Wait a minute...

By Kerry Craig

The weather this week has presented a welcome change and it hints of things to come.

It seems that summer began only a few weeks ago, and now we are only a couple of weeks away from the first day of Autumn.

Football season will open soon and that thought reminds me of shivering on the sidelines waiting for the right picture.

Our Blizzards appear to be off to a good start. They looked good in their first scrimmage. They will look better in their second. And, they are getting ready for the traditional season opener with the folks down the road in Ballinger.

This year, as in the past, our team depends upon our support. It seems the Bunch plays better when there is a bleacher full of Blizzard fans.

Start making your plans now to support our team—at home and away.

With all this talk about cooler weather and football, we know that school is about to start. With the start of school, the school crossings areas will once again demand a slower speed and lots of attention.

There is an additional school zone this year, on the Novice Road by the football field.

The police department will be watching traffic in the school zones and will be handing out tickets for speeding in the areas.

Every once in a while we talk of the gift of life. We will all have a chance to give that gift this Thursday afternoon.

A blood drive will be held at the Church of Christ. The blood donated during this drive will be used to replace the large quantities of blood that were used during surgery and subsequent recovery of the survivors of that tragic accident a couple of weeks back.

I'll be there and make my donation. I hope to see you there, too.

Blood drive to benefit injured

A blood drive will be conducted Thursday afternoon, August 28, in the Fellowship Hall of the Church of Christ in Winters.

The blood donated in the drive will be used to replace the large quantities of blood given Ruthie Beard and Nera Eoff during surgery for injuries sustained in a traffic accident in Winters two weeks ago.

The blood drive will be conducted from 4:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. All blood donations will be accepted, regardless of blood type.

Drasco homecoming set

The Drasco homecoming will be held in the Winters Community Center Monday, Labor Day, Sept. 1.

A basket lunch will be served at noon.

Blizzard Boosters meet Tuesday

The Blizzard Booster Club will have a brief meeting Tuesday, September 3, at 7:30 p.m. in the School Cafeteria.

This will be an organizational meeting for the Blizzard Booster Club and Mother's ribbons are also to be presented at the meeting.

Early deadline next week

Correspondents and advertisers are reminded of an early deadline for the paper next week due to the Labor Day Holiday.

Copy will be accepted in The Enterprise office Thursday or Friday. Our office will be closed on Monday, September 1, Labor Day.

Super-Pro Winner

Ace Polk, of Winters, took the top honors last Saturday at the Double AA Race Way at Wall in the Super Professional division.

The dragster is a modified 1948 Anglia and powered by a 454 cubic inch Chevrolet engine.

Ace's winning pass recorded an elapsed time of 10.25 seconds for the quarter mile reaching a speed of 128 miles per hour.

Ace also competed recently in sanctioned races in Amarillo and is planning to enter championship races in Dallas in late September.

Blizzards looking good in first scrimmage game

The 1986 Winters Blizzards were looking good last Friday evening as they hosted the Hawley Bearcats in the first scrimmage of the season.

There were a few rough edges, according to head coach Danny Slaughter, but the Blue looked better than had been expected.

"I was real pleased with them because of the fact that they were ahead, right now, of where I expected them to be," Slaughter said, "we have got a lot of people that we have changed their positions and I felt like we would get stronger as we went along."

The coach said that those whose positions were changed just went right ahead and did an excellent job. He said, "We made a lot of mistakes, but we are ahead of where I expected to be."

The 1986 Blizzards have a super attitude and have been working hard since they started and have the attitude of "the more they do, the more they like it."

The varsity started the Friday scrimmage with a lot of contact and hard hitting and playing what Slaughter termed "hard-nosed, hard hitting football ever since they first put pads on."

The coach said that at this point, "I thought we looked good for what we've done and with the people in new positions."

The Blizzards will go to Merkel this Friday for the last scrimmage. The scrimmage will get underway, in Merkel, at 6:00 p.m.

The traditional season opener for the Blizzards with the rival Ballinger Bearcats. The Bearcats will come to Winters on Friday, September 5, for the game. Kick-off will be at 8:00 p.m.

Commodities to be distributed

Commodities will be distributed in Winters on Thursday, September 4, from 2 p.m. until 5 p.m. at the Multi-Purpose Center, 601 West Pierce.

Friends for Charlie to hold FUNDAY

The first Saturday after Labor Day is a favorite day for U.S. Congressman Charles W. Stenholm of the 17th District and his family and supporters. The reason—it's FUNDAY, Saturday, September 6. It's a special time for Charlie, Cindy and their children Chris, Carey and Courtney to come home. The event is also the Stenholm for Congress Committee's largest yearly fundraiser.

FUNDAY begins around 5 and ends at dark at the Eriksdahl Picnic Grounds just two miles from Stenholms farm home. Volunteers from Stamford and members of the Bethel Lutheran Church spend days and weeks getting ready for Charlie's supporters and friends from 35 counties to arrive, usually some 1,500 strong.

Apart from seeing old friends, Stenholm also uses FUNDAY to "show off the District" that he's so proud to serve. This year attending the festivities will be four fellow Congressmen: Les Aspin (Democrat-Wisconsin)

Chairman of the Armed Services Committee, Richard Ray (Democrat-Georgia) serving on the Armed Services and Small Business Committees, Buddy Roemer (Democrat-Louisiana) serving on Banking, Finance and Urban Affairs Committee and the Small Business Committee, and Ike Skelton (Democrat-Missouri) serving on the Armed Services Committee, Small Business Committee, the Select Committee on Aging, and the Truman Scholarship Foundation.

Tickets to FUNDAY may be purchased for $10 per person. It's a picnic with all the fixin's and field-fresh sliced watermelon too. It's live entertainment. For tickets or information, call or write: The Stenholm Committee, P.O. Box 1082, Stamford, Texas 79553 or phone (915) 773-5521. For your comfort, you may wish to bring a lawn chair and dress casually to enjoy the sights and sounds of FUNDAY.

Odessa fugitive seized by officers in Ballinger

Runnels County Sheriff's officers and Ballinger Police officers took a man into custody on fugitive charges from Odessa.

Chief Deputy Rodney Irby said that local officials were alerted by a telephone call from Odessa authorities that the man was thought to be in the Ballinger area.

Irby said that information indicated that the wanted man had placed a long-distance call from Ballinger to Odessa on the night of August 18.

Law enforcement officers learned that the man, identified as Louis (Little Louie) James Nichols had some old associates in Ballinger.

In following up on that information, officers had reason to believe that the suspect might be staying at the Gatewood Apartments in Ballinger.

A group of officers, including Irby, Sheriff Bill Baird and deputies Joe Stokes and Keith Collum along with Ballinger Police officers Michael Reyes, Joe Baird and Sergeant Stephen Gray, went to the apartment and apparently just missed the wanted man.

The officers then went immediately to a second location but were unable to locate the subject.

Officers then set up surveillance on the apartment and, after waiting about two and a half hours took the man into custody without incident.

Chief Deputy Irby said that man was wanted in Ector County on charges of aggravated robbery, felony escape, and burglary of a habitation.

Nichols was returned to Odessa the day following his capture by local authorities.

DPS predicts 43 will die in Labor Day holiday accidents

Officials of the Texas Department of Public Safety estimate that 43 persons could be killed in traffic accidents across the state during the Labor Day period.

The 78-hour holiday period begins at 6 p.m. Friday, August 29 and ends at midnight on Monday, September 1.

"During this period, the Department will have additional troopers on duty," Adams said. "We know that some drivers will be determined to violate the traffic laws. DPS officers will be taking enforcement action against as many violators as they can to increase the safety factor for law abiding motorists."

Adams said the final fatality count for the 1985 Labor Day period was 52.

"Twenty-one of the 52 deaths resulted from traffic accidents in which speed or DWI was a contributing factor," Adams pointed out. "That's why our officers will be concentrating on these violations during the upcoming Labor Day weekend."

Adams said the DPS deeply appreciates the positive response shown by Texas motorists to the safety belt law. "We'd like to mark the first anniversary of the seat belt law by having far fewer fatalities occur than our statisticians have estimated for the holiday period," Adams said.

During the July 4th holiday period earlier this summer, 8 of 9 persons killed in motorcycle accidents had not been wearing helmets.

"Though only those motorcyclists 18 and younger are required to wear protective headgear, statistics show overwhelmingly that helmets save lives," Adams said.

As part of the increased driving awareness program, the DPS will furnish revised fatality counts to the news media during the Labor Day Period.

Looking tough

The 1986 Winters Blizzards looked good Friday evening in their scrimmage with Hawley. Coach Dan Slaughter said that his team still had some rough edges but, they looked much better than he had expected.

The Blizzards will go to Merkel this Friday for a 6:00 p.m. scrimmage there. The following week, on September 5, the Blizzards will officially open their season with the rival Ballinger Bearcats on home turf. Kick-off time is 8:00 p.m.

Early days in Nacogdoches

It is remarkable how the influence of one individual can extend down through the years as that of Harriet Durst. One of her grandchildren who was born after her death remarked, "I never knew grandmother, but every time I'm tempted to do something wrong, I can almost hear her stern, but motherly admonition, and even sense the sting of her keen switch on my legs." After her husband died, Harriet Durst kept close track of the affairs and life of her children and grandchildren. She saw that none of the grandchildren was spoiled by her and she played no favorites. She was recognized by all who came in contact with her as "a brilliant and remarkable woman."

Harriet Durst adopted the quaint practice of placing a pod of hot red pepper in her morning coffee. This was thought to be healthful and a good complexion stimulant. Although a healthy family, the Durst's learned much from the Indians and Mexicans in the way of preparing herbs as antibodies against disease.

At the age of 77, Mrs. Harriet Matilda Durst wrote the following account of "Early Days in Nacogdoches."

We came to Texas in the spring of 1827, shortly after the difficulties with the Colonists and Mexicans—called the Fredonian War. We have lived under three district governments since in Texas. First, Province of Coahuila and Texas; second Republic of Texas; then the United States.

I can't say we were pleased to be annexed—we preferred remaining an independent republic, enjoying the right for which we had fought, toiled and

Tammy Jacob, James Rogers united in marriage

Tamara Denise Jacob and James O'Neal Rogers were united in marriage in the Wylie United Methodist Church of Abilene, Texas.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Jacob of Abilene, Texas and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rogers of Clyde, Texas.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Randon B. Ely.

Music was Trumpet voluntary, Austin Brooks and Judy Eoff. There is Love, Dennis Jones, Marium, Love Lift Us Up, Mixon and Terri Martin, and The Lords Prayer, Dennis Jones and Judy Eoff.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Billy Jacob of Abilene, Texas. She wore a gown designed by Demetrios for Ilissa. The gown featured a wedding band neckline of jeweled embroidered Alencon lace and a sheer yoke of English net. The Basque waist bodice was embellished with Alencon lace encrusted with pearls and sequins. Elegant court sleeves of Alencon lace were beaded with pearls and sequins and sheer organza form lace made points at the wrists. The silk organza skirt over taffeta was applied with Alencon lace motifs jeweled with pearls and sequins. The skirt back featured accents of silk crystal pleating and motifs of re-embroidered Alencon lace. The skirt is edged by a border of jeweled Alencon lace forming a cathedral length train. The headpiece was a band of pearls and sequins on lace and accented by crystal and pearl drops. A Puff of silk illusion falls into a cathedral length veil scattered with pearls.

Julia Little of Houston, Texas served as Maid of Honor. Bridesmaids were Jean Nored of Burnet, Texas; Stephanie Wilker of Abilene, Texas, and Dawn Chaney of Hobbs, N.M. The attendants wore gowns designed by Jim Helm for Galina. The gowns of Ming Moire featured a Bateau neckline and natural waist line. The bodice back featured a keyhole cut-out and a large bow at the waist. The fully gathered skirts were tea length, accented by gold metallic shoes.

Milton Frasher of Sunrise Beach Village, Texas served as Best Man. Groomsmen were Larry Pitman of Abilene, Texas, Jimmy Young of Abilene, Texas, Boyce Jacob of Abilene, Texas (brother of the bride). Ushers were Don Paige and Bob Oliver both of Abilene, Texas.

Billy Jacob, father of the bride is formally from Winters. Grandparents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Jacob of Winters.

suffered. It was those who came in later who wanted equal rights and aspired to equal privileges, who created disturbances.

A part of Texas was nearly vacated for a while after the Fredonian difficulties and Mexican Troops were sent to occupy Nacogdoches, to prevent immigration. That was impossible for they had lands in the country and they determined to keep it and settle on them too.

Mr. Durst (John) did a large business there at that time, merchandising and supplying the troops. He spoke Spanish fluently, was partially reared in Texas and was looked upon as a native, having greater privileges than a new-comer. He was raised by Sam Davenport, who lived in Texas in Spanish times, leaving the country when it was broken up by the war between Spain and Mexico and almost abandoned for some years.

The next difficulties were brought on by the military commander at Nacogdoches. He tried to stop immigration. Everyone coming in was ordered by him to be arrested and put under military rules. He could not accomplish that. Finally, orders came for our men to give up their arms. This caused them to rise in masses and turn out against the Mexican authorities. The citizen Mexicans joined in with our men. Our forces were prepared to attack and, after the first day's fighting, the Mexicans had lost many, killed and wounded. They left their quarters and tried to make their escape but were followed by our men who made them surrender at the Angelina River, took their provisions and sent them off to the proper authorities. The commander, Piedros, was delivered to Colonel Austin and there agreed to terms required. I think this was in 1834.

Quiet was sustained, but a short time. The Mexicans were so opposed to the Americans filling up the country they determined to make another grand effort to overpower us and drive us across the Sabine. The Americans were much alarmed at the reports, and all of the women and children who could get away left the homes to start for Louisiana and Arkansas. I did not become alarmed as Santa Anna with his forces was a long way from us, with all the water courses high and hundreds at every crossing trying to get over. I thought there was plenty of time yet, until the old Cherokee Chief came down among us with his people a long time, Cherokee County (now) is where his tribe lived, they were good farmers. The Mexicans had linked with them by bribery, promising them a large scope of country if they would agree to join them, which they did.

Old Chief Bowles knew Mr. Durst, he said to him, "Well, take all of your women and children away where they will be safe," adding, "Me no hurt you—all my friends, but maybe so help men, some bad men, can't control. My men help Mexicans—afraid we can't manage all of them."

This alarmed no little. I was willing to go then. Mr. Durst had, a week previous to this, prepared to take us to the other side of the Sabine and get a place to stay until matters were settled. The wagons were loaded, standing at the door, carriages too, all ready to start next morning; horses all stabled and fed. Soon, next morning the servants went to bring out the horses, and not one was there, nor did we ever get one of them—so that plan was abandoned we had no horses left but some mares and young colts and Mr. Durst's riding horse.

A while before this happened, Joseph Durst, my brother-in-law, came by with his family to see if we were still at home. They had concluded to start in time for Louisiana. We sent our oldest boy, Louis, on with them. he was started off on a good horse with a black boy servant riding behind him, and an extra pair of saddle bags containing valuable papers and money enough for all purposes, thinking it well to take that much.

Mr. Durst fixed us up for leaving, which we did at night. The children rode the mares, each a servant on behind to help carry them; I on Mr. Durst's horse that had never been ridden by a woman. I thought any port in a storm.

My husband remained to try to make all safe he could. He had commenced building a small boat with a view of taking refuge down the Angelina River on an island where he knew we would be safe. He took all hands (negroes), the old lady, Mrs. McFarland, who lived with us, also a family that lived on our place; all down there, built camps of cane for protection from the weather—moved our things (what we did not bury) and provisions. He had his corn shelled and filled the walls of the house, it being a frame house ceiled, thinking if it was not burned he would have bread in plenty, which he did—not only for his own family servants, etc., but for many others, as all that was left visible was destroyed. Mr. Durst would go around the house occasionally to see if all was safe.

Without access to 60% of its own land, State loses millions

Land Commissioner Garry Mauro said Friday that Texas is losing millions of dollars annually because of current laws that deny the state access to almost 60% of its own land. "Over 500,000 acres, of 58%, of our surface acreage is landlocked and our ability to lease, sell or trade this land at market value is preempted," Mauro said during Friday's Hearing. "As for oil and gas revenues decline and the state fiscal situation worsens, it is simply irresponsible to continue to ignore the resources denied to us by access problems."

Mauro explained that the inability of the Land Office to gain access to 500,000 acres of the 900,000 surface acres has also cost the state significant amounts of revenue during the current fiscal crisis. "Our appraisers have estimated that gaining access to these lands would increase their market value by as much as 50%," Mauro said. "It would mean hundreds of thousands of dollars in revenue in the short run and could mean millions of dollars in the long run."

In addition to access problems on 500,000 acres of state-owned surface land, Mauro also explained that the Land Office also was stymied by access problems to valuable hard and soft minerals on another 6.6 million acres of Relinquishment Act land. That's because, although the state owns the minerals under the Relinquishment Act, the surface is owned by others who are not required by law to provide the state with access to its own minerals. "On hard minerals alone, conservative estimates based on geological data are that the state is losing as much as $20 million annually because we are denied access to known mineralized tracts," Mauro said. Mauro pledged to work with the House Energy Committee, as he did last session, to find an equitable solution to the access problem. "The bottom line is that access is a revenue issue," Mauro said.

Gramm outlines Southwest border anti-drug initiative

The administration intends to invest a total of $265 million in manpower and equipment to halt the flow of drugs across the Southwest border, U.S. Sen Phil Gramm said today. Following a meeting with Assistant Secretary of Treasury for Enforcement Frank Keating on "Operation Alliance," Gramm outlined the administration's plans for the long-expected Southwest border initiative. "A nine-member command group comprised of five federal agencies and four border state officials will supervise Operation Alliance," Gramm said. "The five federal agencies include the Drug Enforcement Agency, the Immigration and Naturalization Service, the Customs Service, the Coast Guard, and the FBI."

"Colonel Jim Adams, head of the Texas Department of Public Safety, will represent the State of Texas." The senator said all operations except supervision of the Customs agents will be controlled from the El Paso Intelligence Center, which will be expanded. Customs operations will be handled from a control and communications center to be established at the Federal Aviation Administration office in Houston, he said. Gramm said the project will involve substantial increases of law enforcement manpower on the border between the Texas Gulf Coast and San Diego. "Among others, these will include 60 more federal prosecutors, 75 additional FBI agents and 100 new Internal Revenue Service investigators in addition to the 200 slots for U.S. Customs officers which were designated for Southwest border duty earlier this year," he said. Gramm said the administration will request $265 million for fiscal year 1987 for manpower and new surveillance equipment. Equipment to be requested includes surveillance aircraft and transport helicopters, aerostats—balloon-borne, long-range radar units—special radios, ground sensors and infrared night viewers. The new project will allow the Customs Service to engage in follow-up drug investigations if a seizure has been made at a port of entry.

Texas Coal production

Texas coal produced by surface mining topped 45 million tons in 1985, according to Railroad Commission Chairman James E. (Jim) Nugent, a nine percent increase over the previous year. Last year the state produced 45,387,479 tons of coal, compared to 41,283,698 tons in 1984. Lignite accounted for almost all of the state's production. Panola County recorded the highest production total with 12,299,496 tons of coal. Titus County ranked second with 9,504,566 tons. Production totals for other counties in 1985 were: Milam, 6,227,660 tons; Freestone, 4,980,121 tons; Harrison, 2,998,312 tons; Grimes, 2,883,158; Atascosa, 2,528,557; Hopkins, 2,485,788; Leon, 790,000; Webb, 339,057; Bastrop, 287,756; and Coleman, 63,035. Through its Surface Mining and Reclamation Division, the Railroad Commission regulates surface mining for coal and uranium in the state and ensures the proper reclamation of the land after mining operations are completed. "The bottom line is that access is a revenue issue," Mauro said.

Barbeque Goat Cook off slated

The Great Goat Gallop-Chicken Catchin'-Texas Sheep Dog Classic-Wood Bag Races-The Goat Pill Flip Off-You might Goat Pill Flip Off...You might ask, "What's going on?" It's all part of the 13th annual World Championship Barbeque Goat Cook Off and Arts and Crafts Fair. The annual event swells the small Central Texas town of Brady from its population of 6,000 to over 12,000 and for the past 12 years has drawn the focus of the United States and some neighboring countries to the center of the "Lone Star State". Brady, Texas and its "Goat Cook Off" has been featured in state and national publications, including USA Today, The Dallas Morning News, The Wall Street Journal, Texas Highways, Texas Monthly, Southern Living in The Ambassador...The in flight Magazine of TWA. What is all the excitement about? Some say it is the modest prize money that goes with the championship—some think it is the trophy and title of being "The World Champion Barbeque Goat Cooker"—and still others think it's just the longing of people looking for a good clean entertainment and great way to end the summer. The Goat Cook Off is held the Saturday of Labor Day Weekend and gets underway Friday evening as the cooks gather for official rules—firewood and their 1/2 goat they will cook. (This year—being August 29) as dawn breaks Saturday August 30, smoke will fill the air of Richards Park in Brady as the chefs start their fires and secret sauces for their official entry.

The first out of country entry was in 1979 with one entry from Mexico, and in years past entries have come from as far east as Waldorf, Maryland, and from the North West area of Seward, Alaska. Last year, one contestant was from Port Elizabeth, South Africa. Entries this year include those from California, Colorado, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Texas, and South Carolina. There is prize money and trophies for 4th place as well as a Travel Award for the cooking team traveling the longest distance and Showmanship Award for the cooking team with the fanciest or most unique cooking area. Kathy Roddie, Manager of the Brady-McCulloch Company Chamber of Commerce sponsor of the yearly event, states that some cooking teams are made up of 30 or more people, while others will consist of only one participant.

The Arts and Crafts Fair is growing each year in size and splendor. The Fair as well as Goat Cook Off Games gets underway at 9 a.m. on Saturday the 30th. Games include the famous Goat Pill Flip Off (This instead of cow chip throwing), Chicken Catchin', Wool Bag Races, Gold Panning (for small children), a Blindman's Wheelbarrow Race as well as Tobacco Spitting Contest for men and women, (yes women), Horse Shoe Pitching, and Washer Pitching.

Champion fiddler, Sheronna Kingston from San Angelo, Texas, along with "Lariat", a Country and Western Band from Abilene, Texas, will be performing "free to the public" throughout the day. There will be no admittance charge for the morning or evening concerts. A huge downtown dance will end the cook off as over 1/2 of the downtown Brady Square is roped off for everyone to enjoy the music of Kent Finlay and The Kent Finlay Band". Admission for the street dance is $5 per person and remember, "bring your own lawn chair" as you relax, unwind, dance and enjoy the music on the Courthouse Plaza in downtown Brady. All in all there is fun for the young as well as the young at heart. Judging for the Cook Off Champion starts at 4 p.m. with the Champion named at 6:30 p.m.

The Labor Day Weekend event also includes AQHA Sanctioned Quarter Horse Racing at Brady's G. Rollie White Downs. There are 18 races scheduled for Sunday and Monday, August 31, and September 2. An added feature of the Cook Off last year is back again this year. It is a 5k (3.1 mile) run which is sponsored in conjunction with the Goat Cook Off by Bulcan Materials Company of VOCA, Texas. The race is known as "The Great Goat Gallop". A new feature this year that is sure to draw more spectators is the "Texas Sheep Dog Classic". The Sheep Dog Trials will start at 9 a.m. in the baseball field area of Richards Park.

Judges for this year's cook off include: Kathy Morgan, 1st Lady of Luckenbach, Texas. (She Actually owns the small town of Luckenbach...population 25); Joe McWilliams and Norman Morrison, racing stewards of "The American Quarterhorse Association"; Gary Brown, of Floydada, Texas (formerly from Brady, Gary first had the idea for the "World Championship Bar-B-Q Goat Cook Off"; Michael James Murphy, No. 1 recording artist in the contemporary Christian Music field; Midge Hill, With WFAA TV News from Dallas; Rode Walker, a former P. R. C. A. Bull Rider from Fredricksburg; Roddy Peoples who is heard throughout Texas airways as "The Voice of Southwest Agriculture"; Bill Watkins of KLST TV in San Angelo; Jim Stewart of radio station KFYO in Lubbock; Morgan Lyons of radio station KRLD in Dallas and more. There are a total of 34 judges who will judge the cook off this year.

RRC Levies fines

Problems under the Railroad Commission's pollution and well plugging rules netted 10 oil and gas operators a total of $49,500 in administrative penalties Monday, August 18.

The largest penalty, $20,000, went to Southeastern Oil Corporation of Tyler for 10 unplugged wells on the company's Eaton "B" lease in Rusk County. Other well plugging penalties issued included $3,000 to Kenco Oil Corporation of Tyler for one inactive and unplugged well on the Bradford No. 1 lease, Rusk County; and $3,000 to Bullard Production Company of Dallas for an unplugged well on the D. C. Bertrand lease, Coleman County.

Several companies received administrative penalties for well plugging violations after failing to appear at Commission hearings. These included Fremont Energy Corporation of Denver,

Oldest surviving Texas land grant document on loan to Land Office

Land Commissioner Garry Mauro announced a loan by the Moody Foundation of the oldest surviving Texas land grant document to the Texas General Land Office.

"This loan is especially important during this Sesquicentennial year," said Land Commissioner Garry Mauro. The land office is one of the oldest state agencies dating back to the early eighteenth hundreds and our archives are one of the most complete. The Moody Foundation's generous loan will help complete and upgrade our archives.

The Galveston-based Moody Foundation loaned the document package, which represents the oldest surviving Texas land grant known to exist, to the Texas General Land Office for research. The several documents in the package include a letter from Fr. Antonio Margil de Jesus to the Marques de San Miguel de Aguayo (then Governor of Coahuila and Texas) dating from December 26, 1719. that letter describes the activities of two Franciscan missionary colleges, the abandonment of activities of two Franciscan missionary colleges, the abandonment of East Texas missions at San Antonio because of the French invasion, a request by Indians for a mission at San Antonio and the recounting of Colorado, $6,000 for one well each on the T. S. Scibienski and Dolores Ranch Company "A" leases, Webb County; WMW Company of Rockwall, $6,000 for one well each on the Parks and Gottschalk leases, Runnels County; Kim Dacus Family Company of Bagwell, $4,000 for two wells on the Gary Lee Lake lease, Red River County; Marine Contractor and Supply, Inc. of Houston, $3,000 for a well on the Harrington and Taylor Unit lease, Colorado County; and Arenas Petroleum, Inc. of Dallas, $1,500 for a well on the Denis lease, Tom Green County.

Two companies agreed to pay administrative penalties for pollution problems on leases they operate without admitting any violation of Commission rules.

Allstate Vacuum and Tanks Inc. of Alvin agreed to a $1,500 penalty after Commission inspectors documented vacuum trucks discharging drilling mud, saltwater, and other oil and gas waste onto pastureland near the Dincan property in Jackson County. Commission tests showed the fluids, which affected about three acres, had concentrations of about 1,000 parts per million chlorides.

Teffoil Corporation of Beaumont agreed to a $1,500 penalty for an overflowing saltwater tank on the Lydia Conklin lease in Hardin County. Commission inspectors estimated some 150 barrels of saltwater were standing in a low area on the lease. Tests of the saltwater revealed chloride concentrations of about 50,000 parts per million.

To date in 1986, the Commission has levied more than $938,000 in pollution and well plugging penalties. Last year the Commission assessed more than $1 million in such penalties.

Cattle futures impact

The main impact of the futures market on cattle prices may not be as simple as higher or lower prices but rather more violent price changes—as happened during the recent dairy buyout market crash. The very nature of the futures market is alien to the way most cattlemen think, says a livestock marketing economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System. The futures market is, in fact, a huge gambling arena where fortunes are made and lost—but only by trading activity. Price changes create buying and selling opportunities and have a broad effect on the futures market. Unfortunately, cash market people watch those futures market gyrations religiously and let them influence their selling and buying prices.

favorable circumstances for the founding of such a mission.

Included in the packet is an Act of Marques de San Miguel de Aguayo dated at Monclova, January 22, 1720, stating why a mission was welcome and the act of possession, dated February 23, 1770, that gives the land to the Indians as well as water from the San Antonio River.

"The packet is highly significant because it links the permanent settlement of Texas to the early development of the San Antonio area," Mauro said. One of the greatest of all missionaries and the father of Texas Missions, Fr. Antonio Margil de Jesus asked for the founding of the new mission at San Antonio for the Pampopos, Pastias and Sulijames tribes with these documents.

Until now, the only known copy of the request has been a copy in Sapin. The Moody Foundation's loan is the original manuscript and is considered one of the basic documents for the history of Texas. The document has been private ownership since the 18th Century, having been passed down as a family heirloom, until it was recently acquired by the Moody Foundation.

The manuscript, on loan to the General Land Office, is for display, research, care and maintenance in the General Land Office archival vaults along with many other early Spanish land grant documents that make up a part of Texas history.

Registration now underway at CJC

Cisco Junior College's Director of Admissions, Olin O. Odom, III, reminds area residents that registration is under way and will continue through September 10 at the Cisco campus and all off-campus centers. Though there will be no problem in registering as late as September 10, Mr. Odom urges those who wish to take college credit courses to register now in order to begin attending classes. Classes begin on August 29 and a minimum amount of missed time is beneficial to the student.

Mr. Odom said, "Cisco Junior College offers a wide range of opportunities for expanding knowledge. We're anticipating a large enrollment this year, and we invite anyone, College age or older, to enroll in one of the many programs we offer."

Students may register at the main campus in Cisco, at the Clyde Educational Center, or at the Abilene center in Office Park West, Building B at anytime during regular office hours, 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Friday. ## "Octoberfest"—an Extension Camp for those 55 and over

Where can a person over 55 "get away" for:
—three days and nights of fun-filled activities;
—learning opportunities;
—fantastic food and special events in natural lake-side surroundings;
—with all the modern conveniences?

There may be other places in Texas that offer such fare, but not many can match "Octoberfest", an Extension Camp for People 55 and over, says Dana Craddock, Runnels County Extension Agent (home economics). Five sessions are scheduled this for this fall: September 30—October 3; October 7—10, October 14—17, October 21—24, and October 28—31.

Some of the featured educational presentations will include: insurance options, cooking demonstrations, family life, gardening, health, wardrobe coordination, food and nutrition,

Alternatives for aging families

"Between 80-90 percent of the care needed by elderly persons is provided from within the family," says gerontologist Dr. Judith Warren. "Sometimes these situations become unsatisfactory, either because the elder is not receiving necessary and plant survival tips. Although each camp is different, they all offer a variety of learning centers to give "hands-on" experience in areas such as oil painting, wind-chime making, archery, needlecrafts and chair caning.

Participants will also have opportunities to go for boat rides, nature hikes, or fish on the waters of Lake Brownwood. Card and table games, tennis, horseshoes, billiards, and volleyball will be available at all times.

Evenings will be filled with such special social events as dances, a special theme party and games.

Each camp is limited to the first 100 participants and the cost is only $85 per person for three days of activity, so contact your county Extension agent, Dana Craddock, for details now. Telephone number 365-5042.

Getaway to "Octoberfest"—stretch your dollars and your mind.

support, or because one member of the family has been burdened with almost all of the caregiving duties," she adds.

Family members may also feel the situation can't be changed, when in fact there are resources they can use to discover alternative approaches to their caregiving responsibilities, says Warren, a specialist with the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service home economics program. The gerontologist points out that family members can learn something about coping with their situation by attending courses on caregiving offered through county Extension offices, community colleges, health care or other organizations. Books and publications on subjects such as coping with senility, the aging process or dealing with an Alzheimer's patient are available from the same sources. County Extension offices have a letter series on "Adult Children-Aging Parents" with information for families.

Get your number before it is needed

People in the San Angelo area who plan to apply for a Social Security number should remember to apply at least two weeks before they will need the number, Franklin H. Upp, Social Security manager in San Angelo, said recently.

It takes this time to process the application, evaluate the evidence, search the files at Social Security headquarters, and to issue and mail the Social Security number card.

When applying, a person must have evidence of age, identity, and citizenship or legal alien status, Upp said. In addition, a person 18 or over applying for the first time must apply in person.

The best evidence of age and citizenship is a public record of birth issued before age of five. If this is not available, religious records established before age five may be considered. Only if these are not available can other evidence be submitted, Upp said.

Evidence of identity can be any document showing identification date such as a physical description, photograph, or signature. Examples include driver's license, voter's registration, school record, report card, identification card, marriage record, draft card, military ID, building pass, adoption record, court order for name change, clinic, doctor, or hospital record, or organization membership.

People applying for a duplicate card to replace one lost must provide evidence of their identity. Also, a person who wants to change her or his name in Social Security records must provide evidence of identity under both the old and new names.

Only original documents or copies certified by the issuing agency are acceptable.

For more information about applying for Social Security numbers, contact the San Angelo Social Security Office located at 2214 Sherwood Way. The telephone number is 949-4608. A free leaflet, "Applying for a Social Security Number," is available at the office.

Rehab Center commercials filmed at Chadbourne Ranch

Land once roamed by cowpunks, cavalymen and Comanches was inhabited just recently by a film crew, photographers and Rex Allen. The singer/actor/narrator was in West Texas lending a helping hand and his gentle voice to the West Texas Rehabilitation Center.

Filming television and radio commercials for WTRC's Cattleman's Round-Up for Crippled Children at Chadbourne Ranch was only natural. It was here 26 years ago that the late Conda H. Wylie offered a pen of steers as a donation toward the operational expenses of the Center. Other ranchers followed suit and this unique gathering of livestock soon became a vital part of annual funding for West Texas Rehab.

This corner of Coke County in West Central Texas also has sentimental meaning for Allen whose great-grandfather is buried at the old Fort Chadbourne cemetery nearby.

More than 200 Cattleman's Round-Up area chairmen will join in on this essential funding effort. Beginning September 29, seven sales will be conducted through November in Abilene, Junction, San Saba, Brownwood, Stephenville and Coleman with proceeds benefiting West Texas Rehabilitation Center.

WTRC, a private, non-profit out-patient institution for the handicapped, relies on donations for approximately 65 percent of its annual budget. Since it receives no federal or state funds, the Center is a prime example of neighbor-helping-neighbor.

Facts about blower fans

How you run your air conditioning blower fan may be costing you more in utility bills, says Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service housing specialist Dr. Susan Quiring. Many people set the fan selector on manual rather than automatic. This leaves the blower fan running constantly and makes them feel more comfortable. "From an energy standpoint, it's much better to set the blower fan on automatic because you get better moisture control," the specialist maintains.

Part of the air conditioner's job is to remove moisture, she explains. When the blower fan is left on constantly, it re-evaporates water collected on the condenser coils and puts it back into the air. This means the air conditioner has to work harder to remove that recirculating moisture. "Using box fans, circulating fans or ceiling fans to move the air, will achieve the same effect as constantly running the blower fan, and at less cost," says Quiring.

"I've always felt that the West Texas Rehabilitation Center is the purest charity that I know anything about...anywhere," Allen says without hesitation. Allen began singing professionally in Phoenix when he was 17 and soon went on to Chicago's National Barn Dance on radio station WLS. Later he headed to Hollywood where he signed with Republic Pictures and eventually made 35 western movies. His television series, "Frontier Doctor," followed during the series hungry 1960's.

With 300 published songs and a gold record to his credit, Allen wasn't one to rest on his fame. He began performing at rodeos and fairs and narrating Walt Disney nature films. A new generation was discovering "Mr. Cowboy" on their own.

Allen continues to be a sought-after commercial spokesman for various products. At this stage of his life he is more choosy, performing fewer dates. Instead he chooses to support his children, Rex Jr., Curt, Mark and Bonita; his hometown and his friends at the West Texas Rehabilitation Center.

Don't let your lungs go to pot.

Sir John Dalryell of Binns, England, had a sea anemone for a pet. It lived 66 years. He called it Grannie.

Gauze, the thin, open cloth made of cotton and other fibers, probably takes its name from the ancient city of Gaza where this type of cloth was first made.

Wingate I.S.D sets meal prices

Dear Parents,
The Wingate I.S.D. serves nutritious meals every school day. Students may buy lunch for 50¢ and breakfast for 25¢.

Children from families whose income falls within the level shown on the scale are eligible for either free meals or reduced price meals. Reduced price meals are 25¢ for lunch and 15¢ for breakfast.

To apply for free or reduced price meals, please fill out the application and sign it, and return to school as soon as possible. Please answer all the questions on the form. An application which does not contain the following information cannot be processed by the school:

The total household income must be listed by the amount received by each household member receiving income and the type of income on your food stamp case number.

Names of all household members, Social Security numbers of all household members 21 years or older.

The signature of an adult household member. The information on the application may be checked by the school or other officials at any time during the school year.

If your child is approved for meal benefits, you must tell the school when your household income increases or when your household decreases.

You may apply for benefits at any time during the school year. If you are not eligible now but have a decrease in household income, become unemployed, or have an increase in family size, fill out an application at that time.

If you have foster children living with you, they may be eligible for these benefits. If you wish to apply for these benefits for them, please contact the school and they will help you complete the application. Children who receive free or reduced price meal benefits are treated the same as children who pay for meals. In the operation of child feeding programs, no child will be discriminated against because of race, sex, color, national origin, age, or handicap.

If you do not agree with the school's decision on your application or the results of verification, you may wish to discuss it with the school. You also have the right to a fair hearing. This can be done by calling Mr. Edd. You may pick up an application at the business office and if you have any questions or need help in filling out the application, they will be glad to help you.

You will be notified when the application is approved or denied. Sincerely,
Edd Farmer

Recognizing real whole wheat bread

Some consumers mistakenly think that all brown bread is whole wheat, when it's not, says a Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service nutritionist. Dr. Alice Hunt explains that by law, bread that is labeled "whole wheat" must be made from 100 percent whole wheat flour. "Wheat bread," however, may be made from varying proportions of enriched white flour and whole-wheat flour. The type of flour present in the largest amount is listed first on the bread label, she says. Sometimes the dark color in bread is achieved with caramel coloring, which would also be listed on the label.

News from the Nursing Home

August has been a fun filled month. Our birthday party was held on August 12th. We had several birthday residents this month. They are Bertha Gerhart, Lydia Wearden, Lois Teague, Earl Trout, Aleene Mapes, and Irma Linton. We wish them all a very happy birthday. Everyone enjoyed the birthday party. I would like to thank all the volunteers who helped with the party and furnished refreshments, cake, ice cream, cookies, and punch were served.

We would like to welcome two new residents to our facility. They are Effie Kornegay and Thad Traylor. Were glad they chose our facility and hope they enjoy their stay here.

Our bingo winners this month were Minnie Hale, Vera Hutchinson, Mike Krause, Vicki Shaw, and Myrtle Coffman. The residents play bingo twice a week on Tuesday and Friday afternoons at 3 p.m. Congratulations to all the bingo winners this month. Also thanks to the volunteers who call the bingo for the residents. We appreciate all the help and time our volunteers share with us.

The residents have really enjoyed helping to make the homemade doughnuts every week. They enjoy making them almost as much as they enjoy eating them, and they sure do disappear fast. Everyone really enjoys popping popcorn in the afternoons too.

Some of our others regularly scheduled activities include toss across, exercise, dominoes, basketball, story hour, and many different church groups. And as always everyone enjoys the string band and organ music every month.

Labor Day will be September 1st. We hope everyone enjoys a safe and happy holiday. We hope you can visit our facility to see friends or loved ones on this holiday.

The Family Group of Senior Citizens Nursing Home will have a bake sale on Friday the 29th of August at 10 a.m. in front of Super Duper grocery. Everyone be sure to come pick up your holiday baked goods early for a good selection to choose from.

The whole grain advantage

Milling wheat to produce white flour removes nutrients from the bran and germ, says a Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service nutritionist. Dr. Alice Hunt points out that enriched breads replace the lost iron, thiamin, riboflavin and niacin, but flours made from the whole grain contain more of other nutrients, such as folic acid, vitamin B-6, vitamin E, phosphorus, magnesium and zinc than enriched white flour.

If you don't like whole wheat bread, you don't have to switch to increase your intake of whole grains, she maintains. Brown rice, oatmeal, corn tortillas, barley and whole-wheat pasta are all whole grains. Or, the nutritionist recommends trying foods made with a mixture of whole-grain flours and enriched flour, including bran muffins, cornbread, cracked wheat bread, graham crackers and rye bread.

The United States Coast Guard Academy has announced that it is now accepting and processing applications for appointment as Cadet, U.S. Coast Guard, Class of 1991. Applications are being accepted for both men and women. Appointments as Coast Guard Cadets are tendered solely on the basis of an annual nationwide competition with no congressional appointments or geographical quotas. Applications for appointment must be submitted to the Director of Admissions, U. S. Coast Guard Academy, prior to December 15, 1986. Candidates must arrange to participate in either the College Board Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) or American College Testing Assessment (ACT) prior to or including the December 13, 1986 administration for the ACT, and the December 6, 1986 administration for the SAT. The competition for appointment as Cadet is based on the candidate's high school rank, performance on either the SAT or ACT, and leadership potential as demonstrated by participation in high school extracurricular activities, community affairs and/or part-time employment. Most successful candidates rank in the top quarter of their high school class and demonstrate proficiency in both the mathematical and applied science fields.

To qualify for the competition, an applicant must be unmarried at the time of appointment, have no legal obligations resulting from a prior marriage, and must have reached the age of 17 but not 22 by July 1, 1987. All applicants must be assured of high school graduation by June 30, 1987. Regulations stipulate that all applicants must have completed three units in English, and three in mathematics to include algebra and plane or coordinate geometry or their equivalents, and must fulfill basic physical requirements.

Coast Guard Cadets obtain an excellent undergraduate education at no personal expense. In addition, they receive pay and allowances fully adequate to fulfill their ordinary living expenses. The constantly updated Academy curriculum leads to a Bachelor of Science degree with a strong academic emphasis on engineering and science. The selected major studies, when combined with varied elective courses, establish a solid foundation for a challenging career. Graduates of the Academy are awarded a Bachelor of Science degree and are commissioned as Ensigns in the United States Coast Guard. Selected officers may pursue further postgraduate education and specialized training at many leading civilian and military graduate or professional schools, in such fields as aviation, business administration, electronics, engineering, law and oceanography.

The young Academy graduate can look forward to a varied, exciting, and demanding career as a regular Coast Guard Officer. The Coast Guard performs essential humanitarian missions vital to the safety and saving of lives at sea. Under the Department of Transportation, the Coast Guard establishes and coordinates search and rescue operations by ship and plane, maintains advanced electronic and other aids to navigation scattered around the globe, operates the icebreakers which clear the way for all polar expeditions, and enforces marine law and all aspects of merchant marine safety. HUMBERTO VASQUEZ

OMAR VASQUEZ

What would prompt someone to set a fire that ultimately killed six people?

Investigators believe revenge is a likely motive in the tragic arson at El Paso's Alexandria Apartments in September, 1982.

from drying and crusting. Water stress during early growth of plants can reduce later yields.

Transplanting is a good practice in the fall since this allows seed to be started in areas sheltered from high temperatures and drying winds. Check at garden centers for recommended varieties of vegetables and strong, vigorous, healthy plants. Or you may want to grow your own transplants, notes the Agent.

Two brothers have each been indicted on six counts of capital murder and arson. This week the brothers, Omar and Humberto Vasquez, have been added to the Texas Most Wanted list. Rewards of up to $1,000 each are being offered by the Governor's Office for information leading to the capture of the pair.

According to arson investigators, the Vasquez brothers had been living at the Alexandria Apartments until their eviction in early 1982. They reportedly swore they would get even with the apartment manager.

Around 11 p.m. on September 24, 1982, a raging fire engulfed the apartments. Despite the efforts the other tenants and some passersby, three apartment residents died at the scene and three more died at the hospital. The victims ranged in age from five to 68 years old.

Investigators say witnesses placed the Vasquez brothers at the scene.

Gasoline apparently was spread from the apartment manager's door, down a hallway, down some steps to the exterior of the building. The fire was started outside the building, investigators reported.

Omar Adrian Vasquez is 24 years of age, 5-5, 145 pounds, with brown hair and brown eyes. Humberto Vasquez is about 21 years of age, 5-5, 150 pounds, with dark brown hair and brown eyes.

Some foods can't replace dairy products

The food industry is now marketing a number of calcium-fortified foods to nutrition-conscious women who believe they may be at risk for developing osteoporosis. Osteoporosis is a disease of brittle and porous bones that affects millions of middle-aged to elderly women, making them more prone to fractures. Calcium-fortified foods currently on the market include some brands of diet carbonated soft drinks and non-carbonated soft drink mixes, bread and flour. "Eating calcium fortified products in a balanced diet that still includes dairy products, may be helpful," says Nutritionist Dr. Alice Hung, "especially since the Recommended Daily Allowance of 800 milligrams of calcium per day is thought by many medical experts to be the lose." However, she cautions that when dairy products are replaced with calcium fortified foods, other important nutrients from dairy products such as protein, vitamin D, riboflavin, B-6 and B-12 are lost. It's especially important that teenagers and children eat dairy products for the calcium and the other nutrients they provide, stresses the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service specialist.

HSU to offer correspondence courses in Real Estate

Hardin-Simmons University today its inauguration of a new program of correspondence courses in Real Estate.

The home study courses are designed to meet education requirements for obtaining a real estate salesman or broker license, or for real estate license recertification.

Under the new HSU program, students work out their own course schedules, completing the equivalent of a 30 classroom hour course in one to eight weeks. The courses are accepted by the Texas Real Estate Commission.

According to Dr. Joe Dahlstrom, director of university libraries, the program will enable a person to complete the necessary courses to obtain a real estate salesman license entirely through home study.

The program is offered as a service to prospective real estate licensees, particularly those living in small communities throughout Texas.

"Many students must drive considerable distances to attend classes and some are faced with out-of-town room and meal expenses in order to meet real estate education requirements. The new program solves that problem," said Dahlstrom.

"The program also should be of interest to persons who want real estate courses, but who are unable to attend regular classes because of erratic work schedules," he added.

Information on the new correspondence program may be obtained by calling the HSU Continuing Education Office at (915) 677-7281, Ext. 500; or write to Hardin-Simmons University, Division of Continuing Education, Box 957, Abilene, Tx 79698.

Fall gardening time at hand

Although there is still plenty of hot weather ahead, it's time to start getting things in shape for your fall vegetable garden.

Much of Texas is well suited for year-round gardening, and fall vegetables generally have better quality and flavor than those grown in the spring, says Allen Turner, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M System.

Many popular warm-season vegetables such as tomatoes, peppers, eggplants, pole beans, potatoes, okra, cucumbers and squash can be planted during the coming weeks.

Also, the so-called "winter" vegetables such as broccoli, cabbage, cauliflower, greens, parsley and carrots can be planted now for early harvesting. Later plantings of these cold-hardy crops will supply fresh vegetables well into winter.

What are some of the important aspects of fall gardening?

First of all, get the land into good shape, suggests the Agent. If you had a garden this spring and fertilizer was applied, little if any additional fertilizer will be needed before fall planting.

For new gardens, apply two to three pounds of a complete fertilizer such as 10-20-10 per 110 square feet and work it into the soil, recommends Mr. Turner. If plants make slow growth, apply a light amount of fertilizer between rows and water it into the soil.

Adequate water is vital for a successful fall garden, particularly for seed germination and early plant growth. He suggests "pre-irrigation" before planting followed by subsequent, light waterings three or four times a week to keep soil

Total Teens to chair "Wheels For Life"

St. Jude Children's Research Hospital officials announced today that The Total Teens will chair the hospital's "Wheels For Life" Bike-A-Thon in Winters. This ride will raise funds to support the hospital's battle against childhood cancer and other illnesses being studied there.

Founded in 1962 by entertainer Danny Thomas, St. Jude Hospital has become the world's largest center for the study of childhood cancer and is the only institution dedicated solely to the treatment and study of catastrophic childhood diseases. The hospital is non-sectarian and interracial.

In addition to direct treatment of patients throughout the United States and 29 foreign countries, St. Jude has provided the world's doctors with the best ways of treating their own young cancer patients. This lifesaving knowledge is given freely and with no charge to any other hospital or private physician.

St. Jude Hospital's dramatic progress has been made possible primarily by voluntary contributions raised through events such as the "Wheels For Life" bike rides organized by concerned citizens all over America.

Phil Gramm announces small development centers

The U.S. Small Business Administration has launched an aggressive program of small business development across Texas, U.S. Sen. Phil Gramm of Texas has announced.

"Under this program, a network of Texas cities is slated to host small business development centers, some of them technology oriented, some of them traditional," Gramm said.

"Traditional, business-oriented centers will be established in South Texas, West Texas and Northeast Texas," the senator said. "In addition, a statewide technology business development program will be established as soon as possible, headquartered at Texas A&M University."

In South Texas, West Texas and Northeast Texas, the senator said. "In addition, a statewide technology business development program will be established in Edinburg at Pan American University and in El Paso at the Community College.

"These centers will focus on helping small businesses in Bexar, El Paso, Starr, Hidalgo and Cameron Counties during the first year, with plans to expand the focus to Laredo, Corpus Christi, Kingsville and Victoria over three years," Gramm said.

"Planning for the West Texas program is now undergoing final review," Gramm said. "Operations are expected to begin this fall."

The senator said that SBA Drivers cautioned as school opens

Last year in Texas there were 1,228 accidents involving school buses, with seven fatalities and 323 non-fatal injuries. Schools are about to open again, and drivers are once more being cautioned to be unusually attentive in and around school zones and school buses.

An increasing problem in recent years has been drivers who either ignored or were unaware of the law restricting vehicles from passing a school bus while the bus is loading or unloading children. Children often cross the street in front of the bus, and a car that's trying to pass may not see them coming.

The problem became so bad two years ago that Texas Legislature considered requiring buses to have mechanical arms at the driver's window that would extend into the traffic lane while the bus is stopped. At present, buses in Texas have flashing lights at the front and back of the vehicle when stopped, as well as signs noting that vehicles are required to stop for the buses.

To emphasize the importance of stopping for these buses, the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation has produced public service announcements with Texas singer-songwriter Jerry Jeff Walker as its spokesman.

Walker, the 44-year-old author of the classic, "Mr. Bojangles," believes in the message he offers in the television commercial.

"It's important to note that stopping for those flashing red lights is not just a courtesy, it's the law," Walker said. "That means stopping whether you're behind the bus or approaching it from the other lane."

The law states: "The driver of a vehicle upon a highway inside or outside a business or residence district upon meeting or overtaking from either direction any school bus which has stopped on the highway for the purpose of receiving or discharging any school children shall stop the vehicle before reaching such school bus when there is in operation on said school bus a visual signal such as specified in Section 124 of the Act, and said driver shall not proceed until such school bus resumes motion or is signaled by the school bus driver to proceed or the visual signals are no longer actuated. A violation of this subsection is punishable by a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $200.

In addition to Walker himself, his daughter Jessie, son Django (named for 30's-era jazz guitarist Django Reinhardt) and 10 other children from the Austin area took part in the PSA production. The Austin Independent School District supplied a brand new bus for the spots.

Congressman

Charles W. Stenholm

Congressman Charles Stenholm (D-TX) will be the opening witness next month for hearings on reforming the Davis-Bacon Act, the 55-year-old federal law that sets wages for public construction projects.

The Texas Democrat, a leader of the Davis-Bacon reform movement since coming to Congress, agreed to begin the testimony for the September 10, 1986 hearings of the Subcommittee on Labor Standards. He was asked to be the lead-off witness before the subcommittee after winning concessions for reform during debate on a related military construction amendment by Congressman William Dickinson of Alabama. These included assurances that hearings would be held and that a comprehensive reform bill would be reported by the subcommittee. The amendment was then defeated, 167-244, after intense lobbying by organized labor.

"We may have lost the battle on the Dickinson amendment," Congressman Stenholm said, "but just bringing this issue to the floor was a victory. This marks the first time in 55 years that the house has been considered updating this Act. And at last, after years of trying, we will get the regular committee process to do its job fully and fairly. Then the full House will have a chance to work its will on government-wide reforms.

"Reform is overdue. Polls show the majority of Americans want this law changed and it's Congress' job to be responsive to the will of the people."

The Dickinson amendment, which would have raised the threshold below which military construction contracts are exempt from Davis-Bacon from $2,000 to $250,000, was the same as a provision already approved by the Senate in omnibus defense legislation. In a compromise, which Stenholm called "a token gesture," the threshold was raised for one year to only $25,000, on a 406-5 vote.

"What this vote really means," said Congressman Stenholm, "is that 406 Members of Congress are on record in support of going forward with reform in a deliberate manner, through the committee process."

The vaguely-worded, 1931 Davis-Bacon law generally requires the government to pay wages far exceeding local market rates on federally-funded construction, repair work or renovations. The Act applies to all projects costing over $2,000, a threshold set in 1935. Congressional Budget Office estimates show that Davis-Bacon adds almost a $1 billion a year to federal construction costs.
