Wait a minute...

By Kerry Craig

Some of the strangest things come up on Tuesday evening when we are working overtime to get the paper together.

We find something missing and we search for it until we find it—hopefully.

As you know, Pastor Steve Byrne writes a column each week to give us an idea what a goldfish sees through the fishbowl.

Guess what was missing this week? Steve's column. Want to make another guess about what was missing? You got it, Steve, too.

It seems Steve was out in search of Bambi, or his first cousin. So was everyone else—nearly.

We had surgery in our family this past week and, while I was waiting around keeping house, cooking, washing clothes and Angie, and visiting the hospital, the doc was out, you guessed it, hunting.

Just how come the surgery was scheduled at the time it was, at first glance, seemed normal—until I found that the doctor and I entered the same big buck contest. Kinda makes you wonder.

Well, I was going to fool them. I found a couple of hours over the week end and decided to dash over to Coleman County and check on the deer population.

I should have known it was all wrong when the strap came undone and scattered my best deer rifle all over the driveway. The point was really driven home when, just as I arrived on the scene, the whole gun rack in the old truck came tumbling down, guns and all.

If you haven't figured it out by now, I'll tell you. There was not a critter to be seen—anywhere.

At least my goats didn't get out.

Last week I received a copy of a distant newspaper in the mail, from up near Ft. Worth. The editor of that paper had an idea that I might be interested in a certain story.

She was right, I was.

Good old Gary Turner has captured another newspaper person with his steak dinner bet scam.

You know? It is that time of year again. By the time you read this, we will be in the middle of another Great American Smoke-Out.

I just hope that Gary has the same results with that editor he had with this one. Not only did we call a lot of attention to what we were trying to do—get folks to stop smoking—we had a lot of fun doing it, too. We even won a real nice award.

I really hope Gary can keep this new editor of his in line. In her column she made mention, several times, of lighting another one.

Some of you may get a bit weary of my annual tirade against smoking—big deal.

You bet it is. If I can kick the butts, anyone can.

And every morning, when I get up without coughing and reaching for that first smoke of the day, take a deep breath of fresh, clean air (and enjoy it). I pat myself on the back and tell myself, "self, I'm proud of me."

Give it a try. You can make it, and then you can talk to your self like that, too.

VFW observe Veteran's Day

Winters Post 9193 Veterans of Foreign Wars observed Veteran's Day November 11, 1987 by putting the United States of America's Flag on the streets of Winters and the surrounding cemeteries.

Members helping were: R. C. Kurtz, Terry Stewart, Donnie Oats, Rickey Calcote and Terry Stanfield.

National FFA Dairy Contest

Members of the State FFA Dairy team met with the Special Project sponsor, Mr. Harlan Urban, Corporate Director, Associated Milk Producers, Inc., of Hillsboro, Wisconsin. The team was one of 45 FFA teams participating in the National FFA Dairy Contest at the 60th National FFA Convention in Kansas City, Missouri.

Frank Davis. They were accompanied by their coach Jackie Tension of Winters.

The National FFA Dairy Contest is a special project of the National FFA Foundation, Inc., sponsored by the Associated Milk Producers, Inc., San Antonio, Texas. The contest is held at the American Royal Livestock and Horse Show, Kansas City Missouri.

Winters FFA team in national meet

Four members of the Winters FFA Chapter traveled to Kansas City, Missouri, last week to compete in the National FFA Dairy Contest. The contest was held in conjunction with the 60th National FFA Convention and sponsored as a special project of the National FFA Foundation by the Associated Milk Producers, Inc.

The team from Winters placed 13th in the nation. Members of the team are: Frank Davis, Wayne Boyd, Latricia Palmer and Marie Pritchard. Jackie Tension is the team coach.

The Dairy Cattle Contest was one of 12 national agricultural contests conducted annually by the national organization as part of the convention. The Winters FFA team was one of 45 teams from across the U.S. competing in the contest. The contest was one of many educational activities at the National FFA Convention in which FFA members put into practice the lessons taught in the Vocational Agricultural/Agribusiness classroom.

The following individuals and teams place in the FFA gold division. Top individuals were Brad Lewison, Owatonna, Minnesota; Gina Burnett, Grady, New Mexico; and Jodi Raim, Keensburg, Colorado.

The Second place team was from Grady, New Mexico; third place, Sedro Wolley, Washington; fourth place, Pendleton, Indiana; fifth place, Carnesville, Georgia; sixth place, Kuna, Idaho; seventh place, Yoder, Wyoming; eighth place, Penn Laird, Virginia; ninth place, Baraboo, Wisconsin; tenth place, Normal, Illinois; and eleventh place from Keensburg, Colorado.

The contest winners were announced at the annual awards breakfast sponsored by the Associated Milk Producers, Inc., of San Antonio, Texas.

Gas plant to pay penalty

A Runnels County company agreed Friday to pay a $500 penalty set by the Texas Air Control Board.

KG Gas Processors Ltd., which runs a gas processing plant near Winters, processes gas with levels of hydrogen sulfide higher than its permit allows, according to the agency.

Also, the company failed to report some volatile organic compound leaks, the agency said.

By agreeing to the penalties, the company is not necessarily admitting violations, an agency spokeswoman said.

Cubs Scouts to collect food for Food Pantry

The Cubs Scouts of Winters Pack 249 will collect can goods for the Winters Food Pantry on Saturday, November 21, 1987. Boys need to be at the Scout Hut at 10 a.m. in uniform.

Community Thanksgiving Service set at Methodist Church

There will be a Community Wide Thanksgiving Service at the First United Methodist Church of Winters Tuesday, November 24, beginning at 7 p.m.

Anyone interested in becoming a member of the Community Wide Choir please be there at 6 p.m.

A reception will follow.

Bake Sale slated by church youth

The United Methodist Youth Fellowship will be sponsoring a Bake Sale Wednesday, November 25, starting at 3 p.m. in downtown Winters.

There will be all sorts of baked goods for Thanksgiving.

School to dismiss early Wednesday

The Winters Independent School District will dismiss at 2:30 p.m., Wednesday, November 25, 1987 for the Thanksgiving holidays. Buses will run at this time. Classes will resume at the regular time on Monday, November 30, 1987.

Ballinger Council to study prison possibility

The Ballinger City Council, Monday, voted to seek information from the community regarding its feelings about seeking a state prison facility for Ballinger.

Saying it wanted to get the community's ideas about the idea, the council also agreed to undertake a feasibility study on the proposal.

No action was taken other than to seek the community feelings and to solicit comments on the prison idea. The council will compile the results of the studies and the comments and meet, at a later date, with Sony Emerson who brought the proposal to the Ballinger Council's attention.

Ballinger council members spent some time discussing new city policies with regard to hunting and shooting along Elm Creek, in the area of the city's sewer and landfill property.

The decision was made to prohibit any shooting or hunting in that area and ordinances will be enacted to enforce the ruling.

While talking about the landfill, the council noted that the city will be moving to the new landfill site, adjacent to the sewer plant, in the near future. Ordinances will be enacted to enforce the rules against dumping refuse over the fence, or along the road leading to the present landfill.

After the change is made to the new landfill, the old site will be locked and persons wishing to dump refuse will have to drive to the new site. If the trash is dumped on, or near, the old landfill, charges will be filed and fines will be levied.

An agenda item calling for discussion regarding possible city involvement in the seeking of grant money from the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department for the development of a sports complex was tabled by the council after representatives of the sports complex failed to attend the council's meeting.

Two building permits were approved by the council, one for construction of a storage building at Coppers L liquor Store on U.S. 67 South and for the construction of a carport by J. C. Gore.

Routine items of business and discussion ended the meeting Monday evening.

Winters Council sets new sanitation rates

Winters City Council members had a very short agenda for their regular meeting Monday.

Highlighting the meeting was the adoption of new rates for the refuse collection service in the city.

The new rates, which become effective with the December billing will show an increase of about 30 cents per month for residential customers inside the city limits, from $5.35 per month to $5.60 per month.

Out of town customers will see their rates increase from $7.50 per month to $8 per month.

Commercial rates will remain essentially the same, with the rates negotiated between the business and the sanitation contractor.

Winters City Administrator Chuck MacIvaine said that the sales tax, which now applies to the garbage collection service may cause some confusion to the customers.

He said that it would be February before all the new rates and the appropriate taxes would be reflected on the bills for the service.

In other business, the council named J. B. Guy, Jr. to fill a position on the Winters Housing Authority made vacant by the resignation of Jim Jordan.

The council also named James Bomar to fill a seat on the Housing Authority board formerly held by council member Sandy Griffin.

A public hearing was held concerning the proposed annexation of property along West Dale Street occupied by Dry Manufacturing, and extending to Fairview Cemetery and including the municipal airport.

There was no one attending the hearing and the council moved forward with the annexation process.

Fred Wright, representing General Telephone, made his routine visit to the council to learn if there were any problems with the telephone service and to tell the council of things being done by the phone company to improve the present service.

Wright was asked about the interruption of long-distance telephone service to Winters. He said that the outage was caused when a pipeline crew cut through a telephone cable.

The telephone company representative was also asked why Winters residents could not get services advertised in the telephone books. Services that are available in Ballinger and not in Winters. He said that Winters central office did not have the equipment to enable the services to be offered and did not know when they could be offered here.

Wright also was asked about the noise that many folks are hearing on their phone lines, he said that he didn't have any answers, but would find out and report back to the council.

Big problem

A Calcote dozer was called to tow the Winters Fire Department out of a grass fire area last week.

Winters firemen were assisting Ballinger firemen in battling a grass and brush fire just south of Hatchell.

As Winters firemen attempted to get to a "hot spot" in the fire the truck became stuck in a ditch.

It was not known if an axle was broken in the truck or if it was some other problem. The truck was thought to be back in service early this week.

Quilts Tell Tales

There was an entry at the Quilt Show that didn't fit into any category. It was made by a group of women at the First Baptist Church for the Centennial Celebration of the Southern Baptist Woman's Missionary Union in 1988.

WMU is a mission's organization in Southern Baptist Churches for pre-schoolers, girls and women. Each block of the quilt represented some phase of its history and each one was made by a different woman. Some blocks were painted, some applique and others embroidered.

Block No. 1 was of applique resembling a Bible with the words "The Great Commission" Matthew 28:19,20 embroidered across the front. Alice Traylor had charge of this one.

Block No. 2 pictured a gavel with the words above "May 14, 1888", and below "Richmond, Virginia," place of organization. This block was prepared by Flora McWilliams, who was also director of the project. She made the mite box and seal with which the organization began. Women and children placed their pennies in "mite boxes", emphasizing giving the tithe.

The first watchword, or motto as it was then called, from 1889 to 1908 was a slogan, "For God and Home, and Every Land." This was pictured as a banner being held by an angel. This block was painted by Omega Priddy. The present watchword is "Laborers together with God" (1 Cor. 3:9)

In 1909 WMU purchased its first building in Baltimore. In 1921 the office was relocated in Birmingham, Alabama, and in 1984 moved to the first new building ever occupied. The three buildings are pictures on a block provided by Charlise Poe. Next pictured were the five directors that have served the organization. Dorothy Bedford painted this square.

Mission action is pictured as hands holding a cup of cold water, prepared by Verda Smith. Its companion block is a picture of two worlds representing home and foreign missions prepared by Jean Mitchell.

For several years the WMU mailed cards and letters to its members and published information in state papers but in 1906, WMU began publishing its own quarterly magazine. Its title was Our Mission Fields. In 1914 the magazine was renamed Royal Service and became a monthly publication. Its cover is pictured by Ivy Wood. Praying is portrayed as a link around the flowers for our yard and pot plants. To the Wilmeth community for hosting our birthday party this month for Carl Smith, Cap Nolan, Ruby Miller and Bertha Grisham. The cookies were delicious and we all enjoyed singing. The singing special by Kasia and Shaya, Christi and Sadler Mahan was enjoyed by all.

The Bingo Banner has hung on Curtis Morrison, Carl Smith, Willie Lois Nichols and Alyce Compton's doors lately.

Thanksgiving Family Night will be Friday, November 27 in our dining room. Our home will provide the meat and bread, while families may bring the Thanksgiving vegetables of their choice. All of us have much to be thankful for this Thanksgiving.

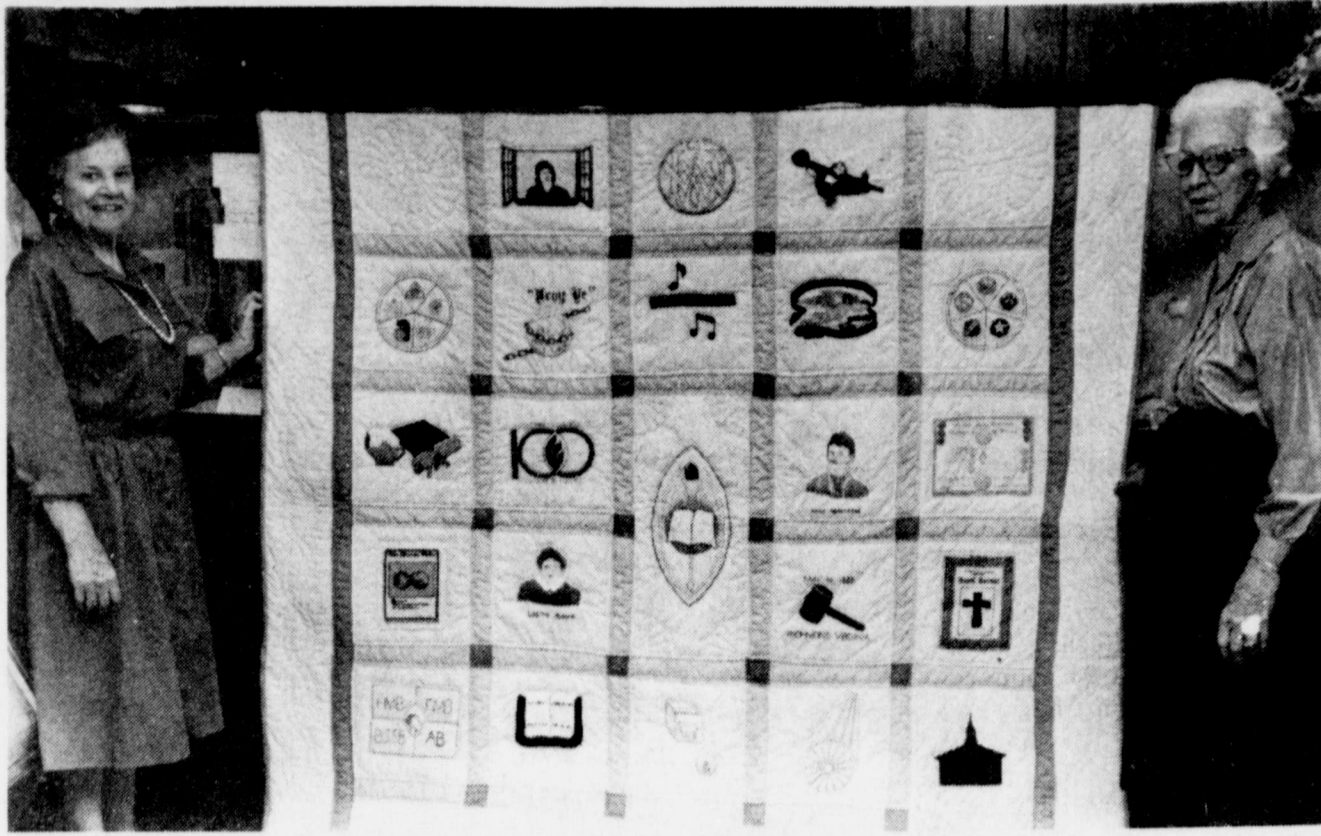

This holiday season will include many Christmas decorations in our home. There will be a decorating contest for the doors for the residents. These doors should reflect a Christmas theme with three doors winning a prize. The residents in each room will receive the prizes. First place will be bathrobes, second place will be house slippers and third place will be a gift certificate to a local merchant. We're excited by the holiday season. Remember the volunteer orientation this coming Saturday night in our dining room at 6:30 p.m. and refreshments at 7:30 p.m.

There will be a garage sale on December 4 and 5 to benefit the residents of our home. Proceeds will be used to add activity equipment for our program and to provide gifts to our residents at Christmas. Donations are always welcome. Contact Elaine Miller as soon as possible. Happy Thanksgiving to all.

ed then the fun of quilting began. It was set up in Charlise Poe's living room and the same group of women met at various times to finish the task—the work was completed in four days.

This quilt will be displayed throughout the year of 1988 at the First Baptist Church and other churches in the association. It has already been carried for display at the First Baptist Church in Coleman.

When the year has ended the quilt will be presented to the Z. L. Hale Museum for a permanent home.

world and was prepared by Elsie Sanders.

Lottie Moon, missionary to China, and Annie Armstrong, home missionary, were devoted to the cause of missions. The Lottie Moon Christmas offering and the Annie Armstrong Easter offering have provided over $300 million to mission causes. These two blocks were provided by Jo Olive Hancock and Lucille Virden.

Other blocks of history prepared are, the denomination, Linda Morrison; Church, Mrs. Fred C. Young; Old Insignias, Ivy Wood; WMU, Billie Whitlow; Be a Little Sunbeam,

Nursing Home news

The senior citizens at the nursing home wants to say "Thank You" to the citizens of Winters and everyone at the Arts and Craft Show last week. We appreciate your thoughtfulness and consideration of everyone including Lanny Bahlman, Robert Parramore, Charles Ludwig and Bonnie Lee, who we want to welcome to Winters.

We want to say thanks to Miss Bryan's pre-kindergarten class for the two big jack-o-lanterns they gave the nursing home at Halloween. They did a very good job making them. Mrs. Bill Minzenmeyer for the Christmas decorations and to Mrs. Bredemeyer for the gowns, lap robes and chair cushion she gave the nursing home. Turkey specials keep cost down

Thanksgiving dinner may be one of the most economical you eat this year—especially if you have a family tradition of serving a whole bird and making side dishes from scratch. "Most supermarkets use turkey to attract holiday shoppers, so retail prices don't necessarily reflect wholesale prices," says Dr. Dave Mellor, a poultry marketing specialist with the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service (TAEX). He says that unbasted, store brand turkey could be as low as $6.60 a pound, while basted, national brand turkey will be in the $9.00-$11.00 per pound range. A whole bird is the traditional favorite and considerably less expensive than further processed turkey parts or roasts. For example, cooked drumsticks are running about $1.80 per pound, pre-basted breast about $1.40 per pound, and boneless smoked turkey about $4.58 per pound.

It might seem like a convenience to stuff your Thanksgiving turkey in advance, but it could be dangerous, says a Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service food safety specialist. "When a turkey is stuffed it creates ideal conditions for growth of bacteria in the cavity," says Marilyn Haggard. "In a home refrigerator, it's very difficult to keep the stuffing inside a pre-stuffed turkey below 40 degrees F, which is cold enough to keep most bacteria from growing." For that reason, she says, the U.S. Department of Agriculture advises against buying a pre-stuffed turkey. Haggard recommends preparing and refrigerating the stuffing in advance and placing it in the turkey right before cooking, or cooking it separately.

Silver Tea slated

The Nineteenth Annual Silver Tea, to benefit Baptist Memorial's Geriatric Center, will be held at the home of Johnnie Barrows, 3708 Vista del Arroyo, San Angelo, Texas, on Sunday, November 22, between the hours of 2:30 and 4:30 p.m. There is no charge, but all donations will be appreciated.

The Silver Tea is the year end drive to help underwrite the goal of $350,000 to $400,000 to fund charity programs at the Geriatric Center. The Baptist Memorial's Geriatric Center is the only skilled nursing facility between Fort Worth and El Paso, and patients and residents range in age from teenagers to the very elderly. It is for all denominations, and religious services that are provided include a Chaplain on duty and Catholic Mass once a week. There are two Social Services Directors, a Recreation Director, rehabilitation facilities with therapy room and pool, a gift shop, a thrift shop, and ceramic classes held each Thursday where residents can make gifts for their loved ones. The Geriatric Center has the largest auxiliary in San Angelo, with 210 volunteers, both men and women, who assist with the various services provided.

Mrs. Mike McFarlen is the Chairperson for this year's event. She is being assisted by the following: Hospitality—Mrs. Frank Stringer, Sr.; Publicity—Susan Sikes Wills and Mrs. Eugene Jones; Food—Mrs. C. E. Hill, Mrs. Marlin Felts, Mrs. Wayne Merrill, Mrs. Glenn Rosenfeldt, and Mrs. Clyde Ellis; Fashion—Mrs. Bobby Fletcher and Mrs. Frank Sanders; Houseparty—Mrs. Russell Reed.

The Silver Tea has grown to be one of the special holiday events. The first Silver Tea was held in the Claude Collin's home. It was attended approximately by 250 people, and $8,000 was raised. Last year approximately 700 people attended and $19,500 was contributed. It was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Millard McAfee.

Festive styles will be shown by The Fasion, and music to usher in the holiday season will be presented. Everyone in San Angelo and in the surrounding areas of the Concho Valley is invited to attend.

By Hilda Kurtz

Don't look forward to the day when you stop suffering. Because when it comes you'll know that you're dead.

After prayer services Wednesday night the congregation gave Bro. Oscar Fanning a surprise Birthday Party in the church fellowship hall. Soup, sandwiches, cake and drinks were served.

Twelve year old son, Will, son of Linda and Dale Duggan, shot him a doe the first day of the season. His 12 years old cousin, Brandon, son of Chauncey Mansell of Ballinger, shot him a five point buck, his very first deer. A big congratulations to these two happy boys.

Scott Gerhart was honored on his birthday with a dinner in the home of his sister, Sherri and Brett Mikeska, in Wingate. Others present were Selma Mae and Wilmer Gerhart, Melvina and Marvin Gerhart, and Scarlett, Brent, Brad and Brenna Mikeska of Wingate.

Many more Happy Birthdays and dinners Scott.

During the week with Mrs. Effie Dietz were, Bessie Baldwin, Clarence Hambright, and a cousin, Tyro, from California, and Robert and Louise Goode. Selma Osborne came and brought Effie's groceries on Saturday.

Coleman Foreman and two nephews of Dallas, Charlie and Clifton Foreman, and two friends came to hunt over the weekend.

Truman Deike and myself had a nice visit with some cousins, Albert and Celia Andrae, of Plainview, in the home of Agnes Andrae Thursday in Winters.

Mary Kurtz spent Thursday with her sister, Louise Gottschalk, in Winters.

Bill and Luanne Kirk and children, Christie and Kirk Workman, Ballinger, spent Sunday with Dale and Linda Duggan and children.

Mike and Von Hill, Sweetwater, spent the weekend with his folks, Robert and Claudia Hill.

Margie and Evelyn Jacob, and Mrs. Louise Michalewicz attended the funeral of Mrs. Louise Kohutek in Ballinger

Don't Blame Your Age For Poor Hearing.

Chicago, Ill. — A free offer of special interest to those who hear but do not understand words has been announced by Beltone. A non-operating model of the smallest hearing aid Beltone has ever developed will be given absolutely free to anyone requesting it.

It's yours for the asking, so send for it now. It is not a real hearing aid, but it will show you how tiny hearing help can be. The actual aid weighs less than an eighth of an ounce, and it fits completely into the ear canal.

These models are free, so we suggest you write for yours now. Again, there is no cost, and certainly no obligation. Although a hearing aid may not help everyone, more and more people with hearing losses are being helped. For your free sample send your name, address, and phone number today to: Department 79108, Beltone Electronics Corporation, 4201 West Victoria Street, Chicago, Illinois 60646.

Sunday. Cookie, Corey and Brad Vandant and Brenda Jacob, San Angelo, spent Sunday with Margie and Walter Jacob. Ruth Pape will be selling Avon now.

Lyndon and Varnell McBeth and Pete Tounget of Monahans were down over the weekend and got a deer with Chester McBeth. His grandson, 11 year old Bobbie McBeth, got a deer field dressed at 94 pounds.

Jessie Collom had pickup trouble. Jessi, Amanda and Courtney came walking and used Mrs. Effie's phone. Larry fixes the trouble and all ended OK.

Kyle Kraatz, Dallas, spent the weekend with his family, the Jerry Kraatz.

Becky Brown's mother, Mrs. Helen Hamilton, of Ballinger, spent Sunday with the Elwood Browns.

Doris and Marion Wood spent Sunday and had dinner with Pat, Maloy and Robert Bryant in Abilene.

Karen, Welsey and John McGallian honored their daughter, Stefaine, on her fifth birthday with a dinner. Cake and ice cream followed. Present were: Nila and Therin Osborne, and Don, Cindy, Amy, Jeremy and Justin McGallian of Abilene.

We wish you many more Happy Birthdays Stefanie.

Hazel Mae Bragg and Corra Petrie attended the Arts and Crafts Show in the community center in Winters Saturday and on Sunday night they attended Charge Conference and covered dish supper at the Winters First United Methodist Church.

Wilbert Aleorn's brother, Raymond, of San Saba, spent the weekend with Fairy and Wilbert.

Selma Deitz was in Abilene Saturday and heard Pastor Marshall speak at 10 a.m. and again at 2 p.m. at the Madison Middle School.

Selma and Hazel Deitz fixed daughter, Judy, a birthday dinner Sunday. Ernest and Judy Cooke spent all day Sunday.

Out of the community visitors with Harvey Mae and Noble Faubion during the week were, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Joe Penny, Clyde, on Friday night Walter and son, William, Pape, Hobbs, New Mexico and Walter III and Walter the IV of Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Around here rain gauges show from 3/10 inch to 1 inch. I had 1/2 inch Sunday morning and Sunday night 3/10.

Methodist ladies held meeting

The United Methodist ladies met November 17, in the home of Ionah Vinson, with eight ladies present.

The meeting was opened by Odessa Dobbins leading the group in prayer.

A business meeting was held. The ladies will meet at the church Tuesday, November 24 at 9:30 to prepare Thanksgiving baskets for shut-ins and the needy.

The program "Hear Us When We Pray" was lead by Mildred Carrol. Scriptures from Matthew and Luke were also read and a reading "I'm Not Sure How To Pray" was also read.

Others on the program were, Odessa, Pauline, Billie, Ozie and Corra. We had an interesting discussion on "What is Prayer" and we all read our dismissal prayer.

Those present were: Pauline Mayhew, Ozie Stanley, Mildred Carrol, Ethel Bridwell, Zelma Lee Lange, Billie Middlebrook, Odessa Dobbins, Corra Petrie and Ionah Vinson.

Ladies Aid met

The Ladies Aid Circle of St. John's Lutheran Church met in the Fellowship Center at 2 p.m., November 5, with Jewell Kraatz, president, calling the meeting to order and presenting Adala Ueckert as program chairman for November.

Bible Study leaders for November were, Jewell Kraatz and Eula Mae Kruse. Others on the program were, Lilly Presley and the whole group sang a song for those having birthdays this month.

Eighteen ladies answered Roll Call. Adala Ueckert gave a report on Education and Stewardship.

The second quilt day was held November 9 in the Fellowship Center with eight ladies in attendance.

Bea Schroeder and Katie Spill were hostesses for the month. Our carpet fund continues to grow.

Sew and Sew met

The Wingate Sew and Sew Club met November 10 with Pauline Huckaby as hostess, with nine members in attendance and one visitor, Oma Lee Overman, present.

A quilt was quilted for Pauline Huckaby and one finished for Johnnie Barnett.

Because of the Thanksgiving holidays, the next meeting has been changed to December 1.

Food Service met

The Runnels County School Food Service met Monday afternoon, November 9, 1987 at the Winters School Cafeteria. The program was given by Shirley Deal of the West Texas Utility of Abilene. She presented the latest holiday recipes and a lot of ways to package it beautifully for Christmas. The program was enjoyed by all.

Those attending were, Betty Hedden and Laverne Redman of Miles; Pat Hale, Gladys Hillard, Glenda Rose, Frances Spieke, Marie Schwertner, Billie Dawn King, Barbara Rollwitz, Lorena Owens, Jamie Garza, Margie Jones, Dorothy Fiveash, Louise Walker, Bonnie Virden, and Edna Gillespie, all of Ballinger; and Elizabeth Babb of Wingate.

The hostesses were Nancy Folsom, Lucy Nitsch, Margie Walker, Eloise Prine, Nadine DeLaCruz, Evelyn Jacob and Nell Ballard of Winters.

Friendly Helpers held meeting

The Friendly Helpers Club of Wilmeth met with Grace Barker at their new home in San Angelo on November 11.

Eight members were present, they were: Rosalie Simpson, Oma Lee Overman, Thelma Tubbs, Joyce Broadstreet, Genevieve Denson, Eva Wright, B. B. McNeill and one visitor, Lavoy McNeill. Rosalie Albro was in Dallas visiting Stella Trull at the time of the meeting.

Those present went to Red Lobster for dinner and then to the Barker home for refreshments and a business meeting.

It was voted to have the Christmas salad luncheon with Joyce Broadstreet December 9 at 1 p.m..

Heart-Healthy holiday cooking

This Thanksgiving, Hanukkah, and Christmas, you can have the traditional feasts and still maintain a heart-healthy lifestyle. All you have to do is to think "heart healthy" as you prepare for the festivities.

The American Heart Association's Diet for Healthy Adults permits five to seven ounces of lean meat, poultry, or fish a day. With the traditional holiday table centerpiece of a roasted turkey, you can easily enjoy a low-calorie, low-fat main course. There are only 124 calories and 2.2 grams of total fat in a three-ounce serving of white meat without the skin; dark meat has 167 calories per three-ounce serving and five more grams of fat than white meat.

Use good judgement when buying your turkey. Some self-basting turkeys are injected with oil that is high in saturated fat and broth that is high in sodium. Choose a plain frozen turkey instead, or check the label for a self-basting brand that uses unsaturated vegetable oils.

Don't offset the heart-healthy turkey by going overboard on the trimmings. Stick with making a low-fat gravy and reject the extra helping of dressing.

You have many heart-healthy entree choices. Cornish hens, wild duck, pheasant, partridge, quail, and other small birds are all acceptable. Venison is very lean, and rabbit, with a flavor somewhat like chicken, has only a fraction of chicken's fat. Do avoid commercially-raised game animals that have a higher fat content than their cousins from forest and field. The American Heart Association Cookbook, 4th Edition, has several tasty game recipes.

Seafood and lean red meat also make good entree choices. When selecting cuts of meat, choose those that are closely trimmed, with little external fat. The leanest cuts of beef include these six: top round, top loin, round tip, eye of round, sirloin, and tenderloin.

Vegetables are practically fat-free and low in calories, so don't be bashful about asking for seconds. Beware that butter and cream sauces add unnecessary fat, cholesterol, and calories. Vegetables flavored with garlic, onion, lemon juice, herbs, or spices are delicious and have few added calories and little added sodium.

You don't have to skip dessert if you use a few tricks to make cookies, cakes, and pies with less fat and cholesterol. For example, substitute evaporated skim milk for evaporated milk, use three egg whites instead of two whole eggs, and choose low-fat toppings instead of whipped cream. And, remember that a simple bowl of mixed fruit is a natural way to satisfy the sweet tooth.

There is often the temptation to nibble at holiday parties. Be a "smart snacker" by avoiding baked goods and highly salted nuts and chips in favor of raw vegetables or fruit treats.

No party should be an excuse to overdo it — especially when it comes to alcoholic beverages. Limit consumption to a moderate amount, and be sure there's a non-drinker available to do the driving.

Finally, don't forget to schedule outings that include exercise. Brisk walks, bicycle rides, bowling, raquetball, basketball, and tennis are several of the ways you can burn off calories and help your heart.

The American Heart Association hopes this holiday season is a safe and healthy one for all. For more information about heart-healthy cooking, contact your local American Heart Association listed in the White Pages of your telephone directory.

Card of Thanks

We would like to express our sincere thanks for all the prayers, cards, flowers, food and visits we received from our friends.

We would also like to give a special thank you to J. C. and Tommy Hodnett for all their help.

Your prayers and support during these times are greatly appreciated.

From A Goldfish Bowl

By Pastor Steve Byrne

One of the ministries of the Ministerial Alliance is that one of the pastors/preachers holds services at the nursing home. Sunday afternoons and Wednesday mornings.

Each minister takes his (not "his/her" on account of there not being any women ordained ministers in Winters—but there might be someday) turn. Some of twice a month, others once.

It is one of those things about the ministry I enjoy the most. Because the residents really appreciate my being there. And show love and gratitude in every way they can.

I always leave feeling a little bit better about things than when I arrive.

Sometimes—especially Sunday afternoons—my schedule gets crowded. And I have to leave early. There have even been times when it seemed like just one more thing I "had" to do that day. Sandwiched in between other commitments.

It's like when I was a kid. On Sunday afternoons right in the middle of the best "playing time." Mom would call me in to get ready for MYF. Which started at 5:45. Which was not optional in our family.

I hated to stop playing and get ready (sometimes I even had to take a shower!) to go. But I always had a good time. And was glad I had gone.

On those nursing home Sundays when times get hectic, I relive all those feelings of when I was growing up.

And when I get there, I see those special people. Smiling. Glad I am there and we are there together. Mrs. Bahlman always smiling. Mrs. Mills—we've got a mutual admiration society going. Mrs. Hensley, Mr. Morrison, Mrs. Norris—always there. And others I know by face and not name. It is more a blessing for me than for them, I'm sure.

These are folks who have an abundance of love to give. But can't go out and give it. They have to wait for people to come in to their place before they can shower that love. It's kind of a "love retail outlet" over there.

You give a little of yourself; you get so much in return!

I run across a lot of folks who could use a little exchange of love from time to time. I think I know where there is a love-exchange right here in Winters. And they always welcome the business.

1988 Sno-Queen Contest rules

Rules for the contest are as follows:

—1. The contestant must be a student in grades 9-12 in Winters High School.

—2. The contestant must not be married or ever have been married.

—3. Each contestant must be sponsored by a local business. Each candidate can either secure or ask the Chamber to secure a sponsor for her.

—4. The sponsor shall pay an entry fee of $10 and the contestant shall pay an entry fee of $5 and complete and entry form, available at the Chamber Office and return it along with the entry fee to the Chamber Office before the deadline, 5 p.m. on Thursday, November 12.

—5. The contestant will meet at the First United Methodist Church Parlor, beginning at 9:30 a.m. on Saturday, December 5, to meet with the judges for individual interviews. Each girl will receive a number to be worn at all contest appearances. Street dress is appropriate for the interview (no jeans, etc.)

—6. Judges from outside the area of the local Chamber of Commerce will judge the contest.

—7. For the Parade, at 2 p.m. on Saturday, December 5, the contestant is responsible for her vehicle. Decorations should be paid for by the sponsor, if agreed upon, and the sponsor's name should appear in plain sight. The contestant is also responsible for her driver or escort.

—8. The contestant should wear formal dress for the Parade, as Parade appearance is one phase of the judging.

—9. Contestants must assemble at the Winters State Bank parking lot at 500 South Main Street, no later than 1:30 p.m. for the Parade. Their place in the Parade will be assigned at that time.

—10. After the Parade, contestants should go immediately into the Chamber Office, 118 West Dale Street. The new Sno-Queen and two runners-up will be presented in a ceremony in front of the Chamber Office.

—11. Upon winning the title of Sno-Queen, the young lady must fill certain obligations to represent the Winters Area Chamber of Commerce in helping to promote the Winters Area. Responsibilities to include appearing in local and area parades, assisting with ribbon cutting ceremonies, serving as hostess when needed, etc. If for any reason she cannot fulfill the duties expected or cannot complete the year, the First Runner-up will inherit the title.

A flower will be provided for each contestant for the Parade.

Picture Information

Stone's Studio at 818 Hutchings Avenue in Ballinger will make an 8 X 10 colored portrait of each contestant to be displayed in the Chamber Office prior to the contest day. The portraits can then be purchased from Stone's Studio for $15. If additional portraits are wanted Mr. Stone will furnish prices and information.

Mr. Stone would like for each contestant to come to the Studio in Ballinger, if it is possible to do so. More time can be taken for posing, etc. He can come to Winters one day for sittings should it be necessary.

The portraits must be made before Monday, November 23 in order for Mr. Stone to print and mount them for display.

*Please understand that having a portrait made is NOT a requirement for entry in the Sno-Queen Contest. Mr. Stone is just making this available to the contestants.

The boy's and girl's basketball scrimmage with Sacred Heart Catholic in San Angelo last week was a profitable learning experience.

The Pirate teams will meet Sacred Heart Catholic at Wingate, Monday, November 16 at 6 p.m. Admission—adults 50 cents, students 25 cents.

Thursday, November 19, the Pirate teams will travel to Winters to compete with the Winters 7th grade teams at 6 p.m. The bus will leave the Wingate campus at 5 p.m. We encourage parents and friends to support our teams. You may meet at the campus and drive with the Pirates to Winters. Let's support the Wingate Pirates this season by attending all their games.

The fifth and sixth grade students participated in the Weekly Reader survey on "Student's Opinion on Reading and TV" on Thursday, November 19. Mrs. Derington's fifth and sixth science classes will explore Larry Donica's cliché pit to collect rock specimens in order to perform a classification test.

Juanita Reyes met the requirements of the "Book-It" reading program and received a personal pizza at the Pizza Hut. We are proud for you, Juanita.

Congratulations to those in all grades who were winners at the Arts and Crafts Show last week.

We welcome Betty Thomason to the staff as school nurse. She began her work at the school this week.

Mrs. Sneed's third and fourth grade students have received letters from their pen pals in Branchland, West Virginia.

They also received a packet which included pamphlets giving information about West Virginia.

This is the second six-weeks testing period. Students, study for your test, do your best, make good grades, so you can take part in the extra events and have fun.

Four students from Mrs. Sneed's room have written about their visit to Circus Vargas and submitted them for publication. The students are, Juanita Reyes, Marcie Pritchard, Misti Kirby and Gregory Vidales.

Trip to the Circus
At the Circus we saw clowns and other things. My favorite part was when the men were on the highwire. They jumped rope on one leg. It was pretty exciting! I like the part when they brought in the elephants. They stood on one leg. There was an elephant that had a shiny silver made diamond quilt carved in a man and a lion. The elephant looked very pretty. The best part of the circus was when motorbikes were coming up on the highwire. That was so neat! Then we had to leave. It was the best time of my life.

Juanita Reyes
November 6, 1987 our class took a trip to the circus. We had a lot of fun. When we got there we had to give the man our tickets. We sat down and everybody watched as women came out. They were dancing women. Then some other women came out. They took up all three rings! They climbed up the ropes and began to do tricks. When they were through the ringmaster said, "Now it is time for clown alley." All of a sudden long strips of funny pictures were coming up all over the place. When they were up all of the clowns came out and some clowns dressed up in big funny clown suits. When they were through some girls and boys came out and then the elephants came out. Then the very last act came. The motorcycles were on the wires and below them were girls on bars doing tricks. The lights came back on. Everybody started leaving. We left and went to eat and then we went home.

Marcie Pritchard
Trip to the Circus
One day my class and I went to the Circus and it was fun! We saw some dancers and the next thing I knew they were climbing a long rope. The swung and then they were holding the rope by their hand. Just by their hand! The men were swinging them and the women were going around in circles. The clowns were going by and the seller was going by. My very good friend Marcie shared her cotton candy with Juanita and I. And what I like the best was when the motorcycle rode on the highwire and at the bottom of the motorcycle are the box like things and some women are hanging on. The motorcycle goes around and the women do some tricks and then the show is over. Then we go to McDonald's.

Misti M. Kirby
The Circus Comes to Abilene
We went to the Circus. It was fun at the Circus. Pete Joe went to the Circus. We sat on the very top. We saw some

Chisholm Trail to have meeting

Thursday, November 19, is the date for the Annual Business Meeting of the Chisholm Trail Council which will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Council Service Center.

It will be preceded at 6:30 by a training session for Scouting Coordinators who are selected by the chartered partners to coordinate the Scouting program in their institution or organization. Scouting Coordinators are also voting members of the Council at the Annual Business Meeting.

Officers for the new year will be elected as well as members of the Executive Board, Advisory Council, and Council Members AT Large. Other highlights, will include progress reports from the committees, the Treasurers Report, and the Annual "state of the council" report by the Scout Executive.

This has been another year of membership growth in the 9½ county Chisholm Trail Council on top of the record growth in youth members in 1986. Summer camp attendance also had a good increase.

There will be no meal served at this meeting.

CJC sets annual drill team competition

The annual high school drill team competition at Cisco Junior College is set for Saturday, November 21. Teams from all around the big country will be competing for ratings and sweepstakes trophies. Competition includes team routines, of fier lines and soloist performances. The event is open to the public with a general admission of $1.

In addition to the competition, the "top ten high kickers" are selected prior to the announcement of awards. The day of events begins at 10 a.m. with final awards presented at approximately 2:30 p.m. The CJC Wrangler Belles are sponsors at the competition.

B.A.S.A. SOCCER By J. F. PSUTKA, M.D.

The Fall soccer season has ended and we are now involved in post season play and preparation for the Spring season.

On Saturday, November 7, 1987, we sponsored a skills contest for all children who wanted to participate. The children were judged on certain skill aspects of soccer such as juggling, speed, passing ability and kicking. They will receive a badge either in gold, silver or bronze, which will indicate the skill level attained in that particular skill. The day went well and we completed all the skills in rapid time. Thank you to Susan Schwertner who organized the contest and had the whole football field well organized. We were able to accomplish a good deal in a short length of time and it was obvious that the children enjoyed competing against a standard.

The soccer champions, the Spurs and the Cosmos will be playing in the Tournament of Champions in Lubbock, December 5 and 6. This will be a final and they will not have to go to Garland the following week. There has been a good deal of confusion and changing of dates at the head office of the N.T.S.S.A. We did not receive a final confirmation until last week. The confusion and delay has been caused by the introduction of a new play off system and the relatively few number of teams in Division III. However, it is now finalized.

The Saturday, November 21, 1987, we will feature a soccer allstar exhibition in conjunction with the Noon Lions Club. The Ballinger Allstar Soccer players, in the Under 12 and Under 10 age groups will play allstar teams from Coleman. We will be playing at Bearcat Stadium. The first game, the Under 10's will

Runnels 4-H held food competition

The Runnels County 4-H Food Show was conducted Saturday in the National Guard Armory. Champions in each category will go to district competition scheduled for November 21 at Angelo State University.

Best project record in junior competition went to Brook Sikes, while Jennifer Bickel was the intermediate winner and Audra Dunn was winning senior. The best planned menu award in junior division went to Christy McKinney. Angie Hohensee was best in the intermediate division and Brandy Tucker was winner in the senior division.

Junior Division

American Heart Association honors memory of loved ones

The American Heart Association helps Texans honor the memory of loved ones, neighbors, or business associates through a gift of life.

Besides the death of a loved one, a wedding anniversary, birthday, an illness, a holiday, or many other occasions can be remembered with a gift to the American Heart Association," said Michael H. Crawford, M.D. Dr. Crawford is Co-Director of the Division of Cardiology at the University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio and President of the American Heart Association in Texas.

When a contribution is made to the American Heart Association, an appropriate card from the donor to the recipient is sent by AHA. The recipient also receives a thank you card to mail to the donor acknowledging the donor's thoughtfulness.

The amount of the contribution is not disclosed to the recipient and the contribution can be from one individual or from many, such as a family or a group of employees.

"A memorial is a meaningful way to tell the family of the deceased that the life that has just passed will continue to live on through the work of the Association," Crawford said.

Through memorials the AHA receives valuable support that is needed for our lifesaving efforts through research, professional and public education, and community programs.

During the July 1, 1986 through June 30, 1987, AHA fiscal year $1,046,141 was given through the memorial program in Texas to fight against our number one killer—heart disease. In 1986, over 50,000 people in Texas died of heart disease. The AHA's mission is to prevent premature death and disabilities from cardiovascular diseases, including heart attack and stroke.

For more information about memorial contributions, call your local American Heart Association, listed in the White Pages of your telephone book.

Life care communities

You may have heard of "life care communities" built and funded by elderly people who want the convenience and security of a well run condominium. You may have heard that some of these communities have gone bankrupt, leaving their clients with shattered dreams and empty pocketbooks.

If you are considering a life care community, check out the sponsor or developer. An organization's claim of church sponsorship, for example, or the word "Christian" in its name guarantees neither church affiliation nor management expertise.

Make sure you have a thorough understanding of the structure. Be suspicious of one time only payment plans, or guaranteed fixed monthly fees. It would be wise to get the community's audited financial statement and have your own lawyer or accountant examine it and do further investigation.

Finally, if the community has not yet been built, make sure

In the coming weeks you will see considerable media coverage on a committee convened to "reform" the workers' compensation system. Current legislation mandates that an indepth study of our policies, procedures and benefits relating to workers' compensation be compared to that of other states with the intent of "reforming" our system.

As I'm sure you know, workers' compensation insurance is widely believed to be a system of mandatory insurance coverage that protects the employee who may be injured in the performance of his duties. Truly, it is much more than that and likely protects employers at least as much as employees. The employer protection comes from the fact that employee liability is constant and fixed for any given type of injury. In other words, if you lose your right index finger at the middle joint, it's worth 45 weeks of disability payments whether you are in Plano or Plainview, Dallas or Dumas. (Most people wouldn't sell their index finger that cheaply.)

From the employee's standpoint there is at least the certainty that employees can collect, under the most serious circumstances, disability payments for up to 401 weeks. (The amount per week is figured on a formula based on the amount of income the employee makes per week.)

The real problem I have is, when you start "reforming," who are you going to penalize? Do you increase benefits for employees thereby raising premiums for already financially embattled employers or do your money is placed in escrow until the facility is substantially completed.

you make a better deal for employers thereby making the theoretical index finger worth less? While a rose by any other name may truly smell like a rose, reform by any name does not necessarily carry the connotation of something better. Perhaps legislative service has made me cynical but I have come to the point where I get highly nervous when folks start talking about "reform" this and "reform" that.

Since virtually everyone of us is either an employee or an employer, I am going to suggest to you that this is one program that merits your close scrutiny regardless of your position. Let's all see what "reform" turns out to be and try to be sure it is something we can live with.

Q. How can I prevent meringues from weeping?

A. No need for tears. Meringue is less likely to "weep," or leak moisture, if it is baked on a hot filling. Seal meringue to edge of pie crust. Bake pie at 400 degrees for 10 minutes and cool gradually.

Q. What are the benefits of the oils or fats found in fish?

A. Omega-3 oil, a polyunsaturated oil that's unique to fish, has been associated with lowering the risk of death from heart disease for some people. Seafood varies in levels of omega-3, but fattier fishes such as mackerel and salmon are the richest sources.

Trash collection normally made on Thursday the 26th, will be collected Wednesday the 25th. Normal collection on Friday the 27th.

Senator Lloyd Bentsen Watching Washington

Senator Lloyd Bentsen released a new Library of Congress study that shows U.S. oil reserves this year will reach their lowest level since 1950 and oil production its lowest level since 1965.

Bentsen said that he is sending copies of the report to President Reagan and Energy Secretary John Herrington as part of his continuing effort to convince them of the need for an effective U.S. energy policy.

"What this Library of Congress study shows is that our reserves are at the lowest point—25.4 billion barrels—they have been since 1950, and production of oil in this country is at its lowest level—2.8 billion barrels a year—since 1965," Bentsen said.

"It's an affirmation of what some of us have been saying for some time," Bentsen said.

"This calamitous plunge in critical oil reserves will continue until a national energy policy is crafted to promote recovery in domestic oil production," he said.

Bentsen, Chairman of the

Christmas Wagon Train benefits WTRC

Wagons and mounted horsemen will retrace trails of the old beginning in December with the Christmas Wagon Train and Trail Ride from El Paso to Abilene. The trail ride, beginning with a barbecue in El Paso November 29, will end in Abilene with a celebration party on December 30.

A unique Christmas dinner and celebration will be held in camp on the trail.

Riding clubs, wagons, and mounted horsemen will be joining the ride along the trail, and plan to participate for several days or weeks.

Any person or group wishing to participate in the trail ride or special activities at towns along the trail should contact Wagonmaster Lawrence Johnson at 915/677-7753 in Abilene.

Farm-City Week to be observed

Farm-City Week, November 20-26, is observed nationally the week prior to Thanksgiving to focus attention on the teamwork of farm and city people in growing, processing, marketing and consuming food and fiber.

In an effort to create better understanding between rural and urban dwellers, the Kiwanis Clubs and many other organizations will join in Farm-City Week observances in many areas, says Dr. Carl Anderson, Marketing economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

During the weeklong observance, participating clubs and groups are urged to organize and conduct projects that will

Senate Finance Committee, said this underscores the need for a national energy policy as part of the solution to the rising U.S. trade deficit.

"It shows what happens when we don't have an energy policy, and it shows that we're becoming overly dependent on foreign oil—particularly Middle East oil. It's also a big part of our trade deficit," Bentsen said.

"As long as you have this galloping increase in importation of foreign oil, you're not going to turn that deficit around," he said.

Bentsen said it is important that key administration officials see this report.

I'm sending it to the Secretary of Energy, Mr. Herrington, and I'm also sending it to the President of the United States," Bentsen said.

"This is part of my continuing campaign to give us an energy policy that'll make us more energy independent in this country and to restore some of the jobs that we need, some of the drilling we need in that oil industry," Senator Bentsen said.

Fees for the ride are $50 for wagons, $25 for riders and children under 12 years of age are free. Badges, issued at the mobil office must be worn at all times. Check in and out as much as you wish. We will average 25 miles per day, five days a week. Rest days are Mondays and Thursdays. There will be a benefit dance December 30 at the Ponderosa Ballroom in Abilene.

All proceeds from the Trail Ride will benefit the West Texas Rehabilitation Center, a private, non-profit organization with facilities in Abilene and San Angelo. WTRC provides rehabilitation services for the handicapped of all ages regardless of the ability to pay and will serve more than 11,000 individuals in 1987.

bring together urban and rural residents to discuss their concerns and jointly develop ideas about agricultural and industrial issues, Anderson says.

Nationally, one of every five jobs in private enterprises is aligned with agriculture, Anderson notes.

Farm-City Week observances this month will be keyed to the theme, "Farm and City: Partners in Progress," Anderson adds.

Among some of the special observances planned are salutes to agricultural leaders through agricultural achievement award ceremonies; tours of various kinds, with farmers as guests for industrial site tours; special activities for youth, including possible agricultural career days; exhibits in the city mall

RRC proposes rule changes

The Railroad Commission has published for public comment rules amendments that would exempt certain farm and ranch vehicles from RRC registration and liability insurance requirements.

Under the proposed rule change, a motor vehicle controlled and operated by a farmer or rancher and transporting the farmer's or rancher's agricultural or horticultural commodities would not have to be registered with the Commission or be insured with $500,000 single limit liability insurance coverage. Vehicles used to transport supplies to the farm and ranch of the farmer or rancher would receive the same exemption.

The rule change has been published in the Texas Register for a 30-day public comment period, after which the Commission will consider permanently adopting the change.

Earlier this year, the Commission adopted rules requiring any individual or company which uses any motor vehicle weighing 10,000 pounds or more to "transport property in furtherance of any commercial enterprise" to register the vehicle with the Commission and show proof of at least $500,000 in single limit liability insurance. The Commission charges a $1 registration fee per vehicle and a $25 insurance filing fee when insurance companies register commercial vehicle coverage for their clients.

The registration and insurance requirements apply to commercial vehicles weighing 10,000 pounds or more by themselves, as well as to vehicles weighing 10,000 pounds or more when loaded or when pulling a trailer or towed vehicle.

The Commission drafted the registration and insurance requirements to implement Senate Bill 595 and House Bill 908 passed by the legislature this year.

RRC levies fines

The Railroad Commission assessed $3,000 in administrative penalties to four oil and gas operators for problems under the Commission's well plugging rules.

The operators agreed to the penalties without admitting any violation of Commission rules.

Companies and penalties included McDonald and Midkiff of Midland, $1,000 for one inactive and unplugged well each on the Midkiff B and C leases, Upton County; Largo Oil Company of Longview, $1,000 for one well each on the Meek Ranch lease, Sutton County and the E. T. Walker lease, Colorado County; Roy T. Rimmer of Fort Worth (doing business as Belmont Oil Company), $500 for a well on the Boyd lease, Brown County; and Hunter Midkiff of Midland, $500 for a well on the McDonald and Midkiff lease, Midland County.

To date in 1987, the Commission has levied more than $745,000 in pollution and well plugging penalties. Last year the Commission assessed more than $1.6 million in such penalties.

Americans today spend far less of their take-home pay on food than people in other countries. In the U.S., that averages about 15 cents of each dollar of disposable income, Anderson adds.

Consumers, producers work as a food and fiber team

Farmers and urban residents depend on each other for products and services that are essential to modern business and lifestyles.

They work together as partners in processing, marketing and consuming food and fiber products.

Movement of food and fiber from the farm or ranch in Texas to the supermarket and family table provides jobs and income for almost a fourth of the working force, says Dr. Carl G. Anderson, economist marketing with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"One out of every 40 Texans is a farmer or rancher, and around 25 percent of the state's retail trade business is directly associated with agricultural production and selling of food and fiber products," Anderson says.

The economist notes that many businesses, financial institutions and individuals are involved in providing supplies, credit and services to farmers and ranchers, and in processing and marketing agricultural commodities.

"Nationally, one of every five jobs in private enterprises is tied to agriculture," Anderson adds.

With $8.5 billion in cash receipts from agricultural commodities in 1986, Texas ranks third nationally behind California and Iowa, he says.

"Texas, however, is traditionally number one in the sales of cattle and calves, cotton, grain sorghum, sheep and wool, goats and mohair, cabbage and spinach," Anderson says.

Texas' farm real estate assets for 1987 are estimated at $64 billion, compared with $72 billion a year earlier, he notes. With 160,000 farms in Texas, assets average $402,000 per farm, although many commercial size, full-time operators have far more than a million dollars invested in their farm or ranch businesses, Anderson adds.

"Producing an abundance of high quality food and fiber is inherent to American agriculture. Americans spend far less of their take-home pay on food than people in other countries of the world. Today, that averages about 15 cents of every dollar of disposable income, with 5 cents of that spent on food eaten outside the home," says Anderson.

"Together, farm and city people make the best food and fiber in the world. This gives America the capacity to feed its own people and to export for economic gain as well as for humanitarian purposes," he adds.

In the U.S., about one of every 40 persons resides on a farm or ranch. The proportion of U.S. residents living on farms has fallen from 30.1 percent in 1920 to 2.5 percent today. That compares with about 70 percent of people living on farms in India, 36 percent in Mexico and 14 percent in the Soviet Union, Anderson says.

Grant Teaff to keynote Texas Farm Bureau annual meeting

Grant Teaff, head football coach at Baylor University and the dean of Southwest Conference football coaches, will be the keynote speaker at the 54th Texas Farm Bureau meeting in Lubbock November 29-December 2.

Teaff will speak the morning of November 30. Also speaking that morning will be TFB President S. M. True, TFB Secretary-Treasurer Neal Burnett, will give the annual report that morning.

TFB Executive Director Warren Newberry will present his annual administrative report on Tuesday, December 1.

Some 1,300 voting delegates, representing 216 county Farm Bureaus, will meet in the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center to adopt state policies for the state's largest farm organization to follow in 1988.

The delegates will also approve resolutions on national issues that will be forwarded to the American Farm Bureau Foundation annual meeting January 10-14 in New Orleans.

Teaff, a native of Snyder (Scurry County), has been head football coach at Baylor for 16 seasons. Through the 1986 season, Teaff had a 90-76-5 record.

Under Teaff, Baylor went to six bowl games. He has won SWC Coach of the Year honors six times. His overall coaching record was 132-122-7 through 1986.

He has a M.S. in administrative education from McMurry College where he earned All-Texas Conference honors as a linebacker.

Six special conferences will be held November 30 in conjunction with the TFB convention. A Young Farmer and Rancher Conference will be held at 6:30 a.m. featuring Dr. James Blakeley, a motivational speaker from Wharton. The other conference will begin at 1 p.m.

Soil conservation of terraces

While discussing terrace systems in the Soil Conservation Service office recently it was brought out that there are approximately 168 miles of diversion terraces in Runnels County. It was stated that the majority of these diversions were installed to reduce soil erosion on the slopes below.

Some of these structures date back 70 or more years and were constructed by disk plows, turning plows and road maintainers. The early diversions were more like ditches without much planning given to proper grade and flow capacity, and have since been replaced as survey and construction equipment as well as technical knowledge improved.

Other popular uses of the diversion terrace here are: divert water away from active gullies or critical eroding areas, increase the drainage area about ponds, and divert water away from farmsteads, ranch roads and other improvements.

Except where located on cultivated land the diversion terrace is seeded to improved grasses or allowed to return to native grasses and forbs. The grade of the diversion channel should not exceed one half of one percent (0.5%). Any need for a flow grade greater than this is usually met by installing a waterway which requires more effort and care in establishing a grass cover to hold the soil in place.

In planning a diversion terrace the following should be considered: outlet conditions,

Christmas Seals Campaign®

kickoff

State Treasurer Ann Richards today, November 9, kicked-off the 1987 Christmas Seals Campaign for the American Lung Association of Texas urging Texans to donate to the 80-year-old campaign that annually wages a battle against lung disease.

Originated in 1907 by Emily Bissell, a pioneer social worker in Wilmington, Delaware, Christmas Seals® were then known as "The Stamps to Stamp Out Tuberculosis," Richards said. "Over the years," she said, "the Seals bearing the double-barred cross have become an American tradition and a symbol of the battle against all lung diseases."

"Christmas Seals® are the primary support of the American Lung Association's programs in research, smoking cessation, patient education, medical training and public education on air pollution and occupational health," she said. "It is vital that increased funding be made available to the ALA's growing research program and educational activities if we are to lessen the tragic impact of lung disease on our society."

Richards pointed out that last year 6,802 Texans died of lung cancer, making it the largest category of cancer deaths in the state. Another 3,688 Texans died of chronic obstructive pulmonary disease, the fifth leading cause of death in the state in 1986.

"It is imperative that the American Lung Association lead an intensified research effort so that, someday, the American people will be freed from this intolerable burden," she said.

Urging increased support of the Christmas Seal Campaign®, Richard said, "It is funding from this source that makes it possible for ALA to continue its effort to eliminate these negative statistics and work toward the conquest of all lung diseases."

Those who do not receive a supply of Christmas Seals® in the mail should call the American Lung Association of Texas at 343-0502, in Austin or 1-800-252-LUNG statewide.

Thaw your turkey the right way

Because a large frozen turkey can take several days to defrost in the refrigerator, people start to take short-cuts like putting the bird on the kitchen counter to thaw, says food safety expert Marilyn Haggard. This practice allows salmonella bacteria to flourish. "The only safe way to thaw a turkey in a hurry is to use a microwave oven or to thaw in cool water in the sink, changing the water every 30 minutes," explains the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service specialist. "If you don't want to bother with thawing, you would be better off buying a fresh turkey, which can be kept refrigerated for 1-2 days before cooking."

Piano students travel to Hardin-Simmons

Eight piano students of Susan Conner recently participated in the Ensemble Festival sponsored by Abilene Music Teachers. The festival was held on the campus of Hardin-Simmons University. The students played duets and two-piano duos for a judge from the Abilene association. All of the Winters students came home with Division I Superior ratings. These students were Linsey Brown, Robyn Parramore, Jamie Bahlman, Jennifer Boles, Brenna Mikeska, Susan Minzenmayer, Brandon Boles and Lynda Billups.

Their judges were Anita Harrison, Alice Welch and Tom Thompson. Susan Conner also judged ensemble performances of other teachers during the day.

Approximately 200 students from the Abilene area participated in the annual festival.

Air Force looking for good nurses

Nursing is a profession that offers more than ample opportunity for employment and a particularly attractive nursing program can be found in the United States Air Force, said Captain Stephen H. Turner, Air Force Recruiter, 2615 Avenue "E" East, Suite 121, Arlington, Texas 76011.

The Air Force is looking for registered nurses from baccalaureate nursing programs to become commissioned officers. They are being sought to provide quality health care in a variety of clinical settings.

Nurses with experience in mental health, anesthesia, midwifery, operating room, and other clinical specialties are also eligible to apply for a commission.

"The Air Force offers a very progressive nursing program and many opportunities for personal and professional growth," says Captain Turner.

Air Force nurses are commissioned either as second or first lieutenants, based on their education. Their initial obligation is three years and all nurses are given a base assignment before taking the oath of office.

After commissioning, they attend a two-week Medical Service Officer Orientation courses

Karate team wins big in competition

Patrick McDaniel's Winters Kajukimbo Karate Team placed high in Eunice, New Mexico Saturday, November 14.

Those bringing home awards were: Ricky Smith 1st in Karate; Josh Rains, 2nd in Karate; Linda Rains, 1st in Karate and 1st in Sparring.

Sixteen students from Abilene and Winters participated and brought home 32 trophies.

According to U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics estimates, the job classification with the most openings likely between now and 1990 is that of computer service technician.

at Sheppard Air Force Base, near Wichita Falls, Texas.

Instruction covers such subjects as Air Force customs and courtesies, military justice, physical fitness, Air Force medicine, and nursing responsibilities.

Following their orientation, many newly graduated RSN nurses attend a five-month internship at an Air Force hospital which may also be the site of their final assignment. The internship provides a smooth transition of the initial active duty nurse from beginning practitioner to that of a professional Air Force Nurse Corps officer.

From the beginning of their Air Force nursing careers, nurses take an active part in planning their futures. "The Air Force Nurse Corps is interested in the individual's goals and aspirations," Captain Turner said. Varied assignments, continuing education, training in specialty areas, and advanced education in civilian institutions all help a nurse to pursue a career plan that is virtually unlimited.

As commissioned officers, they enjoy an attractive package of entitlements. Those who elect to make the Air Force a career can look forward to timely promotions, if the compete favorably with their peers. They may decide to specialize in areas such as environmental health or anesthesia.

"Basic entitlements include comprehensive medical and dental care, 30 days of vacation with pay each year along with the normal pay increase for promotions, longevity, and cost of living."

All Air Force members have the use of a wide range of base facilities and recreational activities. These include a well-stocked "department store" and a commissary, the Air Force's equivalent to a supermarket. Recreational activities on most bases include a theater, bowling alley, golf course, swimming pools, gym, and social clubs that normally feature live entertainment and a full-service menu.

More information is available by visiting Captain Turner at the Air Force Recruiting Office at 2615 Avenue "E" East, Suite 121, Arlington, Texas 76011, or call (817) 640-6469.

Memo from the Chamber of Commerce

This is a busy time in our town. That is why it is good to be a part of the activity.

Saturday we attended the Opening and Ribbon Cutting of Mike's Western Leather Shop. Winters is proud to have a store of this quality. Mike has done work from some notable people in the entertainment world and we welcome Mike, Debbie and son to our community.

The new Peachtree Plaza is opening soon and recently gave Complimentary Meals to many of the downtown business people. It is a lovely restaurant and deserves our patronage, along with all the other fine restaurants in the city. Winters is fortunate to have so many good eating places. Places we can be proud to go and take our guests.

The Christmas Parade is progressing with twenty one girls entered in the Sno-Queen Contest. These girls will make a beautiful addition to our Annual Parade. We urge all businesses, clubs, individuals, and/or groups to enter the Parade and be a part of the downtown excitement of the year's annual event. See the Entry Blank in this paper.

Come by the Chamber Office during the next few weeks and see the display of gifts to be given away by the Winters Area Businesses during the "Late Night Shopping". The merchants will be remaining open until 8 p.m. on the 27th of November, the 4th, 11th and 18th of December. This is for your Christmas Shopping convenience.

Texas taxes subsidizing other states

Texas Congressman Mickey Leland is leading an effort to get Texans their "fair share" of federal dollars for health and human services. "The health and human services area is the largest category of federal aid," said Leland, "and according to the Tax Foundation, Texans pay more taxes and get fewer federal benefits per capita than any other state.

As an example, Leland cites a recent report by the Sunbelt Institute that shows that Texans pay $1.59 in taxes for every $1 that returns to the state in federal aid. This is in sharp contrast to the new England and mid-Atlantic states. For example, New York contributes only seventy-five cents to the federal coffers for every dollar of federal aid it receives. Among those supporting the passage of HR 3187 is Congressman Ron Coleman of El Paso who stated that "Texas tax dollars have been subsidizing the programs of other states long enough."

HR 3187, sponsored by Congressman Henry Waxman of California, would extend the authorization of appropriations for services currently funded under the Alcohol, Drug Abuse and Mental Health Block Grant and the Emergency Substance Abuse Treatment Services Act, both of which expired September 30, 1987.

HR 3187 also includes the "Fairness Formula," which would allocate funds according to population, need, and ability to pay. This reallocation would significantly increase Texas' portion of federal funds and would reflect more closely Texas' population relative to other states.

Bob Dickson, Executive Director of the Texas Commission on Alcohol and Drug Abuse, reports that the proposed reallocation under HR 3187 would result in more substance abuse programs for Texans. "Our allocation would increase substantially," said Dickson, "allowing us to fund much-

Leland notes that the need for a revised allocation formula has been recognized not only by Congress, but by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services and the General Accounting Office. He feels that HR 3187 is the answer to that need, and that now is the time to take action to address it.

Many thoughtful, caring people have shown us how much we all need and appreciate our friends during trying times. For all the calls, cards, food, visits, and time everyone gave to show their concern while Tommy was in the hospital and since his return home, we thank you so very much.

August sales of Savings Bonds up in August

United States Savings Bonds sales in Texas for the period October 1986 through August 1987 amounted to $343,282,292, an increase of $5.5 million or almost two percent over the same period a year ago, T. J. Morrow, District Director for the U.S. Savings Bonds Division in Texas, announced. These sales represent 88.5 percent of the state's 1987 assigned dollar goal of $188 million.

Sales of Series EE Bonds amounted to $5,300 during August in Runnels County, Judge E. C. Grindstaff Volunteer County Chairman, said. The October 1986-August 1987 total for the County was $91,735, which represents 36.7% of the County's 1987 dollar goal.

Nationally, sales of Series EE Bonds in August totaled $461 million and brought sales of U.S.

Savings Bonds to 19.84 billion for fiscal year 1987, an increase of 37% over the same period a year ago. The amount outstanding in U.S. Savings Bonds as of August 31, 1987 was $97.99 billion, up 14% over August last year.

For E. EE Bonds held for five years or longer, the average rate for the five year period, ending October 31, 1987 is 8.75 percent. All Series EE Bonds purchased on or after November 1, 1982 and held at least five years will earn 85 percent of the average market yield on Treasury marketable securities. Bonds held less than five years earn interest on a fixed, graduated rate.

Cook-Off Champs

Best of Show

#1 Quilt Contest by Virgie Richburg of Tuscola shown by Jewel Kraatz and Margaret Leathers

Quilt Show was a great success

Throng of visitors viewed the many attractive quilts displayed at the Rock Hotel over the weekend.

"Best of Show" was awarded a Sun Burst pattern entered by Virgie Richburg of Tuscola. This quilt won first place in the pieced quilt division of which there were 16 entries. Second place was awarded a wedding ring quilt entered by Jimmie Davis. Cheryl Bryant received third place for a small star pattern.

All quilts in the embroidered division were in cross stitch. Louise Cecil received first place for a "Home Sweet Home" design. Doxie Lou Marks placed second with a blue cross stitch pattern made by her mother the late Mrs. W. H. Korngay. Jewell Kraatz was awarded third place for a yellow rose design.

Of the two entries in the painted quilt division, Virgie Richburg placed first with her antique cars and Maudie Bartee was second with Presidents of the United States.

In the applique division first place went to Louise Cecil for a butterfly design; second place for Dutch Boy by Bobbie Bowman and third place for Rose of Sharon by Rosemary Bennie.

The antique division was well represented with Noma Eoff taking first place, Hazel Badgett second with a quilt made by her mother in the late 1920's, and Nina Hale third with an early version of Dutch Boy.

Baby quilts are always a delight and again first place went to Mrs. Richburg for a butterfly design. Second place was received by Mrs. Fred C. Young for her Texas Star made for a great-grandchild. Third place winner was appliqued animals, that had been slightly padded to give a realistic appearance. The quilt belonged to Katy Rives and was made by Sheryl Steffer in 1978.

It is so easy to be good-natured I wonder why anybody takes the trouble to be anything else.

Grandmother's Prize Winning "Dump" Stew

by Edna England

The secret of good stew is not to measure anything, dump everything into a heavy kettle, some fresh ingredients and some "Must Go" from the refrigerator.

To Begin:

Sprinkle a generous amount of Lawry's Seasoned Salt and Accent over approximately 1 1/2 pounds of lean ground meat and a little more than 1 pound of fat trimmed stew meat. Brown in large kettle, stirring often, until brown.

Add lots of chopped onion and a good bit of chopped celery, cook until limp. Add about 1 quart of tomato juice and some water. Continue to cook while ingredients are added.

Add course cut (or chunk) potatoes and carrots, 2 beef bouillon cubes and more water if needed.

Don't forget the "Must Go" ingredients from the refrigerator. I used: pinto beans (that had been cooked 2 days before with pieces of ham); Chili (made the day before, on a cold frost day); corn; green sweet pepper, chopped, (beginning to go limp).

Add a handful and a little more of small elbo macaroni. Several shakes of parsley salt, black pepper and salt to taste.

After tasting the stew it needed more pizzazz, so I added more ground chili pepper, red pepper, and a dip or two of freeze dried chives.

Simmer about 45 minutes to one hour while I dressed to hurry to the Winters Stew Cook-Off.

Stew Recipe

by Linda Dry

- 3 lbs. arm roast cut into bite size pieces
- 3 lbs. potatoes diced
- 3 lbs. carrots sliced
- 1 large onion diced
- 1 pkg. Lawry's stew seasoning mix
- 2.8 oz. cans tomato sauce
- 1-15 oz. can corn
- salt and peper to taste

Place all ingredients in large crock pot and cook overnight on medium setting.

Stew recipe

by Cheryl Bryan

Brown 1 pound lean hamburger meat. Drain.

Add: 1/2 pound thinly sliced carrots; 4 diced potatoes; 1 diced onion, 4 ribs celery diced; 1 cup whole kernel corn; 2 cups canned tomatoes; 1/2 can Rotel tomatoes

Add enough water to barely cover.

Cook in crockpot on high for 6 hours or overnight.

Add 1 teaspoon salt, pepper and homemade seasoning salt to taste.

Arts and Crafts Show well attended

The 17th Annual Arts and Crafts Show was a huge success. The exhibitors were of the highest quality and were pleased to be a part of the successful event in Winters.

The Annual Stew Cook-Off was won by Edna England. Second place went to Mrs. Rick (Linda) Dry and third place to Cheryl Bryan. Our appreciation to all the cooks and the excellent judges who traveled to Winters and tasted all 39 pots of stew! Thanks to Jack Cowan, San Angelo Standard Times; Kim Hope and Jess Cagle from the Abilene Reporter News.

The Chamber would like to express our appreciation to all the people who helped and worked many hours before, during and after the show. And to the great people in the Winters Area that attended and supported the show.

A great deal of good can be done in the world if one is not too careful who gets the credit.

Flag presentation

Woodmen of the World Lodge 1111, of Winters, presented American Flags last week to Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 9193 to be utilized for local cemeteries and at the VFW Post to honor local, deceased veterans.

The flags were presented to the VFW Post

Commander Terry Steward, Sr. Vice Commander Christian J. Farburg, and Jr. Vice Commander Donnie Oats by J. B. Ashley, field representative for the local Woodmen of the World fraternal insurance association.

Donations to Rock Hotel still coming

The Total Teens presented a gift to the Rock Hotel fund Sunday. The plaque will be in honor of the Winters Area residents who so graciously helped in their drive for money. Their sponsors are Janice Pruser and Mary Jane Blackshear.

Other donors are: Frances Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hoppe, Mrs. E. N. Reid, Jim Hatler and Doris Stocker, for her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Reid. An addition was made to the Pioneer Memorial Plaque for Edward H. and Octavia Colburn by Thelma Lemly and Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Colburn. Mrs. Virgil Roberts will provide a framed blue-bonnet picture for the Hotel.

Museum memberships are available for $5 each and are always welcome. They may be mailed to the Z. I. Hale Museum, P.O. Box 42, or given to members. Memorials are also available.

An overflowing mailbox is an invitation to burglars

An overflowing mailbox is, at best, a way to damage or destroy mail and, at worst, an invitation to burglars. San Antonio Division General Manager Joseph G. Schraer warned residents throughout the postal division area.

"Before you pack up and leave for vacation, contact your post office and ask them to hold your mail while you are away," Schraer said, "or arrange with a neighbor to take in your mail and check your house daily while you are gone."

Schraer said arrangements can be made with your post office to hold your mail up to 30 days by filling out a Change of Address Order, Form 3575, giving the dates that you want your mail held at the post office, or completing a special "Hold Mail" local form available at some post offices, or simply writing a note to your letter carrier stating the dates to hold your mail. The request must be signed by the requester.

If you return from your vacation early, notify your post office to resume delivery of your mail. Otherwise, delivery will resume the day after the ending date of your request.

Schraer said the post office provides this service to prevent earmarking a home as a target for possible burglary and to safeguard the mail for the customer.

The alternative may be letting mail overflow from a receptacle, possibly to be damaged by vandals, animals or weather conditions, or to be a clear signal that no one is home.

The Thanksgiving and Christmas holiday season is approaching when many postal customers are away from home. Take precautions to protect your mail and home.

Come join our Christmas Parade

Nineteen service pins were awarded. Raymond Hash received a 40-year membership pin. Others were given 25, 20, 10 and 5-year service pins.

Lucille Alston was installed as president of the Women's Auxiliary. Marcia Kerr is vice president and Becky Kresta is secretary-treasurer.

Crime of The Month

We all are subjected to news and information concerning drug abuse and the damage that it causes not only to the individual but also to the family unit and society as a whole. We are more educated in the area of drug abuse than we have ever been but the problem still is with us. We need your help in combating this problem.

You as an individual can make a difference? It's easy! Get involved! If you have knowledge of drug abuse, possession, or manufacture, please don't keep quiet about it. Pick up the telephone and call RUNNELS COUNTY CRIMESTOPPERS at 365-2111 or dial the OPERATOR and ask for ENTERPRISE 67574. As always, you do not have to give us your name and your information will be worth a cash reward if it leads to the arrest of any drug offender.

North Runnels Hospital Home Health Agency to offer free classes

The North Runnels Hospital Home Health Agency will offer a cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) class FREE of charge to the general public as part of their celebration of "National HomeCare Week", November 29-December 5, 1987. The class will be taught to meet the guidelines published by the American Heart Association and participants who successfully complete the course will receive an American Heart Association CPR card.

The class will be held at the North Runnels Hospital from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday, December 5, 1987. Dress will be informal (jeans are recommended) and participants will be asked to bring a sack lunch for the noon break. Iced tea will be provided.

Advance registration is required and a maximum of twelve (12) students will be accepted for this class. To register, please call 754-5097 between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. The FIRST twelve to pre-register will be accepted. The course is FREE and the only requirements for participation are (1) pre-registration (deadline: 11-30-87), (2) a willingness to learn and (3) a sack lunch.

We cannot stress too much the importance how to do CPR. It is particularly important for parents, teachers, coaches and

Bronte advances to state tourney

Bronte is headed for the Class A girls state volleyball tournament this weekend in Austin.

The Lady Longhorns defeated Bryson 15-9, 15-7 in the semifinals and then beat Windthorst 15-7, 8-15, 15-7 in the title match to capture the regional tournament championship. Bronte will take a 15-5 record to Austin.

In the Region I-3A tournament in Lubbock, however, Breckenridge was eliminated losing 15-7, 16-4 to Alpine in the semifinals.
