Heavy damage

A young Winters couple was left homeless early Tuesday morning when fire raced through their home in the 400 block of South Rogers Street. Firemen were called just after 2 a.m. to the blaze and finally put the fire out about 3:30 a.m. Mr. and Mrs. R.J. DuBose were home asleep when the fire broke out. Both escaped without injury. Firemen speculate an electric heater shorted and caused the fire. The home received heavy damage in the fire and the contents received smoke, heat, and water damage.

Minor accident leads to more wrecks and arrests

A minor traffic crash in the 200 block of Novice Road Friday night started a rash of accidents that involved the same two vehicles, in different cities, and lauded the drivers in trouble with several police agencies.

The first accident involved a 1983 Ford Station Wagon driven by Mark Hambright, of Bronte and a late model Pontiac Grand Prix driven by Epigimeno (Bobo) Valles of Winters.

Winters Police officer Tim Dexter said that apparently the station wagon attempted to turn around on Novice Road and collided with the Pontiac, which was traveling at a very high rate of speed. Dexter said that the driver of the Ford wagon apparently became frightened and fled the scene, leaving behind a front bumper, license plate, and two headlights.

The Pontiac continued at a very high rate of speed to the intersection of Novice Road and U.S. 83. Dexter said that the car didn't slow at the intersection, crossed the highway, jumped a curb, and smashed into the drive axle of a large truck parked at Jedd Manufacturing.

Dexter said that the impact knocked the large truck about seven feet, sideways. Three occupants were in the Valles car along with the driver and one received a minor facial cut. The police officer said that Valles was arrested and transported to the Runnels County Jail, charged with DWI, second offense, Driving While License Suspended, and no proof of liability insurance.

While Dexter was carrying Valles to Ballinger, Officer Richard Hawkins was assisting with the investigation of the two accidents and was attempting to run a computer check to see who the front bumper belonged to.

Hawkins said that computer problems in Austin delayed the check and local and county officers were notified to be on the look-out for a vehicle without a front bumper and two headlights.

About that time, the Winters

Police dispatcher received a call from the Highway Patrol office in San Angelo. Officials there were trying to find more information on a vehicle that fled from a Highway Patrol Trooper between Winters and Bronte.

Authorities in Coke County said that the trooper was in pursuit of a Ford station wagon and that the vehicle apparently went out of control and crashed into a fixed object.

The station wagon was minus a front bumper, license plate, and two headlights.

Officers in Bronte took Mark Hambright into custody following the third accident involving his car. He faces a number of charges in Coke County.

In Winters, Officer Tim Dexter said that a misdemeanor charge of hit and run was filed against the youth.

Rape suspect nabbed by Ballinger officers

Ballinger Police Chief Paul Boggess said officers from his department, assisted by Runnels County Sheriff's officers took Ronnie Escobar into custody in connection with the rape of an elderly Ballinger woman and the burglary of her home.

Escobar, in his early 20's, is being held in the Runnels County Jail in lieu of $25,000 bond on preliminary charges of burglary of a habitation. Bond was set by Justice of the Peace Wilburn Davis.

The rape occurred early Friday, June 13, between 1 a.m. and 2 a.m. Chief Boggess said that the entry to the woman's home was gained by breaking out a window in the back door of the house.

Escobar was taken into custody, without incident, by police and sheriff's officers who conducted an investigation into the rape and then kept the suspect under surveillance for a period of time.

At the forum, Gramm will address current agriculture issues facing West Texas farmers. He also will discuss the effects of national agriculture policy in this area in particular.

His visit to Abilene is one of several stops across the state, in which he will be holding similar forums on issues affecting Texas farmers.

Police solve burglary, only to have another reported

Ballinger Police officers were kept busy last week with the investigation into the burglary of Dankworth Packing Company where a large quantity of meat was taken along with some knives and an undetermined amount of cash.

Acting on information uncovered by an intense investigation, officers obtained and executed a search warrant at a residence in Ballinger and found several knives taken in the Dankworth burglary.

Two Ballinger men, Joe Louis Portillo, 21, and Richard Martinez, 28, were arrested in connection with the incident. Both men are now free on bond on the charges.

A short time after the Dankworth burglary was cleared officers were called to Bill's Dollar Store to investigate a burglary there.

Chief Boggess said that entry to the building was through a freight door at the side of the building. He said that it would not be known just what was taken in that break-in until store employees could take an inventory of the merchandise.

The chief said the burglary occurred sometime late Saturday or early Sunday.

All's Well That End's Well

All people on the Palo Duro Canyon trip were out early Thursday morning to see what the prospects for the day were. Director Dean Smith was very consoling. He said, "I wish I knew."

Dean Spearman, driver of the big bus that refused to run, had been up all night working on it, but to no avail. He was put on a plane and returned to Dallas while another bus and driver were sent for.

In the meanwhile a continental breakfast was served in the Primrose Room by the Quality Inn as a courtesy to the travelers. Further diversion was provided for the waiting passengers by Dean Smith who ran a scuttle bus back and forth to the shopping mall.

The schedule called for a morning tour of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum in Canyon and a tour paid dinner in Lubbock. Since we were not there, obviously the meal was cancelled, but it was exchanged for an excellent lunch in an Amarillo cafeteria.

Back at the hotel, our coach had arrived and was ready to go. This was easily managed, as we had checked out of our rooms and left our luggage in the baggage room.

One woman, a first time tour traveler, remarked that she never saw such a nice group of people. "There was not one word of complaint or fussing about the delay," she said.

"What did we have to complain about?" we asked her. Most of us were seasoned travelers and knew everything was being done that was possible for our comfort and safety. We just "hang loose" and have a good time like they say in Hawaii. Our only regret is the inconvenience that the tour directors suffer.

Although we didn't voice it, there was regret in our minds because we knew that we wouldn't get to see the museum in Canyon, but we consoled ourselves by thinking of the great experiences that had already been ours.

When we reached Canyon, Dean announced there would be an hour's stop at the museum, making us only an hour off schedule. We would reach home at 9 o'clock instead of 8. What difference does an hour make to most of us, with not even a cat or dog waiting for us when we get home. The Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum is located a block east of the highway intersection in the city of Canyon on the corner of West Texas State University campus. It is the oldest and largest public-supported museum in the state of Texas. All over the world, the Museum has many fine collections reflecting the history of Texas and the Southwest.

The Pioneer Village is outfitted with life-size dwellings, stores, and shops that recall the style of life in West Texas at the turn of the century, a board sidewalk surrounds the village. From the town pump to the Staked Plains Hotel, all of the community needs are met with the bank, livery stable, the blacksmith shop, the general store, the saloon, the dress shop, the schoolroom and the home.

At the edge of the village are two complete "homesteads"—the Sam Wood Cabin built in 1887 (he was the father of the bride for the first marriage recorded in the Panhandle) and Colonel Charles Goodnight's log cabin built on Mulberry Creek in 1881, which served as a line camp for many decades.

The transportation collection features scores of vintage wagons, buggies, and rare automobiles.

There is a new section of the museum that houses the Panhandle Oil and Gas Exhibit. Some of us went to the new addition first because we had visited the museum before and had seen the rest of it. Visitors walk through a huge diorama of the "oil patch" and view exhibits on every aspect of finding and producing fuel in the Panhandle.

The museum is full of articles relating Southwestern history from the pre-historic ages to the 10th Century. Its section on cowboys and Indians and pioneers is very complete. No exhibits have been purchased; all were given to the museum.

The Panhandle-Plains Historical Society was formed in 1919, chartered in 1923, and the first unit of the museum opened to the public in 1923. All source materials are available to students and historians. This includes 15,000 volumes of Western Americans and several hundred historical manuscripts and photo collections—Museum hours are 9-5 Monday through Saturday and 2-6 Sunday, admission is free.

The remainder of the trip home for the Magic Travelers on the small bus was spent in gathering up belongings and saying goodbye to fellow travelers. Dean's sister-in-law, Laverne Taylor, of Houston was a great help. The Joe Hefners stopped at Snyder and Virginia Hefner left us at Sweetwater. About half of the crowd departed at Blackwell including Vivian Hipp, Thelma Conradt, Eula Nabors, Juanita McRorey, Ruth White, and Melvin and In-

WATCH WORK during hot weather
Hot, humid weather can be hazardous to your health, particularly if you work outdoors. Outdoor workers often suffer from such physical disorders as heat stroke, heat exhaustion, heat cramps and fainting when they do not take time to adjust to the heat, notes a safety engineer with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University. To avoid heat-related problems, workers should take frequent rest breaks, drink fluids every 15 to 20 minutes, wear loose garments of thin cotton fabric to enhance air circulation near the skin, and slow down work speed. Workers also need protection from equipment heat sources and need to work in well ventilated areas. 14-1tp

Tax reform would help cattlemen

Cattle operators should find the tax reform legislation currently in Congress to their liking, says an economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University. Among advantages in the Senate Finance Bill compared to current law are the following: a reduction in tax brackets, no restrictions on costs of raising replacement heifers, an increase in the level of capital expensing, an increase in the depreciation period for single purpose agricultural structures, an allowance for health insurance expenses for self-employed persons, an increase in personal exemptions, and an increase in the level at which employer withholding would begin.

Public Notice

The City of Winters, a Municipal Corporation of Runnels County, is accepting sealed bids for the mineral lease for Oil and Gas on the Winters City Farm as follows:
Tract 1: 31.0 Acres out to the Thomas Green Survey No. 490, A-232 of Runnels County.
Tract 2: 90.0 Acres out of the C. O. Harris Survey No. 2½, A-1161 of Runnels County.
Tract 3: 0.9 Acres out of the J. Pointevent Survey No. 1, A-594 of Runnels County.

Said total aggregate is 121.9 Acres.

Bids will be received in the office of the City Administrator, 310 S. Main, Winters, Texas 79567, until 10:00 a.m., July 18th, 1986. Bids will be reviewed by the City Council at the next regularly scheduled Council meeting.

The City reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

David Ghere is National Award winner for 1985

The United States Achievement Academy has announced that David Ghere has been named a 1985 United States National Award winner in Science. This award is a prestigious honor very few students can ever hope to attain. In fact, the Academy recognizes less than 10% of all American high school students.

David Ghere, who attends Groesbeck Junior High School, was nominated for this National Award by Paula Grube, a science teacher at the school. David Ghere will appear in the United States Achievement Academy Official Yearbook, published nationally.

Recognizing and supporting our youth is more important than ever before in America's history. Certainly United States Achievement Academy award winners should be congratulated and appreciated for their dedication to excellence and achievement," said Dr. George Stevens, Executive Director of the United States Achievement Academy.

The Academy selects USAA winners upon the exclusive recommendation of teachers, coaches, counselors or other school sponsors and upon the Standards of Selection set forth by the Academy. The criteria for selection are a student's academic performance, interest and aptitude, leadership qualities, responsibility, enthusiasm, motivation to learn and improve, citizenship, attitude and cooperative spirit, dependability, and recommendation from a teacher or director.

David is the son of Howard and Donna Ghere. The Grandparents are Inez Ghere of Harper, Kansas and Mrs. Robert Hagle of Winters, and Melvin Callis of Orangeville, California.

Local youth attend seminar

More than 400 high school juniors and seniors participated in the 24th Annual Texas Farm Bureau Citizenship Seminar, June 16-20, on the campus of Angelo State University at San Angelo.

Attending the seminar from Runnels County were: Jeanne Lange, Louis Perry, Lorie Clendenen, and Christi Ray.

Purpose of the seminar is to give students a better understanding of the various forms of government, the free enterprise system and their responsibilities as citizens, according to James Gipe, TFB Citizenship Seminar coordinator. Students are sponsored through county Farm Bureaus.

Dr. L. D. Vincent, President of Angelo State, delivered welcoming comments to the students and Elvin Caraway, former State FFA President and National Vice-President, provided the opening address.

TFB President S. M. True and TFB Executive Director Warren Newberry were included in the program discussing the future of agriculture and Farm Bureau.

The students also heard inspiring talks on patriotism and free enterprise from seven individuals. The speakers and their topics were: Steve Pratt, National Center for Constitutional Studies, "The Making of America"; Dr. Sam Zakheim, Vice President Corporate Relations, Rocky Mountain Orthodontics, Denver, Colorado, "Understanding the Middle East"; Basilio Bachor, a Polish immigrant, "Understanding Communism"; Dr. Calvin Kent, Director, Center for Free Enterprise, Baylor University, Waco, Texas, "Free Enterprise and You"; Fred McClure, Special Assistant to the President—Legislative Affairs, Washington, D.C., "The Challenge for Young Leaders"; Dr. Wayne Matthews, Family Life Specialist, Oklahoma State University, Stillwater, Oklahoma, "Citizenship and Self Esteem" and "Citizenship and the Family"; and Jack Jackson, Chairman of the Board, LDI Corporation, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, "The Price of Free Enterprise."

The ostrich is the largest living bird. It may stand nearly eight feet tall and weigh as much as 345 pounds.

Canning low-acid tomatoes

A little lemon juice may make the difference between safe home canned tomatoes and those that can cause food poisoning, says a Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service specialist. According to nutritionist Marilyn Haggard, recent U.S. Department of Agriculture research shows that the acidity level of fresh tomatoes drops after canning. "This can compromise the safety of home canned tomatoes, especially if they are overripe when canned or if the lower-acid varieties are used," she cautions. "By adding lemon juice to tomatoes, the acid level will be high enough that home canners can safely use a water bath for tomatoes, rather than having to use a pressure cooker," she advises. One tablespoon of bottled lemon juice per pint or two tablespoons per quart should be added to the tomatoes, says Haggard. Bottled lemon juice is recommended because it has a uniform pH.

Texans benefit from Brotherhood

Texas communities, churches and individuals received $636,736 from Lutheran Brotherhood last year in various forms of assistance, including grants, matching funds, disaster relief aid, educational scholarships and loans. These and other programs are sponsored and operated by Lutheran Brotherhood and its 29,745 members in Texas. Additional funds were raised by 20 local branches in the state.

Lutheran Brotherhood members in Texas held more than $583 million of life insurance in force in 1985.

More than 8.6 million in life insurance and annuity benefits was paid to Lutheran Brotherhood members of their beneficiaries in Texas. Of this amount, $3.8 million was paid to members in the form of dividends.

At the end of last year, Lutheran Brotherhood held securities of Texas-based companies worth $158.1 million. Lutheran Brotherhood's investment portfolio also included more than $82.9 million in mortgages on Texas properties.

Lutheran Brotherhood has almost 900,000 members nationwide who belong to nearly 600 branches, volunteer groups which carry out Society programs locally. In 1985, it allocated $24 million in support of its members, their communities and Lutheran activities. The Society's 1,400 member field force offers a broad range of financial products and services to Lutherans throughout the United States.

Bullock says Texans to get tax break

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Friday said Texans will get a multi-million dollar tax break because of Senate vote on the federal tax overhaul bill that will permit partial deduction of state sales tax.

Bullock said the sales tax amendment, co-sponsored by Texas Sen. Phil Gramm and supported by Texas Sen. Lloyd Bentsen, would let Texas Taxpayers deduct 60 percent of their state and local taxes in figuring federal income taxes.

"The sales tax provision will save Texans who use this deduction at least $112 million. Anytime we don't have to send over $100 million to Washington, it's good news," Bullock said.

Bullock said Gramm's amendment was especially beneficial to Texas because the tax reform bill pending in the U.S. Senate originally allowed deductions for state and local income taxes.

"We were being penalized because we didn't have a state income tax despite the fact that we don't want an income tax," Bullock said.

Bullock said the amendment would save a deduction worth more than $270 to the average Texas taxpayer who files an itemized return.

He said that Texans claimed an average of $449 in sales tax deductions in 1984 and the 60 percent rule would preserve most of that deduction.

According to Bullock, about 27 percent of Texas taxpayers itemize on federal returns so the amendment allowing sales tax deductions will affect more than one-in-four taxpayers.

Survivors must apply

Surviving dependents of a deceased worker should apply for Social Security benefits as soon as possible following a worker's death, Franklin H. Upp, Social Security manager in San Angelo, said recently.

Applying promptly will allow benefits to start in the shortest possible time, Upp said. In addition, some benefits cannot be paid for more than 1 month before the month of application.

Social Security benefits can be paid to these survivors:
-Unmarried children under 18, or 18-19 if full-time secondary school students.
-Unmarried children over 18 who were disabled before 22 and remain disabled.

-A surviving widow or widower of any age caring for a child under 16 or a disabled who gets benefits.
-Widow or widower 60 or over.
-Disabled widow or widower 50-60.
-Dependent parents 62 or over.

Benefits can also be paid to a surviving divorced spouse if she or he was married to the deceased worker 10 years or more. Grandchildren can get benefits on a grandparent's record under certain circumstances.

Before any benefits can be paid, the worker must have had credit for a certain amount of work covered by Social Security. In 1986, the amount ranges from 1 1/2 to 8 3/4 years depending on the age of the worker at death.

Cutting back on sodium a little easier

Consumers should find it a little easier to cut back on sodium in their diets, thanks to a new Food and Drug Administration (FDA) regulations, says a Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service nutritionist. Beginning July 1, 1986, the FDA will require that the sodium content be shown on any food that provides nutrition information on the label, reports Mary K. Sweeten. "The regulation should be of real help to people who are concerned about the hidden sources of sodium in processed foods," she says. According to the nutritionist, sodium content will be listed in milligrams per serving. Consumers can use that information to see if they are staying within the recommended sodium intake of 1,100 to 3,300 milligrams a day.

Security survivor benefits can be obtained at the San Angelo Social Security Office located at 2214 Sherwood Way. The telephone number is 949-4608.

Preparations for State Fair underway

Preparations for this year's State Fair of Texas are heating up as fast as the Texas summer.

The first deadline in the Creative Arts Department is July 5, when entries are due for the "Shoe Box" Float competition. Each float design must be constructed using an actual shoe box and is required to focus on a Sesquicentennial theme. The top prize winner will be developed into a full-sized float which will be featured in the nightly parade during the fair, September 26-October 26.

Another special competition for the Sesquicentennial year is the "Best of Texas" Birthday Cake contest, sponsored by Burrus Mills, which features a grand prize trip for two to Hawaii. Cake recipes should be mailed to the Creative Arts Department no later than July 15, 1986.

Entries in the Sesquicentennial Quilt and Banner Contest will also be required to have a theme pertaining to Texas. These will be judged on the use of color, original design and theme.

The Texas Heritage Recipe Contest on October 15 will be divided into three categories: Ethnic, Chuckwagon and New Southwestern Cuisine. The blue ribbon winner in each category will win a trip for two to New Orleans, San Antonio or Rio Grande Valley/Padre Island. Complete contest rules will be published in the Dallas Morning News food section in September.

A new "Best Texas Pie" Contest, sponsored by Crisco, is scheduled on Saturday, October 4 at 2 p.m.

Complete descriptions, requirements and deadlines for all areas of Creative Arts competition at the 1986 State Fair of Texas are set forth in this year's Premium List, which is now available. Requests for copies of this booklet should be directed to the Creative Arts Department, State Fair of Texas, P.O. Box 26010, Dallas, TX 75226.

Most Wanted

After a long, distinguished career in law enforcement, LaFayette Russell Wynne is now running from the same police department whose badge he used to wear.

Wynne, who will celebrate his 57th birthday on June 28, retired from the Amarillo Police Department in the early 1970's after achieving the rank of Chief of Detectives.

Now some of the same men he commanded are hunting for him for the 1982 murder of Erle Mathis on a downtown Amarillo Street.

This week Wynne has been added to the Texas Most Wanted list. A reward of up to $1,000 is being offered by the Governor's Office for information leading to Wynne's capture.

Police reports indicate that on the afternoon of October 15, 1982, Mathis was shot several times with a .41-magnum revolver while his car was stopped at a traffic light.

Wynne was arrested a short time later, although a motive for the slaying remains somewhat of a mystery. He was convicted of the killing on two different occasions. The first conviction was overturned. The second trial ended on September 13, 1985, when a District Court jury found Wynne guilty once again.

The trial judge allowed Wynne to remain free following the conviction and told the ex-officer to return the next day for sentencing.

Not surprisingly, Wynne failed to show up the next day. He received a 50-year prison sentence in absentia.

Investigators discovered that Wynne, who was an experienced pilot, fled Amarillo via a small airplane. They theorize he flew south, possibly into Mexico and even as far away as South America.

He has not been seen by authorities since.

Wynne is described as a white male, 6-0, 200 pounds, with grey hair and blue eyes. He has some tattoos on his right arm and usually wears glasses.

Anyone who might have information on Wynne's whereabouts is asked to call the Texas Crime Stoppers Advisory Council toll-free at 1-800-252-8477 or their local Crime Stoppers program. In all cases, callers do not have to reveal their identities.

Texas Most Wanted is a cooperative program between the Department of Public Safety and Texas Crime Stoppers.
