Before you even think that Sunday just to set my clocks ahead that single hour, you gotta another think coming - I'll do it before I call it a night Saturday.

Take note of the time change so you can make it to the church on time.

The Saturday rains did wonders for our water supply. The old lake was running through the spillway and the new lake was within a yard of being full.

It is worth the drive out just to see all the water.

By the way, you might notice a new sign at the new lake. It is rather hard to miss, being placed at the top of the boat ramp.

That sign is enough to make one wonder. It says that boats on the lake must not exceed 30 miles per hour and that the speed limit is radar enforced. Just imagine, we may have a

If memory serves, the faster a boat travels in the water, the less wave it makes. The slow boat, plowing deep in the water makes a large wake that could rock the fishermen some.

Something about that speed limit, to one who skis, or has in the past, seems all wet.

Before you reach for that botle of vitamin pills again, don't you think you should know more about what you're taking?

The easiest way to describe itamins is to say that they are chemical compounds of an organic nature. This means they come from living things-like the plants and animal products that make up our diet.

Shortages of vitamins are not a concern for most of us, if we eat a reasonably sound diet, because we requre them in only tiny amounts. We need only a fraction of an ounce of all the vitamins combined from the entire amount of food we eat in a day to maintain good health.

Vitamins promote good health by assisting the major nutrientsproteins, carbohydrates and fats-to do their jobs. The fatsoluble vitamins, A,D,E, and K, must be accompained by fats in order to be absorbed into your body. Once there, they move about slowly and tend to settle into fatty tissue waiting to be

The water soluble vitamins, C and the B-complex, enter the body freely, move easily and are expelled if not used immediately.

What do these points mean or you? First, that the watersoluble vitamins must be replenished regularly since the body does not store these. If you take megadose of water-soluble vitamins-like vitamin C-you just waste your money. And if you take megadoses of fat solbule vitamins-especially A and Dthey will be stored in your body and can produce poisonous build-

Turnrow 1

By Mandie Armstrong EA-Ento (PM) Runnels Tom Green Counties

Turnrow Tidbits is a pest management newsletter dealing primarily with insect infestation in row crops and suggestions for their control. This weekly newsletter is intended to alert producers of impending insect problems by providing summaries of insect situations in Runnels, Tom Green, and surrounding counties.

This newsletter is only intended to lend a helping hand, Nothing replaces field scouting for proper management decisions. In Turnrow Tidbits, we'll try to keep you informed of what to be looking for and how and where to be looking.

It's a Date

Uniform Planting Dates for cotton have been set in Runnels and Tom Green Counties. May 25 is the date selected by Tom Green County producers. Runnels County farmers chose May

For more successful boll weevil suppression, producers are asked to cooperate with their neighbors on the dates set. Uniformity is a very critical part of the Uniform Delayed Planting concept.

So when the planting date gets here, weather permitting, let's get in there, get planted, and get through.

Pest Management Program Scouting will begin as soon as the crop is up and will continue contain no energy. What they do is to allow those major nutrients to do their jobs, one of which is to provide you with energy. And whether you have vitamins in minimum amounts or in megadoses, the energy outcome is the same.

So don't attempt to rely on vitamin pills as a substitute for a well-balanced diet. If you eat properly, there is no nutritional advantage in taking vitamins.

until the hard dough stage in grain sorghum and at least until the end of August in cotton. Final Tidbit

"A dirt farmer is a man who starts out with nothing, loses on everything he grows and comes out even at the end of the year. If any man aspires to the title of the dirt farmer, let him measure himself by this standard: he must have worn out two pairs of overalls growing cotton enough for one; he must regularly do half a day's work after the sun goes down; he must have heart to plant in hope, cultivate in faith, and end in failure, and start all over with greater hope and stronger faith. This is a dirt farmer. Heaven help the family that depends on him for its support; heaven help the nation that does not have him to depend on for its support." Alpha Zeta

The Winters Enterprise, Winters, Texas, Thursday, April 25, 1985 5 Coleman roping to benefit Boys Ranch

The books for the event open at noon. Teams may enter for $30 for three steers, progressive

Aside from sharing in the event's proceeds, West Texas Boys Ranch will also operate the concession stand on the grounds.

The West Texas Boys Ranch is located 17 miles west of San Angelo. It provides a home for boys ages six through 17. The facility, which is licensed by the state, is a working 963 acre ranch. The boys attend school in San Angelo and are encouraged to participate in extracurricular activities.

R.C. MITCHELL HYBRID GRAIN SORGHUMS STANDKING Y-G-25

A new hetero-yellow endosperm hybrid that is medium to medium-early maturing. It has greenbug tolerance as well as good drought resistance, stands well and threshes easily. It is a very adaptable hybrid and has produced good yields in both irrigated and limited-rainfall areas. Reaches a height of 38 to 16 inches and matures in 105 to 110 days.

STANDMASTER

A variety that has developed on our farms for those who want good yields, outstanding standability and one that will stand a shortage of water, if necessary. The short stiff stalk helps it wait for the combine. Standmaster blooms about five days earlier than Standking Y-G and matures in 105-110 days depending on the environment. This has been a big dependable winner in the Roll-Plains and will do well in many areas of Texas.

Capitol Update

For this week I want to complete the presentation of the opinion poll, responses and comments commenced last week.

We continue with question number 6 on that survey.

(6) Should Texas increase its Aid to Families with Dependent Children?

Response: 30 percent in favor, 70 percent opposeed.

COMMENT: To a slight extent, and at the risk of opening myself to criticism, I think there is a misconception concerning abuses of AFDC. We all know of instances where able-bodied individuals, both male and female accept, and in fact live off of, welfare payments and refuse to work. I do not believe that is the ease with AFDC and, having nurtured two children to "semiadulthood" myself, I cannot conceive of anyone consciously sett ting out to have a child for the purpose of availing themselves of $42 per month. I would hope by your response to the poll you mean you want those who can help themselves to do so and that you do not want to deny necessities to the State's children. As best I can tell realistically these children have no control over circumstances of birth and I am sure, given a choice, 99 times out of 100 they would opt to be born to a rich (7) Should the state require proof of insurance before a driver can purchase and/or

Response: 83 percent in favor, 17

renew his license plate each

COMMENT: This reponse simp ly confirms the fact that reponsible people are just sick and tired of drivers who cause accidents and then have no ability to make compensation for damages they have caused. I expect to see a change in insurance laws that would require proof of coverage at least for a period of time covered by the registration so insurance could not be purchased for the purpose of registration then subsequently dropped. On the other hand, in the next session of the Legislature I would like to explore the possibility of legislation that would allow a person to be "self-insured" under certain circumstances and with proper showing of financial ability.

(8) Are you prepared to reduce social services to avoid new taxes?

Response: 63 percent in favor, 37 percent opposed.

COMMENT: While I am not advising that we turn the poor and sick into the streets, I am strongly of the opinion that the government, both State and Federal, has attempted to be too much for too many and has insinuated itself into our society with an attitude that we must be protected and cared for whether we wish to be or not. Since this is such a broad area, I would like to reserve the editor's privilege of curtailing my comment on "social programs" here, and perhaps devote a later column to this subject.

(9) Do you think the state should have a comprehensive. state-wide water plant?

Response: 70 percent in favor, 30 percent opposed. COMMENT: This response is also, I find, somewhat misleading because, while everyone agrees we should have a state-wide water plan, almost everyone has a different opinion as to what that plan should be. My position, at this writing, is that I hope we can a state-wide skelton plan in effect and refine it over the coming years as may be necessary to meet the State's changing needs. (10) If so, would you support the funds needed for such a plan? Response: 63 percent in favor, 37 percent opposed.

COMMENT: The bond sales approach to water development programs is an attractive funding mechanism; however, only the politically naive harbor any illusions as to who will pay the ultimate costs. The taxpayer will pay and the degree of comprehensiveness of any water plan will be conditioned either upon the people's willingness to fund the program, pre-crisis or dictated by demands of crisis.

I apoligize for the length of the articles covering this opinion survey but I simply felt you would be interested in seeing the results.

Social Security benefits and the amount of the monthly benefit are based on your earnings, not on the amount of taxes paid.

If you work for more than one employer during a year, you may have more than the maximum amount of Social Security taxes withheld. If so, the excess may be claimed on your income tax return for that year. However, if too much in taxes was withheld by a single employer, you should request a refund from your employer.

If your own records do not agree with the amount shown on the earnings statement, you should contact a Social Security Office without delay. You should have Form W-2 pay slips, and other proof of wages when you go to the Social Security office.

If the difference between your own records and the earnings statement involves income from self-employment, the date this information was filed, copies of the Federal tax return (including Schedules C or F and SE), and the location of the IRS office to which they were sent should be submitted to Social Security.

The Winters Enterprise, Winters, Texas, Thursday, April 25, 1985 9 Fourth Annual Art competition slated

Charles Congressman Stenholm announced plans today for the Fourth Annual Art competition for high school students, grades 9 through 12, in the 17th Congressional District. The contest will culminate May 25, 1985, with an awards luncheon in Abilene. The winner will be displayed in a corridor leading to the United States capitol for one year. All winners in the local contests will receive a Congressional Certificate of Appreciation.

"Over 30,000 students from all over the nation have participated in this contest during the past three years. We have had outstanding talent from the 17th District and I believe it is very important to encourage these creative energies which are so vital to our cultural traditions," said Stenholm.

This nationwide search for excellence, conducted with no Federal funds, is open to every high school student. Artwork must be no larger than 30"x 30" (unframed) and two-dimentional. Landscapes shall portray Texas scenes. Eligible categories are paintings, drawings, collages, and prints.

The regional show scheduled in Abilene will be on Saturday, May 18, at the Cooper High School Cafeteria. Counties to be included are Callahan, Coleman, Haskell, Jones, Nolan, Runnels, Shackelford, Stonewall, and Taylor. All entries must be in place by noon on the 18th with appropriate entry form completed.

This is one of seven (7) regional shows being held over the vast 17th district. Five (5) top winners from Abilene will compete with those from similiar contests in Big Spring. Gainesville, Graham, Snyder, Stephenville, and Weatherford. Additional information may 915/692-9591.

We want to express our appreciation to the City and Couny men who worked Saturday, to the Winters Lions Club and the Winters Boy Scouts who helped and to the regional chairmen who directed the clean up program.

We also want to thank Nelan and Celesta Bahlman for furnishing lemonade which was provided to the clean up volunteers at the most logical location, the city dump grounds.

With all the man hours that were put in Saturday, there are still things to be done to improve the appearance of our town. Bob Prewit is coordinator of a plan to dispose of the smaller bits of

And. a fifty cent cup of soft drink at the ball game is cheap but a fifteen cent glass of milk for breakfast is inflationary. And, Lord, help me to understand why five dollars for a ticket to the local movie is a bargain, but $3.35 for a sixty pound bushel of wheat is unthinkable. Cotton is too high at sixty cents a pound, but a twenty dollar cotton shirt is on sale for $18.50. And corn is too steep at two cents worth in a box of flakes, but the flakes are just right at fifty cents a serving. And also, Lord, help me to understand why I have to give an easement to the gas company, so they can cross my property with their gas lines, and then double my price for their gas. And also, Dear God, help me to understand the consumer who drives by my field and scoffs at me for driving a seventy thousand dollar piece of equipment, that he built, so he could make money and drive down that right-of-way that they took from me to build a road, so that he could go hunting and skiing.
