Wait a minute...

By Kerry Craig

I knew, somehow, that he would be asking for help. He did. Under the guise of setting up a program for next week, he con- nected me into helping him fulfill a promise he made to me.

Now all this is, this week, a full year old. Instead of fading away and being forgotten, the whole issue is revived and being made a bigger to-do.

Now you all remember the saga of the steak, how long it took to gain any satisfaction from the deal, and the modifica- tions made to relieve Gary from having to produce the beef.

Well, the Great American Smoke Out will be held on Thursday of next week, November 20. Gary, good old boy that he is, asked if I would help promote a program at the hospital in observance of GASO. So, to the hospital we went.

You must remember here that the Rev. Turner promised to produce a number of confirmed quitters—persons who had given up the habit of smoking— five of them.

He slipped one by last week and started advertising for per- sons who had quit smoking. His ad was in the form of a "news story", and he even gave my phone number as a contact place to tell him that someone had become a confirmed non-smoker. Of all the nerve.

Now, back to the hospital. We met with Rita, the ad- ministratrix, to discuss plans to have a pulmonary function machine (this is a gadget that will give you a print-out of how well your lungs are doing what they do) to let folks come by and get checked up. At no cost.

We also discussed having a special display from the American Cancer Society that shows what lungs look like, on the inside, if you don't smoke—and if you do.

We also talked of two video tape presentations that will be shown at the hospital throughout the GASO day.

We even found out that Dr. Lee will have a special presen- tation that evening.

During all these discussions we learned that Gene Richard- son, who works at the hospital, quit smoking quite some time ago.

It was at this point that Gary took advantage of me. He enlisted my help in taking Clay Miller's cigarettes and lighter and obtaining his promise to stay off the cigarettes until GASO.

If that wasn't enough, Tricky Turner took me along to do the same with Karen Carter, in respiratory.

I now have their smokes and lighters locked in my safe.

Now all this is fun (for Gary and me), it is also serious business.

If you happen to see Clay or Karen you might lend them some encouragement—they may need it.

On Thursday, of next week, we will observe GASO (Great American Smoke Out).

There will be an opportunity for everyone, whether you smoke or not, to learn about your lungs and to learn about keeping them healthy. It is all free.

Gary also needs several more folks who have quit smoking to contact him in order for him to make good on his end of the deal.

By the way, I need to say thanks to Gary for his help ear- ly Saturday.

On to something else. There has been no specific time set for our council to make up their minds about the police depart- ment. They do need to get something done, soon.

Our three officers are work- ing everyday and they need some help, soon.

Homecoming activities top Blizzards final game

The crowning of a homecom- ing queen and a coming home queen highlighted an otherwise gloomy football game as the Winters Blizzards ended their season with a loss to the Bangs Dragons, 44-14.

If the last three quarters of the game had followed the pat- tern set by Winters in the first period, the final outcome would have looked a lot different.

The Blizzards opened the ball game with a quick trip into the end zone, followed by the PAT. A few plays later Winters tallied again to make the score 14-0.

Bangs recovered quickly in that first quarter to more than even the score, they picked up the extra points after two touchdowns to make the score at the end of the first quarter 16-14.

Bangs recovery continued for the remainder of the game to leave the final score at 44-14.

During the half-time ac- tivities, the Winters High School Graduating Class of 1936 was recognized. That class is celebrating its 50th. reunion.

Honored as the Coming Home Queen, and a member of the Class of '36, was Mrs. Doris Reed Stoecker. She was escorted on the field by Hudon White Jr. and she was presented with the traditional gifts by Mrs. Edna England, Coming Home Queen of 1985.

Mrs. Stoecker is a life-long resident of Winters, a graduate of Winters High School and a graduate of Abilene Christian College.

She began her teaching career in the Independence School, near Winters. She taught in Winters for 28 consecutive years in the second grade.

Mrs. Stoecker and her hus- band Homer have lived on their farm east of Winters for the past 45 years.

They have two children, a daughter, Margaret Ellen, and a son Reid.

Honors were also given to Melissa Poehls, who was chosen by the student body of Winters High School, as 1986 Homecom- ing Queen.

Runnels Grand Jury returns 17 indictments

A Runnels County Grand Jury, meeting the last week of October, returned a total of 17 indictments against 15 people. Included among the indictments were charges of indecency with a child, aggravated assault with serious bodily injury, threat of retaliation against a police officer, possession of controlled substances, burglary, and felony DWI.

One of the indictments was the result of information gained through Runnels County Crimestoppers. James Olmos, of Ballinger was charged with burglary of a motor vehicle. The burglary was recently featured as Crimestoppers Crime of the Month.

Marvin Kenneth Drummond, of Winters, was named in an indictment alleging aggravated assault with serious bodily injury in connection with an incident in which another Winters man, Joe Henry Toliver, was cut with a knife.

Noe Martinez and Norma Quiroga, both of Ballinger, were named in separate indictments alleging possession of controlled substances, amphetamine.

Two separate indictments alleging indecency with a child, under 17 years of age, were returned against Michael David Masters, of Ballinger. The indictments allege sexual contact with two female children under 17 years of age.

Two Winters women were in- dicted on charges of retaliation in connection with threats made against deputy sheriff Joe Stokes. Named in separate in- dictments were Laura Baker, also known as Laura Smith, and Frenchetta Ileen Marie Azbill.

Jose Maria Dela Cruz, of Winters was indicted on a charge of retaliation in connec- tion with threats made to Winters Police officer Tim Dex- ter after Dexter took Dela Cruz into custody on a charge of DWI. Dela Cruz was also indicted on the felony DWI charge.

The grand jury also returned four additional indictments alleging felony DWI. Named in those indictments were Harvey Sparks of Winters, Jimmy McMahan of Abilene, Clemente H. Mata of Ballinger, and Jose Alfredo Martinez of Ballinger.

An indictment was returned against Orville Dean Cotter, of Miles, on charges of burglary of a building.

The grand jury re-indicted Michale P. Ryan, of Coleman, on two separate charges of burglary of a habitation. Ryan had been arrested several months ago and indicted on the charges.

February bid opening planned for Stacy Dam

A target of February 26, 1987 has been set for opening of bids for construction of the dam for Stacy reservoir provided all the pieces for a 404 Permit fall into place.

Final plans are due from Freese and Nichols, consulting engineers, January 15. O. H. Ivie, general manager of the Colorado River Municipal Water District, told district directors at their meeting in Big Spring Thursday. CRMWD will con- struct the project. Ivie said he anticipated the U.S. Corps of Engineers will make recommenda- tion on the 404 (environmen- tal) Permit necessary for a con- struction start by the time for advertising bids. Advertising for bids will follow immediately after plans are completed if the Corps report is favorable, Ivie added. Construction will require about 2½ years.

Directors also adopted a 1987 budget calling for an outlay of $12,695,327 of which slightly over one million dollars is ear- marked for future water sup- plies, namely Stacy, under a policy adopted by directors in 1985.

Ivie reported that successive rains had boosted the year's in- flow to more than 280,000 ac. ft.,

The new indictments were necessary to correct wording er- rors in the original indictments.

Over 100 attended marker dedication to honor FFA

Two golden anniversary members of Future Farmers of America were among the more than 100 guests attending the marker dedication honoring the Winters FFA Saturday.

James Binion of Abilene, a former member of the State Board of Education, and long time friend of R. E. (Dick) Homann, Junction, were given 50 year medallions at the Golden Anniversary Convention of FFA in San Antonio in 1978, attend- ed by 7,400 members and guests.

Mr. Homann organized the Winters Chapter in 1978 and was here when the Charter was received. he spoke briefly on the program.

Bruce Cobb, Lubbock, state FFA president, cited the achievements of people in various fields of endeavor that are still remembered. He ex- pressed hope that the efforts of the Future Farmers will be of help to others in the future.

Benny Clark, Austin, state FFA secretary, is not discourag- ed for the future even though times are now difficult. "We will carry on," he promised.

Morris Robinson, first Winters American Farmer, in- troduced guests including members of the Runnels Coun- ty Historical Commission pres- ent. Those with American Farmer and Lone Star Farmer degrees were recognized, in- cluding Russell Stone who will receive his American Farmer degree this month in Kansas.

A number of this group are now employed as FFA advisors in various schools.

Brad Kruse, local Chapter President presided for the Ceremony and Frank Davis, Vice-President conducted the pledge to the flag. He assisted in unveiling the historic marker while Mrs. George Poe read the inscription.

She Stands Tall

Short of stature but long in deeds can be said of Eunice Polk who does one good turn almost every day. It may be anything from baking cookies for a little boy down the street who is having a birthday to helping a sick neighbor nearby.

Eunice is chairman of a group on the Benevolence Committee of the First Baptist Church which provides food for bereaved families. Some days much of her time is spent in calling members to help by preparing a dish for such meals. If she doesn't secure enough food she provides one or more dishes herself.

Born in Killeen on November

14, 1903, Eunice came to Runnels County with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Polk, in 1904. They spent the first year on the W. W. Poe farm, later moving to the Bishop place on the creek and then lived on the Meek's farm. Mr. Polk bought a farm near Wingate in 1912 where they resided until moving to Winters in 1921.

Two other children were born to the Polk's, a son, Grady in 1907, who died in 1967 and Mildred born in 1916, who is now Mrs. Clarence Hambricht.

Because of her birthday being late in the year, Eunice couldn't start to school at Wingate until she was eight years old. She was supposed to finish in 1921, but when the family moved to Winters she was held back because she had not been assigned the outside reading of the classics. She didn't know about credits and took the entire grade over finishing in 1923.

When the family moved to Winters they first lived in a three room house on the east side of the hospital. They later moved to a home on Parsonage Street where Ophelia Lopez later lived. Their next home was at 610 Lamar where Miss Polk continues to reside.

After finishing high school Miss Polk went to Draughan's Business College in Abilene but couldn't begin work for awhile because her mother had surgery in July of 1924 and she stayed home with her. She wanted a career in Civil Service but was unable to leave because of her mother's health. She overheard the doctor say that her mother had asthma and probably wouldn't live very long. This haunted her and kept her from leaving home. Mrs. Polk died in 1935.

After finishing business college, Miss Polk kept books for Van H. Piercy at his plumbing shop for several years. When he moved away she was employed as bookkeeper for Neills Plumbing.

During the depression she worked for the government as a clerk. Mr. Lyle was administrator and had his office at the Chamber of Commerce. Maurine Pumphrey was secretary for the Chamber at that time.

Miss Polk was employed in the office of Dr. J. W. Dixon from 1935 to 1942. At that time she went to work as bookkeeper for Fred Young at his Tailor Shop for five years, until he sold out.

Having worked for Skaggs Dry Goods after school and on Saturdays when in school during 1921-22, she had learned something about clerking. She said Mrs. Skaggs put her to work without any instructions and when she cut some sheeting instead of tearing it her mother had to pay for it. She then worked for Mr. Krause and was employed at Heidenheimers part time when the opportunity came to work for the City of Winters as a full time cashier, to assist Mrs. Roxie Floyd, City Secretary. She worked for the City 22 years until she retired in 1969. "It was the best job I ever had," she said.

The City never had any trouble collecting until the office was moved to the new location and then sometimes people would get behind with their bills. "It just made it worse if I said anything when people came in fussing," said Eunice. "One man remarked, that's the dumbest girl I ever saw, she won't say a thing."

One year after Eunice quit work the retirement plan was implemented, but she was not included as she had been retired too long.

While she was working, Eunice took care of her ill father at night and her sister, Mildred, nursed him in the day time. He died in 1961.

A long time member of the First Baptist Church, Eunice has continued to be active in the Martha Sunday School Class and has held a number of offices. She once taught primaries and worked with young women.

Miss Polk holds a lifetime membership in the Eastern Star and has served two terms as Worthy Matron.

With all her activities, Eunice did not neglect her home. She kept a large garden and had fresh vegetables to give away. She also mowed her lawn, and continued to do so after cutting off two of her fingers down to the second joint in a mowing accident. When Clarence, her brother-in-law, retired, he took over the job. But Eunice continues to grow beautiful flowers of all kinds which she cheerfully carries to everyone nearby.

From staying with friends at night when they were ill, Eunice graduated to a full time job when her neighbor, Mrs. T. V. Jennings needed help. She took care of her at home for five years and attended her for three years after Mrs. Jennings required nursing home care.

To show their love and appreciation of Eunice, friends and neighbors are sponsoring a bir-

McMillans travel to Franklin, Texas

Mr. and Mrs. Reed McMillan of the Bradshaw area and Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn of Cisco were in Franklin, Texas on November 9 when the Daughters of the Republic of Texas placed historical grave markers on the graves of their great-grandfather, James McMillan, Jr. and their great-uncle Andrew McMillan.

The two brothers fought at the Battle of San Jacinto. Another of McMillan's great-uncles, Robert Henry, helped with the burial of Fannin at Goliad.

He prepared Fannin for burial by wrapping him in a flag.

James McMillan, Jr. came to the United States from Ireland at the age of 23 in 1821. His father died shortly after their arrival in South Carolina. His mother, Ann McMillan came to Texas in 1833, when James was 15. One of the first families to settle on Wheelock Prairie in Robertson County.

James was 18 when he joined Captain Robertson's Ranger Company along with his brother, Andrew. They fought with this group at the battle of San Jacinto. Wilburn McMillan spoke at the special dedication at Owensville Cemetery near Franklin, which is located in Robertson County, to a crowd of about 150 people.

It is not the function of our government to keep the citizens from falling into error; it is the function of the citizen to keep the government from falling into error.

Ladies Aid met

The Ladies Aid Circle of St. John's Lutheran Church met in regular session at 2 p.m. Thursday, November 6, in the Fellowship Center of the church.

Mrs. Walter Kraatz, president, called the meeting to order, with Mrs. Jake Presley, program chairman for November, opened the program with a song.

Mrs. Charles Kruse read a humorous paper for the birthday number. Mrs. Walter Gerhart, Mrs. Robert Gerhart, Mrs. Walter Kraatz and Mrs. Ellis Ueckert were also on the program.

Eighteen ladies answered roll call with Scripture Verses.

Mesdames Jake Presley, Hattie Minzenmayer and W. F. Minzenmayer were hostesses for November.

Over 65 quilts shown at Z. I. Hale Museum

More than 150 visitors thronged the Z. I. Hale Museum Friday and Saturday to view the 65 attractive quilts, displayed in five categories.

Virgie Richburg of Tuscola won best of show with her "Liberty Centennial" in the embroidery division. A large replica of the Statue of Liberty was surrounded by a red and blue border, sprinkled with white stars.

Mildred Patton of Wingate placed second with her Acorn Harvest pattern in brown and green on a white background. Mrs. Bobby Bowman received third place for "A Rose is a Rose", crosstitched in red and green on white, framed with blue.

Fifteen quilts were exhibited in the antique division: Hazel Badgett, first with her basket pattern in green and brown tones; Willeene Gerhart, second with a sunflower pattern; Fannie Mae Sanders, third for an original pattern called "Veterans Friendship", a different symbol represented each branch of the service, such as airplanes, tents and ships, this quilt was entered by her sister Elsie Mae Sanders of Winters.

Winners in the baby quilt division were: first, Mary Lynn Presley, with a bunny applique pattern; second, Kevin Conner with an embroidered bear on a soft yellow background surrounded by purple and blue flowers; third, Jamie Sims, Raggedy Ann and Andy applique on a yellow background.

The applique division was headed by Hazel Badgett, white flowers on a blue background was her entry. Second and third places were captured by Mrs. Richburg with her "Colonial Lady" and "Blue Bird" on print squares as a background framed with blue strips.

The largest division with 23 pieced quilts was swept by Mrs. Richburg who took all three places: (1) Her "Texas Wreath" with various scenes pictured in each red, white and blue circle (2) Oklahoma Dogwood pattern of brown and beige print, tipped with brown, representing blooms on a cream background (3) "Broken Fan" of solid, blue, blue and white dots and mingled blue patterns.

Other patterns exhibited were the Double Ring, Log Cabin, Spider Webb, Bethel Star, Broken Star, Nine Patch, Bow Tie, Cathedral Window, Interlocking Star, Flower Garden and String Quilt Triangle.

The growth in the popularity of quilting is shown by the many new and unusual patterns exhibited, also the improvement in the handiwork.

Now is the time to begin preparation for next year's exhibit.

RRC Levies fines

The Railroad Commission assessed $91,000 in administrative penalties Monday to 13 Texas oil and gas operators for problems under the Commission's pollution and well plugging rules.

The largest penalty, $32,000, was assessed to Walter V. Davis of Sweeny for 13 inactive and unplugged wells on the Louis H. Wolfe lease and three wells on the Mexar-Sorrell lease, both in Fort Bend County. All the wells have been inactive for almost two years.

Some other operators receiving administrative penalties for well plugging violations include W.M.W. Operating Co. of Rockwall, $9,000 for one well on the F. J. Holik, Jr. lease and two wells on the Frank J. Holik lease, Tom Green County; American Energy Resources, Inc. of Arlington, $6,000 for one well each on the Caylor Warran "D" and James Finley "B" leases, McCulloch County; and Alexander-Herring, Inc. of Lubbock, $11,000 for three wells on the Dorothy Gottschalk lease and one well on the R. A. Hall lease, Runnels County.

To date in 1986, the Commission has levied more than $1.48 million in pollution and well plugging penalties, exceeding the $1.11 million assessed for such penalties last year.

0% Financing on John Deere 4-wheel-drive tractors

John Deere is offering zero-percent financing for up to two years on four-wheel-drive tractors. Buyers may choose a finance waiver or a discount instead of the waiver for all new four-wheel-drive tractors, regardless of when they were made. The offer is good until December 31.

New 1984 or earlier models of four-wheel-drive tractors qualify for a finance waiver to October 1, 1988. Buyers of 1986 models have until October 1, 1987, before paying finance charges. The waiver and the retail price discount in lieu of the in value, but both are offered to provide attractive alternatives for anyone in the market for a new four-wheel-drive tractor.

Deere is also offering finance waivers until October 1, 1987, on all eligible used four-wheel-drive tractors sold at retail. Waivers are approximately equal

New Chamber Directors elected

Six new members of the board of directors for the Winters Area Chamber of Commerce to serve during the two year term, 1987-1988 were elected recently through a mail ballot voting by the chamber membership.

Elected to the chamber board were Nelan Bahlman, owner partner of Spill Bros. Furniture Store; Mitzi Deike, homemaker and farming partner with her husband Michael Deike; Carl Grenwelge, owner of Grenwelge Texaco Station; Mike Kozelsky, owner partner of Kozelsky Cabinet Shop; Mike McDonald, Vice President, Winters State Bank and Jackie Tension, Dean of Students, Winters High School.

Holdover directors serving the second year of their two year term are Charles Bahlman, owner of Charles Bahlman Chevrolet; James Cross, pharmacist and owner of Main Drug; Charles Ludwick, retired citizen; Mike Meyer, owner partner of Winters Funeral Home; Brent Mikeska, owner of Wingate Gin and Elevator; and Melanie Wade, owner and operator of The Hair Post.

These people are graciously giving their time to guide and work for the advancement and promotion of Winters and the Winters Area. They deserve our support and cooperation as we all work together to improve the quality of life and to promote and support the business sector of Winters and the north Runnels County area.

Breezes lose a 14-16 thriller

The Winters 8th grade Breezes lost a heartbreaker Thursday as the Bangs Dragons defeated them in the last game of the year 14-16. The loss gave the Breezes a final 6-3 record for the year and they should be proud of their accomplishments.

This is the first time I have ever been glad that I was on the losing side. To be on the winning end of the score I would have had to coach the Bangs team and I could not have handled the situation.

There were many things that occurred in this game on the field which our coaching staff does not tolerate. But, the Winters parents and fans should be extremely proud of the kids that represent their city because none of our kids acted in the same manner. Not only off the field but also on it they are perfect gentlemen who respect right or wrong and know the meaning of athletics and sportsmanship. The blue and white of Winters was represented by quality young men and they should be commended for their outstanding character.

Our specialty teams were the difference in this game as we allowed Bangs to recover two on side kicks and they were able to drive in for two short scores. We allowed them to convert both points after and this was the difference in the game. Coach Slaughter kept kidding me all week that I was saying the Bangs kids grew each time I talked about them. Before the game started I thought they had their teams mixed up and we were going to play their J.V. They were huge but our kids didn't let the size intimidate them, it was just very hard to bring them down. We had a breakdown on defense on 4th and seven and this allowed them to score.

Offensively we only had the ball three or four times but we scored on two of them. So, our biggest problem was we didn't have the ball enough. Nathan Smith did an excellent job blocking on the line this week. Nathan says he weighs about 105 pounds, but I think he's stretching it some, and all night he had to block a 230 pound guy. Well this giant was not in on a single tackle all night. The game was one of those "you should have been there to see it" types which was very exciting. The game should have been called the Scottie and Willie aerial parade. Scottie Rodriguez threw a pass to Willie Belk who made a great catch and carried the ball down to the 1 yard line for a 30 yard gain. On the next play Scottie scored behind excellent blocking and the point after failed and we trailed 16-6 at half.

During the second half we run a continuous clock if we are over our time limit and we really didn't play a fourth quarter as Bangs just waited around because the clock never stops. Our team made a valiant effort to come back as Scottie stepped up in the pocket and hit Willie Belk in perfect stride for a 75 yard touchdown. Our point after was good on a sweep by Scottie and time ran out and the score was 14-16 in the other teams favor.

It is tough to end the season with a loss but the gallant effort our kids put into the game and their never give up attitude made it feel like a victory as they staged a great comeback to fall short by two points. It was an honor to coach these kids this year and I expect great things out of them in their future varsity careers. I would also like to thank the fans, parents, cheerleaders and especially our booster club for the support they gave us this year. I look forward to next year as our 7th grade performed extremely well this year in compiling a 4-2-1 record and were improving daily. Again I would like to say, the people of Winters should be extremely proud of its youth as they are great ambassadors for our city.

To make certain crime does not pay, the government should take it over and try to run it.

County Pecan Show set for December 4

The 1986 Runnels County Pecan Show will be on Thursday, December 4 in the First National Bank in Rowena, according to Allen E. Turner, Runnels County Extension Agent. He states: "Our pecan crop is erratic this year, but we want to continue our County Show to promote the production of high quality pecans".

Pecans are probably grown by more people in Runnels County than any other crop and a Pecan Show is an excellent way to learn about pecans. Everyone is encouraged to participate in this show-entries will be accepted from pecan growers in Runnels and any adjoining county, providing there is now pecan show in their county. No person can enter more than one county show.

Pecans may be entered at the County Extension office in the County Courthouse in Ballinger, Alderman-Cave in Winters, or the First National Bank in Rowena. No entry will be accepted later than Tuesday, December 2. Each single entry should consist of not less than 50 pecans. They should be packed in paper (or plastic) bag with the exhibitors name, address and variety of the pecan, if known.

Divisions will be: In-Shell, Shelling and Native.

Champion and Reserve Champion will be selected from each division. A plaque will be presented to the Champions and Rosettes to the Reserve Champions.

Rules and Regulations for 1986 Runnels County Pecan Show

1. Date: December 4, 1986
2. Location: First National Bank in Rowena
3. Entries will be accepted from pecan growers in Runnels and any adjoining county, providing there is no pecan show in their county. No person can enter more than one county show.
4. Pecans exhibited must be from the 1986 crop.
5. Pecans must have been grown by persons exhibiting them.
6. Pecans may be entered at the County Extension Office in the County Courthouse in Ballinger, Alderman-Cave in Winters, or the First National Bank in Rowena. No entry will be accepted later than Tuesday, December 2.
7. Each single entry will consist of not less than 50 pecans.
8. Pecans should be packaged in paper or plastic bags with exhibitors name, address and variety of pecan, if known.

Blizzard Booster Club to have ice cream supper

The Blizzard Booster Club is having a Football Ice Cream Sundae Supper to honor the Blizzards Coaches, Players, Managers, and cheerleaders, Saturday, November 15, 1986, at 7 p.m., in the School Cafeteria.

The public is invited to attend and help us honor our Blizzards for the 1986 football season. Tickets will be $2 at the door.

Don't slow cook your turkey

Cooking a stuffed turkey in a very slow oven at 200 to 250 degrees is not advisable, says Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service food safety experts. Because of the low temperature, the turkey and stuffing could take more than four hours to reach high enough temperature to destroy harmful bacteria. They recommend cooking the turkey in a 325 degree oven until a meat thermometer shows the temperature has reached 180 degrees Fahrenheit. This will destroy salmonella bacteria that can cause food borne illness.

19. Statistical winners will be determined from records.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socio-economic levels, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

Save stuffing for last minute

Food safety experts with Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service recommend stuffing a holiday turkey right before you cook it. Warm, moist dressing is an ideal medium in which food poisoning bacteria can grow. To save time prepare the dry stuffing ingredients the day before, cover them tightly and leave at room temperature. But keep the perishable ingredients, such as butter, mushrooms, oysters, cooked celery, onions and broth in the refrigerator. Then combine the ingredients before stuffing the turkey.

Crews

By Hilda Kurtz

Housework is something you do that nobody notices unless you don't do it.

Our sympathy goes out to the family of Weldon King and other relatives. Weldon was buried in the Crews Cemetery Saturday, he was born and raised in our community, just north of the Crews gym.

John and Lenice Couch, Big Spring, attended the 1936 school class reunion in Winters this past Saturday, they also attended the ball game. Mrs. Couch will be remembered as Lenice Phipps, once living in this community.

During the week with Mrs. Effie Dietz were: Irene Gerhart; Clarence Hambright, did some work; a niece, Mr. and Mrs. John Couch of Big Spring spent Friday night.

Phyllis, Jennifer and Jeff Byrd of Abilene spent Sunday and had lunch with Kat and Adilene Grissom.

Toni and Arthur Spragg, Odessa, Pat and Cecil Hambright and Corra Petrie ate out Sunday after church services. Afterwards they visited in the Hambright home.

Lawan and Coleman had some hunters out this week, Wayne Foreman and his grandson, Rocky, of Arlington, Charlie Foreman and some friends of Dallas, they got two deer Saturday morning.

Cecil and Susie McDaniel of Ft. Worth, and Dessie Fisher, Winters, visited with the Coleman Foremans. Dessie returned home with the McDaniels for a week or two.

Mrs. Viola Foster, Louise Osborne, Sue Campbell enjoyed dinner Sunday with the Wesley McCallian family in Wingate.

Pat and Earl Cooper's granddaughter, Dodie Chambliss, of Hawley, was elected Riding Club Queen. The Coopers called son, Ronnie, in Searcy, Arkansas and wished him a happy birthday. Becky and Elwood Brown were there over night.

Happy Birthday Ronnie—Hilda!

Fairy Aleorn had a vacation this week, so she did some visiting with Johnnie and Linda Denson in San Angelo on Tuesday and with Jerrell and Maurine Giles, Fred and Sandy Giles, she also visited Abe Giles and Ferrell King Friday.

Visitors in Hopewell Baptist Church Sunday were Mrs. Myrtle Wright, Menard, Chad Kraatz, Sherri Mikeska of Wingate.

W.M.U. Ladies met in the Church Fellowship Hall on Monday at 9:30 a.m.

Gary, Kay and Chane Hill, Eastland, spent the weekend with the Robert Hills, Mike and Von Hill, Sweetwater, came on Sunday.

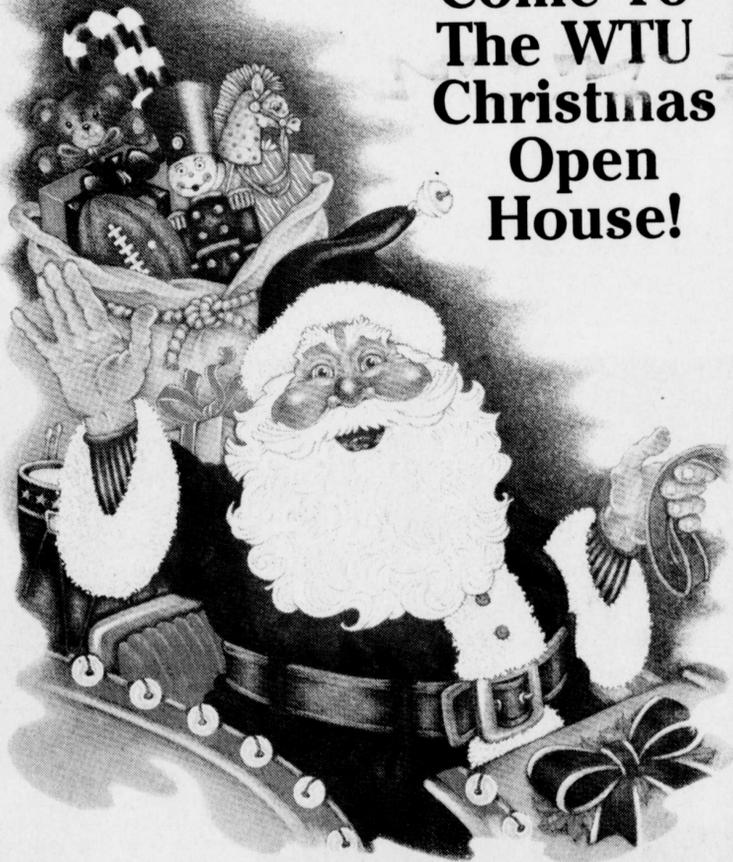

A sure sign of bureaucracy is when the first person who answers the phone can't help you.

B.A.S.A. SOCCER

By J. F. PSUTKA, M.D.

This week we again experienced perfect soccer weather and all games were completed. We are nearly to the end of the schedule with the older age group Under 14 finishing league play Saturday, November 15, 1986. It is certain that the Warriors have wrapped up the championship as they lead the league with 18 points and the nearest rival, the Ballinger Celtics have 8 points and the third place, Winters Bulldogs have 6.

Next week we will see the Winters Scorpions battle the Ballinger Dynamios in a game that could settle the Under 12 championship. The Scorpions lead with a perfect 6-0 record and the Dynamios are one game back at 5-1 having experienced its only loss to the Scorpions in their first meeting. This is a crucial game for both teams. That game will be a real battle and will be played at 12 noon on Field 3.

In the Under 10 age category the Rovers have virtually clinched that championship. They have 2 games left against their two tough rivals, the Spurs and the Rangers. If they lose both games, there could be a tie for the championship. If they win one game, the championship is theirs.

I had an error in the very first game score of the year, between the Cosmos and the Apollos. I had the Apollos erroneously winning 6-1, but in fact it was the Cosmos that were victorious. I have made the appropriate changes in the standing for this week.

LAW XV THROW IN

When the whole of the ball passes over the touch-line, a player of the opposite team that last touched the ball, shall throw the ball into play. He can throw it in any direction. He must have both feet on the ground touching or outside the touch line. He shall not play the ball again until played by another player. He cannot score from a throw in. A player cannot be offside as a result of a throw in.

If a ball is improperly thrown in, the opposing team will throw in.

If a player two touches the ball before it is played by another player, an indirect kick will be awarded to the opposite team, at the point of the offense.

Blizzard basketball

Monday night the Junior Varsity and Varsity went to Roby to play the Lions in a controled scrimmage. Both Winters teams won games played setting up now for the first opening game next Tuesday night here against Brownwood Early.

In varsity game the Lady Lions shot 31 free shots against the Lady Blizzards and twenty-eight of them were made in the first half.

In the second half the lady Blizzards held the potent offense of Roby to only fifteen points. For the Lady Blizzards the girls made 15 of 31 freeshots and scored 25 field goals in the three and a half quarters played. Three lady Blizzards scored in double figures Missy Poehls, Leslie Pruser, and Sonya Belk. Others scoring were Christi Fenter, Camille Lancaster, Tracy Grantham and Tami Belew.

"We were very happy with are team effort but we also realize that were going to have to be better on our defense, rebounding, and fast break work, by the first game."

Seminar scheduled

Science and math teachers served by Education Service Center Region 15 (San Angelo) interested in the GTE Foundation Growth Initiatives for Teachers (GIFT) fellowship program can get more details at a seminar scheduled November 17 in San Angelo. The seminar will begin at 4:15 p.m. in the Stephen F. Austin East Ballroom at the Sheraton, 441 Rio Concho Drive.

The GIFT program provides opportunities for school enrichment and professional development to secondary school mathematics and science teachers. Teachers in both public and accredited non-profit private schools are eligible.

Charles Watkins of General Telephone Company of the Southwest, coordinator of the Texas program, said the grants reward outstanding teachers by providing them with an opportunity to update their subject knowledge and to translate their learning experience into effective teaching.

GIFT offers a school enrichment grant of $2,500 each to the mathematics and science teacher which must be matched by and additional $2,500 each from the school or community; a personal development grant of up to $2,500 each for study, field work or in-service training; and an opportunity for each teacher to participate in an all expense paid seminar.

Parade and Sno-Queen Contest set

The theme for the 1986 Sesquicentennial Christmas Parade will be "We'll Be Home For Christmas". The parade will be held Saturday December 6, at 3 p.m. The 1987 Sno-Queen will be crowned after the parade. Parade categories and prizes and Sno-Queen contest plans will be announced next week.

The Pantry is bare—again

The Community Food Pantry is in need of donations of food and money. Because of the slowdown in the oil industry and other areas the Pantry has been called upon to help increasingly larger number of families with their food needs.

In the past month the Pantry has provided over 40 families with food and other assistance. This has left the shelves bare.

In order for this much-needed program to continue, the community must lend its support in the form of food goods and cash contributions to purchase foods for families who, otherwise, would be forced to do without.

Entry deadline for Fat Stock Show set for December 10

Another banner year has been planned for the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show, scheduled for January 28 through February 8, some 5,000 past exhibitors will be receiving a preview of the 91st annual extravaganza.

Show president/manager W. R. Watt Jr. said exhibitor premium list books, containing premium schedules, rules and judging times have been mailed to potential exhibitors in 45 states and Canada. First time exhibitors may request premium lists from the Stock Show office at P.O. Box 150, Fort Worth, Texas 76101.

The ever-growing, internationally acclaimed livestock exposition lists over half a million dollars in show premiums, rodeo purse and educational scholarships which will be available for 1987. The program also will include a variety of auction sales, an array of educational exhibits and outstanding commercial displays.

Entry deadline is December 10 for exhibitors of cattle, sheep, swine, dairy cattle and goats, horses, donkeys and mules. Poultry, pigeon and rabbit exhibitors have until January 15 to enter. Entries last year exceeded 15,000 head of quality livestock.

Known world-wide for its innovative and provocative entertainment, the Stock Show Rodeo this year will present another historical theme. The major production's unusual and spectacular acts will present the American Spirit in a grand manner which will reach new heights in family entertainment.

Rodeo tickets are priced at $6 for Monday through Friday matinees, $8 for Monday through Tuesday nights, and $10 for Friday nights and all weekend performances. Mail orders, being accepted now at the Stock Show office, should include $2 extra per order for return postage.

The rodeo ticket office, located in the lobby of the Will Rogers Coliseum, will open December 8. Tickets, after that date, also will be available at Rainbow/Ticket-Master locations throughout the Metroplex.

Runnels Baptist Association to meet

The regular meeting of the Runnels Baptist Association will be held November 17 at the Robert Lee Baptist Church.

The meeting begins with the WMU and Executive Board at 5:30 p.m. The evening meal will be served at 6:30 p.m.

The program begins at 7:00 p.m. The program is to be on Foreign Missions Emphasis. Mrs. Christine Clark, Association WMU Director, is in charge of the program. Dr. Grayson Tennison, Southern Baptist Missionary to Portugal, will be the speaker.

The public is invited to attend.

West Texas Utilities to hold Christmas Open House

West Texas Utilities Company welcomes everyone to join us for our annual Christmas Open House. Holiday decorations and food gift ideas will be displayed at our local WTU office Friday, November 14, from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. The 1986 "Holi-

Project Love collects Christmas gifts for Abilene State School residents

Project Love is a community project to help collect Christmas gifts for almost 1,000 residents of Abilene State School. These residents range in age from seven to 94.

The Project starts November 25 and will continue thru December 18. As part of Project Love J. C. Penny will sponsor a Christmas tree which will have pictures and wish list of the various residents of the school.

J. C. Penny on December 2 will give a $3 Gift Certificate for every gift brought into the store.

Project Love is being organized by the Volunteer Council which is a non profit group of organizations and individuals dedicated to the well being of clients of Abilene State School.

Last year the council raised over $30,000 in Christmas gifts for the residents of Abilene State School, this year expectations are for even more according to Sue Black, coordinator of the project. "These are special people who need love just like everyone else, and Project Love is our way of showing these people we care."

All gifts donated to Project Love should be new and unwrapped.

There are many drop points for Project Love, all five West-T-Go Locations, KWIK Lube and Convenience Store locations, Interfirst Downtown, Interfirst South, Rock 108 at 1740 North First, J.C. Penny and all three local TV Stations.

Donations needed for ACS Rummage Sale

The North Runnels Unit of the American Cancer Society is receiving donations for their annual rummage sale.

Social Action Committee to hold meeting

The Social Action Committee of St. John's Lutheran Church will hold a meeting Thursday, November 13 at 7 p.m. in the Educational Building at 1100 W. Parsonage for the purpose of organizing a "Meals on Wheels" program.

Anyone interested in this program may call Boyd or Nadine Bedford at 754-4593 for more information.

Tim Jones, director of the Wrangler Band for the past nine years, has said that this year's group of young people is among the very best he has ever worked with. Jim's ability and interest is evident as the band works hard to prepare for football games, parades, tours, and other public appearances which are related to Cisco Junior College. Band members receive a scholarship grant, and their education-experience is enhanced by a great deal of travel!

If a nation values anything more than freedom, it will lose its freedom; and the irony of it is that if it is comfort or money that it values more, it will lose that, too.

Stew — made by Mr. Burns and a Catfish Stew made by Lee Colburn.

Stew Cook-Off Chairwomen were Fran Polston and Monnie Sims, and they, along with the Chamber of Commerce want to thank all the good cooks who took the time to make stew and donate it to the Chamber for the Cook-Off and for the Friday noon meal served at the Community Center during the Arts and Crafts Show.

In addition to the winners, those who made stew were: Linda Dry, Joyce Bahlman, Betty Byrns, Celeste Bahlman, Rhuenell Poe, Becky Airhart, Carmella Polston, Bobbie Bowman, Geneva Cook, Billie Middlebrook, Mildred Clark, Bette Bowman, Emily White, Tanya Davis, Edna England, Joan Howard, Connie Briley, Ruby Nell Rougas, Randy Springer, Lee Colburn, Lanny Bahlman, Benny Polston, Kerry Craig, Darrell Kurtz, George Mostad, Charles Bahlman, Gary Don Pinkerton, Jerry Sims, Donnie Killough, Barron Guy, Charles Brewer, Richard Brewer and J. T. Sprinkle.

Proceeds from the Stew Cook-Off and The Arts & Crafts Show will be used to provide prize money for the Christmas Parade and to advertise and promote the Holiday Shopping plans for the Winters area.

Jim Heidenheimer plays in CJC Band

Jim Heidenheimer, of Winters, Texas plays the Trumpet in the Cisco Junior College Wrangler Band. He is majoring in music.

The Wrangler Band has received national recognition as a result of its five appearances in the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade in New York City, and its two appearances at the Apple Blossom Festival near Washington, D.C. The Fiesta Flambeau Night Parade in San Antonio and other major events are listed among the Band's past accomplishments.

When Macy's Department Store opened a new facility in Houston in September of this year, officials of Macy's invited the CJC Wrangler Band and Belles to be the official band and drill team for the grand opening. Expenses for this event were paid by the Macy's chain.

The band is currently raising funds for a trip to Mexico in April of 1987. The government of Mexico has invited the CJC Band and Belles to Villahermosa, Tabasco, to participate in that state's spring celebration known as "Feria del Desarrollo Tabasco." Mexican officials have promised food, lodging, and sight-seeing, but all students must raise their own travel money. Tax-deductible donations in the student's name may be made to Cisco Jr. College, and would be greatly appreciated by the individual band members.

Representative of Arts & Crafts Fair Memo from the Chamber

This past weekend was an especially busy time for the Winters area.

Our congratulations and appreciation to all who were involved with the procurement and dedication of the Historical Marker honoring the Winters FFA Chapter as the first chartered chapter in Texas. This is an unprecedented milestone for the Winters FFA Chapter and for the city of Winters. Through the years the Winters FFA Chapter has been an important part of the area heritage. The placing of this marker is most appropriate in this, the Sesquicentennial year.

Seven representatives from our city attended a workshop for small town economic development conducted by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce on Thursday, November 6 in Ballinger. The Ballinger Chamber of Commerce hosted the workshop in the Carnegie Library, which is under going restoration, (and it is beautiful). 100 community leaders from towns within a 100 mile radius of Ballinger attended the day long session. Those attending from Winters were Stephen Byrne, Scott Epperson, Charles Ludwick, Gary Moore, Johnny Bob Smith, Carl Grenwelge and myself. Information was received that will be very helpful in future projects and long range plans for Winters.

I would like to thank these committee heads who helped to make the 1986 Arts & Crafts Show a success. Lois West, Chamber director, served as Show Chairman with Sandy Griffin competently heading the Kitchen Committee. Fran Polston and Monnie Sims handled the Stew Cook Off with great aplomb. Renee' Calcote and Donna Guy are growing into excellent publicity and public relations representatives and our appreciation goes to Ferrel Dean Brown for overseeing the registration and door prize booth. A special thank you to all the volunteer stew cooks, kitchen crew and registration ladies, the show would not be possible without all of you.

Due to a small drop in the number of visitors who ate lunch at the community center Saturday, the remainder of the chicken spaghetti and pumpkin cake was taken to the Senior Citizens Center to be enjoyed for Sunday supper.

The Arts & Crafts Show was a huge success and brought many visitors to Winters during the two days of the show.

Proceeds from the Arts & Crafts show will be used to promote the Holiday Shopping plans and as prizes for the Christmas Parade, December 6.
