Settlement expected for WTU rate case

An attorney for the Texas Municipal League said Tuesday that he anticipates a settlement Thursday in the latest rate increase request from West Texas Utilities. The expected settlement would include an overall reduction in revenues of about $800,000, system wide.

The electric utility had filed a request with the Public Utilities Commission for an overall increase of 12 percent in rates.

The Texas Municipal League had notified its member cities, served by WTU, of the proposed settlement by letter Monday. TML attorney Don Butler, in Austin, said Tuesday that the proposed settlement would have a net effect of reducing rates by about $800,000.

That amount, Butler said, involved a reduction of $7.2 million in reduction of the company's rates, relating to the fuel portion of the case, and an increase of $6.4 million for electricity.

Butler said, "I'm very optimistic. I think it's a good settlement." He said while the overall settlement reflects a decrease, it is anticipated that residential consumers will see an increase of about 4.3 percent in their rates. Commercial users would see a 1.8 percent increase in rates while heavier users of electricity would see decreases averaging from .57 percent to 7.9 percent.

Other changes outlined in the proposed rate settlement would bring about an increase of 3.73 percent in the amount charged cities for pumping water, a 1.15 percent increase for street lighting, a 3.3 percent increase in rates charged for highway lighting and an increase of 9.81 percent in the rates charged for outdoor lighting (guard lights, etc.).

Hearing held on tax rate

The Winters City Council conducted its required public hearing on the tax rate for the new fiscal year Monday evening and explained to two concerned taxpayers that the tax rate would not change.

City Administrator Scott Ep person said that last year's tax rate of $.52 per $100 value would not change. He said that "the total revenues will increase due to annexation and the taxing of bank stocks would mean a higher total tax revenue for the city."

Winters man arrested on drug charges

Runnels County Sheriff's officers, assisted by Winters Police officers, arrested a Winters man Friday on felony charges of possession of a controlled substance. The arrest was made as officers executed a search warrant on the man's apartment and his vehicle.

Rudy Torres was arrested when officers stopped his vehicle in the 500 block of Roberts about mid-afternoon Friday. Torres was later released after posting a $5,000 bond on the charge.

Officers said that an amount of a substance, thought to be methamphetamine was found in Torres apartment along with a

Winters woman charged with burglary

A Winters woman was taken into custody Thursday afternoon in connection with the burglary of an apartment in north Winters in which a television and stereo equipment were taken.

Arrested on a charge of burglary of a habitation was Becky Collins of Winters. She was later released on $10,000 bond on the charge.

Deputy J.D. West said that most of the stolen property had been recovered when the woman was arrested. He said the television and the stereo belonged to three Mexican aliens who were living in an apartment on North Heights Street in Winters.

small amount of what appeared to be marijuana. Officers said that both substances would be taken to the Department of Public Safety Laboratory for analysis.

Sheriff's deputies obtained the search warrant after receiving information that a subject was in possession of methamphetamine and that the drug had been sold at the subject's place of employment.

The search warrant was issued by Justice of the Peace J.C. Hodnett of Winters.

Indecent exposure charges filed

A Winters man remained in the Runnels County Jail after being arrested Saturday evening on several charges.

Held is 24-year old Larry Lopez of Winters. Charges against the man allege: felony driving while intoxicated; indecent exposure; disorderly conduct; and driving while license suspended.

Lopez was arrested by Winters Police officers after a report was received that a man has exposed himself to a young woman who was selling magazine subscriptions.

The felony drunk driving charges were filed after officers stopped the suspect vehicle, driven by Lopez.

Officers said that, after Lopez was arrested, it was learned that he was already on probation in another county for driving while intoxicated.

Bonds for Lopez on the multiple charges totaled $2,650.

Blizzards lose to Hamlin Pied Pipers

Playing at home last Friday night, the Winters Blizzards fell prey to the state-ranked Hamlin Pied Pipers, losing 41-0 in spite of gaining more first downs than Hamlin. Much of Hamlin's yardage came on big plays.

Winters Head Coach Dan Slaughter praised the performance of freshman quarterback Rene Garcia and backs Kelly Hood and Alfred Yates.

Winters kicked off, and Hamlin began from their 55 yard line. On their second set of downs, they scored on a 40 yard run. Before they could run the play to try for extra points, they were assessed two penalties for illegal procedure. They then faked a kick, and their pass was incomplete. The score stood at 6-0 with 10:50 left in the first quarter.

Winters got a first down on runs by Eric Belk and Yates and a pass complete to Manie Esquivel. Then Belk punted on fourth and 11.

Both teams punted again before Hamlin's Coy McGee scored on an 80 yard run. They scored the two extra points, bringing the score to 14-0 with 1:53 left in the first quarter.

Quarterback Rene Garcia handed off to Yates who weaved his way around and through the Pied Pipers for a first down at the 51. Then Yates carried to the 46, and Garcia hit Hood for another first down. Belk carried to the 35, but Winters had to punt, and Belk sailed the ball into the end zone.

On Hamlin's next set of downs, Blizzard Kevin Halfmann got to Hamlin quarterback Jeff Lawlis, knocking him back for a loss. The Pipers had to punt.

Winters began on their 42. Garcia could not find a receiver; so he ran with the ball himself to the 47. Yates proceeded to jump over a crowd of defenders and struggled through others for a first down. On 4th and 13, Winters was called on an illegal procedure penalty, which Hamlin declined. They took possession on the Winters 40.

Defensive play by Gary Wilson who stopped a fine run by Hamlin, and by Yates who tripped a Piper who had caught a pass, contained Hamlin. They tried a fourth down conversion, but did not make it. The Blizzards took over on the 30.

Nick Trevino caught a pass for a first down, but Hamlin's McGee intercepted a Winters pass and returned it 12 yards.

Hamlin completed a pass to Bobby McGee who was slung around by Winters' Yates, but McGee regained his balance and ran to the end zone with the ball for another TD. On the PAT attempt, Winters was penalized for illegal procedure. The kick was good, but because of the penalty, Hamlin got to try the play again, electing to pass successfully for two points. The score stood at 22-0 with 2:49 left

Winters faces Eastland here

The Winters Blizzards will take on Eastland here Friday night at 7:30 in the first district game of the season.

Eastland lost close games to Stamford and DeLeon, but beat Dublin. Winters Coach Dan Slaughter said the Mavericks have good speed in the backfield and are a well-balanced ball club.

Blizzards Paul Trevino and Gary Wilson may not play this week due to injuries in last week's game with Hamlin. Trevino hurt his ankle, and Wilson twisted his knee.

Rene Garcia will continue at quarterback. Slaughter said, describing his performance as "smooth."

All the district games will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Many new taxes affect local businessmen

By act of the Texas Legislature, many new taxes will go into effect October 2, and many of these taxes will affect Winters and area businessmen. Steve Mercer and Nancy Shattuck from the San Angelo office of State Comptroller Bob Bullock held a meeting in Winters Tuesday, answering questions on the new taxes.

The tax will be 5 1/8 per cent in Winters and Ballinger. The state sales tax will be 4 1/8 per cent, but in cities that charge the one per cent sales tax, the higher rate will apply.

Several things that will NOT be taxed are: auto repairs, plumbing or repairs to other items that are permanently attached to a home, remodeling and repairs by carpenters, repairs to central air conditioning and heating, repairs to pumpjacks, adding additional wiring and electrical outlets to a home, and annual plants which produce food products.

However, if your window air conditioner is repaired, you must pay tax on it, because it supposedly is not permanently attached to your house. Also, if you have your car remodeled, that is taxable.

Other items that are now taxable include:

REPAIRS TO: furniture, upholstery, appliances that are not built-in, watches, guns (including bluing and cleaning), draperies, vending machines, televisions, radios, antique furniture, welded items, copiers, typewriters, backhoes and other heavy equipment, electric mixers, CB radios, freezers, shoes, bicycles, carpets and rugs that are not attached to the floor, stereos, and VCRs.

ENTERTAINMENTS, such as: antique shows, theme parks (Six Flags, AstroWorld, etc.), nightclubs, dances, professional sporting events such as Dallas Cowboy and Houston Oilers games, cable TV, movie theater tickets, horse races, bowling, plays, billiards and pool tables unless they are coin-operated, boat trips, horse shows, cat shows, dog shows, rodeos, opera, ballet, music concerts, magic shows, water slides, amusement parks, skating rinks, shooting ranges, wrestling and boxing matches, deep-sea fishing, hot air balloon rides, massage parlors, golf courses and miniature golf courses, and VCR rentals.

PERSONAL SERVICES: laundry, dry cleaning, ironing, tailoring, fur cleaning and storage.

MISCELLANEOUS: charges for parking, storage of cars, vending machine food costing more than 17 cents per article, fertilizer used for a lawn or home garden, service contracts, cigars, cigarettes, snuff, chewing tobacco, video games and other computer software, subscriptions to newspapers and magazines, and newsstand sales of newspapers and magazines.

Anyone needing further information or clarification of the tax laws should call one of these numbers: toll free 112-800-252-5555, Abilene 698-1011, or San Angelo 949-0575.

From bluebonnets to scrap metal

Since his retirement in 1981, Dewey Chestnut and his wife, Elouise, are leading "the life of Riley." They have time to pursue their various hobbies and now spend about five months out of the year in the Valley to avoid the cold weather.

Mrs. Chestnut is an artist. She prefers oil painting and likes still life. This summer she has been working on bluebonnet pictures. Chestnut has a metal detector and enjoys looking for scrap metal. He has found all kinds of metal objects with which he makes decorations for his house and yard. He says his wife is the engineer and designer and he does the work.

The Chestnuts came to Winters in 1972 and lived on West Dale about a year before moving their mobile home to 410 East Dale. He rocked his house in 1980 with stone brought in from the new city lake, which was too soft for use in building the dam, and rock was hauled from Novice. People were allowed to use all the rock they wanted if they would haul it away.

The windows have arches and grills made from tank batteries and wheels made from an old Exxon fire extinguisher. A circular staircase is created out of succor rods, ring gaskets, bicycle forks, railroad spikes and a grain scoop. A screen door is decorated with metal dug out of the ground and includes scissors, knives, flat irons and wrenches.

In the front yard, one is greeted by a horned toad, turtles and an armadillo, while a rabbit watches in the shade of

These animals were made from pipe, horseshoe nails, steeples, reinforcing rods, old a prickly pear. These animals are friendly, but stranger beware! Just around the corner plow discs and sweeps, drilling bits and roller bearings. A large sunflower is also made from the same materials.

Among all the strange flowers and wild animals stands a peaceful, beckoning figure. He is Chestnut's latest project is working on an old grain auger to produce an indian smoking a peace pipe. He is modeling it after a bronze statue that stands in front of Fred Turner's in 1979 they succumbed to progress and bought a modern vacation trailer complete with a micro-wave oven. "But we still miss that old trailer," says Mrs. Chestnut.

They were married soon after her graduation and moved to San Francisco, where he followed defense work during World War 2. After living in Arkansas for a time where he was employed with Ozark Ordinances, they moved to Carlsbad, New Mexico and lived there for eight years. He was employed with Monterey Oil Company when it was purchased by Humble in 1962. ## BUILDING A BETTER FRAMEWORK

More and more families are putting a do-it-yourself construction project on their agendas these days—a greenhouse, a boat cover frame, maybe a new patio or screen porch. Thanks to new, handy, easy to use tools, the whole family can get in on the fun!
Especially useful is a line of clamps that are available in fixed and adjustable angle designs. They're fun to use and very easy to handle as well.

New adjustable clamps
are stronger and easier to use than those made of wood or other mater- ials, many handy-per- sons are finding.

These unique clamps make it possible to join two, three or four pieces of nearly any type of tubing or pipe, 1/4 inch through one inch O.D. Common 1/2-inch electrical conduit works just fine. Sections can be joined quickly and securely, without locking collars or set screws, and without sacrificing rigidity or service life.
Three fixed clamp designs and two adjustable designs, each made to form a specific type of connection, help you avoid the pitfalls encountered when using a single design to do two or more tasks.
These unique clamps from Frame Maker® are made of strong heavy gauge steel and are plated for corrosion resistance. All you need is a pair of wrenches and a hacksaw

A soap made for hands can be handy in the kitchen or bathroom. It's great for cleaning surfaces such as bathtubs, stoves and refrigerators because it's not abrasive. To use, just sprinkle some on a damp sponge and apply to surface.

You can use it to cut road film the next time you wash your car by adding 1/2 cup of the powdered soap to a pail of warm water for a clean machine.

In the laundry some Boraxo powdered handsap can be used for pretreating stubborn stains before you wash. Simply wet the stained area with cool water, sprinkle with powdered soap and rub or brush. Rinse, then toss in the washer with the rest of your laundry. It works to remove stains including chocolate, oil and catsup.

or tubing cutter to use them.
Many homeowners have found that they're better than wood or other materials because they're stronger and you don't need a workshop full of tools to use them. Dis-assembly and reassembly can be done in less than a quarter of the time spent on the original construction.
FrameMaker frameworks are disassembled with equal ease, and the conduit and clamps can be used to build hundreds of other projects.
These handy clamps are usually available at your hardware store or home center.

Medicare may be enough

Congress has taken a major step toward curbing skyrocketing health costs, a representative of the nation's largest organization of older Americans said today. But the new law will not be effective, she said, unless health consumers know how to take advantage of it.

That's why Mrs. Eileen Gordon, president of the Runnels County Chapter of the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP), and other members of the organization are now teaching doctors and their patients about the new law through a public education program.

The law has established the "Participating Physician Program" under which physicians must become "participating" or "non-participating" by October 1, 1984. Participating physicians sign a written agreement to accept assignment (what Medicare considers a reasonable fee) on all Medicare claims between October 1, 1984 and October 1, 1985.

Non-participating physicians do not enter into such an agreement. Instead, they reserve the right to bill patients for an amount greater than Medicare allows. A freeze on fees through October, enacted by Congress as part of the program, prohibits participating and non-participating physicians from raising their charges to beneficiaries above the amount they charged in the second quarter of 1984.

Mrs. Gordon offered these suggestions to Medicare beneficiaries and others interested in supporting this new cost control program:

1. Urge your doctor to become a participating physician by the October 1 deadline.

2. Discuss fees with your doctor to understand how he charges patients for services.

3. Encourage others to seek out participating physicians for needed medical care. Names, addresses, and specialties of participating physicians will be made available by the federal government through insurance companies, local social security offices and aging organizations such as the AARP.

Congress is encouraging participation by physicians through financial incentives it has added to the Medicare reimbursement system. For example, "allowable" or "reasonable" charges will be higher for participating physicians than for non-participating physicians. "Patients can offer additional incentives," Mrs. Gordon said, "by supporting those doctors who participate."

Mrs. Gordon urged Medicare beneficiaries and others to make the law work. "Congress, in passing this law, said that much of the success of the new participating physician program will depend on the involvement of the Medicare beneficiaries nationwide," she added.

For more information about the participating physician program, contact Leslie Kramerich, Health Advocacy Services, AARP, 1909 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20049.

What do you do with bare ground

What do you do with bare ground? This topic will be discussed by Dr. Jake Landers, Extension Range Specialist, at a meeting Tuesday night, October 2. The program will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the County Courthouse, second floor, which will also serve as the election site for Zone 1 of the Runnels County Soil Conservation Service.

Dr. Landers will speak on reseeded, pitting and other means of "roughing" the soil surface to slow run off and prepare a seed bed. He will also talk about how and at what rate to restock ranges and pastures, when it does rain.

County Extension Agent Allen E. Turner, and Soil Conservation Service District Conservationist, Carl Smith, urge all producers to attend this program, since each of them is confronted with this problem.

The people of the Stone Age are believed to have tamed dogs to help them track game in Europe from 10,000 to 20,000 years ago.

Fire prevention week scheduled

October 7-13 is National Fire Prevention week and a good time to think about fire safety, since cold weather is approaching, says the Building Advisory Council of Texas.

Most fire fatalities in Texas occur in residences, and most of these are related to home heating and water heaters, according to data supplied by the State Fire Marshals office in Austin.

"Most of these fatalities result from gas-fueled space heaters being placed too close to combustible materials such as walls and furniture," says Dennis Gissell, information specialist with the Fire Marshal's Office. "Placing combustible materials too close to water heaters also causes a number of fatalities."

"We strongly recommend smoke and fire detectors to provide early warning of fires such as these," he adds. "They clearly reduce the amount of lives and property lost in fires."

Gissell recommends that nothing burnable should be placed next to any heating device, especially the open flame of a gas or kerosene heater. Combustibles should be kept three to six feet away from wood burning stoves and fireplaces, and the floor beneath should be non-combustible. Consult the manufacturer's instructions or your local fire department or building inspector for information on fire precautions for other heating appliances.

Many fire fatalities result from defective heating equipment.

Gissell recommends that any kind of heating device should be a tested and approved model. If installation is required, it should be done by a qualified professional. Afterwards, household heating units should be inspected once yearly to insure they are operating correctly.

If you live in an apartment, check with your manager about fire safety inspections and report any fire hazards you notice in your or neighboring buildings. The Building Advisory Council encourages you to consider fire safety when choosing an apartment, especially when it is for an elderly person.

Look for buildings with firewalls that extend up into the attic. Fires can spread very quickly without them, endangering occupants. Floors, walls and roofs should have a two-hour fire rating. This rating means that it should take two hours for flames to burn through, although in an actual fire it usually takes less time for flames to enter a residence.

Deer population is valuable asset

Do you have any idea how many deer live on your place?

Carl Smith, district conservationist for the USDA Soil Conservation Service at Ballinger said October is a good month to find out.

Why should you know how many deer you have?

"If you're a livestock producer interested in growing as much high quality forage as possible, a high deer population is a liability," Smith said. "A deer's diet is much like a goat's and, to a slightly lesser extent, a sheep's diet. At times throughout the year, cattle eat the same plants as deer, but to a much lesser extent."

"You may view your deer as an economic, recreational, or esthetic resource. Good census records can support your request for additional doe permits from the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department. If you believe in protecting your deer from hunting, their numbers may have increased to the level that your habitat is gradually declining in quality."

"At any rate, knowing how many deer you have is valuable information," Carl continued. "Unless you have a game-proof fence around your property to confine deer, an exact count is virtually impossible, but a useful estimate is easily obtainable. Methods for estimating deer from airplanes, helicopters, pickups, horseback or foot have been developed by wildlife biologists

Tax planning strategies noted

The Deficit Reduction Act of 1984 brings about a number of tax changes that remove all doubt that tax planning should be a year-round effort, notes an economist with the Texas A&M University System Agricultural Extension Service. The new legislation reveals tax increases that stretch depreciation write-offs, squeeze income averaging, and foreclose on most interest-free loans. It also creates tax breaks, such as a shorter capital gains holding period for investors, and it effectively leaves open many legitimate tax-saving techniques.

Home builders value trees highly

Without question, a wooded lot adds value to a home, says a forestry specialist with the Texas A&M University System Agricultural Extension Service. A study of home builders in the Atlanta, Georgia area showed that builders' costs for clearing a lot averaged $860 while the average cost of preserving trees was only $547 per lot. In addition, builders reported that lots with trees sold for $5,700 more per lot than those that had been cleared. Builders agreed that trees helped sell houses sooner and that any cost involved in protecting trees could be recovered at a profit when homes were sold.

Smith said private wildlife biologists will conduct a deer census for a fee. You can also obtain information on how to conduct your own census from SCS personnel of Ballinger assisting the Runnels Soil and Water Conservation Districts, County Extension Agent Allen Turner, or Game Warden Robert Wood.

Warden Wood can also tell you how to avoid breaking the law while making the count, Smith said.

"Facts, when combined with ideas, constitute the greatest force in the world." — Carl W. Ackerman

Veterans can leave more of memory

Veterans concerned about their families' well-being after they are gone can ease their worry by safeguarding basic documents relating to military service, life insurance and Veterans Administration correspondence, says Stephen Lemons, Director of the Waco VA Regional office.

Securing papers, marriage certificates or child custody evidence from fire, theft or loss could be one of the most important legacies a veteran can leave a family, according to Lemons. Other documents that should be protected and filed with family papers are government and commercial life insurance policies, any VA correspondence with identifying claim numbers or social security numbers, wills, and where applicable, naturalization papers.

The regional office director reminds families that they should be aware of survivor benefits as well. These include death pension, dependency and indemnity compensation for service-connected death, burial benefits and interment in a national cemetery.

"The few minutes spent by the veteran organizing and protecting documents -- and informing the family -- can do much to avoid anguish during times of emotional stress," says Lemons.

He said veterans should encourage family members to seek information and assistance concerning benefits at the Waco VA Regional Office. That office can be reached toll free by using the number listed in the local telephone directory.

The first lighthouse in America was erected by the Province of Massachusetts in 1716 on Little Brewster Island.

Chamber of Commerce hosts seminar

A short seminar covering the tax changes going into effect October 2, 1984, was held in the Winters Area Chamber of Commerce office Monday morning, September 24, 1984. Steve Mercer and Nancy S. Shattuck spoke to twenty local business people present for the meeting and then answered questions for those that had specific areas that needed clarification. Should anyone have questions about the tax changes, help can be obtained from the State Comptroller's Department, San Angelo Enforcement Office, 3127 Executive Drive, San Angelo, Texas 76904. Winters is located in the San Angelo district. Some helpful material was left at the Chamber office and is available to anyone who needs it.

A committee made up of representatives from the Winters Livestock Show Association and the Winters Area Chamber of Commerce are busy contacting those interested in backing the 4H and FFA students in the North Runnels County area. In order to finance the annual livestock show, "shares" are sold for $20.00 per share and any number of shares can be purchased by individuals, organizations and businesses.

Our participation represents an investment in the young people of this area and shows our support for the work and time that these young people put into their livestock projects and for the good learning experiences they gain from having taken part in a livestock project.

Winters has had a very good Livestock Show program for a number of years and this is an opportunity for all of us to help with a program that deserves our continued support. The first mailing of letters soliciting support for the Livestock Show has been carried out. Anyone wanting to purchase "shares" who have not yet received a letter can contact a member of the Livestock Show Association or a director of the Chamber of Commerce. Names of those purchasing "shares" will be published in the Winters Enterprise after the completion of the drive.

A very interesting brochure which is published semiannually entitled Calendar of Texas Events, October, 1984 - March, 1985, is now available and is prepared for free distribution from the State Department of Public Highways and Public Transportation, Travel and Information Division, Austin, Texas 78701.

There are several things planned for the month of September. The string band of Winters played for us on Friday, the 14th. Everyone had alot of fun requesting songs and listening to the band. We always look forward to them visiting this facility.

We have been busy working on arts and crafts this month. We hope to be ready for the arts and crafts fair in October this year.

We have a new resident we'd like to welcome to the facility. Her name is Maggie Brooks. We hope she enjoys being here with us.

We have several residents with birthdays this month. They are Monie Bagley, Thelma Bell, Virgil Fuller, Pitzer Hays, Hubbard Smith, Grace Waggoner and Willie Pritchard. Our birthday party was held Tuesday the 25th at 3 p.m.

We'd like to thank Emma Fuller for providing punch, cake and ice cream one afternoon last week. Everyone enjoyed it very much.

Joe and Melba Emmert will be here the 28th at 7 p.m. to play the organ and sing. Anyone who wishes to attend is welcome to do so.

Roxie Miller was the winner of the bingo banner last week. Congratulations, Roxie.

We would like to thank Mac Oil Field for donating cole slaw to the nursing home.

We would also like to thank Christine Barker from Ceres, California for donating five lap robes to the residents. All donations are always appreciated.

Senior Citizens Nursing Home is in need of volunteers. Anyone who is interested should call Margie Clough or Roxie Miller at 754 4566 or 754-4567.

Blackwell

by Savannah Thompson

Mr. and Mrs. Don Lewis had as their visitors over the weekend their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Kordak from San Angelo.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jim Petty of Fort Stockton on the birth of their son, Delton Mathew, who arrived Monday, September 17. He weighed seven pounds, six ounces and was 22 inches long.

The proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Don Lewis of Blackwell. Mrs. Jim Petty is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Lewis. Mrs. Lewis is spending this week in Fort Stockton with her new grandbaby.

Ruby (Thompson) Scott of Dallas and her sister Opal (Doodle) Thompson Turner from Santa Cruz, California, visited Sunday and Monday with their aunt, Savannah Thompson.

They visited Sunday evening with Mrs. Flora Sanderson and other friends in the Bronte Nursing Home, and then Sunday night they visited Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Patterson who live in Amarillo but were here visiting his mother, Mrs. Sanderson. These girls lived in Blackwell several years before they went to Dallas to work. Ruby still lives in Dallas where she has worked at Sears. She retired last April and is really enjoying her retirement and plans to travel some.

The girls, the Sandersons and the Pattersons were neighbors here; so they always visit them while here.

Doodle (Opal) had planned to come to the Blackwell Homecoming, which was to have been September 15; but after it was changed to October 6, she came and this will be the first time she has not come back for homecoming.

The girls went on to Hope, New Mexico and visited with their brother, Maurice A. Thompson who is still on a ranch there but with a different man.

They drove back to Roswell, New Mexico Friday night and attended the wedding of their brother Maurice Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. The wedding was held in the backyard of the bride's sister's home. They reported it to be very nice and pretty, and they liked the bride very much.

When asked how Maurice was, they said he is doing real well, but like the rest of us, he is older, but he still works on the ranch.

Saturday night, they drove to Corona and visited their aunt, Mrs. Grady Pate. Sunday they drove to Snyder to see their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pate, as well as other relatives and friends. They left Monday morning, going back to Dallas. They went by Cross Plains to see Mr. and Mrs. Harim Patterson, who live in Tucson, Arizona, but have bought a place at Cross Plains and are improving it and will have it to come to when they retire.

The girls said they really enjoyed the trip and had covered the miles in such a short time, enjoying every minute of it. They hope to come to the Blackwell Homecoming next year. Doodle has always been the one to come the farthest distance.

They said to tell all the friends they had expected to see hello for them, and they are hoping they can come next year.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hoyle and Darlene had as their visitors over the weekend their son and brother and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Hoyle and daughter Candy from Odessa. Candy remembers her visit here two weeks ago and wants to go fishing again.

Herman Heale and his neighbor Mr. Pugh went to San Angelo last week to see Sam Smith; they reported him to be much improved. He hopes to be able to come home before too much longer.

Mrs. Hazel Caulder of Bronte (mother of George Chew) is still a patient in the San Antonio hospital and is reported to be improving nicely. Mrs. Caulder had open heart surgery two weeks ago and is able to walk around in her room some now. Her children have been with her, but they had all gone home last week except Mrs. Chew, and at this time they hope to be able to come home maybe this week.

Dorothy Faqua, who has been visiting in Oregon the last two months, came home last week to her mother's in Rowena. She had a real bad sick spell, but is just now able to come home. She came home by plane and is improving nicely at last report.

Local Baptists set Open House

The Brady-Coleman-Runnels Baptist Association of the Southern Baptist Convention will celebrate an open house for their new Area Building located next to the Ballinger Post Office. The fete is scheduled for Saturday, September 29, from 2 to 4 p.m.

Area missionary Ferris Akins stated, "We are grateful for the support of the churches and individuals across the area that have made this dream come true. I hope to see you September 29."

"By and large, mothers and housewives are the only workers who do not have regular time off. They are the great vacationless class." Anne Morrow Lindbergh

NEWCOMERS

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Hord III of Fort Worth announce the birth of a daughter, Jessica Dawn Hord, born September 16, 1984 at 6:11 p.m.

Our sympathy to the family of Mrs. Edna Elkins, Ballinger, one time school teacher out here at Eagle Branch. Then she was known as Miss Edna Hornburg.

The Woodroe Worthingtons and Mrs. Amber Fuller visited with Mrs. Shirley Hallford in Ballinger Friday. Later they all ate out.

Pat Cooper visited Ray, Cherry, and Amanda Cooper in Abilene Saturday.

The Marion Woods' children were home Sunday for dinner. The Larry Caicotes and boys, Winters, and the Maloy Bryants and boys, Albany, came, also.

The Hazel Dietzes are in the process of having their house bricked with some remodeling, too.

On Monday, the Dietzes had lunch with Jimmy Chapman in Winters.

R.C. and Mary Kurtz and I spent Sunday and had dinner with Hildegard and Junior Asbury, San Angelo. Others included Randall Kurtz, San Angelo; Jimmy, Brenda, and Shea Villers, San Angelo; and Peggy, Harold, and Wendy Liebo, Florida. The Liebos are here on furlough for three weeks.

After church services Sunday, the Noble Faubions asked the Therin Osbornes, the Rodney Faubions, and Amantina Faubion and girls out for dinner at the Tradewinds in Coleman.

Walter Jacob was really surprised on his birthday Sunday with a supper in the Mount Carmel Hall in Winters. Around 60 attended.

Many more happy birthdays, Walter.

USDA beef grade standards detailed

Each USDA beef grade represents a distinct level of quality, says Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service nutritionist Marilyn Haggard. Prime grade beef has abundant marbling, or flecks of fat in the lean, which enhances both flavor and juiciness. Choice grade beef has slightly less marbling than Prime, but is still of very high quality. Good grade beef lacks some of the juiciness and flavor of higher grades because it has less marbling.

Young Farmers have family night

The Winters Young Farmers held their annual family night September 10 at the Winters City Park. They enjoyed a hamburger and ice cream supper.

Officers for the coming year are Allen Andrae, president; Randall Conner, vice-president; Fred Watkins, secretary; Bob Prewitt, treasurer; and Gary Jacob and Dale Duggan, reporters.

The local chapter recently donated $400 to the Winters Livestock Association.

The Young Farmer Area IV Convention and Awards Luncheon will be Saturday, September 29 at the Iowa Park High School Vo Ag Building in Iowa Park, which is 13 miles from Wichita Falls.

Registration starts at 9 a.m. followed by the business session. During this session, a horticulture demonstration will be given in the greenhouse for the ladies.

Featured speaker for the awards luncheon will be Dr. Johnny Johnson, Teacher Educator, Agriculture Education Department, Tarleton State University, Stephenville.

After the awards luncheon a tour of the Jack Ayres Cutting Horse Training and Breeding Operation will be given, along with a cutting horse show exhibition.

All the Winters YF Chapter members and their spouses are encouraged to attend the meeting.

Some stores sell this quality beef under a house name rather than the USDA grade name, she says. Standard grade beef has a high proportion of lean meat and little fat. Because it lacks marbling, this grade of beef will be somewhat dry unless prepared with moist heat, says the nutritionist.

Our electrical energy use has about doubled every decade since 1900.

JV falls to Hamlin

The Winters Junior Varsity lost to Hamlin there last Thursday night, 12-6.

Todd Grantham scored the lone Winters touchdown on a seven yard pass from Doug Wheat.

Coach Jimmy Randolph said good offensive plays for Winters included a pass from Wheat to Grantham for 10 yards and a key first down on the touchdown drive; also Robert Vera's 17-yard run to the seven yard line, setting up the TD.

Randolph cited the good defensive play of Scott Shifflett who broke up a screen pass on fourth and short yardage. Also, Scott Pinkerton stopped the Hamlin quarterback on fourth and short.

The Winters coach listed several outstanding players: Doug Wheat who did a great job of finding and hitting receivers. Todd Grantham who made a TD catch and also had good pass coverage on a speedy split end. Scott Pinkerton for his excellent hitting game at linebacker. Robert Vera for his excellent tough running in the clutch, and Worth Hooper for his good job in the offensive line.

Coach Randolph commented, "We out-hit a much larger and older ball club. Our kids never gave up and fought Hamlin to the very end. The improvement from the Ballinger game was tremendous."

Winters 7th Grade ties Hamlin, 22 all

The Winters Seventh Grade football team tied Hamlin there last Thursday night, 22-22. Winters had led throughout the game, but Hamlin scored a touchdown as the clock ran out and added the extra points to tie the game.

The Breezes led 8-6 at the end of the first quarter, 16-6 at the half, and 16-14 at the end of the third quarter. Scoring for Winters was as follows: Don Patton swept right end for a 28 yard touchdown. The pass from quarterback Jimmy Ripley to Dan Killough for points after was no good.

Next, the Breezes defense caused a bad snap from center and a safety was scored.

Don Patton threw a halfback pass to Eloy Rodriguez. The play covered 55 yards and earned the Breezes another TD; the extra points were scored on a run by Jeremy DeLaCruz.

The final Winters score was made by DeLaCruz who swept around right end on a 35 yard gallop for the TD.

Winters coach Tom Selby said that although no statistics were kept, Jeremy DeLaCruz amassed about 150 yards rushing. He said that Don Patton executed the halfback pass to perfection.

Also, Eloy Rodriguez carried the ball four times for a 20 yard average.

On defense, Coach Selby praised the work of the linebackers, Gibo Lujano and DeLaCruz who contained a 180 pound fullback from Hamlin, holding him to short gains. "They also caused numerous tumbles which enabled us to have good field position," Selby stated.

Selby also had high praise for his offensive and defensive line. The offensive line opened "gaping holes" for the Winters backs to run through, while the defensive line held Hamlin ball carriers to no gain quite often.

Quarterback Jimmy Ripley showed outstanding leadership on the field, Selby said, adding that the quarterback position is perhaps the most demanding.

Commenting on the last few seconds of the game, Selby said, "With 46 seconds left, Hamlin was trailing 22 to 14. They had a first down on our 3 yard line. Our defensive team held them out of the end zone three consecutive times. On fourth down and a yard to go the ball was snapped with one second left on the clock, and Hamlin scored as time ran out and converted the extra points to tie the game at Winters 22-Hamlin 22."

"All in all, our entire 29 man roster played extremely well considering this was their first-ever football game," Coach Selby commented.

Talpa

By Maggie Ruth Stokes

The fifth Sunday Singing will be at the Immanuel Baptist Church this Sunday night. The Glen Cove Church and the Valera Church will meet with us. Anyone that enjoys singing is invited to join us. It will be at 7:00 p.m.

Vernon and Billie Clark of Fort Stockton visited Merl and Don Smith on Friday.

Clyde and Edith Hollinger visited his aunt, Billie Hollinger in Abilene one day last week.

Pat and John Stevens of Coleman visited Newt and Marie Bains last Sunday afternoon.

Bill and Jo Rae of Hamlin visited a few days this week in the George Rae home. Bill, Jo and Ila Fay trimmed trees, cut wood and really helped the looks of their parents place.

Horace and I visited our brother-in-law, Edgar Whitley in Hendricks Hospital in Abilene on Saturday.

Amos and Mary Turner of Grand Prairie and some friends are at their home in Talpa for several days and are bird hunting.

Mrs. Polly Richey of Dallas was buried in the Talpa Cemetery on Monday afternoon. She was the wife of Horace Lee Richey, former Talpa resident. Mrs. Shirley Baker entered the St. John's Hospital in San Angelo on Saturday.

Robert and Grace Bailey of Garland and Ethel Bell of Ft. Worth were at their farm a few days. Annie Lee Ray visited them.

Clyde and Edith Hollinger visited Mrs. Billie McClure in Coleman Sunday night.

Benton and Pat Cassaday and Zane spent Saturday at the Abilene fair. Zane had some sheep in the show.

Bill and Karen Hicks took a group of young folks to the fair at Abilene on Saturday night.

Talpa Centennial High School boys lost their game to Brooksmith on Friday night. They have a two win and one loss record so far.

Jackie and Chris Shifflett of Sweetwater visited the Everett Evans' this weekend.

The best gifts are those that keep on giving year-round. A fine art reproduction, for instance, attractively framed, or a subscription to a special magazine can be constant reminders that you remember someone with something special.

Consumers prefer lean beef steaks

A nationwide panel of beef tasters verified that a sizeable group of consumers want their steak lean and there will be a ready market for that type product.

More than 1,100 consumers in four cities - San Francisco, Houston, Kansas City and Philadelphia - took part in the study just completed by the Texas Agricultural Market Research and Development Center at Texas A&M University. The center is an education and research service of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"The study, which is the first part of a two-phased research project, produced more than 8,000 ratings of beef steaks," said Dr. Bob Branson, director of the market research center. "Panelists ate and rated beef loin steaks as to their flavor, tenderness and juiciness. The steaks represented seven levels within the federal grades - low Prime; high, middle and low Choice; high and low Good; and Standard."

Branson explained that Prime grades of beef are usually served in the better restaurants while Choice and Good grades are usually sold in supermarkets. The Standard grade is reserved for the leanest beef. Beef grades, he explained, are based on the amount of marbling - small specks of fat - in the red meat.

"We are trying to find out what kind of beef consumers really want so that both beef producers and retailers can do a better job in providing that product," Branson said. "Some retailers are continuing to market USDA Choice beef, which has more fat, while others are trying to appeal to the consuming public by promoting the health aspects of leaner beef. Cattlemen are caught in the middle and are not sure which way to turn."

While panelists nationwide agreed on the rankings, some important geographical differences were found, noted Branson. For instance, panelists in the Houston and San Francisco areas found no significant difference in the low Choice and high Good beef steaks. Also, about 25 percent of those in the study rated the lower half of the Good grade beef with a seven or higher on a nine-point scale, indicating high desirability.

So where does that leave the beef producer and the retailer? "Obviously, we still have a lot of work to do to get a better handle on what direction beef production and marketing should take in the future," Branson said. "Phase two of this study will be a market test in retail supermarkets to obtain information about consumer preferences for a variety of beef cuts and to determine how well leaner beef can be marketed."

"It's possible that there are two markets for beef - one for higher quality beef with more fat and one for leaner beef. We hope to find the answer," Branson said.

"Never do today what you can Put off till tomorrow," William Brightly Rands

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor,

In July, Congress passed a law that may be the best health cost containment ever adopted, but almost no one knows about it.

The PARTICIPATING PHYSICIAN PROGRAM encourages physicians to accept the amount MEDICARE considers a reasonable charge as payment in full on all Medicare claims.

The program has great potential to help curb skyrocketing health care costs. But few Medicare beneficiaries are aware of it. The government has contacted doctors to notify them of the program, but it has done nothing to inform Medicare beneficiaries. Patients need to know they can save money by seeking a participating physician. And they need to know non-participating physicians cannot raise their charges to beneficiaries beyond what they charged during the second quarter of 1984.

In its report accompanying the passage of this law, Congress said that much of the success of this program will depend on beneficiaries. The American Association of Retired Persons urges all consumers to encourage their doctors to participate. And it suggests that patients demonstrate their support after October 1 by seeking out participating physicians. Insurance carriers plan to publish directories and install toll-free telephone lines to help beneficiaries find out the names, locations and specialties of participating physicians in this area.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Eileen Gordon, Pres.
Runnels County Chapter 2221

Bike-A-Thon is this Saturday

The Cystic Fibrosis Bike-A-Thon will be held this Saturday beginning at 9 a.m. at the City Park. Pledge forms are available at the elementary school office, high school counselor's office, and from Rhunelle Poe at the Winters State Bank.

A two-mile course has been set up; entrants may ride as many times as they want.

Those who turn in the most money from pledges will win prizes donated by local merchants: a television for first place, a radio for second, and a travel clock for third. Also, everyone turning in $30 or more in pledges will receive a CF t-shirt.

Cystic fibrosis is a disease that is transmitted by a gene which many people carry without their knowledge. Statistics estimate that some 20 million people carry the gene. At present, no test exists to identify the cystic fibrosis gene; so there is no way to rule out the possibility. The only sure answer is when a child is diagnosed as having the fatal lung disease. Then the child faces a lifetime of physical therapy, expensive medications, and hospitalizations in an effort to be able to breathe and eat, things most people take for granted. A lifetime may be only 20 years.

CF kills more children in this country than any other inherited disease. It is generally diagnosed by a sweat test, since persons with CF have an unusual amount of salt in their sweat. Other symptoms include: recurrent wheezing, persistent coughing with excessive mucus, pneumonia more than once, excessive appetite with poor weight gain and clubbing (enlargement of the fingertips), a salty taste to the skin, persistent bulky diarrhea and nasal polyps.

Mothers have sometimes alerted doctors to the possibility of CF after tasting salt when kissing their child.

On the kickoff, Manie Esquivel sped from the five to the 20 before being brought down. Yates then carried to the 45 for a first down, and Garcia hit Nick Trevino for another first down. Garcia scrambled for another ten yards, but the drive ended in an interception at the Winters 30. Hamlin's Tommy Chase picked off the pass and ran it all the way back for a touchdown. The pass for extra points failed. Hamlin led 28-0 with 24 seconds left in the half.

Winters received the second half kickoff and managed a fourth down and inches conversion on a run by Belk. On the next set of downs, Yates was hit very hard while running full tilt, and the ball came loose. Hamlin recovered.

The Pipers mounted a drive from the Winters 47 with passes and finally a long run for a TD. The kick was good. The score stood at Hamlin 35, Winters 0, with 5:08 left in the third quarter.

Punts by both teams rounded out the quarter. Early in the final period, Hamlin scored their last TD on a run by Mike Howerston. The kick failed.

Dale Roberts caught a pass, and Yates and Belk carried the ball, but both possessions were unsuccessful late in the game. Fine defensive play by Yates, Eddie Trevino, Hood and others prevented any further scores by Hamlin. The game ended with Hamlin in front, 41-0.
