procedures cut paperwork

An estimated $9,600 will be saved each year by Texas oil and gas operators through a new filing procedure to be implemented by the Railroad Commission for one of its forms.

The change, which becomes effective December 1, involves procedures regarding the Commission's Form P-4, which is a producer's authorization to transport oil, gas, and condensates from a particular oil or gas lease. The form is required by the Commission before any oil or gas can be moved from a lease.

Under the procedures now in effect, an operator attempting to meet the requirement had to file additional copies to be sent to various gatherers or purchasers that may have been involved with production from a particular lease.

With the new procedure, only a single form will be required by the Commission. Information from the form will be entered into the Commission's computer file and a copy will be produced for all the gatherers and purchasers that may have an interest in the particular lease.

The Commission receives approximately 200 new Form P-4's each day.

For more information about the new procedure, operators can call 512-445-1268 (oil) or 512-445-1251 (gas).

Alzheimer's Disease discussed

A meeting to discuss medical, legal, and mental/emotional aspects of Alzheimer's disease will be held on Tuesday, November 15, from 7-9 p.m. at the West Texas Rehabilitation Center, in the Board Room, at 4601 Hartford in Abilene.

Knowledge of professional services is helpful for families of Alzheimer's Disease victims in meeting the needs for each individual patient. Dr. Brinkman, a Neuro-Psychologist, will be present to discuss the various aspects of the disease process. Dan Fergus will consider the legal ramifications involved in caring for a victim with Alzheimer's disease. Mrs. Evelyn Woltjen, a Mental Health Professional, will discuss the mental and emotional aspects of the disease, as they pertain to both the family and the victim.

Following the three presentations, there will be a brief question and answer period.

This program is the third in a series of four meetings co-sponsored by the West Central Texas Council of Governments and Sears Memorial Methodist Center to increase support for families of patients with Alzheimer's Disease and related disorders.

If you have any questions regarding the meeting, please contact Chris Spence at 915-692-6145.

Colored leaves abound

A quiet revolution takes place every fall. Slowly but surely, leaves of trees and shrubs become a riot of red, purple, orange and yellow for spectacular fall displays.

It's all tied to chemical processes in leaves as the summer season gives way to fall and the approaching winter, notes a forestry specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. Changes in temperatures and daylight hours cause the chlorophyll—the green pigment in leaves—to break down, allowing other pigments, mainly yellow and oranges, to become more visible. Leaf colors can vary due to weather conditions and the amount of pigments in leaves.

Ag energy outlook

At a time when even the slightest hint of good news for agriculture has a major impact, farmers should be pleased with the energy outlook for the year ahead. If projections hold true, farmers should face steady energy supplies at lower costs in 1984, says an economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Gasoline prices should drift as much as 4 percent below the 1983 average, diesel fuel should dip up to 6 percent, and electricity prices could decline about 2 percent. However, LP gas is not expected to drop in price but should increase no more than 5 percent while natural gas prices will likely increase 6 to 9 percent.

Sugarbeets and cane prices

Commodity Credit Corporation has published rules implementing the new price support loan program for 1983 through 1985 crops of sugarcane and sugarbeets.

Senator Lloyd Bentsen Watching Washington

Even with our economy on the upswing, nearly 11 million Americans are still out of work. We should be doing all we can to protect the jobs we have and to create more.

Our largest producer of jobs is the small business community, which creates 60 percent of the new jobs for American workers and accounts for almost half of our Gross National Product.

But the current economic climate is not a good one for small business and that does not bode well for American workers.

Ever increasing budget deficits threaten to devour all the savings available for investment. Current interest rates are still too high to make borrowing possible for many firms.

Small companies that rely for financing on external sources, such as bank loans or capital markets, need help.

I have introduced legislation in the Senate that addresses some of the basic problems that confound small businesses—a lack of investment money, complex inventory procedures and inadequate equipment.

The Bentsen bill has five provisions. One of my proposals would make small businesses more competitive by allowing them to claim the same tax credit for investing in used equipment that larger, better financed companies get when they buy new equipment.

Under current tax law, a business operator investing in new equipment can claim 10 percent of the purchase price as a tax credit. But a smaller business, able to afford only used equipment, can claim the 10 percent credit on only $125,000 of the purchase price. This limitation will increase to $150,000 in 1985.

For example, an individual would have to buy more than $600,000 of used equipment to establish a small machine shop employing 10 people. The operator could expect an investment tax credit of only $12,500. A business able to buy $600,000 in new equipment would get a $60,000 investment tax credit.

My legislation seeks to eliminate this competitive disadvantage for smaller, less well-financed businesses.

Another part of my bill would encourage long-term investment in small businesses by reducing the capital gains tax rate from 20 to 10 percent for those who buy new issues of stock and hold onto it for at least five years.

The Bentsen bill would also permit small corporations to claim tax deductions on up to $250,000 of the dividends they pay; simplify Last-In-First-Out (LIFO) accounting and inventory rules for small business; and permit small businesses to use cash accounting methods similar to those now allowed farmers.

We need to encourage the entrepreneurs and risk takers to turn their ideas into small businesses so that jobs will be created and our economy will grow and prosper.

My bill would help make sure that there is money available for these risk takers to get started and to stay in business.

New Consumer Guidebook Says:

Protect Leather Garments

NEW YORK, NY — "The consumer is still unaware of exactly what a fine piece of leather requires for proper maintenance and longevity. 'Selection and Care of Suede and Leather Garments,' — the first consumer informational booklet of its kind — reintroduces this oldest material used for human clothing to ensure intelligent selection and better care of garments," stated Ralph Sherman, President of Leathercraft Process, the nation's largest cleaner and refinisher of suede and leather garments.

Over fifteen pages long, the brochure traces development of a leather piece from its tanning process through various finishes each particular skin requires. Whether the piece be as common as pigskin or exotic as alligator, the brochure describes each different skin; what they require for proper crafting and easy maintenance; and how with important information even the inexperienced owner of leather garments can tell a quality piece from a poorly crafted one. Also included are eighteen tips on how to care for any leather garment.

"With more and more people discovering the elegance of an attractive leather garment, we believe the consumer should know more about what they're buying and how to best invest their time and resources in choosing a skin," Mr. Sherman concluded. For a free brochure, send self-addressed stamped envelope to: Leathercraft Process, 62 W. 37th Street, New York, NY 10018.

Taxpayers age 65 get tax relief

A taxpayer aged 65 or older may take advantage of a special type of property tax relief—deferred payment of delinquent taxes on his homestead—by filing a sworn affidavit at the office of the appraisal district in which he lives.

If a lawsuit has already been initiated to collect delinquent taxes on the elderly taxpayer's homestead, an affidavit asserting age and ownership of the property must be filed with the court in which the suit is pending.

According to Kenneth Graeber, executive director of the State Property Tax Board, the Texas Property Tax Code provides that, after an 'over-65 tax deferral' affidavit has been properly filed, taxing units may not press or initiate delinquent tax suits on the homestead involved as long as the applicant owns and resides at the property.

Graeber said that forms for the deferral affidavit are available from

Stock-up meat in freezer

"Now is an excellent time for cost-conscious consumers to stock up on meat for the freezer," says Mary K. Sweeten, a foods and nutrition specialist with the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service.

More cattle and hogs are being marketed because of the summer drought. This increased supply has resulted in lower prices.

Consumers can take advantage of lower prices by buying a whole carcass, side or quarter; wholesale cuts; or retail cuts of meat. Before buying meat in quantity, Sweeten suggests that you consider your available freezer space, the amount of meat your family can use within a reasonable amount of time, the type of cuts your family enjoys and the amount of money you have to spend.

Comptroller's report

The state expenditures for the first 11 months of the current fiscal year ending on July 31, 1983 is reported at $12,706.5 million which represents a 12.2 percent increase about the state expenditures for the first 11 months of the previous fiscal year.

Total state revenue received during the first 11 months of the current fiscal year ending on July 31, 1983 is reported at $13,114.4 million which is 1.5 percent above the first 11 months of the previous fiscal year.

Time spent wisely preparing for a trip ultimately pays off with a smoother travel schedule.

There's nothing worse than being "grounded" after take-off.

Before packing up and heading out, attention should be given to a few basics:

* Luggage should be clean, maintained and in good repair. Luggage parts may have become moldy or rusted during long-term storage. To unstick a luggage zipper, clean and free up a caster wheel or lubricate a lock mechanism, a few sprays of WD-40 can be effective. The product penetrates moisture, dust and mold to get working parts moving, keep them clean and extend the working life of the luggage.

* When packing, every traveler tries to get the most clothing into the least amount of space. Packing strategy should include storing clothing for the briefest time possible. Pack right before leaving and unload luggage promptly after arriving.

* Tissue paper should be used liberally when packing. Place a sheet between items and inside blouses, skirts, dresses and pants as they are folded. Small items can be rolled in sheets of tissue so they take up less space. Tissue paper is also useful for stuffing sleeves and preserving creases.

* After returning, clean and emptied luggage should be carefully stored. Hinges, fasteners and snap locks can be lightly coated with WD-40 before long-term storage to prevent damage or corrosion from dust or dampness. All inner pockets and panels should be cleaned.

* Travel-size toiletries should be used whenever possible. Care should be taken to avoid packing glass items next to each other. Sewing kits, laundry soap and a travel-size can of WD-40 are convenient items to carry.

WD-40 is available in convenient two-ounce, standard nine-ounce, and new large economy 12-ounce sizes. It can be purchased at discount, grocery and department stores.

Fellowship nominee

A panel of five McMurry College faculty members has nominated Dr. U. Lynn Jones, associate professor of political science, for a Minnie Stevens Piper Fellowship.

The Minnie Stevens Piper Foundation, founded in San Antonio in 1950 by Randall and Minnie Stevens Piper, honors 10 professors each academic year for outstanding academic, scientific, and scholarly achievement, and for dedication to the teaching profession.

Texas colleges and universities may nominate one to three professors for the Fellowship dependent on student body enrollment. Selected recipients receive certificates naming them "Piper Professors of 1984" and a cash honoraria of $2,500.

The purpose of the Piper Fellowship is to give recognition to the teaching profession rather than to research, publication, or administration. Dr. Paul Jungmeyer, Vice President for Academic Affairs and Dean of McMurry, said Dr. Jones was McMurry's nominee because he "had shown" excellence in the classroom.

Dr. Jones, a native of Dallas, has been at

New extension officer

William R. McConnell has been promoted to personnel officer for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

He has served as assistant personnel officer for the past two years. Prior to that he spent two years in Texas A&M University's Personnel Department, first as a wage and salary analyst and later as an employee relations representative. He holds B.S. and M.A. degrees in political science and an M.S. degree in management, all from Texas A&M.

World Grain production

Total world grain production now is forecast at 1,591 million tons, up 0.3 percent from last month's estimate but 5 percent below the record 1982-83 harvest. A further reduction put the U.S. grain production estimate at 210 million tons, 2 percent below last month's forecast and 38 percent lower than last year's record harvest. Reductions this month in the crop projections for the United States and Canada were outweighed by increases for China, India, Australia, and Argentina. Forecast Soviet Grain production remains unchanged at 200 million tons.

More Gold Than Meets The Eye

Nutritional gold, that is. Dates are a good source of potassium, iron and niacin, low in fat and sodium and only 22 calories per date. They lend moistness and rich flavor to all kinds of dishes but do especially great things for cookies.

Baked in the oven or cooked in a skillet, cookies rate tops with the young crowd. A glass of milk and some energy producing date cookies will keep the youngsters bouncing.

No-Bake Skillet Cookies are even fun for the kids to make after school or on a rainy Saturday.

No-Bake Skillet Cookies
2 eggs, beaten
3/4 cup sugar
1 1/2 cup chopped Sun Giant dates
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 cups oven-toasted rice cereal or slightly crushed corn flakes or whole wheat flakes
Shredded or flaked coconut

Mix together eggs, sugar and dates. Put into cold, lightly buttered skillet. Cook over low heat for 10 minutes, stirring constantly. Mixture will brown during cooking. Remove from heat and add vanilla. Blend in cereal. Shape into balls and coat with coconut. Cool on waxed paper. Makes 3 dozen.

California Date Nut Bars
5 eggs, separated
1 cup sugar
1 cup flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 cup chopped Sun Giant dates
1 cup chopped blanched almonds

Beat egg yolks until light, add sugar and beat thoroughly. Sift dry ingredients and add chopped dates and almonds. Mix well so dates and almonds are well coated. Add flour mixture to egg and sugar and mix well. Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry and fold into mixture. Pour into greased and floured 9 inch baking pan and bake for 30 minutes at 325°. Cool and top with sifted powdered sugar. Cut into bars and remove from pan.

Date Orange Drops
2 1/4 cups sifted all purpose flour
1 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 cups firmly packed brown sugar
1 cup vegetable shortening

2 beaten eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 tablespoon fresh orange juice
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
1 1/2 cups chopped Sun Giant dates
3/4 cup coarsely chopped nuts

Sift together flour, soda and salt, set aside. Cream sugar and shortening until fluffy. Add eggs, vanilla, orange juice and rind and beat well. Add dry ingredients and mix well. Stir dates and nuts into cookie mixture. Drop by teaspoon, about 2 inches apart, on lightly greased cookie sheet. Bake in 375° oven for 8 to 10 minutes or until just golden in color. Makes about 4 dozen cookies.
